The following letter is in answer to a letter addressed to the "Editor in charge" of the Burkburnett Informer/Star and signed by a concerned citizen and taxpayer.

Dear Sir or Mrs., Due to your letter being anonymous, my apologies for the inspecific address.

Since becoming editor of the Informer/Star last December, many letters have crossed my desk written with nearly the same pattern as yours. You don't like the way our schools are operated, nor the city. You're quick in the first paragraph to say, "Some questions should be asked of the administration and the Board of Education of the Burkburnett Independent Schools, yes and the citizens of Burkburnett". The questions are well written, to point, and usually a little on the sarcastic side. The letters are usually signed as concerned citizens, and taxpayers as yours was, but with no name and no address.

With all due respect, your letter leads me to believe that either your husband or your son didn't get a certain job that you thought he should have.

Let me ask you some questions now. Why didn't you sign your letter? Who are you? Where are the cuts it takes for you, a citizen, taxpayer and voting member of this community to ask those questions to the school board and citizens yourself? You have every right to do so.

You write in hopes that this newspaper will print your letter, ask your questions and print the answers.

Well, not on your life! It's this editor's opinion that if one doesn't have strength of character to stand up for what he believes and identify himself, he doesn't deserve answers to any questions he may ask behind the backs of our school and city officials.

Sincerely,
Citizen, Taxpayer

Col. S. Berman Resigns From Burk Chamber

Directors of the Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce met last Thursday noon in the Texas Electric Reddy Room for their regular monthly meeting. Clark Gresham gave the invocation to open the meeting. The financial report was then reviewed and approved by attending directors.

James Pearson, Superintendent of Burk Schools, reported that the school is ready to start disassembling the rodeo equipment on the school grounds. The equipment will be disassembled by the school and stored in the bus lot for possible future use. The removal of this equipment from the football stadium will allow improvements to be made on the stadium.

Pearson also reported that the Educational Television station for Wichita Falls and surrounding area, including Burkburnett, has been approved and should become operational sometime near June of this year. Pearson stated that a drive is now underway to secure money for the station operation. Channel 13 is non-commercial and operational funds must be History Marker To Be Dedicated to First National Bank Sunday, 3 P.M.

The Wichita County Historical Survey Committee will dedicate an official Texas State Historical Marker on the building of the First National Bank in Burkburnett on Sunday afternoon, May 20th at three o'clock. The First National Bank is the oldest business institution in Burkburnett, operating continuously since its doors were first opened June 1st, 1907. A.R. Hill, long-time president of the bank and now serving as chairman of the board, is host for the occasion and will introduce the speaker, Dr. Kenneth F. Neighbors. Dr. Neighbors, member of the history department at Midwestern University, is chairman of the Wichita County Historical Survey Committee. He will review the history of the bank from its inception May 15th, 1907 when a group of interested citizens of the area gathered in offices of the City National Bank of Wichita Falls to organize the bank.

Organization was performed and the following stockholders attended: J. G. Hardin, W. E. Thomas, H.D. Creath, J. Markowitz, A. Newby, Frank Kell, J.A. Kemp, J.C. Doney and P.F. Langford. The directors elected were: J.A. Kemp, W.E. Thomas, H.D. Creath, J. G. Hardin, J.G. Harris, J. Markowitz, A. Newby, Frank Kell. Officers: J.A. Kemp, president; J. G. Hardin, vice-president; H.D. Creath, cashier at $75 a month salary. The cashier was authorized to contract for a suitable one-story brick building for the bank, purchase a suitable safe and such other fixtures as might be necessary for transacting the business of the institution. The bank had a capital of $35,000, and was the First National Bank of Burkburnett. The building was that occupied by the Staley Drug Store in 1917, only it was one story high and business started June 1, 1907, the stockholders being: J.A. Kemp, 23 shares; W.E. Thomas, 50; H.D. Creath, 20; J.G. Hardin, 10; J. Markowitz, 20; A. Newby, 10; Frank Kell, 10; P.F. Langford, 5; Winfield Scott, 20; Winfield Scott Singleton, 2; W.L. Robertson, 10; Oral Jones, 5; American National Insurance Co., 15; W.E. Connell, 19; S.B. Burnett, 20; M. B. Lloyd, 20; total, 250 shares.

The first day's deposits totaled $5,400.10; the depositors being: H.D. Creath, $450.40; M. Dodson, $10; J.G. Doney, $500; J.F. Gillett, $125; S.P. Hawkins, $100; J. G. Hardin, $621.28; K. O. Keesler, $3,586.17; E.J. Klock, $7.25. The deposits of the bank after it was in business a year totaled but $40,488.89, for the reason that there were few people in this community who had money to put in a bank. (Milton Clendenin, 1917 editor of the Burkburnett Star).

Clark Gresham, county commissioner for Precinct 2 and an active supporter of the historical survey program, will unveil the marker and offer benediction.

Immediately after the brief dedication ceremony, bank officials will entertain with an informal reception in the National Room of the bank.

Application to the State Historical Survey Committee in Austin was made by Mrs. D.C. Dodson and Mrs. E.E. Clack, both members of the Wichita County Committee and of the Texas State Historical Association.

Lone Star Gas Company Files For Gas Rate Increase in Burk

Lone Star Gas Company today announced that it filed an application with the Texas Railroad Commission Friday, May 11 for an increase in the city gas rate for gas delivered to each town served by the company in Texas.

The primary factors involved in Lone Star's application relate to the cost of maintaining an adequate gas supply for customers, and contracting for new supplies to meet growing consumer demands. The individual items included in the company's rate increase proposal are: (1) the right to recover costs and return of $7.2 million associated with the firm's West Texas

Gas Supply System, an approximate 400 mile large-diameter pipeline system from West Texas to the Dallas-Fort Worth area; (2) the right to recover costs and return of $0.3 million on approximately $0.6 million in advance payments and pre-payments the company thus far has made to producers as a part of new gas purchase agreements; (3) to bring the company's weighted average cost of gas used in the Commission's calculation of Lone Star's base city gas rate up from the 16.29-cents per thousand cubic feet to the present level of 20.53-cents per thousand; (4) to allow Lone Star to "pass on" 100% of its increased cost of purchased gas on a monthly basis, rather than the presently allowed 65% every six months.

The cost adjustments would mean an 8.1-cent per thousand cubic feet increase in the city gas rate, and an increase of $0.5 million in Lone Star's annual revenues when costs are flowed through to customers, based on a 1972 volume of approximately 130 billion cubic feet.

The company further noted that all proposed rate increases are cost justified and within nationally established price control guidelines for utilities established last year.

Preston's 'Assured To Go' In 'Scotch Foursome Spring Futurity'

Native Tango, stakes winner of the Land of Enchantment Futurity and the Eyes of Texas Futurity in 1972 heads the impressive list of exciting horses set to match strides at La Mesa Park this season.

Owned by Nancy Shelton of Clarendon, Texas, and Jo Hutton of Lubbock, Texas, Native Tango was purchased in the 1971 La Mesa Park Thoroughbred Yearling Sale from Carter McGregor of Wichita Falls, and was named the "Bargain Yearling of 1971" by the Thoroughbred Record.

Racing Secretary T. A. "Andy" Gillespie reports that all of La Mesa Park's stakes races are headed for an all-time purse record and the calibre of horses set to compete looks the best ever.

"The Friendly Western Track" opened its 28th Annual 55-day racing season May 12 and 13, to run through September 9th. The first two week-ends will feature twelve races daily on Saturday and Sunday, with a 1:00 MDT post time. Friday racing, featuring ten races and a 3:00 MDT post time begins May 25th. Saturday, Sunday and Holidays will have the regular twelve races with 1:00 MDT post time beginning with the Memorial Day week-end.

The sixth running of the "Land of Enchantment Futurity" slated for Sunday, August 12th, with 250 well-bred freshmen still eligible, is now estimated to surpass the $200,000 mark. Billed as "The richest two-year-old thoroughbred race west of Chicago and one of the top four two-year-old races in the country," this futurity has attracted nation wide attention to La Mesa Park's thoroughbred racing program. Each year its winner has ranked among the nation's top ten two-year olds. An added attraction that week-end will be the Ninth Annual La Mesa Park Thoroughbred Yearling Sale.

Forty-six sophomores remain eligible for the fifth running of the "Land of Enchantment Derby", July 29th. Purse for the sparkling mile affair should go over the $60,000.00 figure.

The "Scotch Foursome Spring Futurity", June 24th and the "Fall Futurity", September 3rd, with Lassie and Laddie Divisions, which was initiated in 1970 appears it will be even bigger and better.

Junior Meyers, Champion Aged Stallion of 1970, heads the list of tough competitors that include Miss Davril and Assured To Go are entered in the track's quarter horse stakes program. Owned by the Simon Brothers of Colvich, Kansas, the son of Mr. Meyers is trained by Mike Absek. Miss Davril is trained by B.O. Brazeal. Assured To Go, the royally bred daughter of Go Man Go, is owned by Hugh Preston, Jr., Burkburnett, Texas, and is trained by Jim Gaddis.

330 two-year-old quarter horses are still eligible for the July 1st Oklahoma Futurity, estimated to be over the $200,000.00 mark; 88 are in the $125,000.00 Raton Quarter Horse Futurity July 29th; 35 in the $25,000.00 Oklahoma Derby June 10th; and 17 have been nominated to the ever popular All Distance Series.

tracted by the Texas Justice of the Peace and Constables Association to execute the Justice of the Peace In-Service Training Program.

Funds have been made available for this program through a grant from the Texas Criminal Justice Council and under the authorization of the federal Omnibus Crime Control Bill and Safe Streets Act.

Lamar University conducts basic and advanced training programs throughout the state. Completion of the basic training course will certify a judge as required under Article 5972, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas as amended by the sixty second legislature. The advanced training course is designed to improve the skills of those judges who have held the office of Justice of the Peace for more than one year.

Like any group of elected officials, Justices of the Peace represent a reasonable cross section of our society. They range from experienced attorneys holding the position in metropolitan areas to rural magistrates handling their duties on a part time basis while holding another job. This program recognizes the need for the transmission and updating of basic skills and methods needed to function effectively in the office, regardless of the workload or other training of a given individual.

This program of basic and advanced in-service training workshops will provide information as to the proper conduct of the office, involve participants in hypothetical situation, role playing, group discussions, problem solving and examination settings. In addition to the formal presentation, the workshops will provide an opportunity for informal visitation and exchange of ideas that will be vital to improvement in the caliber and quality of service offered by magistrates across the state.

Mrs. Hagstrom Composes Poetry For War Prisoners

Mrs. Joy Hagstrom of Burkburnett recently received a great honor from her strict participation in her hobby of writing poetry. Gifted with a way with words, Mrs. Hagstrom writes for every occasion, mood, or personality.

This particular incident involved our prisoners of war and the President.

Mrs. Hagstrom wrote a poem "With Kindred Hearts Aflame" dedicated to our POW's. This poem was submitted to VIVA! The poem reads as follows:

They come and we await with bated breath
For those who know what brave men seldom tell --
The ache of loneliness, the sight of death,
And other horrors of a bamboo hell.
These men, who felt the heat of battle flame,
Are coming back to those they used to know,
And wondering if life will be the same
As when they left their families years ago.
We wait for them with lumps

stuck in our throats
And wonder how to act and what to say
To those who suffered long and won our votes
By bolstering the good old USA.
We hope somehow our welcome may erase
A line of hardship from a heart or face.

With the enthusiasm shown the above poem, Mrs. Hagstrom decided to write a poem for the President himself.

The poem was framed and done personally with the President in mind.

This is a copy of the poem "Blessing Through The Years" sent to President Nixon:

You prayed and labored long for their release.
It must be wonderful to realize that your direction brought a time of peace
And thankful tears to multitudes of eyes.
You wept through many agonizing hours,
Because the prisoners were paramount,

And never loved to communistic powers,
Or obstacles it seemed none could surmount.
The burden has been heavier to you
Because you felt you bore the load alone,
And even when the tears obscured your view
An inner force declared, "I must go on!"
This moment that was bought with prayer and tears
Will linger as a blessing through the years.

Upon receiving the poem, the President sent a personal letter to Mrs. Hagstrom thanking her. Following is a copy of the letter:

Dear Mrs. Hagstrom:
It was most thoughtful of you to send me the beautifully framed copy of "Blessing Through The Years," and I also appreciated receiving a copy of "With Kindred Hearts Aflame." Both of these poems reflect the joy the American people feel on the return of our Prisoners of War. A long and difficult testing of the national spirit has come to an end, and it is my great hope that future generations will never have to fight in any war at all.
With best wishes,
Sincerely,
Richard Nixon

Hobby Becomes Business For Peggy, Jim Belcher

Little did the Belchers (Peggy and Jim) think that their hobbies would become more than that. When their handcrafts outgrew their storage and display space they decided to buy a small gift shop, and sell some of their work. They are both enthusiastic rockhounds and Belcher makes unusual jewelry, with the polished rocks. They both do decoupage, modpodge, shadow boxes, and Mrs. Belcher has taken up oil painting. Belcher also does custom framing and the shop sells small frames and plaques as well as prints, shadow boxes, dried flowers and shells, ready to be used by hobbyists.

They received so much satisfaction from working with their hobbies that when the opportunity came to get into a shop that was already partly stocked with other people's talents and handcrafts, they decided to take "the plunge." With handcrafts on consignment, gifts purchased at the gift shows, and Arts and Crafts Festivals, Cozwill House has an unusual array of gift items.

From 30 to 36 persons are represented in some of the stock of the store. Most are from Wichita Falls but there are also residents of Biggers and Fayetteville, Arkansas, Kansas City, Missouri, Paris, Dallas, Burkburnett, Graham and Mundy who consign or sell outright their work. The items on consignment range from key rings and knitted booties to porcelain plaques and afghans. Small gifts for hospital patients to expensive oil paintings and jewelry, gifts for graduates and wedding gifts are available. Approximately a third of their merchandise is original work and they both feel offering such an outlet for quality items is a real source of satisfaction to the creators.

Their business has grown so much in the 14 months they have had it that they are having to move to larger quarters. They retained the name, Cozwill House Gifts, when they bought the tiny store at 1104 Grace Street. They are moving around the corner on eleventh Street in June or July.

Belcher is with the FAA, but works in the shop on his day off. Peggy and her mother and father and daughter work the rest of the time.

Peggy says one of the best things about it is that they meet so many nice people. They have just returned from a craft festival in Arkansas, and plan to attend other festivals, where they show and sell their merchandise. They display some of their crafts at the Forum Tea Room the second week of each month.

Theta Epsilon Chapter Installs Officers

Theta Epsilon Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International held its Installation Ceremony in the National Room Monday night, May 14. Twelve members and five guests were in attendance. The guests included Ruby Van Lob, Evelyn Farris, La Donna Sheperd, Marilyn Howard and Bobbie Stusher.

After the invocation given by Kathleen Brammer, Chaplain, a salad supper was enjoyed by all.

The installation was conducted by outgoing president, Helen Eaton. The opening ritual was given after which the First Pearl Award ceremony was conducted for Louise Newton by Clodella Bridges. Perfect attendance awards were presented to Helen Eaton, Shirley Spinks and Kathleen Brammer. President Helen Eaton made a special presentation to Clodella Bridges for her faithful service throughout the year. The "Girl of the Year" Award was presented to Kathleen Brammer for all of her outstanding contributions to the E.S.A., especially her Welfare work with the Hickory Elm Convalescent Home.

In conjunction with her retiring speech, President Helen

Eaton conducted a skit with the help of six members. The skit explained why Unity in a group is very important. Ms. Eaton's goal has been to unite the chapter and she has obtained her goal. She then installed the new officers in a candlelight ceremony using her theme "The Key is We". Installed as new president was Nona Lemley; vice - president, Ramona Vaughan; recording secretary, Lou Glover; corresponding secretary, Clodella Bridges; treasurer, Shirley Spinks and educational director, Frankie McClurkin.

Helen Eaton presented Nona Lemley the president gavel. Nona Lemley accepted the job and its duties announcing her theme for the next year will be "The Modern Woman". The new president handed out the new assignments for all members. Members discussed the State Convention this coming May 18-20 in San Antonio. Several made plans to attend.

Also discussed was a social being planned by the new pledges on June 11 for the whole family. Everyone is to come dressed as a hobo.

After the closing ritual, gifts were received by all from their Secret Pals.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. Psa. 121:1-2.

Our help is not in the hills themselves, but in the Lord. However, there are some events which transpired on a range of "hills" which help us greatly, for they all point to Christ. Today, we will consider only two of the many hills in this range, Mt. Moriah and Mt. Calvary.

In Genesis Chapter 22, it tells how God spoke to Abraham to take his only son Isaac to Mt. Moriah and offer him as a sacrifice unto God. When God saw that Abraham would withhold nothing from Him, but would give Him his all, He provided a lamb for a burnt offering. When Abraham looked behind him a ram was caught in the thicket by his horns. Abraham took the ram and offered him for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

Some two thousand years ago on Mt. Calvary, the Lamb of God, Jesus Christ, was offered as a sacrifice in our stead. He died on the cross for all of us. He who knew no sin, took upon himself our sin.

If we will lift up our spiritual eyes to Mt. Calvary, we will hear Jesus say, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

FARM REVIEW

Fertilizer, Moisture Produces High-Quality Forage, Yields

Plenty of moisture and adequate amounts of fertilizer make a good combination for the production of high-quality forage. Fertilizer not only improves yields from the same acreage, but improves the quality of forage that animals graze. Furthermore, livestock prefer fertilized pastures to those that are not.

Research has shown that pasture crops receiving proper fertilization can produce three to four times as much forage as pastures which have not been adequately fertilized. This means that three to four times as many cattle could be grazed on the same acreage, thereby, boosting the potential for increased profits.

Grasses that are hungry for fertilizer have a weak root system and are unable to make maximum growth. Most Texas pastures are only soils low in nitrogen phosphorus and sometime potash, and other nutrients. Thus, an adequate amount of fertilizer is necessary to produce good tonnages of good quality hay in grazing crops.

Start with a soil test to determine the amount of fertilizer needed for season-long production of high-quality forages. Timely fertilizer applications along with good soil moisture can provide nutritious forage.

MONDAY--Fish with tartar sauce, seasoned blackeye peas, cole slaw, bread, butter, milk, chocolate cake.

TUESDAY--Hamburger, bun, onion, pickles, mustard, french fries, lettuce, tomatoes, butter, milk, cookies.

WEDNESDAY--Frito Pie, Pinto beans, seasoned mix greens, corn bread, butter, milk, fruit salad.

THURSDAY--Sausage Pizza, buttered carrots, green beans, bread, butter, milk, jello with whipped topping.

FRIDAY--Fried chicken, whipped potatoes, buttered peas, hot rolls, butter, milk, ice cream.

Consumers Warned Of Beef Prices, In Comparison To Frozen Market

Consumers lured by low advertisement prices into buying beef on the hoof have been warned that a 700-pound live animal selling for 49 cents a pound will cost $1.27 a pound by the time it is ready for the pan. And 30 percent of it will be hamburger.

Only 44 percent of a live animal actually winds up as edible cuts in your freezer, warns Ed Whitesides, director of Consumer Services Division, Texas Department of Agriculture.

Live weight selling direct to consumers is a recent wrinkle in beef sales promotion resulting from the current prices in the supermarket. It works like this:

A company will advertise a live animal by the pound at a low price. The price rises slightly for the same animal, slaughtered and dressed, and is higher still for cut, packaged and delivered beef. All prices are based on live weight.

Therein lies the deception, says Whitesides. The carcass of a 700-pound animal will yield approximately 57 percent of the animal's original weight or 385 pounds, but the buyer still pays for 700 pounds. Edible beef, what you would buy at your retail outlet rimmed with fat and bone, will be 44 percent of the animal's weight, in this case 308 pounds.

The consumer actually will pay more than $1 a pound for the carcass or $1.27 a pound for meat cut and trimmed to specifications.

Whitesides said such advertisements are misleading in a number of ways. One invites consumers to pick out their animal from the feedlot and "eliminate the middle man completely," but says nothing about quality of meat. Whitesides points out there is no way for the average consumer to know what quality he is buying by looking at a live animal.

"It takes a lot of experience and training to tell what you're getting," he says, "and even that is no guarantee. There can be substantial variations in an animal's age, sex and quality."

Today's consumers have indicated a preference for tenderness, juiciness and flavor in beefsteak. Standards of beef, therefore, must take into account the amount of marbling, color, firmness and texture of meat, and the animal's age.

Eight grades from U.S. Prime, which is liberally marbled and tender, to U.S. Commercial, which comes from older cattle and tends to be tough, span the range of beef quality. U.S. Choice of high quality and well-marbled, is preferred by most American consumers and is usually the grade found at retail outlets. Any animal, however, may vary as much as five yield or cutability grades within each major grade.

The animals advertised are said to be U.S.D.A. inspected, which means they are checked for disease, wholesomeness and cleanliness before and after death. "If a slaughtered animal is found to be diseased, it will be condemned," Whitesides says. "Will the buyer be reimbursed? The ad doesn't say."

Whitesides also mentioned that anyone buying whole carcasses can expect to receive less than 10 percent choice steaks. "The best rule to remember is that 'you get what you pay for,'" he said.

Vet Warns of Pet Poison Caused By Carelessness

by Raymond Minor, D.V.M., Manager of Veterinary Services Norden Laboratories

Pet poisoning should be the concern of every pet owner. Some pet owners fear that an unfriendly neighbor might deliberately poison a pet because of some real or imagined misbehavior. But cases such as these are, fortunately, very rare.

More often, pet poisoning is the result of someone's ignorance or carelessness. For example, your pet can get lead poisoning if he is allowed to chew on painted objects or to lick old paint cans.

Perhaps you are cleaning and have been spraying for insects or vermin with an agent containing phosphorus. Several sniffs of this and your pet can develop serious phosphorus (O.K.) poisoning.

If you are trying to get rid of rats or mice with a rodent poison, there is a fair chance that your pet might try a sample. When playing outside, your dog can nip the leaves of bushes that have been sprayed. Or, your cat may lick his paws and feet after running over an area that has been sprayed with insecticide.

The family garbage can, an attractive nuisance to dogs, must also share a major load of the blame for pet poisonings. Usually, this is where a dog finds old pills, powders, medicines and, especially, decayed meat.

Caution - family remedies from the home medicine chest are not suited for pets.

Tonics that contain an amount of strychnine that has proven beneficial to human beings are often extremely dangerous since dogs are highly sensitive to this drug.

Pet poisoning can have sudden devastating effects on your pet when large doses are taken. Or, if ingested over a period of time, in small amounts, the poison will gradually weaken him.

It is not difficult to tell when your pet has been poisoned. The signs are quite definite. He may be either nervous and excited or depressed. His symptoms may include trembling, jerking, twitching, shallow breathing, vomiting and convulsions.

Your pet may also develop blue gums, cloudiness in the eyes and blood-streaked diarrhea.

Depending upon the kind of poison ingested, one or more of these signs may be seen. When poison is suspected, call your veterinarian for instructions.

If he asks you to induce vomiting, the usual emetics are hydrogen peroxide mixed with an equal amount of water; common table salt mixed with two teaspoonsful to a cup of warm water; mustard with one tablespoon to a cup of warm water.

The emetics should induce vomiting shortly after administration.

If your veterinarian is in close reach consider yourself lucky as there is no time to be lost.

If your pet is to be saved, act with all speed and rush him to the nearest veterinarian.

If you are not certain of the kind of poison your pet has eaten, take the suspected container or package along with you if you can.

Packages containing poisonous material clearly state on the label the correct antidote. However, for complete safety and for the protection of your pet, consult your veterinarian for accurate diagnosis and treatment.

Rolling Plains, Fruit Show Will Be June 30

WICHITA FALLS--The Rolling Plains Vegetable and Fruit Show is scheduled here Saturday, June 30, at the Sears Garden Center, 1000 Scott Street.

The show is open to the public, to see those Rolling Plains products that have been entered by juniors as well as by adult competitors.

To the junior earning most number of points there will be awarded $50. In addition, a single entry of either fruit or vegetable in both the Junior and the Adult divisions will be judged grand champion and sold at auction.

Juniors (9 to 18 years of age) may enter the show through either their county extension agent or their vocational agriculture teacher.

Sponsors of the show are the Rolling Plains Economic Program (R-PEP), the Wichita Board of Commerce and Industry, both the Agricultural Extension Service and the Agricultural Experiment Station of Texas A&M University, and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Turkeys Still One Of Best Meats

COLLEGE STATION - Turkeys generally don't fly very high, even in the wild. Likewise, turkey prices in the market place have climbed little, says Dr. David Mellor, poultry marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Turkeys are still one of the best buys available, both economically and nutritionally," points out the Texas A&M specialist.

Generally, turkey prices are lowest during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. It is normal for the 50 cents per pound Thanksgiving turkey to sell for 60 to 65 cents a pound in the spring and summer.

Turkey prices rose from a national average of 49 cents a pound in 1965 to 55 cents a pound in 1972.

According to the specialist, in 1969 the average factory worker could have purchased 6.6 pounds of turkey with one hour of labor. That same hour of labor could have purchased 6.7 pounds of turkey selling for 60 cents a pound last month. In 1959 one hour of labor would have bought only 4.7 pounds of turkey.

"Thus, turkeys are a bigger bargain today than 15 years ago," contends Mellor. "This can be attributed to wage rates increasing faster than turkey prices."

Since 1959, turkey prices have risen only 18 percent while medical care and services costs have gone up over 90 percent, transportation over 40 percent and housing about 51 percent, Mellor points out.

Screwworm cases in Texas are on the upswing, bearing out the fears of officials of the Screwworm Eradication Project that continued warm, wet weather would boost the activity of the flesh-eating livestock pest. As of May 1, 89 cases have been confirmed in the state this year. Twenty-one cases popped up during the past two weeks as the screwworm flies began moving northward from overwintering areas in northern Mexico and southern Texas.

The weather is going to be a key factor this year in determining the screwworm situation. With all the moisture over much of the state at the present time, the situation would change rapidly. All livestock producers are urged to keep a close check on their herds and to inspect closely any cuts or wounds on the animals. A sample of any worms found should be sent to the Screwworm Laboratory at Mission, Texas for identification. If the worm is identified as a screwworm, sterile flies will be dropped over the area where the case originated. Prompt reporting by producers is critical to the effectiveness of the eradication program. It is the key ingredient for avoiding a screwworm epidemic such as the one which swept the state last year.

Vandals have caused hundreds of dollars in damage to the restroom at Burk's Royalty Park. The interior of the structure has been smashed and marred throughout. Repair of the damage will require all new fixtures and a high repair bill. These restrooms are for your convenience. If you see or hear of vandalism to these park fixtures, please notify the police and identify the vandals, if possible.

Some psychologists are now theorizing that children may learn to write better if slates are used instead of paper. Smooth paper, the theory goes, doesn't offer enough writing resistance to a child's awkward attempts, so his writing becomes messy and unreadable. A resulting aversion to writing can lead to difficulties in spelling. A psychological team at the Technical University of Aachen, in the Federal Republic of Germany, has run tests for two years with 150 children. Results suggest that the old-fashioned slate and a soft slate pencil facilitate learning considerably!

Bulldogs Fall 6-4 To Hirschi Huskies

The Bulldogs battled out their last seasonal game against the Hirschi Huskies recently, but were defeated 6-4.

In the first inning, temperatures started to rise as the first two batters walked, followed by a single scored by Noel Webster that marked two runs for the Huskies. The "Dogs came back in their half of the first with a run. Chris Strayhorn reached first on an error and stole second. Mike LaBrie advanced him to third with a bunt. Strayhorn then scored.

At the top of the second, Hirschi came back for another run on a hit batsman sacrifice lunt, and a throwing error.

In the third inning, Hirschi scored two more, on a walk, triple by Charles Mathews and single by Mark Coheley. In the Bulldog's half of the third, Strayhorn doubled and scored on a single by LaBrie.

The fourth inning found the Hirschi team putting together another run on a single, stolen base, and another single. For the Bulldogs, Zac Henderson hit home run over the right field fence into the parking lot. The last run scored by the Bulldogs was when pinch hitter Larry Johnson hit home run over right field fence, leaving the Bulldogs 4 and Hirschi 6.

Inexperience Contributes To 5-7 Baseball Record

Baseball coach David Keller commented on the Bulldog's Baseball season upon playing the last game against Hirschi. This defeat to Hirschi sends the Bulldog record to 5-7.

"I think we had a young ball club, with 6 juniors and 3 sophomores, all year and this counted for some mistakes... I think that with these young players playing this year they are gaining experience that will help the 'Dogs next year. We will have 16 players returning next year and this certainly helps, because there will be no new players to fit in the system."

Coach Keller cited batting and pitching statistics run up by the Bulldogs this year. The pitchers are Larry Johnson 0-2; Mike Millar 1-2; and Bimbo Davis -3.

CHERYL HICKS Places At State Plans Pro Career

Cheryl Hicks ranked seventh in the recent state competition of girls track at Austin. The University of Texas hosted over 120 entries just in the division Cheryl competed in.

Mrs. Judy Bledsoe commented that this was a superb accomplishment by Cheryl because this is her junior year and she has already had the experience of advancing to state competition. Cheryl jumped the Triple Jump with the best distance she has achieved all year—35' 3". The winner of the Triple Jump was a contestant from Center, Texas who set a new national record.

As an athlete Cheryl has compiled over 30 medals just this year and has helped the entire girls track team acquire 9 trophies. Of the nine meets Cheryl attended, she won seven of them.

Mrs. Bledsoe said that she hoped Cheryl would pursue a professional track career which she thinks is opening up more each year. Commenting on the year that the current girls track team has run up she said, "One example I can give as to the way the girls did this year is that so many other coaches have told me that to achieve so many things in one season is great, but to achieve it your first year—well that's unbelievable." She further stated that hard work, and a winning attitude contributed much to their abilities.

The Informer/Star would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Cheryl for her outstanding achievements in girls track and to the girls track team for their exceptional performance. Mrs. Judy Bledsoe is also to be commended for this successful year of coaching girls track.

Bob Wilson Pioneers Method For Injured

by Billy Rutherford

A Jonas Salk of the legal profession? Maybe, at least as far as persons injured or bereaved by automobile mishaps or accidents on the job are concerned.

That title has loosely been applied to attorney Bob L. Wilson of Wichita Falls who has pioneered a revolutionary method of reparation for persons injured at work or in automobile accidents and for survivors of victims fatally injured from those types of mishaps.

a company holding an "umbrella policy" over and above the primary coverage. After initial rejection and much frustration and deliberation, his perseverance paid off, netting his client $484,000 to be paid over a 20 year period.

"How can insurance companies afford such an amount as $484,000?" you may ask. enough it is profitable for the insurance company because they get to hold the large sum and earn money from its investment while the payments are being made."

money awarded injured surprising

The amounts of money awarded the injured parties in several recent cases in Texas have drawn surprised reactions not only from the man on the street but from those in the legal profession as well.

What characterizes the uniqueness of Wilson's legal techniques? Settlements awarded on an annuity or installment plan as opposed to a one time or lump sum payment.

"Hopefully, long term payments, deferred payments instead of cash settlements, will become a trend," the 46 year old veteran attorney said in a recent interview.

why not all injury suits

In referring to the "one lump sum" award, Wilson said, "For the most part, persons who receive such settlements are not qualified to manage money."

The lawyer said that widows or injured breadwinners might be ill advised in business ventures or investments by relatives or friends. "They might simply overspend without realizing how fast money can get away or launch themselves into a standard of living to which they were not accustomed prior to the injury," he said.

long term method

One of the best things going for Wilson's long term payout method is the extremely high total paid to the injured party. The largest amount of money ever awarded in Wise County, for example, was $50,000 until Wilson was introduced to a case in that North Texas County recently.

The case involved a truck driver who was transporting a load of gravel from Bridgeport to the site of the Dallas-Fort Worth Regional Airport. He was killed in a head on collision with another truck when the auxiliary gas tank under the cab caught fire.

Wilson explained his "new settlement approach" upon being introduced to the case, "I discussed with the widow's father the payment of a settlement for her and the two children over a 20 year period since she had no experience in handling a large sum of money."

The widow and her father agreed that Wilson's proposal of seeking 240 monthly payments was satisfactory to them. "The claims office of the insurance company declined to discuss the case on a long term payout. This typifies the at-

by Jim Alexander

My heart was saddened this past week with the accidental death of my bird dog "Jan". Jan was only two years old, but she was the best bird dog I ever had. I named her Jan after my wife because she had a lot of heart, style, finesse, and she was smart. She was hard headed, wild as a rabbit, and she had a mind of her own. She possessed a lot of bird sense that was uncommon to young dogs. She was completely predictable in the back yard, and hard to find in the field. She was jealous, high tempered, and moody. She would fight a dog as big as a barn, yet run from a puppy. A more compassionate dog could not be found around kids. She was beautiful on point with her tall arched over her back with her head held as high as it would go until I thought it would touch her ears, and sometimes when I took my time getting to her when on point, she would look back as if to say, "Come on, idiot, the birds are running away." Jan loved the water, and many times after romps in the back yard, I would wash her down with the water hose. She loved it. She loved to hunt from daylight to dark, and she never seemed to tire. Jan only quit on me one time because she was tired, and that was under very trying circumstances. I carried her to the car, and never said a word. I loved her, and she loved me. She showed her love everytime we went hunting. Most dogs can't talk, but Jan could, I guess, because when she barked, it just seemed to understand. In many ways, she reminded me of my wife, and my wife loved her, too. Jan is gone from this world. We will never hunt together again. But I have my memories and good times that no one can take from me.

"Leon's Boat Dock" so he is a great source of information. Call him anytime for fishing reports on Lake Wichita, what bait to use, and he might be able to tell you where they're biting.

Walkie Howe at "The Minnow Ranch" reported good catches of just about everything on Lake Diversion and Lake Kemp. Walkie fishes himself so he knows what he is talking about.

This is the time of year all boaters need to brush up on their water safety regulations. In order to practice water safety we all need to practice water courtesy at all times. Everyone has a right to be on the same lake, at the same time, so do unto others as you would like to be done unto. Sounds like a sensible thing to practice. Waterdog Walter will get you into trouble everytime. He doesn't respect anyone or anything. Waterdog Walter thinks only of himself. He jeopardizes everyone on the lake with his little antics of speed, reckless driving, littering, and inconsideration. He is really a menace to society. If you're name is Waterdog Walter, then you are reading about yourself. Shape up or ship out on land.

Summer heat is really hard on dogs. Hunters that have bird dogs would be wise to increase your dog's water supply. Make sure your pride and joy has lots of shade, and if possible, a wet place to lie down. Many dogs will die this summer because of heat and lack of water. Don't let this happen to yours. Those bird dogs are valuable, take care of them.

SCRAMBLED SAYINGS

Can you make sense out of these mixed-up sentences by unscrambling the words printed in capital letters? The answers are printed below:

1. Never pour LARCHOAC TIGERLH on a fire.
2. Throw YLIO SARG away, or keep them in a closed metal container.
3. GRINPS is a good time to clean cellars, attics, closets and garages.
4. When members of The Hartford Insurance Group's Junior Fire Marshal program help in the clean-up, they help prevent RIEF.

ANSWERS: 1—A charcoal lighter; 2—dry; 3—spring; 4—fire.

I would like very much to receive a note or phone call from you about your latest excursion to the lake or camping trip. You can do this by mailing your letters and pictures to the Informer/Star or calling me, 723-0334. I am looking forward to hearing from you.

SHEPPARD AIR FORCE BASE

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--PARA-SAILING--Tethered to a moving truck, Colonel Robert Liotta, commander of the 80th Flying Training Wing, lifts off the ground in a very silent, very individual form of flying: para-sailing. Para-sailing, however, despite its relaxed appearance, is a serious part of survival training. (OFFICIAL USAF PHOTO BY AIRMAN FIRST CLASS MELODIE ROSS)

Col. Robert Liotta Experiments With Para-Sailing As New Sport

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--Colonel Robert G. Liotta, commander of the 80th Flying Training Wing at Sheppard, joined some new undergraduate pilot training students on a cool, clear morning recently and went para-sailing.

Strapped onto a parachute, he was gently pulled by a truck until the chute filled with air and lifted him off the ground. Within a few seconds, the truck stopped and Colonel Liotta drifted slowly back down, tumbling as he hit the ground with the chute falling around him.

Colonel Liotta's activities were not a game, even though they were fun. He was taking part in the pre-flight survival training given all new pilot students.

Para-sailing is the last in a series of experiences designed to give each student the complete feel of an actual ejection.

"We want to instill confidence in the students in their equipment," explains Colonel Liotta. "They are naturally apprehensive when they come into pilot training, and this helps take away a fear of the unknown."

Soon after beginning the 55-week long pilot training course, the students sit in a "procedural seat," a mock up of an actual aircraft cockpit complete with all the dials and switches. When the student pulls the ejection switch, the seat jumps approximately eight inches.

Next, the student sits in another seat which is attached to bottles of nitrogen. When the ejection switch here is pulled, the student receives a sudden boost which sends him 15 feet along a steel ladder. The shock approximates the same gravity forces of an actual ejection.

Ground jumping from a tower follows. Students learn to make correct landings from platforms two and four feet off the ground, working their way up to the eight feet maximum.

They are suspended from harnesses on the tower, called swing landing trainers, which allow them to steer and control themselves as they would during an actual jump. While hanging, an instructor pulls a release and the student falls. Each student must complete three correct landings before he is finally allowed to para-sail.

The training shows the students that escaping from a disabled plane is nothing to be afraid of, that the chute is steerable, and that if correctly done, there is little or no shock upon landing.

And, by incorporating escape procedures into pre-flight training, the students will be able to deal with an emergency if it develops--they will not be afraid to eject if in danger.

James Shrewsberry

Shrewsberry, Tech Win NCO Wives Club Award

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS--James Patrick Shrewsberry and Linda Marie Tech will receive the two $500 scholarships given by the Sheppard Noncommissioned Officers Wives Club this year.

The presentation will be made at the club's monthly luncheon Thursday, May 17. Mrs. S.D. Berman, wife of the base commander, and advisor for the group, will make the presentations.

Both of the recipients are senior students at Wichita Falls High School. James Shrewsberry, son of Mrs. Royella Shrewsberry, is a member of the National Honor Society and Latin Club. He was sophomore scholastic award winner and was named Who's Who in Biology.

He is a member of Boy Scout Troop 123 and Order of the Arrow Lodge 35.

The young man plans to attend Midwestern University, and the University of Oklahoma in Norman. He will study engineering.

Miss Tech is the daughter of Master Sergeant and Mrs. Ervan Tech. Throughout her high school years she has been a member of various organizations and clubs, including the German Club, Future Teachers of America, Gym Leaders and was Reserve Officer Training Corps sponsor for one year.

Her hobbies are drawing, tennis and swimming. She also has taught Sunday School and Vacation Bible School at St. Paul Lutheran Church.

She plans to enter Midwestern University this summer to study to become a nurse.

AFIT Program Provides Study For Officers Career

The AFIT program is designed to provide graduate and undergraduate study for officers' career progression. The officer who is selected may receive as much as two years at an AFIT selected university. Selections are made on the basis of the Air Force's needs for the next 10 years.

During their training, officers receive full pay, allowances and tuition. Fees and books are paid for by the Air Force. In return the officer agrees to accept a change of career field, based on his major field of study.

Selections for the program are competitive. While all officers' files are reviewed periodically for AFIT training, officers who request evaluation are more likely to be accepted, according to Frank K. Ezell, Sheppard Education Officer.

Major Parker, presently assigned to the 88th Flying Training Squadron at the 80th Flying Training Wing, will go to Colorado State University at Fort Collins to work on a master degree in business management.

The major did undergraduate work at Kansas State University, Manhattan, Kansas, in mathematics and chemistry. He graduated there in 1959. He received his Air Force commission through the Reserve Officer Training Corps and has served 14 years on active duty.

At present Major Parker is assistant operations officer with his unit at Sheppard. Before Sheppard, he was stationed at Udorn Royal Thai Air Force Base, Thailand, and before that, Keesler AFB, Miss.

Captain Saxon will enter AFIT training at the Institute of Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio, working towards a masters in astronautical engineering.

Presently, he is chief of the T-38 section of the Standardization and Evaluation Division at the 80th Flying Training Wing.

An instructor supervisor in the School of Applied Aerospace Sciences, Department of Comptroller Training, Captain Allen will be working on his masters in business administration and computer science at Louisiana Tech University in Ruston, La.

The captain is a graduate of Sanford University in Birmingham, Ala. He earned his commission through Officer Training School in 1963, and since has been stationed at Craig AFB, Ala., Karamursel, Turkey, Forbes AFB, Kansas and Sheppard.

Captain Hilyard, a pharmacy officer at the USAF School of Health Care Sciences at Sheppard will attend Ohio State University at Columbus for work on a master degree in hospital pharmacy.

A 1967 graduate of the University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas, the captain received his commission through the Reserve Officer Training Corps. Before coming to Sheppard, he was stationed at Lakenheath, England.

At the School of Health Care Sciences, he is course supervisor in the Pharmacy Specialist and Pharmacy Technician Courses in the Department of Biomedical Sciences.

Weekly Health Tip

A mother told us about her teenage daughter who got a D in gym because, as her instructor said, "She can't do anything". Her mother pleaded, "She's not coordinated". That summer, she had her daughter do a series of daily exercises - the more exercises her daughter did, the more she enjoyed them. "She became more outgoing and more confident", explained the mother. "She had been fat and she lost weight. She looked better, she came out of her shell and became more popular at school." This experience may suggest a means to better physical and mental health for other teenagers as well.

Grand Opening
This Weekend! Under New Management

Little Rock Cafe OKLAHOMA CUT-OFF EVERYONE WELCOME!

"My insurance paid it all!"

Trip-Accident and Baggage Policy - complete auto and road service coverage - insurance on cameras, boats and sporting goods - and family liability for injuries to others. Have peace of mind to enjoy your vacation.

When you need someone who can either come to your assistance or can help get assistance to you, it's a good idea to have taped two or three dimes to the inside of your glove compartment door so they'll be handy for such an emergency.

Then, before you go to a phone, lock your car, making certain there's nothing visible on the front or rear seats (skilled thieves can break into and strip a car in minutes). Next, make a mental note of your exact location - name of street, part of town, corner you are at or near, and approximate distance from prominent landmarks. Then get to a phone and call.

For helpful advice on safe driving and maintenance of your car, write to Gulf Oil Company - U.S., P.O. Box 1519-TG, Houston, Texas 77001, for your free copy of the booklet, "Straight Talk for the Woman Driver."

HEADLIGHTS HELPFUL ADVICE FOR THE WOMAN DRIVER by Kay Nicolette Women's Service Director Gulf Oil Corporation

Whether or not your car can stop on a dime (and chances are it can't), a ten-cent piece can be a vital thing to have on hand in case your auto doesn't start. The most important tool you can carry in your car is a dime to make a telephone call to the nearest service station, the police or a friend.

When you need someone who can either come to your assistance or can help get assistance to you, it's a good idea to have taped two or three dimes to the inside of your glove compartment door so they'll be handy for such an emergency.
