Parking lot paving, memorial wall discussed during special county meeting Sy Andreia Medlin County Special County Funds provided by the American Res-

By ANDREIA MEDLIN

Reporter

The Howard County Commissioner's Court held a special meeting Monday, Oct. 31, at the Howard County Court

The brief meeting was led by Howard County Judge Katherine Wisemen and involved only two items on the agenda.

The meeting began with a prayer led by Wiseman and then public comment for which there was none. Both items were in regards to maintenance of county properties.

Long presented the items, the first of which requested permission to ask for premilinary bids to pave the parking lots of the sheriff's office, the Howard County Court House, the 118th District Court, and the Howard County Library. The motion was briefly discussed before being passed unanimously. The second item presented was in regards to the memorial wall on the east side of the court house. It's use for ceremonies by several groups including the veterans was discussed, as well as details about the plans to update the area.

cue Plan Act will be used to foot the $39,420.20 bill. The area will be updated with astroturf to fill the area around the monument and rock will be used to fill the flower beds due to the difficulty of keeping it maintained. The trees and ivy will remain, but the area will get a new paint job with a color yet to be determined.

Further plans for other landscaping and maintenance needs will be reserved for future agendas.

After approval for the stated use for the ARPA funds, the meeting adjourned.

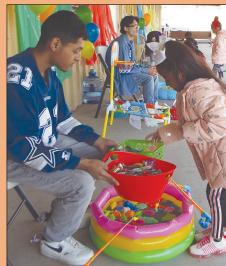

Fall celebrations highlight weekend

There was something for everyone Saturday in Big Spring. Among many activities slated for Halloween and Fall Festival enthusiasts were the '90s Block Party held at the St. Thomas Square, the Trunk-or-Treat held at the Howard County Court House and the Halloween Safe Stop participating businesses, the Howard County Master Gardener's Fall Festival and the "Scream for Prayers" metal concert downtown.

Families headed to the Howard County Library on Friday evening to enjoy the Fall Festival. Kids were sporting their costumes as they enjoyed a game of ball toss, fishing, bean bag toss and more. The event was free to attend and kids even had an opportunity to win a free book at the book walk.

The Howard County Library presented an evening of family fun as their indoor Fall Festival provided an opportunity for some early trick or treating fun. On Friday evening, families were able to stop by the library and enjoy some games, try their library knowledge with a scavenger hunt, and even go home with some goodies.

"We are excited to have been able to provide a fall festival in person. Since Covid happened - the last two years - we have been hosting the drive through distribution," Sandra Verdin, Children's Librarian at the Howard County Library, said.

The weather was a little chilly, but that didn't stop the little ghosts, goblins, and other 'scary' creatures from coming indoors for a game of fishing, plinko, bean bag toss, ring toss, mini golf and more. Eddie Austin set up a short mini-golf

Pumpkins can be composted, donated to farms, fed to wildlife

Consider composting pumpkins in the garden, donating them to community gardens, farms or even a zoo, or simply leaving them as a snack for backyard

Gardeners can add pumpkins to the compost pile after removing any remaining seeds and being sure to cut off decorative material such as glitter, paint, stickers and candle wax. Slice the pumpkin into smaller pieces, scatter and bury them into the pile. And don't worry if the pumpkin has already started getting moldy — those microorganisms aid the composting process.

Pumpkins, other vegetable scraps and grass clippings in compost piles are high in nitrogen. Provide equal or higher amounts of carbon-based materials such as leaves, sawdust, wood chips or cardboard. Occasionally add water to the compost pile. Turning it over with a rake or pitchfork ensures that oxygen is mixed in.

Some community gardens accept pumpkins and other food scraps to add to their compost piles.

Or consider that pumpkin as a meal for a host of animals at a local farm, zoo or sanctuary. The group Pumpkins for Pigs has an interactive U.S. map of places that accept donations of uncarved, undecorated pumpkins.

Homeowners also may consider feeding the wildlif e that hang out in their neighborhoods, especially when those old pumpkins are offered with other fruit. Salvaged pumpkin seeds are a tasty treat for a wide variety of birds such as cardinals, sparrows, finches and chickadees, including when mixed with other seeds such as sunflowers.

Howard Co. Area Football Roundup Week 10: Coahoma and Forsan pick up key district wins

Big Spring falls to Lubbock Estacado on a late field goal

By PATRICK GONZALES

Herald Sports Writer

The regular season is coming to an end for all three area Howard County teams as all three have one more district game left. Big Spring, Coahoma, and Forsan have all secured a playoff spot after district play and now all three are fighting for placement and even a district title.

Big Spring secured a playoff spot after a win over San Angelo Lakeview in week 9 and are fighting for seeding at this point. The Steers traveled to Lubbock last Thursday where they suffered a tough loss to the Estacado Matadors. Estacado rallied late in the fourth quarter to kick a field goal to secure a 24-21

The Steers will look to bounce back as they get ready to host long time rival Andrews this Friday at Memorial Stadium in their final district game of the season. A win and the Steers finish third in District 2-4A. A loss and the Steers finish fourth in district. Either way the Steers are headed to the playoffs.

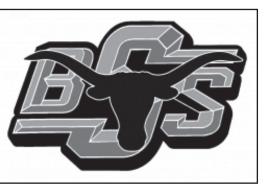

At the beginning of the season, Coahoma was projected to claim the final fourth playoff spot in what has been recognized as one of the toughest 3A districts in Region I. Fast forward to now and the Bulldogs are in the mix to claim a share of the District 4-3A title.

The Bulldogs continue to impress as they came away with another huge 27-26 district win this past Friday over Lubbock Roosevelt. With the win Coahoma is now 3-1 in district play and more importantly sets the Bulldogs up to potentially claim a share of the district title.

To claim a share of the district title, the Bulldogs will need to get a win over a tough Abernathy team this Friday. The Bulldogs are set to host the Antelopes at Bill Easterling Memorial Stadium in what will no doubt be a game to watch! The Forsan Buffaloes remain perfect in district play as they came away with another huge 47-14 win over the Ozona Lions this past Friday. With the win, the Buffaloes improve to 4-0 in District 3-2A setting up a big matchup with Sonora, who is 3-1 on the season, this Friday at Bronco Stadium. A win and the Buffaloes claim the district title outright, a loss and the Bufflaoes will be the co-district champions. No doubt another big time game to watch this Friday

BIG SPRING STEERS 21 LUB-BOCK ESTACADO MATADORS

LUBBOCK - The Big Spring Steers played on Thursday last week as they made the trip to Lubbock to take on the Estacado Matadors. Heading into the fourth quarter, the Steers held a 21-14 lead over the Matadors, but that would be short lived as Estacado running back Bobby Ross ran for a 2 yard touchdown to tie the game up 21-21. Both teams played tough defensively for most of the fourth quarter, but a couple of costly penalties on the Steers proved to be the deciding factor. Estacado capitalized on those penalties as the Matadors rallied to kick a late 24 yard field goal with 20 seconds left in the game to secure the 24-21 win over the Steer quarterback Gavin Padron finished the night with 234 yards of passing completing 26-43 pass attempts, one touchdown, and three interceptions. Steer wide receiver Zeyire Franklin led the Big Spring's receiving group with 8 catches for 126 yards and one touchdown,

The Steers will close out district play this Friday as they get ready to host long time rival Andrews. The Steers have already clinched a playoff spot and are playing for a higher seeding in the playoffs at this point. A win over the Mustangs and the Steers will finish in third place, A loss and the Steers finish fourth in District 2-4A and claim the last playoff spot.

Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. at Memorial Stadium.

COAHOMA BULLDOGS 27 BOCK ROOSEVELT EAGLES 26

LUBBOCK - Coahoma captured a huge district win this past Friday night over Lubbock Roosevelt, as the Bulldogs edged the Eagles 27-26 to claim the victory. With the win the Bulldogs now put themselves in contention to claim a share of the District 4-3A title as they get ready to host Abernathy this Friday.

Heading into halftime both the Bulldogs and Eagles were tied up at 20-20. In the third quarter, the Eagles would score the only touchdown in the quarter to give them their first lead of the game. A missed field goal by the Eagles resulted in a 26-20 lead over the Bulldogs.

With just under a minute left in the game of the fourth quarter, Coahoma quarterback Boyd Cox connected with Bulldog receiver Tristan Guerrero on a 15 yard touchdown pass to tie the game. Coahoma kicker Reagan Chapman kicked the extra point to put the Bulldogs up by one and would go on to win

Coahoma quarterback Boyd Cox finished the night with 250 passing yard completing 11-16 pass attempts, and three touchdowns. Bulldog receiver Billy Bailey led the speedy Coahoma receiving group finishing the night with 4 catches for 104 yards and one touchdown.

The Bulldogs will look to claim a share of the district title as they get ready to host the Abernathy Antelopes Friday at Bill Easterling Memorial Stadium. A win and the Bulldogs are co-district champions and a loss the Bulldogs finish either second or third in district.

FORSAN BUFFALOES 47 ZA LIONS 14

Forsan improved to 4-0 in District 3-2A play this past Friday night, as the Buffaloes trampled the Ozona Lions 47-14. With the win the Buffaloes are in sole possession of first place and have at least guaranteed a share of the district title. However, a win over Sonora this Friday and Forsan wins the district title outright.

The Buffaloes running game continues to dominate as they had a career high 412 yards of rushing in their win over the Lions Friday night. The Buffaleos led the entire game as they held 19-7 lead heading into halftime. The Buffaloes would go on to score 28 points in the second half including 21 points in the fourth quarter alone in the win.

Forsan running back Yandell Melendez led the Buffaloes running game as he finished the night with 103 yards on 16 carries and a touchdown. Huston Stockton also contributed 89 yards of rushing on 15 carries and two touchdowns. Forsan's Cade Willis, Kevin Kligora, Grant Roman, and Brycen Cervantes all contributed a touchdown in Forsan's win over Ozona.

Forsan will travel to Sonora to take on the Broncos this Friday as the Buffaloes look to clinch the district title outright. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. at Bronco

The bidding: South East 1 NT Pass 3 NT Opening lead — four of hearts.

Most mistakes in bidding or play occur on the easy hands rather than the difficult ones. This is partly because easy hands occur more often than difficult ones, and partly because players tend to relax on easy-looking hands. Consider the present case where

South was in three notrump and West led a heart. Declarer won with dummy's jack and played the king of diamonds followed by a low diamond to the ace. West showed out, and East now had a diamond win-

South really had no better option than to continue the suit, so he led another diamond. East won with the queen and shifted to the queen of spades, whereupon the defenders scored four spade tricks, and South went down one. Although South was certainly unlucky to go down on this line of play — the diamonds had to break badly, and West had to have the ace of spades — he could nevertheless have assured a favorable outcome regardless of how the East-West cards were divided. All he had to do, after cashing the king of diamonds at trick two, was to lead a diamond from dummy and finesse

If the nine won the trick, South would be sure of scoring at least two hearts, five diamonds and three clubs for a total of 10 tricks. And if the nine lost to the queen, South would finish with at least nine tricks consisting of two hearts, four diamonds and three clubs.

Declarer's undoing can be attributed to his misapplication of the rule that it is slightly better to cash the A-K than to finesse when the defenders have the Q-x-x-x of a suit. Under the circumstances, this was not a good rule to follow. South could easily have afforded to lose a diamond trick — but to West, not East. He should therefore have finessed the nine of diamonds after cashing the king, since even if he lost the battle for the queen, he'd

Today's Highlight in History:

On Nov. 1, 1991, Clarence Thomas took his place as the newest justice on the Supreme Court.

In 1512, Michelangelo's just-completed paintings on the ceiling of the Vatican's Sistine Chapel were publicly unveiled by the artist's patron, Pope Julius II.

In 1604, William Shakespeare's tragedy "Othello" was first presented at Whitehall Palace in London.

In 1765, the Stamp Act, passed by the British Parliament, went into effect, prompting stiff resistance from American colonists.

In 1861, during the Civil War, President Abraham Lincoln named Maj. Gen. George B. McClellan General-in-Chief of the Union armies, succeeding Lt. Gen. Winfield Scott.

In 1870, the United States Weather Bureau made its first meteorological observations.

In 1936, in a speech

Mussolini described

in Milan, Italy, Benito

the alliance between his country and Nazi Germany as an "axis" running between Rome and Berlin.

In 1950, two Puerto Rican nationalists tried to force their way into Blair House in Washington, D.C., in a failed attempt to assassinate President Harry S. Truman. (One of the pair was killed, along with a White House police officer.)

In 1952, the United States exploded the first hydrogen bomb, code-named "Ivy Mike," at Enewetak (en-ih-WEE'-tahk) Atoll in the Marshall Islands.

In 1989, East Germany reopened its border with Czechoslovakia, prompting tens of thousands of refugees to flee to the West.

In 1995, Bosnia peace talks opened in Dayton, Ohio, with the leaders of Bosnia, Serbia and Croatia present.

In 2007, less than a week after workers ratified a new contract, Chrysler announced 12,000 job cuts, or about 15 percent of its work force.

Ten years ago: Israel, lifting a nearly 25year veil of secrecy, acknowledged it had killed Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat's deputy in a 1988 raid in Tunisia. (Khalil al-Wazir, who was better known by his nom de guerre Abu Jihad, founded Fatah, the dominant faction in the Palestine Libera-charges against the man accused in the Manhattan truck rampage a day earlier that left eight people dead; prosecutors said Sayfullo Saipov had asked to display the Islamic State group's flag in the hospital room where he was recovering from police gunfire. President Donald Trump tweeted that the suspect in the truck attack should get the death penalty. Prompting celebrations in a city still recovering from Hurricane Harvey, the Houston Astros won their first World Series championship, beating the Dodgers Angeles.

One year ago: The global death toll from COVID-19 topped 5 million, as tallied by Johns Hopkins University. About 9,000 New York City municipal workers were put on unpaid leave for refusing to comply with a new COVID-19 vaccine mandate, and thousands of city firefighters called out sick in an apparent protest over the requirement. Real estate scion Robert Durst was indicted on a murder charge in the disappearance of his first wife nearly four decades earlier; he was already serving a life sentence for killing a confidante who helped cover up that slaying. (Durst died in January 2022.) At a U.N. summit in Scotland, President Joe Biden apologized for former President Donald Trump's decision to

Disruptive Opportunity

Opportunities for improvement can come in seemingly unpleasant forms with names like "interruption" or "problem." And so it goes with the Aquarius moon, who chides the sun, taunts Venus, bothers Uranus and crowds Saturn, all to suggest there's something worthwhile to be tackled here! Indeed, the bother will bring benefit.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Many will share a moment, but none will get the same experience of it. Everyone around you will observe something different. Speak your memories, compare notes and discover what others found interesting.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Worrying alone does not solve problems, but that's not to say worrying is a useless response. It's the message that tells you there's something to be done. Strategize and decide your next action.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). When everyone does the assigned job, things go smoothly. The trouble occurs when jobs haven't been assigned. A strong leader is needed to know which job should be assigned to whom. That leader is you.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). There's an inherent awkwardness in exits. Then again, sticking around past the end of the party is equally, if not more, egregious. Today, you'll sense the denouement and get out while the getting is good.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). The winning move will be one that is pleasantly persistent. The consistency of tone earns trust, and the established pattern primes everyone for what's sure to happen -- that is to say, you'll eventually get what you want.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). You'll be in another one of your curious moods, eager to learn about things around you and beyond. Being wonder-struck is one of your favorite states of mind. Keep going until you arrive there.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Something amazing about you is your ability to see ahead and act in accordance with, in today's case, a very accurate prediction. You'll think about the ripple before you throw the stone.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). When someone reaches out, you'll take it seriously. You're in a position to help those who need and are open to your assistance. As for those who don't want help, there's nothing more futile than imposing input.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). It's an excellent time for cleaning, going through old texts, emails and pictures and other ways of clearing the decks. You'll be surprised by the memories you touch on and the energy you free up in this process.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Nov. 1). You are a star at staying aware and responding quickly. This specialty seems simple and common, but it is neither. It will help you excel in dozens of situations, and you will seem at times superhuman in your embodiment of keen observation. A yearend windfall is just one of many gifts coming to you. Taurus and Cancer adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 3, 30, 2, 22 and 17.

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes.
