S. JOE MORRIS RALLIES THURSDAY; PROBABLY WILL RECOVER FROM WOUND

Oklahoma Farmer Dies of Wounds Inflicted by Son Wednesday

Father Dies At Home Near Devol 6 p. m. Thursday

Joe Morris died at his home near Devol, Oklahoma, Wednesday afternoon at 6 p. m. Thursday.

Mr. Morris was shot by his son, Joe Morris, Jr., who was arrested Wednesday morning.

Mr. Morris, 46-year-old former cafe owner in Burkburnett, yesterday shot and seriously wounded his former wife, Mrs. Pearl Morris, and then turned the gun to kill himself with three shots.

The shooting took place in the Morris cafe owned by Mrs. Morris after the argument between the estranged couple at 4:50 Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Morris died within a few seconds after he had fired two bullets into his chest and a third bullet into his brain. He had fired two shots at Mrs. Morris, the first one entering her stomach and seriously wounding her, and the second one grazing the top of her head.

Mrs. Morris is remembered as one of the real heroines of Burkburnett for having saved the First National bank from a robbery on March 1, 1929. Mrs. Morris defied the commands of one of five men who held guns pointed toward her and ran into the street screaming "the bank's being robbed."

Mr. and Mrs. Morris had been separated for approximately one year, and Mrs. Morris had secured her divorce in Wichita Falls about one month ago. Since a year ago Mr. Morris had spent his time in West Texas, New Mexico and in short visits to Burkburnett and Wichita Falls. The couple had six children, two of whom were in the cafe at the time of the shooting.

Morris came to the cafe Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock and he and his wife went to a small bedroom in the rear of the business place. After a 20 minute conversation, he returned to the front, and according to those present, appeared very angry. Ten minutes later Mrs. Myrtle Moore, waitress in the cafe, and Bill Morris, 20 year old son of the couple heard one shot. Mrs. Moore ran to the street screaming and Bill Morris started toward the room where the couple had been talking.

As the second shot was fired, the son approached the door and his father threatened him with his gun. He retired and started out of the building.

Lloyd Morrel, who had heard the screams of Mrs. Moore, rushed into the building, and he and the son noticed Morris place the gun to his chest and fire twice. They met Mrs. Morris at the door of the room where she had stumbled and was holding to the swing door. They carried her to the front of the building and handed her to two men who placed her in a car and rushed her to the Burkburnett clinic for an emergency treatment.

A crowd gathered quickly, and Chief of Police, Bill Stap took charge of the situation with the assistance of N. H. Harris, member of the department. They entered the room back of the cafe and found the body of Morris on the bed. The bed was soaked in blood from the three wounds in Morris' body and head.

Blackstone Wins Office In State Firemen's Group

J. J. Blackstone was honored at the state firemen's meeting at Ft. Worth last Saturday as the opposition rapidly faded, and the local fire marshal was elected as vice president of the state association.

The campaign was abetted when the Burkburnett civic band swept into the city to whoop 'em up for the local candidate.

Until the band made its appearance, strong opposition had developed, but after the first ballot all other candidates withdrew to leave the local candidate a clear field by acclamation.

The convention then confirmed the election and made possible for the local man to ultimately be president of the organization. The officers of the association are promoted automatically each year. In three years Blackstone will sit in the president's chair.

Thanks Public
Mr. Blackstone, who is in Hawkins, Texas recovering from a broken foot, sent his thanks to the public in Burkburnett which backed him during the campaign, and made possible the transportation of the band to Fort Worth.

He also added a thanks for all of the others who assisted in the campaign. Especially he expressed thanks to the news paper in Burkburnett and other cities that gave generous space to the campaign.

Due to the misfortune that crippled Mr. Blackstone, the championship team entered the contest badly handicapped. The team decided at first not to enter, but on the last moment a team was rushed to Fort Worth to arrive just in time for the contest, making the drive in 2 hours and 20 minutes. The trial was unsuccessful, but every Burkburnett citizen gloried in their fight in spite of odds. John Music, Frank Kelley, Neal Allen, Jack Kelly, W. A. Roberts, Bob Laney, G. C. Posey were at the meeting with Blackstone, and aided in the campaign and contest.

Mrs. Gilchrist Breaks Her Arm In Tennis Game

Mrs. B. F. Gilchrist, prominent Burkburnett woman, fell and broke her left arm near the wrist during a tennis match last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Gilchrist was playing a game with friends and fell while trying to make an extremely difficult shot, according to witnesses. Fortunately on the adjoining court a doctor was playing who gave the Burkburnett woman attention so that she was able to return to the city. After returning here, the arm was reset and Mrs. Gilchrist was administered first aid treatment. Friends reported that she was doing "satisfactorily" Wednesday afternoon.

Local Family Holds Reunion Party

The four sisters of the Nolen family held a reunion party this week honoring the visiting sisters and families. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minick were hosts and hostesses of the group at their home. A fried chicken supper was enjoyed by all in the park near the home. While the dinner was being prepared the group joined in a sing song. Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Crump, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Everett and Pauline Blancet, all of Wichita Falls; W. B. Music, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Englemann, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minick of Burkburnett, and Mrs. H. H. Hill of Lubbock.

"Has she kept her girlish figure?"
"Kept it? She's doubled it!"

Local Boys Of Scout Troop Do Good Deed Sun.

Six Burkburnett boys, members of the Troop No. 2 Boy Scouts organization in Burkburnett, saved the home of a farmer near the diversion lake to do their Good Deed for Sunday afternoon.

The boys, accompanied by Mrs. H. R. Hays and Mrs. W. O. Alexander, had started for the annual camp at Diversion Camp, and as they passed a home near the lake, one of the boys noticed that smoke was pouring through the roof of the house.

The boys stopped immediately and started a bucket brigade. The brigade included: Glendon Alexander, James Walling, Howard Clements, Buddy Brookshire, Bobby Hays, Hudson Meador Jr. Into the flaming home the boys rushed to secure a larger number of buckets. One of the buckets contained two gallons of milk, and on to the flame the white liquid went to help in the fight.

The boys formed a line and before the fight had hardly started they had the fire under control. After an investigation, they could find no neighbors nor could they find any member of the farmers family. They left a note which said "Boy Scouts on the way to camp. We have done our good deed for today."

Calmly the boys loaded back into their cars to continue on the way to the diversion lake. At the lake it was reported that the boys enjoyed a full program of fun and entertainment. They will be back next Sunday afternoon.

During the camp they take a full hike each day, swim, build handicraft articles, learn regular badge routine examination, hold a camp fire council each night with story telling and instruction.

The troop under the leadership of Morris Strong is one of the most active in the territory, and they meet each Monday night at the First Baptist church. Mr. Tanner is substituting as scout master during the summer months. All boys between the ages of 12 and 18 have been invited to join the organization.

CLEVER DOG

Spearman Dog Trained to Bring Home the Beans: or Another Story of How to Meet The Depression

Amazing, almost believe it or not, is presented in the cleverness of the German police dog belonging to J. H. Spearman of this city. The aforementioned canine has presented a very unique way to meet these dark and dreary beanless days. The dog was trained by the children to carry things from the market to home, and the children had great fun in training him to act as a porter for them. However, Mr. Porter was quick to see the possibilities when he noticed that the dog had taken the initiative and started gathering articles for himself. The last few weeks, the canine had brought home shoes, and other useful articles as well as the bones the average dog carries. The climax was reached last week when a neighbor cooked a pot of beans, and lo and behold, the well trained nose of the dog followed with unerring accuracy the scent of the cooked beans. What should happen but a few minutes later he was back scratching Spearman's back door with a pot of delicious beans in his mouth. Well, he didn't bring home the bacon, but he sure did bring home the beans.

It is reported that Spearman has refused some large offers for the valuable animal, but so far the no sale sign has remained up. Well that's just about right, hold out for a big price.

Star Wins Award In the State Best Weekly Contest

The Burkburnett Star placed third in the State Best All Round Weekly contest held in connection with the annual Texas Press Association at Tyler, Texas last week. The first place was won by the Wellington, Texas paper.

The paper that won for Burkburnett was judged for its excellence in mechanical printing, appearance, and technical perfection. The front page, headlines, stories and adds of the paper were given especial compliment by the judges of the state convention.

The high ranking of the paper for its first time to enter the contest is an unusual compliment to Burkburnett for the institution that serves this area.

The paper managed to place in the high rank in competition against 81 other weekly papers of the best type in the state. In each of these cities with two exceptions, the papers have county seats from which to draw news and advertising.

The papers are judged by the outstanding men of the newspaper profession of the state and from other papers of merit. This approval therefore constitutes a professional approval of the quality of the local paper, and a compliment to the publisher, Fred Braakman, and the entire staff of the paper.

Every department of the paper received the serious attention of the judges and the delegates of the newspapers from all over the state. The recognition will give the paper national notice among the publishers of newspapers.

School Board To Publish List Of Delinquent Taxes

Declaring that a list of delinquent taxpayers would be published, the educational board of the Burkburnett Independent School district, revealed Tuesday night the following resolution, adopted by the school board: "June 16, 1936. Be it resolved that the board of education of the Burkburnett independent school district and the secretary of the board be directed to publish a notice to the effect that a list of all delinquent taxpayers would be published in the local paper within 30 days from above date, and that the tax collector be directed at once to compile a list of all delinquent taxpayers."

Allison Arrested Felony Charged

Wade Allison, Burkburnett P. W. A. worker who was convicted for the death of R. H. McFarlane of Burkburnett, was arrested last Wednesday morning in Burkburnett on a felony charge related to the sale of and disposal of mortgaged property. The charge was sworn to by the county sheriff after Allison allegedly disposed of a mortgaged car that was in his possession.

The arrest was made during the appeal period. Allison was convicted in the county court after the charge for McFarlane's death had been made an indictment by the county jury. The trial resulted in a ten months sentence in the county jail. The fatal affray started over Allison's release from the local paving project.

ANNOUNCES

Mike Anglin, County Attorney, authorized the Burkburnett Star to announce his candidacy for re-election to the position of county attorney in Wichita Falls. In making the announcement, the county attorney pointed out the record for convictions during the past two years that he has served as administrator of the office in the county.

The county official and his department submitted proof of an efficient administration of enforcement. The full announcement appears in this issue on page 4.

Bonus Bonds For Local Veterans Arrived Monday

Almost 150 of the 225 veterans received the bonds in the Burkburnett area, according to the statement released by Al Lohofener at the Burkburnett post-office Thursday morning. More than 90 percent of the veterans were cashing all or part of the bonds as soon as possible. The cash registers of the city were expected to start ringing merrily this week as the checks returned from the pay offices.

The bonds started pouring into Burkburnett Monday morning as 128 of the registered letters arrived. Burn Alexander was the first veteran to receive his bonds. Soon afterwards a line formed at the office, and all day long a stream of the exservice men visited the government building to secure the valuable letters.

The amount cashed in by the veterans will amount to a little more than $50,000. Of this large amount a large part will be spent locally. Almost 100 more veterans will receive the bonds during the next few days.

The only difficulty up to date has been the typographical errors in the names of the men receiving the bonds. In such cases the bonds must be returned to the treasury department, and new bonds will be issued to the veteran to whom they are due.

The victory achieved by the veterans represented the culmination of a fight that had lasted since the world war. The adjudged compensation represented an amount fixed by term of service, and by the time spent in America and overseas.

The local American Legion, Oscar Frye post, is planning a celebration party in the near future.

"Don't you think that Wadsworth fellow was right when he said 'Heaven lies about us in our infancy?'"
"Sure but he forgot to add that everybody lies about us in our maturity."

"Who's that close mouthed fellow over there?"
"He ain't close mouthed. He's just waiting for the janitor to come back with the spittoon."

Joe Morris Died at Once From Three Self Inflicted Wounds After Shooting Estranged Wife in Local Cafe Wed.

Funeral Arrangements Indefinite

Mrs. Joe Morris was granted by the physicians to have more than a fighting chance to recover from the wound inflicted by her former husband, Joe Morris. Dr. I. D. Russel stated that her chances for recovery were excellent unless reaction followed. She was resting Thursday. The bullet wounding Mrs. Morris, pierced the walls of the stomach and in her favor was the small loss of blood. After an emergency operation she reacted excellently, and brought the good news of her strength to many friends.

Burk Boys Asked To Register For NYA Jobs, Wichita

Mr. H. A. Ziegler, district representative of the National Youth Administration of Texas, with offices in Wichita Falls, Texas, has received notice of an increase in the number of young men for whom jobs are available on NYA projects in each county of the district.

Unemployed young men between the ages of 16 and 25, whose parents have been certified by the relief Agency as eligible to work on WPA projects, are entitled to work on NYA projects. Those who are interested in procuring the work can obtain further information from Mr. H. A. Ziegler, 610 Radio building Wichita Falls, Texas. He can tell one whether or not he is eligible. If one is eligible, it will then be necessary to register with the Employment Office in case this has not been done already. Mr. Ziegler stated this opportunity will probably be open for a limited time, so prompt action will be important.

Heroine at Robbery

Mrs. Morris is remembered as one of the real heroines of Burkburnett for having saved the First National bank from a robbery on March 1, 1929. Mrs. Morris defied the commands of one of five men who held guns pointed toward her and ran into the street screaming "the bank's being robbed."

City To Close On July Fourth

All Burkburnett merchants and business institutions will close on Saturday, July 4th to celebrate national Independence day, and the weekly trades day event that is generally scheduled for Saturday will be held Friday, July 3rd. The celebrations this year will be mild so far as Burkburnett is concerned.

The majority of the local people plan to visit the nearby event or to spend a quiet holiday in visiting relatives or resting. The custom of a quiet holiday has been set by several years of practice in this city. Generally speaking the city joins other community programs.

STAR HONORED

The Burkburnett Star has been awarded third place as the best all around weekly in the state by the Texas Press Association meeting in Tyler, Texas last week. The wide spread approval that the People of Burkburnett and area have given the paper during the past year has been appreciated by the publisher, Fred Brookman. The generous response of the citizens of the area to the program and ambitions of the paper is highly gratifying.

In addition to the pleasure that we have had in serving you for many years, the approval of the newspaper men of the quality of the paper published here is pleasant. The men who judge the quality of the papers in the contest were men who were technically qualified to judge the paper from the viewpoint of journalistic perfection. The fact that the Star has kept the loyalty and interest of a large number of subscribers and at the same time ranked as one of the three best papers in the state gives the staff great satisfaction.

The high rating of the paper is the result of the combined efforts of the staff and the public. The reporters for the paper and the editors could not have combined the news of the community into 52 successful editions without the hearty cooperation of every person in the community.

Next year the paper is out to win first place. There are many technical rules that must be followed. Sometimes the Star will find it necessary to change, revise, or cut out articles, stories, and editorials which may violate the rules of good journalism. We feel that in making this statement that the public will appreciate our confidence in their understanding and will continue to cooperate as they have in the past.

The paper can take first prize next year, and will if the staff and the public work together. The paper is recognized as an institution belonging to the community. Its place in the community is a valuable one. It is to serve and aid you.

CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES

One of the most ironic situations that ever arose in American history or ever arose in the world's politics is the present attitude of the Republican party. When the United States was first organized under the constitutional form of government, the organization was made to meet with an emergency that threatened to destroy the new born republic. Every rule, every compromise, and every word in the document was written under conditions that called for the highest genius of the period.

Never once did the writers of that much discussed document believe that it would be an inflexible document to bind the people of the following generations to a slavery of the rules. After the first ten amendments were adopted no further radical change was made in the document until the republican party was born. Then in quick succession that party sponsored the three most radical changes that have ever been written in the sacred word,—the 13, 14, and 15th amendments.

The present day republican party was born and nourished in those amendments, and never before or since has the constitution received such radical revision.

Now this party that was born in an emergency of the war period and fostered by the hatreds created during the subsequent years throws up its hands in holy horror when another emergency calls for some slight revision of the document. The very party that did more to destroy the theory of state's rights by three rapid amendments, has yelled "sacrilege" in the name of state's rights.

Roosevelt hit the right note at the Arkansas memorial services last week when he pointed out that constitutional change was the evidence of progress. He also pointed out that the document had not been binding to the men that had built the nation. Rather, he stated it was the foundation for a forward movement.

Now the republicans are asking for us to bind ourselves to a real situation after they have forgotten their complete disregard of the sanctity of the same instrument of government.

LANDON-KNOX

The Landon - Knox ticket for the Republican party pleased more of the progressive people than any other combination could have without including Borah. The nomination of the western leader means that the party partially recognized the fact that they can't always pull the wool over the eyes of the rank and files of the nation. However, if we must have a republican president, we can't think of two men that would be more desirable and not have Borah on the Republican ticket.

The outstanding objection that arises in the minds of the voters is the fact that the nominees haven't been decisive on any single issue during the pre-nomination campaign. Evasiveness and vagueness has characterized every speech.

BOO!

Wild, hair-brained public speakers, who are running around over the country shouting "wolf, wolf" and trying to get the public aroused over the dangers of communism in these United States, are more for a definite personal gain than anything else. The question that we would like to ask of the men who recently invited the ministers of the area to hear him talk about the subject, is one that a minister asked him, "Who is financing the fight?" Generally speaking you can place a man by watching who supports him.

County Attorney— Burkburnett was very interested in the County attorney's race, and is probably more excited about the possibility of a close fight in that department than any other county office. The incumbent, Mike Anglin received a large vote here in the last campaign and had some very strong support locally. The challenger, Ned McDaniel, running his first political race carried one box in the first primary and received a large vote in the other two boxes within the city limits. Therefore, so far as Burkburnett is concerned two more interesting candidates could not be matched for the county office.

Prosecutor's Difficulties — The prosecuting attorney of any district in the United States has great difficulties in remaining in office without making a lot of enemies. Every case that he tries and convicts with severe penalty creates a small clique of opposition. In important cases where there is a lot of feeling on both sides, the outcome either way is bound to offend a group and make enemies. This office has meant political suicide for many men, but it has been the making of many more men who have happened to win sensationally in some case where there was strong public feeling.

Local Cases— Burkburnett has had several cases that have been full of dynamite for the prosecutor. Never in the history of the county has this village sent more cases to the county and district courts that were as potential trouble makers as possible. Each of these cases has developed the bitterest public feeling that I have seen in this city about anything during the three years that I have lived here. This feeling will have a very definite influence on the race this year.

Precinct Races— The three precinct races finally received a full quota of candidates by last minute registrations. The justice of peace race seems to be the one attracting the largest group. Judge W. T. Vance will run again. He has been in control of the office for six years. His opponent is Tom Duvall, workman at the Burkburnett Gin, Pat Nolan, carpenter and painter; Roy Stewart, secretary of the Elks club. At least this race has variety.

Dad Sanders has opposition and a very strong opponent. George Willingham is staging a campaign for the office. During the last few weeks he has been passing out cards faster than an automaton.

Expressions— That expression of fear that haunted the faces of some many incumbents during the last three months was replaced by one of rejoicing Monday morning as the mail failed to bring in any further candidates for the places. Peace and joy reigned in the hearts of the unopposed.

Question— There probably is a reason, but this department is a little dull about such things. I would like to know why a person convicted in a local case for the death of another person was allowed to be free without bond even while his appeal was pending. Now that his appeal for a new trial has been refused, I am still more interested in learning why he is not serving his sentence. I am sure that some wise county would be able to explain it all to me—preferably in words of one syllable. Thank you please.

Big News— Burkburnett felt the results of a lot of wind last week, but it wasn't a political campaign. It was a real cyclone. However, just to keep the records straight, the first wind started blowing during a political speech.

DEMAND $20.00

(Editorial)

The patrons of the Burkburnett schools and of all Texas schools have the right to demand of the state school board that the appointment for the next two years be set at $20.00. The board met recently and advanced the apportionment from $17.50 to $18.50. The citizenship as a whole has expressed hearty appreciation of that consideration.

The right of the citizenship to make the request for the additional increase is justified both by the condition of the state school treasury and the needs in the schools all over the state.

If the treasury were in the red or if the conditions in the local schools were better, there would be no demand for additional apportionment. But both of these suppositions are untrue.

The state school treasury is operating with the largest surplus that has ever accumulated in the history of the state. With the present revenues and the cash that is on hand, the state board could appropriate the additional $1.50 without the slightest strain on the treasury of the school board.

Therefore when the State Board meets in July, it is the duty of the citizens to let that official body know how they feel about the question.

The cry that additional taxation would follow additional apportionment is false. The money is on hand or is in process of collection which would be able to completely cover the additional amount. Not a single new tax would be required, nor would a raise in the present tax on any article be necessary.

Furthermore, the failure of the board to apportion the amount to the schools does not mean the lowering of taxes. If the surplus that is in the treasury is not used up for the schools, it may be diverted by the state legislature to other purposes. Or the ad valorem tax might be lowered slightly. What would such action mean?

Simply one thing would follow. The local unit would have to raise the property tax and cause additional local burden. Under the present condition, the liquor, cigaret, and other taxes are established for the purpose of paying the way of the school. Why allow these articles to be exempt from any proportion of tax when the burden will merely be shifted to the shoulders of the local school and governmental units.

Local Condition

Locally the school is meeting a real crisis. Without the addition of the state to the apportionment, the local activities will be curtailed very sharply next year. During the boom days the local schools operated with plenty of funds. The funds have been lost through the lowering in the value of the properties that once produced rich oil leases.

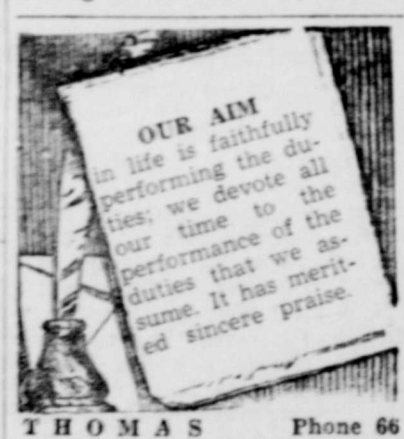

So Burkburnett must face this serious problem. Either keep the state apportionment up or limit the activities of the schools. It means that we either keep the advances that we have made or step backward. It means the comfortable operation of the schools for the welfare of the students and teachers or it means the skipping on essential matters in the administration of an efficient school unit.

Therefore, since it would not lower taxes, and since the conditions demand increase for local schools, and since the treasury can easily stand the increase, it appears logical to the citizens of Burkburnett that the increase be granted.

Approves Editorial

Mr. Fred Brookman, Burkburnett Star, Burkburnett, Texas. Dear Friend Fred:— I have just received and read your Burkburnett Star of June 11th (you didn't know anyone read it, did you?) and in it I was particularly interested in your editorial "Texas Flags."

As you know we have recently erected a new flag pole here at the Court House to fly the Texas Flag during the Centennial year and until that time I was almost totally ignorant, I am sorry to confess, as to the ethics that control the flying of a flag. You were very conservative when you made the statement that "There isn't one of a dozen people that are aware of the ethics that control the flying of a flag." I would say, and I believe I can prove it, that there is not one in five hundred that is really informed as to this subject. I had an occasion recently to fly our flags at half mast and after asking several people about the Court House as to the ethics, I found I was not the only one ignorant upon the subject. Then I began calling lawyers and school teachers and I found that they too were ignorant on the subject. Finally I went to the Texas statutes to see if there was anything upon the subject of flags and did I get my eyes opened. The Texas law pertaining to flags is under Title 106, Article 6142a, R. S. as amended by Acts 1933, 40th Legislature.

I believe you would be rendering your readers a valuable service if you would publish this entire statute regarding the Texas Flag and especially at this time it would be, in my opinion, very appropriate, as this is our Centennial year.

One more thing Fred, about your editorial. You mentioned that on last Friday Burkburnett awoke to find the streets lined with the Lone Star Flags. Then you expressed the surprise that you had about half of them flying with the red strip at the top. Then you asked your readers to remember that the star should sit on TWO points and NEVER one point. In this you are wrong as in CASES OF DISTRESS the two points SHOULD GO UP and maybe, after all, the merchants who were flying the flags up side down were correct. (?????)

Sincerely,
Jim (Paul) Jones (dh)
County Auditor, Wichita Falls.

Editor's Note— The following is the abstract of the laws applying to the display and care of the state and national flags. It has been suggested by correspondents that the articles be published. These are listed as articles in the state revised statutes.)

Art. 148. Protecting the flag Whoever shall in any manner, for exhibition or display, place or cause to be placed, any word or figure, mark, picture, design, drawing or any advertisement of any nature upon any flag of the United States of America, or of State flag of Texas or ensign, or shall expose or cause to be exposed to public view any such flag, standard, color, or ensign upon which, after this act takes effect, shall have printed, been printed, painted or otherwise placed or to which is attached, appended, affixed or annexed, or shall, after this act takes effect, expose to public view, manufacture, sell, expose for sale, give away, or have in possession for sale, or to be given away, or for use for any purpose, any article or substance being an article or a thing carrying or transporting merchandise, upon which, after this act takes effect, shall have printed, painted or attached or otherwise placed a representation of any such flag or flags, colors or ensign to advertise, to decorate, call attention to, mark or distinguish the article or substance on which so placed, or who shall publicly mutilate, deface, defy, defile, trample, destroy, show contempt either by word or act, upon any Texas flag, standard, color or ensign shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to be imprisoned in jail not more than 30 days, or both.

Article 149. Exception—Summary

(These laws read above do not apply to United States Army or Navy Regulations, Newspaper, pamphlets, or periodical circular, or diploma or stationary used in correspondence.)

PATRIOTISM MOVES MEN, DANGER PROMPTS WOMEN TO BE WAR SPIES

Men are prompted by patriotism alone to become secret service agents, but women enter the Intelligence Department solely through love of excitement, adventure and money. This is the declaration of Walter Thiele, one of Germany's leading spies during the World War.

The former German spy, appearing in support of Herbert Marshall, stal of "Till We Meet Again," coming to the Palace Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday, adds:

Don't misunderstand me. Women did some of the most important work during the war. Plenty of them were patriotic, to be sure. But frankly it was the ever present atmosphere of romance, mystery, intrigue and wealth that brought women into the death-dealing business of espionage."

The story of "Till We Meet Again" is based upon spy activities in the War, and revolves around two stage celebrities, a British matinee idol and his fiancée, a Viennese actress playing in London, who fall in love and are called to the service of their respective countries on the eve of their marriage. Marshall is sent to Germany as a spy in the British service and meets his fiancée in a German war office. She unwittingly gives him away, then braves death before the firing squad to save him.

News of the Week

The last 50 years American ships have been heading for the Orient, and especially they pushed into the Gulf and up the rivers of this historical scene was again last week when the British and American fleets and Tulsa interrupted practice and steamed south of Hong Kong area. The British and American fleets seem to have started a conflict between the Canadian Central governments. The Japanese is very bitter there is a possibility of an act against the Japanese government at almost any day. Such an act would have to be very obvious. The British troops are looking for an excuse to contribute its advance in the area of the Chinese. The disturbance which is enough to attract the eyes of the American government are sure to provide that.

ceive assistance to pay the depositors of the closed banks. One of the most tragic and detrimental elements of the financial crises was the closing of the banks over the nation. The fact that the government has adopted a progressive policy to open the frozen deposits in these institutions will mean a lot to thousands of people. The man and woman that had every bit of available cash in the closed banks found themselves in a very tight place on the account of the money being tied up in the defunct institutions.

Republican Nominees
Landon and Knox have been chosen as compromise candidates between the Eastern conservatism and progressive elements of the West. Now the chief interest in the party will be what will the progressives do about the choice? Will they be content to accept the standard bearer? Will Boarrah lead this element for the party, come out for the democrats or remain neutral?

Change in France
So many people have been busy watching the convention of the Republicans in Cleveland that a revolution which has completely changed the government of the French nation has passed almost unnoticed. Today France, like Russia is completely communistic and has achieved the revolution without the shedding of any blood. The cabinet of Blum has complete control of the French nation and is entirely communistic. It is the second time that the nation has been communistic. In their ignorance most people think that Russia is the first great communistic experiment, but once before the communists controlled France for 35 years. This is France's second lesson in communistic. The type of government had its origin in the earliest days of human history, and reached a high stage in the Christian church in the early days of the church's history. The story of Ananias, the great liar, illustrates the tendency in the early Christian community.

Republican Platform
The Republican platform contains the shortest series ever presented to the public: 1. pay-as you go government. 2. Old age-pension for those over 60 years of age. 3. States receive benefits in proportion to the central government. 4. A sound fiscal system based on a widely distributed direct tax. 5. Condemns unemployment insurance, old age pension program. 6. Revision league covenant with an article 16 which obligatory application of all members as voted. The members of the Burkburnett choral group sang at the big meeting of the state school children at Dallas last week. More than 50,000 school children gathered at the big field of the centennial and sang in celebration of the birthday of the state. The local club under the direction of Miss Ethyl Virginia Allen had been in training throughout the year, and had placed third in the county meet during the interscholastic contests.
Previous to the singing at the state meet, the children had participated in the county and district singing meets in the interest of the central meet at Dallas. The persons accompanying the Burkburnett group stated that the singing presented one of the most beautiful portions of the entire celebration.

Anglin Announces For Second Term County Attorney

Mike Anglin, serving his first term as county attorney of Wichita County, formally announced Saturday for re-election for a second term based upon his record in office.

Mike Anglin was born and reared in Texas. He worked his way through the University of Okla. by delivering papers and washing dishes, graduated from the law school in June, 1928, since which time he has been in the active practice of law, more than six years of which he served as assistant district attorney before running for office. He is 34 years of age, married and has two small sons.

His formal announcement follows:

"I respectfully invite the voters of Wichita county to consider me for a second term based upon my record during the 17 1-2 mo. I have served as your county attorney. I have never courted publicity, nor sought sensationalism. The public prosecutor is armed with a powerful weapon, and the prosecutor who seeks to be sensational, and amasses a great record for his own glory, must forget his obligation to mankind and the people he serves, and will tear down and ruin the reputation that has taken a lifetime to build in order to further his own glory.

"The duties of this office require a lawyer of experience and ability because it is common knowledge that the majority of your offenders are young men and boys from the ages of 17 to 24. Any penitentiary is too often a college of crime and it is my conviction that a wasted life saved for useful citizenship is worthy of the effort.

Cites Record

According to the certified records from the clerk of the district court, I have presented to the district court during my administration, 246 felony cases. Of those, 231 were convicted; 15 were acquitted. Of those acquitted, I have no criticism of the jury for they were 12 good men of this county who may have been misled by the application of our antiquated code of criminal procedure, so badly in need of reform. Of these sentences, 81 were suspended sentences. Two years ago I ran for this office on the proposition that I would never send a youthful first offender to the penitentiary to be associated with the worst of criminals if there was hope for his reformation otherwise. Therefore, I have conscientiously recommended suspended sentences upon that basis and juries have voiced their approval by their verdicts and so long as I am your county attorney I shall continue that policy. I am proud to report that only six of the 81 have broken faith causing their suspended sentences to be revoked and be sent to the penitentiary.

Spikes Rumors

"There have been circulated in some circles rumors that there have been too many pleas of guilty. Can you criticize your prosecutor when he so prepares his case that the offender gives up hope and throws himself upon the mercy of the court? The law provides that every man pleading guilty to a felony must be represented by counsel in open court and in writing obtain the consent of the district judge before he can waive a jury and enter his plea. Bear in mind that to present the same case to a jury would cost the tax payers an average of $72, which sum is saved by accepting a plea of guilty. "Upon the various peace officers rests the burden of apprehending the offender and obtaining the evidence to convict. Then it becomes my duty to present the law and facts to the court and jury. There has always been and shall always be the utmost co-operation between my office and those of the various peace officers of the county and I invite your inquiry of them to that effect.

"This office is legal adviser of each county and precinct office. It is the attorney for all the county's legal business. It must collect the delinquent taxes that are not paid voluntarily by the delinquent. In that collection, may I add that my administration has collected more than $90,000 in delinquent taxes without adding a penny to the cost of the delinquent by unnecessary suit but rather by the simple expedient of personally contacting the delinquent as you would do your private business and inducing him to pay without suit.

Appellate Record

"The trial court is often blamed for the reversal of cases upon technicalities, but it is the business of the attorney to protect the record for his client and as your attorney for the state and county, I invite your inquiry in any of the courts of this county as to my care and ability in preparing my cases. I am exceedingly proud of the fact that no criminal case prosecuted during my administration has been reversed by the court of criminal appeals.

"It is your office. I appreciate your support which two years ago elected me by more than 1,000 votes over a strong and able opponent. If my efforts have met your approval, I earnestly solicit your support for another term.

"Mike Anglin."

Intermediates To Have Special Meet At Baptist Church

The Intermediate department of the First Baptist church will have a special program at the First Baptist church next Sunday morning during the Sunday school hour. The department will present a well balanced program of instruction for the school. The members of the department have made elaborate preparation for the occasion. Readings, Special music, speeches and other forms of instruction will be presented to the class members.

The program is presented as an annual occasion honoring the members of the group. The work for the past year culminates in the program, and the plans for the department are explained for the service. The superintendent and officers of the department have made an urgent invitation to all members to be present next Sunday.

Hornets Lose To Rookies Wednesday

The Burk Burnett Hornets lost their second tough game in two days Wednesday night at Wichita Falls as they went down 9 to 7 before the stampede of the Northwestern Supply company Rookies. The Hornets gave the Rookies their greatest scare of the year during the game and continued to threaten the perfect record of the Rookies.

Loretta Dunn toiled on the hill for the Hornets and was leading the Rookies until the fifth inning and again gained a lead in the sixth but was unable to hold it with the determined drive of the Rookies in the last half of the sixth. Elizabeth Fulks' pinch single in the seventh drove home another run, but the rally fell too short.

The Rookies outthrew the Hornets 12 to 11 in the see-saw battle that gave Wichita Falls fans one of their best thrillers of the season. Fielding honors for the night were turned in by the pair of shortfielders of the two teams, with Mildred Morrison, Audrey McFall doing the star stunts in the field. Helen Fay Bennett, Mildred Morrison, Juanita Shuffler and Shorty Beavers led the Hornet attack with two hits each.

Myrtle Raub, Audrey McFall, Anna Medlin and Marjorie Fox led the Rookie attack with two hits each. It was the seventh straight league win and the 15th of the season for the Rookies. Score: Burk Burnett 030 003 1-7 11 6 Rookies 001 044 x-9 12 5 Dunn and Bennett; Hill and McIntyre.

Lions Hear Two County Officers Speak Tuesday

O. A. Roberts Explains Fingerprinting System To Service Club Members

Howard Martin and O. A. Robertson, assistant county attorney and deputy sheriff respectively, spoke to the members of the Burk Burnett Lions club Tuesday night on subjects related to law enforcement. Mr. Howard spoke of the rules relating to suspended sentences, and Mr. Robertson explained the technique and use of finer fingerprinting.

Mr. Robertson pointed out that the greatest use of the fingerprinting system was to help an accurate record of the careers of criminals to assist in apprehension after a criminal record had been established and prosecution after criminal sentences had been passed.

The speaker urged the members to create a backing for the movement to make fingerprinting universal. He pointed out the different types of finger prints and explained how they were classified. Then he showed the use of the prints in actual prosecution.

Suspended Sentences
Mr. Martin explained that a first offender had the right to demand a suspended sentence on all but a few felony charges. The sentences are revoked on second conviction, made to apply when a new sentence is passed. The county attorney demonstrated the use of the finger printing system in checking violators of suspended sentences.

Local Scouts To Enter Contests

DALLAS, Texas, June 18 — Mailing of autographed pictures of handsome Fred McMurray, Paramount star, to Burk Burnett Boy Scouts who have entered essays in a contest on "The Texas Rangers" was started by the Texas Centennial Exposition.

To the Boy Scout who writes the best 500 word essay on "The Texas Rangers", King Vidor, a famous movie director and native Texan, will award an all-expense tour to the Texas Centennial Exposition. The winning scout also will be given $25 in cash to spend as he desires. A supplemental prize of an autographed deluxe volume of "The Texas Rangers," by Prof. Walter Prescott Webb, of the University of Texas, will be presented by the New York publishing house of Houghton & Mifflin.

Mr. Vidor is now completing a Paramount picture based on Prof. Webb's book. The star of the picture is McMurray, who is supported by Jean Parker, Jack Oakie and Lloyd Nolan. A world preview of the production will be held here in August.

Rules for the Boy Scout essay contest have been sent to Scoutmasters in Burk Burnett for explanation to the scout troops. The contest will close July 4. All essays should be mailed to Texas Ranger Contest Editor, Texas Centennial Exposition, Dallas, Texas.

Red Jackets Win Here Tuesday eve.

The Burk Burnett Hornets dropped a tough 10 to 7 game to the Red Jackets from Wichita Falls Tuesday night on the local field. The Wichita Falls crew made their hits count in the pinches to nose out the locals.

Elizabeth Fulks pitched for the Hornets and turned in a good game, but many costly errors in her defense allowed the Red Jackets to score eight of their ten runs off the Hornet mound ace.

N. O. Mills Here Townsend Speaker

N. O. Mills of Wichita Falls spoke in Burk Burnett Thursday afternoon in favor of the enactment of the Townsend old age pension movement. The speaker explained the situation of the laws that is urged by the believers in the pensions. He bitterly attacked the newspapers because of the latter's alleged neglect of the correct explanation of the plan. He stated that the only way of securing the truth about the plan was through the literature of the organization.

The speaker spoke of the endorsement of Sartin as the representative of the organization for congress. The speaker stated that all who did not back the plan were either ignorant of its proposals or afraid of the power of the people.

Randlett Defeats Grandfield

The Randlett Rabbits defeated the Grandfield Cats in a ball game at the Grandfield home league. There was hitting on either side, but Randlett team made every count for runs during the game. Young pitched for Grandfield and Jordan for Rabbits. Each got eight strike outs for whiffing honors. Owen Halley tied for hitting honors. Randlett will enter the extra Red Sox at the Grandfield next Sunday. The team is to arrange a double header next Sunday.

Covenant Invoked

Almost every team in the league imitated the world powers, which recently invoked covenants against Italy, when they lodged the protests against the First National bank.

In the first case Bill Harris was declared enligible. His eligibility was questioned by Bell, Magnolia, Thaxton, Gulf and Cooper McCreary companies.

Since Fred Flanagan accepted the verdict of the executive committee that ordered him sold to the Barrow Grace, he has accepted a position with the company as a car salesman. The car has been delivered to the secretary of the league and will be sold at public auction tonight (Thursday) at the park to the highest bidder. Flanagan will then pitch against the First National Bank. The proceeds of the sale will go to defray the expenses of the trial held Tuesday night.

The Magnolia troops were awarded a game on protest that Fred Flanagan and Ralph Swinford were ineligible for violating transfer limit rules. Cooper McCreary was awarded a game won by the First National bank on the same rule regarding the transfer of players.

Big Fight

However, the big fight didn't develop until five managers representing Thaxton, Magnolia, Cooper McCreary, Gulf and City Grocery asked the permanent suspension of Fred Flanagan and the temporary suspension of Jingle Hays for participating in a trade of players recently announced by this paper.

At first the permanent suspension of Flanagan was requested, but a supplemental petition stated that he could be reinstated on condition that he play with Barrow Grace, and the latter pay a modle T Ford to be sold at auction for his services.

Barrow Grace protested and offered to pay one quart of used oil and Tex Willis for the privilege of signing Mr. Flanagan. Then the battle really started. Word bounced through the city hall, until the executive committee decided to call a closed session and rule on the matter.

The proposed action was as follows:

We, the undersigned owners and managers with proper authority to represent our respective teams in this league, do ask for the complete suspension of Fred Flanagan from this league during the remaining 1936 season, he being allowed in the stands as a spectator only, for reasons stipulated in Rules 2 and 5 of the Burkburnett Soft Ball Contract.

Rule 2 reads, "I shall give 2 weeks notice to my manager and sponsor in case that I wish a release."

I, R. P. Thaxton, wish to state that on June 11, 1936 H. R. Hays handed me the attached contract dated June 9 in which an agreement was signed between H. R. Hays, temporary manager of the First National Bank Club and Fred Flanagan, manager of the Thaxton Bros. Club, in which Fred Flanagan exchanged himself and Ralph Swinford for 6 members of the First National bank team, namely:— Frances Felty, Jack Exley, Lee Clifton, Lonnie Hoffman, Mack Curry, and George Hodges. I wish to state that this trade was made absolutely underhanded without my knowledge or consent and against my will. For this reason, I refer you to Rule 5 of the Soft Ball Contract.

Rule 5 reads, "The intentional violation of this contract will make it impossible for me to play with any soft ball team allied with the national organization."

The undersigned sponsors or managers recommend that Ralph Swinford return to Thaxton Bros. Team if wishing to play ball and that the players released by H. R. Hays from the First National Bank Team be made free to play with any team they wish after the passing of this petition by the local Soft Ball Association, a meeting of this association being called for Tuesday evening, June 16, 1936.

Supplement to attached petition.

It is hereby agreed by the authorized managers or sponsors of teams that F. R. Flanagan after twenty days suspension be re-installed and traded to the Barrow Grace Chevrolet Co. to play ball the balance of the season with said motor co. in exchange for one of the oldest model T Fords they have on hand. The said car is to be taken to the soft ball field, sold at public auction and delivered to the highest bidder. The proceeds of said sale shall be given to the Burk-burnett Soft Ball Association. Prior to said sale H. R. Hays shall make a public apology to those present for his unsportsmanship tactics in enticing Mr. Flanagan into betraying his team mates in attempting to trade his team mates without the consent of his sponsor.

Date of such sale shall be set by the secretary.

Storm Damage Is Being Cleared In Local Area Rapidly

The damage of the recent cyclone is being cleared away rapidly and the people are restoring the property as fast as possible. The city water plant was completed last week, and the final damage estimate was set at $550.00 at the plant. With the reconstruction of the garages and other small buildings around the plant the traces of the storm will disappear. City manager, Ross Reagan and superintendent of the water department, Dave McNeill, completed the work soon after the storm had torn the buildings apart.

A check for $2,200 from the American Red Cross was received by the Wichita County chapter Wednesday to help in rehabilitation work among families that lost home and clothing in the tornadoes that swept this county June 6.

Burk Girls Will Play Two Games With Frederick

Ross Reagan received an invitation to play at Frederick, Okla. with the Hornets next Monday night, June 22. The invitation has been accepted, and Mr. Reagan is inviting the team to play a return game here the Tuesday of the following week. The exchange of games has been attempted for several weeks. The two teams are expected to produce some interesting playing.

Garland - Holman

Acel Garland and Edith Holman will be married Sunday afternoon. Miss Holman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Holman and is a graduate of the local high school class of 1930. She is very popular in the younger social life of Burkburnett and is at present employed by the Manhattan store.

Mr. Garland is the son of Mrs. Bill Garland, and is employed by the Hardin Municipal light plant. He has been a resident of Burkburnett for a number of years and is a graduate of the Oklahoma University, Oklahoma City.

The marriage ceremony will be performed in the presence of Arthur Weinstein Floy Holman Mabel and Dixie Duke, Beamer Garland and Carl Campbell. They will be at home to their many freinds at the Motel apartments.

ookies To Play Hard Game Sun.

The Northwestern Supply Co. of Burk Burnett and Wichita Falls will face the supreme Sunday night at the polo grounds in Wichita Falls when the Rookies defeated the Weils' team in two years. Sunday morning the task of beating the ace of the Maxine Hill, the ace of the staff, will no doubt draw assignment again. Hill let the game in Dallas. Since the Dallas game, Hill has pitched two games and won them both. He battered down the Red Jacks for years the pride of Wichita Falls, 10 to 1 and last Sunday down the Throckmorton club 2 to 2. The entire club is awaiting the game Sunday night with hopes of winning again from the crack Aces and to keep their record intact against a team that is rated as one of the best in the state and already rated as one of the favorites of the State tournament.

Show Boat" At Palace Next Week

This review of "Show Boat", which opens for Sunday and Monday at the Palace Theatre, would be set to music keyed up to the tempo of the Universal picture. But there is no local Jerome Kern or Oscar Hammerstein to affirm that rhythmic feat. The account should be tinged with drama to match the story of "Show Boat" But there is no one here to give wings to words. There should be moonlight, springtime romance. And there is that element is supplied by Irene Dunn and Allan Jones at the Palace screen. There's Helen Morgan, the Ju who captured audiences when she sang "Bill" and "Can't Help Lovin' that Man" on the stage. She gives her screen role the same appealing charm. Charles Winninger, the show business Captain, possesses a warm human friendliness that seems to reach out and cheer up the whole world. His wife, Parthy, portrayed by Helen Westley, is a shabby, faded characterization of a lady with a talent for uttering words that burst like fire and brimstone.

GIRLS LEAGUE TO END HALF

The Wichita Valley Girls League pennant marathon will swing into the home stretch of the first half five big games scheduled for the coming week. Two of the features of the week's play will find the crack Northwestern Supply Co. playing the Burk Burnett horsets in Burk Burnett next Tuesday night and then following up with game against the Auto Spring and Supply company Red Jacks at the polo field on Wednesday night. The Hornets will follow up the Tuesday night game by invading Iowa Park Thursday night for their second game of the week. The Hornets are making a brave bid for the runner-up position in the league chase for the first half, and with this goal in sight they are expected to "shoot the works" this week. The Iowa Park club will draw the tough assignment of playing both the Rookies and the Red Jacks in Wichita Falls this week drawing the Rookies Saturday night and the Red Jacks on Friday night of next week.

MEETINGS

The Men's Bible class of the First Baptist church will hold a special meeting at the Water works park next Monday night. The entertainment will be the regular picnic features, and the feed, barbecue and accompanying good eats. The members have been urged to attend. The class meets in the auditorium of the church each Sunday morning. The Hardin Home Demonstration club will meet with Mrs. Bill Stapp at 205 Ave. D. next Wednesday. Miss Bennet will give a demonstration on the cooking of vegetables for canning. Every member has been requested to bring pencil and note book for the demonstration. Special services for the intermediates will be held at the First Baptist church next Sunday morning. The program will be presented in the auditorium of the church.

Big Rabbit Creek

June 12, 1936
This neck of the woods got another big downpour again Friday at noon. It rained more than a half-inch rain in 35 minutes down on Big Rabbit Creek. The rain didn't extend over a half mile north of the W. H. Martin home place where the Owens family is living. The rain just followed on down the river. Over at Charlie, Texas, just across the river they had almost a cloud burst, so the writer was informed. Lots of damage was done to cotton and feed stuff that was just coming up. Harvest has started down in this part of the country but it is very light. Some fields of wheat and oats isn't hardly worth cutting. Mr. Tobe Harden and Mrs. Martha Nails called on the Owens family Sunday afternoon and visited several hours with them. The writer has been told by Mr. Alvin Alexander that his wife who underwent a serious operation several weeks ago down in Wichita Falls wasn't doing so well as her operation didn't prove successful and that she would have to undergo another operation on Monday or Tuesday again. Her host of friends are hoping that this second operation will be successful. Well sir, what do you think? Thursday afternoon this part of the Rabbit Creek Community was visited by one of their old time friends, the Hon. B. F. Suter (alias) Uncle Bennie accompanied by another one of Rabbit Creek's old time friends, the Hon. A. C. Campbell, both of the gentlemen live in Walters. Mr. Campbell is out for County Attorney and Uncle Bennie for Representative. Their many friends were glad to see them and will do their best to elect them this July election. Last Thursday afternoon Hawk Eye called on Mr. and Mrs. John Ashton up at their new home for the first time since they moved in it. Believe me folks, they sure do have an ideal home. It is one of the finest built houses in this part of the County and is well furnished inside. After a short time there Bro. John took Hawkeye and showed him around. First they went to their brick and cement cellar, 18x10 feet, which is built up to date with brick and shelves built in the walls on both sides to set fruit on. Next they went out to his big fine barn 60x40 with a long implement shed 60 feet long built on the north side of the barn. He has 6 graineries built inside the barn full of corn of last years crop, kaffir corn, sudan grass seed, cane seed and alfalfa seed. All the bays are full. Then they went and looked over his fine herd of cattle and hogs. Then they went to his five acre alfalfa field where it was knee high and is ready for the second cutting. Well, last Saturday was an ideal day for the big cash drawing and trades day over in Burk Burnett. Every body and their cousins and aunts and uncles was in Burk Burnett and every one had the time of their lives, meeting old friends and eating ice cream cones. The Hon. Herman Brown was out of town so Rev. Curtis Cook was appointed to take Mr. Brown's place with an assistant. Two ladies drew the money. When they walked up to get paid off, the Rev. handed over the money just as cheerful as Mr. Herman Brown does every Saturday at 4:30 p. m. Some few are still planting their cotton over again for the third or fourth time, on the other hand lots of the cotton is large enough to chop. Cotton chopping has started at $1.50 per day and their dinner. W. H. Martin called at the Owens family Sunday afternoon to visit the family and to be with his little daughter, Winnie June, who is living in the Owens home.

Mrs. Owens will soon have had Winnie June 9 months. Uncle Guy Willis (alias) papa the Wichita Falls Packing Co., cattle and hog buyer was over in the Big Rabbit Creek neighborhood Friday buying up cattle and hogs for his firm. When it comes to knowing cattle and paying the farmer the highest price, no buyer can beat papa, as he will just pay more than the other fellow. Mr. and Mrs. John Ashton and daughters were shopping over in Burk Burnett Saturday. Sunday morning they motored up to Duncan, Okla., where Mr. Ashton is taking treatments. Mrs. Dave Jones, John's sister, accompanied them. Yours truly, Hawkeye

R. A. Re-organized At Baptist Chnrch

The junior boys of the Baptist church met to reorganize their Royal Ambassadors at the First Baptist church Monday afternoon. Mrs. D. H. Gregory was chosen to sponsor the organization. The officers elected were William Howard Willis, president; Howard Woods, vice president; James Johnson, secretary; treasurer, Carrol Gregory. The group is a study group for the students of the community of the junior age. The sponsor urged that all children unaffiliated with with similar ages to attend. The class is for the boys of the age.

Home Builders Class Meets With B. Smith

Members of the home builders class of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Biddie Smith last Thursday afternoon. The meeting was opened by the song "More About Jesus". The devotional was conducted by Mrs. Hattie Buchanan, reading Ephesians 6. The prayer by Mrs. M. B. Hays. After the business session, the hostesses served lovely refreshments to Mrs. Hays, Mesdames Fleming, Beatrice, Betty and Mesdames J. M. Otten from Versailles, Mo., Hattie Buchanan, McMurtry, Wood, J. D. Wood, Gilbow and the hostess.

Rotary Studies Work of County Parole Boards

Workings Of New System Explained to Members of Club
GRACE LOCAL MEMBER 14 pt.

In an interesting discussion led by Solon Featherstone, Jimmy King of Wichita Falls and Henry Grace of Burk Burnett, the members of the Rotary club studied the workings of the County parole board at the meeting of the organization at noon Tuesday. The parole board, according to the speakers, is the advisory board to the governor of the state in matters relating to the granting of clemencies for state prisoners. This board was inaugurated by the governor at the start of his session at the state capitol, and during the time it has kept him in touch with a large number of people over the state in the matters relating to the treatment of persons convicted by the courts. The function of the board in the county has proved to be of great aid to the state executive, James V. Alred, and to the people of the county as a whole. The visitors to the meeting included Al Moline, Roy B. Jones, Horace Gooch, of Wichita Falls; George Backus of Vernon; B. F. Gilchrist had as a guest, Clyde Bohner, and R. W. McCleskey of Wichita Falls was a guest of Jack Brumley. The sing song was led by Dr. Carl Morrison. The parole system was explained as follows:

So far as this community is concerned, Governor James V. Alred's merit system of extending clemency to state prison inmates apparently is working out as planned. Solon Featherstone, chairman of the Wichita County Parole Board, reports that all the five men recently paroled to it "have jobs and are doing well." Though the prisoners in question were sentenced to Huntsville for such serious offenses as burglary and highway robbery, all have conducted themselves satisfactorily. Under the parole arrangement each prisoner must report to his sponsor at least once a month. That schedule may be shortened to twice a month or once a week, as appears best in the individual case. The citizen to whom the prisoner is paroled takes an active interest in his rehabilitation and well-being generally, advising him concerning his problems which inevitably arise.

The Parole Board meets every two weeks to go over its charges' records, contacting employers and otherwise checking up on each man's conduct. That service costs the State nothing, as the board members are not paid; but it may prove inestimably valuable. As demonstrated in the Federal prison system under Stanford Bates' direction, that method of handling probationers is an effective way to keep down the penitentiary population, thus reducing the congregation and reducing the operating expense. The benefit to the paroled men themselves are not so readily calculable. Many men released from prison either on pardon or parole or after "paying their debt to society" become repeaters for lack of friendly guidance as the new Texas system provides. Feeling that "nobody cares," the man that is turned loose to shift for himself too easily falls into anti-social attitudes, and at the first opportunity repeats his offense or commits a worse crime. Some prison inmates are incurable criminals and never should be released at all. It is the State Parole Board's business to distinguish between such an incorrigible and the man who is entitled to a second chance. Mistakes will be made, but psychiatry would reduce the risk of error. Then an efficient checking system would detect the mistake before second serious crime had been committed. If the object be to reform, rather than to punish the offender, then his term in prison corresponds to the primary school. Parole represents secondary training; graduation is deferred until the former prisoner has established his fitness for complete freedom and citizenship.

Oil Production Is Texas Monument To The Pioneers

Hardships and Courage of The "Wildcatters" Made Texas Lead World in Oil

By H. J. Smith, Petroleum Economist

If all the oil produced in Texas to date was placed in barrels of 42 gallons each, and stacked up in a single perpendicular column, tific study of surface and sub-surface formations in an effort to locate more accurately oil deposits. Even with these modern methods, this scientific study involves a heavy, constant overhead cost against the industry—often times the discovery of a new oil pool follows years of intensive preliminary study, frequently involving the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Today, there are more than 4,000 "Independent" oil operators in Texas in addition to the so-called "Major" companies; all of them still pioneering to maintain the continued leadership of Texas as the world's principal source of oil supply. Much more oil may of these reserves will continue to be developed, with increasing benefits to Texas and its people, if unreasonable, discriminatory tax schemes are discouraged by the sane-thinking citizens of the State of Texas.

Cotton Checks Passed to Farmers

Starting last Monday more than $7,000.00 in checks were passed to the farmers of the county for cotton benefits. The checks were for the 200 farmers in the county, and represented the differential between the sale price and the 12 cent standard adopted by the government last fall. The checks were due earlier, but the AAA decision caused a confusion that held up the government payment.

The differential amounts to something more than 1 cent per pound as attained at the time of the sale. The government guaranteed a 12 cent price on all of the cotton sold in the United States last year. The farmers were required to keep record of the sales and file the price with the government at the sale time. The average price was attained by taking the top price in the cities over the southern part of the country. This average of 12 cities was applied as a base for the entire nation.

More than 600 checks were mailed out and delivered in the earlier part of the month, amounting to about $20,000. A considerable number of the checks have not been received, but will be. This number represents the farmers who were late in filing claims with the governmental agencies.

G. D. Everett, county agent, will be transferred in the near future to another county that is vacant at the present time. He will be replaced by G. R. McNeil, who moved to Wichita Falls from Archer City last week.

Demo Club Shows Progress In Work

A large wooden box that a mechanical refrigerator was shipped in has been made into a clothes closet by Mrs. B. Bryant, wardrobe demonstrator of the Enterprise home demonstration club. Mrs. Bryant did not have a clothes closet and was using one corner of her room. This closet now provides adequate storage for all of the clothing of her husband, her daughter and herself. It has a long rod for hanging clothes, a shelf for hats and a movable shoe rack for shoes. The box had to be taken apart to be brought in the house and furnished enough material for building the closet to extend to the ceiling and to make a door. The frame work was made from material on hand, and the only cost was for the hinges and nails which was 35c. The closet is painted ivory like the wood work of the room.

A good place for keeping clothing, extra bedding, and bed linen, is my prize in the wardrobe demonstration club. Mrs. Taylor had a closet under the stairway that had never been finished so it was made into the ideal one she spoke of.

The first thing she did was to finish the walls with second hand beaver board and then paper them with a light colored wall paper. In order to have shelving space, an old kitchen safe was sawed in the upper portion which had three shelves, and doors were put at the top part of one end of the closet. This is where the extra covers are stored. A foot plank was added to the bottom shelf to make it wide enough for hot stands. The rod for clothes hangers is under the shelf. A kitchen stool that makes a ladder is kept in the closet to use in reaching the top shelf.

The other end of the closet, which was the slanting one under the stair steps, was boxed up. Then the bottom part of the safe was put in at this end. This provides a flat surface like a dresser top, a long drawer, which is used for hose and cosmetics and two deep shelves which have doors. The shelves are used for folded garments and bed linens.

The closet is 8 feet long and 3 feet 8 inches wide. This makes it large enough to be used as a dressing room. A large mirror was taken from an old dresser and put on the inside of the closet door. The storage for shoes was provided for by a movable shoe rack made of two pieces of 1'x6' lumber 2 feet long which make the two ends and two pieces of 1'x4' lumber that make the slanting shelves for the shoes to hang on.

The wood work, the floor, stool shoe rack, and all the old safe were painted a light gray. The total cost of the closet was $8.33 which was all for material. The work was done by Mrs. Taylor and her nephew. The money was made by the sale of 7 hens for $3.50 and 12 fryers for $5.40.

To provide her family of six with fresh and canned vegetables they need in their diet, Mrs. Carter, food supply demonstrator of the Wichita Garden home demonstration club had a total of 8,380 feet of row space planted in vegetables. If the vegetables produce normally, that amount of row space should produce the same amount of pounds of vegetables, which is over three times the amount her budget calls for.

For leafy, green and yellow vegetables she has collards, cabbage, spinach, swiss chard, black eyed peas, chowder peas, yellow wax and green pod beans, English peas, squash and carrots.

For starchy vegetables she has Irish potatoes and for other vegetables she has tomatoes, onions, radishes and beets.

Methodist Circle Members Meet

The members of the circle No. 3 of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. L. N. Peyton last Monday afternoon for the missionary study of the society. The program was directed by Mrs. J. M. Thomas, and Mrs. M. W. Majors led an interesting discussion of the work in home missions. Every member of the society was present for the meeting, and Mrs. R. L. Gragg was accepted as a new member.

The refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames, O. R. Woods, S. L. Pilkenton, R. L. Gragg, J. L. Caffee, L. J. Lorang, Scott Williams, L. N. Peyton, A. Westbrook, M. W. Majors, M. Rhodes, J. M. Rhodes, J. Thomas and B. M. Cropper.

The meetings of the society will adjourn until September.

Methodists Attend Adult Institute

The Burkburnett Methodist church was represented at the recent three days of adult conference at the Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas, by several delegates from the local organization. The local pastor, Rev. L. G. Hagar, was one of the instructors in the institute. Other representatives were M. C. Tucker, Mrs. J. M. Thomas and Mrs. O. E. Melton.

it would make a monument that would be 2,800,000 miles high! Such is the imaginary monument that stands today in Texas as a tribute to the hardships and courage of the "Wildcatter" who has made it possible for Texas to lead the world in oil production.

Analysis of the world's oil production statistics, by the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association of Texas, shows that Texas has, with one exception, produced more oil than any other state or foreign nation. Since 1889, Texas has produced 4,200,000,000 barrels of crude oil, which is 15 per cent of all the oil produced in the history of the world! Only California has produced more, and there oil was found 13 years before the first well was drilled in Texas. The accompanying chart shows how Texas' cumulative oil production ranks with other major sources of the world oil supply.

The black column on the chart may well be termed a monument to the courage and determination of the pioneers of the Texas oil industry. It signifies the pioneering spirit so colorfully written in the pages of Texas history. For the "Wildcatter" is truly the pioneer of the oil industry; the "Independent" oil producer, who often stakes his all on the possibility of obtaining an oil well, and accepts his fortunes and misfortunes with the spirit that has characterized the empire builders of this great State.

While the efforts of the "Wildcatter" have undoubtedly been the "back-bone" of Texas oil developments, yet, the uncertainties of that method imposed great cost upon the industry that the field of geology and geophysics was called upon to help reduce the tremendous financial hazards. Today, all over this state, these technical men are making sci-yet be discovered in Texas, in many counties where the drill has not yet penetrated the "Pay" sand. More and more Texas farms are being leased for such development in practically all sections of the state, with redounding benefit to the landowners—to say nothing of the benefits that accrue to the State, the counties, the schools, the cities and the people, when oil is brought into production. Yet, there are some unthinking individuals who would discourage these pioneer and empire builders of Texas by threatening to increase the tax burden of this principal industry of our State, which already pays sixty per cent of all the taxes collected in Texas.

Today, after having produced nearly two and a quarter billion barrels of oil, Texas still has a proven reserve supply, yet to be produced, amounting to five and one-half billion barrels; half of the prospective production of the United States. This, too is credited to these hardy pioneers who had the courage to drill for oil where the chances of opening up new underground reservoirs of oil were dimmed by previous records of failure after failure. In fact, many of the existing oil fields in Texas, including the now famous East Texas field, were discovered only after repeated failure of the "Wildcatter's" drill to penetrate the "pay" sand. All

ER KNAPP HONORED BY FRIENDS ON 92nd BIRTHDAY

The fact that she has lived several days, Mrs. Er Knapp, was one of the oldest of friends that gathered about the day, Tuesday, June 16, because of her birthday. Because of her advanced age, no formal celebration was planned, but the friends of the honoree gathered at the home of the pioneer individual.

Er Knapp came to Burk Burnett and has lived here since that time. She is a Canadian Scotch-born in 1844 in Ontario. Her first school was at the local schools of that time. Later she taught in a school in the district.

Er Knapp has been exciting and interesting. She moved to the States in 1866 soon after the war had torn the sections into strife. In Kansas she and her husband homesteaded in the Abilene. In this district old cattle trails were full of stock from the west during the winter of 1870.

(By W. D. McFarlane)

Speaker Byrnes' Sudden Death
The shock of speaker Byrnes' sudden death has stunned the members of Congress as well as the nation at large. No man in Washington was any better loved than he was: None were better qualified to hold the second most important position in Government, that of Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Speaker Byrnes came to the House of Representatives nearly 28 years ago, after having served in both the House and Senate of his native State, Tennessee. His sudden passing has made the date of adjournment problematical. Congress was driving to adjourn June 6th, and probably would have adjourned, had it not been for Speaker Byrnes' untimely death. Date of adjournment is now indefinite—Congress may adjourn this week or if a deadlock occurs on important legislation pending, it may not reach agreement and adjourn until after the Democratic Convention.

Relief and Tax Bills
These bills are now in conference and because of the wide differences existing on amendments placed on these bills in the Senate it is predicted that there may be trouble in reaching an agreement between the two houses. These two bills are the principal stumbling block right now to adjournment.

Anti-Lobbying Bill
The conferees have reached an agreement on the Black-Smith Anti-Lobbying Bills and concurrence on these measures is expected promptly. This is recognized as one of the most important pieces of legislation of this Congress, and writes new law into the Federal Statutes on this subject.

Texas would do well to study and get action on this important question. How long will the lobbies in Texas continue to control important State legislation.

Our Critics
Critics of this administration and puppets of the special interests who do their bidding, and echo their thoughts are now out actively campaigning against this administration and these who have supported its policies that have brought us far on the road to recovery. From primary elections held so far throughout the Nation, apparently the people have decided to vote for performance and results rather than the criticism and empty promises, for no Representative so far, who has actively supported the New Deal program in Congress, where that was the issue, has been defeated.

"Sorry," said the motorist, very sadly, "I wasn't sure whether or not I had enough gasoline."

Burk Man Dies Of Heart Attack

V. G. Miles, 59, an employee of the Bohner Oil company here for more than 15 years, died at his home on the Bohner lease of a heart attack Sunday morning.

With Miles at the time of his death were his wife and children. Services were held Monday at 10 o'clock from the chapel of the Owens-Brumley Funeral home, with the Rev. E. W. Gregory of the Thrift Baptist church officiating. From Burk Burnett the body was taken overland to Alford, where a second service was held at 3 o'clock in the Baptist church there. Interment was in the Alford cemetery.

Among survivors are his widow, three sons, V. G. Jr., E. K. and Rene Miles, all of Burk Burnett; two brothers, Roscoe Miles of Decatur; and two sisters, Mrs. Lena Morgan of San Angelo and Miss Myrtle Miles of San Angelo.

Pallbearers were Henry Prizing, C. D. Jackson, S. L. Hancock, George Bebe Meyer, Homer Dunn, and Roy Magers.

The Washington Congressman, who boasts that he is the inventor of the "Zioncheck Zipper" it will enlighten many who had begun to think he had lost his buttons.

Watkins Employee At Chevrolet Co.

Randall Watkins, coach at Fairview, has accepted a position as salesman at the Barrow Grace Chevrolet company in Burk Burnett, and is active in the sales force of the organization. For several years Watkins has been a successful coach at the Fairview school, and his teams have always ranked as the best in the county. Last year, both the basketball and track teams carried off county honors with very little competition. He is a popular member of the Fairview faculty, and has asked all his friends to think of him when desiring the purchase of a new car.

"Escape From Devil's Island" a Mad Dream

"Escape From Devil's Island" is a story of lost souls doomed to the blistering hell-hole of Devil's Island, where life is cheaper than a smoke, and escape is a madman's dream! It is the tale of hopeless yearning for France, for freedom—and the fond caresses of a woman's arms.

A powerful and ironical drama, "Escape From Devil's Island," showing Tuesday and Wednesday at the Tex Theatre is life in the raw—a desperate battle for life which no man wanted without love! It tells of the daring escape of two men across shark-filled sea and death-infested jungle—for a woman only one could have! It describes with stark and honest vividness the tortured loneliness of the Devil's Island convicts—a legion of lost souls condemned to a living death.

PEOPLE MAKE THE TELEPHONE SYSTEM

Poles and wires and switchboards alone don't make a telephone system. You've got to have people.

You've got to have men and women and children that want to talk to each other. You've got to have operators sitting night and day before the switchboards. You need to have linemen willing to go out when the lines are down, and work with a 40-mile gale lashing sleet and snow into their faces.

It's folks that make a telephone system. When you figure out why service is better than it used to be, you find it's just people at work... men working problems out on American Telephone & Telegraph Company's staff, and inventors in Bell Laboratories, and the like.

The goal of the people who work for the Bell System is to furnish the people who use telephones with a service that is fast, and clear, and moderate in its cost to the user.

MORE THAN 800,000 NEW 1936 CHEVROLETS have been sold

America is giving overwhelming preference to Chevrolet because it's The only complete low-priced car

MORE than 800,000 new 1936 Chevrolets have been built and sold—more than four-fifths of a million since announcement day—the largest volume of business that Chevrolet has enjoyed in any comparable period in its entire history.

Record-breaking sales always indicate record-breaking value, and that is why we are printing these figures. They are important, not because they establish a record, but because they carry the following message to all people who have yet to buy their 1936 cars.

America is choosing Chevrolet because America is convinced that Chevrolet represents the most motor car for the least money.

"The most motor car," because it's the only low-priced car with such vitally important features as New Perfected Hydraulic Brakes and Solid Steel one-piece Turret Top for greatest safety; Improved Gliding Knee-Action Ride*, Shockproof Steering* and Genuine Fisher No Draft Ventilation for greatest comfort; and a powerful High-Compression Valve-in-Head Engine for the most efficient all-round performance.

And "the least money," because Chevrolet's low purchase price, low operating costs and low maintenance costs make it the most economical of all cars to own.

America is saying these splendid things about Chevrolet with actual buying orders! Follow America's judgment. Place your order for a new 1936 Chevrolet—the only complete low-priced car!
