BURKBURNETT'S BETTER HOUSING CAMPAIGN TO BE LAUNCHED TODAY

Plan Fostered by Federal Housing Administration to Seek Needed Work for Idle Men and Money Among Property Owners Requiring Improvements

Today marks the beginning of the Burkburnett Better Housing Program fostered by the Federal Housing Administration. The program is expected to set thousands of this city's idle dollars and many idle men to work while aiding recovery in the vast field of building trades and industries.

"The purpose of this program," explained Chairman Roberts "is to encourage wide-spread repairing and modernizing of residential and commercial properties. It is a part of the Nation-wide Better Housing Program which is being conducted under the provisions of Title I of the National Housing Act recently passed by Congress and put into operation by the Federal Housing Administration.

Workers and solicitors will meet at the office of the Chamber of Commerce where instructions will be given to those who make a canvass of the resident and business property. The town has been divided into sections with a captain appointed to serve for each section. The workers will be asked to visit each home and make known to the residents the fact that money can be had from the Federal Housing Administration to make repairs upon property. Notes of needed repairs, interest of home owners in the campaign, whether or not the resident is an owner or a renter and other information concerning the fixing up of the premises and property.

The Housing committee requests that the workers be admitted to their property and permitted to explain their mission concerning the repairing of homes in order to make the property more valuable. It is added further that the Committee or any of the workers will not make any attempt to persuade residents to buy any kind of property or material or to employ any certain person or persons. The whole purpose of the campaign is: first, to acquaint the public with the working of the National Housing Act, and second, to get them to notice the needed repairs, which will relieve unemployment if such repairs are made.

The Committee Sectional Captains are J. H. Brumley, Oscar Kemp, R. C. Tevis, H. S. Grace, J. D. Majors, Herman Brown, Fred Elliot, R. C. Elder, Frank Kelly, D. C. McNeill.

"Collateral will not be required for these loans", Mr. Roberts continued, "except in some cases in which the State law requires the institution to take security. This is true of some building and loan associations and savings banks, but the

An old timer around Burkburnett is one who can remember when the only abbreviation we had were RFD BVD and PDQ.

The reason preachers prove poor customers for second-hand cars is because they don't have the vocabulary needed to run them.

Temple, Okla., Nov. 1.—Three young men robbed the First State bank of $1,800, about 10:15 o'clock Thursday morning, took five men as hostage and joked with them for a mile before releasing them north-east of town.

Officers were notified of the robbery almost immediately and a posse headed by Sheriff L. C. Henderson followed the bandit car to a point three miles from Comanche where the trail was lost. A plane belonging to the Halliburton Oil Well Cementing company was pressed into service and was flying over the vicinity in the hope of picking up the trail of the bandits.

RESOLUTION

Be it resolved that we, the Burk Parent-Teachers Association, go on record as protesting the tax shifting amendment.

This amendment would restrict the total revenue that the State may collect and spend during each biennium to $22.50 per inhabitant.

Be it further resolved that we protest the university land tax amendment.

This amendment would tax University lands for county and school purposes, said taxes to be paid from the University Fund which is now used to reduce the cost to the taxpayer of Texas of operating the University and A. & M. College.

Committee on Resolutions Mrs. W. D. Bent, Chairman Mrs. Neal Hall

The results secured to date by the various workers has been mighty gratifying and we are well pleased with the way our readers are assisting in this drive.

There is still plenty of room for a wide-awake worker to join this contest and by getting down to business in a hurry win this beautiful bed room suite. And remember, every subscription turned in a per cent goes to the P-T. A. and will be used for underprivileged boys and girls of this community.

Suspend Work On Renovation Of Courthouse

The commissioners court in special session Thursday morning ordered repairing and renovation work on the courthouse suspended indefinitely, beginning at noon.

This action was taken after a large group of local paint dealers, represented by Judge A. H. Carrigan, had appeared before the court and objected to the manner in which paint materials were being purchased. Judge Carrigan maintained that competitive bids should have been obtained and acted upon by the court before the paint was purchased.

Fred Brittan was taken from the Burkburnett clinic to his home south of town Thursday in an Owens and Brumley ambulance.

The wise man is one who can see the truth in the midst of excitement that others will see when they calm down.

The only men who are broad-minded enough to see both sides are the ones who didn't give a darn.

WILL IT EVER HAPPEN?

Wouldn't it be wonderful if some boy or girl would return home from college and, for once, say to their parents: "Now folks, you've been doing things for me for 22 years. I'm going to pitch in and help you out. Just tell me what you want me to do." We suppose the average Burkburnett father or mother would fall in a faint upon hearing such an announcement, and they might feel like calling a doctor to examine the graduate's head. Yet that is the language every one of them should use upon returning home to put their feet under the parental table. In every case in which a boy or girl is sent to college from this community it requires sacrifice on the part of their parents. When they return home they have a chance to show their appreciation of that sacrifice. Up to this time, however, an amazingly small number of them have displayed their appreciation. And sometimes, after observing the way they spend their time after graduation one wonders if they ever will.

LET'S CUT THIS DOWN

Some staggering figures covering the loss through insect pests have just been given out by Dr. I. L. Ressler, noted scientist. With the figures he argues for a still greater conservation of bird life, and shows that if we permit the birds to perish a famine is sure to follow. It is a plea that should be heeded by every man, woman and child around Burkburnett and one that will, if ignored and bird life is permitted to perish, bring actual starvation to countless thousands.

The figures issued by the scientist show the cotton farmer is the heaviest sufferer from insect pests, the boll weevil inflicting an annual damage of $164,500,000. But other insect pests cause an annual damage of $829,419,900 to staple crops; $64,894,000 to vegetable crops; $42,504,400 to fruits; and $7,737,200 to nursery and greenhouse products. Still other insects result in an annual loss of $140,989,000 to livestock; $300,000,000 to stored products, and $130,000,000 to forestry products.

Insects are the enemies of mankind. They may be combatted by chemicals, and they also may be combatted by encouraging bird life. Birds are the natural enemies of insects, and although they cannot do a satisfactory job of reducing the number of insect pests without the aid of chemicals, bird life should be fostered to the end that the birds may help in its endless fight against destructive insects.

The old-fashioned way was to put teeth into laws but now all they add is more jawbone.

In another month or two it will probably be necessary to get a government loan to finance the purchase of a pork roast or a couple of yards of sausage.

Nothing more has been heard of that Georgia boy who swallowed 30c and coughed up a dime. Didn't he ever declare a second dividend?

Price-fixing would work only for the fact that when you rob Peter to pay Paul then you've got to tax Paul to feed Peter.

The reason preachers prove poor customers for second-hand cars is because they don't have the vocabulary to run them. Why not place a wrecked car at each dangerous curve? Drivers always slow down to look at a wreck.

Big Rabbit Creek

Mr. John Ashton and family were trading and transacting business in Temple, Okla. Saturday.

Mr. John Martin, who is a prosperous farmer in the Kansas Hall neighborhood, was transacting business over in Burkburnett Saturday.

Hawkeye and his better half and their neighbor and his family, J. B. Fletcher were shopping over in Burkburnett Saturday forenoon.

Mr. Robert Williams motored up to Lawton, Okla., Sunday morning to get his wife and married daughter, Mrs. Melvin Bridges, who has been staying in Lawton for the past week. Mrs. Bridges has been taking treatments under Dr. Bollie.

This neck of the woods was visited with a dry norther Saturday. It was thought by everyone that it was a four-runner for a big frost last night. But the frost didn't come at this writing, and the norther has gone by, leaving it nice and warm again.

It is sure getting dry again. Several of the farmers had to quit drilling in their fall oats, due to the dry condition of their oat ground. There isn't enough moisture to bring up the oats. Most of the farmers have to wait for a good rain before they can finish sowing.

Mr. Charlie Nails called on the Owens family Sunday morning and spent awhile visiting.

Mr. Robert Williams son, Cecil, and his son-in-law, Melvin Bridges, left Sunday morning to work 12 miles north of Randlett on a highway project. With their two teams they will get $4.45 per day.

When the Burkburnett Star arrived in the homes of its many readers, the multitude of Mr. I. E. Harwell, president of the First National Bank in Burkburnett, friends were grieved to hear of Mr. Harwell's misfortune of losing one of his eyes, as the paper stated. Mr. Harwell will arrive back home Sunday from Mineral Wells and will remain home with his wife and family until Tuesday, when he will leave for Dallas and be placed under the best eye specialist in the State of Texas. It's hoped by Mr. Harwell's many friends that he will soon be back at his post, attending to the bank's business.

Three-fourths of the Big Rabbit Creek community was over in Burkburnett Saturday, shopping and transacting business.

As the writer was coming home from Burkburnett Saturday afternoon, he stopped at his friend, J. T. Days filling station at the north end of the bridge, to get some gas. J. T. was just as busy as a hunting dog, waiting on his customers His little daughter was also assisting Bro. Jim. The cars were lined up waiting their turn. Bro. J. T. has run his filling station at that location for a good many years. Since he has been in the filling station business, he has won many friends far and near, both new and old. His motto has been, and is still the same "Live and Let Live." He handles the best of gas and the very best of oils and his prices for his gas and oil is as cheap as any filling station in Texas or Oklahoma and his courtesy is shown to everyone, little, big and small.

Again a few more slogans for the many Burkburnett readers. The value of carefulness cannot be measured, and it cost you nothing. Careless workmen never make good and are frequently injured. "Carelessness, carelessness" is the cry of a flat wheel. In the modern scheme of things waste has to go. Accidents are a waste. Save life and expense by using good sense. The place for the knocker is out side the door. The rest of your days depends on the rest of your nights. The man who wakes and finds himself famous, hasn't been asleep. —HAWKEYE

LUCKY GIRL
Her mother felt that family physicians and child specialists, and the hospitals must be right. A simple test that proves they are.
If anyone in your family is occasionally sluggish or constipated; especially any child, you should know this medical truth:
You cannot get safe relief with any medicine if you cannot regulate the dose. And to regulate dosage, you should have a liquid laxative. With a liquid laxative, you can gradually reduce the dose. And that is the secret of safe relief from a sluggish, constipated condition.
Why Doctors Use Liquid Laxatives
A liquid laxative can be measured. Its action can be thus controlled. If properly made, of natural laxative elements like senna and cascara, it forms no habit—even in the youngest child. And such a laxative will help the bowels to help them-selves, not make matters worse.
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative containing herbs, active senna, and cascara, and is the one widely used. You can always obtain it at any drug-store. Why not make the "liquid test" which has attracted so much attention of late? It helps nearly everyone who tries it. It may make you feel better than you have in a long time.
If you will risk sixty cents to discover the natural, comfortable relief of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin believe bowel worrier is usual for your household in whose use when

MRS. STRONG AND DAUGHTER, NANCY
"Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin brought relief at once," says Mrs. A. G. Strong of 34-47 80th St., Jackson Heights, N.Y.

Third Grade Enjoys Hallowe'en Party

Mid the many ghosts and spooks assembled for frolic on Hallowe'en night, the Low Third. One class enjoyed two hours of fun in the home of Miss Grace Kreager, their teacher.

The masqueraders were greeted at the window by the Old Witch who directed them to Host Ghost. When all the guests had assembled the Witch led them through her tunnel, and those who arrived safely at her hut were given a fortune. Some minutes were spent with the fortunes before Helen Leach determined the meaning and rushed ahead to find the hidden treasure.

The guests then paraded before judges to determine the best costume. Jean Willis, dressed as an old witch with her broom and cat, was awarded first prize. In the other games and contests following, those receiving prizes were Rubynelle Russell, Velta Brookman, and L. F. Smith.

The Old Witch served refreshments to Lois Audrain, Lewis Audrain, Marjorie Brashears, Velta Brookman, Dorothy Browning, Peggy Dot Bushy, Delpha Finch, Billie Louise Gamble, Charlsie Grace, June Golden, Donald Hageman, Peggie Jean Hankins, Billy Jo Hothan, Jean Howard, Allyne Jeffers, Claire Mae Jenkins, Helen Leach, Stephen Marchand, Howard Mathews, Tommy McPherson, Joella Morris, Clara Mae Parker, Hazel Rainey, Le Roy Reed, Rubynelle Russell, Billie Ruth Shafer, Katherine Smith, L. ## Calvary Baptist Tabernacle

Wednesday night was another great service at Calvary Baptist Church.

The series of doctrinal messages on the controverted doctrines of the Bible are creating a great interest in the Wednesday night services. On last Wednesday night the pastor brought another message on the two ordinances of the church. There was quite a crowd came over from Duncan, Oklahoma to hear this message. The brought several candidates to be baptised in our new baptistry.

We are looking forward to another great day on next Sunday. The Bible School starts at 10:45. Brother X. L. Minnick is the superintendent. All classes study the 14th chapter of Luke.

If you have never seen our church in action at the Sunday School hour you will be interested in the work we are doing. Come and bring your Bible and take part with us. We use nothing but the Bible.

At the eleven o'clock hour the pastor will speak on the subject "The Completing Church" and at 6:30 the young people will gather at the Tabernacle for an hour of Bible

Intermediate Dept. Enjoys Real Nice Hallowe'en Party

Officers and teachers of the Intermediate Department of the Baptist church entertained pupils of the department with a Hallowe'en party at the church Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John Brookman directed the games and each was met at the door by ghosts and asked to remove their shoes and walk over the spring entrance which led them to ghost land where spooky stories were told and various parts of a dead man was passed about the room for each one to judge in the dark with the light turned out.

About ninety were present to enjoy the spooky time.

It would never do to enforce all the laws in this country. Some of us have to stay out of jail to support the others.

There have been lots of family reunions this summer and of course everybody had something nice to say about all the others.

And remember this. It never pays to judge a Burkburnett man's worth by his statements to the tax assessor.

Blessed is the nobody who has nothing for then the government won't always be nagging at him.

Breaks Give Olney Victory Over Burk

Smokey Shafer
The powerful Bulldogs fell under the tricky attack of the grid machine from Olney 19 to 6 before about 2,500 hoarse, wild eyed fans. This game was much closer than indicated by the score. Orange and black was seen in possession of the ball and slashing thru the red and white during most of the game, with the exception of those times Olney chose to try some new trick. Olney scored in the opening of the second quarter taking advantage of 30 yards gained by penalties, which pushed the Dogs far into their own territory. Kelly was rushed in to the game for the Cubs and Olney took to the air. Three passes were incomplete and on the fourth pass also incomplete Burk received a penalty of five yards for offsidess, this giving Olney another down and a five yard advantage. The fifth pass Kelly to Tinker was good. Tinker took the pass across the goal line with two Bulldog tacklers hanging on to him. Wolverton kicked the extra point.

There was no more scoring until the opening of the third quarter when Kelly was again put in the game for Olney and on the third play he called a fake which made it possible for Wolverton to race 33 yards down the sidelines, giving them a second score. The kick for extra point was low. In the latter part of the third period Haley raced 30 yards on a lateral pass to place the ball once more in scoring position. The pigskin was bucked to the one foot line from where Goodloe plunged it over. The kick for extra point failed.

Burkburnett Scores
Late in the fourth quarter the Olney line began to weaken and a Bulldog drive was not halted until the 4 yard line was reached. Olney's kick was poor and went out of bounds on their own 27 yard line. The Bulldogs still clicking completed one pass for 13 yards and three line plunges carried the ball to the two yard line. Wheeler plunged it over for the Bulldogs' only tally. The kick for extra point was blocked.

Opinion
The Olney line failed to stop either Sims, our Red Grange of Burkburnett, or Wheeler who has yet to be stopped by any class B line. The Olney boy's just got the breaks and played headsup football to defeat the Bulldogs. The blame for the defeat cannot be centered on any one man or part of the Bulldog machine. It just happened. The black and orange Dogs made more first downs, gained more yards from scrimmage, made more 20 yd. penetrations and equalled the Cubs in passing. Although defeat was bitter these facts make it less so, and shows the fans what kind of a team Coach Hill has.

I am a student and know these boys personally and talk to them most every day and I'll tell you they aren't whipped by any means yet. They were fighting as hard in the last few minutes of the game as in the first quarter, and had the Olney machine slipping and giving ground. This defeat has left them a sadder but wiser team for any good team profits by their mistakes. Coach Hill is giving the boys a rest before the training for the Crowell bout starts. We are not out of the conference race by a long ways yet and he wants to have the best team possible in the Crowell game.

The team appreciates the loyal support given them by the town and their manner of showing it is by the way they play. If you fans will continue your support they will show you how a fighting team stages a comeback.

The team to a man looks forward eagerly to the Crowell invasion and when these scrapping Bulldogs want something, "Look Out Crowell!" (Mr. Todd).

Assembly Program

The assembly program Monday, October 29, was called for the purpose of discussing the football game last Friday night when the Bulldogs battled with the Olney Cubs.

The Pep Squad gave some yells after which Mr. Hill gave an inspiring talk. Mr. Westerfield talked to the students about the grades made during the first six weeks and urged the pupils to study more and make better grades.

Pep Squad News

The pep squad worked very earnestly Friday night to aid the boys in winning the game. They know that the boys did the very best they could and the pep squad is very proud of the way they played the game. The squad wants the boys to know that they will be ready to stand by them again when the time comes for them to play Crowell.

Local FFA Chapter

The Burkburnett Chapter of Future Farmers of America held its second regular meeting Monday, October 29, at the Burkburnett High School. There were several members absent including some of the officers but nevertheless there was a good meeting.

Several things were discussed and decided upon and the boys have lots of work ahead of them for the coming year. They have decided to have a corn-husking contest between FFA members and the farmers of this section.

We discussed several events for the coming year which we hope will benefit the future and welfare of the community around Burkburnett. The following things were decided upon: Father and Son Banquet, community poultry, diary and colt show, terracing farm land, culling hens for egg production, have junior cow testing team, and similar other events. All events named above have committees working on them. The boys are expecting to get something done.

Winning

It takes a little courage
And a little self-control,
And some grim determination
If you want to reach a goal.

It takes a deal of striving,
And a firm and stern-set chin,
No matter what the battle,
If you're really out to win.

There's no easy path to glory,
There's no rosy road to fame,
Life, however we may view it,
Is no simple parlor game;

But its prizes call for fighting,
For endurance and for grit,
For a rugged disposition
And a "don't know when to quit."

You must take a blow or give one,
You must risk and you must lose,
And expect that in the struggle
You will suffer from a bruise.

But you mustn't wince or falter,
If a fight you once begin,
Be a man and face the battle—
That's the only way to win.
—Selected.

After Teaching Days

Have you ever stopped to think about what a school teacher will be able to do when he, or she, is thru teaching school? Someone suggested that this might be interesting to the students. With much questioning (for some of the teachers are rather timid about things of this kind) the following "dope" has been secured:

Miss Morgan says that she hopes to be the cook, proprietor and cashier of a hot dog stand. After the practice he has been able to obtain from the parking of the cars at the football games, Mr. Culpepper has decided to be a traffic cop.

Miss Billingslea expects (and deserves) to teach the grand children of the President Latin. (Don't you think that teaching the subject in B. H. S. would be a good recommendation for anyone?)

Mr. Duncan (the man of few words) states briefly that by the time he is through teaching he will be ready for the old folks home.

We have another example of great minds running in the same channel. Mr. Hill says he expects to join some institution of this kind (the only thing, he expects it to be the insane asylum, as soon as the Crowell game is played).

Miss Gorin, the one whose mind is always on her library work, hopes to be a janitor in the President's Library.

Mr. Blackwell hopes to put his shorthand and typing to some practical use by being either a radio announcer or an editor of a newspaper.

When asked for a statement regarding what he would like to do when he has retired from long years of teaching Mr. Forman states that he will of course have enough money saved to live on. Then to pass the time he is going to count the gray hairs and name the student who caused each.

For twenty-five years Mr. Reeves has been wanting to tour the world; so after retiring from school teaching he is planning on doing this as a railroad tramp.

In riding the fence for the last four weeks, Mr. Everhart has had enough experience to be a very good cowboy.

From all indications a number of the teachers expect to "sponge" off the state, even Mr. Johnson is going to be in the old folks' home for feeble-minded.

Miss McClure, within ten years expects to be a president of the YWCA.

Miss Dunaway after her many years of experience as a teacher expects (or hopes) to be a matron in a reformatory for girls.

Mr. Westerfield would make a very good manager of an orphan's home.

Miss Ford likes her secretarial work and thinks she would possibly like to be secretary of Miss McClure's YWCA. At the same time she would have had enough training (from making announcements) to be the world's champion hog caller. (If there is any farmer that needs one, inquire at the office for same.)

Mr. Robison hopes to be the world's ping pong champion.

Miss Kirby still has her hopes of "being promoted." Her highest expectations are to "jarable" (in case you don't know, it's a Spanish dance) in the Metropolitan Opera House.

Miss Westbrook will be Baron Nunchausen's wife.

By that time Miss Michie expects to be in her grave.

To the student body—won't it be a grand life when all of this has happened. It is supposed that this will be the great life that we've heard about so much (if we don't weaken before then.)

20-Year Reminiscence Of Mr. Robison

By Melba Clark

It's been twenty years taught that first year English. Oh, what a bunch they were were twelve pupils in the Let me see. Oh yes, Kenneth and G. D. Scruggs. G. that little runt of a boy, and ryan Hatcher, no, it was Houser and Owen Hatcher. That red headed girl? They her "Carrot-top." I believe Billie Jo Estes. I remember Parker, La Ferne McCaig, Lassater and Patricia Rhea Chamber, Melba Clark in there too. They were regular.

Look at what they are today. Billie Jo just set a new record for women. G. D. Scruggs is a gigolo dancer with Duke Ellington's orchestra. La Ferne McCaig matron in a Sorority house at Belmont. If I remember it right Sybil Lassater won a beauty test at Atlantic City, New Jersey last summer. Hatcher was Junior football team that year then he has been an All-American half-back, but now he's a ball coach at Dartmouth.

The last time I heard of Crisey, was when she married Jacob Astor the Fourth. She her name has appeared first in the society columns.

As for Kathryn Houser, I never too well. She was the always knew what I asked couldn't say it. That line passed while, but it got old soon. faces she made! She thought n't see them but I did. Now nurse in an orphan's home.

Melba Clark is another member too well. She talked the time and her writing was legible. Why I passed her, I know. She married the so "unmarryable" Price of Wales is now the King of England.

Kenneth Whitton was a good He didn't make as much as the other kids did. He now in position filled by Clark Gable twenty years ago. One of the I expected to see was her a Matinee Idol.

Georgia Parker has just all the cups and medals for ming at the Olympic Games.

Patricia Polston is famous world over for her beautiful She holds a prominent place radio stars.

Last and almost least is Chambers. Rhea developed for speeding, so now she's a feminine Barney Oldfield. Her mind would have worked faster when she was going to she might have made better. But perhaps it was the teacher not the pupil.

What's this? A telegram! "Dear Mr. Robison: This is merely to congratulate on having lived twenty years teaching our English class."

"Signed: Kathryn Houser, Mrs. J. H. Houser, Rhea Chambers, Patricia Polston, Queen of England, G. D. Scruggs, Billie Jo Estes, La Ferne McCaig, Sybil Lassater, Owen Hatcher, G. D. Scruggs, Kenneth Houser."

Why I Go To School

By Patricia Polston
Diogenes sought with a at noontide in Ancient Athens a perfectly honest man, and in vain. In the market place he cried aloud, "Hear me, O men when a crowd gathered around he said scornfully: "I called for and not pygmies." Over the every occupation, every calling world has a standing advertisement.

"Wanted—A man, A woman who will do it for me." I hood wanted to know the everything, so that is one reasons I go to school. At learn about pioneer statesmen, diers, merchants, inventors, leaders of industry. There's graphy, travel, government, commerce and science. So why standpoint I have many for going to school.

I go to school because I think it is a very interesting place. You learn many useful things you can use in later life. First I go to school because I was intelligent and be a credit family instead of a disappointment. I want to be prepared so friends won't be ashamed when they meet me in later more education a person's more ability he has for doing I want to be prepared to do of myself in later life. Also not forget to mention the ships and associations that going to school, because school days the happiest.

studying the fundamentals of the game and hope to improve my way.

Sophomore's Highest Ambition

1. Veleta Beavers is our one. We are sure Veleta would like very much to be popular. She is sure heading that way, too.

2. Next we have James Smith Jr. Gee, what a villain he will make. From the stories "Smitty" reads, he is bound to be something on that line.

3. Just give Inez Choate a peppy music and she'll show you what she can do. Inez says she would like to be a radio star. She hopes to be another song bird and a tap dancer. We hope she is.

4. John Martin, Jr. is gonna be a star basket ball player if he keeps on. We aren't sure, but we believe that is where he wants to be. Come on John.

5. Nadine Pfeifer has in mind to be a grand music teacher. Her hopes are to be able to play a piano real well.

6. Here we have another Babe Ruth right here in Randlett. Yes, we're sure Oliver Cullum will follow him.

7. Winnie Merl Rose is so quite we feel like she has in mind being an ideal wife for some young man. Eh, Winnie?

8. Iva Bledsoe studies so much now that there is no mistake about him being a teacher.

9. Vera Miller hopes to be a great artist. From the way she goes at it now, there is plenty of chances.

10. John Kinniard is our farmer. At least we hope that we have one honest farmer from the class.

11. Evelyn Simmons is our one little queen. If she isn't careful she's gonna make Hollywood in a big way. Just another Janet Gaynor.

12. Elbert B. Reeves is our swell tennis player. Beady's ambitions are to be the champ.

13. Mary Kathryn Byrn's hopes are to be able to sink the basket ball goals on the All-American basket ball team.

14. Manuel Braden is going to be our trapper, I guess. I think he has already won the name.

15. Samantha Hatcher wants to settle down and be happy. Well, we will all try to make her that way.

Sophomores Entertain

The Sophomores entertained in assembly Wednesday morning. Every one seemed to enjoy the program very much. Our sponsor, Mrs. McCall, seemed to try very hard to make it interesting. From the applause that the students got, she surely must have succeeded. By having play practice, Tuesday night we got up our parts easily.

Freshmen News

The Freshman class is glad to say that they have the largest class in all high school. There are twenty four members in our class. Three of the twenty four have dropped but we hope they can start back soon. The Freshman class has elected its class colors. No! Not green and white, but orchid and gold.

Saturday, October 10th, the Freshman class had a weiner roast. We are glad to report that everyone had a nice time.

We are sorry to say that our queen was dropped from the list of Carnival Queens.

Fifth and Sixth Grade News

Everyone is getting the Halloween spirit fast. Plans have been made and tickets sold for our carnival Wednesday night. Each child in the room has made his own hat and is working out his part of the project.

We plan to have a mad man from Madagocis here, the only one in captivity, a dwarf man and woman aged 35 and 30 respectively who are about 3 1/2 feet high, the missing link, the world's most famous bareback rider and a balloon full of fortunes.

Eldon Spannagel and Gale Hayes tied for first place on the sixth tray test this month. Johnnie Bernice Gilbert was second.

Carl Owen Best scored highest in the fifth grade with Ersu Whitehead and Elizabeth Marrow tied for second place.

Senior Snips

The Senior Class had a called meeting Tuesday, October 23, to select a motto, a flower, a color, and athletic councilman, and to decide how the class will be represented at the Hallowe'en Carnival, Wednesday, October 31.

The motto: "The road called toil leads to the city called Success" was chosen. The flower, Nasturtium, color, orange and white; member of athletic council, Milton Winkles. They decided to have an "old time store" at the Hallowe'en Carnival.

The senior class of Fairview wishes to thank the merchants of Thrift and of Burk Burnett for their cooperation in so willingly making the donations for their country store on Hallowe'en night. There was only one store contacted that refused to make a donation, all the rest responded very kindly and generously and this entire community appreciates this generosity very much.

The following is a list of the donations: Owens & Brumley, a large mirror; Paymaster Flour, 6 lb. sack of flour; Cannon Drug Store, 1 lb. box of candy; A. & P. Grocery Store, 2 cans pork and beans; Collier Bros. $1.00 box shot gun shells; Thaxton's butcher knife; Parker Grocery, 6 lb. sack of flour; Majors Variety Store, box of 22 shells; Boyd Bros., 4 cigars; Leonard's Grocery, bottle of olives; Whitehouse Grocery, 1 jar pickles; Oil City News Stand, 1 lb. box of candy; Betty Anne Bakery, 1 doz. doughnuts.

Sophomore Snooping

Imagine Lenora letting anyone wear a new coat!

Mildred Seidlets saying all of their chickens had "craws" in Biology class.

Marian Sopher has gone 'banging'. Johnny Adair has a weary face and a look toward Wichita this week.

The Sophomores are wondering if Albert will ever learn to leave fire alone. You know it burns!

Scotty is always willing to leave the study hall to help the janitor.

Dorothy Siber didn't go with the Home Economics Girls Saturday.

Freshman's Brag-Abouts

CAN YOU IMAGINE

Any of the Freshman students asking for gum?

Leon Brown saying that was the first movable seat he had ever seen?

Rosalie being a pep squad leader?

A new Freshman in our class?

The Fish are very glad to welcome Jack Bryarley in their class and hope he likes it.

V. D. B. wants Zella to get her ring back from—

Lercy having to be sent to Mr. Watkins.

The Freshman class getting a new president?

The Freshman class having hard algebra 1 problems?

Mary Francis Goins not coming to the basket ball game?

Dorothy Lane pulling up a chair and being ill the next day?

Thelda Siedlets looking over the study hall?

The Freshman class called a class meeting October 24. The purpose was to elect a new president and to discuss the carnival. They elected Rosalie president. They also decided to use the shuffle board at the carnival.

Sixth Grade News

The sixth grade has been working hard to be the best class in Fairview and with Miss Armstrong as a sponsor they are sure of success.

There is one dark cloud over the sixth grade, Mrs. L. D. Studyvin, class mother, is going to move. They are all very sad to have their class mother leave and because of this they are giving a party at Virginia Spencer's home, Oct. 29.

First Grade News

Kenneth Gibson brought two books to school: Our Gang & Regular Fellers. He brought a pretty picture of the "Old Woman Who Lives in a Shoe" and also brought Hallowe'en decorations.

Come out and have fun Wednesday night at the Hallowe'en carnival. Be sure to have your fortune told by "Gitana" the queen of the gypsies. She is a world authority on palm reading.

"Motion picture actresses should never marry," declares one of the stars. Well, most of them seem to reach that conclusion about once every six months.

Sportsmanship

Sportsmanship is a very large word and has a very large meaning. Football and basketball season is here and everyone is thinking in terms of winning, losing good sports and bad sports what does each of those words mean to you?

It doesn't always mean the participants when sportsmanship show sportsmanship as well.

It is often said that when a team is "down" the home town fans lose interest and fail to support the team. That is the time when sportsmanship falls. Would you like to play with a football eleven of basket ball five that no one supported? No, you wouldn't and neither would any one else.

Won is a sweet sounding word to a team after a hard struggle, and "lost" is usually a bitter word. If the community could only know the feelings of each individual player perhaps the word "lost" wouldn't mean everything. It isn't easy to face defeat with a smile. If the eleven or five you are supporting fails to line up victory, but still have smiling faces, admire them for that thing called sportsmanship, which means more than simply being a good winner.

What Boys Dislike Most About Girls

After interviewing quite a few high school boys and some men teachers, I find that the main thing they have against the fair sex is our egotism. Over half the boys agreed on that.

A few of the others had different opinion, they think we're to fickle, talk too much and can't keep a secret.

I had one boy to tell me we are a "pain in the neck" and always getting our "dear" opposite sex into trouble. Dear, dear, woe be unto us!

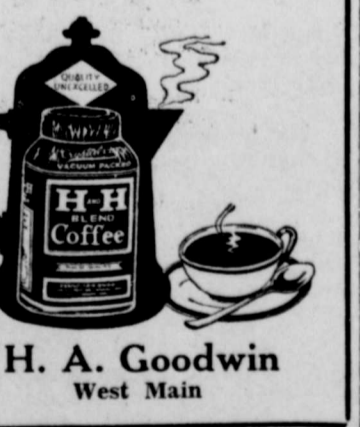

It has also been agreed that a girl's personality, speech, and personal grooming help a boy to decide whether or not he likes her. I think, perhaps, the most interesting opinion was this—"a girl is not willing to work, she wants to marry for money and she doesn't want to settle down and make a home."

After telling this person that he didn't know us he said "Well, most of them are ashamed to admit it, then."

Well, girls, you can't blame me if you don't get a boy friend now. You should know how.

Are Athletes Dumb-Bells

I do not think athletes are dumb-bells because if they were they would not be athletes. A real athlete has to listen to what his coach or trainer has to say at all times. If he were a dumb-bell, he would hear what his coach said, but it would not sink through his brain fast enough to do him any good. A basket ball player has to be fairly quick witted or, in other words, has to "catch 'em" easily. If he were a dumb-bell, he could not learn all the different plays that are connected with the game. A track man has to be fairly smart, for there are several things about track that requires quick thinking and good thinking. A football player especially has to be quick witted for he has to think and do something all at the same time. If an athlete is a dumb-bell, he is not a true athlete.

The Home Economics Club was invited to Prairie Point Saturday, October 27, for a district meeting.

About twenty-one went from Fairview. The truck took them there. They left about 8 o'clock and got back at 6 o'clock. Each school sponsored a stunt. A very enjoyable time was had by everyone. Next February the district meeting will be held at Nocona.

Beat Grain Thieves

Two hundred million bushels and more of grain is the annual toll levied by grain thieves upon America's cereal crops—a terrific loss in profits to the grain growers of this country. These thieves play no favors, but levy their toll on every grain grower except those that know how to prevent their pilfering.

They travel under the alias of stinking smut of wheat, smuts of oat, and covered smut and stripe of barley. How these thieves can be beaten is shown in the interesting entertaining movie "Grain Thieves". This film reveals how these thieves hide on or in the seed, how they operate after the seed has been planted, what effect they have on the stand, yields and market value of the crop. In it you see the actual growth of grain and the effect of barley stripe, one of the grain thieves, on the plant. The life story of smut and the close-ups of the principal seed borne diseases of grains, also the various steps in marketing a grain crop including inspection, dockage, and dumping a carload of grain at the terminal elevator are interesting features of this film.

This film is being shown at the Palace Theatre, Friday and Saturday, November 2 and 3 through the courtesy of C. P. Logan.

"Bottoms Up" At The Tex

"Bottoms Up" which opens Sunday at the Tex Theatre, is reported to be rich in comedy, romance and the glamour of Hollywood. Against this background, Buddie DeSylva has filmed a romantic story.

"Pat" Patterson, charming importation from the English stage, makes her American film debut in "Bottoms Up." Playing the romantic leads opposite Miss Patterson are Spencer Tracy and John Boles. The comedy situations are contributed mainly by Herbert Mundin, Sid Silvers and Harry Green. Other members of the impressive cast are Thelma Todd, Robert Emmett O'Connor, Dell Henderson, Suzanne Kaaren and Douglas Wood.

Robinson, Dynamo Of Energy, Claims He's Laziest Man

More and more often in recent months, Edward G. Robinson, who has the stellar role in "The Man With Two Faces," the first National production which comes to the Palace Theatre on Sunday and Monday, has come to the defense of indolence.

"Pure, unadulterated laziness is man's happiest state," Robinson has been known to tell his friends. "One could make a career out of it. Some day I hope to try."

"I work hard," Robinson counters, "because I am anxious to get thru the job and go back to my lazy life. For the same reason I walk fast up a hill, when I walk at all. I want to get to the top so I can saunter down the other side."

In his latest production, "The Man With Two Faces," Robinson plays the role of an actor and director, of prodigious energy. The picture is a thrilling murder mystery drama based on the play by George S. Kaufman and Alexander Woolcott.

Old-timers had a greater chance to get ahead because the family horse wasn't worn out by the time they got it paid for.

Metro Goldwyn Mayer Has Done It Again

They said that the gay, exciting romance of "The Thin Man" could never be equaled. "Hide-Out" is the convincing answer—drama supercharged with thrills and laughs—with Montgomery at his most delightful as the Broadway playboy who learned the difference between "chickens" and chicken which will be shown at the Palace Saturday midnight.

Better Housing—

great bulk of the loans to be made under this plan will be in the form of 'character loans,' whereby the borrower will receive his loan solely on the basis of his reputation and ability to pay. Endorsers and co-makers will not be necessary.

"It must be understood that while the Burkburnett Better Housing Committee is very anxious to receive the heartiest cooperation from property owners and others, no pressure will be put on property owners to borrow in order that this movement may achieve success. The sole purpose of the campaign is to offer practical cooperation in making it possible or, at least, more convenient, for the property owners to secure necessary funds to remedy run-down conditions or to make their properties more efficient, comfortable, and valuable through modernization.

"It is hoped that the owners of commercial and industrial properties, as well as home owners, will realize the advantages of keeping their properties in repair and take part in the campaign. Community and neighborhood projects of all types will also benefit from taking an interest in the program.

"Many corporations and individuals," Mr. Roberts continued, "are of course, in a position to repair and improve without borrowing. We are just as anxious to have them show the same interest in the program as those who will be directly benefited.

"It is estimated that there are now in the United States some 16,500,000 buildings in need of repairs," concluded Mr. Roberts. "Structural troubles are present in about 3,000,000 of these. The potentialities inherent to the Burkburnett Better Housing Program, therefore, are extensive; and they are expected to prove a constructive aid in the present recovery effort, as well as of lasting benefit both economically and socially."

Two Dresses for $1.15

From four and one-half sugar sacks dyed a dull red, students at Texas State College for Women (CIA) fashioned for 25 cents the street dress modeled by Miss Jess Edith Carlisle, Midland, (left). Not satisfied with this achievement, the next problem was to make a lady's tailored suit from a discarded man's suit. Miss Bernice Hubbard, Dallas, (right) models the 90-cent creation.

DENTON, Oct. 31.—Economics sewing might be easy for some but to others it's no small problem to fashion something new from something old. With a project of planning a low cost wardrobe for the high school girl, students at Texas State College for Women (CIA) achieved satisfying results in two garments costing, together, $1.15.

For a young girl's street dress, four and one-half sugar sacks were bleached to remove all printing and excess design, and then dyed a dull red color. With a foundation garment pattern, the "material" was cut on conservative lines with a fitted waist, and a simple skirt fashioned with two pleats. One half of a sack was dyed beige and used in trimming a collar and ascot tie. When the garment was completed, 25c proved to be the cost.

A decidedly more complexing problem came up when a girl's suit had to be made from a man's suit. By turning the trousers topsy turvy and cutting them off at the widest part a skirt was found for the ensemble. The legs were ripped and fitted for the waist of the skirt and an inverted pleat made from strips of material taken from the side of the coat.

Just to brighten the somber oxford gray tones of the ensemble, silver buttons were used in trimming. A bright gingham blouse of blue, gray and red checks was fashioned to be worn with the suit, and the entire ensemble reached the sum of 90c.

Burkburnett men who want to brighten their lives might try making light of their troubles.

As a general thing a hot temper usually lands its owner in the cooler.

As a personal affliction in fall months, most of us prefer hay fever to politics.

The Burkburnett citizens who persists in keeping his nose to the grindstone usually winds up with nothing more than a tombstone.

In this modern age the politician with the most apple-sauce knocks the most plums.

You've also doubtless noticed that the Burkburnett man with the most horse sense does the least kicking.

One thing worth remembering is that being down in the mouth never helps a fellow to be up on his toes.

You can always get an idea of whether the world is getting better or worse by examining your own conscience.

It isn't a cheaper dollar that the average Burkburnett man wants but one that's easier to get hold of.

Leaders See Benefit In Housing Activity

With the final results nationally of the Better Housing Program dependent for its success in each individual community, leaders in the movement here are discussing its specific benefits and advantages to property owners of Burkburnett.

Conservative observers agree that the program offers one of the most practical and far-reaching plans for creating employment, putting idle capital to work, and making a community beneficially industrious that has been suggested.

"The Burkburnett Better Housing Program appeals to be because of its practical set-up," Mayor Bostic said today in a statement that reflects the views of many leaders. "Capital was the one thing needed—and now it is readily available. Building material dealers needed a reviving market—and here skilled men in the building long without steady work, jobs—and here they are bringing capital, materials, labor together in a practical, able way.

"That's just one side of the picture. The property owner's practical solution for a serious problem. He isn't asked to buy for a thing that he doesn't need as a selfish protection investment. He isn't allowed to row beyond his ability to without hardship. He is enabled to secure the necessary financial very reasonable terms.

"To me, it's just a plain and simple case of a man who needs done badly being provided materials, labor, and financial.

"The effect, beyond these will be a remarkable improvement in property appearances, occupancy income for stores and business and office buildings and what may prove to be 'priming' needed to speed up our business activities."
