A. Roberts Re-elected President Burk Volunteer Fire Department Wed.

J. F. KELLEY IS CHIEF AGAIN

Department Opens Drive For Fire Prevention

The entire executive board of the Volunteer Fire Department was re-elected by acclamation at a meeting held at the City Hall Wednesday evening. W. A. Roberts is now serving his ninth year as president of the organization and Frank Kelley is beginning his third year as chief.

Fire Marshal John Blackstone is serving as vice president. Other officers include N. R. Allen, secretary-treasurer; F. H. Hood, assistant chief; Jobie Dunn, captain engine company; Herman Engelman, lieutenant engine company; Robert Laney, captain hose company; Wayne Goodlett, lieutenant hose company; and Frank Kelley, chaplain.

The meeting was followed by a safety drill conducted by Frank Kelley.

All Volunteers

The department was organized in October, 1927, and is now in its thirteenth year, having served the community with increasing efficiency each year. It now has a membership of twenty-two men who are all volunteers and who pride themselves on keeping up with all the latest methods of preventing and fighting fires.

It is not generally known, but every member of the department spends a great deal of his time in study and practice and some of them attend the annual Fire School held every year at Texas A. and M. Incidentally, Texas is nationally recognized as foremost in Fire Schools.

There are eight first aid certificates in the department already and other members are working toward certificates. Fire Marshal Blackstone received a certificate in advanced work at the American Red Cross school held this year.

The first aid squad and the whole department are anxious to serve Burk Burnett and are available in case of emergency at any hour of the day or night.

In Case Of Fire

So many people do not know the proper way in which to turn in an alarm. It is a good idea to know this, since one never knows when the knowledge may be needed. Such information is especially timely now during Fire Prevention Week.

If the public would just realize that seconds count in turning in alarms and that often tragedy may be avoided by saving just one minute, there would be very little need for continued stressing of this factor.

In case of emergency, whether it is a fire or not, someone must think and act quickly. The first thing to remember is where to reach the nearest phone and to get to it immediately. Turn your emergency over to the fire department; that is what it is for.

The proper way to turn in an alarm is to call the telephone operator and simply say: "I wish to report a fire," or whatever the emergency may be.

This method saves seconds and may save lives. Never fail to turn in a fire alarm no matter how insignificant the fire may seem. Delay increases hazards momentarily. The department is trained to fight fire with a minimum damage from water and to otherwise protect property which might be damaged by the untrained.

Traffic Hazards

The department also wishes to stress the importance of public assistance in decreasing traffic hazards when an alarm is sounded.

A great deal of friction has been caused in the past by motorists who try to get to the scene of a fire in split seconds. In the first place, if you are not a member of the department, you have no business whatever there; in the second place, there is a state law which says that when a fire siren or ambulance sounds all motorists must pull off the highway and leave the right-of-way clear for the emergency vehicle.

If you cannot resist going to the scene of the fire, you can at

Petition Asks For Election Of Chief Of Police

A petition presented to the city commissioners by N. H. Harris on Sept. 23rd asks for an election that the charter of the city of Burk Burnett may be amended so as to provide for the election of the Chief of Police.

The petition was signed by over 80 qualified voters and several leading business men's names appeared on the petition.

The petition follows: Petition to determine whether or not the charter of the City of Burk Burnett shall be amended so as to provide for the election of the chief of police.

According to Lynn Kincaid, city manager, the petition will be acted upon Monday night at the regular meeting of the commission.

Lions Heard Rev. O. C. Perry

Rev. O. C. Perry, pastor of Burk Burnett Nazarene Church, addressed the Lions Club on "The Big Business of Life" at their last regular meeting, Tuesday, October 10. Brother Perry emphasized that the Americans could be proud of their wonderful business achievements and cited specific examples of American accomplishments but clearly illustrated that man's biggest business was service to his fellowman.

Little Miss Joella Morgan of the Fairview community sang for the club.

Lion Bill Ruggles of the Wichita Falls Lions club was present and extended an invitation to the local club to attend the zone meeting in the attic of the Holt Hotel next Tuesday evening. A number of the local Lions indicated that they and their wives would be present to enjoy the entertainment.

Lion Dick Sucher of Amarillo was a guest of Earl Woodall.

Formal Installation Dr. Rainey Held In Austin, Dec. 9

The public will be invited to attend formal installation of Dr. Homer P. Rainey as president of The University of Texas on the morning of December 9.

Presidents of colleges and learned societies throughout the United States will be asked to send special delegates. Dr. W. J. Battle, faculty inaugural committee chairman said today. The inauguration will conclude a three-day education program.

The little French town of Ahun, with a population of 2,000 hasn't had a fire in more than 600 years.

Stock Owners Urged To Vaccinate Horses and Mules

Two hundred and eighty-five horses in this trade area have been vaccinated against Encephalomyelitis, or "sleeping sickness", of the Western type, according to Frank Kelley, local poultry man and grain dealer, who has administered the vaccine.

Mr. Kelley states that the disease was practically unheard of in this part of the country until recently when it seems to have become rampant all at once. Approximately twenty horses and mules owned by local men and farmers in this and surrounding communities have already died of the disease.

The disease is carried from one animal to another by flies and mosquitoes. It is strictly a virus type of disease and is always carried by insect bite. It will afflict any animal in the equine world.

With the foothold the disease has already established it will claim many victims and result in untold financial loss unless checked.

That it can be checked if owners of livestock will avail themselves of the modern vaccine which is being used is certain. This vaccine is given in two injections about ten days apart and there has never been a case of "sleeping sickness" following an injection for prevention of the disease.

It is also used in treatment of the disease after it has been contracted and the percentage of recoveries is very good, being about one-half.

Paul Browning Returns From 1940 Sales Conference

One of the key dealers invited to attend the 1940 Dodge Truck introductory meetings for this region was Paul Browning of Burk Burnett Motors, who returned home Monday after a day of active participation in a round table discussion of new merchandising plans and a preview of the new 1940 Dodge trucks and commercial cars at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas.

The meeting, Mr. Browning said, was called by sales officials of Dodge truck division of Chrysler Corporation and was attended by factory executives and a representative group of dealers and their sales forces.

While not permitted to give details of the 1940 Dodge truck models he said he was deeply impressed with the increasing importance given to the design of commercial cars and trucks.

"It has only been in recent years that truck manufacturers have devoted serious attention to the appearance of commercial vehicles," he said. "Today—at least at Dodge—there are as many artists, draftsmen and designers at work on trucks as on passenger cars. Now trucks are streamlined, eye-refreshing and are actually billboards on wheels for modern merchants."

"It is interesting to recall that a few years ago it would have been ludicrous, even folly, to consider exhibiting a truck in a hotel or in any refined surroundings. But that is all changed now and trucks of today blend into modern back drops almost as easily as passenger cars."

"As a matter of fact—believe it or not—at one of our current introductory meetings, similar to the one I just attended, the 1940 Dodge trucks will be exhibited to dealers in the grand ballroom of the most exclusive hotel on Park Avenue—The Waldorf Astoria."

Rain Benefits Grain Crops

The rain which fell in Burk Burnett and surrounding territory last Sunday night, breaking a long drought, will assure winter wheat pasture on most of the farms in this vicinity.

As the feed crop was practically a failure, pasture will be necessary for most farmers during the winter months if they retain their stock.

Some of the farmers dusted their wheat in while others will sow their wheat during this week.

Walters, Okla., Oct. 9—A Cotton county rural school was ordered closed and fumigated this week by County Health officer, Dr. W. G. Baker following the death of Marjorie Nell Martin, 7-year-old school girl, from what was believed to be meningitis.

Although the child attends school at Geronimo in Comanche county, she is said to have associated with several children in the Elm Grove community, seven miles northwest of Walters, where she lived with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie McMurtry.

As a precaution Dr. Baker ordered the Elm Grove school closed, and notified Comanche county health officers of the case, suggesting the closing of the school at Geronimo.

Baker said he knew of no other case of meningitis in this section, and declared there should be no cause for alarm if proper precautions were taken to prevent the spread of the disease in the Elm Grove community.

Methodist Held Quarterly Conference Monday

Dr. Stanley W. Hayne of Wichita Falls, presiding elder of this district, held the Fourth Quarterly conference for the Methodist church here last Monday evening.

He delivered a heart touching message in which he stressed the belief that every Christian should live so that no one seeing his life might be disappointed.

He was favorably impressed with the year's report and stated that he is looking forward to a full report at the annual conference which will be held in Dallas on the 25th of this month.

Wichita Falls Is Census Headquarters

Information from Congressman Ed Gossett was received last Friday by the chamber of commerce that Wichita Falls has been selected as headquarters for the 13th congressional district in taking the 1940 census.

The population census this time will be supplemented by a business census which will give basic facts on pay roll, business volume and employment.

Wilburn Page, chamber manager, said actual work on the census is expected to start Jan. 2. A district representative to direct work in the 15 counties of the 13th district will arrive here the latter part of November.

Burkburnett Accepts Invitation To Join District 2-AA

The Burk Burnett Bulldogs, now in District 9-A, will be in District 2-AA beginning in 1940, according to E. A. Sanders of Quanah, chairman of the District 2-AA football executive committee. Sanders announced Wednesday that the Burk Burnett school had been invited to participate in 2-AA competition some time ago and that a letter of acceptance had been received from C. J. Duncan, superintendent of Burk Burnett schools.

This will place the Burk Burnett team in competition with Wichita Falls, Electra, Vernon, Quanah, Childress, Graham and Olney.

What Will Russia Finally Do?

This is a curious war. There is more action on the diplomatic than on the military fronts. And more interest is today centered in the capitals than in events along the Maginot and Limes walls.

All-important is what Russia will finally do. The Bear That Walks Like A Man is again the unpredictable power. Some argue that Stalin has definitely thrown in with Hitler, and will, if necessary, send Red troops to fight with the Nazis. Others, including the American Communists and fellow-travelers, still hold that Russia has moved into Poland only because she saw that the Poles were doomed, and that in the final analysis she will apply the brakes to the Germans. To the unbiased, it does seem that both Stalin and Hitler would have a tough time selling Prussian-Russian friendship to their respective peoples, after many years during which Russian spokesmen have damned the Nazis practically 24 hours a day and the Nazis have given the Russians the same treatment.

Irrespective of that, the German-Russian trade pact has been a terrific blow to England and France. The British naval blockade which finally determined the last war, has lost much of its effectiveness. Russia can supply Germany with nearly everything she needs and under the terms of the pact she will do it. The little central European nations, which have long lived in fear of Soviet or Nazi domination, are rushing to make friends with the powers-that-be in Berlin and Moscow.

Keep Your Head

Rarely in our history has it been so necessary for Americans to keep their heads as it is today.

The most ghastly of all tragedies has engulfed Europe. It is the burning hope of the vast majority of our people that we may escape the holocaust of destruction. We have not forgotten the World War. It sowed seeds for the years of social discontent and depressions that followed. We have not forgotten that thousands of American lives and untold billions in American wealth and resources were sacrificed. Only history will eventually reveal what good, if any, came from that war.

The President has said that so long as it remains in his power, there shall be no "blackout of peace" in this nation. In that he echoes the minds and hearts of all of us. But the mere wish is not enough. Hysteria, passion, fanaticism, mistaken idealism—these things can be the producers of ruin and horror. American neutrality is dependent upon America keeping its head.

No one knows when the war will end, or who will be the "victor." But certainly there is justified fear that all that is best in Europe may be lost to that continent for many years after hostilities have stopped. War means that the arts of death and destruction may be advanced. The preservation of liberties which have been won through centuries, are threatened in a warring world.

Destroyer Of Jobs

Fire is a great and ruthless destroyer of jobs.

As Safeguarding America Against Fire, observes, "Crowds watching fire roar through a huge Midwestern factory were thrilled by the spectacular play of the flames as they engulfed the building, and the stubborn battle of the firemen . . . The employees of the plant who came to the scene on the following day were not thrilled by the smoldering ruins. They now saw what had actually taken place. They realized that their jobs had burned up!"

The loss of a job is a major tragedy to the individual involved. And it is a community tragedy as well. Everyone is directly or indirectly affected. When men are thrown out of work their purchasing power stops or is vastly reduced. That means less business for the corner grocery, for doctor, lawyer and candlestick maker. It means that bills cannot be collected, and that rent goes unpaid. In many cases where men cannot find new jobs they must apply for relief, and become a burden to the taxpayers.

A burned factory no longer pays taxes, or does its part in support of community endeavors. The load must be distributed among others. There are cases on record where the destruction by fire of a community's large industry has ended civic progress.

You can't insure against losses such as this. You can't make up for lost jobs, wealth, orders, taxes. What fire takes from us is gone forever—it is utter and complete economic destruction. Fire prevention is a cause in which every one of us should enlist—and there's no better time for joining the fight than during Fire Prevention Week, which is this week.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

This is the time of year when the football fan takes a pencil and paper and, from comparative scores, tries to figure out the winner of the game coming up. And this calls to mind an expression of W. J. Barnes, former district attorney of Eastland, now practicing law in Houston: "A coon can whip a dog; a dog can whip a possum and a possum can whip a 'coon'."

It's like the story of a little boy who was given this problem: A frog fell in a well 21 feet deep; he climbed up two feet every day and dropped back three feet every night. How long did it take him to get out of the well?

The boy worked on the problem for several hours and then reported to the teacher, "Give me three more pencils and another tablet and I'll have him through to China by tomorrow morning."

For "color", it would be difficult to surpass a one-time oil boom town holding a reunion. Glimpsed in the crowds at the recent Breckenridge homecoming were Lea Walker of Ranger (brother of the late Breck Walker, chief figure in the development of Breckenridge) who is said to be the only child ever born on a cattle drive up the trail; Bill Little of Hot Spring, N. M., who drilled the discovery well in Stephens county and now owns a gold mine in New Mexico—he brought back $2,000 in gold flakes as proof; and "Shorty" Thompson, owner of the Burch Hotel, whose first job in Breckenridge was in a furniture store and the first sale he made was an ordinary table at the amazing price of $150—and one for Ripley is that, just recently, Thompson bought the table back for $7!

One of the exciting stories told of the Breckenridge boom was that of a "shooter" on a Sunday morning who grabbed a shell filled with nitroglycerin when it was forced back up out of the hole and thereby saved the lives of the congregation in a church house a few feet away. Tradition had not preserved the name of the hero but Edgar B. Davis, who works in the Breckenridge post-office, informed this columnist that the shooter was John Canada known as "Demp" because of his ability to fight, and further that Canada gave up the hazardous business to become a farmer in Arkansas.

This-and-that: Is Harley Sadler of Sweetwater celebrated tent-show owner and comedian, going to run for Congress?

Senator Wilbourne B. Collie of Eastland, first man in the history of the district to be elected for a second term, is likely to run next summer. Some are saying he can't make it; maybe not; but the same thing was said the first time—and also the second time—he ran.

No-Man's-Land Beauty Shop is in Wichita Falls.

Another odd name: Guaranty ice cream parlor in Ranger—the origin: the Guaranty bank located in the building during the oil rush.

From the unpublished autobiography of a reporter:

Henry Helms, leader of the Cisco bank robbers (the shot two officers to death) was on trial for his life in Eastland and I was sitting right behind him. Suddenly, he whirled in his chair and his cold, grey eyes gazed into mine. Perhaps he had expected to find that a friend had made his way there, ready to hand him a pistol with which he could shoot his way out of the courtroom; or maybe he hoped to find the chair occupied by an officer who might have been caught off guard and his pistol seized. Anyway, he turned back around after a few seconds.

And speaking of "chilled", did you ever eat a chilled Pecos cantaloupe at Pecos? If not, it's worth the trip (provided you don't have to drive over 300 miles each way.)

Training In Observation

GRACE ARCHBOLD

"You have no idea, Joan," said Mrs. Miller, "how thankful you will be if you train your children to be observant."

"What made you arrive at that conclusion?" enquired Joan, always glad to hear about her older friend's experiences as mother of four happy children.

"Partly an incident in my own childhood and partly because I know what an effective means it is of gaining information, of cultivating accuracy and last pleasure."

"First, tell me the incident," begged Joan.

"My mother had taken us for a day's outing the woods some distance away from our home. This wooded section covered an area of many square miles. Towards the end of the afternoon we begged for a last game of 'hide and seek'. Mother agreed, warning us not to penetrate too far, for fear of losing our bearings. We left her at the north end near the road. In the excitement of the game my brother Jack and I forgot and wandered so far that we lost the trail. Jack at once began to look out for trees with moss growing on them. Presently he gave a shout of triumph. 'I've noticed,' he said, 'that moss always grows on the north side of a tree.'"

"With this in mind, we soon found the trail again. But I never could forget the experience, though it was much later that I realized how fortunate it was that Jack had observed this fact in his walks in the woods."

"It certainly was fortunate," agreed Joan. "There is a great difference between my two children," she added thoughtfully. "Rose is naturally observant and takes in all sorts of details at a glance. Claude, on the other hand apparently goes about with his eyes shut. He is more of a dreamer."

"Ah! you must help him make his dreaming productive and creative. His is a nature that can easily be trained to the observation of beauty. Draw his attention, for instance, to the fascination of birds on the wing, their different methods of flight and their grace of movement. Comment in his presence on sky effects, and don't fail to have him notice the beauties of a grey day; the glorious colors of a sunset and of the foliage in the fall season will be sure to delight him. He will gradually develop a general observation habit. In time it will become second nature to note details, even those that are of a more practical nature. That well-remembered experience of my childhood illustrates that one never knows of what importance a bit of knowledge gained from careful attention to details may prove. In any case the habit of observation will give a more desirable balance and train for better citizenship. Dreaming without observation will lead nowhere."

"How do you manage to give your children lessons in observation?" asked Joan.

"I do not consider it a matter of lessons," laughed Mrs. Miller. "We just notice things. I have always been attentive when one of them has shown me something new, puzzling, or interesting. We have examined it together, if not at the moment, later on."

"Before reading an illustrated story we always examine each picture in advance of the description of the incident portrayed. This not only helps to develop observation, but it makes the anticipation of the story a keener joy. It is astonishing how quick the children are to detect any discrepancy between the story and the picture, so that accuracy is another quality emphasized."

"When Amy began her piano studies we applied this habit of observation systematically and have kept it up. We note the title of a new piece, the key, the marks of expression, the time and the various changes. When she comes to play it she is generally accurate. Unconsciously she now applies this method to her other work."

"With all the children, I find that as their powers of observa-

Mr. Grace Expects Great Year With 1940 Chevrolet

Chas. Grace of the Barrow-Grace Chevrolet Co., local Chevrolet dealers in an interview today commented upon the history of the automobile industry of which Chevrolet is an important part. In fact, he stated that the automobile industry is still in its infancy. We look forward to the day when, responding to the demand of the people, Federal, State and County legislation will not only improve the present system of highways, but will continue to increase their number. We look forward to one-direction highways between the bigger and more important centers, and multi-lane-decked streets in the congested city districts. We look forward to architects' providing plans for apartment houses and public buildings containing three or more sub-cellars having ramps for ingress and egress, to afford adequate garage and parking facilities.

The importance of the automobile industry in American life and its tremendous growth are indicated by the following figures:

Material	Amt Used In Auto Ind.
Steel, gross tons	3,250,000
Iron, malleable, tons	174,000
Rubber, long tons	293,000
Plate glass, sq. ft.	34,802,500
Lumber, h'dw'd bd. ft.	308,990,000
Leather, uphol. sq. ft.	6,805,000
Aluminum, tons	10,000
Copper, tons	64,000
Tin, long tons	7,200
Lead, tons	156,000
Zinc, tons	25,000
Nickel, pounds	6,750,000
Cotton, bales	431,468
Mohair, pounds	3,500,000
Gasoline, gallons	13,621,727,000
Lubricating oil, gals.	412,500,000
Cloth, uphol. yds.	22,050,000
Paint & Lacquer, gals.	6,685,000
Hair & Padding, lbs.	25,257,000

The automobile industry is the largest user of several commodities: steel in all forms, malleable iron, gasoline, lubricating oil, rubber, plate glass, nickel, lead, mohair and upholstery leather.

The number of carloads of automobile freight shipped over railroads annually is well over two and a half million tons.

The foregoing figures show conclusively how important the automobile is to practically every community in America.

It is estimated that the manufacturers of one automobile provides seventy-two day's employment.

Mr. Grace looks forward to a great increase in his business with the announcement of the new 1940 Chevrolet, which will be displayed to the public for the first time on Saturday, October 14th.

5 TIMES AS MANY PERSONS KILLED IN TRAFFIC

Speaking of blackouts in London, it is interesting to note that more than five times as many persons have been killed there in traffic as a result of blackouts. London police recently disclosed that more than 38 persons were killed and 975 injured during the first 10 days of September as compared to 8 killed and 316 injured during the last 10 days of August.

Perhaps these statistics prove the claim of traffic engineers in America that a fundamental cause of night accidents in cities is that of inadequate street lighting.

The Junior Chambers of Commerce throughout the country are sponsoring a lighting campaign to reduce traffic toll. Not only does it help prevent accidents but proper lighting affords protection from burglars.

Help your authorities to institute proper lighting in your town the Texas Safety Association urges. The result will be a reduction of night accidents.

Does It Not Seem Unfair

By O. D. DIAL
Pastor Church of Christ
"The American people enjoy the greatest freedom, liberty, privileges and civilization of any people on earth. The greatest things in life are enjoyed without interference."

Many people of other lands would be glad to give every earthly possession for the freedom of democracy as enjoyed by Americans. All of these blessings and privileges are the results of the influences of Christianity. No one enjoying these great blessings would think of exchanging places with those of other lands. No one would prefer living under the influences of Communism, Nazism, or Fascism.

All of these treasured blessings enjoyed by Americans are directly the results of Christianity, for where Christianity does not prevail, these great privileges do not exist. Therefore, the gospel of Jesus Christ, with its influences lead to the greatest degree of happiness, freedom, liberty and life, known to man.

There are millions enjoying these blessings of Christianity, yet they do nothing to help encourage or promote it. They are not doing their part to help support the cause of Christ. They are riding free, while other carry the load. Does this not seem unfair?

What are you doing in your community to help the church of Christ uphold and advance the cause of Christ, with all of its attendant blessings? Have you obeyed the gospel of Christ (2 Thess. 1:7-9), that the Lord might add you to the church? (Acts 2:47). Is your moral influence helping thus to promote Christianity and its blessings on the earth? Does it not seem unfair for you to shelter under the influence and the protecting care of the church, enjoying its blessings, while you are failing to do your part to support and advance it? Does it not seem unfair for you to feast upon the great blessings which are the results of Christianity, while you are not helping to pay the bill, by being a christian?

If you are a member of the church, are you doing your part to help carry on the work of the church? Many, though they are now members of the church, fail to do their part. They fail in various ways. Some, by not attending the services of the church. If a member of the church wishes to do all he can do to help the church, he will attend every service of the church that is possible for him to attend. Many forsake the assembly on the Lord's day. (Acts 20:7). This is a very serious offense. Please read Heb. 10:25-31.

Other fail to do their part by failing to give of their earnings, into the service of the Lord. It requires money to carry on the work of the Lord. There are the hungry to be fed, orphans to be cared for, widows to be assisted, the gospel to be preached with all incidentals. Are you doing your part by purposing in your heart to give liberally, cheerfully, as the Lord has prospered you? (1 Cor. 16:2; 2 Cor. 9:7.)

You would not think of failing to meet your business obligations. Will you not then consider seriously your obligations to the church? Come to the church of Christ, and enjoy its fellowship. Be a faithful Christian and do your part.

BLACKOUTS ARE NOT UNKNOWN

Blackouts are not unknown to Americans, says the Texas Safety Association. Too many traffic victims undergo the terror on the streets and highways of this peacetime country.

Usually the results are more disastrous than the air raid precautions of London. The fleeting seconds just before the blackout of unconsciousness bring the full horror of a traffic accident to a victim. Doctors say the shock and horror of an accident often claims the life of an automobile casualty whose injuries otherwise might not prove fatal.

Help avoid the traffic "blackouts" of Texas streets and highways, the association urges. Do your part to win the war against traffic accidents.

Wesley Bible Class Installed Officers At Luncheon Thursday

The new executive officers of the Wesley Bible class entertained at the First Methodist church last Thursday with a one o'clock luncheon, which opened the social season for that organization.

The new officers were installed in a beautiful and impressive key ceremony by Mrs. B. M. Cropper who took the 'keys of office' from retiring officers and presented them to those being installed. The ceremony followed the luncheon and an address by Mrs. L. N. Peyton, outgoing president, who was presented with a lovely gift by members of the class.

New officers are Mrs. J. D. Majors, president; Mrs. D. C. Dodson, vice president; Mrs. Buster Dickson, secretary; Mrs. P. A. Johnston, treasurer; Mrs. R. L. Gragg, reporter; Mrs. H. W. Prinzing, teacher, and Mrs. F. L. Pilkenton, assistant teacher.

Mrs. Majors accepted the duties of her office in a short address which was very timely and effective. Members and their guests assembled in the classroom before the luncheon where they were favored with two vocal solos by Mrs. G. C. Pryor, "The Sunshine of Your Smile," and "Just Awearin' For You." Mrs. Wayne Goodlett, retiring secretary, presided at the register.

The hostesses then led the way to the basement of the church, where tables lovely with late roses and autumn leaves had been set for the luncheon.

Mrs. C. W. Thomas gave the invocation and Mrs. Peyton presided during a short business session before she retired in favor of the new president.

A picture guessing contest, in which those present tried to identify members of the class from childhood pictures, was staged for amusement. Mrs. J. R. Chatham guessed the largest number of the pictures and was presented with a prize.

Those present included Mesdames C. W. Thomas, Bertha Cropper, J. C. Arrington, C. E.

We do not half remember this in the sunshine of joy and prosperity. Sorrow is salutary. Through great tribulation we enter the kingdom." (page 66.)

Big Rabbit Creek

October 8, 1939.

I am sorry to have to make this statement but it's true. We Rabbit Creek folks has been mired up so deep in dry sand, (not mud) for so long I just don't believe we will ever be able to get out. If we do, we won't ever look like anything. At this writ-

Nearly $12,000,000 paid last year to Texas telephone people

Into pay envelopes for Texas telephone people last year went nearly 12 million dollars — wages to operators, to linemen and repairmen, to others in the far-flung brigade of Texas telephone people.

The largest item in the cost of furnishing telephone service in Texas is the wages paid to the 8,700 men and women who make Texas telephones talk. Of every dollar it cost last year to furnish telephone service in Texas, more than 40 cents went for wages.

Nearly 12 million dollars' worth of human energy and skill went into your telephone service in Texas last year . . . to the people who furnish you fast, accurate, and dependable telephone service . . . yet the cost of a telephone in your home is only a few pennies a day.

ing the wind and sand is blowing so hard here in the valley that you can hardly see out. Believe me, it sure is some dry times.

Last Thursday night at 11:35 p. m. it rained for 10 minutes real hard but it stopped about as quick as it started. By 8:30 a. m. Friday morning you couldn't of told it had ever rained a drop.

About all the grain raisers has their land in fine shape to sow their grain and to receive a good rain on it after it's in the ground.

Mr. Tom Lee, who owns a fine Rabbit Creek farm, and Mr. J. E. Wood, who is farming Brother Tom's farm, have started out in the hog business as they have something over 93 head of fine hogs, weighing from 50 to 175 pounds. They have an ideal hog pasture to keep them. Brother J. E. advised Hawkeye that he thought they would be ready to put them on the market around the middle of December.

Last Thursday morning about 10:35 a. m. who drove up to the Owens family home but Mr. and Mrs. John Ashton in their nice big auto going to Walters, Okla. (our county seat). They stopped to pick up Hawkeye as he wanted to go to the county seat. In a few minutes drive Hawkeye was in the city. After Brother John and Mrs. Ashton transacted their business in Walters, they motored down to Temple, Okla., to attend the afternoon auction sale which was attended by a large crowd. Hawkeye sure did appreciate the trip and enjoyed the trip fine and thanks both the Ashtons.

Several bales of cotton were pulled out this past week here in the Rabbit Creek neighborhood and were hauled up to Randlett and over to Our Friendly Little City and ginned. About 50-50 to each place. The largest majority of the cotton wasn't sold, being held for higher prices.

Dewey Austin has hired some wood choppers to cut wood by the rick this fall and winter. They have erected a large tent which they will live in. The price paid per rick for cuttings is 65c.

Tom Kinniard, who lives up near Grandfield, Okla., who is a brother of Theo, Jess and Henry, is helping his brother Henry bale some cane hay.

Everyone and their aunts, cousins, nephews, who live in the Big Rabbit Creek neighborhood, were shopping in Our Friendly Little City and attending the big trades day event Saturday.

There were over 4,000 people in Our Friendly Little City Saturday by 2:45 p. m. It was just impossible to walk along the sidewalk for the great crowd of people. A great many people got right out in the middle of the street when walking from one block to the other. All grocery stores were jammed as well as all of the large dry goods and department stores. The dry weather and no rain haven't any effect on business in Our Friendly Little City. The money is spent just the same.

Well, listen folks, Hawkeye and his helpmate for over 32 years and Miss Winnie June Martin had a thrill of their lifetime Saturday in honor of riding to Our Friendly Little City in one of those large and roomy and beautiful Plymouth 1940 autos that is sold by that old reliable sales company, Burkburnett Motors, who has the new and used car sales room of the Plymouth and Dodge company, those reliable and truthful salesmen, have started at the bottom rung of the ladder in Our Friendly Little City years ago and by honest and truthful dealing with their thousands of customers, they have climbed to the utmost rung of the ladder by handling the Plymouth and Dodge cars, also by having the very best expert mechanics to overhaul all used cars to sell or trade back to the public. The new 1940 Plymouth and Dodge which they have on display and for sale in their magnificent sales rooms are wonderful cars. They are so roomy that 4 or 5 persons, if necessary, can ride in those large seats. The wheel base is so much larger than it has ever been before, in fact, those beautiful cars are so much larger inside and they ride so easy. Hawkeye knows those facts are true as his old staunch friend, Wiley Browning, one of the members of the firm, motored down to the Owens family residence Saturday morning and took Hawkeye, his better half, and little Winnie June to Our Friendly Little City to attend the big trades day event. Brother Wiley brought us back in one of those beautiful 1940 Dodge autos. Believe me, Brother Wiley knows his onions when it comes to driving a car. Just after leaving home, one of our neighbors was hitch-hiking it over to Our City, so to show Hawkeye just what that 1940 model Plymouth could do in stopping quick if necessary. Brother Wiley stepped on her just a little up to 55 miles per hour; just before passing our neighbor; in 65 feet after passing him he was stopped dead still and took in his passenger and brought him safely into the City. I don't believe there is any other car on the market today that can perform such duties as the Plymouth and Dodge cars can do. Those cars can be bought at any time from the Burkburnett Motors on those awful easy terms; just the best thing of all, you will be buying those cars from your home boys who helped to make Our Friendly Little City what it is today, so if you are in need of a real up-to-date, latest model, buy a Plymouth or a Dodge at the Burkburnett Motors.

Keble Johnny Jones, one of the Owens family's old friends and neighbors motored down to their home Sunday afternoon and spent an hour or so visiting with the family.

Mrs. Ed Owens called on Mr. and Mrs. Jess Kinniard and family awhile Sunday evening.

A Mr. Pruitt, old friends of Mr. Keble Johnny Jones and family, is visiting them. Mr. Pruitt is from Eastern Oklahoma. He says down in his country it's just so dry and dusty that he had to come up in this part of God's country to get some of those winds we are having in order to breathe.

—Hawkeye.

Last Tuesday morning at 2:15 one of those little northers came down from the far north and believe me, it started everyone hunting around for their last winter's coat as the crops as general is so poor this year that the old farmer isn't able to buy a new winter coat and this October is cold enough for a coat.

The Owens family received a letter this week-end from their old friend T. W. Hardin (alias Tobe) also Mrs. Martha Nails and her son, Charlie; at the time of the writing they were at Knox City, Texas, but were leaving out next day for Messilla Park, New Mexico. They are making good pulling cotton this fall.

Quite a lot of cotton has been pulled out all over this neck of the woods this past week. The cotton fields look very black now. All the fields will have to be pulled over again for the last time in about 10 days or two weeks.

As everyone knows, at least we know it, it's dry and no indications in the least of any rain. All over east of Temple, Waurika, and as far as Loco, Oklahoma, it's as dry as a board and all of the creeks are dried up. Beaver Creek is as dry as it can be, so Hawkeye has been informed by a friend, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Stiggins, who live over in Mc-

Alister, Okla., who motored over to Our Friendly Little City Saturday to attend the big trades day event.

There were more than 4,000 people in Our Friendly Little City Saturday afternoon. They came from far and near to attend the big trades day event and to do their shopping in the cheapest little city in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Kinniard and children motored up to our county seat, Walters, to meet their son, Arland, who will arrive home from the C.C. camp out in Colorado. He stayed his full time out—six months.

O. H. Darter, who owns his Big Rabbit Creek farm drove down Saturday forenoon after a truck load of corn and baled cane hay to feed his hogs and cattle.

Amongst the nicest birthday dinners that's been celebrated this year was celebrated in Randlett at high noon in honor of a Mr. J. W. Fowler and his son-in-law, a Mr. J. E. Wood. Mr. Fowler has lived to see his 70th milestone pass by and is still in good health. Mr. Wood has passed his 39th birthday and has lived in the Big Rabbit Creek neighborhood three years, as well as Grandpa Fowler. J. E. is farming the Tom Lee farm and has been very successful. J. W. and his good old helpmate, J. E., and his wife, 3 sons, 2 daughters, and over fifty of their old friends in Randlett and its surrounding neighborhood partook of this grand dinner. Just everything that you would wish to eat was on the large long table, which was beautifully decorated. A large, beautiful cake was placed in the center of the table with 70 lighted candles to denote the 70 years that have passed by. Near the end of this food laden table was placed in front of J. E. a cake decorated with 39 candles. The large crowd of friends stayed to a late hour Sunday evening; as each one departed for their homes they wishing J. W. and J. E. many more birthday dinners.

A fine sermon was delivered at the Big Rabbit Creek school house Sunday morning at 11 a. m., also at 7:45 p. m., Hawkeye is unable to state the minister's name but he came from Eastern Oklahoma and he was an able speaker of Our Good Book.

Hawkeye and his better half and Miss Winnie June Martin accompanied Mrs. Jess Kinniard and children over to Our Friendly Little City Saturday to purchase groceries and to attend the big trades day event.

Hawkeye has been advised that Mrs. Fred LeBarre will depart from her home October 2 for Kansas City, Mo., to visit a month or so with her married daughter.

Well, folks you know that all our young generation marriages is a funny thing. They want to get off over in their sister state to get spliced together and not let anyone know it, not even Hawkeye. Listen, boys and girls; it's a hard job to keep such from the all seeing eye as this Sunday a week ago two of Our Friendly Little City's young people, J. C. Peyton and Miss Virginia Coats, both high up in society in Our Friendly Little City, where they were reared and educated and have been talking it over for two years to jump the broomstick together, so finally each one agreed and each parent okayed the agreement, so they crossed over the big pond into Oklahoma and went to Walters, our county seat, and after Sunday services were over, the good minister tied the knot good and tight Sunday, September 24 at 12:42 p. m. The funny part of it, Hawkeye just happened to be on the scene but standing on the outside, so after the congregation began to leave J. C. says to Virginia "Come on, now, hurry up and let's get it over quick," as poor J. C. was getting very weak in his knee joints, so Hawkeye give the big crowd the wink and what do you think? Everyone followed poor J. C. and his bride to be right back into the church house and witnessed the whole ceremony. Now, listen folks, Mrs. Peyton didn't show a bit of weakness, she was just perfect, but J. C. got something that looked to Hawkeye like what everybody calls the buck ague. Of course Hawkeye could be seeing crooked, but he met his good friend in the big Boy's store where he has been working for a long time and it looked to Hawkeye like he hadn't yet got over his awful scare and weakness in his legs. You know, J. C., your old friend Hawkeye went through the same thing once and he knows just how you feel, so all I can say to you in your married life is this: that you have a real lady for your lifetime helpmate. And just turn it around Mrs. Peyton, your selection for a lifetime husband was good, as J. C. is as fine a young gentleman as Our Friendly Little City has in it. Just one word more to you both: Don't get mad at the same time. Hoping that you will both live a long and happy and prosperous life together.

Hawkeye.

sympathy. The geography class of L 4-2 have learned that date palm trees are the only trees found in Egypt because of lack of sufficient rainfall. Some very interesting date palm trees were drawn free hand in art class from the study of geography. Wanda Lou Story and Donald Starnes are the best citizens for this week. Joy Simpson and Johnnie Ponder were elected fire marshalls for our room.

Our room has joined the American Red Cross. Several boys and girls in our room went to the Burk Burnett - Crowell football game last Friday night. They were: O. D. Dial, Lonnie Jo Arthur, Ted Harris, and Horace Mills. Arthur Thorpe spent the week-end in Ft. Worth.

Fifth Grades—
Group I won a relay tournament in the final play today from Group III. Group I captained by Bertie Lou Baumhardt. Group III is captained by Romona Milford.

We are glad to have Dorothy Elen Boyd with us. Even though she has suffered an accident, she is continuing her school work with admirable zeal.

A number of pupils from the 5th, 6th and 7th grades will attend the Marine Band concert Thursday afternoon at 3:30. Miss Allen will sponsor the trip. Special credit in music will be given each pupil who attends. The following pupils in L 5-1 have been on the G. row in spelling for two weeks: Dorothy Boyd, Margaret Chambers, Bobbie Jean Dial, Joe Glen Gibson, Patricia Howard, Mary Frances Hrazdill, Kay Kincaid, Billie Jean Miller, Jerry Jack Miller, Betty Lee Steinert, Billie Wimberly. The following pupils from L 5-2 have been on G. row for two weeks: Joann Broom and Wanda Kinder.

Sixth Grades—
The pupils in L 6-2 met in the auditorium Friday morning for the third English club. Those who took part on the program are: Dorothy Fox, Edward Story, Opal Lee Taylor, Phyllis Marie Hickman, Louise Banning, Wayne Lax, Jimmy Hill, Hal Dean Mabry, Adrian Shoestall, Jackie Henry and Roy Grazer.

We are sorry to report the absence of Helen Lasserter, Jarvis Jean Foster and George Smith, because of illness.

Our new band class composed principally of grade school pupils is getting along fine. The class is using the Victor Method of band instruction builder. The class has learned to play five melodies and is less than two weeks old. This is a fine opportunity for your child to learn music. Let's get them an instrument and put them in the band.

Seventh Grades—
Eleven students from the L 7-1 attended the football game at Crowell last Friday night. We want more games like the one we saw. Lorene Gwinn spent the week-end at Saint Jo. Gordon Clement spent the week-end at Rome.

All the pupils in the L 7-1 had perfect papers in spelling last Wednesday. This section will have a picnic Oct. 12 at the old Roller Ranch.

The seventh grade geography classes have made some interesting posters and charts this week showing how much of the world's goods the U.S.A. has in comparison with the remainder of the world. The great amount found in the U. S. is rather astounding to most of the pupils. We appreciate the table very much that was moved into our room. Our room has joined the Junior Red Cross.

Health Program For Public Schools Is Advocated

The State could appropriate and spend one million dollars annually on a health program without cost to the State, declares the Texas State Department of Health. This can be demonstrated in connection with our schools alone, without regard to the saving effected in the general economic life of the State.

If the Department of Health had such a sum for the maintenance of a comprehensive health program in all public schools, more than that amount could be shifted back to the general fund by the schools, through savings to their fund effected by the elimination of repeaters and other costs incident to health conditions.

At least 25 per cent of the pupils in our public schools do not make a grade per year and have to be taught a second year in the same grade. With a total enrollment in the elementary schools of 1,071,000 pupils there are approximately 289,232 repeaters. The cost of instruction for this group is thereby doubled.

It costs $45.00 per year to educate a child. If this sum is multiplied by the repeaters the loss is $13,000,000. Not all of this could be chargeable to health conditions, but at least two-thirds, or $9,750,000 could be so charged. By spending one million dollars per year, in promoting an adequate health program, enough of the money now wasted on repeaters in the elementary grades would be saved in three years to retire the present deficit in the general fund.

Punctures are automatically sealed without reducing speed by means of a new inner tube, Science Service reports.

Finger-Tip Gearshift On Steering Column Of 1940 Ford Cars

Enriched by refinements made possible by the manufacture under a single unified management of five cars which virtually bracket the motor car market, the Ford V-8 and the deluxe Ford V-8 for 1940, announced today, present notable advances in styling, comfort, convenience and safety.

The new cars are big, substantial and powerful in appearance. Body lines are pleasingly streamlined. Front end designs are distinctively modern, with low radiator grilles, long hoods and deeply rounded fenders. The trimly tailored interiors are big and roomy, with plenty of seat room, leg room, elbow room and shoulder room.

Two V-8 engines are available on 85 horse-power engine in the Ford V-8 and the deluxe Ford V-8, with a 60 horse-power engine optional in the Ford V-8.

Four Ford V-8 and five deluxe body types comprise the two lines. A new business coupe as well as a Fordor sedan, Tudor sedan and coupe are available in both. There is also the deluxe convertible coupe with automatic top as standard equipment. Three color choices are available in the Ford V-8, six in the deluxe line.

An important new feature of the cars is a finger-tip gearshift mounted on the steering column under the two-spoke steering wheel. This provides increased room for driver and passengers in the front compartment. There is also a new controlled ventilation system. New Sealed-Beam headlights are used on all types, providing greatly increased driving vision at night.

On the 85 horsepower cars, an improved spring suspension with a longer, more flexible front spring, and a torsion bar ride-stabilizer also contributes an exceptionally comfortable steady ride. The ride-stabilizer also contributes to firmer, easier steering. Front and rear springs of deluxe cars are equipped with metal covers. Large double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers with self-sealing construction are fitted on all cars.

Comfort features are emphasized throughout the design. Seats are built for restful riding. Front seat backs are of new resilient type. Cushions have a new "floating" edge. Driver's seats are adjustable two ways—they rise as they are moved forward. Bodies are scientifically soundproofed, shutting out road noises. An "easy-shift" transmission, permitting speeds to be changed quietly; new design curved disc wheels and improved drums for the highly effective, quick-stopping hydraulic brakes also contribute to quietness.

The interior of the cars appear in new decorative schemes. A pleasing color treatment in maroon and sand ducotone distinguishes the interiors of the Ford V-8. In deluxe cars, window and door frames are finished in dark mahogany, hardware in rich maroon, knobs and escutcheon plates in sand, with striped mohair or broadcloth upholstery also in sand. In the Ford V-8, door and window moldings are in bleached walnut finish, handles are chrome-plated, with knobs and escutcheons in sand colored plastic. Upholstery is in taupe.

Instrument panels harmonize with the interior styling. Gages are grouped in front of the distinctive steering wheel. A grille for installation of radio speaker, glove compartment with lock, two ash trays and a cigar lighter are provided on the pane.

Other equipment supplied without extra cost on both the Ford V-8 and the deluxe Ford V-8 includes: Front and rear bumpers and four bumper guards; spare wheel, tire and tube; twin electric horns; dual windshield wipers with single control; battery condition indicator; foot control for headlight beams, with indicator panel, and dimming control for instrument panel lights.

Ford V-8 cars also have a sunvisor, two ash trays and arm rests in the rear compartment of the sedans. A foot rest is supplied in the rear compartment of the Fordor sedan.

Additional equipment supplied on deluxe cars without extra cost include wheel bands, metal spring covers, two swivel-type sun visors, two tail lamps, ash traps in instrument panels and the rear compartment of sedans; arm rests at the driver's life and in the rear compartment of sedans, and

Seniors Sponsored Box Supper

By John H. Rigby
Last Tuesday night the Seniors of Burkburnett High school sponsored a box supper in the high school gymnasium and the whole school was invited. Coach Volney a robe cord in the deluxe Fordor sedans.

Hill acted as auctioneer and, incidentally he did a very good job of boosting the sales.

The program began with a number of songs by Peggy Kemp, Derestine Moore, and Delpha Finch. Next was the auctioneering, which was very amusing, and the evening was climaxed with the eating of refreshments from the boxes.

HOMEMAKING NOTES

By Lee Dirickson

The 2-B Homemaking class accompanied by their instructor, Mrs. Ernest Dillon, investigated the Perkins-Timberlake store in Wichita Falls Tuesday. The trip was very educational and interesting.

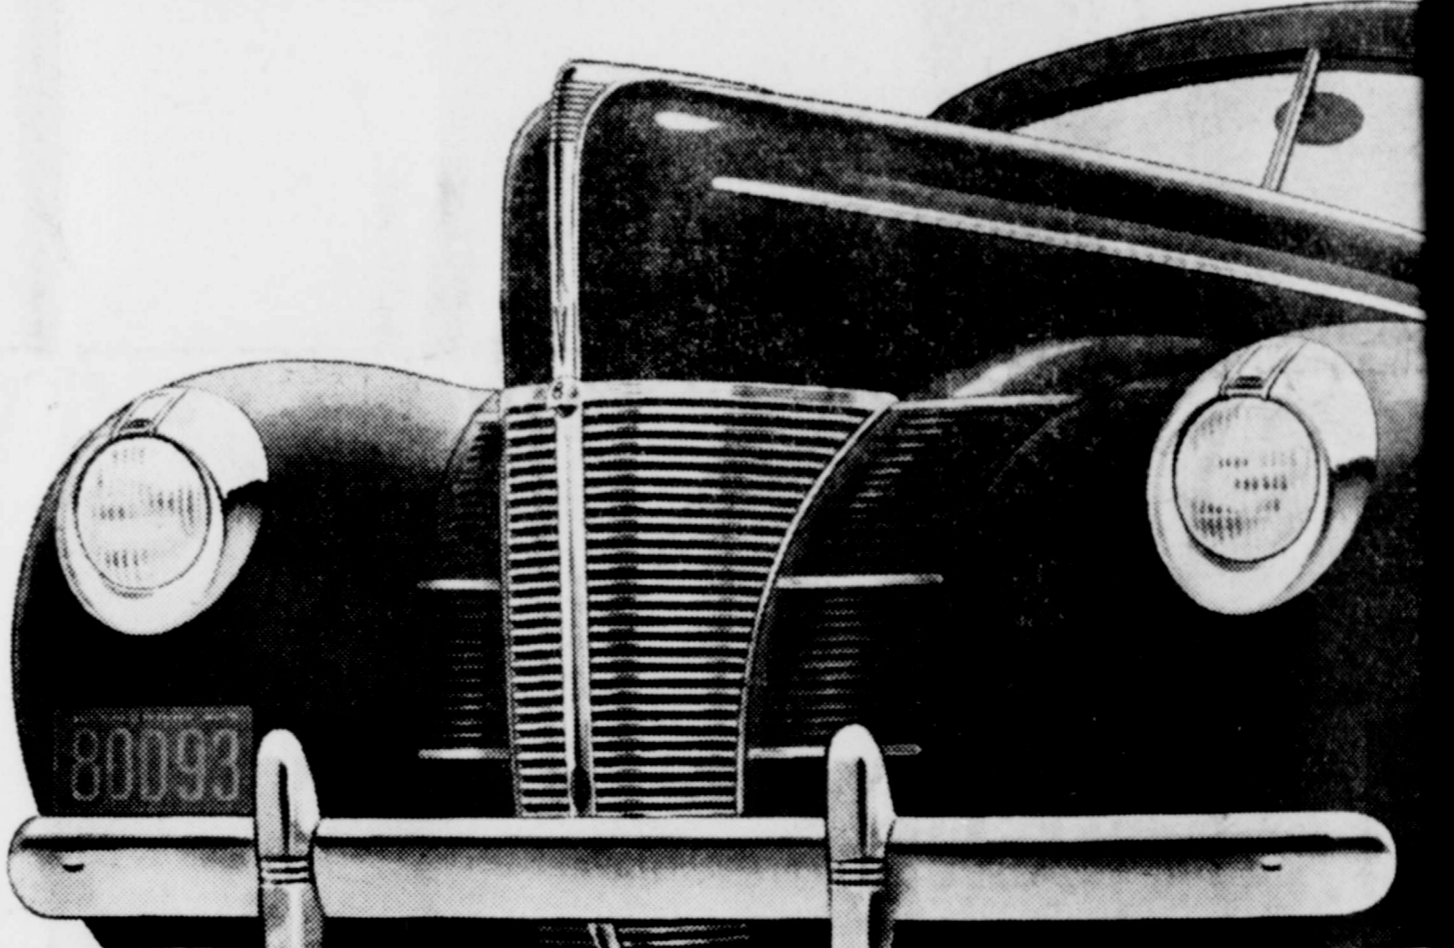

They went through the storage rooms, offices, air-conditioning system, china department, ready-to-wear, dry goods and hat shop. They observed a demonstration on the making of covered buttons which was very interesting.

The girls and Mrs. Dillon wish to take this opportunity to thank the Clara school board and Mr. Raymond Beavers, driver of the bus, for the use of the Clara school bus in which to make the trip.
