KBSB recognized as one of 86 Gold Star Affiliates by Keep Texas Beautiful

By AMANDA DUFORAT
 Contributing Writer

It starts with community, but the impact is so much bigger. Keep Big Spring Beautiful has been ramping up over the past several years and is gaining attention statewide. Keep Texas Beautiful (KTB), a statewide grassroots environmental and community improvement non-profit organization, recently named Big Spring a Gold Star Affiliate. "This is a big deal for Big Spring. Not only does it mean our community is becoming a more beautified, clean area, but it also means that our work is being noticed," Liz Hafley, Keep Big Spring Beautiful Social Media Vice President, said. This year according to a press release from Keep Texas Beautiful, the Gold Star designation was granted to 86 of KTB's nearly 300 affiliates. Gold Star recognition is the membership recognition highest status any community affiliate can achieve. "Our community has truly stepped up over the past couple of years and it is through those efforts that this recognition is possible," she said. "We, the Big Spring community, have logged a total of 496 volunteers hours in the past year." According to information provided by Keep Big Spring Beautiful, there were a total of 397 volunteers who helped with community clean ups: 270 volunteers helped with Toasty Tuesday for a total of 270 hours and 7,650 pounds of trash, 11 volunteers helped with Love Our Lake for a total of 11 hours and 450 pounds of trash, 11 volunteers helped with Fall Sweep which took place in Downtown Big Spring, for a total of 11 hours and resulted in 345 pounds of trash. As part of the annual Trash Off there was 2,730 pounds of trash picked up by 105 volunteers for a total of 204 hours. As part of the Adopt-A-Highway program there are 8.4 miles that have been cleaned. According to the press release, in 2004, the organization introduced the concept of Gold Star recognition to reward those communities who sought to go above and beyond the established requirements. Obituaries

Randal Clay Crockett (Randy)

Randal Clay Crockett (Randy), 61, of Big Spring, passed away peacefully June 8, 2022, after a brief illness and a diagnosis of malignant brain tumor, glioblastoma multiforme. He was a beloved father, respected businessman and Christian.

Randy was born in Big Spring, Texas, on June 18, 1960, the son of Donald E. Crockett Sr., a public school administrator, and Norma Jean Boyle, an elementary school librarian and homemaker. He attended Big Spring public schools and graduated from Big Spring High School in 1978. He attended and graduated from Angelo State University in 1984 with a BA in Marketing and then worked for American Petrofina in sales and marketing for several years. After leaving FINA, he became a successful small business owner and owned and operated several convenience stores and restaurants in Big Spring and Howard County, including Kate's Finamart, Fat Boy's Convenience and Buffalo Country Fina. He operated Buffalo County for many years, selling it in 2016. Since that time, he was the owner/operator of the historic Wagon Wheel Drive-In restaurant in Big Spring which appeared on The Texas Bucket List television series in 2017. He was known for giving back to his community and he and his business sponsored countless events and fundraisers over the years.

Randy had a keen interest in sports, especially baseball and golf. He played for the Big Spring Steer baseball team while in high school and was a member of several Little League and Pony League teams while growing up. But the sport he really loved was golf. After taking lessons from his father at an early age, he went on to play for his high school golf team and later became a regular on the local Comanche Trails and Big Spring Country Club golf courses, often times playing with his dogs riding along. He won the City Championship at Comanche Trails in 1992. He was never happier than when he was on the golf course. Whether it was in a friendly game with family and friends or attending the US Open and The Masters, golf was a significant part of his life and a great source of joy.

It was no secret that Randy had a huge and sentimental attachment to his family and he often said that being a father was his biggest accomplishment. He felt blessed to have a daughter and a son. They were a great source of pride to him and he always wanted to share stories of their latest accomplishments with everyone. He was proud that so many of his nieces and nephews would take summer jobs at his businesses or golf lessons from him after hours. Randy loved music, which was an expression of his emotion and individuality. Holidays were special to him, a trait that he readily admitted that he received from his parents. All of his family knew him as a wonderful "kid" with a warm sense of humor, a soft heart, a terrific tease and everybody's favorite Uncle and Brother-in-Law. We will remember him always with a tear in our eye, a smile, a laugh, but most importantly with warmth, love and affection in our hearts.

Randy's life would seem too short to many, but those who knew him understood that the quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which one lives.

Proverbs 4:11-12 "I will guide you in the way of wisdom and I will lead you in upright paths. When you walk, your steps will not be hampered, and when you run, you will not stumble."

He is survived by his mother, Norma Crockett of Big Spring; as well as his children, Katie Lynn Crockett of Big Spring and son, Benjamin James Crockett of Austin. Also surviving him are his brother, Dr. Don Crockett and his wife, Sandra, of Midland, and sister, Caren Greathouse and her husband, Kenneth, of Big Spring. Survivors also include nephew, Lee Marshall and wife, Emily, of Buda, and niece, Norma Jean Sleeman and husband, Dan, of Dallas. Also, nephews, Jeremy Yeats of Big Spring, Matthew Yeats and wife, Janie, of Big Spring, and Brandon Greathouse and wife, Sarah, of Big Spring; five great-nephews and six great nieces. He is survived by his long-time business partner and true friend, Salittia Brehm; dear friend, Jerry Price; and, of course, he is survived by his three dogs, his constant companions, Brodie, Ray and Gracie.

Throughout his illness, Randy and our family experienced a truly tremendous outpouring of concern, love and affection from many of his closest friends, several of whom traveled long distances to see him during his final days. We are tremendously grateful.

The family would like to recognize and acknowledge the excellent care that Randy received at Midland Memorial Hospital, especially the ICU and Neuro staff and nurses. We would also like to thank Drs. Allen Gibson and John Dorman at MMH for their kindness and expertise. The family would also like to thank all of his caregivers in Big Spring.

Memorial services will be held at 3:30 p.m. Friday, June 10, 2022, at the Nalley-Pickle & Welch Rosewood Chapel, 906 S. Gregg St., Big Spring, Texas.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a donation in Randy's names to The First Tee (firsttee.org), The Happy Day Humane Society in Big Spring, or the National Brain Tumor Society (donations@braintumor.org).

Arrangements are under the direction of Nalley-Pickle & Welch Funeral Home and Crematory. Online condolences can be made at www.npwelch.com community affiliates must submit a report, pay dues, attend training and participate in a KTB-endorsed activity annually.

To achieve Gold Star status, affiliates must share information on their mission and goals, answer questions about their economic development and diversity and inclusion practices, or participate in the Beautify Texas Awards or Governor's Community Achievement Awards programs, and provide a letter of support from their community. KTB will formally recognize Gold Star communities during its 55th Annual Conference in June.

"Our affiliates are the backbone of our organization. We are proud to honor those going above and beyond to keep their communities clean and beautiful," says Suzanne Kho, Executive Director of Keep Texas Beautiful. "Our Gold Star Affiliates are educating and engaging community members, actively recruiting and managing volunteers, hosting cleanup and beautification events throughout their community and so much more."

In 2021 alone, KTB affiliates engaged 41,550 volunteers who contributed 190,094 hours to collect 3.25 million pounds of waste and recyclables from Texas roadways, trails, and waterways. Big Spring successfully implemented programs to clean up litter, reduce and recycle waste, educate local citizens, and beautify and enhance the local community.

"One volunteer, one hour, one area at a time is how we make a difference. This is how we've been making a difference and we are now able to see the impact of those efforts," Hafley said. "This award is great recognition, but having a clean community that we can be proud of is an even bigger achievement."

She continued, "Our work is not over. We encourage the community to get involved and join our efforts. We have several Toasty Tuesdays left in this year and other opportunities. Families, youth groups and neighbors are encouraged to do what they can when they can."

To find out more about Keep Big Spring Beautiful reach out to any of the members or attend a meeting. Meetings are held the first Monday of the month at Noon at Howard College, in the Cactus Room.

“Loving God, Loving People, Loving Communities and Changing the world!”

-Pastor Michael Willard

First Church of the Nazarene

This Sunday

I am now at the age where I need to actively cut things out of my life for health reasons, like soda. As an avid soda connoisseur it has not been easy to give it up. Even in my “drinking days” I never liked ordering soda at a drive-thru. Every time I had to emphatically state “easy on the ice”! Otherwise I’d end up with 30 ounces of ice and two ounces of soda. Two sips and its all gone! You know what I’m talking about.

I believe the same thing is true in our life. God wants to fill us up with good things. Like the disciples on the day of Pentecost, God wants to fill us with the Holy Spirit, but often there is so much “ice”, so many other things crammed into our life that there isn’t much room left for the Spirit. If we want to experience the fullness of God, then we need to make room in our lives for Him. You won’t want to miss this Sunday as we explore Life in the Spirit!

Kids Camp

Our NazKids Camp will be July 18 - 22 and is open to any children who have completed First - Sixth grade. You can find our more information at: www.westexnaz.org/childrensministries

We do have some scholarships available to help cover the camp fees. It is important that we get children registered ASAP. Contact us at church@nazfamily.org to setup a time with our Children’s Director, Gloria Jimenez, to register your child for camp.

Father’s Day

Father’s Day is coming soon. We will be honoring all of our dads on Sunday, June 19, as we worship our Heavenly Father together. There will be a gift for each dad along with some special prizes. Invite the fathers you know to come and worship with us.

Freedom Celebration

Come celebrate our freedom with the NazFamily! Everyone is invited to gather at Howard and Sally Callender’s property on Saturday, July 2. You are welcome to come out that afternoon. There will be fishing, swimming, horseback riding, and, of course, fireworks. Fun for the whole family! Feel free to bring a side or dessert to share. If you need direction or more information, contact the church office at church@nazfamily.org Hope to see you there!

Answer God’s knock

When God comes He will knock.

Open immediately. - Luke 12:36

So much to talk about, so little time, If this was the last time to say something I would say...consider the lily that King Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed as one of these. Luke 12:27-40.

28. If then God so clothe the grass, which is today in the field and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29. And seek not what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30. For these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31. But rather seek ye the kingdom of God and all these things shall be added unto you.

32. Fear not, little flock: for it is your Father’s good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33. Sell that ye have, and give alms provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34. For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

I say this to say if you believe in God, believe Jesus Christ said in my Word also.

I especially love this scripture...John 14:2 In my Father’s house are many mansions: If it were not so, I would have told you.

So what I’m saying if it wasn’t true God would not have said it, whatever is written it is so.

Keep belief regardless of what you think, feel, see. Pray to always trust in His word for the word is God. Grow to be a secure man or woman in God. And wait on the Lord like a good waiter waits on a table serving, Grateful with an attitude of a happy servant.

New vaccine may be option for troops with religious concerns

By LOLITA C. BALDOR

Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — A COVID-19 vaccine that could soon win federal authorization may offer a boost for the U.S. military: an opportunity to get shots into some of the thousands of service members who have refused other coronavirus vaccines for religious reasons.

At least 175 active duty and reserve service members have already received the Novavax vaccine, some even traveling overseas at their own expense to get it. The vaccine meets Defense Department requirements because it has the World Health Organization’s emergency use approval and is used in Europe and other regions. The Food and Drug Administration is considering giving it emergency use authorization in the U.S.

The Novavax vaccine may be an acceptable option for some of the 27,000 service members who have sought religious exemptions from the mandatory vaccine. Military officials say many troops who refuse the shots cite certain COVID-19 vaccines’ remote connection to abortions.

Laboratory-grown cell lines descended from fetuses that were aborted decades ago were used in some early-stage testing of the Pfizer and Moderna vaccines and to grow viruses used to manufacture the Johnson & Johnson vaccine. The vaccines do not contain fetal cells. Novavax, however, says that “no human fetal-derived cell lines or tissue” were used in the development, manufacture or production of its vaccine.

Reflections

While You Were Sleeping

I typically don't think much about sleep. But when you fly through seven or more time zones in a single day, as I have done on more than one occasion, you think about it. When everyone else is getting up, your body is begging to go to bed. When everyone else is settling down for a good night's sleep, your body is wide awake and looking for something to do. It takes a few days, at least, to "reset the body clock."

Sleep is an amazing thing. We all require it, including the animals. Even my dog sleeps. I know, I have spent the night camping in a tent with him.

He snores. Sleep appears to be a requirement for all animal life, though it may vary in intensity and method.

Something mysterious and magical happens when we sleep.

Kenneth Cooper, the world-famous physician who set us on the path for aerobic health more than forty years ago, maintains that adequate sleep, like adequate exercise and diet, are essential to balanced health. He states, "Most studies indicate that the average person needs somewhere between the traditional 7 and 8 hours a night. If you get much more sleep than that ... you feel sluggish and fuzzy-headed during the day. ... if you get too little sleep .. you tend to feel like death warmed over."

Sleep deprivation has been used as a means of interrogation and even torture. In some cases, the inability to sleep has had catastrophic consequences. Many think the popular actor, Heath Ledger's tragic death from a prescription drug overdose may have been caused by his ongoing battle with chronic insomnia.

Scientists have a pretty good idea of what goes on during sleep, but no one seems to know exactly how it happens. According to the Sleep Foundation, the body and the brain are repaired and nourished during the phases of non-rapid eye movement (NREM) and rapid-eye-movement (REM). Somehow the body repairs its muscles, consolidates memory and releases hormones that regulate growth and appetite.

Even Jesus slept. His twelve disciples found it incredible that he could sleep in the bow of the boat during a raging storm. Frantic with fear, they woke him. Awakened from his sleep, Jesus asked, "Why are you afraid, you men of little faith?" He then rebuked the winds and the waves, and the place where they were became perfectly calm. His disciples were astonished and looking at one another asked, "What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the waves obey him?" (Matthew 8:23-27).

The need to sleep recognizes our mortality. For seven to eight hours of every day, between a fourth and a third of every twenty-four hours, the world continues without us. During that time, we are totally and completely dependent upon others and upon God for our existence and our well-being. We are not the masters of our fate.

The Scripture states, "In vain you rise early and stay up late, toiling for food to eat — for he grants sleep to those he loves." (Psalm 127:2)

Forgiveness

Confusion reigns many times as I walk this life in the Lord's vineyard--too many times for my liking. I enjoy peace and calmed storms too much for it to be reigning in my life for very long.

Doesn't life get hectic at times, especially when you are trying to do something for the Lord and you get side-tracked? You get tired and do something so out of God's will that He looks at you and says, "Oh my, look at you now." I'm sure He must sit up there in Heaven and laugh at our futile attempts to fix things on our own. I think that's why He has so much patience and grace to spare.

When I do step away and off the path He calls me to walk, and by the way it is still the straight and narrow that leads to life abundant and free, everything slowly falls apart. It's like a house of small sticks that begins to fall like dominoes. First, my peace goes, then I begin to question whether what I did was right, and then near the end of my awakening to His right way, I realize my fault and run back into His waiting arms of forgiveness.

I never really leave His care and watchfulness over me. Because He is my Father and I am His child, forgiveness is always there. And at the end of this trial of my own making, and restored fellowship, He rewards my return with joyous reunion. Then the reason for the confusion becomes so clear. What Satan meant for my downfall, God always means for my good. Invariably, a soul comes to know the Lord. Or righting of friendships is restored. And somehow God gets the glory for it all.

When I get to Heaven, and can see God's Master Plan for what my life was supposed to be like, I probably will laugh right along with my Lord. How foolish to even think my own way is right. God says in Psalm 14:1 "The fool hath said in his heart there is no God." And we all know fools are the ones who stomp all over the precious blood spilled for us at Calvary, to pay for all our foolishness called sin, by God's only begotten Son Jesus Christ.

When will we ever learn? I hope for some it won't be after Hell becomes their home for all eternity. Especially since Jesus paid for our forgiveness and our eternal Home in Heaven with Him.

Something to think about...

We've all seen someone frantically searching for an outlet because their phone is down to 1%. I personally think the definition of "desperation" is a teenager whose phone is about to die.

If you ever tempted to believe they have no motivation or problem solving skills, simply put them in that situation and watch them adapt and overcome. We all know without power many of the devices we depend on daily are nothing more than expensive paper weights. Without an energy source they cannot fulfill their created purpose. And I'm convinced that God designed us to operate in a similar way.

Jesus said, "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." (Acts 1:8) The Greek word for "power" here is "dunymas", which is the same root for our word dynamite. One writer says that "Power is the capacity, ability and willingness to act." Jesus is telling His followers that our ability to faithfully follow Him and fulfill our purpose doesn't come from our own strength, ability, or understanding, but it comes from His Spirit enabling and empowering us.

I'm concerned that there are many trying really hard to live a Christian life without the power source. It simply won't work. It is like trying to make a call or send a text on a dead phone. I'm reminded of what Corrie ten Boom once wrote: "Trying to do the Lord's work in your own strength is the most confusing, exhausting, and tedious of all work. But when you are filled with the Holy Spirit, then the ministry of Jesus just flows out of you." If we really believe it is God's work in us and through us, then we will won't be able to do any of it without the Spirit. Just as Jesus warned us, "...apart from Me you can do nothing." (John 15:5b)

Rather than filling your week with empty activity, take a moment to make sure you are in tune with the Spirit today. What is He asking? Where is He leading? And if you find yourself drained, take a moment to plug in and be filled again.

More Grace

"But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble." James 4:6

Is there such a thing as too much grace? If so, how much grace is too much grace? Well, how much sin is too much sin? All sin is too much sin (no matter how "small" or great) because 1 John 3:4 says that sin is the transgression of the Law. Romans 7:13 tells us that by the commandment (the Law), sin became exceedingly sinful. The cross of Christ was about God dealing favorably with sinners (like me), because Christ died on the cross to be the end of the Law for righteousness to all who believe. It is impossible that God deal favorably with sinners by the Law because the Law works wrath (which is every sinner's demise). The only way that God can deal favorably with us is with more grace. In the gospel of Christ, our sin does not warrant more Law (wrath), but more grace (favor). Otherwise, the "smallest" and most "insignificant" of sins would be more than sufficient to destroy us all. When we sin, God does not give less, but more grace, and this grace (goodness) leads us to repentance. However, this repentance does not mean that we live in sinless perfection, but in the humility of the recognition and confession of our sin. Sinners need more grace. Yet, by the power of our pride, we come to believe that we don't need it.

God gives more grace because our sin is exceedingly sinful. More grace isn't equal to more sin, on the contrary, more sin equals more grace, which in turn, equals to more confession and repentance of pride. Under grace, we don't sin more, rather, we are led to a greater understanding that all sin is exceedingly sinful. Under the deeds of the Law, our pride keeps us from seeing the true sinfulness, even of our "smallest" of sins. However, grace teaches us that our greatest sin was that pride which kept us bound by the shackles of that doctrine which taught us that we could gain God's favor by our own works. Philippians 3:9 says: "and be found in Him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the Law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith".

VACCINE

Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin made COVID-19 vaccinations mandatory last year, saying the shots were critical to maintaining military readiness and the health of the force. Military leaders have argued that troops for decades have been required to get as many as 17 vaccines, particularly for those who are deploying overseas.

A group involved in lawsuits targeting the military's vaccine requirement said some shot opponents may see Novavax as an amenable option.

"I definitely think it is for some, but certainly not for all," said Mike Berry, director of military affairs for First Liberty Institute. "There are some for whom abortion is really the ultimate issue, and once that issue is resolved for them spiritually, then they're willing."

Berry added, however, that for others, abortion is "just a tangential issue," and they have broader opposition to vaccines as a whole. "A rudimentary way of looking at it is that they've asked for God's will, and they believe that it would be wrong for them to get the vaccine," Berry said. "In other words, they believe that God has told them no."

Novavax also may appeal to people uncomfortable with new genetic-based technology used in Pfizer and Moderna's mRNA vaccines. They deliver genetic instructions for the body to make copies of the coronavirus' outer coating, the spike protein.

The Novavax vaccine is made with a more familiar technology, like those used to prevent hepatitis

B and shingles. It trains the body to fight coronavirus by delivering copies of the outer coating grown in insect cells, then are purified and packaged into nanoparticles that to the immune system resemble a virus, says Novavax researcher Dr. Gregory Glenn.

Contreras, Cubs avoid arbitration, agree to $9.625M contract

CHICAGO (AP) — Catcher Willson Contreras and the Chicago Cubs avoided an arbitration hearing scheduled for later in the day, agreeing Thursday to a one-year contract for $9.625 million.

The agreement was at the midpoint between the $10.25 million Contreras had asked for and the $9 million the Cubs had offered when figures were exchanged on March 22.

Contreras, 30, hit .237 with 21 homers and 57 RBIs in 128 games last season, leading National League catchers in assists for the third time. The two-time All-Star is batting .277 with 10 homers and 23 RBIs this season. He is eligible for free agency after the World Series.

No statistics or evidence from after March 1 would have been admissible in arbitration other than contract and salary comparisons. The timing was set when Major League Baseball and the players' association agreed to the deal that ended the lockout.

Contreras could be traded before the Aug. 2 deadline with the Cubs in rebuilding mode. They are fourth in the NL Central at 23-33.

Contreras, pitcher Kyle Hendricks and outfielder Jason Heyward are the only players remaining from the 2016 World Series championship team. The Cubs traded away stars Kris Bryant, Anthony Rizzo and Javier Báez before last season's deadline rather than risk losing them as free agents. Chicago went on to finish with a losing record for the first time since 2014 at 71-91.

There were no reunions in the offseason. The Cubs instead added outfielder Seiya Suzuki, pitchers Marcus Stroman and Wade Miley, and infielder Andrelton Simmons.

Oklahoma hits record 6 HRs at WCWS in 16-1 rout of Texas

By CLIFF BRUNT

AP Sports Writer

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Jocelyn Alo and Tiare Jennings fueled Oklahoma's record-setting offensive burst to help the Sooners move a victory away from successfully defending their Women's College World Series title.

Each hit two home runs and top-seeded Oklahoma set a World Series record with six home runs, rolling past unseeded Texas 16-1 on Wednesday night in Game 1 of the best-of-three championship series.

"It was like an avalanche," Texas coach Mike White said. "Once it starts going, it starts gathering steam, and it's harder to get it to stop."

With former Oklahoma basketball star Trae Young and Sooners football coach Brent Venables present, Oklahoma (58-3) also matched World Series records for runs and victory margin.

A championship series-record crowd of 12,234 saw the show.

"People want to watch us play," Alo said. "They love to watch us play. They love to watch us dominate. I think it's super cool. It's only going to get better from here."

Alo set a single-game World Series mark with five runs and now has set the single-series record for runs scored with 11. She went 3-for-3 and increased her batting average to a nation-leading .527.

Alo and Jennings each have five home runs in the World Series, surpassing the single-series record of four set by several players, including Alo last year. Alo increased her career Division I homer record to 122, and Jennings drove in five runs to set a record for RBIs in a series with 14.

They had plenty of help — Oklahoma had 16 hits.

"They're really frickin' good," Texas catcher Mary Iakopo said. "Hats off to their one through nine."

Alo's second homer was her 34th of the season, matching the Oklahoma school record she set last season. Oklahoma coach Patty Gasso said she now expects homers when Alo steps to the plate.

"It's ridiculous that I'm thinking that way," she said. "But I see her at practice every day. I see what she's capable of. It's just so tough to beat her. She's so strong."

The teams will meet again Thursday in Game 2, with Oklahoma in position to win its sixth national title. Texas (47-21-1) needs a win to stay alive. The Longhorns have won six elimination games since the start of the NCAA tournament.

"Just remember that the worst has already happened and play carefree, loose," Iakopo said. "That's all we can do."

Oklahoma does not intend to play a third game.

"We're prepared," Alo said. "We're going to have the momentum. It's time to win another ballgame."

Oklahoma escaped a bit of difficulty in the first, giving up a run, but controlled the game from there. Hope Trautwein (22-1) gave up just two hits and a run in five innings, and Nicole May allowed just one hit in two shutout innings.

Bella Dayton had two doubles for Texas.

Alo cranked a no-doubt home run into the left field seats in Oklahoma's half of the first, and Taylon Snow followed shortly afterward with a three-run blast — just her fourth home run of the season — to make it 5-1 heading into the second. Texas used three pitchers in the inning, and ace Hailey Dolcini (24-12) registered just two outs before getting pulled.

Jana Johns hit a solo shot in the third to make it 7-1 and Jennings hit a three-run blast later in the inning to make it 10-1. Alo and Jennings hit back-to-back homers in the fifth to make it 14-1.

Fortunately for Texas, none of those runs will matter on Thursday.

"Nothing from today carries over," Dolcini said. "So you learn from it and you try not to make the same mistakes again. Then we just come out and play loose. I think we lost a little bit of that today."

Pérez returns to Rangers in top form, leads MLB in ERA

By STEPHEN HAWKINS

AP Baseball Writer

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Martín Pérez was nearly a year from making his big league debut with the Texas Rangers and pitching in 2011 at Triple-A Round Rock, where one of the catchers was a future MLB manager.

"He was real young ... Very well-thought of by the Rangers and all of baseball. A big prospect, super talented," said Tampa Bay manager Kevin Cash, who then was in his last season as a player. "I think what we saw in Round Rock was if this young kid can stay healthy, he's going to have a pretty good career."

Now in his 11th big league season, and back in Texas after three seasons away, Pérez is having the best stretch of his career.

The 31-year-old left-hander went into Thursday as the MLB leader with his 1.56 ERA. His nine consecutive quality starts have matched the longest in Rangers history, with the only longer active streak in the majors 10 in a row by San Diego's Joe Musgrove.

Pérez was the American League pitcher of the month in May, when on the final day he threw seven scoreless innings against Tampa Bay. Perez retired the last 16 Rays batters he faced after taking a 97 mph liner off his right leg.

In his only June start so far, Pérez gave up two runs over six innings in a no-decision against Seattle. He allowed his first homer of the season but worked out of an early bases-loaded jam without a run scoring and left with Sunday's game tied at 2.

"The old Martin maybe would have gotten frustrated, and when it was bases loaded and one out, wouldn't have been able to make pitches," Rangers manager Chris Woodward said, calling it one of the lefty's most impressive performances in a season full of them.

Before that, Pérez had gone at least six innings in eight consecutive starts while allowing no more than one earned run. He threw a complete-game shutout at Houston and also had seven scoreless innings at Philadelphia.

"I think maybe mentally I'm stronger and have more experience," Pérez said.

Signed by the Rangers as a 16-year-old out of Venezuela in 2007, Pérez was 21 for his big league debut in June 2012. He was 43-49 with a 4.63 ERA in Texas, and had Tommy John surgery in 2014, before going to Minnesota in free agency for the 2019 season.

He spent the past two seasons in Boston, where he was dropped from the Red Sox rotation in early August and finished last year with 14 relief appearances.

"From last year to this year, I'm not giving too much credit to the hitters. I just go out there and throw my pitches where I want it," he said. "And I think the focus that I have on my bullpens right now, I think has changed everything. Because what I'm doing in the bullpen, I'm just trying to bring into the game. ... I'm just trying to pitch like I'm in the game, same attitude, same adrenaline."

The Rangers signed free agent Jon Gray to $56 million, four-year contract in December before the MLB lockout to be their No. 1 starter. Pérez got a $4 million deal at the start of spring training, with the expectation that he could be a dependable starter in a rotation filled with young pitchers.

Pérez lost his first two starts while allowing seven runs over eight innings, but the team's oldest starting pitcher has a 0.88 ERA (six earned runs in 61 1/3 innings) in his nine starts since. His 1.56 ERA overall is the lowest in Washington Senators/Rangers franchise history for a pitcher in his first 11 starts of a season.

"He feels like he's executing pitches at a more consistent rate so far this year," Cash said. "He's probably a little different pitcher than he was when he was 20 years old throwing 97, 98 miles an hour. There's more pitchability there."

Mariners manager Scott Servais was in player development for the Rangers when they were scouting the teenaged Pérez and signed him.

"So I've seen him from Day 1, good competitor, and he's changed over time," Servais said. "But his bread and butter pitch is his sinker and his change-up ... the command has probably been as good as it's ever been for him right now, being able to move the ball to both sides of the plate."

Raleigh, France HR, M's win 1st series in Houston since 2018

By KRISTIE RIEKEN

AP Sports Writer

HOUSTON (AP) — The Seattle Mariners are still far behind the AL West-leading Astros in the standings.

But manager Scott Servais hopes the team's first series win in Houston since 2018 will be a small — but important — step in one day vying with the Astros for a division title.

Cal Raleigh and Ty France both homered early and the Mariners beat the Astros 6-3 Wednesday night to finally win a series at Minute Maid Park.

"You have to eventually (win in Houston) or we're never going to win the West," Servais said. "That's just where it's at."

The Mariners took two of three to win their fourth consecutive series overall and first in Houston since September 2018.

The Astros have won the AL West in four of the last five years and currently have a nine-game lead over the second-place Angels.

"They've dominated the division the last couple of years, so anytime you can come in here and take a series from them it's good," Raleigh said.

Seattle has struggled at Minute

Maid Park in recent years. The Mariners won more games in this set than they did in Houston in the 2019 and 2020 seasons combined when they were a paltry 1-16.

"We have taken our lumps in this ballpark but guys really stepped up in this series and again today," Servais said.

Seattle is in fourth place in the division, but has heated up lately, winning eight of its last 12 games.

"We are moving the ball in the right direction," Servais said. "We're still chipping away, we still got work to do, but we did exactly what we needed to do on this trip."

The Mariners trailed by two with one on and one out in the fourth when Raleigh homered for the second time this series, a shot to right-center off José Urquidy (5-3) that tied it at 3.

France connected with two outs in the inning for a solo drive that put Seattle ahead.

Logan Gilbert (6-2) allowed seven hits and three runs in six innings to win his second straight decision. He gave up the three runs early before settling down to pitch three scoreless frames. Diego Castillo struck out the side in the ninth for his fourth save.

Urquidy yielded seven hits and five runs — four earned — while walking a career-high four in 4 1/3 innings.

Yordan Alvarez had three hits and drove in two runs for the Astros, who also dropped a series to the Mariners last week in Seattle.

"We ran into a hot club," manager Dusty Baker said. "So we just have to regroup."

The Mariners got a double from J.P. Crawford to start the fifth and he moved to third after a single by Eugenio Suarez and an error by shortstop Aledmys Díaz. A sacrifice fly by Adam Frazier chased Urquidy.

Seattle rookie Julio Rodríguez was hit on the left arm in consecutive at-bats in the sixth and eighth innings. He took first base without incident both times, a stark contrast to the events in Monday night's game when benches cleared and multiple ejections came after France was plunked by Héctor Neris.

Jesse Winker padded the lead with a run-scoring single in the eighth.

Alvarez put Houston up early with an RBI single with two outs in the first.

Urquidy walked Winker with one out in the second and he advanced to second on a wild pitch by Urquidy with two outs. Rodríguez walked before Seattle tied it at 1 on a single by Crawford.

Jose Altuve opened the Houston second with a double on a line drive to left field. Alex Bregman singled with one out and Altuve was thrown out at the plate.

A double by Alvarez drove in Bregman and put the Astros on top 2-1. Kyle Tucker then singled home another run.

TRAINER'S ROOM

Mariners: OF Kyle Lewis, who has been out since sustaining a concussion May 28, is still experiencing symptoms and has yet to resume baseball activities.

... RF Mitch Haniger (sprained right ankle) is not yet running but has been hitting in the cage. There is no timetable for his return.

UP NEXT

Mariners: Seattle has an off-day Thursday before hosting the Boston Red Sox on Friday night in the opener of an 11-game homestand.

Astros: Houston is also off Thursday before opening a three-game interleague series with Miami on Friday night.

1944 — Joe Nuxhall, at 15 years, 10 months and 11 days, became the youngest player in major league history when he pitched for the Cincinnati Reds in an 18-0 loss to the St. Louis Cardinals.

1959 — Rocky Colavito of Cleveland hit four consecutive home runs at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium, a tough home run park. Billy Martin and Minnie Minoso also homered in the Indians' 11-8 victory.

1966 — Cleveland's Sonny Siebert threw the only no-hitter of the year as the Indians beat the Washington Senators 2-0.

1972 — Hank Aaron's grand slam pushed the Atlanta Braves to a 15-3 rout over the Philadelphia Phillies. It was Aaron's 649th home run, moving him ahead of Willie Mays into second place on the career home run list. It was also his 14th grand slam, tying Gil Hodges' NL record.

1997 — Kevin Brown threw a no-hitter and kept himself from a perfect game by hitting a batter in the eighth inning, leading the Florida Marlins over the San Francisco Giants 9-0.

2005 — Baltimore's 4-3 win over Cincinnati marked the first time that three 500-homer players appeared in the same game — the Orioles' Sammy Sosa (580) and Rafael Palmeiro (559), and the Reds' Ken Griffey, who hit a solo shot in the eighth inning for No. 511.

2006 — Reggie Sanders became the fifth player in major league history with 300 homers and 300 stolen bases when he hit a two-run shot in Kansas City's 9-5 loss to Tampa Bay.

Today in History

Today is Friday, June 10, the 161st day of 2022. There are 204 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On June 10, 1967, six days of war in the Middle East involving Israel, Syria, Egypt, Jordan and Iraq ended as Israel and Syria accepted a United Nations-mediated cease-fire.

On this date:

In 1692, the first execution resulting from the Salem witch trials in Massachusetts took place as Bridget Bishop was hanged.

In 1907, eleven men in five cars set out from the French embassy in Beijing on a race to Paris. (Prince Scipione Borghese of Italy was the first to arrive in the French capital two months later.)

In 1935, Alcoholics Anonymous was founded in Akron, Ohio, by Dr. Robert Holbrook Smith and William Griffith Wilson.

In 1963, President John F. Kennedy signed into law the Equal Pay Act of 1963, aimed at eliminating wage disparities based on gender.

In 1971, President Richard M. Nixon lifted a two-decades-old trade embargo on China.

In 1977, James Earl Ray, the convicted assassin of civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr., escaped from Brushy Mountain State Prison in Tennessee with six others; he was recaptured June 13.

In 1978, Affirmed, ridden by Steve Cauthen, won the 110th Belmont Stakes to claim horse racing's 11th Triple Crown.

In 1991, 11-year-old Jaycee Dugard of South Lake Tahoe, California, was abducted by Phillip and Nancy Garrido; Jaycee was held by the couple for 18 years before she was found by authorities.

In 2009, James von Brunn, an 88-year-old white supremacist, opened fire in the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C., killing security guard Stephen T. Johns. (Von Brunn died at a North Carolina hospital in January 2010 while awaiting trial.) Donald Trump fired Miss California USA Carrie Prejean, who'd sparked controversy when she said gays shouldn't be allowed to marry.

In 2013, jury selection began in Sanford, Florida, in the trial of neighborhood watch volunteer George Zimmerman, charged with second-degree murder in the fatal shooting of 17-year-old Trayvon Martin. (Zimmerman was acquitted.)

In 2016, Muhammad Ali was laid to rest in his hometown of Louisville, Kentucky, after an all-day send-off. "Mr. Hockey" Gordie Howe, who set scoring records that stood for decades, died in Sylvania, Ohio, at 88.

In 2020, protesters pulled down a century-old statue of Confederate President Jefferson Davis in Richmond, Virginia, the former capital of the Confederacy. NASCAR announced that it was banning the Confederate flag at all of its races and venues; the flag had been a common sight at those events for more than 70 years.

Ten years ago: Parts of northern Colorado and southern New Mexico battled wildfires that were spreading rapidly through mountainous forest land, forcing hundreds of evacuations. Shanshan Feng won the LPGA Championship to become the first Chinese player to win an LPGA Tour title and a major event, closing with a 5-under 67 for a two-stroke victory at Locust Hill Country Club in Pittsford, New York. The bittersweet "Once" won eight Tony Awards, including best musical; "Clybourne Park" won best play.

Five years ago: British Prime Minister Theresa May struck a deal in principle with Northern Ireland's Democratic Unionist Party to prop up the Conservative government, which had been stripped of its majority in a disastrous election. Unseeded Jelena Ostapenko of Latvia stunned No. 3 Simona Halep 4-6, 6-4, 6-3 in the French Open final for the first title of her career.

One year ago: Republican lawmakers voted with majority Democrats in the Oregon House of Representatives to expel a Republican member, Mike Nearman, who had let violent, far-right protesters into the state Capitol in December 2020. The wife of Mexican drug kingpin Joaquin "El Chapo" Guzman pleaded guilty in Washington to charges that she helped her husband run his multibillion-dollar criminal empire. (Emma Coronel Aispuro would be sentenced to three years in prison.)

Bidding quiz

Your right-hand opponent opens with One Notrump, both sides vulnerable. What would you bid with each of the following hands?

- ♠ KJ954 ♥ 7 ♦ A982 ♣ KJ6
- ♠ AJ9 ♥ KQJ9 ♦ KJ7 ♣ Q98
- ♠ AJ10983 ♥ 4 ♦ 10 ♣ AQ983
- ♠ A976 ♥ KQJ983 ♦ 6 ♣ AJ
- ♠ AQ82 ♥ 3 ♦ KJ94 ♣ AJ87

- 1. Pass. It is much too dangerous to bid two spades with such a flimsy suit and only 12 high-card points against an opponent who has 15 to 17 (or 16 to 18) points and scattered high-card strength. You could suffer a huge penalty if the next player had some spade length and most of the missing high cards. A double of one notrump would be equally risky because you can't be sure of setting the contract, and because partner might remove the double to two hearts.
- 2. Double. With an opening notrump bid of your own and your high cards well-situated behind the opening bidder's high cards, you double for penalties (unless your partnership has some other agreement, the double of an opening notrump bid is not for takeout). There are not many honor cards left for the next two players, and you hope that partner has his fair share of them. If partner bids two
- 3. Two spades. Though you have only 11 high-card points, your 6-5 distribution and strong suits more than compensate for your lack of honor cards; indeed, a game is well within the realm of possibility. A suit bid over one notrump implies a good suit and reasonable safety, both of which you have.
- 4. Double. Here you have a genuine choice between bidding two hearts or doubling, but there are two factors that favor the double. First, if everyone passes, you have an extremely effective lead against one notrump doubled. Second, if partner pulls the double to two of a minor suit, you can then bid two hearts.
- 5. Pass. Again, the safety principle applies, as in the first hand. Sometimes you have to pass as a matter of prudence, even though inaction might result in your missing a makeable contract. While you might feel that your side can make a partscore in one of your three suits, the fact is that there's no safe way to explore that possibility. The chance of making a game is remote, and it doesn't make much sense to risk a large penalty when only a partscore is at stake.

Hope Trine -- Like a Diamond in the Sky

Shortly after the moon changes into her weekend wear, Mercury and Pluto form a lucky earth sign trine, as if to say, "Check out this auspicious moment." Here we stand between those retrograde insights about who we've been and our summer resolutions and wishes. So much is possible because we believe it is. Hope makes it so.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). You didn't cause the tension, but with charm and strategy you'll dissolve it. Regardless of whether the others can fully appreciate your social genius, it sure does make (SET ITAL) your (END ITAL) life easier!

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). This day feels like a quiz, except the answers won't be found in small writing, upside down on the bottom of the page. It's all a guess now, but next week you'll know what you got right.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Relationship problems happen when people project their hopes and fears onto one another. You'll avoid assuming people are who you want them to be. Instead, you'll make every effort to learn who they really are.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Manage stress better and finances improve or manage finances better and stress dissolves. With your positive attitude, no matter how you go about the problem, you win!

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Though "leave no trace" is one of your mottoes for being in nature, it doesn't work in every scene. Your mere presence often changes things. Today it's for the better, and you'll go somewhere that could really use the improvement.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). People are more likely to intrude on boundaries that are not well marked. When it matters enough, you'll make the rules and decide how they are enforced -- the equivalent of a gated entry.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). It can't hurt to be a little strategic with the party mood that prevails. Consider who might be good for you to know and mingle accordingly.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). An attempt to solve other people's problems often shows you how much people actually like their problems and don't want them solved. You'll avoid that drama today with an exclusive focus on your own scene.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You're moving on to better things, which aren't necessarily bigger things; rather, they are things more suited to you. Large quantities of mediocre hold no appeal to you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Someone who points out your mistakes might not be the most pleasant person to be around, but nonetheless will be instrumental in today's rapid growth and tomorrow's stellar opportunity.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Your smile and your willingness to go along with the fun are a gift to others and they will repay you for it too, with a sense of belonging as they include you time and again.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). The job isn't as easy as you thought it would be. Trying too hard can push things in a worse direction. Relax. Oddly, good results come with less effort.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (June 10). With all eyes on you, you'll rise to the occasion. More remarkably, you'll keep rising to the occasion when no one is looking and make major goals happen for yourself this year. More highlights: an invitation to participate in a massive endeavor involving thousands, a quiet getaway in nature and an unexpected family reunion. Libra and Cancer adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 9, 5, 33, 26 and 40.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

FATHER'S DAY HISTORY

Each year, the third Sunday in June is a time to pay homage to fathers and the millions of other men who have stepped into the role of father. While it may seem as though Father's Day has been around forever, it didn't become a nationally recognized holiday in the United States until 1972, when President Richard Nixon signed Joint Resolution 187 into law.

Many thank Sonora Smart Dodd for making Father's Day happen. In 1909, while attending a Mother's Day sermon in church, Dodd felt fathers were equally deserving of praise. To honor her own father, a Civil War veteran and widower who raised six children alone, Dodd petitioned for a Father's Day on June 5th (the anniversary of her father's death) in her native Spokane, Wash. The celebration was deferred to the third Sunday in June. Another account says Grace Golden Clayton came up with the idea for a Father's Day in 1908 in Fairmont, West Virginia. Clayton was inspired to celebrate fathers after 361 local men perished in a deadly mine explosion. Clayton brought the idea up to the minister of her local church.

Historians say that Father's Day may even be a much older idea. St. Joseph's Day, which was celebrated each year on March 19 in Catholic nations of Europe since the medieval era, and later elsewhere around the world, commemorates Joseph, the husband of Mary and father figure to Jesus. It was said that Joseph should be held up as the ideal example of fatherhood. The Coptic Orthodox Church celebrates St. Joseph's Day on July 20. In the Orthodox Christian Church, the second Sunday before the Nativity is celebrated as the Sunday of the Forefathers — celebrating all of Jesus' male ancestors, with an emphasis on Abraham, the patriarch of the Jewish faith.

FATHER'S DAY GIFT IDEAS FOR ALL TYPES OF DADS

This Father's Day, families will gather to thank dads for all they do. Gifts often are part of Father's Day celebrations, and here's a list of gift ideas for dads with various interests.

Gaming Dad

The draw of popular video games doesn't abate for some men as they get older. If your dad is at home with game controller in hand, then gifts that feed his hobby can be ideal.

Virtual reality has made great strides. Devices that enable VR game play and other entertainment may appeal to Dad. There are a few options on the market, like the Oculus, Pico Neo, HTC Vive, and Valve Index.

Another option is to gift the Nintendo Switch Console, which enables your dad to play at home connected to the television or on the go with the handheld controller and screen combination so he never misses a chance to engage in game play.

Sports Dad

Tap into your father's love of sports with gifts tailored to his passion. Baseball and soccer are played during warm months, so tickets to a game is something dads and their children can do together. You also can cheer his team on in front of a new big-screen television he gets for being such a great dad.

Outdoorsman Dad

If your dad is most at home with a fishing pole and tackle box, kayaking a nearby body of water, or hiding in a tree stand during hunting season, then gifts that cater to his love of the great outdoors are perfect. Insulated thermoses, waterproof bags for storing phones or wallets, multitools, backpacks, and hiking boots make great gifts.

Techy Dad

Does the idea of the latest "smart" offering get your father all revved up? Then purchase gifts that cater to his love of gadgets. Maybe he can use a new tablet or laptop that bridges the gap between home and office. Could it be time to upgrade his smartphone? A doorbell camera or home security kit can help Dad keep an eye on the comings and goings around the house when he's away. Or help him create surround lighting effects that can react to content on the screen or music being played with LED smart lighting strips.

Practical Dad

Some fathers don't want flashy gifts, instead preferring ones that can be used everyday. Think about a new paper shredder or identity block roller stamp to keep sensitive information safe. If Dad takes long road trips, then he might be able to use a car visor extender or a smartphone holder. Shelving, racks or storage straps for the garage also may put a smile on Dad's face.

This year, make Father's Day a smash hit with gifts that cater to Dad's interests.
