farmer's market took place Saturday morning from 8 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Vendors included local small business owners offering tumblers, sweet treats and eats, handmade jewelry, purses and more. One local vendor was showcasing her artistic talents and promoting her business, The Art Spot. Mrs. Jamie offered a free painting activity for the Fourth of July. Kids who stopped by her booth were able to paint their own fireworks.

"I host different painting opportunities including a Parents Night Out, at least once a month. Most of the art activities we do allow the kids to be creative and find their own style," Mrs. Jamie said. "I do offer the paintings where they have to follow steps, but it seems that the kids have more fun when they are able to be creative and make their own designs."

LEADING OFF: Ohtani excelling on mound, Javier an Astros ace

By The Associated Press

A look at what's happening around the majors today:

SHO AND TELL

Angels two-way star Shohei Ohtani takes a scoreless streak of 21 2/3 innings to the mound when he starts at Miami.

Ohtani (7-4, 2.63 ERA) has won four consecutive starts, allowing just one run in that span. He's struck out 101 in 74 innings this year.

The reigning AL MVP will pitch a day after his 28th birthday. This will be his first career pitching appearance against the Marlins, who have won six in a row.

Los Angeles has dropped four straight.

ASCENDING ASTRO

Houston right-hander Cristian Javier is coming off two incredibly dominant starts as the Astros go for their ninth consecutive victory when they host the Kansas City Royals.

In his last outing, Javier struck out a career-high 14 while holding the Angels to one hit in seven innings. The time before, he fanned 13 in seven innings and combined with the Astros bullpen in a no-hitter at Yankee Stadium.

The 27 total strikeouts are the most in a two-game span by a pitcher who allowed just one hit in the modern era (since 1900), ESPN Stats & Info said.

Javier walked only one batter in that span. The 25-year-old has won three straight starts overall for the AL West leaders.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW

Bryan Bello, the top pitching prospect in Boston's system, is set to make his major league debut as he faces Tampa Bay at Fenway Park.

The 23-year-old righty has a fastball in the upper 90s mph. He is a combined 10-4 with a 2.33 ERA in Triple-A and Double-A this season.

Two-time Cy Young Award winner Corey Kluber (3-5, 3.91 ERA) starts for the Rays.

Also, Red Sox ace Chris Sale is scheduled to make a rehab start for Triple-A Worcester. The left-hander has been out since spring training because of a stress fracture in his ribcage.

TOUGH BREAK

Dodgers outfielder Chris Taylor is headed to the injured list after a CT scan revealed a fracture in his left foot. He got hurt last weekend and exited Monday's game when it swelled.

Taylor, an All-Star last year and co-MVP of the 2017 NL Championship Series, was batting .238 with six homers, 19 doubles, 27 RBIs and a .728 OPS.

Dodgers manager Dave Roberts is hoping Taylor will be back in a couple of weeks.

Gavin Lux, Trayce Thompson and Jake Lamb will platoon in left field during Taylor's absence.

Los Angeles did get some good news when closer Craig Kimbrel's CT scan came back clean. He will be available Wednesday.

Kimbrel took a line drive off his back last week.

GIANT SLIDE

San Francisco tries to stop a six-game skid when it plays at Arizona. The third-place Giants have fallen 10 1/2 games behind the rival Dodgers, who lead the NL West. Alex Cobb (3-3, 4.95 ERA) faces Diamondbacks right-hander Merrill Kelly (7-5, 3.46).

ARCHER AILING

The AL Central-leading Twins will be minus Chris Archer for a bit after the pitcher was put on the 15-day injured list because of tightness in his left hip.

Minnesota made the move before Archer was scheduled to start against the White Sox. It was retroactive to Saturday.

The 33-year-old Archer joined the Twins in the offseason and has done well, going 2-3 with a 3.08 ERA in 15 starts. He'd pitched in only six games during the previous two seasons because of injuries.

The Twins are hoping Archer will be back to rejoin the club before the All-Star break later this month.

Alvarez makes big throw, hits 25th homer, Astros top Royals

By KRISTIE RIEKEN

AP Sports Writer

HOUSTON (AP) — Long established as a star at the plate, Jordan Alvarez has been showing flashes of brilliance on defense this season, too.

Alvarez threw out Hunter Dozier at the plate from just short of the warning track in left field to preserve a two-run, eighth-inning lead, then hit his 25th homer as the Houston Astros beat the Kansas City Royals 9-7 on Tuesday night.

The Astros also got homers from Jeremy Peña, Alex Bregman and Aledmys Díaz as they extended their winning streak to a major league-best eight games.

Houston trailed 4-3 entering the fifth inning before Peña homered off Zack Greinke (2-5) to tie it. Bregman's two-run shot later in the fifth put the Astros ahead 6-4.

The eighth belonged to Alvarez.

Bryan Abreu's bases-loaded walk of Michael A. Taylor got the Royals within two. Phil Maton took over and Nicky Lopez hit a deep flyball that Alvarez caught and fired on the fly to catcher Martin Maldonado, who tagged out Dozier for an inning-ending double play.

"When the ball was hit, I just focused and thought I'd have a chance at home if I made a pretty good throw," Alvarez said through a translator. "That was where my focus was, just to make a good, strong throw there."

After playing primarily at designated hitter in his first three major league seasons, Alvarez has been splitting time between DH and left field this year.

"It all goes back to work," manager Dusty Baker said. "And he's worked on it. He's worked on his defense a lot."

With two outs in the bottom of the eighth, Alvarez homered to left-center off Jackson Kowar to make it 9-6. Chants of "M-V-P" rained down on the slugger as he rounded the bases.

"It felt exciting that the fan base was calling for that," he said. "It definitely felt good."

His 25th homers are tied with Philadelphia's Kyle Schwarber for second in the majors, four behind the Yankees' Aaron Judge.

Alvarez was asked if he enjoyed his big defensive play or his homer more.

"I think the thing that is the most fun is today is it's my mom's birthday," he said. "At first, when I threw out the runner, I said: 'Oh wow.' Then I hit the home run and I said: 'Oh wow, (what) a good gift (for her).'"

Luis Garcia (7-5) allowed eight hits and five runs in 6 1/3 innings for his fourth straight win. Rafael Montero allowed a run on a groundout in the ninth before striking out the next two batters for his sixth save.

Greinke tied a season high by allowing 10 hits with six runs in five innings in his first start against Houston since signing with the Royals in the offseason. The veteran spent 2 1/2 seasons with the Astros, going to the World Series in 2019 and last year.

"Stuff felt pretty sharp but I made a lot of mistakes and didn't really make a lot of quality strikes," Greinke said. "I think ... they had 10 hits or something and at least like eight of them were mistakes."

The Astros played a video honoring Greinke's time in Houston while he warmed up and capped it by playing John Anderson's "Seminole Wind," which was his warmup music. He received a warm ovation and waved to the crowd from the bullpen.

"Yeah, that was good," Greinke said. "The Diamondbacks decided to show them hitting some home runs off me and then did a tribute, so it was nicer to do it before the game. Kind of a nice way of doing it."

MJ Melendez hit a solo homer off Garcia in the second and Bobby Witt Jr. connected off him for a two-run shot in the third. It was the third home run of the series for Melendez, who went deep twice in the series opener on Monday.

Diaz hit a two-run homer in the seventh off Kowar.

TRAINER'S ROOM

Royals: Witt left the game after fouling a ball off his hand in the ninth inning. Manager Mike Matheny said X-rays were negative but his hand was swollen after the game. ... LHP Daniel Lynch (left index finger blister) is scheduled to make his first rehabilitation start for Triple-A Omaha Wednesday.

Astros: RHP Lance McCullers Jr., who has been out all season with a forearm injury, threw another live batting practice session Tuesday. He threw about 30 pitches and Baker said he will do that a couple more times before moving to simulated games.

CLIMBING THE CHARTS

Baker tied Walter Alston for ninth all-time among managers with 2,040 career wins.

Varsho's 3-run homer seals Diamondbacks' 6-2 win over Giants

By JOHN MARSHALL

AP Sports Writer

PHOENIX (AP) — Josh Rojas planted the two-strike bunt seed in spring training after realizing, with his speed, he'd have better odds laying one down than swinging away.

Despite the analytics in his favor, the Arizona third baseman had yet to attempt it this season, worried about looking foolish if the ball rolled foul for a strikeout.

A pep talk from his dad convinced Rojas he should try. San Francisco's infield shift gave him the opportunity — and he pulled it off perfectly.

Rojas jump-started Arizona's five-run eighth inning with a two-strike bunt single and Daulton Varsho capped it with a three-run homer, helping the Diamondbacks extend the Giants' losing streak to six games with a 6-2 win Tuesday night.

"The scariest part is when you bunt and it goes foul, you look like an idiot," Rojas said. "If you can get past that and you look at strictly the numbers and get half of them in play — I think I could probably get more than half — you're increasing your 0-2 batting average from .100-.200 to .500-.600."

Rojas entered in the eighth inning as a pinch-hitter and missed two pitches from hard-throwing Dominic Leone (3-1). With a 1-2 count, the Giants shifted their infielders to the right side.

Rojas squared to bunt on Leone's next pitch, but pulled back when he saw the breaking ball wasn't a strike. Next pitch, Rojas got what he wanted — a fastball — and dropped it perfectly down the third-base line for the majors' second two-strike bunt single by a position player since 2016.

Rojas caused more problems with his speed, drawing several pickoff throws to first base by Leone, and then went to third on Cooper Hummel's single. He scored the tying run on a wild pitch and Varsho all but sealed the Diamondbacks' first series win against their NL West rivals since May 2019 with his homer to the pool deck in right-center.

Mark Melancon worked a perfect ninth to close it out.

"There's no setup to doing it," Diamondbacks manager Torey Lovullo said. "It's just instinctual play when you see that the field has been shifted and there's a clear lane for you to get a base hit if you execute right. Josh did that."

Joc Pederson gave San Francisco a 1-0 lead with a sacrifice fly in the fourth. Geraldo Perdomo tied it with an RBI single in the fifth.

The Giants took a 2-1 lead in the seventh on Austin Wynns' run-scoring single off Caleb Smith (1-1) that was initially ruled a foul ball when Hummel missed a sliding catch. After a long replay review, the ball was deemed fair, allowing Yermier Mercedes to score.

An end to their losing streak in sight, the Giants watched the win blow away in the desert air after Rojas' bunt with two strikes and Varsho's homer on a 102 mph fastball. San Francisco has lost 12 of 15.

"If you're going to point the finger, point it at me," Leone said.

DIAMONDBACKS MOVES

Arizona designated RHP J.B. Wendelken for assignment after he allowed five runs over two innings in his last two appearances. He went 2-1 with a 5.28 ERA in 29 games this season. The Diamondbacks also claimed INF Sergio Alcántara off waivers from San Diego.

Contract Bridge

The bidding:

Pass 1♥ Dble 4♥

Opening lead — king of diamonds.

Good defense is not difficult if you keep the ultimate objective — defeat of the contract — firmly in mind. Most defensive errors are usually due to a failure to view the play of the hand as a whole.

Assume you're East, defending against four hearts, and partner leads the king of diamonds. When dummy appears, you should feel there's a reasonable chance to defeat the contract. This is because the dummy, aside from its trumps, does not pose much of a threat.

You signal with the seven of diamonds, asking West to continue the suit in hopes of snatching three quick diamond tricks. But declarer ruffs the next diamond lead, and you must now reconsider how your side is going to collect the four tricks needed to set the contract.

At trick three, South leads a trump to the ten and returns a club from dummy. If you follow the general rule of second-hand low, you will later regret it. South plays the queen of clubs and West the ace, but the battle is just about over. Declarer soon leads another club from dummy. You win the king and return a spade, but South rises with the ace and discards dummy's queen of spades on the jack of clubs to make the contract.

Note, however, that if you go up with the king on the first club lead from dummy and return a spade, South goes down one. Moreover, that's the play you'd make if you had been thinking along the proper lines when the first club was led.

After declarer trumps the diamond at trick two, it is clear that your side must score three tricks in the black suits to stop the contract. If South has the A-Q of clubs, your king is dead no matter what you do, so rising with the king can do you no harm. But if West has specifically the club ace and spade king, going up with the king and returning a spade is the only way to defeat the contract.

Tomorrow: Bidding quiz.

7, female cadets at West Point

Today is Thursday, July 7, the 188th day of 2022. There are 177 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On July 7, 1976, the United States Military Academy at West Point included female cadets for the first time as 119 women joined the Class of 1980.

On this date:

In 1846, U.S. annexation of California was proclaimed at Monterey (mahn-tuh-RAY) after the surrender of a Mexican garrison.

In 1865, four people were hanged in Washington, D.C. for conspiring with John Wilkes Booth to assassinate President Abraham Lincoln: Lewis Powell (aka Lewis Payne), David Herold, George Atzerodt and Mary Surratt, the first woman to be executed by the federal government.

In 1898, the United States annexed Hawaii.

In 1930, construction began on Boulder Dam (later Hoover Dam).

In 1946, Jimmy Carter, 21, married Rosalynn (ROH'-zuh-lihn) Smith, 18, in Plains, Georgia.

In 1948, six female U.S. Navy reservists became the first women to be sworn in to the regular Navy.

In 1981, President Ronald Reagan announced he was nominating Arizona Judge Sandra Day O'Connor to become the first female justice on the U.S. Supreme Court.

In 1990, the first "Three Tenors" concert took place as opera stars Luciano Pavarotti, Placido Domingo and Jose Carreras performed amid the brick ruins of Rome's Baths of Caracalla on the eve of the World Cup championship.

In 2005, terrorist bombings in three Underground stations and a double-decker bus killed 52 victims and four bombers in the worst attack on London since World War II.

In 2010, Los Angeles police charged Lonnie Franklin Jr. in the city's "Grim Sleeper" serial killings. (Franklin, who was sentenced to death for the killings of nine women and a teenage girl, died in prison in March 2020 at the age of 67.)

In 2013, Andy Murray became the first British man in 77 years to win the Wimbledon title, beating Novak Djokovic 6-4, 7-5, 6-4 in the final.

In 2016, Micah Johnson, a Black Army veteran who served in Afghanistan, opened fire on Dallas police, killing five officers in an act of vengeance for the fatal police shootings of Black men; the attack ended with Johnson being killed by a bomb delivered by a police robot.

Ten years ago: Jubilant Libyans chose a new parliament in their first nationwide vote in decades. The Obama administration declared Afghanistan the United States' newest "mayor non-NATO ally." Serena Williams beat Agnieszka Radwanska (ahg-nee-ESH'-kuh rahd-VAHN'-skuh) of Poland 6-1, 5-7, 6-2 to win a fifth Wimbledon singles championship; about five hours later, she and sister Venus were back on Centre Court to win the doubles final.

Five years ago: Islamic militants attacked a remote Egyptian army outpost in the Sinai Peninsula with a suicide car bomb and heavy machine gun fire, killing at least 23 soldiers in the deadliest attack in the turbulent region in two years. A federal appeals court dismissed Hawaii's attempt to challenge Trump administration rules for a travel ban on citizens from six majority-Muslim countries, saying it didn't have jurisdiction to address the issue.

One year ago: A squad of gunmen assassinated Haitian President Jovenel Moïse and wounded his wife in an overnight raid on their home. (More than 40 suspects have been arrested, including at least 18 Colombian soldiers and 20 Haitian police officers.) Former President Donald Trump sued Facebook, Twitter and Google's YouTube, claiming that he and other conservatives had been wrongfully censored. A federal judge ruled that the Air Force was mostly responsible for a former serviceman killing more than two dozen people at a Texas church in 2017 because it failed to submit his criminal history into a database, which should have prevented him from purchasing firearms. The Tampa Bay Lightning won the Stanley Cup for the second consecutive season, beating the Montreal Canadiens 1-0 to wrap up the series four games to one.

Lunar Investigation

Our every action is motivated. The motivation may be logical or whimsical, mysterious or faulty, but one thing it always is: there. Nothing we do is unmotivated. This is the principle that helps you figure out yourself and others as the moon gathers information, forming different angles to five luminaries on a mission of understanding.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Unless you're having fun, the people around you won't be either. Don't you owe it to them to make yourself happy? Shifting your priorities around or handling a responsibility differently will make all the difference.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). You will be sensitive to location. When you feel at home in a place, you will feel differently about everything. There is a sense of expansion and lightness inside. Your thoughts will drift to happy places.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). You have tried to strike someone from your list, move them out of your heart space and bid them adieu, but it hasn't worked so well. Your heart won't let them leave. You once again get swept into love's swell.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Self-expression invigorates you. You would think it would deplete you, as you're giving off so much energy in the process. However, the energy isn't really coming from you. In creative acts you will be a channel of vitality.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Like attracts like. When you walk into a room, you'll gravitate toward people whose energy matches yours. You will gauge your performance based on what you receive and make small adjustments to get your desired response.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). It is so easy for you to focus on what other people need that sometimes you neglect your own needs, or do not even realize that they exist. Take an inventory. Forget the world outside to assess the world inside.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). You never know what others are thinking about you, and for the most part it doesn't affect your plans, focus or work. But does it please you to know that someone is smitten by your lovely manner and the fine attention you give?

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). The intrinsic logic of a belief has little impact on its effectiveness in motivating people. The power of a belief doesn't come from how true it is. What matters is the depth of its hold and who is holding it.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Even the most easygoing people can be unreasonable at times. You've been known to accept a person's illogical stance as a quirk of their passion or creativity, and you should afford yourself the same grace.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Although no one else can stop you, you might be wise to stop yourself every so often. Take breaks! Good, healthy pacing allows you to avoid the burnout that could prevent you from collecting your prize at the finish line.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). The best collaborations will be between people who don't entirely agree. Even teams fraught with tension are better than unanimous groups. For those willing to listen and learn from each other, diversity is strength.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). A possession that does not technically have the ability to talk is nonetheless clamoring for your attention in its way. Get to work on this one as soon as possible so you can get back to peace and quiet.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (July 7). It's a liberating year when you will feel emboldened to be even more fully yourself. You needn't hide your magnificence to fit in. Neither do you feel pressure to pretend to know things you don't. Libra and Capricorn adore you. More highlights include truly inspired dining, an altitude adventure and a loving creation made just for you. Your lucky numbers are: 1, 4, 39, 28 and 17.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: Ringo Starr has been known to take advantage of this lucky solar return by releasing a single on his birthday. Currently the legendary Beatle is touring with his All-Starr Band and venturing into the Web3 world with his "Ringo Starr NFT Collection." Starr is a Cancer with Venus in Gemini and four luminaries in entertaining Leo. Three Taurus planets suggest stamina, determination and longevity.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
