Mankind's reckless pol backwater en launces a massive assault of swamp creatures upon humans in "Frogs," American Interna-tional's new screen thriller at the Plaza Theatre Friday and Saturday.

the Plaza Theatre Friday and Saturday. Appearing first as mere over-population by frogs, the assault soon presents itself as a mighty reprisal by swamp denizens such as snakes, lizards and aliga-tors as they mount an aggres-sive attack upon humans in es-tates and villages bordering the wilderness areas. Blarting Ray Milland, Sam Eliott, John Van Ark and Adam Roarke and co-starring Judy Pace, Lynn Borden, Mae Mercer and David Gilliam, the film de-scribes the battle of the resi-dents of a plantation in the fordia Everglades against the deadly invasion of the animals. Filmed entirely on location at Eden State Park near Panama City Beach, Fiorida, the film's ecological theme has been dra-matized into an exciting, sus-penseful battle of mar vs beasts
