GOOD SPORTS

The local soft ball league was organized for the purpose of giving healthful recreation to a large mass of people at a low expense ratio. In order to accomplish that purpose, it has been necessary for a number of people to give a lot of hard work and time to the project.

There have been a few times in our life that we have seen what we call "poor sports." Usually we reserve that term to express the ultimate degree of contempt that we have in our hearts for an individual. No other expression in our vocabulary is as expressive or as insulting when we have to print what we say. Last week when a local team was playing a visiting team, the fans from this city should have cooperated with the managers of the city and encouraged them. Instead of doing that they made it as uncomfortable and tense as possible for our players.

A person who pays the whole sum of a nickle or dime is granted the privilege of saying as much as he pleases. In the eyes of a person who does such things, a dime must be very valuable. We have noticed that the complainers are generally those who came in the back gate or climbed over the ladder at the north

When our local teams are playing each other, it is all right to razz either team and be as abusive and insulting as you please. However, when we have visitors, let's act like ladies and gentlemen no matter how hard the strain on us will be.

THANK YOU

The Star wishes to express its appreciation to the people of Burkburnett and this entire area for their loyalty to this organization. We are grateful for the support in the concrete method of advetising, but we are also appreciative of the people who read and help gather the news for the organization. A paper generally reflects rather completely the community. It is as muc ha product of community loyalty and interest as any other progressive achievement of a city or town.

For these 26 years that the Star has been in a position to serve Burk, it has been able to do so because the people have been characteristically loyal. Burk is rapidly becoming known as a town where the citizens support every civic move one hundred percent. The paper has been glad to be able to brag about that, and this paper will always succeed if the town keeps its enthusiasm for progressiveness.

PARKING TRUCKS ON MAIN

There isn't any law or regulation that can prevent the owners of trucks from parking them on Main street on Saturday night during the traffic crush. However, we believe that if we were the public relations council of any company that owned such a truck, we would convince the manager of that company that it was not a courteous thing to do. The traffic problem is bad enough but the huge trucks parked makes it infinitely worse. The Mayor Oscar Kemp and the Chief of Police Bill Stapp have requested the owners of such trucks to park their vehicles on the side streets. Of course these officials can not force any action, but we believe that they will earn a lot of good will by being considerate of the public convenience. And we assure you that the officials will appreciate it.

CHIROPRACTIC FACTS

Your brain is your power house. From it is supplied the vital lergy that is necessary to produce proper function in all the orns and tissues of the human body. The nerves are the cables thich convey this energy, and any pressure upon them decreases heir capacity and the result is disease in organ or tissue involved.

CHIROPRACTIC does not depend for its success upon a diagof the case. Our fundamental does not concern itself with, hether the patient is suffering with one or more of the so-called ased condition. We know that something is wrong with the body ien the nerves have pressure upon them. We know that these erves must be free to carry the life-giving mental impulses (life or life energy) to all parts of the human body. The only oint along the entire course where this carrying capacity can be rfered with is in the spinal column. We know further that ease cannot exist unless the-carrying capacity of these nerves impaired. How do we know this? It is based upon the firm founon of anatomical facts coupled with the unquestionable cernty of clinical results. What does the Chiropractor do? He adusts the subluxation (a condition where the segments of the spine not in proper alignment) and because of this adjustment the ure is taken off the nerves supplying their respective parts I the body. Now the nerves can carry mental impulses in normal tity and the quality to the body and under those conditions ise cannot exist.

There is nothing superhuman about the Chiropractor; he lays claim to unusual powers. He is the only logical method to purbecause it is based upon sound and unquestionable reasoning. The relief which is offered the patient is not a temporary one, permanent, because the cause of the incoordination has been

red, and without cause there absolutely can be no disease. CONDEMNATION BEFORE INVESTIGATION KEEPS A MAN IN EVERLASTING IGNORANCE

Star Has Played Important Part In

Starting its career in what was almost a wild ranch territory, the Burkburnett Star has played an important part in the history of the city. When the town was founded, this city was only the meeting place of a few ambitious and courageous ranchers and farmers, and a stopping place in the long treak made by others into the Indian territory. An ambitious young man F. J. Garves brought to the city its first newspaper which he named the 6666 Star in honor of the famous ranch
