HANHANDLE FIREMEN WILL CONVENE IN BURKBURNETT NEXT MONDAY

Wade L. Allison Convicted By Jury In McFarlane Death Case

WPA Worker in 18 Months Jury Tuesday

Found Guilty Of Homicide In McFarlane

New Trial

Workman in County
Brief as Allison
Tells Story

Allison was convicted by a county jury on the negligent homicide in the case of R. H. McFarlane, the result of a blow to the head on the morning of April 10. The sentence was received Tuesday evening when the jury reported its verdict after a one hour consultation with the judge.

The verdict was returned to the court by W. Fillmore in the court room where Allison had been held for the death of the man.

A large crowd, the majority from Burkburnett, gathered around the court room throughout the trial and stayed during the proceedings as the law was read and the arguments were heard. The jury was composed of H. A. Young, F. M. Robinson, H. Sonamaker, Thompson, Judge A. C. Posey.

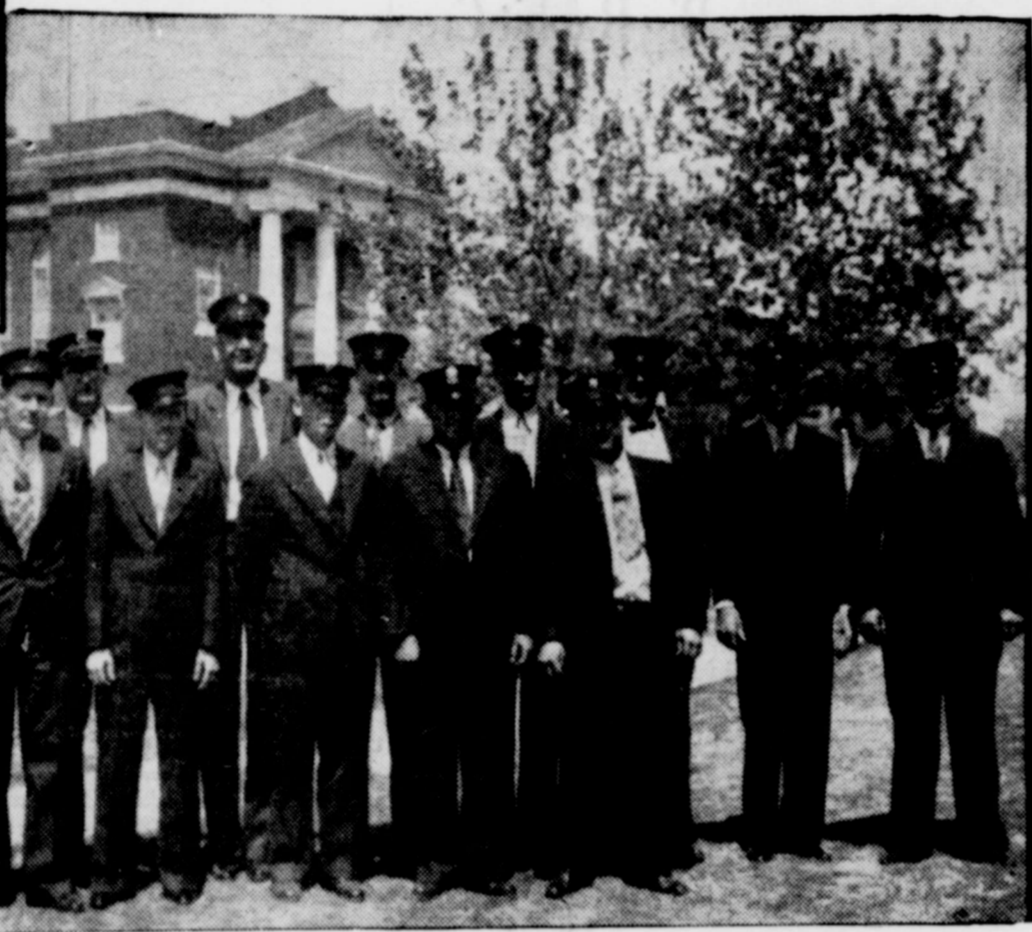

Allison told the story that led to the death of the man. He was on the job at 15 minutes. W. T. Elmer Parish guided him through the story. Allison said he had hit McFarlane on the back during the rock crusher. He had approached the man and asked him why he kept negroes and single men in the shop and laid Allison's work. He stated that McFarlane called McFarlane a nigger and that McFarlane had hit him, and had that the back of McFarlane backward.

Witnesses stated he was not a check early in the case and that the defendant hit McFarlane as the man on March 10. He said he had separated from the man. He testified that he hit McFarlane as the man on March 10.

On the picnic group and organized playing coordinated the health activities, a search for the flowers, trees and various types of birds observed unified the study program. In this manner the entire years work was unified in a single project.

BIGGEST VOTE OFFER IN STAR AUTO PRIZE CAMPAIGN WILL END THIS SATURDAY NIGHT

Only a Few Hours Remain of the Biggest Votes Ever to Be Offered in this Race for Those Two Chevrolets

A Wise Worker Will Gain a Lead Now While Big Votes Are in Effect; Speed Will Win in Next Few Days.

DESPITE false rumors and foolish ideas, the last of the big votes ever to be offered in the Burkburnett Star Auto Prize and Circulation drive will be issued during the next 48 hours. The vote schedule takes a big drop, promptly at 9 p. m. THIS Saturday night, and never again will subscriptions be worth what they are now.

Speed Will Win Speed, a little extra hard effort and real perseverance will win at this time. The worker who will recognize the wonderful opportunity now before her, who will make every minute of the next two days count big, will undoubtedly pile up a leading vote total before the zero hour of big votes. 'Tis the coward who quits to misfortune; 'Tis the knave who changes each day; 'Tis the fool who wins half the battle. Then throws his chances away. The time to succeed is when others are discouraged, show traces of tire; The battle is fought on the home-stretch; And won't the flag and the wreath.

Right now, during the next few short hours is the time to pile up such a lead of votes that your competitors cannot catch up with you during the last few days of the race—when the votes are so many times lower than they are now.

Readers Attention Now readers, here is where you come in. Have you paid your arrearage? Have you paid up your subscription in advance? Have you made a "promise" to one of the live wire workers and NOT fulfilled that promise? Did you mean it when you made that promise?

CAUSE OF CRIME DISCUSSED TUESDAY AT LIONS CLUB MEET

Ned McDaniels Points Out Sources of Crime In Speech

MARBLE BOARDS CITED

Ned McDaniels scored the inefficiency and discrimination in administration of criminal laws as the chief sources of the great amount of crime. In one of the frankest discussions ever presented to the members of the club, the Wichita Falls attorney pointed out concrete instances of lack of efficiency and discrimination in administration.

The speaker started his discussion by a denial that he was or would be a candidate and that his discussion was personal or pointed at present administration. However, the attorney drew on cases of contemporary interest for illustrations.

He stated that 90 per cent of crime originated in two groups, persons under 25 years of age and people without normal intelligence or with little education. In continuing the speaker made a sly allusion that the cases he referred to were cases he had read about, and that he discounted the evidence of the newspapers.

Marble Machines The speaker pointed out that the apparent disregard of the law in allowing marble machines to operate caused disrespect in the minds of warped intellects. The speaker stated that the higher courts had declared the apparatus illegal, and still county and local officials disregarded the violations.

In reference to discrimination the speaker stated that pardon, parole or acquittal was less difficult for the man that had money. In this he cited the case of the pardon by recent state officials of persons convicted in this area.

Alison Case The lawyer pointed out the error in the charge for the case of Wade Allison, who was tried Tuesday in Wichita Falls. In reference to the case, the attorney suggested that murder or aggravated assault would have been the correct charge.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS

During the last six years, no one has dared to mention the building of new public buildings or the attempt of any public improvement. The financial conditions of local school units all over the state have held new buildings, except in cases of federal aid, to a minimum. For that reason much very needed construction has been neglected. The heavy burden left over from boom times have caused most schools to struggle very hard to keep solvent enough to pay instructors and meet bonded obligations.

That same condition has existed locally. The school system entered the depression with a heavy burden. New buildings were just as essential then as they will ever be, but the heavy debt was enough to scare both the public and the school officials. The local board under Mr. Westerfield has been very successful in refunding and reducing that obligation.

Before very many months we will be faced with the necessity of some new construction. The high school building is comparatively modern, and with few additions could be up to date. That can not be said of either grade school building.

The primary building is a good sound building with the exception of two faults. The plaster on the inside falls periodically, and the room arrangement is so old fashioned it neglected the fundamental principle of providing healthful and safe conditions for gathering large numbers of people.

Central Ward school is jerry built. Nobody denies that. One of these days we will go down there and gather the bricks off of about half of our children. That may be a bit exaggerative, but it is fundamentally the truth. A few years ago in a southern state we saw some house proped up from the outside to keep them from falling. Before very many years we are going to have to get some props for the school building.

This is not to be considered as criticism of the superintendent nor of the school board. Under the existing financial conditions and in the face of public lethargy about paying taxes, it has been impossible to deal with the situation. So this paper is criticizing the PUBLIC.

CONSTRUCTIVE PROGRAM

We would like to urge the school board to present a program to the public for approval. The Star offers its columns to any suggestion by the board or by interested citizens. If either knows of a means to achieve this end, let us publish it and see what the public reaction will be.

As for our plan we think that a complete and progressive construction program ought to be started to culminate in a complete remodeling of the system in about ten years. This program ought to follow this plan: First building of a single story grade school unit faced away from the traffic of the state highway and sufficient to take care of the school children from first through sixth grades. This building ought to be complete with cafeteria, gymnasium, auditorium, and sanitation units. There ought to be a good library.

The second unit ought to be an individual junior high school unit. It should be complete. The purpose of the junior high school is to develop initiative in the teen age child. Crowded together with the senior high school students as the seventh and eighth grades are at the present, they have as much chance at taking lead as a man would at a ladies aid society meeting.

Finally the high school unit should have complete reconstruction to provide things that are modern trends. It should provide opportunity for greater vocational guidance and training, and wider recreational activities. The recreation part should include an adequate gymnasium and provision for art, literature, dramatics, clubs and other activities under ideal conditions. Most of all it needs a cafeteria now.

We must be dreaming, but if we are don't wake us up. It is pleasant to contemplate the possibilities of such a program.

WELCOME FIREMEN

Burkburnett has won a wide reputation for extending a generous welcome to all visiting delegations, and the city is attempting to break all records in making you glad that you have come to the convention. We are glad to have you. Your work is one of the most important phrases of community service that is a part of the modern scheme. Life would be more difficult and dangerous without your diligent and efficient service. The sacrifices that you have made personally stand as a guard against the dangers of uncontrolled fire.

Aside from the fact that your work deserves more honor than it has ever received, we are glad to have you as guests, because you always seem to have such a good time. All over the nation, where firemen get together there is a fellowship and fun. With the same zest that characterizes your work, you play.

Therefore your visit will provide us with a lot of fun we would have missed. It may even pull us out of the "dumps." Whatever discouragement may face us, should be dissolved by your presence. So, for the whole city, we extend a hearty welcome.

Peeps at Politics

No this is not a beauty contest! Nor anything like that, but this column is blossoming out with "bran new" head, picture an' all Three or four people have threatened to whip the presiding executive of this masterpiece, and I thought I had better put my picture at the top so they wouldn't whip the wrong guy. But, anyway it ought to be a law requiring a reproduction of the likeness of the writer at the head of each column. When a person goes to jail, or is caught in any criminal act, the officers "mug" him. So why not require any one that writes a column to be "mugged." After all there are very few crimes that are more offensive against the welfare of the social organism than writing a strip like this.

OTHER COLUMNISTS—I'm not very proud of my picture. It is the result of a noble bit of effort on the part of a photographer, but there is a limit to the ability of cameras and photographers to cover flaws. Compared to the other brethren in the profession it is downright handsome. Now take Mr. John Gould, The Mumbler, C. C. Hudson, or even Bill Bedell. I can understand why some of those don't wish a picture at the head of their column, but I have never been able to understand why Mr. Gould did wish to have his. Maybe there is a law that does force him to do so. The conductor of the Wichita column has had some lengthy discussions regarding his picture lately, but none of them seemed to justify the act, unless it was an official "mugging". I'll have to look into that law.

COMMISSIONERS—Burkburnett is more interested in the county commissioners race than any other from the presidential campaign on down. Locally we are more affected by the program adopted at the court house than at the White house. The battle has started in this race. F. R. Knauth and W. T. Holman have started the printing of cards, placards, and other literature. Well it looks like we will have our annual battle between the two veteran opponents. Two or three others have threatened to enter, but so far they have refrained the siren call of public service.

PRECINCT OFFICIALS — We have only one entry each into the justice of peace and constable races. Tom Duvall is out for justice of peace and George Willingham for constable. Neither of the incumbents have expressed intention of running.

EXPENSIVE ELECTION—Unless there are more candidates, the primary election is going to be expensive for the present group. The national and state officials do not pay a cent toward the expense of the ballot. The county and precinct candidates carry the entire burden. That seems a little unfair to me, but it is the law.

HALF RIGHT—The column was only half right when it predicted that Henry Grace would be mayor. He is mayor pro-tem. Alvin Hill, who has been pro-tem for a year was elevated to the mayor's position.

TAMMANY HALL—Every town has its "tammany hall," and Burkburnett is no exception. Some day slip around behind a certain firm and listen to the destiny of our noble city being planned. I wonder if the public would be interested in a verbatim record of the conversation that goes on during those meetings. Let me know. I think such is available.

POVERTY MARCHES—Thomas Hudson McKee, liberal candidate for congress of the 13th district, visited in Burkburnett Saturday. He has a rather clever card that he scattered all over the city. That is, it is a clever vote getter. It had all the catch phrases known in politics "living wage", "slave dole", "starving", "Youth without Opportunity", "Low interest rates", "Refinancing farm debts", "plan of peace", "increase of re-leaf standards". The card read like a page torn out of a veteran politician's handbook.

CONFLICT—There was one very obvious conflict in his program—"Government ownership of banks and operation of banks," and just three lines lower "Take government out of business" then in the next phrase — "dissolve private monopolies". Now all of these things might be good, but they couldn't exist at the same time. How on the earth can we give government ownership and control of the banks and take govern-

Big Rabbit Creek

A big all day singing was held Sunday at the Valley View School House and a fine dinner was served at 12:45 and believe me folks they had a dinner as the ladies up in that neck of the woods sure know their onions when it comes to cooking and fixing up fine dinners. They had singers from all over the state and from the good old lone star state of Texas, also from Arkansas. They sure did have lots of real good singing. The best of it all was that the ladies had enough food left over to feed a good sized army. A large crowd assembled and everybody went home feeling that they were glad they went.

Well no rain yet and every thing is getting drier and drier. We have clouds to gather up in the southwest and the northwest but so far it seems impossible for the rain clouds to extend out into Okla. and the northern part of Texas.

Well as usual Hawk Eye went over to Burkburnett Saturday and was there when the big $25 drawing come off and our esteemed C. C. Secretary of Burkburnett was on the appointed spot to hand over the money with a smile on his face a mile long. The one who drew the $10. was a colored woman. It appealed to Hawk Eye that it done Brother Herman as much good to hand over the 10 bucks as if it had been drawn by one of his own race, which showed the good spirit that Bro. Brown has in him.

Well sir while Hawk Eye was up on the street where the drawing come off, who did he meet sitting in their car but his old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ben McDonald, who for years owned and operated the Burkburnett Star, prior to a Mr. Fred Brookman buying out the printing shop Hawk Eye was sure pleased to meet them as he had a nice little visit with them and their nice bunch of sons which they have. Bro. Mc told the writer that it was mighty dry out in his neck of the woods and that he had turned his 150 acres of wheat over to his fine heard of white faces which he has.

The writer will say in all of his travels in large cities and small towns that he never was in a city or a town that there was as much ice cream eaten as there is in Burkburnett. Especially at the Pure Ice Cream store which is owned by the ice cream C. of Wichita Falls. Their manager is Jimmie Henderson, who is a real man for such a business. Hawk Eye dropped in the ice cream store to get an ice cream cone and he had to wait a long time to get in on account of the crowd. He counted 49 people, big little, old and even babies in arms seated on the benches eating ice cream and fully as many standing up. Some had 2 cones, one in each hand, so finally Hawk Eye got in hollering and told Jimmie he wanted a cone, so when Hawk Eye got to where he could see Jimmie and his two assistance he noticed great drops of sweat standing out on their foreheads. Talk about jumping around, but those three boys were sure dishing out the ice cream cones. That is the result of having a real up to date ice cream store in any city where its carried on in a sanitary way.

Last Monday morning about 5:30 a. m. A. L. Willis (alias) Cyclone Willis had the misfortune of losing his barn by fire and all of its contents such as 300 bushels of last years corn, several tons of feed with the heads on, all his harness, and all of his cotton seed to plant. Mr. Obbie Clark is farming the place and has been for several years past. Mr. Willis farm is located 2 miles west and one mile south of the Rabbit Creek school house in Okla. The writer is unable to state whether Mr. Willis was carrying insurance or not.

Last Wednesday a week ago Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Hatches (alias little jimmy) lost their house and all of its contents by fire. They never saved a thing. Their fire was caused by their oil stove exploding and going up in the air, but no one was hurt.

Mr. Tobe Hardin and Mrs. Martha Halls and her son Charlie called on the Owens family Friday evening and visited several hours with the family. The writer has been informed that good fortune smiled on Mr. J. A. Alexander one day of last week by receiving $50. per acre for 20 acres of his land by some old company out of Oklahoma City. The consideration for the 20 acres was $1,000. Hawk Eye says if he had just one half of those bat skins this day and hard times he would jump straight up and try to land over in Arkansas.

Mr. editor of the Burkburnett Star, would you please correct the writer made in last weeks Rabbit Creek News, where he mentioned Mr. Paul Brownings name. It should be read Herman Brown, the Secretary of the Burk C. C. Please have the correction to go to the one to whom it belongs and I will be thankful to you for same.

Safety will be stressed in a campaign urging all visitors, as well as Dallas residents, to drive safely. An Oldsmobile eight touring sedan will be used by the club as an official inspection car.

THESE LAUGH-MAKERS INVITE LISTENERS—They're Ken Murray, famous comic, and his lovely stooge, Eve Arden, who have just bowed in on the new radio program, sponsored by the makers of Rinso, and heard every Tuesday night. With them are heard Phil Regan, screen tenor and Russ Morgan's Lifeboys orchestra.

CAT AND RAT ARE BUDDIES—The lion shall lie down with the lamb—A singular attachment has grown between this cat and white rat owned by a Salt Lake City (Utah) family. The cat will not play with other cats, or the rat with other rats.

AUTOGRAPHS WHERE THEY SHOW—Francis X. Donaldson of Washington, son of the superintendent of the House Press Gallery, broke his leg four weeks ago playing basket ball. So far 60 of his friends have dropped around to autograph the plaster cast.

NEW SCREEN FARCE IS DUE

Jack Haley, Grace Bradley, William Frawley, Adrienne Marden, and Onslow Stevens play the leading roles in "F Man", an hilarious new comedy about a boy who was not quite good enough to be a G-Man, which opens Saturday Midnight at the Palace.

"F Man," its producers admit, owes its idea to the cycle of G Men pictures, but unlike these, it presents as its hero a small-town boy who couldn't make the grade. The adventures and misadventures he gets into in his private pursuit of Public Enemy No. 1 provides a sequence of delightful and amusing situations.

Haley plays the title role. He goes to the big city to become a G Man but succeeds only in making a pest of himself at the dept. of Justice offices. To get rid of him they tell him he is an F Man and must work secretly, making sure not to come to the department's offices under any conditions. Bursting with pride, Haley begins his adventures—the first of which is to capture a man who turns out to be the chief of the government operatives.

The 2500 foot test for oil and gas started this week, and the familiar roar of oil pots and clanking of rotary apparatus was heard once again in the Burkburnett area. The test has attracted wide interest in the city, and the above picture shows a large number of Burkburnett business men that went to the scene as the well was started.

At 5 p. m. Sunday, May 3rd, members of the Spanish class of the Burkburnett high school will present "Plaza of the Islands", a one act play with songs and music. The play is a drama which concerns the coming of the Canary Islanders to make their home in the part of Texas which is now San Antonio. New Phone Rate Announced Here

Rates To Affect Local Consumers Starting May 26

Almost 140,000 handset telephone users in Texas will receive a reduction in rates totaling more than $250,000 annually, W. L. Prehn, general manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. announced today. Telephone users, when they have had handsets for two years, will no longer have to pay the additional charge of 15 cents a month. The new rate will be effective May 26.

The two year period will be retroactive from that date, which means that customers who have had handsets for the two years will cease to pay immediately.

Handsets were first introduced in 1927, at which time a charge of 50 cents a month was made because of higher manufacturing costs and maintenance, as well as the necessity for control to keep the demand from exceeding the available supply. This also prevented too rapid displacement of thousands of serviceable desk type telephones.

Economies of manufacture and improvements in design which lowered maintenance costs caused successive reductions to 25 cents and then to 15 cents. Now with the gradual introduction of the handset about half completed the limiting of the charge to a 24-month period is warranted, it was stated.

"Throughout history people have invariably lost their liberties by listening to those who have asked for autocratic power to promote the public good."—Former Governor Natham L. Miller of New York, Republican.

W. R. Hill Elected Delegate To Big Methodist Meet.

W. R. Hill, Burkburnett banker was elected as one of the representatives of the Wichita Falls district to the big meeting of Methodists that will be held in Houston next November. The meeting will be held in recognition of 100 years of Methodism in Texas, and will follow the centennial theme. Mr. Hill was chosen among others at the Jacksboro district meeting.

"It would be foolish to deny that some of the enormous amount of money which it has been necessary to expend clung to fingers that did not deserve it."—United States Senator Alben W. Barkley, Democrat of Kentucky.

Large Strawberries Grown Local Garden

Mr. and Mrs. Casey Logan brought members of the staff a large amount of strawberries grown locally. The berries were even larger than those which attracted so much attention last year. The garden plot is irrigated, and is located on 4th St. The berries were unusually excellent in quality and taste in spite of their huge size.

"As for me, I decline to be herded into a socialistic, communistic, bolshevistic corral even though a democratic banner is falsely hung above the gate."—James A. Reed, former U. S. Senator from Missouri and prominent Democrat.

"The farmer, despite the gentle rain of checks from the government, is the eternal enemy of regimentation and price fixing and control of what he may produce."—Dan D. Casement of Kansas, president of Farmer's Independent Council.

"Bear well in mind that whatever you have of freedom and of right is confined to the few pages upon which are written the constitution of the United States and its amendments."—Col. Robert R. McCormick, Editor of the Chicago Tribune.

Local Supply Co. Girls Ball Team League Contender

The Northwestern Supply Co. Rookies of Wichita Falls and Burk leom as one of the outstanding teams of Northwest Texas on the basis of preseason dope. Under the guiding hand of Coach Paul Whitley and Manager Mack Turner, the rookies have been shaping together one of the most colorful softball clubs in this section and are looking forward to a big year.

The team last year proved to be one of the best in North Texas and with a few weaker spots filled this year leom as an even greater team. Eleven of last year's regular stars are back this season to give the Rookies a veteran team that should carry the colors of Northwestern Supply company far in the Wichita Valley Girls league.

With their sensational battery of Maxine Hill and Adael Sturgart at a starting point, Coach Whitley has rounded out the team in great shape. Early practice sessions has shown the team a far more powerful hitting club than last year and they are showing promise of more developed fielding machine to work behind this battery.

With an infield built around Carrie Ruth Stonecipher at 1st base and Maxine Arbockle at shortstop, the inner defense of the Rookies leoms as one of the best in the league. Ruby Kennett holdover second baseman, and Anna Mae Medlin, a new comer at third base, rounds out the infield. Medlin will take the place of Helen Fay Bennett, who has moved her work to Burkburnett. Patra Moore, a hard hitting infielder, is billed for the infield utility post.

Coach Whitley is introducing the four man outfield in the Rookies play this year and the experiment will be watched with interest. Marjorie Fox, Edna Leath, Audrey McFall and Myrtle Esch are the four holdover outfielders with Francis Medlin and Ada Ruth King, two new comers, making strong bids to break into the general makeup of the Rookie lineup.

Labor Case At Wichita Meeting

The labor case involving the Tucker Oil Company and the members of the local 254 continued the hearing at Wichita Falls this week as testimony was received from members of both sides of the dispute. Extensive testimony was received from both the defense and plaintiff in the case. The evidence taken at Wichita Falls will be forwarded to Washington, D. C. where it will be reviewed by the NLRB which will issue decision on the matter.

Dr. Edwin A. Elliot, regional director, and Kar Mueller, attorney for the board in the 16th region attended the hearing and assisted in the taking of evidence. Both men are from Ft. Worth.

office of the board. E. C. DeMontel is the attorney for the TberuckdndM Tucker Oil Company.

Charges By Union

The charges brought by the local 254 were that the defendant company has refused to bargain collectively through union representatives. The defense presented two answers. It maintained that the majority of workers of the company, of which there are 85 eligible for the union membership, do not wish to have their labor matters settled by the union. The company also maintained that its business was purely intra-state and that the national labor board did not have jurisdiction in the matter.

Testimony

L. B. Hirt, superintendent of the plant, stated that 25 men who work under his supervision had stated that they preferred handling their own labor relations, directly through the company, and not through representatives of the union.

C. E. Lundberg stated that the production employees had voluntarily signed a petition asking the deduction of dues to the union be discontinued. The witnesses declared that the petition had been drawn up at the request of the employees.

Union Answer

However, the union representatives stated that the men had no choice, that they either signed or their jobs were endangered and Bebeneyer submitted a proposition that the government hold a secret ballot with the employees.

Mr. Tucker stated that the company was purely inter-state and that all matters were handled within the state. B. F. Gilchrist, of the Bell Oil and Gas company, submitted statistics regarding the purchase of the Oil from the company by the Bell company.

Attention Is Given To Diphtheria Prevention

Diphtheria is an acute communicable disease of human origin, often becoming epidemic during the winter months.

Man is the source of infection; recognized cases, missed cases, and carriers.

The recognized case which is severe enough in form to have a doctor in attendance and which is under quarantine.

The missed case is one in which the person may have the disease in such a light form that he does not know he has it. He may be on the street, mingling with the people. Another person may get the diphtheria germ from him and have the disease in very severe form.

The carrier is a perfectly well person who carries the diphtheria germ in his nose or throat constantly, but has no symptoms of the disease. It has been proved that many patients harbor germs for weeks, months or even years following an infection, and are dangerous distributors of the disease. Transmission by healthy carriers goes far to explain the occurrence of diseases among persons who have apparently not been exposed. Carriers unfortunately exist in large numbers, and render the ultimate control of the disease exceedingly difficult.

The disease is transferred by direct contact with an infected person or carrier through kissing, sneezing and coughing; also by indirect contact with contaminated articles or through drinking contaminated milk.

The death rate is higher among children from birth to two years of age.

The only sure way to protect your child from diphtheria is to have him immunized against it when he is six months old. This protection is given now with either one or two inoculations of toxoid and is considered protection for at least five or six years. He is not safe just to be kept at home because a carrier may come to him. Even the milk which he drinks may carry a diphtheria germ.

You cannot keep people out of your home and milk is one of its essential foods.

Protect him by giving him one inoculation of toxoid NOW.

Love Story Revealed In 'Way Down East'

If a woman pays the price of her sin in remorse and suffering, has she won the right to love and happiness again?

An ageless conflict between stern rockbound morality and the spirit of liberality and forgiveness, becomes a loving issue again in the dramatic conflict of "Way Down East," which comes Sunday and Monday to the Palace Theatre.

Adapted from the play which through years has grown to the position of America's greatest melodrama, the picture stars Rochelle Hudson and Henry Fonda, with Slim Summerville, Edward Trevor, Margaret Hamilton and Andy Devine in the chief supporting roles.

The story revolves around the character played by Miss Hudson. Appearing from nowhere, she applies for work on Russell Simpson's farm, soon wins the love of his son, played by Henry Fonda, but for some mysterious reason fails to reciprocate his affection.

The reason becomes apparent with time, however, as malicious gossip brings tales of the girl's dubious past to the Squires' ears.

The drama races to its thrilling close as Simpson reveals the story of the girl's shame, then recants in his judgement before his son's fury, his wife's pleas for mercy.

In one of the most thrilling climaxes ever filmed, Miss Hudson is rescued from an ice jam onto which she has ventured in her agony, and the man who has wronged her pays his debt with his life in a moment of remorse and gallantry.

War Finance
The Senate and House agreed with the conference to spend $572,500,000 for the army next year. This bill carries a provision for a standing army of 165,000 enlisted men. There seems to be a tendency on the part of our government to follow the lead of the other nations of the world in arming to the limit of the national budget. The army will enlist men at the rate of 1,500 a month until the 18,000 additional have been enlisted.

Biggest Zeppelin
The Goodrich corporation has plans for the largest zeppelin that was ever built. It will be 75 feet longer than the present Von Hindenberg, the great ship of Germany. This new ship will be 850 feet long and will be 145 feet wide. The purpose of the ship is to carry mail between the United States and Europe on a regular trans-Atlantic schedule. In this service the Americans are attempting to vie with the Germans who have already started the service and has two ships started for the completion schedule of next spring. That will give Germany three major ships for the service. The American ship will be larger but is seen as if the company would be wiser if it would make the ship safer. Three times the American public has witnessed the building of the "largest ship in the world", and each time a tragedy has followed losing the lives of many people. The company ought to say, "The ship is not larger, but stronger and safer than any ever built." In each case where the zeppelin fell, it was the almost deliberate flying into danger that caused the explosions.

Wheat Up
The persistent reports of drouth from the Southwest have sent wheat up five times during the last month. The latest rise in the price of the grain was last Friday when the prices swung up a cent or more all over the nation. The drouth brought the same reaction this year as too much rain brought last year in the Midwest.

Liquor Control
The people were surprised this week when the expense of administering the liquor control act was released. The bureau at Austin stated that the expense of collecting and regulating taxes and license on liquor had been only 5 per cent. It is hard to imagine a government bureau not spending more than that.

Returns From Beauty Shop Convention

It is not the real business of a beauty culturist to try to make beautiful women more beautiful. "The real reason for the beauty profession," according to Miss Alice Deweese, beauty operator at the King beauty shop here, and who has just returned from the Great Southwestern Beauty Shop Owners Convention at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas, Texas, "is of far greater importance to the girl whose hair may not be as she would like it, whose skin may be dry, whose nails may be brittle and whose personal charm may not be equal to her idea of the world's most beautiful woman. She required beauty and the beauty culturists are meeting at Dallas to study ways and means of aiding the "less than beautiful" girls who, according to their own admissions, want to add to their personal beauty and charm.

Miss Deweese says, "When a beauty culturist can increase the beauty and personal charm of the fair sex to such an extent that the individual is both able and willing to set aside sums of money each week or month for this service, it means that the beauty profession of America is well on its way to being one of the country's most important industries and professions."

There were inspiring lectures on how the dying of the hair of the grayhaired business woman sometimes helps her to obtain a position, sweetheart and husband, or corrects the mistake that even nature may make in giving a certain type of girl attributes unsuited to her facial contour, complexion and disposition. There is no question that the ugly girl can lose her inferiority complex and be completely changed by a good beauty shop work," says Miss Deweese.

LIBRARY SERVES WIDE AREA HERE

The Burk Burnett public library serves a large number of children and grownups through the week, according to the reports of the institution locally. The library was established more than a year ago and placed in excellent financial condition by local pledges last year. The first campaign raised more than seven hundred dollars for the support of the institution during the past year.

Since that time many volumes have been added to the shelves and an emphasis has been placed on the securing of a well balanced group of books for both children and grown-ups. The institution is averaging a loan list of more than 70 books per day at the present.

Be a Booster
A booster is one who helps to boost his town, all local projects of merit and everyone who is trying to boost themselves up a few notches. Are you a booster, or a knocker? The Star under the present management has done everything possible during the past few years to boost this city and every resident of this trade territory. The workers in the Star campaign ARE workers and deserve your support as does the Star. What are you going to do about it? Prove yourself a real booster before Saturday night at 9 p.m. The world has enough knockers now.

If you have subscribed for one year, that's fine, but don't stop there. (The Star did not quit coming to you when your time was out), but see your favorite candidate and give her another year. It will mean MORE votes for her.

Long Term Subs Win
It takes votes to win. It takes long term subscriptions to get the biggest votes. A one year subscription next week will mean 3,000 votes. A five year subscription before Saturday night will give your favorite over 50,000 votes. It is votes that win, and subscription paid into the Star office is the only way to get votes. Be a booster—give your favorite a five-year subscription before 9 o'clock Saturday night and HELP make sure she wins one of those Chevrolet cars. You can do it!
