Russia attacks Ukraine; peace in Europe 'shattered'

By YURAS KARMANAU, JIM HEINTZ, VLADIMIR ISACHENKOV and DASHA LITVINOVA
 Associated Press

KYIV, Ukraine — Russia launched a wide-ranging attack on Ukraine on Thursday, hitting cities and bases with airstrikes or shelling, as civilians piled into trains and cars to flee. Ukraine's government said Russian tanks and troops rolled across the border in a "full-scale war" that could rewrite the geopolitical order and whose fallout already reverberated around the world.

In unleashing Moscow's most aggressive action since the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan in 1979, President Vladimir Putin deflected global condemnation and cascading new sanctions — and chillingly referred to his country's nuclear arsenal. He threatened any foreign country attempting to interfere with "consequences you have never seen."

Ukraine's president said Russian forces were trying to seize the Chernobyl nuclear plant, site of the world's worst nuclear disaster, and Ukrainian forces were battling other troops just miles from Kyiv for control of a strategic airport. Large explosions were heard in the capital there and in other cities, and people massed in train stations and took to roads, as the government said the former Soviet republic was seeing a long-anticipated invasion from the east, north and south.

The chief of the NATO alliance said the "brutal act of war" shattered peace in Europe, joining a chorus of world leaders who decried the attack, which could cause massive casualties, topple Ukraine's democratically elected government and upend the post-Cold War security order. The conflict was already shaking global financial markets: Stocks plunged and oil prices soared amid concerns that heating bills and food prices would skyrocket.

Condemnation rained down not only from the U.S. and Europe, but from South Korea, Australia and beyond — and many governments readied new sanctions. Even friendly leaders like Hungary's Viktor Orban sought to distance themselves from Putin.

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy cut diplomatic ties with Moscow and declared martial law.

"As of today, our countries are on different sides of world history," Zelenskyy tweeted. "Russia has embarked on a path of evil, but Ukraine is defending itself and won't give up its freedom."

His adviser Mykhailo Podolyak said: "A full-scale war in Europe has begun. ... Russia is not only attacking Ukraine, but the rules of normal life in the modern world."

While some nervous Europeans speculated about a possible new world war, the U.S. and its NATO partners have so far shown no indication they would join in a war against Russia. They instead mobilized troops and equipment around Ukraine's western flank — as Ukraine pleaded for defense assistance and help protecting its airspace.

In Washington, President Joe Biden convened a meeting of the National Se

Winter 2022 in West Texas Remains in Extreme Drought

Permian Basin Underground Water Conservation District
 P.O. Box 1314, 708 West Saint Peter St.

The U.S. Drought Monitor reveals both Martin and Howard counties to be in Extreme Drought. The Permian Basin Underground Water Conservation District monitors the drought conditions diligently to better communicate the importance of conserving water. Keeping the present-day drought conditions in mind, the PBUWCD would like to offer a few helpful tips on how to save water and use it wisely this winter season to help reduce water waste.

Tip 1 – Insulate water pipes around the house to prevent them from breaking, to reduce heat loss and to save energy. When they're not insulated, it takes longer for water to heat up, meaning it's running for longer periods of time. To prevent pipes from bursting or freezing when temperatures drop, winterize outdoor spigots. Extremely low temperatures can cause the water inside your plumbing to expand and burst.

Tip 2 – After any thaws, check for any leaks. Look out for leaky faucets, dripping water from shower heads, rusting pipes and signs of water damage. If any leaks are discovered, fix immediately to avoid wasting more water. This could also save you money on water and water damage repairs. A change in temperature can cause pipes to expand and contract, which can potentially lead to more leaks.

Tip 3 – Know where your property's main shut off valve is located. This will ensure that you'll be able to quickly shut off water and save hundreds of gallons of water in the event of a catastrophic leak.

Tip 4 – During the winter months, adjust your sprinkler timer. When temperatures are low, water requirements for your landscape are low as well.

Tip 5 – While waiting for water to get hot, collect the cold running water into a bucket or cup. You can use the collected water for watering your pets, indoor plants or for flushing the toilet.

For more ways to conserve water in and around your home, visit the Permian Basin UWCD's website at www.pbuwcd.com or please feel free to stop by our office at 708 W. St. Peter in Stanton.

ATTACKS

curity Council on Thursday to discuss Ukraine as the U.S. prepares new sanctions. Biden administration officials have signaled that two of the measures they were considering most strongly include hitting Russia's biggest banks and slapping on new export controls meant to starve Russia's industries and military of U.S. semiconductors and other high-tech components.

The attacks came first from the air. Later Ukrainian authorities described ground invasions in multiple regions, and border guards released footage showing a line of Russian military vehicles crossing into Ukraine's government-held territory. European authorities declared the country's airspace an active conflict zone.

In a worrying development, Zelenskyy said Russian forces were trying to seize the Chernobyl plant, and a Ukrainian official said Russian shelling hit a radioactive waste repository and an increase in radiation levels was reported. The official spoke on condition of anonymity to discuss the sensitive matter.

Other governments did not immediately corroborate or confirm the claims.

The plant was the site of the world's worst nuclear accident when a nuclear reactor exploded in April 1986, spewing radioactive waste across Europe. The plant lies 130 kilometers (80 miles) north of the capital of Kyiv.

After weeks of denying plans to invade, Putin launched the operation on a country the size of Texas that has increasingly tilted toward the democratic West and away from Moscow's sway. The autocratic leader made clear earlier this week that he sees no reason for Ukraine to exist, raising fears of possible broader conflict in the vast space that the Soviet Union once ruled. Putin denied plans to occupy Ukraine, but his ultimate goals remain hazy.

Ukrainians who had long braced for the prospect of an assault were urged to shelter in place and not to panic despite the dire warnings.

"We are facing a war and horror. What could be worse?" 64-year-old Liudmila Gireyeva said in Kyiv. She planned to flee the city and try to eventually get to Poland to join her daughter. Putin "will be damned by history, and Ukrainians are damning him."

With social media amplifying a torrent of military claims and counter-claims, it was difficult to determine exactly what was happening on the ground.

Ukraine's military chief Valerii Zaluzhnyi said his troops were fighting Russian forces just 7 kilometers (4 miles) from the capital — in Hostomel, which is home to the Antonov aircraft maker and has a runway that is long enough to handle even the biggest cargo planes. Russian officials said separatist forces backed by Russia in the east have taken a new strip of territory from Ukrainian forces, but have not acknowledged ground troops elsewhere in the country.

Associated Press reporters saw or confirmed explosions in the capital, in Mariupol on the Azov Sea, Kharkiv in the east and beyond. AP confirmed video showing Russian military vehicles crossing into Ukrainian-held territory in the north from Belarus and from Russian-annexed Crimea in the south.

Russian and Ukrainian authorities made competing claims about damage they had inflicted. Russia's Defense Ministry said it had destroyed scores of Ukrainian air bases, military facilities and drones, and confirmed the loss of a Su-25 attack jet, blaming it on "pilot error." It said it was not targeting cities, but using precision weapons and claimed that "there is no threat to civilian population."

Ukraine's armed forces They reported at least 40 soldiers dead, and said a military plane carrying 14 people crashed south of Kyiv.

Poland's military increased its readiness level, and Lithuania and Moldova moved toward doing the same. Border crossings increased from Ukraine to Poland, which has prepared centers for refugees.

Putin justified his actions in an overnight televised address, asserting that the attack was needed to protect civilians in eastern Ukraine — a false claim the U.S. had predicted he would make as a pretext for an invasion. He accused the U.S. and its allies of ignoring Russia's demands to prevent Ukraine from joining NATO and for security guarantees.

The consequences of the conflict and resulting sanctions on Russia reverberated throughout the world.

World stock markets plunged and oil prices on both sides of the Atlantic surged toward or above $100 per barrel, on unease about possible disruption of Russian supplies. The ruble sank.

Anticipating international condemnation and countermeasures, Putin issued a stark warning to other countries not to meddle.

In a reminder of Russia's nuclear power, he warned that "no one should have any doubts that a direct attack on our country will lead to the destruction and horrible consequences for any potential aggressor."

Among Putin's pledges was to "denazify" Ukraine. World War II looms large in Russia, after the Soviet Union suffered more deaths than any country while fighting Adolf Hitler's forces.

Kremlin propaganda paints members of Ukrainian right-wing groups as neo-Nazis, exploiting their admiration for WWII-era Ukrainian nationalist leaders who sided with the Nazis. Ukraine is now led by a Jewish president who lost relatives in the Holocaust and angrily dismissed the Russian claims.

Putin's announcement came just hours after the Ukrainian president rejected Moscow's claims that his country poses a threat to Russia and made a passionate, last-minute plea for peace.

Zelenskyy said he asked to arrange a call with Putin late Wednesday, but the Kremlin did not respond.

The attack began even as the U.N. Security Council was meeting to hold off an invasion. Members still unaware of Putin's announcement of the operation appealed to him to stand down. U.N. Secretary-General Antonio Guterres opened the emergency meeting, telling Putin: "Give peace a chance."

But hours later, NATO's Jens Stoltenberg indicated it was too late: "Peace on our continent has been shattered."

Sunday School begins at 9:45. Rev. Cross teaches the Children’s Class. Tom Koger leads the Youth Class. The Discovery Class has started a new 10 week DVD study by Adam Hamilton called “Words of Life.” What if the Ten commandments were not understood as rigid, ancient rules but a guide for experiencing a good life today, given by a loving, protecting God who brings order out of chaos? Hamilton brings contemporary eyes to history’s most important set of ethics. Vicki Miller and Helen Glass are leading the study.

Sunday morning Take Ten fellowship is in the parlor between Sunday School and worship.

And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves to get together, as the manner of some is: but exhorting one another: and so much more, as ye see the day approaching

Hebrews 10:24-25

We all need one another. We cannot do it by ourselves. God requires us to come together regularly to encourage and motivate each other. To live full and vibrant lives of serving and faith.

We are growing, come share our excitement. The Southern Praises Gospel Country Group is playing during our worship service along with special solos by Lawrence Thibeault.

We have no “creeds” that are required; there is no set of beliefs about God that you must profess in order to count this as your church community. We strive for a Christian faith which is both socially relevant to our time and intellectually sound., while holding true to Jesus’ teachings. No one is excluded from God’s grace! Everyone has questions about faith and life, and we celebrate that! At First Christian Church you will find the company of friends eager to help and encourage you as you move forward on your spiritual journey.

If you are searching for a church home or just want to drop by for a visit..... we welcome the opportunity to have you join us. Sunday morning Social Time - pre-Worship Service - starts approximately 9:30 AM in the Sitting Room by the office. Donuts, Coffee, Hot Chocolate, Hot Tea and Bottled Water.

REFLECTIONS

By Bill Tinsley

Special to the Herald

Alexa, Seri, Echo, Cortana

Over the past few years, we have welcomed some new names into our home: Cortana, Alexa, Siri, and Echo. My grandchildren tell me I can change their name, if I want to, to something like Ziggy. Regardless, the computers want to talk to me. They want to recognize my voice. They want to know where I am at all times, to track my browsing and shopping history on the web, maybe elsewhere. The computers even want my finger print and they are asking for my mug shot. Sometimes they start talking to me when their name is mentioned on TV.

It reminds me of Hal in "2001 A Space Odyssey." What are they up to? I remember when George Orwell's 1984 was science fiction. Now it is ancient history. Big brother is here, and has been here for a while. I am not sure I want to be known that well. Where does all this information go?

Jesus told us that the very hairs of my head are numbered. This once seemed hard to believe. How could God possibly know such intimate information about every individual on the face of the earth? How many people are there? Eight billion?

Eight billion once seemed like an astronomical number. But then, our understanding of numbers changed. The first time I heard of a "giga" anything was in Back To The Future, the 1985 movie in which Doc and Marty leaped through time with a few gigawatts supplied to their DeLorean. But, we blew right by gigabytes into terabytes and petabytes. We aren't familiar with exa, zetta and yotta yet. But they are out there.

A few billion is nothing in our information age. If such information capacity is possible for men with the aid of PCs and laptops, how much more is it possible with God?

The Bible says I have always been known. God said, "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you," (Jeremiah 1:5). God knew me before I was conceived. God knew you before you came into existence.

God always knows where I am, what I am doing, what I am thinking. "You know [when I sit down and [when I rise up; You understand my thought from afar. You scrutinize my path and my lying down, and are intimately acquainted with all my ways." (Psalm 139:2-3).

Here is a great mystery. God doesn't just know about me, like some cosmic computer, He knows me. The Apostle Paul wrote, "Now I know in part; then

I shall know fully, even as I am fully known." (1 Corinthians 13:12).

And here is an even greater mystery: not only does God know me better than I know myself. He loves me. This is a cosmic leap. "I have loved you with an everlasting love." (Jeremiah 31:3). "God demonstrated His love for us in this, that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8).

Technology, economics and politics cannot deliver us. God alone is our deliverance and our hope.

Pastor Ricky continued with his new series, "Stewardship, It's a Matter of Trust". In Luke 16:1-13, we read of the parable of the unjust steward. The owner came back and demanded accountability from the steward. He had been unjust in taking care of his masters possessions. The steward was no longer to be trusted and lost his stewardship. In our own stewardship we must settle the issue of ownership. God owns it ALL! Because God is the owner we must be accountable to the owner and realize the owner has expectations of his stewards. We must consecrate ourselves, our possessions, time, and our gifts to the Lord. Our trust can be measured, "If we are faithful in a few things, God will give us more". Trust is not measured by what we are going to do; It's measured by what we are doing right NOW!

Can God trust us?

Come join us this next Sunday morning, we hope to see you at church.

The Howard College Lady Hawks caught the Lady Wranglers from Odessa College on the wrong night. This game didn't have any playoff implications, both teams out of the running, just playing for pride. Odessa College started slowly but ended up fast as they ended the season with a 72-48 win at Dorothy Garrett Coliseum.

It had been a long, hard season for the Lady Hawks who finished in the league cellar with a 1-13 record and 8-19 overall mark. Odessa College didn't play like a squad that finished 5-9 and 8-18.

Howard played the visitors on even terms in the first quarter, the game was tied at 13-apiece. As the game progressed OC heated up and Howard had a miserable second quarter. Howard made just two of 14 shots in the second quarter, A offensive put back by Charnay Robinson at the 2:38 mark was the first HC basket. By that time Odessa College had built a 29-15 lead. Howard's other bucket in the second quarter came on a drive by Daniela Perdomo with just over a minute left in the first half. Odessa had the game well in hand by halftime, leading 38-17.

Robinson, 13 points and Perdomo, nine points were basically the only offensive weapons Howard had for the game. Daysha Tijerina did manage to make two three pointers for Howard. Sophomore guard Kiara Green, all 5-foot-6 of her, and sophomore post player Jasmine Elder led Howard with eight rebounds each.

Meanwhile Odessa College shot the lights out from the outside, especially reserve guard Drea Betts who came off the bench and led all scorers with 23 points. She was 7 of 13 from the three point line and her team made 12 of 30 attempts from three for a very respectable 40 percent. This is comparison of Howard going 4 of 25 from the three point line, Marchelle Bowden had a big night for OC also, scoring 14 points and getting nine rebounds. Isamercy Agramonte added 13 points in the winning cause.

ODESSA (8-18, 5-9) - Berthe 6, Nainkin 3, Davis 4, Bowden 14, Agramonte 13, Dai 3, Hubbard 5, Betts 24, TOTALS 26-58, 8-11 72.

HOWARD (1-13, 8-19) - Green 4, Cotto 4, Marquez 3, Elder 4, Perdomo 9, Robinson 13, Tijerina 6, Oakley 2, totals 17-63, 10-20 48.

Odessa - 13-25-22-12 - 72.
Howard - 13-04-15-16 - 48.

The Howard College Hawks saw their postseason hopes dashed Thursday night at Dorothy Garrett Coliseum thanks to the high flying Odessa College Wranglers, 76-61.

The loss eliminated Howard from the playoff picture, ending their season at 16-12 and 8-8 in conference play, good for fifth place. It also ended the nine year reign of Howard coach Scott Raines, who will be moving to Galveston.

Meanwhile the Wranglers will be moving on to the playoffs via a perfect 16-0 conference record and 25-5 overall mark. The Wranglers are currently ranked eighth in the nation, and they looked every bit the role. The controlled the game with a decisive rebounding edge and a offense that worked the ball inside for lots of easy baskets and dunks. Odessa coach Kris Baumann played all 15 of his players, constantly subbing them in and out. In the end it simply wore down a game Howard squad.

Odessa employed a balanced scoring attack with four players scoring in double figures. Anthony Marshall led the way with 14 points. Kirie Huie followed with out to a 9-5 lead. Howard led once in the game, 13-12 when Bonny Udoh rebounded his own shot and scored with 11 minutes left in the first half. Udoh closed out his Howard career in fine form, scoring 15 points and leading Howard with six rebounds and three blocked shots. Another Hawks closing out his career was Midland native Rahkiem Petterson who scored 10 points. Blaize Sagna added 10 for Howard.

After Howard's short lived lead the Wranglers went on a 12-1 run the next four minutes to take control of the game. Odessa led 41-33 at the half as Howard fought to stay close behind the shooting of Nester Dyachok, who dropped some bombs from the outside. Dyachok scored a game high 17 points thanks to a

D. Rivera 10, Hewlett 7, M. Rivera 5, Forde 4, Dubol Jr. 2, Marshall 14, Turner 3, Cuthrell 2, Alcindor 2, Huie 13; totals 29-62, 13-17 76.

Contract Bridge Bidding quiz By Steve Becker. You are South, both sides vulnerable. The bidding has gone: West North East South 1♦ 1♠ 1♥ Pass? What would you bid with each of the following five hands? 1. ♠A84♥87♦653♣KQ974 2. ♠KJ7♥AJ952♦64♣K83 3. ♠95♥Q83♦A107♣KJ752 4. ♠Q2♥KJ4♦KQ10♣A10983 5. ♠J♥AQ842♦985♣J642  1. Two spades. It might first be best to define partner's one-spade bid. Most overcalls on the one-level are based on eight to 12 high-card points and a good suit, although partner could have as many as 16 points in high cards. The one-spade overcall should therefore tentatively be regarded as merely a competitive bid and not the equivalent of an opening bid. Though it is not likely that the combined hands contain the wherewithal for game, you should nevertheless raise partner's spades, partly to allow for the possibility that he has a strong hand, and partly to make it more difficult for the opponents to compete. A bid of two clubs would not be wise as it is not forcing and would deny spade support, and at the same time would make it easier for West to bid again at a lower level. 2. Three spades. This time game prospects are much brighter, and your three-spade bid invites partner to continue on to four spades if his overcall is above the minimum range. Some partnerships play that a cue-bid of two diamonds in this situation would be an invitational spade raise, in which case three spades would be treated as a preemptive bid. 3. One notrump. Game is unlikely, but it's much better to bid one notrump than to pass. This will give partner another chance to bid if he happens to have a strong hand. It would be wrong to bid two clubs, which would indicate better clubs and would also understate the all-around value of your hand. 4. Three notrump. It's hard to imagine a hand partner can have where you won't have a good play for nine tricks. A jump to two notrump (invitational) would be an egregious underbid. Partner might dislike notrump and retreat to four spades, but your values are fully adequate for that contract as well. 5. Pass. You shouldn't go looking for trouble by bidding two hearts. Partner's suit should be at least as good as yours, and if he lacked support for hearts and rebid his spades, you'd be worse off than you were before. This is the type of hand that suggests a possible misfit, and experience teaches that the sooner you let go in misfit hands, the better off you will be. Cosmic Odd Couples

Three luminaries radiate the Pisces energy while four swim in the realm of the sea goat, bringing diverse forces to the ocean. It's a sky that evokes the wondrous blend of odd couplings: art and commerce; poetry and math; Bert and Ernie. The sound of one hand clapping may be peaceful indeed, but you've never seen a television show about it.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Ignore the numbers. The metrics like money, followers, distance and time, although relevant, have little to do with what you'll produce today with your heart, hands and best intentions.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). If you're working for the result, you'll burn out at some point. It is not as sustainable as the sort of work that you enjoy and would do whether you got the result or not.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). You love it when the people around you feel warm. However, you're not willing to set yourself on fire to accomplish this. Think in terms of your own needs, appetites and delights.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). You provide what they want; they buy it. Neither showmanship nor influence nor persuasion will be necessary because the deal already satisfies the desires of all.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). While you could do many things today, only one is important to your main goal. Humorist Josh Billings advised, "Be like a postage stamp -- stick to one thing until you get there."

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). When you're relaxed, they'll relax. When you're lifted, they'll be lifted. Relationship rifts and more can be healed with hugs. There's no better relief than a heart-to-heart embrace.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You, at full concentration, are a powerful force. But if you divide yourself among too many responsibilities, there won't be enough of you to create impact in any single role.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). As a result of your ambition, you'll set lofty goals that you're unlikely to achieve. Even so, you'll get further than if you hadn't aimed so high. All success is significant, and your spirits stay high as you interpret it as such.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You'll attend events your friends invite you to. The Scandinavian proverb applies: Go often to the house of thy friend; for weeds soon choke up the unused path.

CAPRICORN: The crowd takes notice... you're in excellent form. You'll interact with someone who is clearly enchanted by you, and you can soak it up without worry. You offer excellent attention and should expect the same from others.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Your life and work experiences will prove useful. A profound impact can be made without even telling your story. Rather, you influence others through your example.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Today's challenges require boldness. Your bravery, your support of what you believe is right and your facilitation of justice make you indispensable. It will be easy to sleep tonight, knowing that you put in a solid day's work.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Feb. 25). It's as if something in you quickens as the solar year begins. An energy shift is taking place both in relationships and at work, and you'll warm into a new level of authority. You're clearly needed, and you'll use your power carefully. Save your money in the spring. Summer brings a stellar investment opportunity. Libra and Aquarius adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 7, 10, 3, 33 and 18.

WEEKEND LOVE FORECAST: ARIES: Sometimes the only way to learn what you really want in a relationship is to get what you don't want. So, in a sense, you can't lose. TAURUS: Bonds that form slowly over time will be lasting. GEMINI: Because you're so imaginative, it's tempting (though unwise) to fall in love with someone's potential. CANCER: You'll be called on to fulfill a role or responsibility. While not entirely fun, it's better to be included than not. LEO: When you can't seem to figure out how to get what you want, go away and come back later. VIRGO: Your success secret is one part self-awareness and two parts general awareness. This formula makes you great on dates! LIBRA: You'll be liberated by your own generosity. It will feel good to give something you don't need returned. SCORPIO: Your winning energy attracts the same. Your enthusiasm will quickly spread. SAGITTARIUS: Stability is a cherished gift. You'll either provide it or build bonds by appreciating clearly the one who does. CAPRICORN: You'll go above and beyond what they ask of you, thereby altering future expectations. AQUARIUS: What puzzled you will be a mystery no longer. The reveal will seem obvious, as though you might have known it all along. PISCES: You are willing to experience the full impact of your emotions, which puts you in a powerful position.

COUPLE OF THE WEEK-END: Though Capricorn is a power player who often takes charge, Pisces is feeling the cosmic surge of solar authority and will lead this couple through a blissful weekend. There doesn't have to be much going on to keep these two entertained, as they will be captivated by one another. Conversation goes high and low, silly and deep, but it's something intangible that cements their sweet bond now.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

From This Life I Pass

By Dr. Lillian Bohannon

Special to the Herald

This life is like a vapour which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the furnace. God says a lot about this life. But He says so much more about the life after this one. He wants my focus to remain on Him as I go from this life to the next.

Jesus gave life—not death—to me when He died on the Cross. By His stripes He heals the broken-hearted and sets the captive free. He wants me not to be broken-hearted, but broken before Him so He can show His power to take care of me. He will heal my broken heart when I place it into His capable hands.

When my friends or relatives see me in a trial or tribulation—they must realize it brings life. Jesus is all about Life. Love alive in my center of my very being is shining forth in all its glory. Then they will desire Him and He saves them as well.

You have to give the trials and tribulations time to produce in you that hidden light of Jesus Christ. Don't run from the light but rather embrace it first, like Jesus embraced the Cross in all its glory. That produced life eternal for those who trust Him as Saviour.

When my loved ones go to glory, they don't die, but pass from this world of pain and woe to the wonderful world of life eternal—abundant and free.

When a recent loved one was at Heaven's gates, I prayed God would let him die so he could be out of his pain. Then I realized what a grave mistake I made. I can't pray in God's will that a person die who is in Christ. I must pray that God would allow him to pass from life here to eternal life in Heaven. Then the final weak heart beat here produces the next vibrant heart beat in Heaven's new body. The last weak exhaling breath here produces the next vibrating breathe of Heaven's pure sweet air. Life to life everlasting—abundant and free.

People ask you what you need so they can help you through the pain in times like this. But the real tangible need can only be met by a real and loving and tangible God. He heals my broken-heartedness and sets my captive loved one free to go and be free from this crippled broken life to His abundant freedom found only in life's eternal shores of Heaven.

Because you see—He came to heal my broken heart and set the captives of this life free to roam Heaven for all eternity.

Something to think about...

Protect Your Identity! We live in a world where identity theft is a serious issue. Entire companies have emerged simply to help protect one's personal information. We are constantly cautioned about sharing information with strangers in cyberspace. And I cannot tell you how many fraudulent Facebook friend requests I have received. It is a real issue that affects real lives in real ways.

Identity theft is also a spiritual issue. We too often find our identity in the world rather than in the Word. We allow other voices to tell us who we are and rob us of our primary identity in Christ. That is why we keep coming back to the Scriptures to restore our real identity and remind us who we truly are. Listen to what God's Word says about you today:

"For those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God. The Spirit you received does not make you slaves, so that you live in fear again; rather, the Spirit you received brought about your adoption to sonship. And by him we cry, 'Abba, Father.' The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children." ~ Romans 8:14-16 NIV

This is the Good News! That through Christ we can call Almighty God who created the entire cosmos "Abba" - "Dad"! Our true identity is wrapped up in our relationship to the Father through Christ in the Spirit. And we share in a great inheritance - the Kingdom of God. No matter what we are going through today, it can never compare to what He has prepared for us.

Augustine once said, "Receive who you are. Become what you have received." We receive our identity as a gift from God. When we become a follower of Jesus we begin to understand who we really are. But, it is a life-long process of God shaping us through His Spirit to live into that identity.

May we not allow anyone or anything else to tell us who we are. Instead, may we live in the truth that we are sons and daughters of the King, receiving our identity from God and becoming what we have received. You are the children of God - now let's act like it.

Those who have an ear let them hear

By BILLY HOLLAND

Special to the Herald

One of the greatest mysteries is the perplexing relationship between God and humans. I cannot think of a more glorious yet frustrating subject. Especially when it comes to people trying to find answers when all they have is questions. I've counseled and given psychological first aid to those who have gone through a traumatic crisis and I've listened to people in hospital waiting rooms repeat that age-old question, "Why is this happening?" They cry and beg, but many times they cannot hear a sound from Heaven, and usually neither can anyone else. I'm thankful for the holy scriptures that are wonderful promises, but nothing would be better than to sit down at the kitchen table with Jesus or at least one of His angels and have some coffee while we discuss all the things I would like to know. I'm sure that if we were given this glorious invitation that trusting God would be the foundation of the conversation.

The Bible reveals that God has all wisdom and authority and most Christians will agree that He wants to interact and intervene in our affairs, but this is where our ideas and hopes of communicating with Him take an unexpected turn. It's common to hear the old saying, "my door is always open" from those who want to make themselves available to us, and it could not be any more true than with God Himself. His presence is always with us and He is always listening. The question would be if we are listening? The Bible says that he who has ears to hear, let him hear what the Spirit has to say." This would imply those who have a desire to hear. Have you noticed that straining your spiritual ears to hear God's voice is very difficult? It seems that everything in the world will try to distract us which allows us to see a glimpse of spiritual warfare. For those who are seeking God's direction, I encourage you to add fasting to help bring power and clarity to meditation and prayer.

It is common to hear people say, "the Lord told me this and that" and I believe this is wonderful. We know that God lives within those who are born-again and Him communicating with us is a central part of our personal relationship with Him. Allow me to include the closer we are to Him the better chance we will have to hear His still small voice. People have different perceptions of God, as some imagine a person sitting on a throne dressed in white who looks like Gandalf in the Harry Potter series. There are flashes of lightning all around Him and His voice sounds like layers of thunder. Others picture a younger man like the Jesus in the Chosen series who is walking on a dusty road and stops to talk to a group of children. He is kind and soft-spoken, and when you look into His eyes, you become drawn into the depths of His love. Whatever comes to mind when we talk to Him is fine, but the greatest miracle is that we have been given an opportunity to be as close to Him as we want.

Even though we are not able to see Him with our natural eyes, we are joined together with Him in our spirit and mind. How can we know hear His instructions if we are not listening? We enjoy engaging with others when we talk to them, but with God, we communicate through faith. Even though we can sense and appreciate His presence, it is still a challenge. I wonder if not being able to see Him is why many times we lose our focus and attention when we pray?

When we consider where we are today in our spiritual journey, we are grateful our Lord knew us from the beginning and had a detailed plan for our destiny. Do we realize how much God loves us? We can never praise Him enough for all that He has done for us. It is always a blessing to remember that we did not find God but He found us. Christ went to the cross because He knew we were lost, and we worship Him for becoming our Savior and giving us eternal security. In His person, we have found our purpose, and in falling in love with Him we have found the true meaning of life.
