Keeping Big Spring Beautiful is an organization that does just that — they work to keep our city looking good, clean and free of trash.

The organization held a business meeting at noon Monday in the Cactus Room at Howard College, followed by a tree planting at 2 p.m. at Big Spring's Southwest College for the Deaf.

During the meeting, KBSB President Susan McLellan discussed the group's partnership with Howard County Adult Probation, and spoke about a program in which offenders can work off hours by helping pick up weedy lots and clean up trash along the visible areas, etc.

At KBSB's previous meeting, Secretary Tammy DePauw discussed the art mural which will be created by Big Spring High School art students over Spring Break. Howard County Commissioners approved the project unanimously at their most recent meeting.

The group's Second President Liz Hafley discussed the Scenic Mountain Medical Center Child Abuse Awareness event scheduled April 21 from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. KBSB will have coloring books and other great things available for those who attend.

BSHS band earns Sweepstakes honors at UIL Concert & Sightreading contest

By ROGER CLINE
 Herald Staff Writer

A group of Big Spring High School musicians traveled to Andrews Tuesday and brought home the coveted Sweepstakes honors in the UIL Concert and Sightreading contest.

"It was the Big Spring High School Honor Band," said Band Director Gabe Martinez. "The Honor Band here at Big Spring High School is considered the varsity ensemble. So they are responsible for trying to earn the Sweepstakes Trophy for the band program. The way it works is, we got our Division I ratings for Marching Contest back in the fall. Well, the varsity ensemble of any Texas band is responsible for getting a I at the Concert and Sightreading Contest, and if they do, that counts as the Sweepstakes trophy for the year. So they have a pretty big responsibility to speak for the program."

Martinez said 61 students traveled to Andrews to compete in the contest.

Following the meeting, members of KBSB traveled to SWCD, where the college's staff assisted in planting a tree in front of the campus' Administration Building.

"The band came out and got straight 'one's in concert on their stage performance, and straight 'one's in their sight reading," Martinez said. "I just know this whole town is so proud of them. The biggest thing that we wanted to do as a group, and something that we're very proud of: We wanted to just make our loved ones and our community proud, and to continue that. That was our whole goal behind all of it. To make Big Spring proud. I speak for all of us as a band. The support that this town gives the band is not unnoticed. I just want to say 'Thank you' to all our band supporters. Band is such a good thing in this community, and I hope that is never forgotten."

The Big Spring Steer Baseball team is set to show the home crowd some good baseball in a tournament held at Steers park. The Steers have started this season on fire. This team has a new breath of life with a new head coach in Brad Harmon, who just recorded his 300th career head coaching baseball win.

Big Spring has a 7-3 record heading into this tournament. The team opened up the season in Greenwood with a tough loss by the score of 5-1. The Steers then reeled off four straight wins. First, they beat Stanton 10-5, followed by a 4 to 1 win over the Lubbock High West-erners. Then they beat up on the Pecos Eagles by a score of 10-4. The squad then blew away the Brownfield Cubs 15-1. After that, they dropped a very close, hard-fought game to Hereford 2 to 3. In the very next game, the bats came to life, and the boys blew out Amarillo River Road 12 to 2. They also have victories over Borger 14-4, and in their last game, they beat Littlefield 8 to 2.

This upcoming tournament will be the last warm-up until district play begins. The Steers will open up the tournament with a home game at Steers Park this Thursday at 6 p.m., when they will take on Slaton. Then we get to enjoy day baseball as they will take on Brownfield at home with an early 9 a.m. start, then they follow that up with a game against Denver City at noon. On Saturday, they have another early morning game when they are set to take on Lamesa at 9 a.m.; they finish up the tournament when they get to play at Momentum Bank Ballpark, the home to the Midland Rockhounds as they square off with Idalu, first pitch for the tournament final is set for 6 p.m.

This will be a substantial next five games for these Steers as they get ready for district play, so if you have some time off and want to watch some good baseball come on out to Steer park this Thursday and throughout the weekend and watch a few games.

Opening lead — king of clubs.

A good part of the skill in card play consists of establishing tricks that do not exist naturally. For a prime example, consider this deal where it might seem that declarer can easily make four spades. His only losers appear to be two clubs and the ace of trump. Yet the contract went down one, and South could do nothing about it. East-West's perfect defense was more than South could withstand.

Tomorrow: Test your play.

Today in History

Today is Thursday, March 10, the 69th day of 2022. There are 296 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On March 10, 1969, James Earl Ray pleaded guilty in Memphis, Tennessee, to assassinating civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr. (Ray later repudiated that plea, maintaining his innocence until his death.)

On this date:

In 1496, Christopher Columbus concluded his second visit to the Western Hemisphere as he left Hispaniola for Spain.

In 1785, Thomas Jefferson was appointed America's minister to France, succeeding Benjamin Franklin.

In 1864, President Abraham Lincoln assigned Ulysses S. Grant, who had just received his commission as lieutenant-general, to the command of the Armies of the United States.

In 1876, Alexander Graham Bell's assistant, Thomas Watson, heard Bell say over his experimental telephone: "Mr. Watson, Æ come here, Æ I want to see you" from the next room of Bell's Boston laboratory.

In 1906, about 1,100 miners in northern France were killed by a coal-dust explosion.

In 1913, former slave, abolitionist and Underground Railroad "conductor" Harriet Tubman died in Auburn, New York; she was in her 90s.

In 1965, Neil Simon's play "The Odd Couple," starring Walter Matthau and Art Carney, opened on Broadway.

confirmed or probable COVID-19, including two who died. (Experts said the public health investigation that followed was key in concluding that the virus was spreading through the air.)

Ten years ago: Rick Santorum won the Kansas caucuses in a rout and Republican presidential front-runner Mitt Romney countered in Wyoming. Israel pounded Gaza for a second day, trading airstrikes and rocket fire with Palestinian militants, killing 15 of them. F. Sherwood Rowland, 84, the Nobel prize-winning chemist who sounded the alarm on the thinning of the Earth's ozone layer, died in Corona del Mar, California.

Five years ago: President Donald Trump chose Scott Gottlieb, a conservative doctor-turned-pundit with deep ties to Wall Street and the pharmaceutical industry, to lead the Food and Drug Administration. Two girls, ages 10 and 3, were killed in a fire in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, blamed on an exploding hoverboard; a firefighter died in a traffic accident en route to the blaze. South Korea's Constitutional Court formally removed impeached President Park Geun-hye from office over a corruption scandal.

One year ago: The House gave final congressional approval to a landmark $1.9 trillion COVID-19 relief bill; Republicans in both chambers opposed the measure unanimously, describing it as bloated and crammed with liberal policies. The Senate confirmed Merrick Garland to be U.S. attorney general with a strong bipartisan vote; senators also confirmed longtime Ohio lawmaker Marcia Fudge as housing secretary.
