Alecia Nemecek notified me that the Bill McBride Special Fund has reached a total of $800 from students at the high school. The total for the fund counting the portion given by the students and other organizations and citizens is well over the $1,000 mark.

But what is even better news than that is that there are plans of bringing Bill home for further recuperation on Friday. Bill was very seriously injured in an auto accident last month and was listed in a most critical condition.

If anyone would like to make a deposit in this special fund, go by the First National Bank and any teller will be happy to assist you.

This project undertaken by the students of the Burk Burnett High School has been termed a great success, and as stated by high school principal Dan Schaffner, "It's our young people who made this project a success, and it's they who deserve the great credit."

I understand the annual Pep Club Powder Puff Football Game will be held this Friday night at Bulldog football field. Fifty to sixty girls are expected to participate in this event which "kicks-off" at 7:00 p.m.

Proceeds from the gate will be used to sponsor the activities of the Pep Club and also to help with the expenses of cheer leading school for the cheerleaders.

A highlight of the evening will be the crowning of a Powder Puff Queen. The contestants for this event are the four class Handsones.

Two more answers to the question "Why is a woman like a newspaper?" came in Tuesday, and both are good, as you can read below.

Dear Sirs:
A woman and a newspaper are alike in that they both spend a lot of time on make-up -- in a futile attempt at perfection.

Here at our house we've enjoyed the two answers you've received thus far and have printed -- I'm hoping that mine will qualify too.

Sincerely,
H. R. Jefferts

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Evans were honored at the Burk Burnett School Employee Appreciation Banquet for their 29 years with the school. Plaques from the district were given to each, and Evans' staff presented him with a recliner chair.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans Honored At Banquet

More than 400 persons who are directly involved with the Burk Burnett School System came together Friday night to honor a gentleman who, after 29 years of service, is retiring. I. C. Evans, who received his degrees from the University of Texas and North Texas University, was principal of Hardin Grade School for 16 years before being named superintendent of schools.

Since that appointment in 1958, the system has experienced rapid and continuous growth. For this dedication, Evans was presented a plaque from the district, and a recliner chair from his staff.

years, and to Mrs. Hazel Willis, with a 33-year tenure.

Burkburnett City Council Approves Community Center Design

Approval of the design of the community center and the appointment of T. M. Cornelius as City Councilman proved to be the major items on the agenda of the Burk Burnett City Council Monday night.

The exterior design of the building according to the architect's agreement with Caffee-Bellamy & Associates calls for a metal and brick veneer structure.

This 12,000-square-foot structure will be located at the corner of Davey Drive and Kramer Road. Plans call for an auditorium that will seat 720 people banquet-style and an additional room accommodating 85 persons. Rest rooms, storage area and a complete kitchen facility are also included in the plans.

The building will be air conditioned by 45 tons of cooling, which will operate separately for the auditorium and the smaller room.

Gary Bean, City Manager, reported that the building should seat a minimum of 1,100 people for a regular assembly. Also, he stated, there will be parking space for some 200 cars adjacent to the building.

Building contracts for the community center are expected to be let within the next 65 days.

In other action, T. M. Cornelius, long-time resident of Burk Burnett and a local insurance agent, was sworn in as a member of the City Council.

Cornelius will complete the 11-month term of Joe Ray McCluskey, who resigned in April. McCluskey was named in a resolution of appreciation from the Council for his services to the city.

The city assumed the collection of garbage starting Monday following purchase of the equipment used by the former garbage contractor, Walter West.

The Council set a price of 80 cents per 1,000 gallons for the sale of water to an association of rural subscribers to the north of Burk Burnett. The Council limited the number of eligible rural meters to 30 residences.

Additional action of the Council included the reappointment of Dr. Jerome Adams as city health officer and the approval of the payment of current accounts totaling $6,189.

Rotary Club Art, Antique Show Begins

This weekend Burk Burnett should be cited as one of the best spots in Texas for art and antique collectors. Sponsored by the Rotary Club, the art and antique show will have great variety and a "something - for - everyone" atmosphere.

The Art Show, which will be held in the National Room, will feature works by locally-known talent as well as others from art associations in our area. Demonstrations will be given on water coloring by Ken Cunningham, and on wood carving by Billie Avis of Henrietta.

Don Walker of Wichita Falls will have his portraits in pastels on exhibit. Glenda Galvez, a local artist and instructor, will also be exhibiting her work.

An Indian artist, Leonard Riddles of Walters, who paints under the name of Black Moon, will exhibit his paintings of the Southwest, and will be visiting the show Sunday.

According to Mrs. Galvez, who is in charge of the art show, there will be a large collection of paintings, both for viewing and for purchase, and the entire show should be a success.

Beverly Riley is the chairman of the Antique Show, which will be in the Community Room. She has gone to great lengths to gather some genuine pieces that are rare to this area.

Available for purchase will be Greek icons, pre-Columbian items, retablos which are native to New Mexico, unique Persian rose water bottles, and English cut-glass perfume bottles. There will also be silver boxes, Royal Beyreuth, and connoisseur - quality cloisonne'.

The private antique collections of Mrs. Hugh Preston, Jr., and Ruth Horsely will be on display, as well as Mrs. Riley's own collection, which includes Chinese export porcelain.

Both the art and the antique shows will be open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday, and 1:00 to 6:00 p.m. Sunday.

The chairman of this Rotary Club project is Larry Watts.

Large Crowd At Dedication

A large crowd of adults and over two hundred Little Leaguers were on hand Saturday morning for the official dedication of Hayes Field.

The field, dedicated to H. R. (Gingie) Hayes for his diligent work in organizing Little League in Burk Burnett, is one of the finest such baseball parks in this area. Hayes was the director of parks and recreation for the City of Burk Burnett until recently, and it was under his supervision that many of the local baseball parks were built.

Mrs. Hayes accepted the plaque on behalf of her husband, who is currently in the Veterans Hospital in Oklahoma City, Okla.

The dedication followed a parade by the members of the Little League through downtown Burk Burnett.

Following the ceremony, League officers and parents fed some 2,000 hamburgers to those who attended the annual Little League Hamburger Feed in Permian Park.

JOHN GAVIN PRAISES BURK

John J. Gavin, former mayor of Wichita Falls, speaking to the members and guests of the Burk Burnett Chamber of Commerce Monday, stated, "The people of Burk Burnett have done more toward community development than any other city I know." Instead of having someone from another town come to speak to you on community development, other towns should have you coming to them, remarked Gavin.

"It is evident that the businessmen and citizens are really interested in the city and its development," said Gavin.

Gavin praised the industry in Burk Burnett and further stated that many industries are leaving the large metropolitan areas and moving to smaller, more attractive cities. "People in those areas are turning toward the more appealing and carefully planned towns like Burk Burnett," he continued.

By working together, noted Gavin, Burk Burnett and Burk Burnett can solve problems facing them and work them out to make both cities more prosperous. He singled out the Nortex Regional Planning Center in Wichita Falls for their efforts in giving a good look at the problems of community and regional development and helping a city in both of those areas.

There are five lives that a person must live, stated Gavin, the religious life, the family life, business and professional life, a healthy life and a community life. "A person must take part and serve in his community, if his community is to prosper," he said.

C. J. Lippard, chairman of the community development program of the Chamber, introduced Gavin.

Mother's Day. Mothers deserve special recognition more often than they receive it, so let's take at least one day this year to tell her we care. A mother is a unique mixture of love and understanding, kindness and patience, dedication and hard work. When asked which child she loves most the answer is instinctive: the one that is ill until he gets well, or the one that is away until he gets home. At any particular time the one she loves most is the one who needs her love the most. Like the father of the Prodigal Son, the one that's in trouble is the one she loves best. All our lives she has been our companion and our counselor. If your mother is still living, be mindful while you have her. She loves you as ever, neglectful though you may be. If she is still on earth, keep in touch with her more regularly. If she has passed to her reward, that was the only thing she ever did that caused you to suffer. Whether she is with you or whether she has passed on, honor her in the best way possible, by imitating her example.

May Proclaimed As Senior Citizens Month

The second and fourth Thursdays of every month will find Burkburnett's Town Hall really buzzing. Games of 42, talk of recent happenings, a delicious lunch, a good program and a thorough discussion of club business are all part of each meeting of the Senior Citizens Club.

Nationally, the movement to organize senior citizen clubs began in 1953, when it was realized that there were new trends in longevity and an increased life span. It was also decided, with much of the credit being given to Miss Anna C. Leahy of Fort Worth, that a Senior Citizens Month would emphasize this new fact, and older persons would be recognized for their judgment, skills and experience. A specially designated month, it was believed, would also help recognize older persons for the outstanding service which they had rendered to their local communities. It was also believed that special recognition for senior citizens would aid in keeping them active and discourage the practice of retiring the whole generation from society.

Finally in 1963, the goal of Miss Leahy and thousands of others was achieved when President John F. Kennedy issued a proclamation making May Senior Citizens Month. Since that time, Presidents Lyndon B. Johnson and Richard M. Nixon have also issued the annual proclamation. The local organization began only three years ago when Mrs. Florence Trevena, who had had previous experience with similar organizations in Detroit, along with her sister, Miss Toinette Weaver, Rev. Lamoine Champ and Rev. Don Youngblood, were named by the Chamber of Commerce to a steering committee. Membership has grown from the 40 original members to 200, and all members are over age 55.

The members of the local club are an integral part of our community. One member, Dick Chambers, was presented the employee of the year award, and former mayor and present City Councilman A. H. Lohofener serves as a club officer. The oldest member, Reece H. Henry, 91, owned a grocery and dry goods store here for many years. Active in church and civic affairs, he was on the school board when the high school building was built in 1907 and a member of the board of the First Methodist Church when the present structure was built. Mrs. Henry serves as the club's card sender.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Teal have been active members of the First Baptist Church for many years. Teal is a deacon of the church, and is presently serving the Senior Citizens as president.

Mrs. Bill Crosley is involved in the Church of Christ and spends many hours working with the garden club, as does Mrs. Jim Johnson, another long-time resident of Burkburnett.

Other club members have started businesses in their homes to keep busy. Houser's Mower Shop is run by Arthur Houser. Mrs. Houser is club treasurer, and they are both members of the First Baptist Church.

Another active couple are Mr. and Mrs. Neal Hall. Hall handles, by mail order, stamps of all kinds, and receives orders from all over the United States. Mrs. Hall works closely with this newspaper, serving both her club and the First Christian Church as reporter.

Another typical member of the club is Jingle Hayes, who has worked with the city as director of parks and recreation. Hayes has been credited with being the primary organizer of Little League baseball in Burkburnett, and Hayes Field was recently named in his honor.

There are many more outstanding people in the Senior Citizens Club --- 200, to be precise --- from all occupations, retired, couple or surviving partners.

"The Burkburnett Senior Citizens Club," as one member so plainly stated it, "is not a place to find old people who have put themselves away on a shelf, but a place where everyone is working."

Police Activity Extremely Light

Burkburnett Police again experienced an exceptionally light week of activity, investigating only two incidents and no traffic accidents occurring.

Last Wednesday, officers received a report of theft over $50 from Bruce Sheppard. Stolen were a tool box and tools from his residence at 711 Pecan.

The other incident of the week involved a simple assault upon Clifford D. Gibson of 703 Glendale. The incident occurred at the Red River Bridge and the expressway Sunday.

Listed as suspects in the case by local officers are Wanda Lee Waddell, John Westly Shotswell and Ronnie Lee.

OEA - DECA Hold Annual Banquet

"We should lay the challenge for our children to be better than us. They must exceed us or we will not grow," stated Maurice Crawford to a group of about 300 at the Office Education and the Distributive Education Banquet Monday night.

The distinguished speaker, a graduate of Hardin Simmons University, kept the audience entertained with his humor, but stressed the fact that we owe the youth of today the opportunity to make a living, but we do not owe them the living itself. He stated that if the world's wealth were divided equally, in about one year's time the wealth would be as it is today.

Crawford is a senior accounting executive with a Wichita Falls brokerage firm and is the past president of the Knife and Fork Club and the Boys' Club.

Special guests at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McClure.

Also recognized were Weldon Nix and I. C. Evans for the contributions they made in getting vocational education started in the Burkburnett High School nine years ago.

Jack Aaron, president of the Burkburnett Bank, was presented as Employer of the Year by the O.E.A. His selection was based on the contents of a letter submitted by his O.E.A. employee, Judy Klunkerman. Aaron stated that he felt the DECA and the OEA programs to be the finest in our school system.

Kenneth Patrick, president of DECA, and Kim Collier, president of OEA, served as Master and Mistress of Ceremonies.

Mrs. Pete Simmons Winner Of Tullis Mtr. Grand Prize

Mrs. C. L. (Pete) Simmons of 701 Mimosa can literally sit back in her easy chair now, since she was the grand prize winner at the Tullis Motor Company grand opening Saturday. She won a large recliner when Kevin Burkett of Iowa Park drew her name from some 450 entries in the contest.

J. Broadmax of 402 W. 7th St. won the second prize, $25.00 worth of free service from Tullis's service department. Tommy English of 117 Michael was the third place winner, receiving $10 in cash. Burkett, who drew the tickets, found himself also a winner, when C.L. Simmons presented him with $5 for drawing the winning ticket.

"The grand opening was a huge success," stated Howard Tullis, owner. Some 450 persons came by to register for the drawing, and many more came to look over the good selection of used cars and, especially, the all-new Subaru. A large group of Burkburnett businessmen and members of the Chamber of Commerce were on hand for the ribbon cutting by Mayor Billy Smith Friday morning.

"We would like to thank everyone for coming out during our special two-day celebration," stated Tullis, "and especially the officials who came to the ribbon cutting. We would also like to extend a warm congratulations to the winners in our drawing."

$ Days This Weekend $

Today another one of Burkburnett's fabulous sales promotion weekends will begin. Thursday, Friday and Saturday are set as the city's monthly Dollar Days. Although sales personnel may be a little tamer than during last month's Crazy Daze, there will be many specials for the Mother's Day shopper. Burkburnett merchants have gone out of their way to prove to the people that they can't get a better deal anywhere than in Burkburnett! Many pages of advertising can be found in this week's edition of the Informer/Star and the Informer/Star Shopper displaying the bargains of the weekend. As an added bonus for shoppers in the Burk stores, the Burkburnett In-former/Star's Hidden Camera will be out selecting prospects for the monthly Hidden Camera Ad which will appear in next week's issue.

The person whose picture appears in the ad will be the winner of a $7.50 gift certificate by just coming in to shop.

The gift certificate will be redeemable in any one of the seven sponsoring merchants whose names appear in the Hidden Camera Ad.

Don't forget to shop in Burkburnett during Dollar Days and take advantage of the great savings available and perhaps you will be snapped by the Hidden Camera for an even better bargain.

Kenneth Garrett of the Department of Public Safety, license division, in Wichita Falls (center) spoke to the Burkburnett Lions Club about driver's license suspensions, and also discussed several new driving laws now in effect. Standing with Garrett are Dick Johnston, left, who introduced the program, and Clyde Conway, president of the Lions Club.

May is Senior Citizens' month across the nation, decreed as such by President Nixon. It is also the anniversary of the local Senior Citizens club. At the organization's meeting next Thursday a well-known speaker will discuss Senior Citizenry. The older members and older guests will be recognized.

In addition, Police Chief Buck Abbott will give a talk on the drug situation in Burkburnett and what can be done about it.

Both these topics should prove to be of great interest. Besides the program, there will be the birthday cake, opportunities for fellowship and games, and the usual sumptuous meal.

All members are urged to attend and take a part in this celebration.

Many teachers and other employees of the Burkburnett School System came by to greet I. C. Evans Friday night at the Employee Banquet, and to wish him well upon his retirement in June.

Your Texas Ancestors

by
DAMON VEACH

Merida G. Ellis was born in 1847 in Denton County, and his parents died when he was an infant. His uncle, Samuel P. Lovins, reared him, and according to a biographical sketch of early Texans, he was one of 8 children. All of these were dead when the sketch was compiled in 1906.

Mrs. Olive Ellis Ramage, Route A, Jacksboro, Texas, 76056, would like to learn the names of these children to see if one of them might be her great grandfather, Isaac Newton Ellis, who did not return from the Civil War. Isaac of James and Elizabeth Anderson. He joined Quantrell's band and served with him under Shelby.

Isaac and Julianne had one son, William Isalah. He was raised by his grandmother, Elizabeth Anderson. Isaac did not return from service, and Julianne died in 1862. According to a sketch on the Loving family, they moved to Tarrant County soon after the death of J. N. and Artisma (Brown) Ellis, parents of Merrida G., who served with Captain Peak's Co. and was discharged because of poor health. He later re-enlisted in Captain Archie Hart's Co. He was a successful businessman in Fort Worth and once owned land where North Fort Worth was developed.

All Ellis descendants are asked to contact Mrs. Ramage.

Mrs. Robert W. Howard, 802 E. Raynosa, De Leon, Texas, 76444 would like to hear from descendants of Joeab Howard, Jr., who reared his children in Comanche County. He left here and went to west Texas, where he died in Haskell County. His wife and son, Virgil, are also buried there. There are no markers on the graves, and birth and death dates are needed so that they can be erected.

Mrs. Howard would like to know if anyone has either the Joeab, Jr. or Joeab, Sr. Bibles. Joeab, Sr., is buried in Comanche Co. Also needed is the place of burial of Joeab Jr.'s first wife. Their children were Will, Mattie, Hargrove, and Henry. Children by the second marriage were Al, Walter, Aus and Bos (twins), Dora and Kate. Some of these may be nicknames.

Don Cotton, 2711 Edgewood, Edmond, Okla., 73034, needs information on Henry Laffton Cotton, born Aug. 11, 1893, at Terrell, Texas, married Bernice Sweeney, Jan. 11, 1920. She was born Aug. 21, 1903, Whitt, Texas. The marriage occurred at Whitt, where he worked as a farmer. He also worked around Decatur. They has six children - Faye, Jack, Ray, John, Bob and Don. Nothing is known of the Cotton family and all correspondence would be appreciated.

Correspondence to this column should be directed to Damon Veach, P.O. Drawer 6367, Seminary Hill Station, Fort Worth, Texas, 76115. Please state where you read the column, and, by all means, let your editor know you are pleased with the format. All queries are printed free of charge and may be any length but must have a Texas connection or be submitted by a Texas resident working on lines in other states. Books and magazines are reviewed if sample copies are sent with each request.

LOOKING BACK...

There is a need to look back occasionally to get our bearings for the future. Past experiences often guide future action. What has proved good and profitable in the past will often prove to be the same in the days ahead. Serving God and our country through our churches and through civil and community service has always elevated us as a people and contributed to our image as a free and just country. We will not go wrong in adhering to these practices.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Girl Scout News

Brownie Troop 121 had a weiner roast recently for the girls and their families. Four girls in the troop flew up in special ceremonies this Tuesday.

Last Tuesday night fourteen girls from Brownie Troop 40 flew up to Junior Troop 25. The girls received Brownie Wings from their leaders and were met by the new leaders and given the Girl Scout pin and the World Association pin plus the Girl Scout Handbook for the new age level. At their meeting last week, the girls made Mother's Day presents. One new girl was invested. Cadette Donna Locke visited and taught games to the troop.

Junior Troop 45 went on an all-day hike Saturday, starting at Ave. B. They carried food and gear in back packs. Twelve girls and three adults attended. The troop was accompanied by their Brownie sister troop. The Juniors taught the Brownies to pitch a tent and construct an outdoor latrine. The Brownies brought a sack lunch, but the Juniors cooked on an open fire. After lunch the activities included lessons on building different types of fires and demonstrating lessons on the use and safety of a knife; a demonstration was given by the leader on safety and use of an axe, how to cut wood and make a woodpile using tender, kindling and fuel. The girls ended the day whittling on sticks.

Junior Troop 45 would like to thank those who bought cakes at their cake sale last Saturday. The money will be used for camping equipment.

Farmers To Vote On Wheat Referendum Tues.

Howard Henderson of Burkburnett, Wichita county leader of the Amarillo-based Texas Wheat Producers Association, said today that "individual farmers are showing an increasing interest in the forthcoming wheat referendum and producer board election as a step toward strengthening their income from wheat through stronger organized producer efforts."

Wheat farmers in 34 counties of Texas that normally produce 75% of the state's 50-million-bushel wheat crop vote Tuesday (May 11) in a referendum and promotion referendum. If passed by 2/3 of the growers voting, an assessment of not more than 5 mills per bushel will be made at the first point of sale on all wheat marketed in the area. Proceeds from the program, if passed, will be invested in research in production and marketing, disease and insect control, and market development at home and abroad.

The referendum is being sponsored by the Texas Wheat Producers Association on certification by John C. White, Commissioner, Texas Department of Agriculture, under authority of the Texas Commodity Referendum Act of 1969, passed by the 61st legislature.

Leo Witkowski, Hereford,

President of the Texas Wheat Producers Association, said that "wheat has been a declining crop in Texas the past few years from the standpoint of acreage planted, harvested and marketed." He pointed out that "This decline has been very costly in terms of loss in income, not only to the producer, but also to the elevators handling wheat, and to the entire agricultural economy dealing in servicing, financing, transporting, and supplying the wheat farmer. Passage of this wheat referendum would provide funds to initiate development projects which might help in reversing the decline in the wheat industry and increase producer income from wheat."

"Passage of the Wheat Producers Referendum in Texas is a must," according to State Representative Delvin Jones of Lubbock, Texas. Mr. Jones, chairman of the Agricultural Committee of the Texas House of Representatives, stated, "Those of us in state and national legislative bodies are watching to see if farmers are really concerned about their problems. When insects, disease, and other problems need immediate attention, the legislature is usually willing to help solve them when farmers themselves show enough concern to help with the costs, such as could be done with passage of the wheat referendum."

Voting will be conducted at the county courthouse in all 34 counties between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Tuesday. In addition, absentee ballots may be obtained at the County Extension Agent's office in each of the designated counties between now and the May 11 deadline.

Pastures Need Plant Food For Dry Weather

Pastures receiving adequate plant food are able to withstand dry weather better, says Neal Pratt, Extension agronomist, Texas A&M University. Recent dry weather in much of Texas has shown the value of adequate pasture fertilization, he adds.

Pastures receiving adequate plant food have root systems which grow to a greater depth in the soil. This enables plants to obtain moisture and creates healthier plants. The additional root system helps the soil accumulate and store the rainfall which occurs, thereby conserving soil and water resources.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS

B. T. Haws
Wichita County Agricultural Agent

Wheat producers in Wichita County who desire to vote absentee in the upcoming wheat referendum and producer board election are now able to do so at the County Extension Office.

Ballots will be available for any producer who wants to vote absentee in the election until May 10. On May 11 the Texas Wheat Producers Association will hold an election over a 34-county area to determine whether or not to assess producers not more than five mills per bushel on all wheat produced for purposes of research and promotion. At the same time, producers will have an opportunity to elect a nine-man producers board to administer funds for such a research and promotion program.

Wichita County producers who do not vote absentee are encouraged to vote in the election on May 11 at the County Court House.

The Texas Commissioner of Agriculture has certified the TWPA to hold such an election and that a two-thirds favorable vote will be required to enact the self-assessment program. If the program is approved, the nine-man producers board will have total authority for the collection, use and accounting of all funds and the implementation of programs designed to strengthen wheat growers income.

The fly season is fast approaching and proper fly control can prevent a drop in milk production for the dairy farmer.

Many ideal breeding places for flies can be found around most dairy facilities and in manure that may have been missed by the scraper or other cleaning methods.

Backrubbers are effective in controlling flies. This method requires little labor since they only need recharging every two to four weeks.

The device can be placed where the cows are force to walk under it once or twice each day. The exit lane from the milking parlor or barn is an ideal location. The backrubber can be charged with a mixture of eight ounces of Clotrin or .66 ounces of dichlorvos or .8 oz of Co-ral in one gallon of No. 2 diesel or light mineral oil.

Dust bags which are available commercially also work well, reminds County Agent B. T. Haws. The dust bags may also be prepared at home utilizing burlap bags and charging them with the recommended mixtures.

During the last half of May, some 22,000 Texas farmers will receive in their mailboxes a most important questionnaire from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Austin.

It will be the annual acreage survey and many farmers in Wichita County will be included in the 22,000. The information derived from the replies will be the basis for the official estimates of crop acreage for the State of Texas and for each county.

The State Statistician for the Texas Reporting Service emphasizes the importance of getting back just as many of the 22,000 questionnaires as possible so that each county will be well represented. Accurate estimates are of great importance to farmers in planning production and marketing and in providing an unbiased picture of Texas Agriculture.

The Texas Legislature has provided a program of estimates for each county. Because Texas covers such a wide area, state totals alone do not provide adequate information on our most basic industry; hence, the need for county information. The program is a cooperative effort of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Statistical Reporting Service and the Texas Department of Agriculture.

The county agent urges all farmers in the county who receive the questionnaire to fill it out accurately and completely and return it as soon as possible to the Reporting Service.

Meat Inspection Equals Federal

The U.S. Department of Agriculture last week certified the Texas meat inspection program equal to the federal one, making the state responsible for inspecting its own intrastate meat slaughtering and processing plants.

The certification will affect 582 plants in the state under laws of the Texas legislature and in agreement with the 1967 Wholesome Meat Act.

The 1967 law required all state plants to reach the federal requirements by December 1970 to retain their own state inspection. Surveys were made in the state by federal meat inspection officials and Texas didn't meet the federal standards.

Notice was then given in early February that federal inspectors would assume all inspection in the state's plants.

Later reviews indicated that Texas was enforcing inspection requirements at least equal to federal ones.

Texas meat inspection officials, directed by Dr. A. B. Rich, did an amazing job in bringing Texas standards up to federal levels, according to Woodrow W. Bailey, Extension livestock and meats specialist.

Bailey added that Texas was far behind some of the other states in meat inspection when the Wholesome Meat Act was passed.

He also noted that state inspection officials had to hire and train about 600 new inspectors in less than one year.

Bailey explained that Texas meat inspectors will try to continue improving all phases of inspection and there will be no relaxation in requirements since Texas standards have been certified as equal to federal.

Half of the state's budget for meat inspection will come from matching federal funds, according to officials in the USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service.

West Virginia's meat inspection program was also certified equal to federal last week, bringing to 44 the number of states which have achieved "equal to" meat inspection status, Bailey noted.

Grocer Comes From England

Pepper and spice trading in 14th-century England gave us our modern word, "grocer," reports Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension specialist in consumer marketing.

After Peppercorns made the 4,000-mile trip from the mysterious East to London, they were bought and sold by the Guild of Peppers in the gross, similar to present-day wholesale methods, she says.

Peddlers purchased pepper from the "Grossers," and in turn sold to housewives at country-wide fairs honoring various saints.

In the mid-14th century, the Guild of Peppers formed the Worshipful Company of Grocers, in order to increase love and unity among the pepperers as well as creating binding rules for members.

According to Mrs. Clyatt, one of the rules read: "All merchandise shall be weighed fairly so that the weigher shall remove his hands therefrom."

Market Report

Are you finding it harder each time you grocery shop to make a given amount of money go the same distance? Prices of practically all goods and services, including foods, have increased, but not as fast as incomes have, reports Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist. Still, a major concern of homemakers is how to save on food expenditures.

Remember several factors influence food prices, she says. Along with the general national economic climate, these include business costs, weather, and future market expectations.

Mrs. Clyatt makes several suggestions to help cut food costs.

First, figure how much you presently spend on food. Some record-keeping may be necessary for a few months, so you will know just how much you are spending.

Then determine why you are spending what you are. Several factors affect family food spending: inflation, age of family members, frequency of entertaining, nutritional requirements, family size, types of food purchased, planning and preparation skills, and family likes and dislikes.

To help cut the food budget, put some tools to work--a sharp pencil and some paper, the weekly newspaper food ads, a favorite cookbook, and generous amounts of desire, says Mrs. Clyatt.

If you are cost conscious and want to improve your buying skills, you will make full use of label information, advertising, store displays, and even friends' comments.

Events of Yesteryear

By Sylvia Lohoefer

L. B. Horr of 517 Bluebonnet St. retired April 1 after nine years of service with the Mobil Oil Co. A retirement party was held in his honor by fellow employees of Mobil's Gasoline Plant. A jeweled service emblem was presented him at the banquet.

The big Cole Circus is scheduled to show in Burk on Sat., April 15, at the Lions Ball Park for a one day stand, sponsored by the Lions Club. Proceeds will be used for local benefits according to President Bill Browning.

A donor of rare O-negative blood, Harry Elliott of Burk was cited Saturday by the Wichita Falls Record News for having an outstanding record of unselfish service to others. The 16-time blood donor was named a 2-gallon member of the Red Cross Gallop Club by Joe Janek and Dr. Jos. A. Davey, Red Cross officials of Burk.

Building permits hit a new record for the first quarter of 1961. Permits were issued for $625,055 during Jan., Feb., and March. With the estimated number of 2,000 families in Burk, 675, or one-third, of those are living in homes less than 5 years old. Total income for Burk citizens has been estimated at $14,040,000.00 for 1960. Boomtown continues to boom.

Sam A. Weaver received a 40-year retirement pin, awarded by the Texas Pipe Line Company, April 14 at the Wichita Country Club. Mr. Weaver was one of 43 "old timers" who were presented 40-year pins.

A. E. Keagle is visiting in the home of AIC and Mrs. E. E. Poper, AIC and Mrs. Lloyd Kramer, and Mrs. Martha Kramer. He was a close friend of Mrs. Kramer when she was living in Indiana and Michigan 40 years ago.

Police personnel receiving commissions for the fiscal year of 1961-62 were administered the Oath of Office by Clovis D. Mann, City Manager. Those taking the oath were Kenneth Gage, Chief of Police; Buck Abbott, Assistant Chief of Police; Patrolmen Willis Bartley; Ace Blyson, Larry Parks; Dale Bryan, Lonnie Boman and Carlton Story.

Miss Jewel Reed, who had a car wreck three weeks ago, has been released from the Nocona hospital. She expects to be able to teach again next Monday.

The Burk News Mart is now open for business, offering a complete line of magazines, Wichita Times and Record News, The Daily Oklahoman and Burk Star. Also tobacco and gifts. They will be open until 9 p.m. 7 days a week, next door to Joe and Joe's Barber Shop.

Another new business in Burkburnett will have its formal opening Sat., April 29, in Parker Plaza. It's the Clement's Fashions, a woman's clothing store. Mrs. John Clement is owner and operator.

Clyde (Gluck) McDonnell was re-elected and Vernon Duke was elected for his first term in the School Board election. Six persons had filed for the election.

Tom Moore Receives Grant

Tom Moore, Burkburnett High School physics and chemistry teacher, has been awarded a grant to attend a Summer Institute in chemistry at the University of Northern Colorado in Greeley. The eight-week institute is sponsored by the National Science Foundation.

The objective of the institute will be to improve the competency of the participants in various phases of chemistry. Three separate chemistry courses will be offered, including organic chemistry, instrumental analysis, and elements of the periodic table.

This will be Moore's sixth Summer Institute in Science. Previous summer programs which he has attended have been at North Texas University, the University of Oklahoma, Texas Christian University, University of Kansas, and the University of California.

In addition to his teaching duties, Moore is also Science Department Head, sponsor of the Interscholastic League Science Contest and Slide Rule Contest, and is the Burkburnett High School faculty representative. He also sponsors the local chapter of the National Honor Society at the High School.

He is a Master Chief Hospital Corpsman in the Naval Reserve, and will put in two weeks of active duty with the Navy between the time school is out and the time he reports to Greeley, on June 28.

Eddie Laxson

I'm sure it's to the student's advantage as well as the instructor's not to let the student know he is going to solo at any particular time. My tactics have run along this line: I say something like, "If you continue doing as well as you have been, I believe you can solo within a couple or three more hours of dual."

That statement, or something similar generally precedes the solo experience by only a few minutes, before leaving the student on his own.

When I have decided the student is capable of making three takeoffs and landings safely, I have the student taxi back to the down-wind end of the runway.

I open the door and crawl out and give my last advisory remarks, such as: "You know in your own mind you can handle this plane without me being in here with you. You have been doing everything you should as you should, and just continue the way you know you can."

I then ask the student to watch me as he is coming in on his final approach (plane will be headed into the wind over the downwind end of the runway). Should he be too low or too high for a landing on the particular runway we are using, I can give him the signal to open the throttle and go around the pattern again for another approach.

If no signal is given he is to make the landing and not attempt to turn the plane around until it has come to a complete stop.

I tell him if I can see any way for him to improve his second landing, I will come over to his plane as he taxis back to get ready for the next take-off.

Another caution I give the student before he heads down the runway by himself for the first time is: "Don't fail to check the wind sock while you are on the down-wind leg of the traffic pattern." A sudden 180-degree windshift can play havoc with even an experienced pilot's landings.

"If you see me throwing up handful of dirt or pointing toward the windsock, then be sure you change and make your final approach slide into the new wind direction." I also warn the beginner that there is a chance the wind will be stronger or lighter between landings and he can judge the velocity by the appearance of the windsock. If it is parallel to the ground, while previously it was limp or partially extended, he can judge the wind velocity.

All the previous palaver has been mentioned several times during his dual instruction, but a last minute reminder helps.

Most students can be helped on their solo landings by the instructor standing calm with no arm waving or jumping up and down, which only serves to confuse the young pilot.

If I have confidence enough in a student to crawl out and leave it with him, then I am not going to lose my confidence while he is making his three solo landings.

Next week's information concerns the times I wish I had known better.

Operation HOPE In Full Swing

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--What was once two women with an idea has mushroomed into a force to be reckoned with.

Only two months ago, Mmes. Paul A. Gitman and Richard N. Taxin were struggling to organize "Operation HOPE (Help Our Polluted Environment)." The idea of the group was to help clean up the environment and, at the same time, educate the public about pollution.

They have come a long way since then. Two weeks ago HOPE, now numbering 50 persons, and a fraternity from Midwestern University, collected more than 9,000 pounds of old paper and 100 pounds of aluminum that will be recycled to the various industries.

"The recycling of these products will prevent the mining or our natural resources that could be saved," Mrs. Taxin explained.

The collection point at a local shopping center showed some promise for future collections. One lady brought magazines from as long ago as 1948. Another donor, Sacred Hearts Catholic Church of Wichita Falls, contributed 800 pounds of paper.

Persons from HOPE also canvassed the Western Hills subdivision door-to-door speaking of the need for recycling of natural resources. The group also passed out a booklet, "11 Tips to Curb Pollution," at three business locations in Wichita Falls.

HOPE has been active in other areas besides recycling drives.

Mrs. E. W. Jennings and Mrs. Jack Leming will be hostesses.

The welcome coffee will be May 27, with Mmes. Harold Shelburne and Jack Shook as hostesses. Mrs. Paul A. Gitman, sponsor of Project HOPE will explain that program. The coffee begins at 9:30 a.m. at the NCO Club.

Belinda Price of Iowa Park, the talent winner in the Our Little Miss Pageant there, is shown as she entertains the approximately 300 persons attending the eighth grade banquet.

Dickie Larson provided a most entertaining program for the eighth graders at their annual banquet. Dickie made several animal figures using different sizes and colors of balloons.

Providing a portion of the entertainment for the annual eighth grade banquet Saturday night was Lolly Hatcher. Miss Hatcher, who is also Our Little Miss Wichita County, performed in song and tap dance.

STORAGE TIPS FOR FRESH FOOD

Refrigerator freezing compartments are not designed to give temperatures of zero degrees Fahrenheit. As a result, frozen foods should be stored for 1 or 2 weeks only. In refrigerator-freezer combinations, however, foods may be kept for the same storage periods as in a food freezer. Even ready-to-eat cereals, frozen crispbread, and flaxseed rapidly in opened packages. Transfer them to a tightly sealed canister.

Our wagon, complete, is $2098.40***
The whole shebang.** And that's 2 doors more than Toyota*** $700 less than VW******

Power to the front wheels? We've got front-wheel drive. On corners, curves, ice, snow, gravel, all the skiddy spots— it's control, no rear-wheel drive can give.

Think. Think. Think. 4 doors, count 'em, 4. 2 better than some we know.

And a lot more air. 4 real windows, not to mention 2 side-vents up front.

Say, 25 m.p.g.? Regular gas? And a gas tank placed midship for safety? Yes, yes, yes!

No fan, no fan belt, no fan noise. Noisy? Since it takes a head of hp to drive a fan, aren't we smart, using our hp to drive our wagon instead?

How we keep it cool? With some genius engineering, two radiators and an automatic device that takes over when the going gets hot.

Racing cars and Subaru wagons have rack-and-pinion steering.

A very sporty 4-on-the-floor. Nice short throws, gear to gear to gear to gear.

Inboard brakes up front, people. Which lead to a remarkable stable ride.

And make our wheels so quick and light, it's like having power steering. Only cheaper.

Slip into something small. Our wagon's turning circle is no bigger than our car's. 31.5 easy little feet.

Of course you know about our anatomical, adjustable, and ahhhh, reclining front seats.

But do you know about our folds-up-flat-against-the-front-seat back seat?

That lets the floor behind stretch into well over 5 long flat-bottomed feet! (not counting the taigale).

Because there is no hump?

And how we beat the bumps with independent suspension on all 4 wagon wheels?

You know now. We've got a wagon-load of visibility. See? Not only does our hatch lift up, but...

Wow! A wagon our size and price with a tailgate you can open. A loading platform only about 15" from the ground. Wow indeed!

And goodness knows how much less than one of Detroit's little darlings****
