Sudden Illness Of District Attorney Postpones Foster Trial

Mike Anglin Illness Suddenly Ends Case Of Foster Trial Wed.

Jury and Witnesses Are Discharged When Doctor Makes Report To District Judge

DATE TO BE SET LATER

Sudden and dramatic postponement of the Foster murder trial resulted from the illness of Mike Anglin, district attorney, Wednesday afternoon. The case was postponed by Judge Ratliff of Haskell on the request of Howard Martin, assistant attorney when Dr. Singleton of Wichita Falls phoned that Anglin was seriously ill. The postponement came at 1:45 Wednesday afternoon after the state and defense attorneys had battled two days in an attempt to complete the jury. Only 11 veniremen had qualified for the service. A special venire had been exhausted at 10 o'clock, and the petit jury members were sworn in. The petit jury was then exhausted and an additional jury of 25 was summoned by the judge. The special venire of 15 reported at 1:30 only to be discharged by the judge after the state had requested postponement. Foster was being charged with the alleged murder of his wife, Mrs. Ralph Foster. The alleged crime was charged to have taken place at June 23rd.

Special Prosecutor

Sam Spence, former district attorney, had been employed as assistant prosecutor in the case, and the district attorney was also assisted by Howard Martin of the Wichita Falls office.

The defense was directed by C. McDonald with Earl Kuntz as assistant. Both attorneys for the state and the defense had pronounced that they were ready for the trial when the sudden illness of the district attorney stopped the proceedings.

Anglin had been suffering from a light cold for several days. After the morning session, he had consulted with Dr. Singleton. The examination revealed that the attorney was suffering from incipient pneumonia, and running very high fever. The doctor advised him to remain in bed for several days.

The Foster case started last June when Mrs. Foster was found dead in the cellar at their home south of the city. Mrs. Foster was found when the daughter and other children were seeking her with the

Burk Officers Clear Wide Spread Ring Thieves Last Week

Long Investigation Of Pipe Line And Oil Supply Thefts Result In Arrests

BIG TIME RECEIVER FOUND

Roy Blanscet and Bill Stapp assisted in the completion of an investigation last week which they started several months ago and which resulted in the cleaning up of a large ring of oil field pipe and supply thievery. The arrest of a large receiver in New London, Texas, sewed up the trading and receiving end of the business that had been operating on a large scale over the entire oil district.

After the investigation had assumed the form where arrests could be made Blanscet and Stapp called in Ben Howle, representative of the Wichita county sheriff's department, and the investigation was completed. The completion started with the arrest of five men in Jack county Tuesday night.

The five pipe thieves had stolen two truck loads of eight inch pipe from a lease near Jermy, Texas, in Jack county. They were arrested by Stapp, Blanscet and Howle who were assisted by the officers of that county.

At New London the investigating officers found a large supply of stolen goods, much of which was received. They recovered loot including 330 feet of 10 inch casing that had been stolen in Young county from the Stuckey lease. No arrests were made last week in this case, but the officers expressed confidence that the case would be cleared up in the near future with several arrests.

The county authorities at Wichita Falls were liberal in their praise of the work of Stapp and Blanscet and other Burk police who had co-operated in the investigation, and had started the work of unraveling the mystery of missing materials on their own initiative in Burkburnett and surrounding area. Especial comment was made of the work of Blanscet, deputy sheriff for this area. Blanscet was credited with clever detective work that led to the completion of the investigation in co-operation with Stapp of Burk.

P-T A Study Group To Meet Tuesday

The Parent-Teachers Association study group will meet in the grade school building Tuesday, at 3:30. Dr. Wallace J. Masters of Wichita Falls will talk on "The Physical Development of the Child". All mothers are invited by the teachers and officers to hear the speech. Mrs. Dudley Ellis acting as leader for the program.

NYA Offers Burk Boys Jobs Here

The National Youth Administration is anxious to secure a crop of young men from the Burkburnett area to work on projects in the local area. The administration was set up for the purpose of giving employment to young men just out of school and college. The workers will not be sent to other areas, but will be assigned to tasks near the place where they live, and within traveling distance of their homes.

Those who are interested in securing employment have been asked to get in touch with Tony Zeigler at the offices in the Radio Building in Wichita Falls. The work differs from the CCC in that the boys are not required to enlist for definite length of time and are allowed to draw their compensation directly from the government.

The projects that will require a large number of the boys in this area will be the tree planting, and road improvement for beautification of highways. The projects have been undertaken to clear the right of ways for the Centennial celebration. The boys who are interested have been asked to get in touch with F. R. Knauth or go directly to the Radio building offices.

Bonus Passes Both Houses With Large Majorities In Vote

Senate Records First Full Vote In Over Two Years On Any Question Voted

PAYMENTS START JUNE 15

More than $125,000.00 will be poured into the markets in Burkburnett soon after June 15 this year as the soldiers receive their bonus bonds and checks. More than 200 men of this area in Texas will receive amounts varying from 300 to 700 dollars for the service bonus, and in most cases this will be spent immediately.

Every trade, business and profession will receive their quota of the money that is paid. Debts will be paid, and many old accounts will be brought up to date by the action of the national congress.

The bill was written into the statutes of the United States law last Monday afternoon when the Senate upheld the action of the lower house of congress by a vote of 79 to 16. For the first time since 1932 every member of the upper house of congress was present at the voting.

Quick Action

The action voted to pay immediately and in full all adjusted service certificates in baby bonds. The odd amounts will be paid in cash or checks.

The senate voted as soon as parliamentarily possible when the veto bill and message came back to them. The bill came to the senate after quick action on the part of the house of Friday when a vote of 324 to 61 smashed the president's veto.

This action was the most rapid that has even been followed in any session. The group met at the first of the month and since that time has defeated rider after rider to bring through a purely soldiers bonus bill on its own merits to present to the president.

The president sent the bill back with a hand written message of 200 words stating that the disapproved and referred the members to the same message of last year.

Billions of Dollars

The bill literally dumped over 2 billion ($2,237,000,000) dollars into the pockets of the exservice men in the United States. This amount also does not include the forgiving of interest to the amount of several millions that had accumulated on the money since the first half of the bill was paid two or three years ago.

The bill was the last act of 16 years of battle on the part of the veterans and their organizations to secure the adjustment and compensation for the service in the world war. Up to date and including the amount that is being paid this year three billion (3,719,000,000) dollars have been paid out for the benefit of the exservice men.

Of this tremendous amount $1,099,000.00 will be sent to Wichita county. Burkburnett will receive its portion of more than $100,000.00.

No Tax Set

PAY POLL TAX

Less than 24 hours remain to qualify for voting this year. If you are under 21 and will reach that age this year before election, register in Burk before midnight Friday night. If you are over 60 you do not need the exemption slip. It was required at first that you have the slips to vote, but recent orders stopped the issuing of the permanent certificates.

If, however, you are already between 21 and 60 you MUST pay your poll taxes as soon as possible—at the local office. Every major election that it is possible to hold will be held this year. The president and all his policies will be up for test of approval or disapproval. The congressman, the Townsend plan, farm control, city government, county, state, precinct officers, and many other very important elections will face the voter.

Among the important elections probably will be the vote on local option in Wichita county. So pay your poll tax and then vote.

VOLLEY BALL

Next week-end, February 7 and 8, the representative teams of girls from seven schools will be in Burkburnett for the Volley Ball tournament. The game has not caught the popular imagination like foot ball or even basket ball, but it is rapidly becoming one of the most important interscholastic league activities. When the game was introduced a few years ago, it was considered the tired business man's game to be played in YMCA gyms and on convenient vacant lots.

No one thought that it would receive the recognition that it has to date. Even four or five years ago to have planned a volley ball tournament would have been considered silly. Now it does have a definite place in the school athletic program. If you have never seen the game played under tournament conditions, read up on the rules and go down to the school next week. Watch the play for a few moments and you will find it an interesting game.

"LONG LIVE THE KING"

To people of democratic nations the phrase "Long Live the King" means very little. To the citizens of a benevolent monarchy it means every thing. First of all it means "Long live the benevolent policies that he established."

The people of England have been fortunate that they have had the type of King that has reigned in the empire the last 25 years. Neither spectacular nor brilliant has been his tenancy, but he did have what a disturbed world needed—tenacity of purpose and a profoundly lovable personality.

It has been that personality that has held an empire of faction to a unified group. He faced the fall of every other major sovereign in the world. His colleagues lost their heads or their empires, but he died a loved king and with the shouts of approbation of an empire ringing in his ear.

There was none of the iron willed dominating personality in him. He loved his people and kept sacred their rights. He solved many problems for them, but was never obtrusive about it. He carried them through the difficult day of the World War, and inspired them on in that struggle while the victory seemed impossible.

That is about all that a king can do. He is a symbol of the continuity and stability of the empire. That is the single strand that binds together the 500 million people of varying types. As a symbol he represents the unity.

IMPROVEMENT ON FARMS

Some people wouldn't be content in heaven, and it is natural to expect a lot of criticism of the national policies. However, any sane man that can remember three years must admit a vast improvement in the status of the farmer.

Figures can be deceptive, but the undenied improvement in the status of the farmers is apparent in the national income of the group last year. In 1932 the farmers received a total of 484 million dollars for their products. In 1935 they received 860 million dollars for the same products. That is more than ninety per cent increase and at the same time living expenses increased only slightly more than 36 per cent.

AN OPPORTUNITY THAT KNOCKS

Never again will this city be in a better position to secure civic improvement of the beautifying and serviceable nature that is offered to it now. For that reason it would be absurdly silly if we fail to take advantage of the opportunities that are offered. The little city is strategically situated so that it can be an important place during the coming Centennial celebration.

Since it is important, the state is anxious to secure the co-operation of every one here, including all civic bodies and private clubs to make the best of the improvements.

The state highway department is particularly concerned about bringing about improvements that will be of perpetual values to us. They have money, material and men with which to work, and ask only for small plots of land. Most of this land can be secured with no more than an expenditure of effort.

Two suggested improvements are the park at the bridge, and the widening of the highway on the south several hundred yards closer to the city.

The land could be secured by convincing the property owners that the improvement would increase the absolute value of their land, and the advantage of being on a widely traveled highway. This offers an opportunity to several civic organizations to contribute a perpetual service to the city.

All of the land that is necessary for the completion of the projects could be purchased for an amazingly small sum of money. If it became necessary to do such a thing, funds could be raised for the necessary purchases.

The state department is ready, the county precinct has done all that lies in its power, and now it is up to the city and its clubs to finish a good job.

News Of Week

King George V is dead, and one fourth of the people of the world suspend normal activities until he is interred with his fathers. For a few days the entire national and diplomatic relationships of the world are at a stand still. A ruler passes on into the long gray parade of memories, but leaves behind a monument in the hearts of a loving people.

The reaction to a king's death is hard to understand. One man out of the two and one-half billion seems would make little difference. But the Loyds assurance company of England will pay over two million dollars to various shops this week because they insured against the king's death. During this time the business was at a stand still. What ever may be the judgment of history, a man so beloved of his people that they forget the little normal things of living is great in spite of a lack of the spectacular.

King Edward VIII

What kind of a king will Edward VIII be? (Prince of Wales). That will be the question in the minds of all the world. The public remembers him as a man that danced with a different girl every night, haunted London's West End, fell off of horses with surprising regularity and left a trail of broken hearts all over the world.

Those traits of his made good news "copy". The world knows very little of the serious business man that has worked 12 to 16 hours a day the last few years relieving his ailing father of the terrible tasks of the kingship. They know nothing of the young man that spent hours in mines, walking incognito among the farmers and tradesmen of the nation, and the young man that never forgot the scenes of suffering that he saw in the slums.

Problems Facing The King

The new king has many problems facing him. The Dole must be solved. Ireland is still restless. India still thinks of rebellion under Mahatmi Gandhi. Ethiopia and Italy still fuss. Egypt is on the border line of rebellion, the Jews of Judea demand protection. Germany re-arms, the league of nations totters. Japan denounces the treaty limiting navy parity.

Those are just a few of the problems that face the young ruler. The fate of his magnificent empire depends on the solution of each vexing question. No thanks, you can have the job, Edward.

Stopping A Boom

The stock market seems to have forgotten the wild spree of '29 last week and jumped toward another boom. This time it will not be wild and uncontrolled. With a few cents or dollars a person could stack up a paper fortune in those days. Now the federal reserve board demands that 55 per cent of the deals in margin be in cash. The require-

DO you suffer burning, scanty or too frequent urination, backache, headache, dizziness, loss of energy, leg pains, swellings and puffiness under the eyes? Are you tired, nervous—feel all unstrung and don't know what is wrong?

A Big Push

Some officer had a sense of humor last week. In San Antonio three young men were found stripping a car that had run out of gas ten miles from the city, after the young men had stolen the car for the purpose of stripping it. When they were captured by the city detectives, one of the officers entered the car and made the boys push it back to town.

Now that seems rather silly at first, but some how or the other it appeals to our sense of justice. Some times our own car gets cranky and we have to push it. So we know that those boys were probably convinced that "crime doesn't pay" by the time they had shoved the car back into the city limits.

The New Taxes

Two new taxes will be necessary in the near future. One will pay the farmers for the contracts they have nullified. The other tax will pay the soldiers bonus.

Little AAA

Since the Supreme Court threw out the AAA the government has suggested that each state pass a little AAA to meet the objection of the judicial interpretation. The main objection of the court was to the trampling on state's rights.

Poor Sport

The world has less use for a "poor sport" than any other type of human creature. For that reason Al Smith's talk is not expected to have a great deal of effect on the public. Those who believe what he will say already it, and those who don't, remember that he was defeated by the man whom he is fighting. Even in the lowest strata of society or in the sport world the loser is expected to smile and take it, according to the Anglo-Saxon tradition of "good sportsmanship."

Fire Safety Survey Be Held Next Week

The class at the high school has been studying fire prevention and removal of fire hazards during the past week under the supervision of the fire department, and will make a thorough canvas of the city some time next week on a date to be announced later. The work at the school has been under the direction of Neal Allen and J. J. Blackstone, and the boys enrolled have been given a thorough examination in the methods of examining residences and business places.

These boys had originally planned to make a canvas of the city last Tuesday, but the survey was postponed due to the conflict with several other community activities. The boys will be accompanied by a member of the department, and will go through every house and business place in the city.

The business men and housewives of the city have been requested by the department to give the boys a courteous reception and every assistance possible. Where ever it is considered necessary the owners and residents of the homes will be advised to make such changes as will improve the home in prevention of conflagrations.

M. C. Mitchell, 22, life long resident of Wichita county, died Sunday morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mitchell, who live 10 miles west of Burkburnett near Clara on the Panhandle lease.

Death was the result of pneumonia which he contracted last Monday.

Cagney Coming To Palace in 'Frisco Kid'

"Frisco Kid", Warner Bros.' thrilling tale of the glamorous Barbary Coast of old San Francisco, opens at the Palace theatre with an all star cast headed by James Cagney, Margaret Lindsay, Ricardo Cortez, and Lili Damita.

The picture is set in the colorful background of the early fifties when the waterfront at the Golden Gate was a flaming panorama of gilded gambling halls and palaces of pleasure; when murder, arson, crimping and robbery was winked at by the authorities who derived huge revenues in bribes from the denizens of the underworld.

The characters are based on historic personages of the time who flocked to the city of gold from every port in the world—adventurers all, ready to risk their lives and fortunes on the throw of a die.

Into this picturesque atmosphere comes a sailor, strong, purposeful, crude, ignorant, but a man of tremendous force and magnetic personality, who rises to be the master of the Coast, and who dares to fall in love with the most beautiful girl of San Francisco's highest society.

Mob Traps Lovers In "Show No Mercy"

They are an ordinary, sweet young couple driving along the California roads with their baby—without warning, a storm strikes, sheets of rain envelope their car—an abandoned farm house offers refuge . . . they enter . . . and suddenly they face violence, threats of death . . . the paralyzing fear of the new underworld terror!

From this point, the gripping, searing story of 20 Century's "Show Them No Mercy!" which comes Tuesday and Wednesday to the Palace theatre carries its story of a nation's organized fight against crime.

Rochelle Hudson, who has the leading part, is teamed romantically with Edward Norris, while Cesar Romero and Bruce Cabot are prominently cast as the leaders of the outlaws.

While Miss Hudson and her husband blunder in on the hideout of criminals waiting for the alarm of their crime to blow over, they become prisoners.

The illness of the baby makes them demand freedom, but their captors have other ideas. They force Norris to pass some of the "hot" money, discover that it is marked. Then, as the net of the department of justice tightens about them, the criminals become terror-stricken.

T. E. Bryant and his Degree Staff from Electra initiated two candidates. The Degree Staff that gave the work to these candidates is working to compete in the work at Grand Lodge that meets in San Antonio in March for the loving cup of Texas. They brought the loving cup back with them last year from Temple. We are hoping that they have the same good luck this year.

Are you of the Rebekah degree? If so come to the hall and help to have a Degree Staff of our own. You can if you will.

A young wife, wishing to announce the birth of her first child to a friend in a distant city, sent the telegram, "Isiah 9:6," beginning: "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given."

Her friend, more literal and less familiar with the Scriptures, read the message and said to her husband:

"Margaret evidently has a boy, but why on earth did they ever name him Isiah? He must be healthy, though, for he weighs nine pounds and six ounces."

Sunday School Class Meets at Church Sun.

Ball Bros. to Conduct Cooking School Here February 4th and 5th

Mrs. Lillian McKinney, well known home economist of the Ball Brothers Company, will be in Burkburnett on February 4 and 5 at 2:00 p. m. at which time she will give a free demonstration of meat, fruit and vegetable preserving at Owens & Brumley company.

Attendance prizes will be awarded.

Sections of Six Cities Built For "Whipsaw"

Something new in varied architecture went into the production of "Whipsaw", new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring vehicle for Myrna Loy and Spencer Tracy which opens Sunday at the Palace theatre. Studio architects rebuilt sections of six large cities, three Midwestern towns and a rural farm community, in each of which some portion of the rapid-fire action of the story took place.

Cities included London, New York, St. Louis, Kansas City, Detroit and New Orleans. The smaller localities were Rockford, Illinois; Davenport, Iowa, and Moberly, Missouri. The farm community was typical of any of a hundred hamlets in Missouri.

While persons familiar with any of the localities will be able to recognize the districts instantly on the screen, the names of all public buildings and most of the private business places on the streets are fictitious. So, too, are the telephone numbers.

"Now, Harry," asked the Sunday school teacher, "what must we do before our sins can be forgiven?" "That's easy," replied Harry, "we must sin."

Basket Ball

The Wichita Valley league settled into a siege this week, with all of the clubs waiting to take advantage of any slip-up of the Fairview Bears. The leading Bears held their perfect record by defeating Clara easily Tuesday night at Clara 38 to 17, and then started the second half of the round robin in good style by taking the Burk Bulldogs to a 27 to 17 cleaning at Fairview.

Nocona kept pace by winning from Holliday and Henrietta. The Burkburnett team seemed headed for a good week's record when they started off Wednesday night by defeating the Henrietta squad 38 to 21 in a game in which the Bulldogs offense work better than at any time this season.

As usual Clara upset the Holliday team at Holliday Thursday night, 33 to 31. Coach Davis' Greyhounds seems to be able to administer a spanking to the Eagles any time they meet. Holliday had won its first game of the week by defeating Henrietta.

The uninterrupted string of victories for Fairview and Nocona's fast playing will make the meeting of the two teams Tuesday, Feb. 4, the deciding game of the round robin.

Team	G	W	L	Pct.
Fairview	7	6	1	.857
Nocona	6	5	1	.833
Holliday	7	3	4	.428
Burk	6	2	4	.333
Clara	6	2	4	.333
Henrietta	6	1	5	.167

The Burkburnett Bulldogs found a scoring combination Wednesday night at Henrietta and ran up the highest count they have made this year as they defeated the Bearcats 23 to 21. The Bulldogs led most of the game, leading by seven points at the half.

After the second quarter the outcome of the game was never in doubt. Willet and Hays, Bulldogs forward and center, combined passing and accurate shooting attack to keep the winners out in the lead and Hays led the scoring with 15 points and his teammate, Willet, tied Callaway of Henrietta with 11 points for second place.

Farmers Co-op Gin Declares Dividend

The Farmers Co-operative Gin directors, meeting under the direction of the president, B. H. Preston, at the gin Saturday, Jan. 18, declared a dividend of $6,200.00. This dividend was declared after a report of the year's work had been made by the manager, W. T. Holman. The report by Holman indicated that $4,000 had been paid on plant No. 2, and that $3,000 was retained in the treasury to buy new machinery with during the next few months.

The dividend amounted to $2.00 per bale that was ginned during the regular season. The gin was organized in 1928 and capitalized for $15,000. However only slightly more than $11,000 stock was sold to people all over the country. Each person buys a minimum of $25 and a maximum of $250 dollar block.

Mrs. Adams Hostess of Garden Club Wed.

Mrs. J. C. Adams was hostess of the Burkburnett Garden club Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 29. The new year books recently completed for 1936 were given to each member present. Mrs. Sandler was leader for the program on shrubbery. Mrs. C. J. Morrison told the club that snow, such as was falling during the meeting, was considered by the French as the poor man's fertilizer, since it collected minerals from the atmosphere and deposited them on the soil.

Mrs. Bostic gave an interesting discussion on native shrubs. The speaker explained when to transplant and how to cultivate them. The advice included instruction to refrain from burying the plants by pulling too much dirt around them.

Mrs. W. D. Bent told the members how to economize on purchasing shrubs, and explained that economy was not always practical or efficient. In reference to the price of shrubs, Mrs. Bent stated that the members should buy a few more good plants and increase the amount by rooting, cutting from as many of the plants as possible.

Those present were: Mesdames R. W. Wallace, R. P. Reagan, R. C. Tevis, John Bostic, Paul Browning, J. M. Pogue, Geo. Kimbell, Al Lohofener, C. J. Morrison, Butler Westerfield, W. R. Hill, W. D. Bent, Fred Flanagan, A. B. Sandler and one guest, Mrs. J. C. Adams' mother.

EDITOR'S NOTE—This paper is glad to give room to those who disagree with the editorials or opinions expressed in the columns of the paper. The following letter is not to be construed as opinion of this paper nor is the paper responsible for opinions expressed herein.

Dear Editor: Shortly before the Christmas holidays an editorial appeared in your paper to the effect that the "sore spot" in our state government could and would be healed completely by a Unicameral or single chamber system of state legislature. Such editorial strikes me as being a bit overdrawn in that it is a truth that certain political factions now in the minority are generally accepting this system not on its merits but on the demerits of the present system. These demerits they glibly outline and in turn have the audacity to contend that such would not be the case in the proposed system of government. Bicameralism, the technical name of our present two chamber system, has been the continual butt of the sneering remarks of the radicals, but from the mix-up of the advantages of each system there has precipitated a few points which can decidedly be termed attributes of the present system. It is my purpose to show you that efficiency which only bicameralism affords is necessary in Texas because of the complex conditions of society and because of the safety offered by such a system.

We often hear the argument today that there is no need for diversity of representation because of the absence of class distinction; but the proponents of such an argument must admit that while we do not have in name Lords and Serfs as in the Feudalistic age and while we do not have the different Estates as in France, we do have practically the same class distinction as exemplified by the tenant farmer and the capitalist, the poor and the rich, and the so called independents and the monopolists. I submit to you that as long as these various groups exist, and their existence cannot be denied, there must reign supreme a system of government which affords a diversified representation.

Furthermore there is paramount need for the indisputable now-exercised "check" in our Texas legislature. Washington has said "We pour our legislation into the second house to be cooled just as some men pour their coffee in a saucer to cool it". The proponents of unicameralism frequently ask "Why should we have a check on legislation?" To this I beg to inform the advocates of a single house that there would be little need for the exercise of a check were it not for the presence of that unorganized mal-political factor called the lobby, that group which yearly attempts to engrave its score upon the existing statutes of our state government. Here in Texas we have more than a modified example of this potential evil in government. I warrant you that in the on-coming session of the legislature scores of individuals representing private interests will flood the floor of the House of Representatives and Senate, each individual on his own private mission. In the case of the recent Colorado dam bill the lobbyists came not two-fold but ten-fold attempting to stamp plainly their approval or disapproval of the measure which had hidden in its caption powerful words which would and does effect the entire population of the state. Such fact, it seems to me, obviates the absurdity of the question "why check". I, as a front seat observer of our legislative panorama submit to you that the only way to curb such activities of such a factor is to maintain some safety device—a second house—a means of controlling the detrimental practices of this faction which fills to capacity the hotels with their fat stomachs and their merry "business" parties. Now as a fair question, is it not plausible that corruptness would be more feasible in a one house system with its few members than in the present system with its many members?

I would that you recall that history records the success of bicameralism. It is generally known that the lack of a second chamber in the United States Congress caused dissatisfaction with the Articles of Confederation and that the framers of the Constitution with the exception of Benjamin Franklin favored a bicameral system of government. In England, a worldly governmental potential unicameralism was tried but a brief period during the Commonwealth.

France, during two periods of weak government only, was subjected to unicameralism. From these historical facts one can denote a new proposal. It has become almost an axiom in political science that legislative bodies should consist of two houses. Single chamber forms exist today only in Greece, Luxemburg, Servia, all but two of the Canadian Provinces, and some of the Swiss Cantons. I wonder if the proponents of unicameralism will ever find a suitable explanation for the non-acceptance of a single house throughout the decades!

In response to the charge of an evasion of responsibility which you have so tactfully made, I would that you might construe the word responsibility in this particular case. In main, if the individual represents his district in voting in his own capacity and then satisfies his own interests by attempting to influence the passage or non-passage in the upper house he is doing more than lobbyists and it is plausible that this evil is not so very so detrimental to the judicial balance of the state as hasty legislation.

Thus it is with the careful weighing of the advantages of the different systems that I have favored an argument against the proposal of Unicameralism. Personally I am convinced and hoping that after reading this you too can conclude that condemnation of the dual chamber in favor of a single chamber in the Texas Legislature is an absurdity, I am

EDITORIALS The Use and Abuse of School Library Books

Many pupils do not seem to appreciate a good library and books. They check them out and fail to return or take care of them. Books are used a long time if taken care of correctly. Do not think of yourself when reading or using them. Other pupils may want to use them. If you destroy or abuse them in any way you are disobeying school rules and laws.

By Lucille Killingsworth.

Cheating

Grades in school are not earned when they are taken from another student's paper. When we cheat, we are not hurting anyone but ourselves, for later in life we may regret what we thought was so foolish when we were in school. When we are going to school we are bringing up knowledge, as we would money in a bank. If we do not acquire that knowledge that we are supposed to learn, then when checking time comes, the knowledge will not be there, as the money will not be in the bank. When we cheat for grades, we are cheating ourselves out of a good name.

By Eula Moore.

Courtesy

Courtesy is one of the greatest of our civic communities today. Courtesy should begin in the home, as children who have been taught to be courteous to outsiders are strangers. Rank in life, age or race, is no factor in determining whether courtesy should be used. Be courteous to a stranger, as many times, to advertise your city or community as a friendly one. A smile or a kind word is always appreciated and they cost so very little. Surely everyone should learn the art of courtesy.

By Betty Davenport.

Marring School Furniture

The furniture at school should be kept as shiny and clean as the furniture in one's home. After all, school is the children's home, and should have pleasant surroundings. They are responsible and should see that it is properly cared for, as you spend a greater portion of the day in school. Some pupils think it's smart to scratch their desks on the desk and have their names on it. But the imprints last as long as the desk, and the neater the desk looks, the better the appearance will be of the school, and the better the name to the community. Let every boy and girl's aim be to keep the furniture in school as neat as it is in their own home.

Journalism

Everyone should study journalism for it teaches us to be alert and have a deeper understanding of the things we read about, and everyday life. In general, reporters are glad to print whatever their customers are glad to read; and the newspaper public is pleased to read a good many things that are never read. Yet there is such a thing as a proper responsibility for the quality of news, and the difference between news and gossip that news stops with the facts. Good English courses in high school are apt to teach one to be a good journalist, but there are other qualifications; such as using good English, and being observant. Americans have grown rich in the business and it has a fascination which few escape who have once known it.

Is rather tall and thinks that is an advantage because she likes 'em short, light and ugly.

"So Red The Rose" Romantic Spectacle

"So Red The Rose", Paramount's stirring adaptation of Stark Young's novel of the same name, here Saturday mid-night at the Palace theatre. Margaret Sullivan is the star, and the supporting cast includes such well known names as Walter Connolly, Randolph Scott, Janet Beecher, Elizabeth Patterson, Harry Ellerbe, and the child actor, Dickie Moore.

"So Red The Rose" is a story of our South, a romantic and poignant account of those turbulent days of the War between the States. More than that, it reveals the ideals and hopes and bravery of a gentle Southern family when the clarion call of strife made men and women array themselves on the side of duty, sure of the righteousness of their cause.
It is the story of a young girl's love for a man, a man who hesitates to answer the fighting call of his people, and who, in his efforts to do what he believes is right, is even willing to sacrifice love on the altar of his beliefs.

The boy, Duncan, is portrayed by Randolph Scott, a handsome and talented actor who in "So Red The Rose", forsakes his "western" characterizations which have won him fame and proves his versatility as an actor.
Walter Connolly, one of the foremost character actors of our day, is splendid as Vallette's father, and Janet Beecher, Harry Ellerbe and Elizabeth Patterson (in one of her biting roles) do well in parts that give background and authenticity to the story.

The question in 1936 is simply whether there are more Roosevelt Democrats than Jeffersonian ones.

THE BULLDOGS GROWL

EDITED BY STUDENTS OF BURK SCHOOLS

GROWL STAFF ORGANIZES

Friday evening the Growl Staff met and re-organized, for the purpose of arousing the interest of the officers—especially the class reporters—and to elect one or two additional ones. The following is the Growl staff as it now stands: Editor-in-Chief, Geneva Minick. Assistant Editor-in-Chief, Irene Evans. Sports editor, J. T. Clifton. Society editor, Ruby Louise Bishop. Feature editor, Claudia M. Bowman.

Senior News

At the beginning of the year the Senior class consisted of 36 pupils. By the end of the semester they had lost 2, but the first day of the second semester found one new pupil which makes a crew of 35 to start the last mile of the journey. Of freshness and vigor, there are 16 boys and 20 girls. The Seniors were more than glad to welcome the new pupil, Claude Moore. He moved here from Aransas Pass, Texas, and it appears that he must have been an all round athlete in the high school there—of course the same will be expected of him here. The Inter-scholastic league meet will probably find this lad on the football field, in the track lines, on the baseball diamond, and on the basketball squad 100 per cent for the Seniors.

It was indeed a pleasure to Ole B. H. S. to recognize the fact that the business men of this vicinity are so interested in the success of the oncoming citizens from their high school, that they will see to it that those capable of honor awards receive them.

The Rotarians presented to the highly honored students, which consisted of about 19, Ad Astra pins for the past year's work. This has been a regular practice of the Rotarians for a number of years, and the Seniors wish to take this opportunity to express their gratitude for this interest.

Whether it is lack of ability to count, or whether it is knowledge of just who the Seniors are, it is evident that one of the Junior sponsors made a miserably sad mistake when he made the statement that 6 juniors received pins while there were only 2 seniors. If the juniors will make investigation, they will find that 5 seniors received pins. The seniors will challenge the juniors to compare this number in proportion to the number in each class.

There was only one student in the Senior class who has made the honor roll each consecutive year since her enrollment in high school. Pauline Brown. Pauline received a third year pin, and expects to get a fourth year pin at the graduation term.

Those of the Seniors who did not receive pins of course regret the fact they did not work harder in order that they might have received a pin, but they are proud of the five which did gain that high honor. Rotarians, thanks a million, to you from us.

CLIFFORD DUKE

Clifford was born in the big city of Randlett, Oklahoma, June 29, 1913. He spent most of his childhood in the city of Rabbit Creek, where he started to school.

His favorites are as follows: Clifford's favorite teacher is Miss Morgan (as he thinks he has to pass his English course), his favorite subject is typing, this in case he thinks that Mr. Blackwell is angry with him. His favorite sport is playing baseball. Favorite actor, Will Rogers; actress, Mae West. Pastime is making someone happy. Hobby, doing things no one else can do.

His opinion of the Senior class is that it is a very good one and should be highly respected. Goes to bed when he gets ready and gets up when the alarm clock calls. Best friends is T. J. Clifton, most popular girl is Barbara Crissey and the most popular boy John Blair, in the opinion of Clifford.

Thinks the best looking girl in school is Virginia Glidwell, and the best looking boy is Thomas Lowery. Says he doesn't go with the girls and has no desire to, but we suspect he is fooling. She must be in the senior class, isn't she Clifford?

WILLIE ETTA ALEXANDER

Willie Etta was born in Hedley, Texas, July 11, 1919. Spent most of her childhood in this same town and started to school there. Some of her favorites are as follows: teacher, T. J. Blackwell, has three subjects under him, and her favorite subject is book-keeping. Sport is football; actor, Frances Lederer, actress, Eleanor Powell; pastime, dreaming; hobby, dancing. Says the senior class is the best one thus far.

Goes to bed when she gets sleepy and gets up just in time to get ready for school. Thinks the most popular girl is Mildred Kemp, and the most popular boy is Clifford Duke. The best looking girl, Billijane Chatham and says all the boys look about alike.

Assembly

The student body was delightfully entertained Thursday, Jan. 23, with a program given by the Junior class sponsored by Gr. A. Reaves. The program began with a reading by Grace Preston. Next was a beautiful piano solo by Dorothy Hagard. The junior boys quartet, which turned out to be an octet, gave their version of "Red Sails in the Sunset" and as an encore gave "Home on the Range."

The Ad Astra pins were awarded after the singing of the boys. A list of the students who received pins follows: First year pins, Ordetta Cope, Grace Preston, June Gore, Pauline Browning, Melba Clark, Russell Cope, Fay Blancett, Bill Amyx, Polly Hall, Ora Bell Savage, Marietta Owens, J. R. Brock, Geneva Minick, and Mary Lafon Alexander. Second year pins, Christine Milliken, Mary Louise Kent, Dorothy Hagard, Mildred Milford. Third year pins, Pauline Brown.

Fourth year pins will awarded at graduation. As speaker of the morning we were happy to have Bro. Hagard. He made a most interesting talk on his trip to Washington.

Beginning this semester, a series of assembly programs is to be given every Thursday by the different home rooms.

We are looking forward to bigger and better assembly programs in the future.

Sophomores

Myrtle Grace Vaught from Bryan and Wilburn Mae have enrolled in our home room.

Notes of a snooper—What's on the regular reporter's mind so heavily?
Why doesn't something happen in this class?

Why isn't a law passed forcing organized classes to meet once a week?

Rhymes jotted down by an English student reading Tennyson's "Idylls of the King."
Someday I shall write a verse,
An unrhyming one, and long,
So that folks will want to curse
When they read my tuneless song.

My poem will be liked by no one
Except editors in English books,
And every daughter and every son
Will want to call those fellows crooks.

No, I think I'll change my mind,
For I know I want to be a friend
To every student that I find
And I'd be hated in the end.

Only some sad fellow
Who hates his fellow-men
Would ever do a crime so yellow
For such poeeting is a sin.

High School Library

During the fall term of the 1935-36 school year the high school library circulated a total of 199 over-night books and 5167 seven-day books. The average for the seventy-eight school days on which books were checked out was 66 seven-day books per day.

Over-night books are those which must be returned before school the next morning. Seven-day books are those which can be kept for a week with the privilege of renewal for an additional week.

The seniors have made up their minds to help win the track meet here this year.

Electra has won the meet for the past 15 years and we feel that it is time for Burk to have the honor of winning this year. At any rate the seniors are going to do their part. Eligible boys going out for track are: J. W. Kent, Claude Moore, J. R. Brock, Jennings Willet, Miles B. Hays, Paul Savage, Thomas Lowery, Clifford Duke, Fred Gill and J. T. Clifton.

Volley Ball

The Burk volley ball girls went to Fairview to a tournament Friday and Saturday.

With the new coach, Miss Gideon, and new captain, Marjorie Bowden, the team went to Fairview Friday at 2:30 p. m. to play Henrietta. The girls worked very hard to win that game but lost. Went back Saturday to play a game with Electra. They also worked very hard to win that game. After eating lunch and resting almost all evening they played a game with Mankins. The girls worked very hard for this game too, 'cause they wanted second place anyway, but they lost and this put them out of the tournament.

The girls have improved a lot but are still working hard. They are working to win the tournament at Ringgold Friday and Saturday. Then they want to win the tournament that is going to be held at Burk the 6th and 7th of February.

Volley Ball Coach Gets Married

Miss McClure, volley ball coach, was married at mid-term. The girls hated to see her leave, but of course they couldn't change her mind.

Miss Peggy Gideon took her place as coach. All the girls like the new coach. We know it is hard for her to come in at the middle of the season but they have been doing fine under her, and want to improve more as they keep playing.

Progress Shown In

Typing Class Report

The list of students that have averaged their typing speeds during the past week indicates a high efficiency on the part of the entire class. The list submitted for publication includes the entire average for the past week of 38 students. Room for publication makes it impossible to list the day by day average of each of the students.

The nine students making the averages of 110 or more were: Fred McKenzie, 127; Irillia Barton, 121.5; Pauline Allen, 117; Fred McPherson, 116.5; Louise Bishop, 115; Marjetta Owens, 114.5; Helen Grady, 110.5, and Imogene Snoddy, 110.5.

These averages were based on class reports of both speed and accuracy. The sum of the two percentages are combined for the credit record.

Fifteen Per Cent Gain in New Firms

New firms granted charters in Texas in 1935 increased 15 per cent in number over 1934, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Total capitalization of the new corporations increased sharply over the preceding month and December a year ago. This comparison is not significant, however, since the increase was the result of the conversion of bonds to stock by one large company, the Bureau's report said. Aggregate new capitalization for the entire year was $32,000,000, 44 per cent greater than for 1934.

The groups showing an increase in the number of new charters granted in comparison with the preceding year were: Oil, 8.3 per cent; manufacturing, 31.3 per cent; banking-finance, 23 per cent; real estate-building, 14 per cent; transportation, 55.6 per cent; merchandising, 23 per cent.

Retail Sales In Texas Show Gain

Sales of Texas department stores were moderately higher in December than for the corresponding month of the preceding year, and the increase over November was greater than the average seasonal rise, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Reports from 87 representative Texas establishments show an increase during December of 3.9 per cent over the like month last year. The gain over the preceding month was 54.8 per cent, against an average increase of 49.4 per cent in the past nine years. Aggregate sales for the year were 4.8 per cent greater than for 1934.

Cities showing increases greater than the average for the State during the comparable periods were: Beaumont, Dallas, Fort Worth, Galveston, and San Antonio.

Bus Schedules Changed

The schedules for the busses running through Burkburnett and affecting the traffic both north and south, and the local schedules from Burk to Wichita Falls have been announced by the local union station. The schedules north to Oklahoma City are: leaving Burk, 7:25 and 11:40 a. m.; and 1:45 and 6:10 p. m.

The main change will be the elimination of the mid-night bus leaving Wichita Falls for Oklahoma City. Busses leave for Wichita at 7:30, 10:00 and 11:06 a. m., and 3:55, 6:05, 7:15 and 8:57 p. m. Busses arrive from Wichita at 7:25, 9:55, 11:45 a. m., and 1:20, 1:45, 6:10 and 8:10 p. m.

Committees Appointed For Firemen's Convention

Preparation for the annual meeting of the district fire convention constituted the special business session at the city hall of the firemen Friday night. The members discussed the ways and means of providing the best convention ever held by the organization at the meeting this year.

The methods of financing the convention and spreading publicity for the entire district were discussed. The committees appointed included: finance, program and advertising sales, W. A. Roberts, Oscar Kemp, Herman Brown, Frank Kelley and Fred Brookman; publicity, Curtis Cook, Neal Allen and Henry Prinsing; feed committee, John Musick, Jobie Dunn, Claude Bowman, Henry Hall; housing, Werner Kiesling, S. C. Posey, Henry Stewart, Byrne Alexander; building, Ross Reagan, Geo. Breashear, John Allison; welcoming, F. H. Hood, D. H. Gregory, D. B. Farrar, and Robert Dunn; registration, Jack Daniels.

The ladies auxiliary have been assigned the problem of working with the housing and registration committees from the department. The serious problem of taking care of the large delegation of firemen that will meet here this year will be turned over to the women.

The merchants and business men of the city are planning along with the organization to make every effort to welcome the guests during the special celebration. There will be prominent speakers from all over the state, and the contests and entertainment will be provided to surpass all previous conventions.

Goldie McCaig Wed To Laurence Gilbert

Miss Goldie McCaig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McCaig, and Mr. Laurence Gilbert, son of Mrs. A. A. Gilbert, were quietly married at Grandfield, Okla., the 11th of this month.

Mrs. Gilbert attended the Burkburnett school and is a member of the younger set in Burkburnett. She is an active church worker and is well known here.

Mr. Gilbert also attended the Burkburnett schools and is well known here. At present he is employed at Wiggins's Machine Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert will make their home in Burkburnett at the present time. They have many friends who wish them much success and happiness throughout their lives.

Buck Jones

Buck Jones, born at Vincennes, Indiana, Dec. 12, the son of Frederick and Evelyn Gebhart, was taken to a 3,000 acre ranch near Red Rock, Oklahoma, when he was but a few months old. There he learned to ride, shoot and rope. After a while, enlisted in Troop G, 6th U. S. Cavalry.

His career includes many years with the 101 ranch and other wild-west shows and Ringling Bros. circus, a period "breaking" and training wild horses for the French and Italian governments and another period testing racing cars with Eddie Rickenbacker. He entered motion pictures as an extra. He comes Friday and Saturday to the Tex theatre in Universal's "The Ivory-Handled Gun."

School and Other Taxes Are Now Due

The taxes for the independent school, county, state and city are due, and these must be paid by midnight, Jan. 31 or penalty and interest can be collected. Those taxes running to '34 are for the last time due with the penalty that is ordinarily assessed. The legislative body forgave the penalty during the severe years, but it is improbable that such a thing will happen.

All of the units need the funds. For the sake of keeping the expense down it is necessary for the citizens to pay these assessments before the dead line. The schools and city and other government units can operate less expensively on a cash basis.

Current Literature Club Meets Thurs.

The members of the current literature club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Flanagan Thursday afternoon for a study period including an examination of typical humor of different outstanding writers. The roll call was answered by each member of the club telling some personal humorous experience.

The discussion of Will Rogers and his type of writing by Mrs. W. D. Bent opened the program. The talk discussed the life and work of the late humorist that left such an imprint on the minds of the people all over the world. Mrs. R. D. Watkins of Fairview gave a reading of the humorous type for the members. The critics' report was heard, and refreshments were served to the following members present: Mesdames W. D. Bent, T. H. Boring, J. L. Caffee, Dudley Ellis, Fred Flanagan, B. F. Gilchrist, F. A. Jameson, George Kimbell, Rex Kolter, A. H. Lohofener, Roy Magers, J. R. Prince, Joy Sessums, James Thomas, Neeley Vaught, B. M. Cropper, R. L. Mattingly and one visitor, Mrs. Beery.

NEW LIGHT on an OLD SUBJECT

WE WELCOME the new light that's been thrown on the subject of banking . . . and there's been a great deal of it in the last few years. Frankly, some of it has struck us as being rather silly, but most of the criticism has been sound and constructive. We feel sincerely that any scrutiny of banks and banking methods must result in improved methods, better public relations and future progress.

DOCTORS KNOW

Mothers read this:

THREE STEPS TO RELIEVING CONSTIPATION

A cleansing dose today, a smaller quantity tomorrow, less each time, until bowels need no help at all.

Why do people come home from a hospital with bowels working like a well-regulated watch?

The answer is simple, and it's the answer to all your bowel worries if you will only realize it: many doctors and hospitals use a liquid laxative.

If you knew what a doctor knows, you would use only the liquid form. A liquid can always be taken in gradually reduced doses. Reduced dosage is the secret of any real relief from constipation.

Ask a doctor about this. Ask your druggist how very popular liquid laxatives have become. They give the right kind of help, and right amount of help. The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara — both natural laxatives that can form no habit, even in children. So, try Syrup Pepsin. You just take regulated doses till Nature restores regularity.

Other helpful and interesting astronomical and economical information is included.
Among the other prominent sections of the book are: A list of memorable historic events for each day of the year, facts about the universe, explanations of physical phenomena, a list of important festivals and anniversaries for the rules for forecasting weather conditions, population statistics, and records on farming as an industry, discussion of the farm of the future, information on citizenship and naturalization, a brief review of the history and development of the United States, "do's and don'ts" for use in emergencies, poisons and their antidotes, instructions for flower and vegetable gardens, crop seed sowing instructions, a list of places of interest to tourists, parcel post rules and regulations, temperature and rainfall charts, dates of killing frosts in all parts of the country, and a list of distances between the principal cities of the country.
The book is the product of the Ford Motor Command and about the Ford Rouge word pictures of famous Edinburg Museum and quaint field Village, established within miles of the Rouge Plant, and features of the Ford Farm.

Current Literature

The average American is not very much alarmed at the thought that there is a possibility of a dictatorship for our country. However, the history of the state governments proves beyond a shadow of doubt this possibility.
The novel of Sinclair Lewis, "It Can't Happen Here" is one of the cleverest and at the same time most profound analysis of the discussion that we have ever read.
The fact that Louisiana has been under an absolute dictator for two years proves that it can be done even in America. The novel demonstrates the possibility by analyzing the life of several individuals under the development and achievement of such a form of government.
Of course those who are delicate are warned to not try to read the book. Its gruesome reality may offend some people who are accustomed to having their literature sugar coated.
Technically the book is beyond reproach. It is a scholarly masterpiece that justifies the recent awarding of the Nobel prize to its author.
There isn't a single writer in the nation that takes the extreme care to produce accurate background for his work as does Lewis. Several hundred maps, thousands of clippings and filed notes and well laid plans of action were gathered before the novel was started by the famed author. It is said that before he wrote "Babbitt" that Lewis had collected 250,000 clippings about the type of persons he was writing about.
Such painstaking detail would at least produce authentic material. But add to it his power of interpretation and you achieve a near perfect combination.
We thought that one of the cleverest touches in the book was the description of the exile of Einstein from America, just as he had been exiled from Germany under a dictator.
The real danger of democracy lies in the ability of the people to close their eyes and believe only what they wish. That is very aptly demonstrated in the book.

Big Rabbit Creek

January 26, 1936
The writer believes that Saturday night was one of the coldest nights of the starting in of our New Year of 1936. Say, boy, that north wind blew sure enough from the north pole. This norther made it hard on the farmer's wood pile. It has got several degrees warmer since good day light at this writing Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ed Owens and her brother-in-law, John, is still very sick with the flu. It is feared they will both have pneumonia before they get the flu under control.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Kinnard's oldest son took the mumps the fore part of last week but has never been bedfast.

Say, boy, if Barnum and Bailey's great world show had been in Burkburnett Saturday they would have had a big crowd than what the big trades day did by giving away the $50.00. It was surprising to see the vast crowd that was on the streets. Regardless of the awful cold weather there were ladies in the great crowd holding their tiny babies in arms waiting for Mr. Paul Browning to come down and give the dough away. He finally came dragging down the street and believe me the wind was sure blowing through his whiskers. Before the drawing was over poor Paul got to shaking so bad that an old gentleman standing by Hawk Eye said "What's the matter with that guy; has he got Epileptic fits?" A fine dressed young lady was standing near by and said "No, he does not have fits; he must have the Buck Aque." Never the less he finished his job and his ticket judging even if it were almost down to zero.

Col. Wid Phillips, the Burkburnett cattle and hog buyer, was over in the Rabbit Creek country last Friday evening late and bought 5 head of fine beef cattle from W. H. Martin. He paid Mr. Martin top market price for them.

Tobe Hardin and Mrs. Martha Nails and Si Lynkse spent Saturday morning with the Owens family.

A few days past during our snow and cold spree, Mr. W. H. Martin had the misfortune to have the block on his Ford V-8 freeze and burst. It was necessary to get a new motor which will cost in the neighborhood of $115.00 to put the car back in its original condition. Mr. Martin informed the writer that a few days before the mishap, he had a gallon and one half of dope put in his car and now he thinks the anti-freeze was simply a joke.

It's feared by several good grain raisers over on this side of the big pond that the oats and maybe the wheat has been frozen enough to damage this year's wheat and the fall oats crop.

Tobe Hardin and Mrs. Martha Nails as the writer understands has rented the W. R. Elkins farm for this year again which is located 1 mile west of the north end of the Burkburnett bridge.

Mr. Jess Kinnard advised Hawk Eye that he has rented the Cyclone Willis little farm which lays east of W. H. Martin's farm. Mr. Kinnard will move the family to the new place just as soon as the weather will permit them to do so.

Henry Baber is making preparations to kill several head of his nice Chester white hogs Monday.

Mrs. Cap Myers who is living with her husband and family, and who moved to the Owens family old homestead, was bed fast the first of last week with a bad case of the flu, but at this writing she is able to be up and around again.

While Hawk Eye was on the busy streets of the best city in north-west Texas, Burkburnett, Saturday, he dropped in the Star office to see if the head squire, Fred Brookman, was on duty. Also to see if the other boys were at their posts. Bro. Dodson and Bro. John Brookman, were working to beat the band. Mr. Walter Long, a former employee of the Star was also in for a visit. Mr. Long is now located at Gladewater. Hawk Eye was sure glad to see his old friend Mr. Long, who promised to pay us a visit before going back.
yours truly,
HAWK EYE

Al Smith Liberty Leaguer No. One

Saturday night, the American Liberty League's candidate for president, Mr. Smith, spoke before this organization at the Mayflower hotel in Washington, which was broadcast throughout the nation at the expense of the Liberty League, of which he is a member. A careful analysis of his speech shows that Candidate Smith still harbors the bitter personal feelings toward the President which caused him to leave the Chicago Convention in 1932 without congratulating the nominee of our party on his success. He has been bitter and critical toward this administration since then, has openly from time to time shown his bitter feeling and has come out under his true colors, as mortgagor of the Empire State building in which he owns an equity, as being subservient in all things to the wishes of the "Wall Streeters" for whom he is apparently one of their many hired spokesmen.

Mr. Smith divides his attack on this administration into eight parts as follows:
1. He says we have arrayed class against class. The facts are the 4% for which he speaks, the Liberty Leaguers, the Manufacturers' Association, the United States Chamber of Commerce, et al in their recent meetings have come forward with statements in the press that they expect to "gang up" and spend $100,000,000 if necessary to defeat President Roosevelt and his administration. The "4%" have always "ganged up" in the past and have controlled the Congress for their benefit.
2. "That it has made a rubber stamp out of Congress". If congress has agreed to the constructive program presented, it is no doubt because they realized the soundness of this program and that the "Wall Streeters" whom he represents had no program to offer and have no program now except one of destructive criticism.

3. "That its policies have been created and administered by 'amateurs' in government and business of socialistic bent." Such statements of generalities have repeatedly been made by specific facts on legislation enacted.
4. "That it retarded business recovery and 'strangled the little business man' through the NRA." The facts are as shown from the Market reports of the daily press that all business has been hitting new highs daily for many months. Since the financial barons have completely recovered they now begin their campaign of destruction to sink the ship before we completely reach the shore.

We find that the farmers' cash income has increased 86 per cent; rural retail sales have advanced 95 per cent since the spring of 1933; General Motors has just cut a holiday bonus of $5,000,000 for 200,000 employees, and many other corporations have done likewise. The United States exports in November were 22 per cent larger than in October and 38 per cent larger than in November of last year. In New England business volume was from 10 to 15 per cent above last fall. December retail sales ran nearly 1/2 billion dollars above December 1934 and a billion dollars above December 1933. November building construction was 89 per cent better than November of last year and residential construction was up 129 per cent over last year. The number of jobs filled by workers rose in the year from 38,700,000 to over 40,000,000; wages and salaries rose correspondingly; stock dividends increased about $250,000,000 and the value of stocks held by investors rose eleven billions. People with savings deposits possess about a billion dollars more than last year. The "little business man" is better off today than he has been under any administration conducted by the organizations for which Mr. Smith is now speaking.

5. "That it has built up the highest debt in the history of America and the country is still where it was three years ago." This question is fully answered under (4). It is true the debt has been increased, but not as much as anticipated back in 1933 by those who caused the country to be in such a deplorable condition—the organizations for which Mr. Smith now speaks.
6. "That it has defied the Constitution in a saturnalia of experiments". Under which Mr. Smith further reads "The Federal Government is strictly limited in its power" * * * to those expressly mentioned in the Constitution, all others are reserved to the States and to the people". The above quoted statement regarding the power given under the constitution is true; the only defiers and usurpers of the Constitution are the Supreme Court in their decisions wherein they hold that they have the power to declare acts of Congress invalid. If Mr. Smith and his co-patriots and the members of the Supreme Court would read that great document and interpret it in the light under which it was written they would be forced to admit that the Supreme Court was and has never been given the power under the Constitution to declare acts of Congress invalid.

(See reports of Federal Convention, by James Madison pp 51, 406-407 and 475). The last statement on this subject in said record, at page 475, written by Madison himself, reads: "It was generally supposed that the jurisdiction given (Supreme Court) was constructively limited to cases of judicial nature."

The Supreme Court first violated the Constitution in the case of Marbury vs. Madison (1803) brought about by a desperate political battle between John Marshall and Thomas Jefferson wherein the Court in that decision held that they had the power to declare acts of Congress invalid without then or since being able to cite any provision of the Constitution giving them such power. Yes, I join Mr. Smith in the cry: "Back to the Constitution" with the hope that we will be able to speedily enact legislation that will define the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court so that even they will be able to understand the simple clear language of the Constitution which needs no interpretation on this subject.

7. "That in its AAA supposed to have been for benefit of the farmer, it has enabled the American markets of the American farmers, to be flooded by food stuffs from foreign nations." This statement is completely false. AAA legislation has directly brought order out of chaos as shown from the above results mentioned under "4".

8. That it has broken practically every pledge of the Democratic party. This statement is untrue and misleading. The program carried out by this administration as shown by the records, was whole heartedly approved by the Congress because it was well recognized as the only constructive program then or now before the nation. If Mr. Smith and his crowd had had any program to offer then or now it was then and is now their duty to submit it. We all welcome constructive criticism—but the wail of the "money changers" and their crowd who have been caught, tried and found guilty will not correct and cure the ills now confronting the country.

The Bonus
The House on January 22 concurred in the Senate amendments to the adjusted service certificate bill by a vote of 346 to 59. This sent this measure providing payment in full, through the baby bond issue, to the White House where on January 24 the President through a short penciled message vetoed same and soon thereafter the House by a vote of 325 to 61 overrode his veto. The measure now goes to the senate where next week it is expected that the Senate will override the President's veto by a vote of about 70 to 20. This will write "Finis" to this much troublesome piece of legislation and will do justice to the veterans, even though it will work hardships on the taxpayers in that payment through more bonds will give the big bankers $2,000,000,000 in interest to pay a $2,000,000,000 debt.

Mother Bell Guest Of Honor On 90th Birthday Wed., 29

Grandmother E. A. Bell celebrated her 90th birthday at her home in Burkburnett Wednesday when she had as her guests 25 friends and relatives at a dinner. Mrs. Bell is a well known and loved citizen of Burkburnett where she has lived for the last six years with her daughter, Mrs. Ella Clark.

Coming to Texas 70 years ago the pioneer citizen settled near Dallas and soon after moved into the area near Mineral Wells where she lived until 1910. In 1910 she moved to Petrolia and later moved to Burkburnett soon after the death of her husband.

Mrs. Bell was born in Mississippi in 1846, and her most vivid experiences are the days of the Civil War during which time she and her family experienced all the traditional hardships of the war time in the south. Her first husband, a young southern officer was killed in battle during the conflict.

Another often remembered experience that is recounted is the trip to Texas on the famous ship, the Robert E. Lee. The boat was the greatest luxury of River and coastal travel of the period. She remains active and very interested in the world about her. To the many friends and relatives gathered Wednesday she recounted the experiences of a rich and adventurous life.

Those children present at the reunion Wednesday were: Mesdames Biddie Smith, Burkburnett, Ella Clark, Burkburnett; Annie Glidewell, Devol, Okla.; and Messrs R. M. Bell, and R. Bell of Burkburnett, Leonard Bell of Childress, Mike Bell and Joe Bell of Petrolia, Lon Bell of Chillicothe; Mrs. Pearl Bell of Casper, Wyoming.

father. The daughter screamed at finding her mother lying in the cellar partly dressed and in a pool of blood.

Foster called a neighbor immediately, and when the neighbor came to the house he and others summoned the authorities. N. H. Harris, acting chief of police, Judge W. T. Vance, justice of peace, and several other people came to the scene of the alleged crime.

A short preliminary examination by the doctor that had been called showed that Mrs. Foster was dead as the result of a bullet wound in the head. By her side lay a 45 army automatic with one shell missing.

Foster was held for investigation until the county authorities arrived. When the county authorities arrived, they investigated the cellar, the body, and the surrounding home thoroughly. After questioning Foster for several hours they released him for further investigation.

In the home the authorities found that there was blood on the floors and pillows. There were spots of blood and hair on the walls and the floor. The testimony in the case brought out that the bath room and kitchen gave evidence of recent mopping where stains of what the officers believed to have been blood was wiped up.

The house, especially the bedroom of the couple was in complete disarray. The room gave evidence of a fight having taken place. When faced with this evidence, Foster admitted that he had fought with his wife, Mrs. Foster, the night before, when he returned from Wichita Falls early in the morning.

He stated that after the fight that he thought all was peaceful and that the quarrel was forgotten. He then went to bed according to his statement and found that his wife was missing when he awoke the next morning.

He further stated that he thought that she was up stairs with the children, then when he found that she was not he asked the children to help find her. The daughter found the body in the cellar at that time.

The officials investigated the body and found that it had been bruised and battered. The entire body showed evidence of having been hit repeatedly, according to the officers.

The lips and eyes were bruised and swollen, the arms and hands had abrasions and bruises, the other parts of the body carried bruises. The officer released Foster and warned him to stay within reach. Two days later he was arrested on a warrant sworn out in Burkburnett.

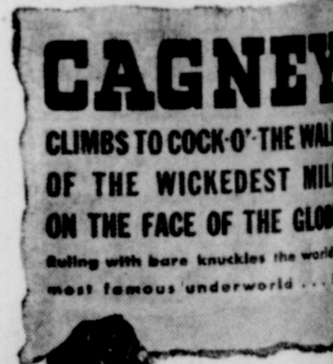

The grand jury indicted him and he was tried during November. The trial ended in a tie by the jury that stayed out over night. The second trial has been postponed several, but finally set for last Tuesday morning.

Mother Bell Guest Of Honor On 90th Birthday Wed., 29

Grandmother E. A. Bell celebrated her 90th birthday at her home in Burkburnett Wednesday when she had as her guests 25 friends and relatives at a dinner. Mrs. Bell is a well known and loved citizen of Burkburnett where she has lived for the last six years with her daughter, Mrs. Ella Clark.

Coming to Texas 70 years ago the pioneer citizen settled near Dallas and soon after moved into the area near Mineral Wells where she lived until 1910. In 1910 she moved to Petrolia and later moved to Burkburnett soon after the death of her husband.

Mrs. Bell was born in Mississippi in 1846, and her most vivid experiences are the days of the Civil War during which time she and her family experienced all the traditional hardships of the war time in the south. Her first husband, a young southern officer was killed in battle during the conflict.

Another often remembered experience that is recounted is the trip to Texas on the famous ship, the Robert E. Lee. The boat was the greatest luxury of River and coastal travel of the period. She remains active and very interested in the world about her. To the many friends and relatives gathered Wednesday she recounted the experiences of a rich and adventurous life.

Those children present at the reunion Wednesday were: Mesdames Biddie Smith, Burkburnett, Ella Clark, Burkburnett; Annie Glidewell, Devol, Okla.; and Messrs R. M. Bell, and R. Bell of Burkburnett, Leonard Bell of Childress, Mike Bell and Joe Bell of Petrolia, Lon Bell of Chillicothe; Mrs. Pearl Bell of Casper, Wyoming.

father. The daughter screamed at finding her mother lying in the cellar partly dressed and in a pool of blood.

Foster called a neighbor immediately, and when the neighbor came to the house he and others summoned the authorities. N. H. Harris, acting chief of police, Judge W. T. Vance, justice of peace, and several other people came to the scene of the alleged crime.

A short preliminary examination by the doctor that had been called showed that Mrs. Foster was dead as the result of a bullet wound in the head. By her side lay a 45 army automatic with one shell missing.
