Winter Is Close

The Texas Department of Public Safety reminds motorists that the winter season is upon us and once again it is time to get both the driver and the vehicle in the best possible condition.

Major V.J. Cawthon, Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Region 5, has the following tips to offer to help make your winter driving experience a little safer.

First of all, do not assume that your car's battery will get you through another winter. Battery power goes down in cold weather. Get a charge, if you need it or maybe it is time for a new battery. Have the equalization of the brakes checked. A pull to one side can cause a dangerous skid.

Avoid any travel during icy weather unless absolutely necessary. If you must travel, prepare for a possible emergency. Make sure you have a full tank of gas, check motor oil and transmission fluid levels, keep a shovel, blankets, flares, flashlight, ice scraper and gloves stored in your car. A few candy bars and other small snacks are also handy, in case you become stranded.

Too much speed on slippery roads is the mistake that breeds the most trouble. Adjust your driving habits to fit the weather conditions. Most importantly of all buckle up your safety belts, your safety belts will give you the extra control needed to meet any driving emergency.

Major Cawthon states, "When it's all said and done, safe winter driving is largely the application of common sense and good judgement of some basic driving facts."

Seminar On Suicide

Suicide is the third leading cause of death among teenagers. Only auto accidents and drug overdoses cause more teenage deaths. The abuse of alcohol and drugs is closely related to each of these killers. The use of a mind-altering chemical may cause a teenager to act on a suicidal impulse that otherwise might pass with time.

The Drug Free Schools and Communities Coop at Region XVI Education Service Center in Amarillo is sponsoring a seminar "Suicide - Drugs and Prevention for Parents". The seminar is scheduled for Tuesday, November 29, 1988, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the ABC Conference Room at the Service Center, 1601 S. Cleveland.

Mrs. Esther Quine, Director of the Amarillo and Suicide and Crisis Center, will be the speaker. Parents of teenagers and preteens are invited to attend. There is no registration fee. Reservations may be made by contacting your local school district. Please call Jim Taliaferro at the Middle School Office at 5608 to make registrations for this worthwhile seminar. If enough interest is expressed, Stratford ISD will provide transportation.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

POLICY FOR PUBLICATION: All letters will be accepted, provided they are not anonymous and a bonafide address is given. We will not print statements that are obscene or libelous per se. This paper assumes no responsibility for content and all views are strictly the views of the writer.

Dear Editor:

An open letter to Dennis Davis:

Two weeks after the election for sheriff. As you can see by the balloting the people spoke and as usual, particularly in the sheriff's race, the right candidate won, without all the promises and signs that you made and put out.

From my personal point of view, you have made a mockery of the job that law enforcement officers are suppose to do and have cast a shadow of doubt on other qualified officers. Why don't you do all of us a favor and resign, so the City of Stratford can employ someone qualified to do the job were hired to do fairly and equitably.

Sincerely yours,
Dwayne Plunk

Chamber Chatter

By J.A. Lasley

The Holiday Season is fast approaching. Many of our Merchants had OPEN HOUSE this past Saturday. Despite the weather, or in spite of it, which ever you prefer, the day was a success. Even the Holiday Bazaar sponsored by Nu Beta Sorority. I found bargains in every store and am well on to being caught up with having my Christmas Shopping done. I like having my gifts so beautifully wrapped, and the conservation, the coffee, or hot spiced cider, I shared with them beat the heck out of going to Dumas, Amarillo, Dalhart, or Guymon and meeting up with a clerk I didn't know and pay to have the gift wrapped. Get my point????? Let's shop at home with homefolks. Let's be thankful we have shops to shop in, and work hard together as a community to have more.

The Quarterly breakfast held on Thursday morning of last week was a success. P.J., as was this writer, under the weather and did not get to attend; however, the President of Chamber, Eugene Griffin, reported around 30 in attendance, and that Scott Buckles gave a very informative program. He answered questions concerning the Community Questionnaire, what, where, and how the Economic Development hoped to bring in new businesses or industries into our community.

Pheasant Season is fast approaching this area. We have some land signed up for the pheasant hunt, but we need more. We have had a number of reservations. Again this year the first day of Pheasant Season will start off with the Lions Club Breakfast. They are selling donations of $1.00 for a beautifully stuffed pheasant.

The Fireman are out in full force selling donations on a gun, $1.00 donation, the Catholic Men are going to be serving a Barbeque at the Parrish Hall, and then Saturday evening SCOT will hold their annual Depression Supper and will be selling donations on two quilts that have been quilted by loving Stratford hands. Sunday noon the Catholic Altar Society will be having their annual German Sausage Dinner with all of the trimmings-Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. the Community Christmas Cantata will be held in the First Christian Church, with a reception and fellowship following the Cantata. The first of three practices was held this past Sunday with a number not quite large enough or so says Mr. T the director. There will be a practice this Sunday at 3:00 p.m. There needs to be more to "make a joyful noise."

In closing-folks remember to drive safely, if you're leaving Stratford for Thanksgiving. And wherever you are remember to give God the praise and to wrap one another with LOVE. HAVE A HAPPY THANKSGIVING

SCOT Notes

by Timmie Brown

Happy Day to you, Sherman County Older Texans, Friends and Neighbors on this Monday Morning, Nov. 21, 1988. At 6:45 a.m. day is just breaking, the Morning Star is very bright, a gentle breeze is stirring and the temperature is 22 degrees (Amarillo TV Report). We have been enduring some very strong winds this past week. No complaint-Older Texans know these winds come. Some snow fell, didn't cover the ground completely, but it was wet!

Scot Calendar shows all regular activities at Scot Hall marked "Go" with the Dancers circulating to Jim Hughes Records on Sat. Evening, Nov. 26th at 8 p.m. Regular activities are Ceramic Classes, dance practice, quilting, games, reading, and Fellowship (visiting) Drawing on Thursday has been cancelled-so that leaves a "breather" Scot Hall Quilt.

However, December brings interesting and important extra activities, namely: Open House, Thurs. Dec. 8, 3 to 5 p.m. Dir. Vickie, Shirley and Scotters invite the communities of Sherman County to attend Scots open house at Scot Hall. You are entitled to know and see what goes on at Scot Hall and Vickie and helpers are eager to show you. Members are eager to be there and enjoy the visiting too. Come see us!

Saturday Dec. 10th at 5-7 p.m. is the BIGGEST event of the SCOT year. What? It is the time of our noted Depression Supper! Place: County Barn. menu: Brown Beans, Corn Bread and trimmings! Two quilts will be given away for donations of $1.00 Supper Donation are $3.00 per adult $1.50 persons under 12 years of age. Note this fact. All persons living in Sherman County who are over 55 years of age CAN benefit from the results of this Fund-raising-Effort, which helps make the SCOT organization the liveliest, most concerned, concerted movement for the good of Senior citizens of Sherman County. Scot members appreciate deeply the interest and support that Citizens of the county have given us thru SCOT Organization and look forward in great anticipation to your continued "upholding" plan to attend the "Depression Supper", Saturday, Dec. 10, time 5-7 p.m. at the County Barn. Donation $3.00-$1.50 per person.

Thoughts of the Thanksgiving Dinner hosted by Prospectus Study Club on Thurs. Nov. 17 at Scot Hall brings a lovely warm appreciative thrill to the heart of every Sherman Co. Older Texans who attended. The wind, which almost blew us past the Hall door, couldn't dim the pleasure of being together for the 115 persons who were inside Scot Hall. Our faithful blood pressure personal was swamped; a number of Coldwater Manor guest were on hand: Special Guests from the Texas Association of Homes for the Aging were Ms Sandy Darrow, Austin, Pres. of Ass'n; and Joe Helms, Dallas, Chairman of Board. These people are representatives of Non-profit nursing homes. They were introduced by Coldwater Manor Administrator George Brooks. Scotters were delighted to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Waterfield, Myron Leedy and Little Miss Lindsey Stein, Myron is Marylou McDaniels father; Lindsey is Marty and Phillip Bain's Granddaughter, and calls Alma Lee McMahan Great Grandmother.

Tasting the food is the only way to tell you, reader, how delicious it was. Such an abundance of it, too! Xs marked on the bottom of plates identified receivers of many door prizes. The plates were previously marked and stacked then guarded to foil snoopers Ha! adding to the fun. The business Community contributed items for the dinner with Thriftway Grocery giving treats of fruit and candy and First State Bank presenting a Christmas Coffee Mug to each one present. How honored and appreciative Scotters are.

A group of 47 Third Graders from Mary Allen School under the direction of Miss Shari Kliever presented a musical program for Scotters pleasure. This is a yearly event that Scotters look forward to arranged by the Prospectus Study Club, Mary Allen School. A grateful "Thanks" to all who made the Thanksgiving Party Day a beautiful one For SCOT.

Securing a list of names of these Third Graders, we THINK we identified six 4th and 5th generation persons. They are Shawn Brooks of the Coffman Family; Dan Jackson of Mollie Davis Sr. Family; Megan Basking of T.F. Baskin descendant; Lynn Renolds a Charlie Renolds descendant; Kyla Helmuth of Herman Borth Sr. family; Keisha Naugle of Howard Naugle Sr. Family. Forgive us if we err or overlooked one. It is good to call to our remembrance, the provisions and blessings of God and to thank him. Someone has said that thanks is acknowledgement of God's provision and praise to him for them. It is the expression of Christian praise and joy. We freely ask of God's blessing but rarely return to give thanks when he has answered. Luke 17:12-17 tells of Jesus encountering ten Lepers and telling them how to be healed. They did as he said and were healed, but Verse 15 indicates that only one came back and in verse 16, "And fell down on his face at his [Jesus] feet, giving him thanks." Jesus was due and expected thanks for in verse 17 he said, "Were there not ten cleansed? but where all the nine?" The Psalmist in 107:1-2, wrote "I give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so." What is the first thing you think of when you think of Thanksgiving? Is it turkey and trimmings and holiday and visits, or is it thankfulness for what God has done. "Count your many blessings, name them one by one. Count your many blessings, see what God hath done." |  |

Museum Notes

Your museum board is excited this month! We now have a beautiful, big golden eagle, thanks to several people. A year or more ago we began the process of acquiring permits and such and due to Lorel Haile and our local game warden out of Dumas, we have one. He's much larger than this reporter imagined and very commanding. Come see him!

You'll want to come see anyway when I tell you we will be showing a collection of toy tractors for the Museum Christmas Party on Dec. 4th at 2:00p.m. and all through the month of Dec. The collection belongs to Eddie Stalwitz of Dumas and he has quite a large and varied collection. We'll only be able to show a few because of space. And yes, his wife is Carolyn, the artist. So mark those calendars for the annual Christmas Party on Dec. 4th.

It's beginning to look like party time around the museum with all the decorations. And speaking of decorations, have you picked up your Christmas ornament? Several of you took advantage of our booth at Christmas In November but if you missed that, they are at the appraisal office and we will have them at the museum for the Christmas Party. It won't be long till we'll have enough museum ornaments to decorate a Christmas tree just with them. Don't miss one! Have you thought about what a nice gift a set would make for a new grandchild? It would be a link from the past to the future. That's a museum's purpose. See you at the Depot!

Star Extension Homemakers

Star Extension Homemakers Club met Nov. 15th at 2 p.m. in the club room at the courthouse with Hostess Jame Smith.

Ava Keener, president, called the meeting to order. Members answering roll call were Geneva Bell, Doris Dyess, Joyce Harper, Ava Keener and Jane Smith. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Doris Dyess gave the Council Report.

Geneva Bell gave some very useful ideas on "Last Minute Christmas gifts".

It was moved and seconded that we have only one meeting in Dec.

We will have our Christmas party Dec. 6th at Lorelyn Powers home for a covered dish luncheon at 11:30 a.m.

ON A SUNNY MORNING

Editors Note: This article was taken out of Successful Farming October 1988. A reader wanted to share this with everyone.

This past summer I was driving back to Quail Hollow Farm from a business trip.

I took the back roads through a dozen towns. The impression you get is one of shocking decline. Many of these towns are embarrassingly dirty, a sure sign of decaying pride. And I didn't see a young child all morning! Mainly you see older folks sitting or wandering aimlessly about their yards or the streets. I dream of a different rural America; One with a nice little industrial plant on the outskirts and several dozen or a hundred cars parked out front where the citizens are inside making a living wage; the houses are painted and there are a few flags flying; boys and girls are riding bicycles; there's a farm and home store with 20 cars and pickups out front; and a newspaper that's not afraid to write the news. Weeds, junk cars and boarded-up buildings are not allowed in this town!

There are powerful economic forces at work deciding which smaller towns will die, which will prosper. Successful Farming believes each community ought to decide its OWN future. Let PEOPLE prevail, not some mysterious economic authority.

Today We Saved A Life

Today a child who had been blind from birth saw the love in her mother's smile.

Today a woman who had been told she could never have a child, gave birth to a beautiful little girl.

Today a man once haunted by depression was able to conquer his sadness and despair.

Today a man was given a new kidney and a whole new life.

Today a little boy, born without legs, walked home from school.

Today an elderly woman, deaf from early childhood, heard the sound of her voice.

And, most precious and wonderful of all, today we saved a life. Give so that we can do more. And more. And more. Give to your local nonprofit hospital. Give to life, suggests the National Association For Hospital Development.

Tips & Topics

By Susie Spurlock County Extension Agent

After medical researchers found that high fiber foods such as oat bran reduce blood cholesterol levels, supplement manufacturers were quick to capitalize on public interest. Many companies are now marketing a number of oat bran supplements.

Before you buy a supplement consider what you are getting and at what cost. To get 12 to 30 grams of fiber from oat bran tablets, for example, you need to take 24 to 60 tablets each day, depending on the brand. That will cost $1.50 to $3.60 a day.

You can get the same amount of oat bran fiber from 1½ servings to 4 servings of oat bran hot cereal which costs only 15 to 40 cents.

If you don't like the cereal or don't want to eat that much of it, you could also get the same amount of soluble fiber by eating other foods that contain it. These include blackeye peas; kidney, pinto and white beans; corn, brussel sprouts, cauliflower and zucchini; apples, apricots, figs and prunes, wholemeal cornbread, pumpernickel bread and graham crackers.

County Agent

by Jim Allison, Sherman County Extension Agent

Grazing of certain frost-damaged pastures and forages can lead to prussic acid poisoning in livestock.

Many plants contain the toxic material that causes poisoning, those causing the highest mortality in livestock when grazing after they have been frozen and wilted are Johnson and Sudan grasses and sorghum or hybrids of these.

The most dangerous time as far as the grazing of these plants is concerned is following frost when the plant material begins to wilt. Livestock should not be allowed access to the wilted material until it has dried completely. This usually takes three or four days of good sunlight. New plant growth usually becomes nontoxic and can be grazed within 10 days to two weeks following a rain.

As far as the actual poisoning is concerned, the poison acts rapidly and can kill animals within minutes. In most acute cases, animals become affected within 10-15 minutes.

Symptoms of prussic acid poisoning may include a brief period of stimulation followed by depression and paralysis. Signs of colic may be present. Stupor (loss of sensibility), difficult breathing and frequent convulsions may result. Death is caused by suffocation since oxygen remains in the blood and is not exchanged to the tissues. This also causes the blood to appear bright red.

Here are some steps to prevent prussic acid poisoning in livestock:

1. Allow plant material affected by frost to dry thoroughly before grazing. This may require a week or more of good sunlight.

2. Feed animals hay or a supplement before turning them in on plants that may contain prussic acid. Animals that are not hungry will not be affected as seriously by toxic material since their intake will be limited.

3. Remove all animals from the pasture if one in the herd shows any signs of poisoning.

4. Call a veterinarian immediately if an animal appears to be poisoned. An antidote to treat affected animals is highly efficient if given early. This product is available from veterinarians.

5. Have suspect plant material checked by the Texas Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratories at College Station or Amarillo. Local veterinarians will be happy to submit samples for you.

The overall key to prevent prussic acid poisoning in livestock is to be aware of plant materials that may cause poisoning and them to keep cattle from grazing such plants until a safe period has passed.

This information is provided by Dr. Buddy Farles, Extension veterinarian.

Flu And Pneumonia Kill Thousands Of Texans

As winter quickly approaches, it's flu and pneumonia season and for many Texans this is a matter of life and death.

People in high-risk categories are in the greatest danger from flu and its complications, according to the American Lung Association of Texas. People in high risk include older adults, especially those over 65; adults and children who have chronic illnesses such as long-term lung or heart problems, kidney disease or diabetes; patients who are being discharged from a hospital; and residents of nursing homes or other long-term health care facilities.

For healthy children and adults, flu typically is a moderately serious illness.

However, for those in high-risk or those who already are not well because of underlying illness, serious complications can set in — most commonly, bacterial infections — because the body can be so weakened by flu that its defenses against bacteria are low.

In 1987, flu and pneumonia killed 3,484 in Texas, according to the Texas Department of Health.

"Yet this number could be substantially reduced if people in high-risk groups would get their flu shots and their pneumococcal pneumonia vaccination," said Cinda Davis, program administrator of the American Lung Association of Texas.

Flu and pneumonia combined are the sixth leading cause of death in Texas.

"That's why we are making a major effort to reach people with this information," Davis said.

The best time for vaccination is well before mid-November. This allows time for antibodies to build up before peak flu season. Flu shots are needed every year, since the strains change, but you need to get the pneumococcal pneumonia vaccine only once.

Contact your physician for further information. Flu and pneumonia educational materials are also available from the American Lung Association of Texas. For more information, call 343-0502.

Adults Need Immunizations

Even with increased emphasis on preventative medicine these days, too many adult Texans are not adequately protected against vaccine-preventable diseases, says the Texas Medical Association.

To determine whether you should obtain one of the immunizations listed below, check your vaccination record. If you are unsure about whether you have been sufficiently immunized, consult your doctor. Be sure to keep a record of current and future vaccinations.

Tetanus/Diphtheria. Tetanus, or lockjaw, can cause painful muscular contractions. Diphtheria typically produces a sore throat but also can affect the heart and other internal organs. Most adults received primary immunization for tetanus and diphtheria during childhood; if you did not, do so without delay. To remain immune, all adults require a booster shot every 10 years. Measles. Many adults no longer are susceptible to this disease because they had it as children. But a substantial number of young adults born after 1957 have had neither the disease nor vaccination. Furthermore, people vaccinated for measles between 1963 and 1967 may have had a short-lasting vaccine and should be vaccinated again.

Rubella. Injury to a fetus or miscarriage are the major consequences of rubella (German measles) in adults. Women of childbearing age who have no history of vaccination should be tested for antibodies and, in their absence, be immunized. Following immunization, a woman should wait at least three months before becoming pregnant.

Influenza. To be effective, flu vaccine must be administered yearly. The vaccine is strongly recommended for people over 65, since severity and risk of death from flu increase with age. Anyone with chronic lung, heart, or kidney disease or with diabetes also should get annual flu shots. Pneumococcal pneumonia. A vaccine now is available that offers protection against most of the pneumococcal diseases. The same groups immunized for influenza should be immunized with this vaccine. People who have lost their spleen—regardless of age—should also receive the vaccination, but only once. Yearly or booster does definitely should NOT be given.

Hepatitis B. Hepatitis B immunizations are needed only by certain groups of adults. It is recommended for health-care workers, clients and staff of institutions for the mentally retarded, kidney dialysis and hemophilia patients, homosexually active men, intravenous drug users, and sexual contacts of hepatitis B carriers. The immunization is effective for at least five years.

All of the diseases listed above have two things in common: they can be fatal, but they can be prevented. Make sure your immunizations are up to date!

A pamphlet, "Immunizations—Investing in a Healthy Future," can be obtained by contacting the Texas Medical Association, Department of Public Relations, 1801 N. Lamar Blvd., Austin 78701, 512-477-6704, ext. 212.

The Texas Medical Association is a professional organization with more than 28,000 physician and medical student members. It is located in Austin and has 116 component county medical societies around the state.

In one of the games they played one team had tied a flag to a rock and sunk it in a pond, thinking the other team would never find it there, but they did. Supper consisted of chili and at dark the boys had flashlight wars. They broke camp at 8 a.m. Sunday morning so everybody could go to church.

SCOT Annual Thanksgiving Dinner

CHOWLINE! at SCOT HALL serving about 115 friends and neighbors Thursday for their annual Thanksgiving Dinner hosted by Prospectus Study Club.

The registration table was very busy getting everyone signed up.

Third graders from Mary Allen School under the direction of Shari Kleiwer entertained the group by singing several songs.

The crowd ready to enjoy the Turkey Dinner prepared by the Prospectus Study Club.

Windy weather didn't keep very many home Nov. 17 from SCOT Hall as about 115 persons attended the annual Thanksgiving Dinner hosted by GFWC/Prospectus Study Club. Included were about 15 from Coldwater Manor. Representative and Mrs. Dick Waterfield, Canadian, were guests.

A third grade chorus directed by Shari Kleiwer sang a medley of songs, "Yellow Rose of Texas", "Put on a Happy Face", "Fifty Nifty States", "This Land is Your Land", "Teach the World to Sing".

The program was introduced by Janet Riffe, The Arts Chairman. Greeters were Betty Brown and Frances Watson. Margaret Reed, Study Club President, gave the welcome with Oline Caraway saying the table grace. Glennell Dettle extended the courtesy thank you for all the help for the day.

Table decorations and door prizes were provided by Ellie M's and Brownies, Cadettes and Seniors of Girl Scouts. Favors were cups by First State Bank and pens by North Plains Savings and Loan.

Turkeys cooked by Study Club members were donated by Brown's Locker and Thriftway. Gopher's provided ice and 50 sacks of treats with Study Club donating 50 more.

Barbara Chumley was food chairman with the 16 members attending bringing various dishes.
