There are plenty of people that are willing to ride at some with the gat. He has won many one elses expense, and in our city we have found people of the same temperament. We are thinking specifically of the cleanup campaign staged each year by the Chamber of Commerce. amongst the under world as well That civic organization has intended to keep the people remind- as his friends while serving as ed of how essential the keeping of our yards and home at all deputy under C. O. Hooper. He made time is. They mean for the people to keep the yard as clean as the best one he ever had. Not only possible through out the year, and what ever problems the home the writer but a host of his friends owners meet with, the organization will help to solve in the over on this side are glad to know spring.

Instead of keeping this spirit manifest, some of the citizens Stapps will make them to keep harhave positively indulged as a sneaking bit of hitch-hiking. They mony in Burkburnett and its surallow the trash to pile up for a whole year. Then when the C of C comes around in the spring, the citizens gets his whole years trash supply hauled away free of charge.

That's what we call a shame. To take advantage of the generosity of a beneficent organization, it is not creditable to anyone. Therefore we are approving of the resolution that the C. of C. is passing to urge the city council to pass a compulsory sani-tary and trash hauling ordinance. We hope that the resolution or ordinance includes a stiff enforcement provision. It should require a weekly or monthly inspection and police power sufficient to demand the clearance of blocked and dirty property.

Hitch-hikers are bad enough on the high ways, but when they become a part of the municipal affairs they are infinitely worse. We think all the civic minded citizens should get behind the council and urge that they pass such an ordinance if none exists at the present.

Just as soon as the Burkburnett

Whereas, the City of Burkburnett is striving at the t time to have as beautiful a city as possible under xisting circumstances wherein many citizens have to considerable personal expense and contribution rd the planting of trees etc so that the city might ore beautiful for 1936, and,

Whereas, each year for the last few years the citizens have been public spirited and the Chamber of Comhas sponsored each year a clean-up campaign free arge the trash cleaned up on the premises of the inal homes which in a way has resulted that many waited until the civic organizations sponsored a cleanmpaign to clean up the trash and rubbish, and,

Whereas, the City of Burkburnett has an ordinance prohibits the accumulation of trash and rubbish d the places of residence in order that the City might ot clean and sanitary.

Therefore, we the directors of the Burkburnett Cham-Commerce do hereby petition the City Council to put force the ordinance prohibiting the above and that measure be worked out for a monthly inspection of aces of residence and that those persons living at residences be required to either haul away their trash selves or make arrangements for it to be hauled not less than once a month so that when the inspectmes around to inspect the homes that they will be and sanitary.

Joe E. Brown In His Funniest Role Coming to Palace

Joe E. Brown's latest Warner Bros. pictutre, "Alibi Ike," which is scheduled as the feature attraction at the Palace Theatre on Friday and Saturday, is heralded as the most hilarious film in which the famous star has yet appeared.

The story was written by the late Ring Lardner, who probably knew baseball players better than any r author. It's a pennant winning comedy of baseball and blondes. "Alibi Ike" is a big league ball player, a crack pitcher and a batter whose average, contrary to most twirlers, runs around the 400 mark. He never makes a play on the field or off it without alibiing.

Even when he falls desperately in love with the sister of the captain's wife, he alibis about it. She happens to hear him making excuses for giving her an engagement ring, and turns him down cold, which causes a series of events as thrilling as they are ludicrous.

A sequence showing Ike kidnaped by a group of gamblers, from whom he escapes in time to win the final game in his pajamas, is just one of the exciting and funny incidents in the film.

There is more romance than usual in a Joe E. Brown comedy, his love affair winding up in a climax that is most unusual.

Soft Ball League Joe, of course, has the title role, Olivia de Havilland, a newcomer to the screen, has the feminine lead She did such a fine piece of work in Max Reinhardt's "A Midsummer ball, good and bad. In the first game Night Dream," that she was immediately given a long term contract by Warner Bros

The role is an ideal one for Joe They won the game by a large score, E. Brown. He was a big leaguer for several years, and still owns a ball club.

Roy Jackson Junior Enters Amateur Finals

Roy Jackson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jackson was chosen as one of six to enter the finals of the amateur contest sponsored by the Chevrolet Motor company in Wichita Falls Monday night. Master Jackwere postponed and will be ordered son was the only representative of played as soon as the teams can find the Burkburnett group to place in the time to insert them into the the finals. The winners of the finals will go to Dallas to enter the state contest. In event of winning there Gass team came mighty near slip- the winners are to be sent to Hollyping up on the Magnolia. Up to that wood for screen tests there.

One reason why Burkburnett men don't understand women better is onsecutive runs, before the pitcher that they have only one lifteime in which to study the subject.

exciting Columbia comedy-drama, which the cinema sages say, affords Edward G. Robinson his greatest screen character role tto date, will, open its local engagement at the Palace Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Robinson is cast in the thrill-inspiring role of an inoffensive little clerk who carouses through a series of laugh laden adventures when his startling resemblance to an escaped desperado is discovered. This new characterization marks Robinson's first attempt at screen comedy, having already firmly established him-self as screendom's Public Enemy No. 1.

Jean Arthur is featured opposite Robinson as a flip young stenographer whom the meek clerk has adored for years. But only when his name races across the nation's front page is he able to summon up enough courage to tell her of his

To Citizens of Burkburnett and Surrounding Community.

I wish to thank you for the courtesies shown me since I have been appointed your chief of police, and I want your cooperattion in the enforcement of your laws. Without your support, it will be hard for he to make you a good officer. But if the people will get behind me and the department and push, I can make you a good officer. As a citizen of Burkburnett and the surrounding territory, you owe it to society to support your officers and make your town a better place in which to live. I am not a stranger to this com-
