Local Truck Driver Has Longest No-Accident Record

J. H. Cecil, wholesale and retail Panhandle Refining Co., agent of Burkburnett, has a record he should feel well proud of. The following article was sent out by the National Safety Council and is self-explanatory: "The longest no-accident record ever reported to the National Safety Council by a commercial vehicle fleet is 2,934,810 miles! And the company that set it is the Panhandle Refining Co., of Wichita Falls, Texas. That's a lot of miles without an accident which caused either death, injury or property damage. Who knows of a better record?"

Magnolia To Try Again For Deep Oil on Riley Farm 5 Miles Southwest Of Burkburnett

To Use Steam Rig From Schmoker Test Drilled Last Month

The Magnolia Petroleum Company staked a new location this week for another deep test for Burkburnett. The location is on the Riley farm about five miles southwest of the city. They started work on the cellar the first of the week and the water line has been laid. According to reports they will start building the derrick Saturday and will spud in the first of the week. This location is about 2 miles west and a little south of the Magnolia's Schmoker deep test which was drilled to 3600 feet last month and abandoned when they struck the Ellenberger lime. According to reports there is no set depth to go. They will drill as long as the formation looks favorable or they strike the Ellenberger lime.

Gossett To Speak Here Friday Night

Ed Gossett, opponent of McFarlane in the Congressional run-off, will speak here Friday evening at 8 o'clock on the corner of Ave. C and Main street. This has been one of the hottest contests of the whole election and has aroused much interest locally. Gossett led the ticket in the primary election and that fact coupled with the old enmity between the two candidates makes this race particularly interesting. Gossett announces that he will discuss all issues of the campaign freely Friday night and he hopes that he will have the opportunity of addressing a large crowd at that time.

Burk Ex-Grid Star Visits Parents Here

Tolly McKown, Burkburnett's famous grid star of last year, who has been working in Lubbock, Texas, this summer, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McKown last week-end. Tolly will enter Texas Tech at Lubbock this fall.

Former Clerk of Walters, Okla., School Board Charged With Theft, Perjury

Charges of embezzlement and perjury were on file at Walters, Okla., today against W. E. Sawyer, for 15 years clerk of the Walters school board, and acting treasurer from Feb. 17, 1936, to Sept. 14, 1937. Four counts, two of embezzlement and two of perjury, were filed by County Attorney Charles Dunn. Preliminary hearing was set for Aug. 15, before County Judge Roy Bull. Sawyer made bond at $1,500 on each of the four charges. The charges, Dunn said, came as a result of the findings of an audit of the school board's records conducted by Eunon M. Black, deputy state examiner and inspector, covering a period from May, 1932, to the present time. The audit was made in May. The embezzlement charges, Dunn said, were based on two instances of alleged shortages in the audit since 1932, which were not barred from criminal prosecution under the statute of limitations. Audits Conducted Complaints alleging perjury,

Thrift Man Has Car Stolen While On Fishing Trip

E. E. Hughes, of the Thrift Community, was the victim of a hold-up which resulted in the loss of his automobile while on a recent fishing trip to Bridgeport Lake. He, his wife and son and some friends, had spent the day fishing and had camped for the night. About 4 a. m. they were awakened by four armed men who forced them into the car and compelled them to ride several miles to an out of the way spot where they were forced to remove their shoes and allow themselves to be tied up, while the bandits drove away in the car. They loosened their bonds enough in a short time that Mr. Hughes freed himself and his companions. They walked to a farm house nearby and notified officers by telephone of the robbery. The car, a 1938 Ford Coach, was found in Gladewater Monday by two cruising patrolmen and three of the men were captured. Mr. Hughes went to Gladewater Tuesday and identified the car as being his. He reports that it was badly damaged and camping equipment and clothing that were in the car when it was stolen has not been found. Mr. Hughes' wrist watch was also taken by one of the thieves, but the men saved their money by dropping their bill folds on the ground where they were overlooked in the dark by the thieves.

E. L. Crabtree Free Under $2500 Appeal Bond

Everett L. Crabtree, given two years upon conviction of murder without malice in a jury verdict returned in Wichita Falls last week, was freed under $2,500 appeal bond following a hearing before Judge Irvin J. Vogel in the 78th district court Wednesday. Judge Vogel overruled a motion for a new trial presented by John Davenport, defense attorney, and sentenced Crabtree. Sureties on the appeal bond are R. L. Gragg and J. W. Gloger. Crabtree was convicted in connection with the slaying of Vernon Graves on the Beaver Creek lease of the Water Service corporation in the KMA field several months ago.

Merchants Offering Many Bargains For Friday - Saturday

The weekly Burkburnett Trades Day event which has been taking place at the old rodeo grounds for the past several weeks will be held this coming Saturday on Avenue E, between Main street and Fourth street. Avenue E is the street running north and south by the Ice Service Co. and Dudley and Walden Service Station. These trades day events were inaugurated several years ago and were held in the main part of town for the first year or two but during the past year the crowds have increased to where it was impossible to hold them on the Main street. These Trades Day events are growing more popular and more profitable with each one. Interest now is at its best and farmers and stockmen from all over this territory are attending in large numbers. According to an agreement reached by the merchants committee this week the main event of the Trades Day will be held on Ave. E during August and at the old rodeo grounds during September.

Mr. Boyd came to Burkburnett in 1919, with his three brothers and started a small mercantile business, which has now grown into one of the biggest general mercantile establishments in this part of the country. The new officers will be installed the first meeting night in September. Delegates to the state convention which will be held at Austin, Texas, August 27, 28, 29 and 30, were elected. They include C. F. Johnson, Leo Dudley, Jim Boyd, Fred Brookman and Steve Marchand.

Negotiation Under Way For Later Mail Delivery For Burk

Negotiations have been under way for the past week to get a later mail delivery out of Burkburnett. Recently the train schedule was changed from 7 p. m. to 3 p. m. thus making it inconvenient for the oil companies, automobile agencies and other business places. They had to have their mail in the postoffice by 3 p. m. in order to make connections with the trains in Wichita Falls. The local postoffice department is trying to make a contract with the Lynn Way stages to carry a first-class mail pouch to Wichita Falls at 7:30 p. m. If this fails they will try to get a contract with the Oklahoma Transportation Co., who has a bus leaving Burkburnett at 9 p. m. each night.

Brief History Of Local Club Given Rotary Meeting

Inaugurating a plan that he announced last week, President Jingle Hayes turned the weekly Rotary club meeting over to the past presidents. Paul Browning, one of the first presidents of the club had charge of the meeting and he gave a brief history of the club. He stated that the club was organized in the fall of 1922, under the direction of Pete Rogers, of Wichita Falls. Jim Alexander is the only charter member of the club that is now an active member. Mr. Browning also called attention to the fact that the district assembly meets at Plainview next Monday and any Rotarian wishing to attend get in touch with Jingle Hayes. Bob Tevis had charge of the program but his program failed to appear and the program hour was taken up by impromptu talks by members from the Wichita Falls club. Next week's program will be in charge of M. C. Tucker and Paul Browning will lecture the new members on Rotary Education.

Those attending from Wichita Falls were: Sam Kruger, Jimmie Sommerville, Alex Brittain, Edd Bebb, Scotty Scott, T. C. Scott, John Kilgore, Roy Jones and Luther Robertson.

KEEP THIS IN MIND

Keep this in mind—we will have no real prosperity in the United States until we have honest, non-political tax reform.

The investor knows that if he risks his money in a new undertaking and is lucky enough to earn a profit, the government will seize an undue share of it through the capital gains tax—and so he is leaving his assets in a bank, where they produce nothing. Industry knows that if it attempts to save up money against a rainy day the government will heavily penalize it with the undistributed profits tax—consequently it is operating on a hand-to-mouth basis. So it goes, throughout the whole economic structure.

Intelligent tax reform would probably do more than anything else to bring back the lost confidence that is essential to good times here or anywhere else.

Walking Into Trouble

In its interesting analysis of the hows, whys and whens of automobile accidents in 1937, The Travelers Insurance Company has published some revealing figures relating to pedestrian deaths. With fatalities and injuries to pedestrians rising at an alarming rate, the figures are worth the attention of every individual.

Nearly 28 per cent of the deaths, the figures indicate, resulted from the obviously unsafe habit many walkers have of crossing in the middle of the block. Of the 27.5 per cent or a total of 4,450 pedestrians killed while crossing at intersections, only 280 met death while crossing, as they should, with the signal. No less than 1,100 died when they attempted to cross against the signal light or the officer's signal. The remainder were killed while crossing diagonally in the intersection or while crossing at intersections where there was no signal.

Regulations On Hunting Issued

Austin, August 3—Dove hunters of Texas will not be subjected to a series of conflicting regulations such as confused them last year, the Game Department announced. Compared to those of last year, the 1938 regulations are fairly uniform. Combined state and federal laws governing both mourning and white-winged doves provide the following open seasons: From Sept. 1 to Oct. 31 in the counties of Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, Kent, Stonewall, Haskell, Throckmorton, Young, Jack, Wise, Denton, Collin, and Hunt, and all counties north thereof, and the counties of Parker, Tarrant, Dallas, Rockwall, Kaufman, Johnson, Hopkins, Delta and Franklin. In the remainder of the state the open season on both species is from Sept. 15 to Nov. 15. Below the Texas-Mexican Railway in the Rio Grande Valley, however, only four days of shooting each week during the open season will be allowed—on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays, and Sundays—but this exception is Three three-shell limit on repeating or automatic shotguns, in effect the last three seasons, is continued. Hunters may shoot waterfowl with shotguns only, not larger than No. 10 gauge. Ross' geese, wood ducks and swans are still protected.

YOUNG BRIDE ELECT IS HONOREE AT LOVELY LAWN PARTY THURS.

One of the loveliest pre-nuptial parties ever given in Burkburnett was the shower honoring Miss Edna Cropper at the home of Mrs. A. H. Lohofener last Thursday evening. Miss Cropper becomes the bride of Sennett I. Hill of Houston on Sunday.

Hostesses for the affair were: Mesdames A. H. Lohofener, O. E. Melton, L. N. Peyton, T. Guy Willis, and Misses Elva Stimpson, Marian McClarney, Helen Ashton, Maxine Melton, Margarette Griffin, and Jean Reger.

The beautiful lawn was converted into a veritable fairyland with indirect lighting and well arranged flowers which formed a charming setting for the miniature wedding which was the feature of the evening's entertainment.

Before an improvised altar banked with flowers, the following children took part in the little mock wedding which was particularly well received by those present: Carol Lohofener, the bride; Noel Duke, the groom; C. H. Parker, Jr., best man; Janice Caffee, maid of honor; Jessie Ruth Preston and Nathalie Foster, train bearers; Charles Caffee, ring bearer; Jay Morris and F. T. Felty, Jr., ushers; Kay Morrison, flower girl; and Bobby Ragsdale, the minister.

Prior to the wedding ceremony, Mrs. Leo Foster sang "I Love You Truly," after the ceremony, she sang "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life." The little bride threw her bouquet to Miss Cropper and Kay Morrison led her to a table where an impressive array of gifts was assembled.

Punch was served from a large bowl made of ice in a floral centerpiece of marigolds. The hostesses presided and formed a charming picture in evening frocks under the subdued lights.

Those present were as follows: Mesdames D. A. Wesbrooks, J. W. Butz, R. P. Reagan, H. W. Prinzing, J. L. Caffee, J. N. Hicks, Baroness Marthe Boel of Belgium, who succeeded the Marchioness of Aberdeen and Tremair as president of the International Council of Women, has made a deep impression on all those who have read what she has to say about women uniting against war. After telling her interviewer that she has a vision of a whole world of women consciously organized, breaking national divisions, the Baroness added, "We have done with war, we repudiate bitterness, we abandon greed and the hatreds which come of it." Baroness Boel, whose father was governor of the province of Hainaut, had a terrible experience during the war, having been imprisoned for arranging communications between families in Belgium and those who were scattered beyond the German lines. However, something like 200,000 letters had passed before the plot was discovered and the Baroness was compelled to serve as a political prisoner.

The 500,000 matzohs which are baked daily by

You enjoy the comfort an electric fan brings to you on hot days and nights. But did you consider that electricity to operate your fan is so little?

Your electric fan runs for less than 1/4 cent an hour.

And other electric appliances in your home are little to run. Taken singly, the cost of operation is surprisingly small, especially if you weigh the comfort and convenience they bring and the ice they render.

THE DOCTOR Tells the Story

by W.E. AUGHINBAUGH MD

Discoveries In Heredity

Since time began men have desired heirs and it was the custom in ancient days for those without children to pull out by their roots the hairs of their heads and beards. Many persons are inclined to the belief that their ills, characteristics and peculiar habits and anatomical deformities are due to heredity—that all these are a sort of family legacy. Undoubtedly, the most intricate and difficult problem is that of collecting data regarding your family ancestors. How many of us can positively and beyond any question of doubt trace back our ancestral line for, say, six generations—know all their peculiar idiosyncrasies, whether they were tall or short, blond or brunette, intellectual or dumb, or of what diseases they died? It is true that some human diseases such as the bleeders disease, feeble-mindedness, and color blindness have been traced back for many generations.

Juvenile Delinquents

In a home for juvenile delinquents the lives of more than 600 inmates have been studied, and the records of ten thousand relatives of these youths has been genealogically established. In most instances the children of these anti-social citizens have rebelled against the established laws of society, but the physician studying these cases believes that a greater portion of this abnormal tendency is due entirely to criminal parents marrying and having issue, and this is especially true of those committing what might be called major crimes, such as murder, highway robbery and the like. Among the descendants of those convicted of less serious offenses and who have returned to normal behavior, marrying into socially worthy families there has been practically little or no heredity taint along criminal lines exhibited and their children show themselves fairly stable characters and able to adapt themselves to the most exacting social demands. In other words, if a person of criminal ancestry mates with a high type of individual, the chances are that the issue of such a marriage will be a normal child, who can readily adapt himself to conventional living.

JOSEPHINE

The Punctual Napoleon Kept Her Waiting Two Hours at the Altar

This is the story of a poor girl who was born in a fishing village down in the West Indies and who lived in bare, dingy rooms over a sugar refinery; the story of a girl who married the most famous man in all history.

Her name was Marie Joseph Rose Tashier La Pegarie, but she is usually called "Josephine."

When the French revolutionists cut off the head of her first husband, Josephine found herself without means of support; and she did what most sensible widows do; she began looking about for a husband.

Josephine's friends told her that Napoleon was going to make a name for himself. And so Josephine, being human, wanted to meet him.

But how? She figured out a clever way to do it. She sent her young son, who was twelve years old, to ask Napoleon if he might have the sword of his (the boy's) dead father. Naturally, Napoleon said yes; and the next day Josephine powdered her nose and went to thank Napoleon.

Napoleon was immensely impressed by Josephine's personality and by her extraordinary charm. He realized that she was above him, socially; so when she invited him to her house for tea, he was flattered.

Napoleon had a veritable passion for always being on time. His motto was "Time is everything," and he once said, "I may lose battles, but no one will ever see me lose minutes;" and yet he was two hours late for his own wedding!

Forty-eight hours after this marriage, Napoleon set out to wage a new war in Italy. His army was a hungry, ragged affair; yet he fought a brilliant campaign that electrified the continent.

And the amazing part of it all is that even on the battlefields Napoleon found time to write Josephine a letter every day. And what letters!

My dear Josephine: You have inspired me with a love which has taken away my reason—I can't eat. I can't sleep. I don't care for my friends. I don't care for glory; I value victory only because it pleases you. If it weren't for that, I should leave the army and hurry back to Paris to fling myself at your feet.

You have inspired me with a limitless love; you have filled me with an intoxicating frenzy. Never an hour passes without my looking at your portrait and never an hour passes without my covering it with kisses.

And that is tame in comparison to some of the things he wrote. But Josephine didn't seem to care for them. She was having a flirtation with another man and she drove Napoleon almost frantic because she didn't even bother to answer his letters.

Finally, he got fed up with her indifference and, while he was fighting in Egypt, he invited a blonde to have tea with him. And Josephine heard about it way off in Paris!

Then there were family troubles. Josephine was better bred than Napoleon's sisters and that made them jealous and envious. But talk as much as they might, they couldn't kill Napoleon's love for Josephine. Nothing could do that. Nothing.

However, he did decide to divorce her, and he decided to do it for one reason only; he wanted a wife who could bear him a son.

The curious part of it is that Marie Louise, like all Austrians, had been brought up to despise Napoleon; and she prayed to Almighty God that she wouldn't have to marry him. But her father insisted that she do it for political reasons; and so she married him, by proxy, before she ever saw him.

Napoleon's first love and last love, and only real love, was Josephine.

The last word that Napoleon ever spoke on this earth was the word "Josephine."

Howard Martin Thanks Voters

I feel grateful to the people of Wichita, Archer and Young counties for the large plurality given me in the first primary election in the District Attorney's race. The young man who was eliminated in the first primary, and who, in fact, was in second place in Wichita county, is to be complimented on the splendid race he ran. From the many expressions I have already heard, those who supported this popular young man were simply voting for him and not against me.

I have enough confidence in the people of this district to believe that they know when an official is serving them well. I am now serving on my first term as District Attorney of this district, and the record I have made in the last nineteen months is the best evidence of my ability to serve the people as their District Attorney. I do not believe that the people will deny a second term to a man who has already proved his ability to fill the office.

I sincerely hope that my assistants and I have the confidence and respect of the citizens of Wichita, Archer and Young counties; and in return for their support and vote of confidence on August 27th, I shall promise diligent and forceful prosecution of those who violate our felony laws.

Large Crowd At Decatur Heard M'Farlane Speak

Decatur, Texas—Congressman M'Farlane spoke to a large crowd here last Monday afternoon. Mr. M'Farlane reviewed the Administration's legislative program and pointed out that not one vote he had cast has been challenged as wrong. That he has supported the Roosevelt Recovery program and the platform upon which he was elected 100 per cent. After reviewing his own platform for re-election, which included cost of production, plus a fair profit for agriculture, elimination of red tape and injustices to the aged, he pointed out that he had voted for $40.00 per month old age pensions and had signed petitions to immediately bring the general welfare act before Congress for consideration. He stated the opposition finding nothing wrong with his legislative record, that "Gossett is attacking my character and thus trying to ride into office on what he alleges are my demerits rather than any qualification he may have for this important office." Mr. M'Farlane referred to letters showing that he has the endorsement of the Administration and the leaders in Washington including the different organizations representing agriculture, oil, labor and the livestock industries because of his record made in fighting to protect their interests. Mr. M'Farlane then answered the three and eight page scandal sheets attacking his character, integrity and standing in Congress. He challenged his opponent to support any reputable evidence, any of the statements made in either of these scandal sheets. Answering charges made about the Horse Power Bill, he pointed out that this measure was introduced by him at the request of representatives of different trade unions, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, who were anxious to place this subject before Congress because of the large numbers of their men thrown out of work in the industrial centers, due to the installation of automatic machinery. He read from the bill and showed that the intention of the bill was "To relieve unemployed workers deprived of work through the mechanism of industry" and the intention was to tax the automatic machinery used "in the production of goods for transportation in interstate commerce." He pointed out that this measure was introduced more than a year ago and that two sessions have occurred since its introduction; that the bill is dead and could have no bearing on any legitimate issue in this race except to try to deceive the voters regarding same. Mr. M'Farlane pointed out that the clear intention of the bill as expressed in the preamble, as well as in the bill itself, was to tax goods manufactured and shipped from one state to another in proportion to the number of men thrown out of work. He denied that it was the intention of the bill to tax automobiles, trucks, tractors and

FAIR PLAY

The old proverb is that everything is fair in Love, War and Politics, but it has proved a poor one and has never gained a foothold. There is nothing fair about a war and there is nothing honest about politics so long as unfair methods are used. True love is too sacred a thing for idle jest. Fair play means honest dealings; it means the application of the Golden Rule. A business that ignores fair play—a square deal—to customers, competitor and creditor, is a business that shuns the searchlight of truth and honesty. Our business is our own creation; it is part of our daily life and work. The patronage of our friends has enabled us to build it so, and we trust they shall aid us in keeping it anchored to the principle of Fair Play.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

SHOOT 'EM IN SERIES

"Wonder could I chew my way out of here? . . ."

"Mmmm—it's a funny taste . . ."

Not bad, though, at that . . .

"Heh! I was only kidding. I really like it in here!"

ANYBODY can take a single snapshot—a landscape here, an informal portrait there. But have you ever tried taking a series, to tell a complete story of an incident, or to picture a person more effectively? Summer activities offer all sorts of chances for series pictures. Wherever there is fun—a party, a picnic, a motor trip, an afternoon at the swimming pool or beach—you find amusing occurrences which are best pictured thus. One picture tells part of the story. Several pictures "follow through" and tell all of it. The incidents don't have to be unusual. Good "fun" series can be made out of the cutting of a watermelon, a small boy blowing up a balloon until it bursts. Try picturing a child's tea party in this fashion—the small girl playing hostess to her dolls and pets. Also, try "expression" snaps of the baby in his outdoor crib. Sports series are good. For instance, a man catching a fish. Show him baiting, casting, playing the fish, landing it, dropping it into the creel or threading it on the string. Later on, snap a picture to complete the series—the fish on the table at home, or the fisherman back at his office, describing his catch. The series-picture idea can be applied in a thousand variations. Series pictures have extra "punch," because each picture supports and reinforces the next. A series of five good expression shots of the baby—laughing, crying, "crowing," questioning, shouting, and so on—is better than five unrelated shots. One picture may be just a paragraph, but a series is a complete short story. Try such picture stories this summer. Nature stories are good, if you have a focusing camera, or a portrait attachment for your box camera. For example, picture a squirrel accepting a nut,—taking enough pictures to tell the complete story. Don't miss series pictures this season. They're immense camera fun! John van Gulder machinery not directly engaged in manufacture for interstate commerce. He referred to his record of service showing that he had never supported any measure and would not have voted for this measure, if it had reached the hearing stage, if there was any doubt about protecting small industry. Mr. M'Farlane answered the different charges made by his opponent and pointed out that many felony charges were thus made and if his opponent had any proof justifying any such charges, it was his duty to file same with the proper authorities for prosecution. That such felony charges thus brought were a cloud over him as well as his children. That the failure of his opponent to substantiate these charges by reputable evidence should cause the people to repudiate him at the polls. Mr. M'Farlane read from the sworn uncontradicted testimony before the Federal Communications Commission which showed the facts regarding the ownership of the radio station at Wichita Falls, which testimony showed that the station was wholly owned by reputable Wichita Falls citizens, therein named. He stated that Leslie Humphries, attorney for the Texas Electric Service Company was also the attorney for the Wichita Daily Times and the Wichita Record News, who were disappointed applicants for the radio station, their application not receiving a favorable vote by the seven-man Commission. Answering the charges made concerning the Decatur Post Office Building, Mr. M'Farlane called attention of the people to his visit two years ago, long after the primary, to Decatur at which time the announcement was made as to the location of the postoffice building at Decatur. Mr. M'Farlane pointed out that if he had promised any community a post office or any one else anything, in order to secure their vote, that it would be a felony and any one having such information—that it is his duty as a good citizen to file such information under oath with the proper authorities in order that the facts may be known. He reviewed the many accomplishments of the Administration and the many projects received by Wise County, all of which he voted for and assisted in securing. Mr. M'Farlane referred to his important committee assignment and what it means to Texas and the 13th Congressional District, in securing needed funds for this section. He closed his appeal to stand by this Administration, whose humanitarian program has done so much for the masses of the people. He was the author of anti-lobbying legislation to require members of Legislature to state under oath their corporate connections and fees received. Opposed to all special privilege legislation. On this record he was elected to Congress. McFarlane pays his own campaign expenses.

Gossett's Record

Age 36, single, last 20 years in school and practicing law. Returned to this District 11 years ago and has run for office four times within the past 11 years. District Attorney four years, from 1933 to 1937 according to sworn affidavits for this period of time his record as District Attorney is as follows:

	Foard	Hardeman	Wilbur
	No.	Pct.	No.	Pct.	No.	Pct.
Felony Indictments Filed	78		241		473
Dismissals on Motion of Dist. Atty.	46	59%	114	57%	145	31%
Dismissals on Account of
Repeal of Dean Law	0		23	10%	16	4%
Acquittals	4	5%	9	4%	7	2%
Pleas of Guilty	17	22%	43	20%	146	31%
Tried Before a Jury	25	32%	63	27%	131	28%
Suspended Sentences	15	19%	31	13%	67	14%
Cases Appealed	11	14%	15	6%	42	9%
Cases Reversed	5	45%	13	87%	19	45%
Cases Affirmed	6	55%	2	13%	23	55%
Sent to Penitentiary
On Contested Jury Trials	12	48%	22	35%	52	44%

Thus, you see from the above record that about 41% of the Grand indictments he had returned on contested cases has never been sent to trial. You will note that he dismissed on his own motion about 39% of the Grand indictments he had returned. You will further note that 54.4% of the cases appealed were reversed because of a defective record. That out of 792 indictments filed that only 86 were ever sent to the penitentiary and 305 cases were dismissed on his own motion, which clearly shows that he dismissed cases he thought he could not win, thus showing favoritism and even cases he tried, he could only get affirmed, 41% of the cases appealed.

NO LEGISLATIVE EXPERIENCE

No special aptitude for legislative action; none claimed; the contents of his platform already the law. Two years ago in his speeches throughout the First Primary, he had mortgaged his father's farm to make the run-off campaign. Who is to pay for this expensive campaign? The records show he has not earned enough to pay his living and office expenses since moving to Wichita Falls.

...-Chicago turn-charming Michigan town, has just begun operations. The factory group comprises two buildings. One is the historic Schuyler grist mill which has been converted into a cleaning and storage plant. A new frame structure back of the grist mill houses soy bean flaking and oil extraction equipment. Power is supplied by a hydroelectric plant fed by water brought by mill-race from a dam built across the Saline river along the right-of-way of the Detroit-Chicago highway. More than 700 farmers within a 200-mile radius of the Saline plant are now growing soy beans on 22,588 acres from seed furnished by the Ford Company. In addition, the Ford Company has 15,624 acres seeded under contract. The total yield of soy beans for the season is expected to be 312,480 bushels, at the rate of 20 bushels per acre.

Under the arrangement between the Ford Company and the farmers to whom seed was advanced, the farmers will return the seed from the new crop at the end of the season. They are then at liberty to sell the balance of their crop to Ford at the market, or dispose of it to other buyers.

Most of the crop, however, is expected to be delivered to the Saline plant. The cleaning and flaking plant at Saline, together with those at Tecumseh and Hayden Mills have a capacity of 300,000 bushels a year and are expected to be kept busy through the 12 months.

The extraction plant in the rear of the grist mill here has a capacity of 140,000 bushels a year. A similar amount will be processed at a new plant now under construction at Milan, Mich. The balance of the crop will be retained for seed for use in the spring of 1939.

The historic old grist mill already has become the mecca for farmers for many miles around Saline, and it promises to become the show place of the Ford soy bean operations in southeastern Michigan.

Soy beans brought in the plant are delivered at the rear. There trucks dump their loads into a hopper, from which the beans are hoisted by conveyor to cleaning equipment on the second floor and thence to storage bins on the upper floors.

As the beans are required for processing they are carried by conveyor to the new building in the rear. There they are delivered to a hopper from which they are transferred to a flaker and then by conveyor again to a distributor which feeds the flakes into the oil extraction mill.

The oil, which comprises 18 per cent of the soy bean flakes, is extracted with hexane, a liquid solvent, and then recovered by evaporating the solvent. The extraction process takes place in a large insulated tube set at an angle of approximately 30 degrees with the floor. A screw conveyor operates inside the tube, carrying the bean flakes from the bottom toward the top as the solvent pours down.

The solvent carrying the oil is drawn off from the base of the tube and run through evaporators where the solvent passes off as vapor and the oil remains. The solvent is used over and over again. The oil is used in the manufacture of car finishes and in binding foundry cores.

The meal, from which the oil has been extracted, is carried off from the top of the mill and is bagged for use in manufacture of plastic parts for Ford cars at the Rouge glass plant.

Aside from the hydroelectric plant, power also will be available from a standby steam plant.

Farm Income Shows Increase For June

Farm cash income in Texas during June, as computed by the Bureau of Business Research, excluding government subsidies, was $28,802,000, compared with $26,060,000 during June last year, according to Dr. F. A. Buechel, assistant director of the Bureau of Business Research, University of Texas. During the first six months of the year aggregate income for the State as a whole was $128,328,000, compared with $146,564,000 during the corresponding period last year, a decline of 12 per cent.

"The computed figures are estimated to be about 91 per cent of the actual farm cash income, so that by adding 10 per cent to the foregoing, a close approximation to the actual farm cash income is obtained," he said.

W. P. A. Authorized To Hire More Men

Funds sufficient to employ 14,600 persons on Works Progress Administration projects in this territory during the month of August have been granted the Fort Worth office, it was reported today by Karl E. Wallace, administrative officer.

The August budget figure makes it possible to hire 1,500 additional persons in the counties administered from the Fort Worth office, provided that a sufficient number of suitable projects are sponsored by local governmental agencies, Wallace stated.

Princess In Movies

Never having seen a movie until months after starring in one, is the unusual claim made for Princess Kouka, daughter of Sheikh Ibrahim Mahdi, Chieftain of El Fashar Anglo Soudan. She saw her first movie while in Cairo, Egypt, awaiting ship to London to complete the picture she was making.

"SEND NEW BLOOD to CONGRESS" 13th District Support ED GOSSETT (Carried 11 of 15 Counties FIRST PRIMARY)

Urging that cities and counties take full advantage of the opportunity to furnish jobs for the unemployed, Wallace stated: "Budgets have been allotted on the basis of existing need and we hope that local officials will provide enough projects of integrity to supply jobs for all those who need them in the Fort Worth territory."

"Suffering among the unemployed, loss of community purchasing power, and loss of opportunity to obtain needed public improvements at a fraction of the normal cost will be the result of the failure of local agencies to sponsor sufficient projects to care for the jobless."

To The Voters of 50th Judicial Dist.

I wish to express my deepest appreciation for the fine support that I received in my campaign for Judge of the 30th Judicial District. While I was unsuccessful, I wish to assure all of those who saw fit to vote for my opponent that I have nothing but the very kindest feeling and the highest respect for them. However, I am convinced that many people voted against me because of statements made by some misleading person concerning me, but time, of course, will correct this. It has been my ambition every since I began practicing law to be a district judge, and it is my purpose to keep up my acquaintance with the people of this district, and to live so as to retain the friendship of those who supported me and to merit the friendship and respect of those who voted against me should I again be a candidate.

Respectfully,
W. Taz Locke

Grocers To Have Annual Session In Fort Worth Soon

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 3—Wider distribution of Texas-grown products will be a subject for discussion at the annual sessions of the Texas Retail Grocers Association in Fort Worth four days, August 21st to 24th, inclusive. Elaborate preparations are being made by Fort Worth and Texas Retail Grocers Association for the meeting. These organizations are being enthusiastically supported by the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, wholesale and manufacturing associations, the local hotel association, bankers and others who know the value of the meeting from past experience. The 1938 assemblage is expected to attract the largest gathering of retail distributors in several years.

In addition to a very interesting social program including the annual dinner dance on Tuesday evening, August 23rd, subjects touching State and National legislation; distribution, transportation and marketing will be discussed by speakers of State and National reputation.

Texas' position in the field of food production has taken on new and far greater importance in the past three or four years than prevailed previously. Her position in this field is being vitally felt by other States that produce table delicacies similar to those of the Lone Star State. The superior quality of Texas-grown products, and the advantage this State holds in soil, climate, transportation facilities and other elements so essential in food production are proving profitable to Texas producers.

"Consumer demand for Texas-grown products," is felt in all important food markets of the nation. Grocers and other food distributors are constantly met with requests for Texas meats, fruits, vegetables and poultry products. These demands by consumers have a direct bearing upon the annual gathering of Texas retailers. Exhibitors, distributors, manufacturers, commission merchants—wholesalers and manufacturers of every food line are annually represented at the Texas meetings. Also, Texas products are exhibited in profusion by producers and processors, putting them in touch with the 10,000 Texas retailers and 153,000 retailers throughout the nation.

Student Supply Preached Sunday At Clara Church

Roland Gabbert of Brighton, Colorado, theological student at Concordia Seminary at St. Louis, delivered the morning sermon at the Clara Lutheran church last Sunday. Young Gabbert is doing supply work this year prior to finishing his studies and taking his degree at the Seminary. It is customary for all theological students to do one year's supply work before becoming candidates for their degrees.

Gabbert, Carl Hechtmann, and Raymond Kasper have all been guests of Martin Ramming for several days. They are classmates at Concordia. Hechtmann, Kasper and Ramming formed a quartet with Rev. Kaiser on Sunday morning which delighted the congregation with several splendid vocal numbers.

Burk City Manager Invited To Attend Okla. Convention

The Oklahoma City water system will become a laboratory for more than 600 city officials and water works engineers, who will attend the annual convention of the Southwest Section of the American Water Works Association in Oklahoma City October 17 to 20.

Delegates will attend from Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana. Invited to represent Burk Burnett is R. P. Reagan, city manager.

By coincidence the convention is scheduled to be held when Oklahoma City launches a $6,200,000 water works improvement project as part of the new Public Works Administration program. Designated as the Bluff Creek Reservoir project, the Oklahoma City program is designed to overcome the city's acute need for an additional water supply.

It includes construction of a dam that will impound 106,000 acre feet of water four miles from the city limits, construction of filtration facilities with twice the capacity of the city's present plant, installation of many miles of new conduits and mains and dredging of the city's present sedimentation basin.

Details of this work will be made available to all convention delegates, and inspection trips will be arranged for all who want to make them.

"Water supply, treatment and distribution are the three most vital factors in operation of municipal water systems," said M. B. Cunningham, city water superintendent, who is in charge of convention arrangements.

"It is a fortunate coincidence that the convention will be held just as Oklahoma City undertakes a program that deals with all of these factors. The project should develop interesting data for delegates interested in any or all of the three major phases of water service."

market and it is not put back unless some farmer has suffered a loss. As an example Mr. Crocker stated, "The government takes an average during a six year period and adjusts it to a ten year period. This is arrived at by totaling the six-year yield and dividing by 6, which gives you the yield per year during the six years. Then you subtract 2 bushels from this six-year yield gives you the 10-year yield. The owner and the tenant can both take out insurance. The crop can be insured for 75 per cent or 50 per cent of the total yield. You are also allowed to take out hail and fire insurance from your local insurance agent if you wish."

"Everyone is eligible for the insurance this year whether you abide by the allotment or not. You may insure for your total yield if it is above your allotment but you will not be eligible for insurance on your 1940 crop if you go over your allotment this year."

"The insurance is cancelled after the grain has been threshed. You are allowed 120 hours after your grain has been combined. All applications must be in the office in Wichita Falls by the 30th of August to get a policy on your 1939 wheat. All premiums are due in a week or ten days after you receive your policy. You may pay same in wheat or cash. If you do not have either you can take your policy to your local banker and he will lend you the money."
