Area Asked To Provide Gift Bags For Servicemen

Santa Claus was in town today to begin his Christmas shopping for the servicemen in Viet Nam.

He has asked the Wichita County Chapter of the Red Cross to help him.

Wichita County has been asked to provide 750 small bags of gifts for servicemen in Viet Nam, said Mrs. Cliff Deaton, a member of the Red Cross Board.

The 750 bags with cards enclosed, will join others being prepared throughout the nation in a Red Cross project to provide a Christmas present for every able-bodied serviceman in Viet Nam. Other arrangements are being made for men in hospitals.

Santa Claus (portrayed by Frank Hayes) visited the Red Cross Chapter House at Fifth and Eaylor Streets and met with former Wichita Falls Mayor Winston Wallander, who will be county chairman for the project, called "Operation Shop Early." Mrs. Foy Hogan will be chairman of the making of the nylon net bags for the gifts.

Each bag will contain a ball-point pen; a plastic soap dish; a terrycloth wash cloth; foot powder; a pocket comb; an individual package of tissues; and a paperback book, such as mystery, western, science fiction or crossword puzzle book.

In addition, some other suggested items may be put in the bags. These include a small package of writing paper, a small address book, a plastic cigarette case, an unfilled lighter (no combustibles should be sent) a nail clipper, or a small puzzle or solitaire game. Also playing cards; miniature checkers, chess, acey deucey or other travel game; comic and cartoon books; small plastic snapshot holders; individual sewing kit, metal mirror, and small plastic bags for moisture protection for personal items.

Each bag will be about a foot square and will have a drawstring. Each will have a card in it with the name of the Red Cross chapter and any co-operation organizations.

All items in the gift bags should be new.

Anyone wishing to donate cash, goods or services to the project is requested to call the Red Cross, 322-8686.

The estimated cost for making and filling each bag is from $2.50 to $3.50, plus postage. To insure receipt in Viet Nam by Christmas, the bags must be mailed by Oct. 15.

Santa's visit today was unusual in that his bag was empty and he had a long list of things he needed. Usually it's the other way around.

Junior Varsity Dumps Rowdies

The Burkburnett High School Junior Varsity won their second game without a loss, here Thursday night, as they downed the Wichita Falls Senior High Rowdies, 22-6.

Jeff Beavers, quarterback, directed the victory, scoring on a 55-yard keeper play in the first quarter. He then ran the conversion to make it 8-0.

Jackie Eird scored for the Rowdies on a 23-yard run as the first half ended. The score was 8-6 at intermission.

In the third quarter, Beavers tossed a 49-yard strike to Kenny Young for another touchdown. Once again Beavers ran the conversion.

Fullback Lynn Attwood capped the night's scoring for Burk, going four yards. The conversion failed and the final score was 22-6.

In their first game, the Junior Varsity dropped Hirsch's Juniors Varsity, 20-8.

Kings Ride Guthrie's Passes Into Lead In Texas Football League With 13-0 Victory Over Comets

Although an earlier heavy rain slowed the Burkburnett Kings' passing attack here Saturday night, it did not stifle it, as Eugene Guthrie tossed two first half scoring strikes that vaulted the Kings past the Odessa-Midland Comets, 13-0, and gave them a share of the Texas Professional Football League lead.

Guthrie's first bomb was a 17 yarder to flanker Sonny Gossett in the first quarter. Phil Fancher's kicking attempt for the point after failed and it was 6-0.

In the second period, Guthrie hit split end Mike Davenport on a 25 yard play. Fancher's kick made it 13-0, a margin the Kings nursed for the remainder of the contest.

The win gave the Kings a 2-0 league record and a tie with Tulsa. It was the third straight loss for the hapless Comets.

Vince Tiscione, former All-American quarterback from the Colorado School of Mines, never got his team inside the Burk 20, as a bruising defense led by Buddy Meadows, Moe Galvan, Jim Campbell, Larry Jaynes and Jackie Miller kept the Comets bottled up all night long.

The Kings missed one scoring opportunity in the opening stanza, as Phil Fancher missed a 25-yard field goal attempt. In the third quarter, a 49-yard scamper by Jerry Bettis put the Kings on the Comet 30, but the drive stalled after a gain of but two yards. Late in the game, the Kings moved to the Comet 14, but Earnest Eyrd picked off a Guthrie aerial to put the skids on the march. Defensive back, Granville Chandler was shifted to offense and did a commendable job at halfback in the first half and fullback in the last half.

The Kings intercepted three Tiscione passes. Jack Miller of Arlington State hauled in two and former Rebel teammate Jerry Jack Terrell grabbed one.

The game was played on an extremely muddy and wet field. A rainstorm prior to game time dumped more than two inches on the playing area. The Kings are at home again this week, hosting the Pasadena Pistols.

Bulldogs Take Number Two Win Of Season; Dump Electra Tigers Here Friday By 20-0 Margin

By DEE UNDERWOOD

The Burkburnett Bulldogs took their second straight victory in a row, here Friday night, as they rocked the Electra Tigers, 20-0, in a damp, but wildly cheering crowd of around 4,000 in Bulldog Stadium.

The Bulldogs wasted no time in making their intentions known. After losing the coin toss and having to kick off, the Bulldogs got the football when Rod Turner picked off Gary Fisher's first pass of the night, on the third play of the game. Taking it on the 43 yard line of Electra, he raced back to the 10 before being hauled down. The Bulldogs tried a running play, with Charles Hicks, fullback, picking up four. Then the quarterback, Tony Hodges, shot a pass to righthalf Bill Roe in the endzone for the score. Dale Hoffman's kick for extra point failed, and with 9:45 left in the quarter, it was 6-0.

It wasn't long before the Bulldogs were once again knocking on the Tiger's door. In about four and one half minutes, the Bulldogs found themselves on the Tiger 20-yard stripe. Hicks took the ball up the middle, and with a fine bit of running and a key block by Jerry Harsh, covered the entire distance to the end zone. Tony Hodges sent three men wide to the right, then hit Roe for the two-point conversion, making the score 14-0 with 5:03 left in the initial quarter.

In the second period, the Bulldogs drove deep into Tiger territory again, but an interception on the nine killed the drive.

At the half, the Bulldogs took their 14-0 lead to the dressing room. The defense had held the Tigers to a total offense of 24 yards, 27 on the ground and a minus 3 yards passing. The Tigers had not made a first down and had only one pass completion, that for the loss of yardage.

In the second half, the Bulldogs put the opening kickoff in play on their own 44-yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, lefthalf Dale Hoffman ripped off a 52-yard scamper, putting the ball on the four yard marker. Losing three yards on the first play, Hodges ran a keeper that netted four. From the three, fullback Rusty Todd plunged in for the touchdown. The conversion attempt failed and with 10:00 still to play in the quarter, the score was 20-0.

The Bulldogs drove to the eight yard line again in that same stanza, but once again a Tiger interception halted the march. Then, in the final period of play, the Bulldogs were set up with a first and goal to go from the three. Hitting into the line, they were jolted loose from the pigskin and a Tiger defender recovered it.

The Tigers were throttled in their offensive attempts and never penetrated inside the Burkburnett 30. They ended up with 77 yards rushing and 19 passing. Their quarterback, Fisher, a promising sophomore, completed three passes, but none for long yardage. They made but five first downs.

The Bulldogs amassed 240 yards on the ground and 43 yards via the air route. Hodges completed three of eight passes. The Bulldogs had a total of 15 first downs. Dale Hoffman was the leading rusher for the night with 87 yards in 9 plays. Charles Hicks followed with 58 in 10 attempts. Bill Roe had 39 in 6. Rusty Todd, 26 in 6. Tony Hodges, 16 in 6. Jim Caddell, 5 in 2, and Rod Turner, 2 in 2.

Larry Johnson, Jerry Harsh, Butch Wood, Steve Cozby, Mark Seay and Rod Turner were outstanding on defense. Wood was the leading tackler of the night.

For the Tigers, their defensive ace was also their leading offensive player. Tailback Ricky Peters repeatedly stabbed Bulldog runners from his defensive halfback slot. The Tigers were a game bunch, but it was just a case of being outmanned.

Friday night the Bulldogs journey to Lawton, Oklahoma for a severe test against the pass-minded Eisenhower Eagles, an undefeated, once-tied team.

GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY BECKONS

HELP REDUCE THE "TRAVEL GAP"

With many thousands of Americans traveling abroad, the United States faces the problem of enticing more overseas visitors to our shores in order to help alleviate the balance-of-payments problem.

American industry, through the National Association of Manufacturers, is now busily engaged in a campaign to reduce the "travel gap." As one aspect, it is promoting low-price package tours to the United States by employees in the overseas branches or subsidiaries of American companies.

The tours for the most part, are arranged by the employees themselves and they pay their own fares. The companies encourage the idea and welcome their foreign employees for vacations in the U. S.

Singer Manufacturing Company has been a leader in the project, more than 1,000 of its overseas employees having visited the U. S. in the 12-month period. Recently, the IBM World Trade Headquarters Club, an employee organization, had sponsored two chartered flights, bringing over 197 Germans, 88 Swiss and six Belgians to this country. Similar programs are being planned, or are already under way, in a number of other companies.

When industry's campaign was outlined by C. K. Campbell, Vice President, IBM World Trade Corporation, and chairman of the NAM's travel-gap task force, in a letter to President Lyndon B. Johnson, the White House expressed the President's "deep appreciation" for the NAM committee's efforts to reverse the flow of tourist dollars.

The opportunity for overseas employees of U. S. business concerns to tour the United States and to meet the American people should go a long way toward better international understanding.

GOOD FOR THE GANDERS TOO

No group or organization can conduct its affairs without regard for the interests of other people. No one is too important or too insignificant to be independent of other people. Mr. William W. Weston, public relations director of Sun Oil Company says: "... companies ... to survive and succeed ... must demonstrate ... that they are responsibly serving the people ... the employees, the stockholders, (and) the customers ... the public interest. No company can merely talk itself into a good reputation, any more than a shine can be put on a rotten apple ... responsible, moral performance is the essential first requirement for a good public relations, and therefore public relations must be the responsibility of top management ..."

This is good advice for any business enterprise, for labor union officials and holders of public office, as well as those who might be tempted to shortchange the public interest.

GOSHEN, IND., NEWS: "Automakers recalled thousands of cars for safety checks. Maybe auto license bureaus should call back drivers for the same purpose."

HEADACHES THROUGH THE AGES

A headache is often nature's way of telling us to slow down and take it easy, a warning that the pressures are becoming too great for comfort. Throughout history man has always done something when his head ached—for example:

1. Prehistoric cave men had holes drilled in their heads to relieve the pressures of headaches. Ancient skulls reveal that this practice goes back as far as 9,000 B.C.

2. Egyptians believed that a person with a headache was possessed by demons. Priests recited long incantations and prescribed foul-tasting drinks to scare the spirits away.

3. Medieval knights are said to have had considerable trouble with headaches (who wouldn't under 50 pounds of metal armor). When the pain got to be too much to bear, Sir Knight may have gone to a witch for a special brew.

4. Today's headache victim doesn't need a witch's brew. Many people get long-lasting relief from Vanquish, which contains five ingredients to ease the pain and relieve vascular pressure in the head at the same time.

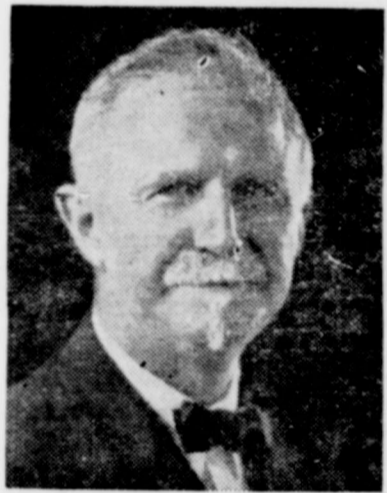

5. Lacking modern remedies, many Moors tap a goat with a stick when headache strikes—hoping that the ailment will be transferred to the animal.

6. In Germany it is a common notion that if a bird finds a person's cut hair and builds a nest with it, the person will suffer a headache.

Roger W. Babson Weekly Report

As the wage-price spiral gathers steam, there is rising concern in business circles and in Washington. The need for a tax boost is everywhere discussed and there is renewed speculation that the Administration may also be forced to adopt wage price controls.

Wage Settlements Inflationary

President Johnson has repeatedly expressed the hope that voluntary wage and price restraint could be achieved through application of the guidelines of the Council of Economic Advisers. In pursuit of that goal, the President had cautioned labor to trim its demands so as not to rock the economy. Also, he had several times used the prestige of his office to persuade industry to forego or to rescind price boosts in selected industrial raw materials.

For a time it appeared that the Administration was succeeding in keeping wages and price from upsurging too violently. However, over the last several months the White House has been fighting a losing battle with runaway wages and prices. Despite those price raises it did succeed in thwarting, quotations have been edged upward. And the final agreement between the airlines and the Machinists Union is the latest in a series of such settlements which have been clearly inflationary.

Living Costs Climbing

The effects of recent unrealistically liberal wage settlements and of climbing prices are evident in the trend of living costs. In July, the latest month for which such statistics are available, the Bureau of Labor's Cost of Living Index increased four-tenths of one percent over June. Higher transportation costs and a somewhat smaller-than-average boost in food prices were blamed for the upturn.

The Cost of Living Index is 2.8% above a year ago and promises to move still higher over the near term. It stands at 113.3 This means that it now costs the American consumer $11.33 for a typical selection of commodities which cost only $10 in the 1957-59 period on which the index is based.

Are Wage-Price Controls Coming?

You can expect the cost of food, medical care, and other services to rise alarmingly over the next couple of months. But you can also expect the President to insist that it is too soon to do anything that would definitely put a lid on wages and prices. Mr. Johnson well realizes that inflation is a problem and that it spells danger in the period ahead. But he also realizes that the strong measures needed to combat it are unpopular and that they would have little chance of clearing Congress before the November election.

So we must wait until the voting is over, — hoping that by that time the economy will not be so overheated that a recession will be its only real cure. Because of the political realities involved, there will be no attempt to impose any system of wage and price controls upon the nation this fall. Any such move would probably be deferred until after the turn of the year. Even then it is unlikely to be resorted to until after taxes have been hiked.

Tax Boost By January

To ease up-pressures on the economy from record industrial activity and the escalated war in Vietnam, the Administration and Congress might have chosen, last spring, either to increase taxes or to cut federal spending. Instead, they did nothing.

We are spending so much, so rapidly, to support our effort in Vietnam that it is widely expected the President will ask Congress for an additional $12 billion for this purpose. Added to the $12 billion already budgeted for the Viet war, this would make a total of $58 billion to be expended for national security this year. It boils down to this: We cannot cut spending for the Viet war, and our leaders will not cut spending for Great Society programs. We just don't have enough cash to go around for both. So there'll be a tax boost — applying to both corporations and individuals — by January.

Navy ROTC Tests Are Available At Local High School

Applications for the Navy's twenty-first annual Regular NROTC qualification test are now available according to Mr. Groenewold, counselor, at the Burkburnett High School. This nationwide examination will be given on 10, December, 1966, and all eligible male high school seniors and graduates may apply.

On the basis of this test, personal interviews, medical examinations, and other factors, Mr. Groenewold explained, over 1,700 young men will enter the Regular NROTC Program as midshipmen at NROTC units in 52 colleges and universities throughout the nation. Male citizens of the United States who will be at least 17 but not yet 21 on 30, June 1967, and who are now high school seniors or graduates, may be eligible to apply for the test. Those who attain qualifying scores will be interviewed and given medical examinations next January and February.

A successful candidate receives financial aid for four years of college. This includes tuition and educational fees, books, uniforms, and $50.00 per month subsistence allowance. After successfully completing baccalaureate degree requirements and naval training, graduates are commissioned as officers in the U. S. Navy or Marine Corps.

Regular NROTC midshipmen participate in three summer cruises with various naval units. These cruises help them learn more about the variety of interesting and challenging opportunities available to them as naval or marine corps officers.

Registrations for the test will close 18 November 1966. NROTC Bulletins containing eligibility requirements and qualifying test applications available from Mr. Groenewold or the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station in Wichita Falls, Texas.

School Time Means Time For PTA

When the children start off to school, it's prime time to join the PTA.

And in this school year, PTA's throughout the country are moving forward on programs that seek to involve all parents—and other adults interested in children's welfare—in ever better education, health and opportunity for all children.

"Never in its history has the PTA been more necessary to the well-being of children and our nation," says Mrs. Jennelle Moorhead, of Eugene, Ore., National PTA president. "Never have we had so rich an opportunity to move the nation to great decisions, for ideas that the PTA has promoted for years have come into their own."

Its goal of making preschool education available to all children, for example, is winning broad acceptance. Increasingly, too, educators realize the importance of involving parents in their children's education, something long advocated by the PTA.

This year, the PTA plans to experiment with new methods of reaching the non-participating parents—the working mother, the parent-without-partner, the residents of urban slums or depressed rural areas. New programs, too, will deal with children's health, safety and education.

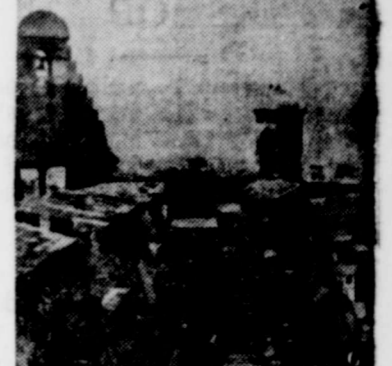

It's off to school for Jeanette and Michael Ryan—they're first and second graders at Nettelhorst School in Chicago—and back to the PTA for Mrs. Robert W. Ryan, like millions of other Americans, a participant in PTA programs for children. Their message: It's Prime Time To Join!

One such project, undertaken in cooperation with the U. S. Public Health Service, will attempt to discourage 7th and 8th graders from starting to smoke cigarettes.

—indeed, to all who are interested in children and willing to uphold the Objects of the PTA. Membership dues vary among local units and state branches of the National PTA, but only ten cents of each membership fee goes to the National Office, in Chicago, for maintaining the organization and providing the services that enable PTA's to function effectively and serve

SOMETHING NEW FOR TRAVELERS: CARTAGENA!

Looking for a unique vacation at bargain prices? You may find it in the city of Cartagena, Colombia!

Of special interest to visitors are the walls surrounding Cartagena's "old city," built in 1533 as a series of fortresses to guard the city from pirates, the walls are so thick that cars drive on top of them.

The colonial architecture, with its beautiful monasteries and churches, is more Spanish than Spain.

Only a short distance from the "old city," beach and sun lovers will find the resort section—a sun-filled world of luxurious hotels, a gambling casino, restaurants and beaches.

The warm, crystal-clear Caribbean waters around Cartagena and nearby Rosario Islands offer the very real possibility of discovering buried treasure scrapped by the Spaniards along with their galleons to save them from pirate marauders.

For shopping, swimming, sunning or sightseeing, Cartagena is a traveler's ticket to adventure.

A dead rabbit makes a draw-bait for crows. Place in a field and conceal yourself nearby.

BURKBURNETT STUDY CLUB HOLDS ART, CRAFT AND CUT GLASS EXHIBIT

High Moments of Art held the interest of the club members when they met in the National room for the opening meeting of the year.

Mrs. George McClarty showed the various techniques of making Papier Mache, and displayed her most outstanding collection. She explained that Papier Mache is old, yet it is new. It is a Handicraft for fun. You can decorate scarred furniture, and turn it into a thing of beauty, with Papier Mache. If it can be painted, it can be Machied. Mrs. McClarty designed and made a Mache figure for the audience. One of the loveliest figures in her collection was made and designed by her granddaughter, Susan Teel. She closed her talk by saying that craft medium, with its unlimited challenge to creativity, should "appeal and spark" the imagination of all age levels.

Remembering that the average person is not an art connoisseur, Mrs. Hugh Cole Preston, Jr., placed on the easel outstanding types of art that truly had the masters touch. Such exhibits as "Mary Queen of Scots Going to Execution," "Elizabeth Smiting Earl of Essex" were made from alabaster dust. The molds are hand made. The Italian Government has the patent on this process. Beautiful silk screens, the originals known as Seregraph and English Lithographs were truly works of art. One of the most interesting type of art was an oriental silk, "The Emperor's Palace." This is known as fingernail weaving. It is done by letting your fingernails grow long, and using them to weave the threads. The collection of "Sieneese Paintings" was on exhibit.

Cut Glass is an American Heritage, stated Mrs. Carpenter. Old American cut glass is irreplaceable, and decoratively, it belongs with the fine furniture of our early years. American Cut Glass also has a very intrinsic value. A nine inch berry bowl which cost $5 in 1900, would cost $100 to reproduce today. Labor and materials have so increased in cost that the large-scale production of fine handmade and handcut lead glass is no longer profitable. Indeed, it is unlikely that cut glass will be available to most of us again unless we search out what still remains, and collect it.

Dr. and Mrs. Carpenter are avid admirers of cut glass, and spend their leisure hours with their favorite hobby . . . collecting antiques, particularly cut glass. A table set with signed berry bowls, perfume bottles, powder jar, butter dish, pitcher, spoon holder, syrup pitcher and numerous other pieces from their collection.

At the conclusion of the program members viewed the various exhibits.

Mrs. Glen Bear, Mrs. W. G. Mayberry, Mrs. Lamoin Champ and the pres. Mrs. James Frye greeted the guests, and directed them into the beautifully decorated party room. The tables were decorated with straw hats filled with colorful flowers, and place mats of shocking pink and blue added a festive note to the delicious salad plate that was served the members. Mrs. James Frye brought greetings, and Mrs. Howard Henderson gave the invocation.

Mrs. Glen Bear presented the year books and announced the theme "Creativity." The year book was dedicated to the president, Mrs. James Frye for her successful leadership as chairman of the C.I.P. Steering committee during 1964-66.

Mrs. Howard Henderson and her finance committee, Mrs. F. C. Roye and Mrs. W. T. Zimmerman announced plans for the annual Rummage Sale to be held at the Town Hall, Sept. 24 and Oct. 1.

W. T. Zimmerman, postmaster, made possible commemorative G.F.W.C. postal stamps, and newspapers showing the unavailing of the stamp in Chicago, June 6.

A check was mailed to the Federation Friendship Garden by the hostesses. Plans will be made by Mrs. Alvin Hill, D. H. Smith and Dorothy Preston to have a party for the patients at the Harrelson Nursing Home.

Kings' Lose Top Defensive Back To Uncle Sam

The man who was chosen "Defensive Back of the Year" for the Burkburnett Kings last season, his freshman year with the club, Granville Chandler, 165-pound defensive act from Southeastern State College, has received notice that he must report September 28 for induction into the United States Army.

The twenty-five year old former All-State halfback from Broken Bow, Okla. has served the past three years as Junior High School coach in the Burkburnett School system. He was a sterling performer last season for the Kings, and is off to a good start this season in the first three games. Chandler said that he would play two more games for the Kings, one which will already be played at press time and another one against the Pasadena Pistols, here Sept. 24.

The personable young coach has made a lot of friends in Burkburnett during his stay here, and will be missed. Fellow King players rate him in the "tops" category, a fine football player as well as a great guy. Coach E. J. Webb speaks of Chandler as "a tremendous defensive player."

Chandler did not confine his athletic abilities to football. He was also a basketball, softball, and baseball player. He played Church League basketball on one of the top teams that made it into the League playoffs. This past summer, he played softball and baseball, his softball team winning the Seymour Tournament and placing second at Dean Dale.

He played baseball for the Eurk Rangers, and was one of the key reasons for their winning 9 games while losing only 5. Starting at shortstop, he batted .540 and stole 14 bases. His defensive play was flawless.

Chandler played four years of high school football at Broken Bow, making All-District and second-team All-State halfback. He played in Oklahoma's All-State game. He played four years at Southeastern of Durant, Oklahoma. He went to work in the Burkburnett school system in 1963. His last season coaching record was 5 wins and 3 losses.

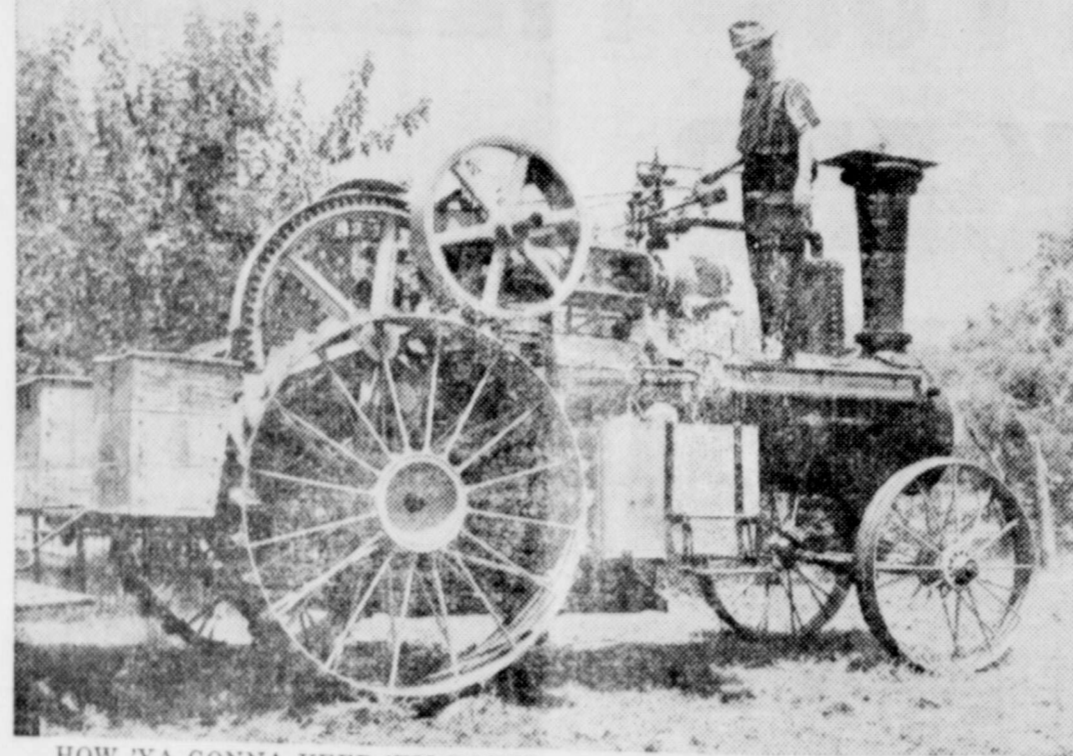

He joined the Kings in 1965 and proved himself a valuable addition to a star-studded defensive backfield. He has started every game since he joined the Kings.

Chandler said he had enjoyed his stay in Burkburnett, especially working with the junior high boys. He plans on spending a week in Broken Bow before reporting for induction.

"I'll be in Burk for those two King games, though," Chandler stated on Friday, his last day at the junior high.

All of his friends, fellow football players, and especially the Burkburnett Star, wish him the best of luck and a fond farewell.
