Big Spring City Council approves acquisition of new vehicles and other items in double meeting

By ANDREIA MEDLIN

Reporter

The Big Spring City Council met Tuesday for a double meeting in anticipation of the upcoming holidays. Highlights of the agenda were vehicle acquisitions, zone changes to facilitate housing development and an amendment to change sign regulations.

However the subject of animals is still a hot button issue.

Prior to addressing the agenda items, the public was invited to make comments. Journalist Devvy Kidd made a statement in regards to the repeal of the no-tether ordinance. Local businessman Scott Emerson followed with comments on the current progress of the Big Spring

Animal Shelter after having taken a tour of the facility. He also provided information about funds that have been donated to help with the remodel.

The three items for public hearings included a zone change request from single family dwelling district to planned development for housing located at the intersection of Fordham Ave. and Marquette Ave. Notifications were sent to individuals in the area requesting responses on the matter and only one was returned. After a brief discussion, the item was approved.

The second public hearing item was concerning the possible amendment of Big Spring Zoning Ordinance to allow pole signs to stand at 65 feet on properties adjoining I-20 and on properties adjoining FM 700 from I-20 to the east side of intersection of Goliad Street. The previous ordinance restricted signs to 30 feet. The item was presented to the council due to prospects of interested parties requesting the added sign height.

After a brief discussion the amendment was unanimously approved.

The third public hearing was concerning amendments to the Big Spring City Zoning Ordinance to permit transitional housing in the City of Big Spring under certain conditions. The amendment was approved 5 to 1 with the Mayor giving the dissenting vote.

discuss future remodel and improvements to begin next year.

The older structure north on the property has recently received a much needed new roof. Built in 1984, it contains indoor/outdoor kennels not currently in use due to the dilapidated condition of the building, but updates are in the planning stages. Two of the kennels will be taken out and transformed into two showrooms where prospective new pet-parents can Remodeling plans are in progress at the Big Spring Animal Shelter.

Big Spring Mayor Robert Moore and City Manager Todd Darden met with local businessman Scott Emerson at the shelter Tuesday to discuss plans for the meet with their new canine or feline family member.

Also on the list of new upgrades are a new office for the shelter staff as well as foam insulation, an updated HVAC system and updated restroom facilities. The building will also be handicapped accessible.

Emerson has enlisted the help of other concerned parties and has raised funds to help with the upgrades. As of yesterday, the business owner reported he has more than $7,000 raised and $5,000 more that has been pledged.

He has also posted videos on Facebook about the facility and the animals that need adopting.

During the meeting, the possibility of gaining the help of volunteers to work on the upgrades and to help with demolition was discussed to help defray costs.

In the meantime, volunteer help is needed at the shelter to clean the kennels, feed the animals, administer medications and treatments; as well as other chores at the facility for the health and comfort of its current residents.

Presently, there is only one volunteer that helps out regularly.

Animal Control Officer Darien Glenn, an employee at the shelter for almost 10 years, says that the situation has improved and she wants it to stay that way.

Snoop Dogg biopic in the works

NEW YORK (AP) — Snoop Dogg is getting a big-screen biopic.

Universal Pictures announced Wednesday that the studio is developing a film about Snoop Dogg's life to be produced by the 51-year-old rapper. The film will be written by Joe Robert Cole, who co-wrote the two "Black Panther" films, and directed by Allen Hughes, the filmmaker of "Menace II Society."

"I waited a long time to put this project together because I wanted to choose the right director, the perfect writer, and the greatest movie company I could partner with that could understand the legacy that I'm trying to portray on screen, and the memory I'm trying to leave behind," Snoop said in a statement. "It was the perfect marriage. It was holy matrimony, not holy macaroni."

Universal previously turned the story of rap group N.W.A. into the hit 2015 film "Straight Outta Compton" and also released the acclaimed Eminem biopic "8 Mile" in 2002.

Cole said the studio "has proven they can guide a movie like this to something special."

Donna Langley, chairman of Universal Filmed Entertainment

Group, said she met with Snoop shortly after he acquired Death Row Records.

His acquisition was announced just days before Snoop performed in the Super Bowl halftime show in February with Dr. Dre, Eminem, Mary J. Blige and Kendrick Lamar.

Snoop Dogg broke through in the early '90s as part of the West Coast rap scene as a collaborator of Dr. Dre's.

He's sold more than 35 million albums worldwide in his three-decade career. He'll produce the film along with Sara Ramake and Hughes.

In his report, City Manager Todd Darden asked the public to please utilize the large item pickup service provided by the city instead of dumping illegally. The service is free, and the next pickup is scheduled for Nov. 16. Call the city for the schedule or visit mybigspring.com

Darden also reminded everyone of the upcoming activities being held in honor of Veterans Day. City offices will be closed Nov. 11, as well as Thanksgiving, Nov. 24 and 25. The Howard County summit will be held Feb. 28.

Consent items were next on the agenda and the Oct. 25 minutes were approved followed by the final reading and approval of the ordinance releasing members of various inactive boards to serve on other boards.

Council member Gloria McDonald presented vouchers for approval. A voucher dated for Oct. 27, at $740,542.47 and one for Nov. 3, for $464,853.42 were voted on and approved while manual checks totaling $596,783.18 has been deferred until more information is available.

Bids on the agenda were presented by Assitant City Manager John Medina for the purchase of several vehicles among other items including: a 2023 Ford Escape Suv to be used by the Big Spring Senior Center; a 15 foot trailer mounted jetter for the Distribution and Collection Department at $79,314; two John Deere 35 G Compact Excavators for the Distribution and Collections Department; four 2022 Ford Explorer Police Interceptors totaling $173,510; a forklift for the Water Treatment Plant at $40,000; a John Deere Z950m Zero Turn Mower for the Water Treatment Plant; a bid for the asbestos abatement project for the Cornell Corrections Prison at $88,200 using ARPA funds; and a stop loss agreement with Comapanion Life Insurance Company which would cover city employees. All Bid proposals were approved after a vote.

The first reading of an ordinance authorizing the rezoning of property for the development of transitional housing was voted 5 to 1 with the mayor giving the no vote. "I just have too many questions," said Moore and explained, "I just see too many potential problems we are not addressing here." The item burdened with the history of disturbance calls to other such facilities will be discussed again at the December meeting.

The next item regarded the purchase of property at 1608 E. 15th St. and was approved for $5,000 with the seller retaining the mineral rights.

Before the meeting adjourned Gloria McDonald commended Big Spring Airpark Director Mike Feely for taking over the preparations for "Blow-out at the Bunker" after the death of John Weeks who had spearheaded project.

Big Spring Mayor Robert Moore stated, "I want to reiterate what Gloria said and encourage the citizens of Big Spring to attend the "Blow-out at the Bunker" set for Saturday in honor of Veteran's Day." The event will feature a drag race with speeds of 170 mph on 1/8 of a mile and car show with more than 60 cars registered to participate. Food vendors will also be on site as well as a cornhole tournament and a scheduled Air Force flyover.

There was no other discussion and the meeting adjourned.

IT WILL GET BETTER FOR THE LADY HAWKS

Last year the Howard College Lady Hawks basketball team went through a troublous season getting hit for a good part of the season with the Covid-19 protocol

The Lady Hawks finished at the bottom of the WJCAC standings and just winning a handful of games. At one time during the season coach John Ishee had to recruit HC students to play just to fill enough for a squad. That was last year.

This is a new year and Ishee welcomes a host of different faces in hopes for a better season. He has three players coming back, point guard Kaeona Marquez and shooting guard Daysha Tijerina. Marquez runs the offense well and Tijerina is deadly from the three-point arc.

Guard Kyla Daniel is also a returner. This year's Hawks team will have a group of area players on it. Marquez is from Dalhart, Daniel from Sweetwater and they will be joined by Lili Porras from state champion Sands, Tristan Smith from Big Spring, and Shelby Milhauser of Borden County.

In all there are 12 players from Texas on the HC roster. "We definitely have a Texas Flavor," said Ishee. "Sydney Rice from Mansfield Summitt is a top recruit, Mary Ann Zachariah from India and Victoria Gonzales should have an impact. Unfortunately, 6-4 D'Kierra Johnsons broke her foot and Shelby Milhauser has a torn ACL. Kinley Chandler should contribute." It looks like the future is brighter for Lady Hawks basketball.

HAWKS LABELED WITH HIGH EXPECTATIONS

First year Howard College mens basketball coach Kyle Cooper has confidence of the junior college basketball experts. Cooper, who was an assistant coach at Tarleton State University last year, fills the sport vacated by Scott Raines to move to Galveston.

The NJCAA preseason polls have the Hawks ranked No.8. in the nation which is unusual since Howard has a totally new team this year. None of the players from last year's 16-12 team returned this season. This year's Hawks will have four freshmen and six sophomores. There will be more height this season. Cooper has 6-foot-9 freshman forward Nate Deer from Australia. 6-8 freshman forward Denis Kadiric of Seattle and 6-7 forward Deng Mayar of Salt Lake City, Utah.

"Yea we have an entirely new team but I really like our guys," said Cooper. He says he likes the makeup of this team. "We have a great group of high character student-athletes that play good basketball. We for sure have a big target on our back being ranked so high early. Upcoming season wise we put together what we consider to be one of the hardest schedules in the country. It is very competitive. The goal is to prepare us for conference play."

JOB WELL DONE RUNNERS

Congrats to coach Brandon Clemmons and his Big Spring cross country team who recently competed in the state cross country meet. For the past two seasons the Steers have been one of the best 4A teams in the state, finishing fourth last year and fourth again last week.

The Steers will lose all but one of those runners to graduation; sophomore Diego Rios will return next year. Rios and his teammates of Adrian Solis, Isaac Gonzales, Augustin Salgado, Jordan Mitchell, Enrique Calderon and Kevin Quezada will go down as one of the best cross-country teams in Big Spring High School history.

A shout out to freshman Bergan Pinkley who got her feet wet at the state meet by finishing 82nd. Big things to come from this young lady. The Sands Mustangs finished 10th in the Class 1A team standings. The Mustangs were paced by Wiley Gaskins who finished 8th overall and Rodolfo Gaskins with his 49th place finish.

Westbrook's Andrew Cruces finished 60th and Hagan O'Donnell of Grady was 78th. In the girls 1A competition, Sands' Haley Connell finished 18th overall and her teammate Biana Plata was 27th, followed by Emma Parker of Grady and Kambell Smith of

Second Time Around

Borden County who finished 32nd and 38th respectively

TIME FOR GARDEN CITY- WESTBROOK II

Let's do it again. Earlier this season Garden City and Westbrook treated us to a trilling game with Garden City upsetting the No. 1 Wildcats 46-42. As luck would have it the two six-man powers meet in the first round of the playoffs Friday night at 7:30 in Robert Lee.

This seeding occurred when Rankin upended Garden City last week in their final game. These three teams are all top of the line, which says a lot about six-man ball in West Texas. Currently Westbrook is 1, Rankin is 2 and Garden City is 7.

TOUGH DRAW FOR FORSAN

Like Garden City, the Forsan Buffaloes were dealt a bad card in the opening round of the Class 2A playoffs. The 8-2 Buffaloes have been a steady team all year. The Buffaloes had a hiccup in their last district game to an up and coming Sonora team last week.

Coming in as the No. 2 district seed, Forsan draws third seeded Stamford from District 4-2A. The 8-2 Bulldogs only losses this season came to district foes Hawley and Cisco, ranked No. 4 and 8 in the state respectively. I'm sure head coach Jason Phillips will have his playoff savvy Buffaloes up for the test.

BULLDOGS START OFF WITH A TOUGHIE

The Coahoma Bulldogs draw a tough opening round bye when they play the Childress Bobcats Friday at 7 p.m. in Floydada. The 6-4 Bobcats, under the direction of new coach Bo Helm, have a renowned football program. It all started with legendary coach Charlie Johnston who coached Childress from 1967-2001.

Coach Johnston's team went 315-94-8 during his tenure, making him the eighth winningest coach in Texas high school football history. The only thing that eluded the Bobcats were a state championship. Helm is a homegrown Childress guy who was the defensive coordinator at Childress until this season.

He admits coaching at a school with Childress' reputation comes with a certain amount of pressure.

"Having such a strong football and being a hometown guy all goes with it. Pressure is a privilege. But it's pressure everywhere you go. That's the competitive nature of the game," said Helm.

Helm upholds this Coahoma team with the highest regards. He remembers how the unbeaten Bobcats were upset by Stanton in the opening round of the playoffs last year. "This year is a very different scenario. I watched Coahoma on film and they're a really good team. They had a real good year. This group we have is well aware of what happened against Stanton last year. They know what is at stake and it has helped us through the season."

The Bulldogs are smarting from a 49-19 spanking to a very good Abernathy team. They also know what's a stake. If they can shore up their run defense and eliminate the turnovers, they've got a good chance to win. Like Coahoma, Childress has a good passing game. Helm said he thinks it will turn into a defensive battle.

HOORAY ASTROS!

So glad to see the Houston Astros win the World Series. Especially happy to see manager Dusty Baker win a championship. For years the 73-year old Baker has been one of the league's top managers. He turned my Giants organization around a few years back.

Baker didn't win a World Series there, but he got the ship right for the next manger Bruce Boochy. The Giants won it all in 2010, 2012 and 2014. Baker laid the foundation for those teams.

GONNA MISS YOU JOHN

Happy trails to my friend John Weeks. I met John in the early 80s when I moved to Big Spring. Got to know him as a broadcaster, referee and softball combatant. "Quail Legs" we use to call him because of those skinny legs and he could run so fast.

Several times me and him shared a press box at the Howard Hawks baseball games last season. Even in a 21-3 game he could always made me chuckle. I'll miss you John.

Georgia is new CFP No. 1, followed by Ohio St, Michigan, TCU

By RALPH D. RUSSO

AP College Football Writer

Georgia was the new No. 1 in the College Football Playoff rankings Tuesday night, followed by Ohio State, Michigan and TCU.

The Bulldogs' rise from No. 3 was no surprise after their dominant victory against previously top-ranked Tennessee on Saturday.

Clemson, which was No. 4 in the selection committee's first rankings last week, also lost, clearing the way for changes in the top four.

Ohio State stayed at two. The Buckeyes' Big Ten rival, Michigan, moved up from five to three. TCU jumped three spots to No. 4, putting the nation's four unbeaten teams at the top of the rankings.

"It's going to be a challenge to stay here," TCU coach Sonny Dykes said during ESPN's rankings show.

Tennessee fell to No. 5 and was followed by Oregon from the Pac-12 and LSU, which jumped three spots to seventh after the Tigers knocked off Alabama.

Selection committee chairman Boo Corrigan, who is the athletic director at North Carolina State, said TCU's six victories against teams with above .500 records were notable.

"I don't think it was as much what Tennessee didn't do as much as what TCU did do," Corrigan said.

He added the Volunteers' big victories against Alabama and LSU helped keep them above Oregon, which also played Georgia and lost by 46.

Clemson fell to 10th after being routed by Notre Dame. Alabama dropped from sixth to ninth after its second loss of the season.

This is the first time since the College Football Playoff rankings began in 2014 that neither Clemson nor Alabama have been ranked in the top six.

There has never been a College Football Playoff without the Tigers and the Crimson Tide, which have combined to win five of the eight CFP championships.

ANALYSIS

Are Alabama and Clemson done?

No, both still have a path to the playoff, but a lot is going to have to break their way — especially for Alabama.

First thing working against the Tide is there has never been a two-loss team in the College Football Playoff. But the SEC champion has never been left out of the CFP.

If Alabama could win the SEC, beating Georgia in the process, good luck keeping the Tide out. But the road to the SEC championship game for the Tide is blocked by LSU, which would have to lose both of its remaining conferences games at Arkansas and Texas A&M to clear the way for Alabama.

That's assuming Alabama wins out. The Tide plays at Mississippi, which was 11th in the committee's rankings, on Saturday and then Auburn Peay before the Iron Bowl against Auburn.

Before writing Alabama off, take note: LSU is only a 3-point favorite at Arkansas this weekend and might be a single-digit favorite against a struggling but talented Texas A&M team.

As for Clemson, this is a long way from over. A 12-1 Power Five conference champion will always have a shot and the Tigers could still end up there.

The Tigers' bigger issue could be winning a resume contest against one-loss champions from the Big 12, where TCU is still unbeaten, or Pac-12, which currently has four teams in the committee's top 13 — Oregon, No. 8 USC, No. 12 UCLA and No. 13 Utah.

Water Sign Magic

Venus and Neptune counteract some Saturn square tension that's gone on lately with a little water sign magic. A trine in a water sign gives glints of recognition in the eyes of strangers and can turn indifference into emotional connections. But for those who have a history together, the water sign trine is a chance to see familiar people anew.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). If you only know the best and the worst of your subject, you don't really know it deeply. Whether it's a person or a sandwich, it's the complicated middle parts that really give you the experience.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). In the way that a movie trailer advertises the most entertaining part of the movie, a first social encounter gives the highlights of a potential relationship. Follow through as though what you feel about the first moments is prescient.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Try to be patient with yourself. If you think you're underperforming, this is probably because you're not looking at the entire scope of what you do on a daily basis. Today, give yourself things like credit, or a break.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). There are those who won't move forward until you say the word. Give it early and easily. You don't want someone to wait for your approval, because it will end up being too much pressure or a hassle you don't need.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). There are things that are way harder for the other person than they are for you. You'll navigate a relationship better when you know what those things are. Bonus points if you can ease those pain points.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Your focus may be too small, causing you to feel trapped when in actuality, you are quite free. Ask someone to look at your situation and tell you what it's like from their point of view.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Go the extra mile to make sure that your actions not only match your words but that they exceed the expectation that your words set up. This is how you earn trust and have a lot of fun in the process!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Long conversations and negotiations will be unnecessary. Decisiveness gives you more time to do, or find, what you enjoy. There's someone telling you exactly what you want to hear, and you don't mind it one bit!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You'll capture someone's imagination. That's not what you set out to do, but you'll do it all the same. And once you've caught this imagination you can lead it to beautiful places.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Be flexible. Things have changed a little and you may not be able to understand your loved ones in the way you usually do. You'll need new information, tools, observations and ways of seeing them to get the full picture.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). The term "people pleas-er" has a negative connotation, and yet what could be so wrong about wanting the people around you to be pleased? Avoid doing more work than you have to, though. Ask what would please them.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). People who don't know any better may encourage you to reconnect with those you love without taking into account that the distance between you may be there for good reason: it's comfortable and it works.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Nov. 10). You'll be full of energy to create the world you dream of. You'll influence and inspire with your manner of being and what you choose to focus on. Knowing others will act based on your choices keeps you improving. More highlights: strong, smooth relationships, a big sale and a fun mix of social and intellectual pursuits. Gemini and Pisces adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 9, 4, 44, 17 and 38.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: "Music and mutts are my two biggest passions," says country music star Miranda Lambert in an Instagram post that goes on to announce the launch of her "MuttNation Fund" to pay vet bills for members of the music community impacted by COVID-19. Lambert is a Scorpio with her sun, Mercury, Saturn and Pluto in Scorpio too. Venus in Libra points to powerful partnerships including animal alliances.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Planetary Pop Quizzes

The squares of Saturn are like pop quizzes handed down on various subjects. According to Saturn, the humans need to know what they need to, now. Saturn has sourced Venus for questions on the topic of love, Mercury for material on communication and now the sun for highlights on self-concept. What do you think of you lately?

ARIES (March 21-April 19). You've learned what you can do, and you believe that if you continue to work hard, you'll achieve your objective. So, you don't bother to push things along or stress about them unnecessarily. You have the patience of an immortal.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). It's not hard for you to be positive and engaged; in fact, it's your default. Cheerfulness is energy well spent because it not only makes your life better, it improves other people's experience too.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). You're a generous soul and yet there are things you just shouldn't lend: your car, your books or your advice. Lend an ear instead, and that will be a huge gift to someone who needs it.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). An average teacher will show you the general way of things. A good teacher will get into the nitty-gritty. A great teacher will help you see and learn the patterns that matter.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). You're like a pen making spontaneous marks on the paper world -- doodling for fun and profit, working out the intricacies of life with your whimsy. People describe what's happening in the senses with words that apply across all five.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). The word "sharp" can apply to a note that leans up, a line that cuts through, a cheese that curls the tongue... and your mind as you pursue fun conversation with smart people.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). The thing inside you that wants to dance will be activated; the call of the music is irresistible. You don't need a partner or a venue, only a beat. Your heart is the perfect instrument.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). A problem that gets everyone to unify efforts and work together for a solution is a good problem to have. You will communicate what needs to be accomplished and people will pull together.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You're not envious of those who have what you would like. Instead, you feel happy for them, celebrating almost as though their success were your own. Very soon you will have similar gifts to these.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). You see and celebrate things in a way all your own. Like a child naming a toy, you'll personalize your world and add whimsy to your surroundings in the ways that you characterize things and what you call them.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Making sure things are done properly is important. Don't start an endeavor without reading the instructions and/or map. It is likely that any shortcut you attempt will make things more difficult for you in the long run.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Mostly, you go with the flow. But you also recognize when it's time to be disruptive. To outwardly express who you are on the inside takes daring. And to be accepted for that is a beautiful feeling.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Nov. 11). You're a genius at prioritizing, especially when it seems like several things have priority at once. At times, this year is like an intricate puzzle in which certain things cannot interlock without other things falling into place. Your timing in such matters is perfection, so relax and have faith in your ability and your magical team. Aquarius and Gemini adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 9, 10, 2, 30 and 17.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
