Howard College Board proposes tax break, faculty/staff raises for 2022-23 Tax/Budget hearing set for Monday

By ROGER CLINE

Managing Editor

If the board that governs Howard College moves forward with a tax plan proposed Monday, local taxpayers can anticipate a break on their taxes from the Howard County Junior College District. During the board's Monday meeting, Howard College President Cheryl Sparks announced the plan, which, if finalized, will bring in more revenue during 2022-23 than it did in 2021-22, average homeowners will pay less in

In fact, while the average homestead in Howard College's taxing area has increased in value from $96,883 in 2021-22 to $104,520 in 2022-23 – an increase of 7.88 percent – taxes on that average homestead will go down from $229.40 in 2021-22 to $176.01 in 2022-23 – a decrease of $53.39, or 23.27 percent.

The total tax levy for the College District will increase from $13,818,264 in 2021-22 to $14,623,784 in 2022-23 - a bump of $805,520, or 5.83 percent.

Sparks said the calculation is largely due to the burgeoning value of minerals – especially oil – in the area. "The Howard County tax base increased dramatically this year," Sparks said. "When that happens, the tax rate will decrease. As a result of those two dynamics, the board made the decision to propose the tax rate. They haven't adopted it yet, but they proposed it. The proposed tax rate for the upcoming year is $0.168395 per $100 valuation. That rate is higher thn the No-New-Revenue tax rate of $0.158455 per $100, but will not trigger a Voter-Approval Election because the rate is less than the Voter-Approval tax rate of $0.173434 per $100. The board unanimously approved the rate. The motion to approve was made by board member Ben Zeichick, who highlighted raises for college personnel including a $20,000 raise for Sparks herself.

As part of the motion, Zeichick moved to increase Sparks' salary "...as was discussed, by $20,000 as a down payment on getting you partway closer to the average. At this point, as we all know, you are one of the very least well-paid college presidents in Texas – community college presidents – and you are the longest-serving, and that doesn't seem right to the board."

The board also set a public hearing on the tax rate for 12:30 p.m. Monday, Aug. 22, in the Fireplace Room of the Howard College Student Union Building, 1001 Birdwell Lane in Big

Biden signs massive climate and health care legislation

By ZEKE MILLER and SEUNG MIN KIM Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Joe Biden signed Democrats' landmark climate change and health care bill into law on Tuesday, delivering what he has called the "final piece" of his pared-down domestic agenda, as he aims to boost his party's standing with voters less than three months before the midterm elections.

The legislation includes the most substantial federal investment in history to fight climate change — some $375 billion over the decade and would cap prescription drug costs at $2,000 out-of-pocket annually for Medicare recipients. It also would help an estimated 13 million Americans pay for health care insurance by extending subsidies provided during the coronavirus pandemic. The measure is paid for by new taxes on large companies and

"It is important to invest in our infrastructure," he said. "Our population will double over next 20 years so the new highway designation couldn't come at a better time." Osborn thanked Arrington for his support on the federal level.

Howard County Judge Kathryn Wiseman stated that she is grateful that Arrington has, "Kept rural Big Spring in the eye of our U.S. Congress." Judge Wiseman also talked about the importance to an alternate route off of the Highway 35 corridor in West Texas. "This project, when completed will open up the whole west and northwest to trade and transportation to Canada and Mexico." The Big Spring Economic Development Corporastepped-up IRS enforcement of wealthy individuals and entities, with additional funds going to reduce the federal deficit.

In a triumphant signing event at the White House, Biden pointed to the law as proof that democracy — no matter how long or messy the process still deliver for voters in America as he road-tested a line he will likely repeat later this fall: "The American people won, and the special interests lost."

The House on Friday approved the measure on a party-line 220-207 vote. It passed the Senate days earlier with Vice President Kamala Harris breaking a 50-50 tie in that chamber.

"In normal times, getting these bills done would be a huge achievement," Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer, D-N.Y., said during the White House ceremony. "But to do it now, with only 50 Democratic votes in the Senate, over an intransigent Republican minority, is nothing short of amazing.'

Biden signed the bill into law during a small ceremony in the State Dining Room of the White House, sandwiched between his return from a six-day beachside vacation in South Carolina and his departure for his home in Wilmington, Delaware. He plans to hold a larger "celebration" for the legislation on Sept. 6 once lawmakers return to Washington.

The signing caps a spurt of legislative productivity for Biden and Congress, who in three months have approved legislation on veterans' benefits, the semiconductor industry and gun checks for young buyers. The president and lawmakers have also responded to Russia's invasion of Ukraine and overwhelmingly supported NATO membership for Sweden and Finland.

With Biden's approval rating lagging, Democrats are hoping that the string of successes will jump-start their chances of maintaining control in Washington in the November midterms. The 79-year-old president aims to restore his own standing with voters as he contemplates a reelection bid. The White House announced Monday that it was going to deploy Biden and members of his Cabinet on a "Building a Better America Tour" to promote the recent victories. One of Biden's trips will be to Ohio, where he'll view the groundbreaking of a semiconductor plant that will benefit from the recent law to bolster production of such computer chips. He will also stop in Pennsylvania to promote his administration's plan for safer communities, a visit that had been planned the same day he tested positive for COVID-19 last month "In the coming weeks, the President will host a Cabinet meeting focused on implementing the Inflation Reduction Act, will travel across the country to highlight how the bill will help the American people, and will host an event to celebrate the enactment of the bill at the White House on September 6th," the White House said in a statement.

Republicans say the legislation's new business taxes will increase prices, worsening the nation's bout with its highest inflation since 1981. Though Democrats have labeled the measure the Inflation Reduction Act, nonpartisan analysts say it will have a barely perceptible impact on prices. Senate Minority Whip John Thune, R-S.D., on Tuesday continued those same criticisms, although he acknowledged there would be "benefit" through extensions on tax credits for renewable energy projects like solar and wind. "I think it's too much spending, too much taxing, and in my view wrong priorities, and a super-charged, super-sized IRS that is going to be going after a lot of not just high-income taxpayers but a lot of mid-income taxpayers," said Thune, speaking at a Chamber of Commerce event in Sioux Falls. The administration has disputed that anyone but high earners will face increased tax scrutiny, with Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen directing the tax agency to focus solely on businesses and people earning more than $400,000 for the new

The measure is a slimmed-down version of the more ambitious plan to supercharge environment and social programs that Biden and his party unveiled early last year.

Biden's initial 10-year, $3.5 trillion proposal also envisioned free prekindergarten, paid family and medical leave, expanded Medicare benefits and eased immigration restrictions. That crashed after centrist Sen. Joe Manchin, D-W. Va., said it was too costly, using the leverage every Democrat has in the even-

To Manchin, who struck the critical deal with Schumer on the package last month, Biden said, "Joe, I never had a doubt" as the crowd chuckled.

Though the law is considerably smaller than their initial ambitions, Biden and Democrats are hailing the legislation as a once-in-a-generation investment in addressing the long-term effects of climate change, as well as drought in the nation's West.

The bill will direct spending, tax credits and loans to bolster technology like solar panels, consumer efforts to improve home energy efficiency, emissionreducing equipment for coal- and gas-powered power plants, and air pollution controls for farms, ports and low-income communities.

Another $64 billion would help 13 million people pay premiums over the next three years for privately bought health insurance under the Affordable Care Act. Medicare would gain the power to negotiate its costs for pharmaceuticals, initially in 2026 for only 10 drugs. Medicare beneficiaries' out-of-pocket prescription costs would be limited to $2,000 annually starting in 2025, and beginning next year would pay no more than $35 monthly for insulin, the costly diabetes drug.

Rep. Jim Clyburn, D-S.C., a powerful political ally to Biden, noted during the White House ceremony that his late wife, Emily, who battled diabetes for three decades, would be "beyond joy" if she were alive today because of the insulin cap.

"Many seem surprised at your successes," Clyburn told Biden. "I am not. I know you."

Jimbo Fisher, No. 6 Texas A&M seeking SEC superiority

By KRISTIE RIEKEN

AP Sports Writer

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) — Texas A&M coach Jimbo Fisher spent the offseason making headlines for a spat with Alabama's Nick Saban.

Now that the season is approaching, the trash talk between the coaches has ended and Fisher and No. 6 Texas A&M will try to take the next step and compete with the top-ranked Crimson Tide for SEC superiority.

Saban upset Fisher this spring when he essentially accused Texas A&M and other schools of buying players when talking about the lack of regulation around athlete compensation.

Fisher called Saban's comments despicable and labeled him a "narcissist." Fisher denied his program did anything wrong while landing the No. 1 recruiting class in the country for 2022.

Both coaches received a public reprimand from the conference office for the incident before each said that they'd moved on.

"We all will learn, he will learn (and) hopefully I learn from things we do and say, and we move on from there," Fisher said. "But I have great respect for him and their program like always."

The Aggies handed top-ranked Alabama its only regular-season loss last year but fell to unranked Mississippi State and LSU to leave Fisher without a 10-win season in four seasons in College Station.

Texas A&M knows the path to winning its first national title since 1939 goes through Alabama and the Oct. 8 game in Tuscaloosa between the two already looms large.

"The goal for this team is to compete for the national championship," guard Layden Robinson said. "We want to rise to the occasion, especially when the lights are the brightest. We just want to rise up this season.'

QUARTERBACK COMPETITION

Three players were vying for the starting quarterback job: Haynes King, Max Johnson and Conner Weigman.

King won the job last year, but he broke his leg early in the second game. Zach Calzada started the rest of the season before transferring to Auburn.

Johnson was the starter at LSU last season before transferring to A&M. The son of Super Bowl-winning QB Brad Johnson, he threw for 2,815 yards with 27 touchdowns and six interceptions.

Perhaps the most intriguing of the group is Weigman, a five-star prospect and one of the stars of Fisher's top-ranked recruiting class. The dual-threat QB accounted for almost 2,900 yards and 34 touchdowns as a senior last season after throwing for more than 3,800 yards with 42 touchdowns as a junior and running for nine more scores.

Fisher has been encouraged by how Johnson and Weigman have handled learning his offense.

"They understand it really well. They both do," Fisher said. "Conner has picked it up very well for a young freshman. He's a very intelligent guy. A very instinctive guy. If he makes a mistake, he doesn't repeat it very often. Very encouraging in that way and developing. Max is doing the same thing.'

BIG-PLAY THREATS

Texas A&M's offense has big-play potential.

Running back Devon Achane, a junior who is a sprinter on A&M's track team, moves into the starting lineup this season after running for 910 yards in a reserve role in 2021. Achane led the SEC and ranked in the top 15 in the country last season by averaging seven yards a carry.

Joining him this season is speedy freshman receiver Evan Stewart, who like Weigman was a five-star recruit and rated as the No. 1 receiver in Texas.

"We have more guys at the skill positions that, even though they don't have a lot of experience, they are dynamic playmakers," co-offensive coordinator Darrell Dickey said. "They may be young guys, but we have guys that can run, that can catch the ball make a guy miss and go the length of the field."

DEFENSIVE STAR

Junior defensive back Antonio Johnson is poised to become A&M's defensive leader after a strong 2021 season where he was second on the team with 79 tackles and had one interception and five pass breakups.

"He's going to do a little bit of everything," Fisher said. "He'll play nickel, safety, dime. We can move him around and match him up because he's such a tremendous football player."

THE SCHEDULE

The Aggies open the season Sept. 3 against Sam Houston in the first of three home games capped by a visit from No. 16 Miami on Sept. 17. They head to AT&T Stadium the following week for their annual neutral site game against No. 19 Arkansas. Three consecutive road games come next, highlighted by the showdown at Alabama.

Rangers win 3rd straight, top A's 2-1 after Woodward firing

By STEPHEN HAWKINS

AP Baseball Writer

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Marcus Semien homered, rookie Bubba Thompson had a tiebreaking RBI single and the Texas Rangers won a onerun game only hours after manager Chris Woodward was fired.

With Tony Beasley managing his first big league game, after being named the interim manager for the final 48 games of the season, the Rangers overcame nine walks by their pitchers in a 2-1 win over the last-place Oakland Athletics on Monday night.

"Yeah, it was nerve-wracking. It was a one-run ball game, and so every pitch mattered, every play mattered," Beasley said. "Walks creating opportunities for the other team to score, we persevered and somehow got through it."

In the end, Beasley said it was fun, with good energy in the dugout and players responding after a long day of significant change. The Rangers entered the game 6-24 in one-run games.

Woodward, who was in his fourth season and two games shy of his 500th game as manager, was let go with the Rangers (52-63) on pace for their sixth consecutive losing season. He was the fourth big league manager fired this season.

Nick Allen homered for the last-place A's, who lost their ninth game in a row.

The Rangers actually have their first three-game winning streak in more than two months — since June 11-13. They completed a series victory against Seattle over the weekend by winning what were Woodward's final two games, giving him a 211-287

Beasley is the longest-tenured member of the Rangers coaching staff in his eighth season. He had a 590-472 record in eight seasons as a minor league manager in the Washington (2011-13) and Pittsburgh (2001-05) organizations.

"Obviously, we're all very thankful for everything that Woody's poured into us," winning pitcher Glenn Otto said. "Very lucky to have Tony Beasley ready to keep working, and hopefully make these next six weeks really mean something.

Otto (5-8) went six innings for his first victory since June 4 despite a career-high six walks, including the game's first two batters. The young right-hander was 0-6 his last nine starts. His only strikeout was against the last batter he faced, and the homer was one of only two hits allowed.

"We had (runners on) first and second in the first inning and the double play ball really bailed them out there. Offensively, we got three hits tonight, and you're not going to win many games when you get three hits, no matter if you have nine walks," A's manager Mark Kotsay said. "Offensively, we just didn't do enough tonight to score enough for us to win a baseball game."

Jonathan Hernandez overcame two walks in the ninth for his fourth save in as many chances.

James Kaprielian (3-7) struck out five and walked one over 5 1/3 innings. He was pulled after Leody Taveras had a one-out triple in the sixth.

"He had swing-and-miss stuff tonight ... he was in the zone," Kotsay said. "They did have some some at-bats that they had some hard contact."

Taveras went to third on reliever Sam Moll's errant pickoff throw, then scored when Thompson hit a sharp grounder through the right side of the Semien tied the game at 1 with his 18th homer in the bottom of the third. All of his homers have come over the past 71 games since May 28.

Allen, Oakland's No. 9 batter, lined a homer just over the wall in left-center leading off the third. The rookie infielder has gone deep in back-to-back games after only one homer his first 54 career

GOOD GLOVE WORK

Taveras ran a long way to make a leaping catch on the warning track in straightaway center on Cal Stevenson's drive that ended the seventh inning. ... Stevenson, the Oakland center fielder, also had a highlight play with a diving catch on Corey Seager's sinking liner in the left-center gap in the third. ... Thompson, in his 10th big league game, had a running, sliding catch of Tony Kemp's popup to shallow left in the third.

TEXAS STREAKING

Rangers 1B Nathaniel Lowe extended his on-base streak to 21 games in a row with a single in the third. That is the longest active streak in the majors, and four short of his career high. That came right after Adolis Garcia singled. Garcia's 12-game hitting streak is the longest of his career, and the longest by a Texas player this season.

Ex-NFL star Aqib Talib's brother turns self in after slaying

LANCASTER, Texas (AP) — The brother of retired NFL cornerback Aqib Talib turned himself in to authorities Monday after police identified him as the suspect in the shooting death of a coach at a youth football game in Texas.

Police said that a murder warrant was issued for Yaqub Salik Talib, 39, in the fatal shooting on Saturday night of Michael Hickmon, 43, police in the Dallas-area city of Lancaster

According to witnesses, Talib pulled out a gun and shot Hickmon multiple times after a disagreement between the opposing coaching staff of two youth football teams over calls made by the officiating

Hickmon was later pronounced dead at a hospital. Police say no other injuries were reported.

Yaqub Talib is the brother of Aqib Talib, a five-time Pro Bowler who announced his retirement in 2020. Aqib Talib was named last month as a contributor for Prime Video's "Thursday Night Football."

Police said that after the shooting, Yaqub Talib fled, taking the firearm

Talib's attorney, Clark Birdsall, told The Associated Press that his client "regrets the tragic loss of life but self-surrendered this morning so that he may have the chance to say his side of the story." Birdsall declined to elaborate on what Talib's side of the story is.

Police said they were still investigating the circumstances leading up to the shooting. Several people, including children, were present when Hickmon was killed, police said.

that the brothers are coaches for North Dallas United Bobcats, a youth football team. Hickmon was a coach with the youth team D.E.A. Dragons, WFAA reported.

Dragons President Mike Freeman said the dispute began when Hickmon went to pick up a football and someone kicked it away.

"I don't know how to explain it to the kids. That's the part that I'm stuck on right now. How Dallas TV station WFAA reported do I explain it to them. Why?" Freeman said.

Dble Opening lead — eight of diamonds. In general, it is not wise to double the opponents for penalties unless you think you can defeat the contract at least two tricks. Aside from the fact that you might not get one of the tricks you are counting on, there is the simple matter of the scoring itself. For example, let's say you double an opponent in four hearts not vulnerable, expecting to set the contract one trick. If you're right, you gain 50 points, scoring 100 points instead of 50. But if you're wrong and declarer makes four hearts doubled, you lose an extra 170 points because of your double. So, in trying to gain 50 points, you might lose 170, which means you are giving odds of about 3.5 to 1 that the contract will fail.

Consider this deal from a duplicate game where West made a very close double of two spades. This was an especially risky double because, if West's hopes failed to materialize, he would be doubling the opponents into game. West led a diamond, and East took dummy's king with the ace. East very correctly returned a trump, won by West with the jack. Back came another diamond, won by East with the jack. At this point, it was no longer possible to defeat the contract. With a diamond return, the defenders would finish with three trump tricks and two diamonds. With any other return, declarer would also finish with eight tricks, eventually discarding his third diamond on dummy's ace of hearts. So South made two spades doubled for a Albany. score of 670 points.

200 points had he cashed his ace of trump after winning East's trump return with the jack at trick two. He would then lead the deuce of diamonds to East's jack at trick four. East would next cash the queen of diamonds and continue with a diamond, promoting West's queen of spades as the setting trick.

Close doubles require tight defense.

Working for Fun

Fun is an integrated state, impossible to achieve when the mind is in one place and the body is somewhere else. Wishing for a different scene robs from the one you're in. The lunar square to Venus suggests that it will be work to make fun, but the aspect also offers a cosmic shovel with which to dig into the task at hand to excavate its fun potential.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Everyone in your immediate vicinity is at a similar skill level or concerned with the same topics as you are. It's bad for productivity. Go where this isn't the case. Once you get objectivity, you'll know exactly where best to focus.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Watch what people are sharing and what gets noticed. People want to know things that you already know. There is a huge opportunity for you in this, should you decide to start sharing more of what you do.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). To some extent, you can pick and choose the beliefs that suit you. Though, unfortunately, many beliefs come as a package deal. You can always try an idea on for fit. If doesn't feel right, try another.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Some people act nice because they want you to think well of them and perhaps reciprocate. Others do nice things because they're nice people. Life is dreamy when you're surrounded by the latter category.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Circumstances aren't perfect, but you'll perform well with the right-size challenge. Resist the temptation to overcommit yourself. Think of your entire situation and take on responsibilities that fit comfortably into your life.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). "Can I talk to you?" can be an innocent request, though more often it grabs attention and inspires fear. Most feelgood messages need no such fanfare. You'll be careful not to let simple things become dramatic.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). The old way is barely working. People follow the recipe, read from the script, fulfill the programming -- to meager or hollow results. If anyone can finagle a new and better way, it's you. Apply yourself to figuring this out.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). If left unguarded, leisure time can get eaten up by obligations. Protect your fun! Treat your playtime as sacred, and if you planned to give yourself a reward, make sure you really give it to yourself.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Experience is a fantastic teacher, but it's not the only teacher. Follow the instructions left by your predecessors. This race is like a relay in which you start where the torch is passed to you, not back at the begin-

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Everything comes to fruition through labor. You have no problem motivating yourself to get a job done. You'll bond with others through thinking and talking about work, and get tips and tricks that make it easier.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Like spotty cellphone service, you'll get moments of clarity and blanks to fill in, which you'll do like a pro. You could see this as an annoyance, though you might just as easily see it as a puzzle or game.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). If you only fulfill one directive today, let it be this: accept yourself. Everything springs from your relationship with yourself. When that relationship is solid, others will be open to you and all you con-

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Aug. 17). Natural environments will speak to you. You'll walk to the water's edge and listen to the wisdom of wind and wave. The elements can change in a moment or an eon. You'll take charge of your life's timing and set defining rhythms with your decisions that stick. Success will be attributed to your incredible gift of tenacity. Libra and Capricorn adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 4, 44, 3, 38 and 18.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: Multiple Academy Awardwinner Robert De Niro teams a warrior spirit with a workman approach to craft. This Leo is busier than ever with six projects in post-production and more on the way. De Niro was born with Mercury and Venus in Virgo, the sign of industriousness and growth. The Pisces moon of artistry is guided by his sun, Jupiter and Pluto in Leo, the sign of entertainment.

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
