★★★ Old-Time 4th Of July Celebration Planned ★★★

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, along with the Community Service Council, have voted to have an old time July 4th celebration in Burkburnett on Independence Day. Festivities will include a bar-b-que, club booths, bands, choir groups, country-western groups, and an hour-long fireworks display. The normal Burkburnett Heritage Week will coincide with the celebration to help carry out a theme that can be used for the 1976 Bi-Centennial year. According to a tentative schedule drawn up by Chamber Manager Jim Lemley, the bar-b-que will probably be at 6 p.m. in the park next to the Youth Center. At 7 p.m., musical groups will begin entertainment at the same location; and at 9 p.m. the fireworks display will probably begin in a marked-off safety area nearby. Tickets for the BBQ beef are $2.50 each and may be purchased from various merchants throughout Burkburnett. Proceeds from booths will go to the club sponsoring that exhibition, and bar-b-que proceeds will be placed in the Chamber of Commerce fund to be used later in the year. Jim Lemley stated, "Anyone wanting to help with the celebration should call the Chamber office and leave his name and phone number." He said that volunteer workers for committees would be badly needed and that it was the aim of the Chamber to make this a community-spirited project. He also encouraged local businesses to dress up store fronts during Heritage Week, which is July 1 through 6. The phone number of the Chamber office is 569-3393. There will be eight chairmen working on the July 4 celebration. They are: Chairman of All Events--which will be the Chamber of Commerce; Food Chairman--which will consist of five co-chairmen; Entertainment Chairman--which will consist of three co-chairmen; Game & Booth Chairman--which will consist of two co-chairmen; Fireworks Chairman--which will have one co-chairman; Publicity Chairman--which will have one co-chairman; Ticket Chairman; and Clean-Up Chairman--which will have three co-chairmen.

BRINGING IN THE WHEAT--Pictured are several truck loads of wheat which were brought into BUNGE Corp. (wheat elevators) during the first part of the week. Trucks lined the whole block in front of the Post Office and the one in front of BUNGE several times last week. According to Ms. Wanda Young last Thursday, about 75 per cent of the wheat was being stored with the price then being $3.29 per bushel. She said that several days 160,000 bushels were brought in and a total of around one million and a quarter bushels were expected. Sixty-five to 70 per cent was reported in last Thursday and according to Tuesday's report, 90 per cent was probably in. Mrs. Young described this year's crop as a "real good harvest". She said that the farmers were a lot happier than expected with the harvest due to a badly needed rain. She said that the Randlett station is reported doing well also. BUNGE stores wheat, oats, barley, milo, and soy beans. Informer/Star Photo

Service Council To Meet

The Burkburnett Community Service Council will meet Thursday, June 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the Burkburnett Civic Center. Scheduled topics will include election of officers, July 4 celebration discussion, and Heritage Week discussion. Local citizens are urged to attend as are club and organization leaders.

Chamber Votes To Join United Fund

The Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce held its monthly luncheon Monday, June 3, at 12 noon in the Civic Center, and voted unanimously to join the Greater Wichita Falls United Fund campaign. Chamber manager Jim Lemley said that directors of the program wanted Burkburnett to become a member of their campaign. He added that several of the local fund drives will be eliminated due to coverage by the fund and that all facilities from Wichita Falls which are included in the budget of the United Fund will be available to Burkburnett residents. Lemley forecasted that taking a long range view, the United Fund could be a major asset to the community in the future. He said that the United Fund will be working through the Chamber of Commerce here, with Bill Link (United Fund manager) coming to Burkburnett to work with the Chamber to kick off the campaign locally. Lemley stated, "Eventually the entire town will benefit from it. We need a concentrated participation by all citizens to join when the United Fund approaches them." Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Youth Center, and Senior Citizens are a few organizations which could possibly benefit from the United Fund immediately. After announcing that the Chamber has a current active membership of 218, Lemley described plans for "Honor America Day--July 4 Activities" and America Week (July 1-6). Fourth of July festivities will include a barbeque, booths set up by local club groups, musical entertainment such as bands, choirs, and country-western groups, and an hour-long fireworks display at a local park. Mickey Cornelius announced that the Boomtown Golf Tournament will be held July 12, 13 and 14. The Chamber-sponsored tourney will consist of partnerships (at a $20 per person entry fee) with over $2,000 worth of gift certificate prizes to be given away and a car for a hole-in-one (donated by Mathis Chevrolet). According to Cornelius, help will consist of 18-20 persons per day and volunteers will be needed.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Some of the Constitutional Convention's hottest debate is yet to come. Explosive potential of the general provision article already has been demonstrated in preliminary rounds, and the right-to-work section should produce the biggest bang of all.

Organized labor, headed by State AFL-CIO President Harry Hubbard, stands foursquare against writing right-to-work provisions into the new constitution.

A new statewide citizens committee with formidable political and financial muscle has been formed to lobby for placing right-to-work on the ballot as a separate issue from the overall constitutional revision.

The Texas right-to-work law, dating back to 1947, prohibits union contracts which would require union membership as a condition to getting and keeping a job.

Baylor University President Dr. Abner McCall is chairman of the Texas Right-to-Work Committee which opened offices near the state capitol recently. Houston school teacher Mrs. Margaret Wisdom is the co-chairman.

Other big-name Texans, including a scattering of industrial leaders, Republicans, conservative Democrats and Gov. Dolph Briscoe's campaign manager, Austin attorney Joe Kilgore, are on the committee roster.

COTTON THREATENED — Drought which destroyed High Plains dryland wheat is now threatening this year's for beating a teenager.

STUDY ORDERED — Speaker Price Daniel Jr. has ordered a "thorough study" of the Texas Water Quality Board by the House Committee on Environmental Affairs.

The investigation will cover the agency's administration, operation and enforcement of environmental standards.

While inquiry actually will not get under way until the Constitutional Convention adjourns, advance planning and research by staff members is already under way.

Rep. Carlos Truan of Corpus Christi and 44 other representatives petitioned for the investigation May 15.

The standing subcommittee on pollution of the Environmental Affairs panel actually will conduct the study. The House Judiciary Committee will further consider administrative operations of TWQB in its overall review of administrative agency procedures.

Daniel said purpose of the investigation is to "get all of the facts and to lay the basis for any remedial legislation or administrative action which may be needed."

APPOINTMENTS — Ruben R. Cardenas of McAllen was appointed by Governor Briscoe to the Pan American University board of regents and Leonel Garza Sr. and Morris Atlas of McAllen reappointed.

Other recent appointments by Briscoe included:

Charles W. Darter of Wellington as 100th district attorney; Mrs. Tom B. Simmons Jr. of Lubbock to the American Revolution Bicentennial Commission; Richard C. Rolad of La Feria and Jim Mathis of Edinburg to the Rio Grande Valley Pollution Control Authority board of directors; Homer Bryce of Henderson to the board of regents of Stephen F. Austin State University and Robert H. Lackner Jr. of Brownsville to the Texas Conservation Foundation.

Harry C. Heyman assumed new duties June 1 as director of the Amarillo State Center for Human Development.

WIRE SHORTAGE THREATENS — A serious baling wire shortage may cause economic hazards, Agriculture Commissioner White warned.

White earlier said the shortage would be between 22 and 47 per cent. Industry sources reported a 30 per cent shortage nationwide and a possibly higher figure for Texas.

Prices may rise from $28 and $50 a carton to $70, White said. A year ago, the price was $13. White said a black market situation may develop in baling wire as in fertilizer. Haybaling is just beginning in the state. Ninety per cent of farmers in Texas use wire to bale hay. Twine too is in short supply.

SHORT SNORTS
The Governor's Energy Advisory Council has received a $489,000 National Science Foundation grant to continue its long and medium range energy resource studies in Texas.

The Governor signed an executive order creating a State Manpower Services Council to coordinate manpower policies, plans and services throughout the state.

Texas Water Rights Commission adopted a policy statement identifying requirements for change orders to bond project plans of water districts.

Since the State Democratic Convention falls on Rosh Hashana (September 17), Governor Briscoe recommended delegates of the Jewish faith who are absent on the religious holiday be allowed to assign their votes to certified delegates or alternates.

Use of Dieldrin in commercial fertilizers will not be registered in Texas after August 31, on recommendation of Pesticide Advisory Committee.

A Texas legislative group began research on a project designed to strengthen laws regulating public utility service.

Ten applications for permits to sell $6.1 million in securities were filed last week with the State Securities Board.

WHAT GREAT CITY IS BUILT UPON SEVEN HILLS ?

I have spent my strength for them without response. Yet I leave it all with God for my reward. Private Grant Helps Students Paint Murals Youthful artists in Corning, N.Y., have painted colorful murals on walls of three public school buildings, according to the Business Committee on the Arts.

In a project financed by a series of Corning Glass Works Foundation grants, art students were given free creative reign.

The results are works of art that brighten an old junior high school and two high school indoor swimming pools.

The foundation proposed the project in line with its interest in improved visual environment, especially in public places, and encouragement to young talent.

Better Management Needed

"I have often maintained that our civilization will never fall because of lack of trained scientists, or of a shortage of trained engineers, or of skilled biologists and physicians; we leap ahead of the frontiers of knowledge almost continuously in these areas. We lag, however, in the management of our Government as it grows and grows, feeding upon our substance, commandeering funds which should be used for the development of free enterprise ventures, and tending ever toward the dead level of mediocrity in our every effort."—Deane W. Stronger Patents Urged for Growth

The U.S. is losing ground to Japan and Western European nations in technological leadership, in productivity and, except for a small surplus of $680-million in 1973, in balance of payments.

So says William E. Schuyler, Jr., former U.S. Commissioner of Patents and chairman of Intellectual Property Owners, Inc., a non-profit group devoted to creating public awareness of the importance of a reliable patent system.

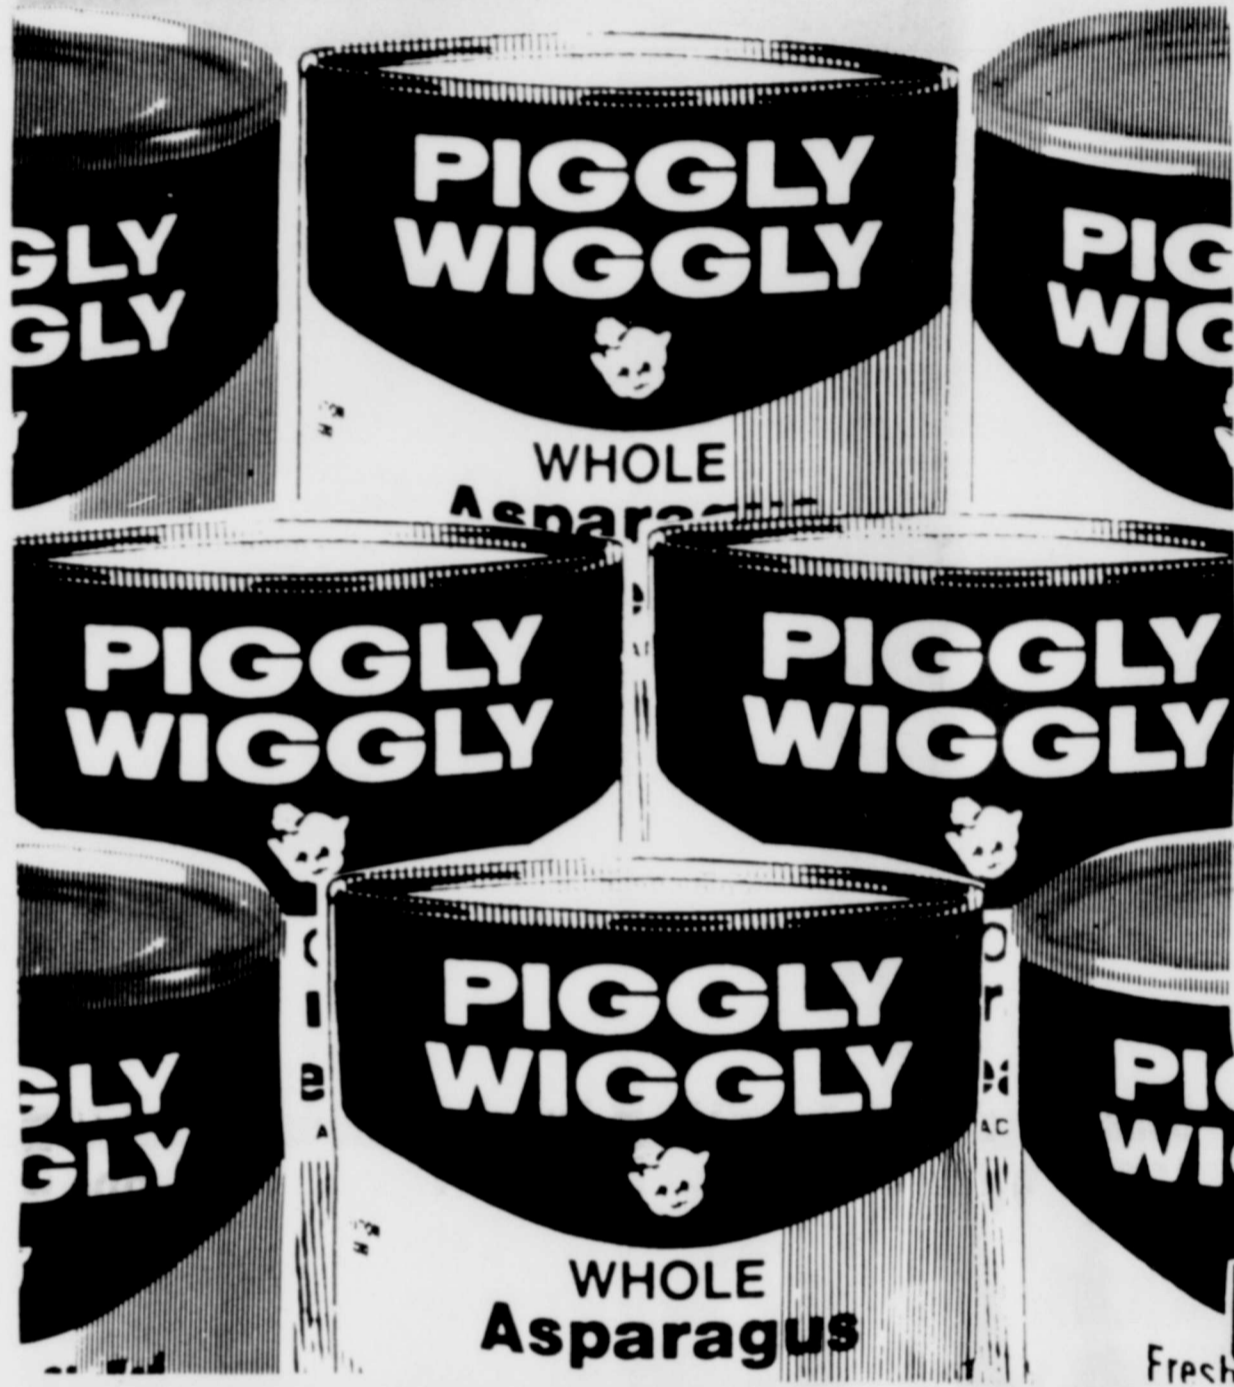

Mr. Schuyler says technological innovation is needed, and he believes clarification and stabilization of the patent statutes would help to spur this innovation.

"Strengthening of the patent system and the incentives it provides will encourage positive action by inventors, investors and entrepreneurs," Mr. Schuyler stated.

"Although we are spending a greater total than any other country for research and development," Mr. Schuyler said, "the United States in the sixties spent on research and development an average of only about 1.1 per cent of the gross national product—about half as much proportionately as France, West Germany, the United Kingdom, Italy and Japan."

THOSE 'OTHER' ENERGY SOURCES AROUND US

The in-the-news term "energy shortage" may be somewhat misleading. There is a petroleum energy shortage. But all around us are nearly infinite sources of energy that can cut down the world's dependence on oil and eventually replace that exhaustible fossil fuel now being burned up at an accelerating rate, a top aerospace science and engineering executive points out.

In a paper presented to the Royal Aeronautical Society in Britain, Lockheed's Senior Vice President Willis M. Hawkins proposes tapping these "infinite sources of energy," such as solar and nuclear power, to obtain hydrogen and alcohol from these or equally unlimited sources. Looking into the future beyond the energy conservation measures proposed by the President, Hawkins says:

- Hydrogen, obtained from electrolysis of sea water via nuclear energy, or nuclear reactors directly can power future transport aircraft.
- Alcohol, derived from plant life that can be grown again and again, can be an entirely satisfactory and clean automotive fuel.
- Nuclear and solar energy are in use now and they can be expanded for heat and power for permanent installations.

Hawkins also noted that methane gas, released naturally by the decomposition of garbage and other wastes, could be available for many applications in the same way that hydrogen can be used.

And these energy sources are generally far less polluting than the fossil fuels we now employ, Hawkins adds.

We'll probably run out of accessible U.S. oil and natural gas in the lifetime of many of us here, and even relatively plentiful coal eventually will be depleted, Hawkins points out.

"We've been using petroleum as a major fuel and energy source over the past century or so because it is—or was—convenient and cheap. However, both low cost and convenience are disappearing. We can't make an overnight switch to the inexhaustible sources available in nature, and we'll suffer a difficult transition. It takes time to reach the ultimate answer. It will take well-organized planning, the technical competence that we fortunately possess, and a lot of work."

Hawkins emphasizes: Needed now, in preparation for 1980, 1990, and the year 2000, are additional serious research and development programs to utilize fully these "other" and inexhaustible sources of energy.

Sheppard Notes

A significant change in the military justice system goes into effect July 1, throughout the Air Force.

Staffs of area Defense Counsels will now be in charge of defending in all court martial proceedings, will counsel on nonjudicial punishment (Article 15 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice) cases and defend in other administrative proceedings.

No longer will the defense counsels at Sheppard, or any base, be responsible to the staff judge advocate at that installation. Instead, judge advocates serving as defense counsels will report directly to the Appellate Defense Division of the Judge Advocate General.

Heading the Area Defense Counsel office at Sheppard, which will also defend and advise military members at Reese Air Force Base, Texas, is Captain Larry Thraikill. Also members of the staff are Captains Larry Molinari and John Abbott.

All three men are currently assigned to the Staff Judge Advocate (SJA) office at Sheppard and volunteered to serve as defense counsels.

The defense counsels will be housed in Building 298, totally separated from the SJA office on Sheppard.

In today's world, accurate, secure and rapid communications are important to the efficient operation of agencies of the government and to Sheppard Air Force Base.

The 2054th Communications Squadron at Sheppard recently completed installation of the new digital subscriber terminal equipment (DSTE) which is capable of transmitting and receiving messages at a rate of 1500 words per minute.

The DSTE is used to process messages using the automatic digital network (AUTOVOV) portion of the defense communications system, which is made up of switching centers and subscriber terminals with communication links between them; Sheppard is one such subscriber terminal.

Written messages are translated from punched cards or tape by the DSTE equipment, into electrical impulses and are received on a high speed printer or on tapes or cards.

The men and women at the communications center at Sheppard, which is open 24 hours a day, every day of the year, transmit more than 2000 and receive more than 3500 messages a month.

The communications center specialists who operate the DSTE equipment, and the repairman who maintains it are trained at the Department of Communications and Missile Training at Sheppard's School of Applied Aerospace Sciences.

Colonel (Dr.) William C. Hernquist, commander of the USAF Regional Hospital at Sheppard AFB, heads the list of 35 retirees at Sheppard the end of May.

A veteran of 28 years of military service, Colonel Hernquist plans to retire in San Diego, Calif.

Other officers who are retiring are Lieutenant Colonel William L. Otten Jr., legal staff officer of STTC and Captain Thomas J. Pollard, biomedical laboratory officer, SHCS.

Half of the noncommissioned officers (NCOs) who are retiring are assigned to the School of Applied Aerospace Sciences (SAAS). They are Master Sergeant Thomas J. Cale, site development technician, 3774th Instructor Squadron, 20 years, who is retiring in Wichita Falls; Senior Master Sergeant William P. McKay, aircraft maintenance superintendent, Master Sergeant Donald R. Bradley, aircraft maintenance technician, Technical Sergeants Moses R.

Dungan, aircraft propeller technician, Donald D. Ward, helicopter technician, Denis R. Huffman, aircraft maintenance technician, all of 3773rd Instructor Squadron.

Sergeant McKay is retiring in Pittsburgh, Pa. after 28 years; Sergeant Bradley, in Chattanooga, Okla., after 21 years; Sergeants Dungan, in Mattoon, Ill., Ward in Copan, Okla., and Huffman, in Burkburnett, all after 20 years of service.

Others in SAAS are Senior Master Sergeant Dosilee E. Hamilton, first sergeant, 3772nd Instructor Squadron, who is to retire in Burkburnett after 23 years; Technical Sergeants Billy R. Kirk, Fred P. Welch, Robert A. Chanterie, and Rogers Johnson; all of 3760th Instructor Squadron of the Department of Communications and Missile Training.

Also, Senior Master Sergeant Leonard J. Labrie of Burkburnett, an aircraft maintenance superintendent with the 3751st Field Training Squadron, who is retiring after 26 years of service.

Those in the student squadrons of SAAS are Master Sergeant Howard V. Joslin, first sergeant of 3775th, Technical Sergeants Harry A. Turner, military training instructor of 3765th; and Rolland B. Halvorsen, administrative supervisor, 3761st. Sergeant Joslin is retiring in Wichita Falls after 20 years; Sergeant Turner, in Burkburnett, after 21 years; and Sergeant Halvorsen in Ferndale, Washington, after 26 years.

Four men in 3750th Consolidated Maintenance Squadron and one from Headquarters Squadron are retiring in 3750th Maintenance and Supply Group. They are Master Sergeants Clarence R. Tucker, 27 years, who is retiring in Derby, Kansas; Jerry W. Day, 20 years, who is to live in Pottsboro, Texas; John R. Hagan, 20 years, who is to go to Seabrook, Texas; and Stephen W. Robinson, aircraft maintenance technician, 20 years, who will remain in Burkburnett. These are all with 3750th Consolidated Maintenance Squadron.

In the 2054th Communications Squadron, Air Force Communications Service, retirees are Master Sergeants

Robert L. Smith, first sergeant; Harold E. Hanlon Jr., air traffic control technician; and Staff Sergeant John T. Patton, ground radio communications technician. Sergeant Smith, with 26 years, will live in Burkburnett.

Colonel J. Lewis Smith Jr., chief of hospital services, became commander of the USAF Regional Hospital at Sheppard Air Force Base June 1 following the retirement of Colonel William C. Hernquist. Colonel Hernquist has been in that position since August 1971.

Colonel Smith assumed his duties as chief of hospital services at the Sheppard hospital in July 1972. He came here from Cam Ranh Bay Air Base, Republic of Vietnam.

The new hospital commander has been in the Air Force since 1950. His successive assignments have been at Warner-Robbins AFB, Ga., Sheppard AFB, as a student at Duke University at Elmendorf AFB, Alaska; Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio; and Offutt AFB, Neb.

He received his doctor of medicine degree at Vanderbilt Medical School and did his internship at Roper Hospital at Charleston, S.C. At Duke, he did his general and thoracic surgery residency.

At Scott and Elmendorf, he was chief of thoracic surgery and at Offutt and Cam Ranh Bay, he was hospital commander.

He holds membership in the Deryl Hart Surgical Society, an alumni group of Duke surgeons; American Medical Association; Thoracic Surgeons; Air Force Clinical Surgery and Military Surgeons.

Aluminum Base Metal Said To Be Plentiful

There is no shortage of bauxite, the raw material for aluminum, according to the Reynolds Metals Co. Known worldwide reserves are estimated by the government as at least a 400-year supply. Moreover, there is a low-grade bauxite called laterite which is plentiful and could be used if, for some reason, bauxite becomes unavailable.

Sorghum prices will likely drop during the next few months as feed grain supplies increase. It is expected the price will be around $3.50 per hundredweight during the coming season. A record feedgrain crop is in the making and demand factors are still uncertain. Forward contracting is expected to be sluggish through early summer. A bumper crop is expected in the Southern Hemisphere and could mean stiff competition for U.S. sorghum in the export market.

Recently enacted federal legislation raised the minimum wage for farm workers who are covered from the present $1.30 to $1.60 an hour, effective May 1, 1974. The minimum will increase to $1.80 on January 1, 1975; to $2 on January 1, 1976; to $2.20 on January 1, 1977; and to $2.30 on January 1, 1978. The newly enacted amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act do not change the exemption of agriculture from overtime requirements or the 500 man-day test for coverage of agricultural employees.

May 24 marked a special milestone by Texas swine producers in the battle against hog cholera. After a year free of outbreaks of the costly swine disease, Texas has been declared "hog cholera free" by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The occasion marks the first time since late 1962 that all 50 states have been pronounced free of hog cholera. In a special ceremony in Austin, a certificate recognizing the achievement, signed by Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz, was presented to Norman Moser, chairman of the Texas Animal Health Commission. The presentation was made by Dr. Francis Mulhern, administrator of the U.S.D.A.'s Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, Washington, D.C.

Mulhern praised the work done in Texas as well as in the other swine producing states to eradicate hog cholera. He noted that the efforts have already resulted in great savings to producers and that these savings will be even more significant in the coming years. The USDA official cautioned hog producers to remain vigilant, however, so that the dreaded disease can indeed be kept out of the state. This is especially important in Texas since the state borders Mexico where hog cholera is still widespread.

AUSTIN--Texas was third nationally in exports during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1973, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has announced.

NOBODY HERE BUT US CHICKENS—Eggs are the most nearly perfect source of protein and Texas laying hens plan to keep working at a rate that will keep the customer satisfied. Agriculture Commissioner John C. White says 1973 egg prices averaged the highest in many years, but 1974 prices have been lower.

Eggs Excellent Buy While Prices Down

AUSTIN—Eggs, the most nearly perfect source of protein, are an excellent buy currently and should remain so for at least a month, reports Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

Large eggs were selling recently for 51-53 cents a dozen on the wholesale market and in some cities retail prices for smaller eggs had dipped as low as 39 cents a dozen.

The wholesale price was a drop of 30 cents a dozen since January when large Grade A eggs were selling for 80 cents a dozen.

White said plentiful supplies and low consumer demand, occurring annually after Easter, have combined to bring about the price drop.

"Traditionally prices drop between January and June when supplies increase," White said. "They will start to rise again in July when laying drops off because of the hot weather."

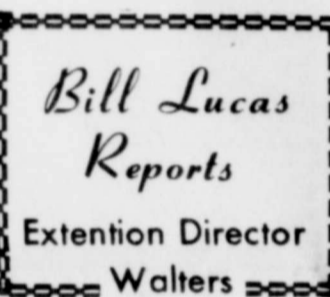

According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, egg production is expected to remain higher this year than last. The laying flock was down two percent in early 1974, but the rate of lay was up one percent. An increase number of younger birds in the flock was expected to hold the rate of lay above 1973.

Egg prices in 1973 averaged the highest in many years, White said.

but the drop since January has been continuous. Though prices will increase seasonally in the summer and fall, they will average moderately below July-December 1973.

Texas Department of Agriculture home economists suggest buying eggs now while prices are low and freezing them for use during summer and fall.

To freeze eggs, separate the whites and yolks. Place whites in a tightly sealed jar. Cover yolks in water and seal in another jar. Pour off the water before using the yolks. Frozen eggs can be kept up to a year.

A Cotton County survey made last week showed the pecan set is light throughout the county, therefore I would point out the need for checking individual groves to see if they have enough pecans to justify a pecan spray schedule for 1974.

If you do have a crop of pecans set on, it appears that this insect will destroy a large percent of the crop unless

WEEKLY MARKET REPORT

It's good time for meat "madcaps" to stock up, according to most sources.

One is Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

She reports beef production higher than last year, pork prices down a little, and turkeys available "in record quantities with very attractive prices."

"Beef specials take careful shopping and likely will include chuck cuts, round steak, liver and ground meat. Pork values will be Boston butt, quarter-loin chops, loin-end roasts, smoked picnics and hams."

Turning to vegetables, Mrs. Clyatt said there's "good news" for onion lovers--big crops and prices about half what they were

Beef Recipes In New Book

AUSTIN--The new Texas Grain-Fed Beef Cookbook has been published by the Texas Department of Agriculture, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

The booklet contains recipes on choice and inexpensive cuts, casseroles, appetizers, variety meats and leftovers. It also describes methods of selecting and preparing meat.

For a free copy write to Commissioner John C. White, Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711.

Refined peanut oil--one of the "best cooking oils known to domestic sciences"--is widely used for deep fat frying in the food industry. The high smoke point and flavor of refined peanut oil are two reasons for its use by the food industry. At the same time, however, homemakers traditionally haven't used it.

Defining "smoke point", it's the lowest temperature at which an oil decomposes to produce smoke. Peanut oil's smoke point is 450-470 degrees F.--which means it can be heated to those temperatures before it will smoke, making it a good cooking--especially frying--oil. It also can be used successfully in fondues for frying donuts, meat pies or fried pies.

Turning to flavor, the nutty, pleasing flavor and the amber color of the oil is dependent upon the variety of peanut, growth conditions and refining process. Some peanut oils of good quality may be slightly darker in appearance.

Substitution of this oil in any recipe specifying a melted shortening assures excellent results. Certain salad dressings and pastries take on unique flavors when made with peanut oil. They include, for example, Oil and Vinegar Dressing, Sunset Dressing, and Peanut Butterscotch Squares. Also, recipes specifying olive oil are equally as tasty when peanut oil is used.

Peanut oil is termed "very stable"--meaning it will store at room temperature for considerable periods of time. Nothing that peanut oil is almost 98.3 percent digestible by man, one tablespoon--or 14 grams--of the oil contains 124 calories, 14 grams of fat and 7.3 grams of polyunsaturated fatty acids.

Peanut Butterscotch Squares
1/2 cup peanut oil
1 cup dark brown sugar
1 egg

1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups sifted enriched flour
1/4 teaspoon baking powder
2 to 3 tablespoons milk
1/2 cup chopped salted peanuts
Frost as desired

Measure peanut oil, brown sugar, egg and vanilla into mixing bowl. Mix thoroughly. Stir flour with baking powder and stir into oil-sugar-egg mixture, adding enough milk to leave dough quite stiff, but slightly moist. Stir in peanuts. Pour dough into greased 9-inch square baking pan. Bake (350 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes or until lightly browned around edges.

Oil and Vinegar Dressing (makes 1 cup)

1 cup peanut oil
4 tablespoons vinegar
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon mustard

Place all ingredients in bottle with tight lid or stopper. Shake vigorously until thoroughly mixed. Serve on a tossed green salad.

Sunset Dressing (makes 1 cup)

1/2 cup peanut oil
1/4 cup vinegar
1/4 cup catsup
1 teaspoon salt
Dash Hot Sauce
2 hard-cooked egg yolks, crumbled
2 tablespoons minced green pepper
1 teaspoon minced onion

Place all ingredients in a bottle with tight lid. Shake vigorously until thoroughly mixed. Serve over meat or fish salad.

"Canning" Session

"It's so easy to can... and freeze" is the topic for a food preservation short course to be offered for beginners. Meetings will be held Monday, June 10 at 2:00 in the Burkburnett Texas Electric Service Company Auditorium, Tuesday, June 11 at 9:30 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. in the Wichita Falls Texas Electric Service Company Auditorium.

Dee James, Wichita County Extension Agent will present the session on canning.

Methods of canning in the pressure canner and boiling water both will be demonstrated.

Sheryl Mahaney, Texas Electric Service Company Home Economist will demonstrate the procedure for freezing fruits and vegetables and the proper way to wrap meats for the freezer. If interested in learning more about food preservation plan to attend one of the sessions.

Fuel diversification is important to you and your family.

But what is it?

Fuel diversification is the key to our being able to supply the electricity you'll need in the years ahead.

It means using several kinds of fuel to generate electricity. Making the best use out of the fuels available to us. And reducing our dependence on fuels in short supply.

At Texas Electric, natural gas is our major fuel, with oil used on a standby basis. We foresee shortages of these fuels and several years ago developed long-range plans to diversify to lignite coal and nuclear fuels.

We now have one lignite plant in operation and two others under construction. A nuclear-fueled plant is planned for operation by 1980.

One advantage of using lignite and nuclear fuels is that neither is being used extensively for any purpose other than the generation of electricity. A disadvantage is that it costs considerably more to build plants that use these fuels than gas-fired plants.

Even though it will cost more to provide electricity in the future, the cost will be less with lignite and nuclear fuels than with the alternatives available to us.

We're continuing the orderly development of our power system so that you'll continue having the electricity you need.

Texas Crop Sold As Salty Snack

AUSTIN--C-R-U-N-C-H. That may be the sound of a Texas potato.

According to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White, about half the 2,000 acres of spring potatoes from the Rio Grande Valley and nearly a third of the 18,000-acre summer crop on the High Plains end up as potato chips.

"And this makes it $90 million," says 6-year-old Alex Mera, as he hands UN Secretary General Kurt Waldheim a check for $7,696,000 payable to the United Nations Children's Fund. The contribution brings to more than $90 million the total raised by the U.S. Committee for UNICEF in the past 21 years from the annual "Trick or Treat" collection by American youngsters on Halloween, the sale of UNICEF greeting cards, and individual and corporate gifts. Sunnier Disposition for Bossy?

No claim is made for sunnier dispositions on the part of cows who eat it, but sunflower silage is the latest mouth-watering delicacy being fed dairy cattle.

The new cow food is being tested in Maryland, where researchers say sunflowers can be grown as a possible second crop following barley. Sunflowers grow fast and reach flowering stage in 60 days or less, when they can then be harvested as silage. Other unusual dairy crops on Bossy's menu include almond hulls in California, and potato pulp and meal in Maine.

Read Directions

New York—(HK)—The right of all Americans to have access to directions and warnings on product labels was first affirmed in 1927, when the Congress passed the Federal Caustic Poison Act. Yet educational efforts are still attempting to make people more aware of the need to heed such information.

The theme of a current public service campaign from the medicine industry's Council on Family Health is "Read Label Directions... Medicines Can't Help You If You Don't Take Them Right." The Council's messages include examples of how labels are frequently ignored when medicines are used carelessly or in haste.

ROUND the TOWN

By Sylvia Lohofener

Visitors in the John and Bertha Clement home on Tejas Drive last week were her sisters, Mrs. A.P. Yeary of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Oleta Bilbrey of Dallas and Mrs. Ola Gill of Lubbock. Mrs. Jewel Hickerson, a sister-in-law of this city, joined the group. They all went to Decatur on Sunday and visited their old school grounds where they all attended at one time. Mrs. Clement's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Noyce Silkwood of Odessa also visited here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Browning of Los Angeles, Calif. spent three weeks in Burk and a few days in Dallas recently. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Browning, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Browning, Mrs. Bob Browning and other relatives and visited Mrs. Herman Dodson in Ft. Worth, Rev. H. Mingas in Dallas and also Mr. and Mrs. Dubb Loftis in Richardson. The Brownings left for home one day last week returning via Colorado to visit others.

Mrs. Raymond (Maxine) Holland and son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Holland and little daughter Holly spent Mother's Day here with Maxine's mother, Mrs. Arthur Bunstine.

Mr. and Mrs. V.A. Spiegelhauer of Harlingen, Texas and her sister, Lois

Gaston of Wichita Falls visited their sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Minick in Burk one day last week. They were enroute for a months vacation in Colorado.

Atty. Charles E. Perry of Nacogdoches, Texas visited his aunt, Mrs. Grace Anderson, in Burk last week. They then drove to Sherman to visit Mrs. Anderson's sister, Mrs. Willette Pace, who returned home with Grace for a longer visit.

Mrs. Anna Freeman received word Tuesday of last week of the death of her son, Clifton Freeman of Oakland, Calif. Funeral rites and burial were in Oakland on Thursday. Clifton passed away after a long illness. He is survived by his wife, five children, his mother, two sisters and one brother. Anna was unable to attend the services.

Jasper Majors and family of Gautier, Miss. arrived last Friday for a visit in Burk with relatives and friends. He was a long time resident of this city and a member of one of Burkburnett's pioneer families, the M.W. Majors.

Mr. D.D. Brown, a retired Texas Company Plant Operator, of Electra passed away Monday after a long illness. He lived in Burk for many years and lived in Electra the past 17 years. Funeral arrangements are pending at this writing. He is survived by his wife, three sons, James, of Rhode Island, David, of Houston and Gene of Arlington, Texas.

Mrs. H.R. Garrett and Mrs. V.C. Miller of Graham, Texas spent Friday here visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. Ray Mills and husband.

Mrs. Frank (Ruth) Cauble of Costa Mesa, Calif. passed away Friday after a long illness. She is survived by her husband, two sisters, Mrs. W. Pail Stokes of Wichita Falls and Mrs. T. Guy Willis of Burkburnett, a son and three grandchildren. She was the daughter of a pioneer family of this area - the late Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Meyers.

Mrs. Abe Martin of this city received a call Saturday telling of the death of her brother, Jimmie Woodrome, 24, in Duncan, Okla. She left to be with the family and is in Duncan at this writing. He is survived by his wife and two small children.

Mr. and Mrs. R.H. Henry returned home Saturday from a visit with her son and wife in Shawnee, Okla. They attended the high school graduation exercises for her granddaughter, Deborah Beasley, who enrolled this week in Okla. State University for a summer course and will attend also this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Johnson enjoyed a ten day vacation trip visiting relatives in South Texas in Groveton with Paula and Bill Burnett and Beverly and David McClain and baby Missie in Livingston, Texas. While in Groveton their son, Dale Johnson and wife and family of Deer Park joined them all for a visit. They report the country lovely and the trip interesting.

Danny and Juanita Kinnett and family of Carthage, Texas are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S.M. Butts in this city and other relatives.

Mrs. J.H. Brumley had the misfortune of slipping and falling in the bath tub last week, fracturing a vertebrae in her back. She is in the Wichita General Hospital receiving X-rays and treatment.

Rev. and Mrs. William Penn attended Mrs. Penn's family reunion on Lake Dallas Saturday. Approximately 50 attended. A lovely picnic dinner was served. Her father, who is 84, is very active and enjoys fairly good health and especially enjoys company. Her mother, who is 80, goes fishing nearly every day and never tires of the sport. The high light of the reunion was the showing of the film of their first family reunion in 1956. Relatives from Center, Texas, Port Arthur, Baytown, Mt. Pleasant, Ft. Worth, Austin, Lubbock and Burkburnett attended.

Dr. Hubert S. Butts and daughter Janice of Baton Rouge, La. spent a couple of days here visiting his mother, Mrs. H.S. Butts. His wife, Mary stopped at Farmersville to visit her mother, Mrs. Clyde Reeves.

A delightful family get-together was held in the George Roberts home Saturday, May 25. A patio yard supper of hamburgers, chips, ice cream, cake and other goodies was served to 33 kin-folks. The following day (Sunday) all went to Hopewell, near Bowie, for their annual Decoration Day meeting. They enjoyed an old-time basket dinner and visit.

Mrs. H.O. (Hattie Smith) of Burk returned home last week from a wonderful five week trip to California. She visited her daughter, Shirley and husband, Dr. and Mrs. David Reed in Riverside and her brother, Douglas D. Smith in Monterey Park, Calif. David and Shirley's son was given an award from the Christian Youth Organization, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club in Riverside, followed by a beautiful banquet, while Hattie was there. She accompanied her brother Lenn Smith and wife of Wichita Falls to Calif. who were enroute to Hawaii on a tour. She also returned back home with Lenn and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Browning visited in the home of their daughter and husband, Donna and Bubb Loftis, in Richardson, Tex. Their other daughter, Mrs. Mary Margaret Boydston of Wichita Falls accompanied them.

Mrs. C.C. Taylor, who fell in her yard about ten days ago, injuring a hip, is still in the Wichita General Hospital receiving treatment. She hopes to return home this week but needs someone to stay and care for her in her home.

Weekly Health Tip
from JOE GILLESPIE

Each year, many people suffer from grease fires in pans. To put out a grease fire in the kitchen - smother it with a cover or inverted pan. Dump baking soda (not baking powder) on the flame. Baking soda creates carbon dioxide to smother the flames. Don't pour on water, it will cause the flame to flare up and may spatter the burning grease on you and around the room. In the absence of a fire extinguisher, a pound of baking soda is a good fire control to have handy in the kitchen.

Be Window Wise

Since windows can occupy as much as 30 percent of a home's exterior, they can account for a substantial amount of heat loss if they are not adequately insulated. Properly insulated windows, such as ponderosa pine units with the natural insulation of wood sash, insulating glass and factory-applied weatherstripping, can cut heat loss substantially. This conserves energy and lowers heating and cooling costs.

16,830,000,000 Pages!
That's Fantastic!

By Clarence Duncan

Three huge web offset presses work full time in printing The Living Bible in Versailles, Ky., Kingsport, Tenn., and Taunton, Mass. Already the 16½-million Bibles which have rolled off these presses have consumed a quantity of paper which, when loaded into railroad box cars, would stretch for six miles. That's 38,744,800 pounds of paper packed in 472 box cars.

Even the 15-inch binding cloth in each Bible, rolled out end to end, would reach from Washington, D.C., to Salt Lake City Utah... or 1,762 miles in any direction.

While aside from the actual message contained in each Living Bible, the ink used in printing these words has no meaning, the 311,000 pounds of the black stuff would fill six railroad tank cars... or a 35,000 gallon olympic swimming pool.

The pages of each of the Bibles are bound to the spine by a high strength nylon thread. Someone has figured that the amount of the thread used to produce the books would wrap around the earth's equator three and one half times. Or, if so inclined, one could fly a kite two-fifths of the way to the moon on this 97,462 miles of thread.

Each Bible has a cover board in front and in back. These are 5½ by 8¾ inches, and the quantity used thus far if they could be stacked so high, would reach 151 miles in the air. This is the distance between London, England, and Paris, France.

Much time is involved in the production of The Living Bible. So far, the presses have run 7,900 man hours, or four years of 40-hour work weeks for one person, with a two week vacation each year thrown in for good measure.

It takes that long to print 16,830,000,000 (16 billion—830 million) pages of Living Bible.

Nearly 17 million copies of The Living Bible have been sold since this paraphrased version by Dr. Kenneth N. Taylor was issued just after Thanksgiving in 1971. There is no way to measure the spiritual impact of this Bible in the idiom of the day, except to say it has been fantastic.

Sales of The Living Bible could have made Dr. Taylor a wealthy man, but they haven't. Every cent of the royalties from these Bibles goes into a foundation which underwrites the paraphrasing of the Bible in over 100 languages other than English.

When this task is completed, approximately 93 percent of the world's population will be able to read the Bible in a contemporary version of its own native language.

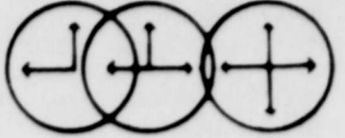

Clarence E. Duncan is a widely read religion writer and is a contributing editor to many Southern Baptist publications.

GOD'S FIVE MINUTES

JUST LIKE ME?

A young man had returned to our town with a degree from the best school in our state. He took up his life as a popular partner in his father's prospering business. It was easy to see that every advantage was his.

I admired him from afar. "I, too, could be popular," I said to myself, "if I were in his shoes instead of mine."

I didn't dwell on the matter. I certainly didn't burn with envy, but I did feel that fate had dealt me a less likely hand than his.

Then, one day, I was called to another pastorate in a distant city. On my last day as I said goodbye to friends, he handed me a letter which he asked me not to open until I was gone.

Following his request, I opened it after I left town. He had written that fate had dealt him a less viable hand than mine. He told how empty of real accomplishment his life was and that if he had the courage, he would like to be just like me.

I think it was then I learned, once and for all, of the mockery of the greener grass on the other side of the fence.

Remember, you are a child of God. Strive to be the best you can be.

Major Ward Receives Army Commendation

Four Army Engineer officers who are completing tours of duty in the Tulsa District and will leave for new assignments during June have received Army Commendation Medals for meritorious service to the District, according to Col. John G. Driskill, District Engineer.

They are Major Michael Ward, Burkburnett, Texas, Waurika Lake Resident Office; Major Frederick E. Parker, Ponca City, Kaw Dam Resident Office; Major Stacy Bragg, Guymon, Optima Dam Resident Office; and Major Bryon E. Byerley, Tulsa, assigned to the Reservoir Branch at the District

Office and formerly to the DeQueen, Arkansas Resident Office. All were military assistants to the resident engineers at the construction projects.

Burkburnett's Major Ward, who came to the Tulsa District in July, 1972, was cited for his untiring efforts and professional acumen exhibited in the solution of a variety of complex problems in connection with the construction of Waurika Dam. Major Ward's new assignment will be with the 559th Engineer Battalion, Hanau, Germany.

Mrs. Minnie Benton's Son Receives "Emmy"

Douglas Benton, son of Mrs. Minnie M. Benton of Burkburnett, received a television "Emmy" Award during the special telecast last Tuesday, May 28, for his work in producing segments of NBC's "Columbo" series, which is shown monthly as part of Sunday's Mystery Movie. Actor Richard Chamberlain announced the award.

Mrs. Benton said that she was watching the program and sipping a cup of coffee when her son's name was announced and he hurried to the stage to receive the award. "I yelled and ran to the T.V. to get a closer look, but by then he had given his speech and was off," stated Mrs. Benton.

She added about her son, "His whole family is happy for him. He has worked hard; and 'Oscars', 'Tonys', and 'Emmys' are hard to come by."
