The Sunday, September 5, edition of the Haskell Chronicle, Jess Neely the editor of Rice University's Chronicle, broke his silence and picked his all-time, Southwest Conference team. On that team, Neely picked Haskell's "John Kimbrough" (1939-40). Neely said that Kimbrough was just as powerful. He was strong

There are some figures reeled by James E. Allen, Retail Director of Texas Heart Association, of Wichita Falls, at the meeting of the Rotary last week which may not interest readers... but it is a fact that in Haskell County in 18-month period, Jan. 1, 1964 to present, showed 157 deaths from all causes. Heart attacks and strokes took 85 lives; pneumonia, 20 (mostly infants extremely old people) and deaths from cancer.

Milla Perry is head twirler for the pep-squad, editor of the school year-book, class secretary, vice president of FFA, FFA Sweetheart, candidate for the 1965 Homecoming Queen, class favorite, member of Who's Who, voted most attractive, and last but not least, one of the forwards on the well-known Paint Creek girls basketball team. A discussion of United Fund was followed by a unanimous vote to be discontinued this year. The motion was made by Harold Spain and seconded by Abe Turner.

Thirty-three members were present for the "supper session."

ROTARIANS HEAR REGIONAL DIRECTOR HEART ASSOCIATION

James E. Allen, Regional Director for the Texas Heart Association, with offices in Wichita Falls, was the principal speaker at the regular luncheon meeting Thursday, Sept. 9, of the Haskell Rotary Club.

Rev. Douglas B. Finch was program chairman for the day and introduced the guest speaker.

Mr. Allen cited that cancer and heart disease are still the nation's leading "killers." Fifty-four percent of all deaths, including sickness and accidents, are attributable to heart disease. This makes heart disease the number one "killer" in the nation, the guest speaker said.

The Texas Heart Association is affiliated with the National Heart Association. In 1948, the first heart drive for funds was held. Since 1960, the association has spent $100,000,000 (one hundred million dollars) in heart research, and much progress, more than we realize, has been made. In 1964, the association spent $10,000,000 (ten million dollars) in heart research.

$348,316.65 of the total amount spent in 1964 was spent in the State of Texas. Mr. Allen pointed out that Texas is fast becoming the cardio-vascular center of the United States.

The Texas Heart Association also sponsors educational programs (journals and symposia) for professional medical men and for the general public. Mr. Allen pointed out that community services, such as nutrition programs, weight-control clinics, school health programs, are sponsored by the Heart Association. 25,000,000 people in America today suffer from some heart ailment or disorder.

Heart funds last year in Texas were spent as follows: Research, 38%; Public Education, 7%; Professional Education, 10%; Community Service, 8%; Public Information, 7%; Fund Raising, 15%; Studies and Reorganization, 3%; Administration, 12%.

Mr. Allen deplored the bad relationship which has existed between the Heart Association and Haskell over past years, and sought to explain the non-participating policy of the Heart Fund in United Fund Campaigns.

H. V. Woodard, president, presided over the meeting. Guests noted at the Thursday noon-day meeting were: guest students for the month, Bobby Watson and Betsy Fouts; Darold Roberson of Western Auto, Haskell, and John Deffebach, of (Continued on Page 12)

Baty Proves Winterpeas Are Soil Builders

"My cotton averaged three-quarters of a bale to the acre following a crop of Austrian winterpeas," said E. A. Baty, 1965 Homecoming Queen, class favorite, member of Who's Who, voted most attractive, and last but not least, one of the forwards on the well-known Paint Creek girls basketball team.

Baty lives and farms in the Curry Chapel community and has been a cooper with the Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation District for several years. The Soil Conservation Service at Haskell has been assisting Baty with his soil and water conservation work through the District's program.

Baty pointed out that the roots of winterpeas loosen and mellow the soil, making a better seedbed, "opening the land where it will take up more moisture. He also stated that one crop of winterpeas is equivalent to three or four good plowings, and that the peas leave the soil in such a condition as to reduce wear and tare on his equipment. Fuel expense is also reduced.

Moisture conditions at present are not too favorable for planting winterpeas. Many farmers, however, dry sow their winterpeas every year the same as they do small grains. According to local SCS Technician Hinds McGowen, six acres of winterpeas have already been planted as winter cover crops.

Among Haskell County farmers planning acreages of winterpeas are: W. C. Stotts, Sargent; Alfon Peiser, Irby; Walter Bredthauer, Curry Chapel; Fritz Steinfath, Irby; Riley Pace and Lynn Pace of Haskell, and Baty.

While attending Bluebonnet Girls State in June, Miss Cadenhead was elected County Attorney nominee Federalist Party, Declare County, and Miss Colbert was elected nominee of Nationalist Party, Commissioner Place No. 3, Chick County.

Both guest speakers outlined the purpose of Girls State which is to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age, to afford them an opportunity to live together as a self-governing group and to inform them of their duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities, which they will assume when they become adults.

The Girls State representatives said they learned the problems of government by performing the same duties as real office holders in the everyday world.

Indians Eat 'Um Bulldogs; To Catch 'Um Panther Friday

The Haskell Indians feasted on Bulldog meat last Friday night when they clobbered the Clyde 1-A aggregation 21-6. The Indians scored the first time they got the ball.

Bobby Watson scooted around the right side for five yards and paydirt. Bill Perry booted the point-after. Haskell then scored on a 25-yard reverse around left end with Tim Everett carrying. Perry kicked the extra point.

Everett then picked up a loose ball from the Clyde quarterback and traveled 23 yards for a touchdown. Again Perry's toe was accurate.

In the third quarter, the Clyde team woke up and ground out 88 yards only to end short of the goal line.

However, Jack Ralston gathered enough momentum in the fourth quarter around right end for six points. Clyde then tried for two points but failed.

THE COST OF FOOD

In recent months the official cost of living indexes have shown some relatively sharp advances. The principal jumps have been in food, which now costs an average of something like 10 per cent more than it did a year ago. And this, naturally enough, has roused the ire of the housewives and set them to grimly wondering who and what is to blame.

All too often they pick the wrong targets. They take aim on the retailer, the manufacturer, the processor, the producer, the farmer, the middleman. But it isn't as simple as that.

Take meat, for instance, which practically everyone buys and which is a cause of concern when the price tabs inch up. It moves in a natural, supply-and-demand market. No one does or can, fix and manipulate its selling price. In recent months, supplies have somewhat diminished, while demand, particularly for beef, has been strong. Under such a circumstance, higher prices are inevitable. Conversely, when the supply is more than ample to meet the demand... a situation we have witnessed many times in late years... prices tend downward. This is simply the way the free market does and should function.

Whatever the case, the profits earned by those who are so often unjustly blamed for price increases... such as the packers and retailers... remain at a remarkably modest level. Percentage-wise, if they earned no profit, the consumer would hardly notice the difference.

BACK DOOR TAX BOOSTING

It makes no difference whether you are labeled a Republican or a Democrat, a liberal or a conservative, a rich man or a poor man, a college student or a drop-out, a poverty man or a welfare man, we will pay taxes... either direct or in the price of rent, food, commodities or services. The more we ask from government, the higher go the living costs.

Harry F. Byrd, the illustrious democratic Senator from Virginia, has long been the watchdog of the federal treasury. He has sought to expose the folly of establishing bureaus without limitations. Once established, they grow and grow, and the people pay in taxes.

The Senator cites one of the newer federal bureaus that has increased its expenditures over 300 per cent in the past 13 years... from some $2 billion to over $7 billion. Senator Byrd points out that if one of the proposed new bureaus expands proportionally, if it should be established, it would be a $225 billion department by fiscal 1978.

The people never get to vote on such a proposition. All the big spending measures are presented as something beneficial to the people. Cost is soft pedaled and new bureaus are born. From then on they are permanent and all the people can do is pay, and pay, and pay in taxes or in the cost of products or services of which taxes are a part of the prices. The same policy follows from Congress down through state legislatures.

Whatever bureaucracy increases, the supposed beneficiaries, the people, get the bill. The only recourse they have is to say "NO" when they vote, and stop begging public funds.

WARNING FLAGS

The warning flags are going up. They have to do with whether this country can spend huge additional sums for defense, because of the massive acceleration of the war in Vietnam, and at the same time carry on welfare programs of unprecedented scope and cost without courting the most serious kind of trouble.

Senator Russell of Georgia has expressed the view that there are even greater dangers of inflation now than at the time of the Korean War. Senator Morton of Kentucky points out that "... the Siamese twin of huge deficit financing is inflation," and he has all the historical precedent anyone could want to support that statement. Representative Laird suggests that here should be a revolution of proposed appropriations totalling some $8-billion for new domestic programs which are primarily of a welfare nature.

More and more thoughtful observers, in and out of Congress, are expressing similar fears and concerns. There is a theory that all this spending will generate vast new tax revenues and so minimize the deficits. But it is only a theory, and unproven.

What has been proven is that when we attempt to buy more guns and provide more butter at the same time, the dollar's buying power is battered down and down. Then the people of small means... whom the welfare programs are supposed to help... are the hardest hit. Is that tragedy due to recur once more?

The Good Earth

by MRS. B. F. COBB

We visited Galveston last week to see our son and his family. The island is more beautiful than it has been since Hurricane Carla. Hibiscus and bougainvilleas grow in profusion throughout town. Date and palm trees are no longer ragged, but are dark green and healthy. The palmetto palm hanging with long clusters of fruit. Though the date is not edible, it is very attractive. First the round grape seed is green, but gradually turns black.

Colorful umbrellas lined the beach. People were swimming and sun-bathing. Each pier was lined with hundreds of fish. The pier that was destroyed by Carla has been replaced by a new seven story hotel. A parking area for guests occupies the pier. All this built out into the gulf but a portion of sea. Huge pilings seem to hold the hotel a safe place to even in a hurricane. Fish-benches line the rails and this fisherman's paradise. Other piers have been rebuilt.

While in Galveston, I visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. At the back of their garden an arbor of Wisteria makes a shade for many different pots. Two large banana trees, with stalks of fruit, give a tropical look to the garden.

Hibiscus with dark green, waxy foliage grow rampant throughout the yard. I've never seen hibiscus with blossoms so colorful. There were single yellow and one double of the same hue. One light orange with a large red eye. A yellow fused with red, and a deep clear red. The collection. The plants were like hot house plants.

branches of purple fruit draped gracefully over the front fence. A hualachi (pronounced wu-satch) tree with lacy leaves and yellow blossoms added grace and charm to the garden. Mrs. Nolte said many tourists ask to photograph the garden. This warm, gracious woman always gives her permission to do so.

Many other flowers, including a border of pink lilies, grow in abundance in this lovely charming yard.

Cucumber beetles have invaded the county in huge swarms. So thick are the pests, they cover the walls at night. I keep hoping a strong norther will blow them away, just like they came in.

We are using Seven on our greens. This is very effective, but would be expensive to use on the whole place. I've never seen bugs in this quantity before.

County Farm Bureau Sets-Up Tire Program

The Haskell County Farm Bureau has entered into an agreement with the Texas Agricultural Service Co., of Waco, a recently incorporated, wholly owned subsidiary of Texas Farm Bureau, to set up a retail tire sales program for its members, according to T. C. Walker, local county Farm Bureau President. General Tire and Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio, is manufacturing tires for TASC under exclusive brand name "SAFEMARK."

All standard sizes in the premium deluxe grade of passenger car tires and first-line premium truck and tractor tires will be offered Haskell County Farm Bureau members, Walker said. The cost will be the factory price plus a very nominal distribution charge which will make them available to members "at a very substantial saving," the county Farm Bureau president declared. The Anderson Tire Company, located at Haskell, has been named the authorized Farm Bureau Tire Servicing agent for the county, Walker said. Tires can be purchased directly from him by any Farm Bureau member by presenting his current membership card. Members actively engaged in farming or ranching may buy any tires they need for personal vehicles. All other members will be limited to passenger car tires.

"This is strictly a service-to-member program instituted to help cut costs of production and thereby increase net income of our members," the county Farm Bureau leader explained. "Sales will be restricted in order to prevent buying through the program for commercial use by anyone other than farmers and ranchers."

Safemark tires will be guaranteed by TASC and servicing agent will make necessary adjustments on the basis of the original cost of the tire with no charge for mounting replacement tires, he said.

The Texas Farm Bureau instituted the tire program "to help relieve the cost-price squeeze that has adversely affected net farm income of farmers and ranchers for many years," Walker explained. "Farm Bureau's price support and adjustment programs have always been designed to increase agricultural income through higher prices at the market place. Farm Bureau leaders in approving this program felt that it would be a step in the right direction on the other end, that of reducing our costs."

Dove Hunting Is Reported Good In Haskell County

Game Wardens working inside a triangle from Childress to Seminole to Abilene recently evaluated dove hunting prospects in their respective districts for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

These counties were graded as GOOD, FAIR or POOR dove hunting areas now:

GOOD: Fisher, Nolan, Mitchell, Knox, Haskell, Stonewall, Kent, Jones, Gaines, Yoakum, Motley and Dickens.

FAIR: Garza, Scurry, Borden, Taylor, Andrews, Crosby, Terry, Lynn, Lamb, Bailey, and Floyd.

POOR: Hale, Lubbock, Cochran, Foard, Hardeman, Cottle, Howard, Martin and Dawson.

a detailed report on his scouting trip to Seymour last Friday. His report indicated Seymour had a strong ball club, and the Indians would have to hustle to beat them.

Coach Everett discussed the Clyde game at length and then showed film of the game to the 45 members present. Everett also gave a report on the grading system by which the staff grades the game efforts of the offense and defense in each game.

Bobby Franklin was the recipient of the $5.00 in door prize merchandise. M&F Pharmacy presented the prize for the drawing.

Lower plains game wardens aware that cool weather and unpredictable rainfall causes mourning doves to change their feeding areas, were reluctant to forecast dove hunting patterns more than a week in advance. However, each warden suggests sportsmen to hunt early in the season before cool weather forces the doves southward.

Automobile Visitors in 1964 Added $524,739,000 To Texas Economy

More tourists traveling by automobile entered Texas last year than in any prior year in history.

During 1964 automobile visitors to the State added the impressive total of $524,739,000 to the Texas economy. This was more than enough to rank the Visitor Industry high on the list of the State's most important sources of revenue.

In addition, the Texas Tourist Council estimates that nearly 2.5 million visitors came to Texas by commercial carriers, adding more than $150-million to the total spent for tourist services.

The Texas Highway Department's annual survey of out-of-state visitors shows 11,757,000 tourists came to Texas by automobile in 1964. The length of the average visitor's stay was 5.6 days and he traveled 1,020 miles while in the state.

Last year the average party consisted of three persons. Average cost per day per person was $7.97, while the average cost per party was $23.91. Expenditures per person were up 12 cents per day from 1963.

The Texas Highway Department has long recognized the importance of the travel industry to the State's economy. Through its Travel and Information Division, it strives to bring visitors to Texas in ever-increasing numbers. This is done by publicizing the State's attractions and providing information and descriptive literature to prospective visitors. Last year the Department serviced 704,000 inquiries for the traveling public.

Eight Travel Information Bureaus are operated by the Department at key point-of-entry locations and in the rotunda of the State Capitol in Austin. These information centers played host to 492,000 visitors last year, of which 225,000 were from out-of-state and 267,000 were Texas residents.

The hospitality centers provided visitors with current travel information, descriptive literature on points of interest, State Highway maps, information on scenic and historical attractions, special events and state parks. Current road condition information is also made available to the highway traveler at the centers.

During 1964 the Texas Highway Department received via mail and filled 212,000 requests for all types of information about the state. Some 18,000 of this total were coupons received by the Texas Tourist Development Agency as a result of its media advertising program.

Data covering out-of-state automobile travel to Texas in 1964 were collected and analyzed by the Travel and Information Division of the Texas Highway Department. The sample included nearly 10,000 Texas visitors traveling by automobile.

Comments contained on the completed survey forms indicated nearly 92 per cent were favorably impressed with the Lone Star State. Things impressing Texas visitors most were: Texas highways, Texas, Texans and Texas Highway Department Tourist Information Centers.

Others of the thousands of comments related to vacation sites, prices, size of the State, Texas attractions and recreational facilities. Only 8.2 per cent of the total comments were derogatory in nature.

An estimated 37% were visiting Texas for the first time. Over 52% of the total visitors to Texas last year were here for vacations. Some 30% were visiting family and friends and 18% came to Texas for business reasons.

Motels were a heavy favorite for overnight accommodations with 58% selecting these roadside facilities. Of the remainder, 20% were housed in private homes, 7% stayed in hotels, 7% camped out and 6% had their own trailer accommodations. Two per cent of those polled reported no preference.

Businesses catering to the basic needs of the traveler are the first to feel the impact of the tourist dollar. However, every segment of the Texas economy benefits as this income spreads throughout the state in a demand for services, supplies and labor.

A recent study of the Texas visitor's expenditures indicates the travel dollar is spent as follows:

- Automobile 30c
- Food, refreshments 27c
- Lodging 24c
- Clothing 9c
- Souvenirs, cards, etc. 4c
- Entertainment 3c
- Drugs 1c
- Other expenses 2c

Last year tourists from all 49 states came to Texas, Distant California was first in neighboring Louisiana was a close second with 1,740,000. Oklahoma was third with 776,000. Florida was fourth with 647,000. Total numbers with 1,786,000.

A Way With Windows

Fashions at the window have done an about face—from stark simplicity to the opulent elegance popular years ago. But the room-muffling yards of damask draperies used then have been replaced by drip-dry synthetics and other practical materials that have a lovely, deceptively fragile appearance, but never fear the washing machine.

Drapery linings, too, are back in the fold as part of the richer look. With the extra body a lining gives, draperies hang better and provide more privacy. Roe-linized, or self-lined, draperies are the newest fashion at windows; they have all the luxury of separate linings, at budget prices. These self-liners are a combination of chemicals bonded right to the back of the fashion fabric to keep sun and dampness away from the decorative face. And because they're insulated, the new self-linings help control the temperature on the room side of even the biggest picture window.

Not all windows are easy to decorate in style. And the new wide windows that need insulation can be particularly tricky. Dramatic effects, however, can camouflage odd-shapes. Treat overly narrow windows by extending curtains across the wall. An awkwardly wide window looks narrower when flanked with a pair of shutters inside the window frame. Then curtain between the shutters. Under-sized windows assume importance with a frame of decorative plywood.

If your room colors are unrelated, a print curtain will bring them together. And for the custom look, add fancy braid or fringe to ready-made, self-lined draperies. It's fashionable to dress up your window areas, for nothing expresses the special feeling and personality of a room like an elegant way with windows.

Local Students To Seek Funds For Junior High

Starting Friday, Sept. 24th, and continuing for 10 days, students at Haskell Junior High School will be participating in a program of benefit to students, the school and the community. A magazine subscription program is being organized and sponsored by Junior High School.

This activity was announced today by Hubert Bell, Principal of the school.

"We are pleased to be working with the Quality School Plan," said Mr. Bell. "This plan represents the same high degree of skill and knowledge now manifested in the Educational Programs the Quality Plan also serves, those of the Reader's Digest and of Time, Inc."

The money raised this year by selling new and renewal subscriptions to the Reader's Digest, Life, Look, McCall's, Better Homes & Gardens, and over 150 other top quality magazines will be used to help underwrite the cost of air conditioners which are now installed in the school. The remaining balance due on the air conditioners is $970.00 plus carrying charges.

School magazine sales programs have been in existence for 45 years. They offer students a chance to help their school, their communities and themselves. The profits, representing a good percentage of the subscription prices, are retained by the school to use in the purchase of items not usually provided by the school budget. The Quality Program, Mr. Bell said, has the added effect of teaching students to work as a team, to develop initiative and to gain solid business experience that will benefit them in the years ahead. It also helps the entire community develop better reading habits through exposure to some of the nation's most distinguished magazines, in a most dignified manner.

In further consideration, Mr. Bell suggested "as that student approaches you during these next few days, please realize that you are not contributing, but are assisting in a service to that student, his school, and to you. We will be purchasing these subscriptions anyway, why not from one of our own students?"

Soil Conservation Dist. Co-operators To Hold Convention At Rochester

Each year on the first Tuesday in October throughout Texas, Soil Conservation District Co-operators meet in convention to select one of the five Soil Conservation District Supervisors for a five-year term.

W. L. Ballard, "Knott" to his friends, of Rochester, Supervisor for Zone Two of the Wichita-Brazos SCD will complete the five-year term of office vacated by Herman D. Gammill last year.

Supervisors are selected by the landowners and their wives or husbands who hold land titles within the given land areas comprising Zone Two of the District.

Zone Two of the Wichita-Brazos SCD starts at the northwest corner of Haskell County and continues east along the county line to the county road running north and south at the Nelson farm. The zone boundary then goes south by Curry Chapel until it reaches an east-west county road at the Glenn Alsbrook farm just north of Haskell. The south boundary of the zones goes west from Alsbrook's farm along county roads and farm boundaries to the Humble Tank farm north of Rule, turns south to Texas Highway 24, then due west through Rule to the Brazos river. At the river the zone boundary follows the river south until it reaches the Haskell-Stonewall County line west of Sagerton. At this point the boundary turns north along the Haskell-Stonewall County line until it reaches the northwest corner of the county, the place of beginning.

The convention meeting will be held this year on the night of October 5, 1965, at the Rochester, starting at 7:30 p. m. Every landowner is urged to attend this all important meeting to help select the supervisor of their choice.

There will not be another selection of Supervisors for Zone Two for five years. Whoever is selected at this meeting will serve on the Wichita-Brazos SCD governing body of Supervisors for the next five years.

A good program is being planned. A movie on soil and water conservation will be shown. No long, drawn out speeches will be made, only a short talk on the duties of a Soil Conservation District Supervisor.

Bill Fouts Headed For Two-Year Assignment In Columbia, S. America

The George Fouts household is a buzz with much family visiting, "favorite dish" cooking, and homemade ice cream every night if he wants it (says Mother, Helen), for Bill is home! One of Haskell's own sons, Mr. George William Fouts, Jr., better known to all as Bill, is in Haskell until September 20. On September 21st he will leave Miami with other Peace Corps members to go to his two-year assignment in Columbia, South America.

For the past three months, Bill has been in training for the Peace Corps at the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque. From several hundred young people, through choice in some instances and lack of stamina or strength in others, only about 70 of the group 'came through' the rigid training. Days and nights were filled with study of the people, their customs, language and little social idiosyncracies. Rugged overnight hiking trips were made into the mountainous areas of New Mexico, and many hours were given to conversing in the native tongue of the Columbian populace—Spanish.

Bill's preparation for this venture began a number of years ago. It was in Haskell High School that Bill first studied Spanish. The interest aroused here was nurtured as he went on to attend college at Texas Tech. There, Bill took several years of Spanish and, upon being graduated this past June, had acquired several hours toward his Masters degree. Most of these credits concerned the study of the history and culture of South American countries.

As each of the young people who leave on this venture arrives in the designated South American country to live for two years, they will go to individual villages—a lone emissary of American compassion and concern for need in a neighborhood of another tongue and culture.

The hours, months, and even years of training which have gone into the development and education of each individual young person going into such work will be the storehouse of experience and knowledge from which each Peace Corps worker may draw upon the ability to aid and teach lessons in simple hygiene, sanitation, literacy, and even well digging. None know what particular problem or need awaits one on the Peace Corps field, but each goes with the desire to do an individual share of teaching in

Closing Date For Federal Tax Refund Is Near

By F. W. Martin, Co. Agent

Haskell County farmers who use gasoline on their farms for farming purposes may file a claim for refund on Federal Tax. The period covered is gasoline used from June 30, 1964, to July 1, 1965. The tax rate is 4¢ per gallon. All farmers that have been filing returns regularly should have received Form 2240 to claim a refund on all gasoline used on the farm. If for any reason you have not received this form and use gasoline for farm purposes during this period, come by the county agent's office and pick up a form. These forms are mailed to the U. S. District Director of Internal Revenue, P. O. Box 111, Ogden, Utah.

If your claim is not made by Sept. 30, you will lose the tax refund for that year.

and weighs (never ask a gal her weight), has dark brown hair and brown eyes and an olive-complexion. This combination, plus her personality, has created a most lovely and likable person.

Milla is a member of the Paint Creek Methodist Church. At the present time she is working toward her 1-year perfect attendance award in Sunday School.

Whenever asked about plans to attend college there is a bit of hesitation. "I'm not sure yet just what I want to study. At the moment it's a toss between Home Economics and Medical Technology, but I'll have to wait and see. As for the college, there are some fine schools close to my home, the definite choice is yet to be made."

With this busy schedule you would think Milla couldn't find time for anything else, but she manages to do a big portion of the family cooking and helps with their laundry and house work. Whenever her farmer father calls for help outside she is ever eager to go to his aid. At her home everyone has to help with everything needing done.

Busy—Yes, very—but that is what makes life so interesting. "I never have time to be bored," she says.

Is there anything she doesn't like to do—oh, yes—fold clothes and sew—"but," she laughs, "my mother has some ideas of her own, so I have to do some of that, too."

VISIT HERE Mr. and Mrs. Don Larned and daughters visited a week with his mother, Mrs. Maggie Larned and other relatives and friends here.

PTA Holds First Meeting of The "New Year"

"The Singing Six," a talented Haskell group, highlighted a program based on the Mary Poppins theme at this year's first PTA meeting Monday, Sept. 13.

Mrs. Virgil Cobb, dressed as Mary Poppins, presented Mr. Gerald McCoy, principal, who introduced the new teachers, Mrs. Dolores Foster, Mrs. Betty Johannes and the former teachers who were well known.

"The Singing Six," Paula Terrell, Dana Bland, Pam Reeves, Marijane McAdoo, Jo Nell Anderson, Margaret Cook, presented four numbers from the show, "Mary Poppins," accompanied by Mrs. Mary Martin.

Mrs. Joe Warren, president, announced a Fall Festival will be held October 31. Funds must be raised for the classroom air conditioners which were installed by the P-TA in 1964.

It was also voted to change meeting dates from the first Wednesday to the third Wednesday of each month, and to provide baby sitters for the pre-school children.

Pie and coffee were served to a large crowd by the Hospitality Committee.

Mrs. Claude Thompson Jr., reporter.

Junior High Team Clobbered By Vernon

The Haskell Junior High football team lost its opening game to Vernon Junior High, 25-0, Thursday, Sept. 9.

Safety of School Children Is Of Utmost Concern

Hooper T. Wilkinson, Haskell School Superintendent, said today that thousands of pupils over Texas are back in school, and the safety of these pupils is of the utmost importance, and each motorist has a responsible part to play. About one out of five of these pupils ride a school bus.

The motorist traveling Texas highways is reminded that upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which is stopped for receiving or discharging children, he shall stop his vehicle. He may then proceed past the bus at a prudent speed not to exceed 10 miles per hour.

Drivers of motor vehicles are urged to exercise due caution each time they approach one of the well-marked buses painted the familiar "school bus yellow." Cooperation of motorists with bus drivers and local school officials may help save the lives of one of the 450,000 pupils that will likely be riding Texas school buses during 1965-66.

Indian Band Elects Officers For '65-'66 Term

Band officers for the school year, 1965-66, have been elected. Captain is Ken Barnett, a junior who plays first cornet. Lieutenant Wayne Gadenhead, a junior and first chair trombone. Secretary goes to Patti Jewel, a junior and first chair clarinet. Barbara Cass, senior, and second chair flute, is the treasurer. Band reporter is John Love, a sophomore and first chair saxophone.

Thursday the ninth, eight members of the HS Band entertained the sixth grade at Elementary School and demonstrated their instruments. Those in the group were Ken Barnett, Lon Barnett, Randy Wiseman, Elouise Watson, Ben Melton, Patty Jewell, Lucy Kennedy and John Love.

To start things off on a lively step, "Pink Panther" was played. Mr. Gideon made a short talk on the importance and fun of being a band member. To close, a jazz number, "Bill Bailey," was played.

BACK FROM COLORADO

Mrs. Maggie Larned has returned from a trip to Denver, Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis and daughters of Pasadena, Texas, accompanied Mrs. Larned.

Mrs. Larned said while they were on top of Mt. Evans, snow was on the ground, and it was snowing at the time. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Haskell "B" Team Puts Tiger In Tank

The Haskell "B" Braves put their first scalp on their belt with a 22-12 victory over the Anson "B" Tigers last Thursday.

Behind the leadership of Riley Couch, the "B" Braves moved the ball 60 yards to pay dirt, beginning with a 30-yard swing pass from Couch to halfback Keith Chapman. Walter Felker, fullback, picked up another first down at the 15-yard line of Anson. With quick drives and a 5-yard "quick" pass to end Troy Schwartz the Braves were on the board with six points. Halfback Chapman skirted around right end for the two points.

A pass interception by Couch started the Braves on the way again. The Braves soon had another 6 points when halfback Chapman roared around left end for a 35-yard gallop! Walter Felker blasted over right end for two points, making the score 16-0. This seemed to set the Tigers afire, but behind the recovery of an Anson fumble by guard Patrick Pace and with the help of some fine blocking by the forward wall of Blair, Schwartz, Diaz, Perry, Pace, Galvan and Patterson, the brought the first cattle to the free grass empire. Small ranchers and nesters followed and the boom was on.

Hundreds of miles from civilization. Old Tascosa lured the lawless and the law men. Names like Billy the Kid and Pat Garrett live in its history. Gun fighters made a 'Boot Hill' Cemetery necessary. The heaviest toll in a single shoot-out occurred March 21, 1886, when three cowboys and a restaurant owner died in a five-minute period. All went to Boot Hill.

The coming of barbed wire pinched off the cattle trails, Tascosa's life blood, and sealed the fate of the settlement. Today, only the town's stone courthouse and Boot Hill remain. Twenty-five years ago, the courthouse and 120 acres surrounding it, were donated to a dream of a home in the country for boys who needed a helping hand. The man who had that dream is Cal Farley, a champion athlete and successful businessman who founded the boys ranch with a handful of unfortunate kids. Since that time, boys from 4 to 17, from virtually every state in the Union, have come to the ranch for help at the request of relatives, social workers, ministers and juvenile court judges, and Cal and Mrs. Farley have served as foster parents to more than 1500 youngsters who have become useful, productive citizens.

Financed by donations and operating on a nonsectarian basis, the ranch has thrived without fraternal, religious or governmental affiliations.

Today, Boys Ranch covers 1,400 acres, has 30 buildings, and boasts its own bank, postoffice and independent school district. Some 350 boys are living there in a normal, family atmosphere with staff "parents" who live right in the dormitories or "homes."

Old Tascosa had its day, but the atmosphere has changed. A different breed of cowboys is at home on the range there now, a frequently-used chapel stands next to the courthouse, and only pets are buried on Boot Hill.

Braves moved to another TD on a short pass from Couch to end Tommy Patterson. Try for extra point failed. Half-time score was 22-0.

The entire second half saw the Tigers on the move only to be held off by some key defensive plays by the Braves. Clinton Callaway intercepted two passes. Couch, one, and Brian Dulaney, one. Guard Patrick Pace recovered three fumbles. Putting forth a great defensive effort were end James Isbell, linebackers Ken Blair, Schwartz and Hal Spain. Guards Patrick Pace, halfback Chapman, Couch, Callaway, Conner, Martinez, Felker and Dulaney.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

Every year the good tax folks call in a lot of divorced couples, decided that it was necessary for them to go their separate ways, but they forgot to get their tax matters separated.

If you are disposing of your spouse, it will pay you to dispose of your tax matters at the same time. It's awful embarrassing to sit down with your ex-spouse and a tax man and solve problems that you would prefer never to think of again.

Split your income and taxes up to the date of your divorce—or wait until December 31 to get divorced—so you won't mix up your tax year.
