Registration of Draft Age Men At Local Hi School Wednesday

The registration of every male citizen of the United States and every male alien residing in the United States between the ages of 21 and 35, both inclusive, for the voting precincts 27, 28 and 29, which comprise the voting precincts in and around Burkburnett, Texas, will be held at the Burkburnett high school. Separate rooms shall be provided with the necessary equipment and registrars for each precinct at the high school Wednesday, October 16th, 1940. The registration places will be open from 7 o'clock A. M., to 9 o'clock, P. M., on that day, after 9 o'clock, but those who are at the regular places before nine o'clock will be registered that day.

The registration is being combined and held at the high school because of the convenience and facilities of the school and the school faculty who have volunteered their services to complete this immense task. The rules and regulations require that these registrations be conducted in such a manner as to be more or less private, therefore, it has been decided that the high school will be more suitable for all purposes. Mr. C. J. Duncan has been named chief registrar, and he in turn will swear in all assistant registrars and volunteers who will be needed for completing this task.

Every person required to register and residing in any of the precincts mentioned above are urged to come as early as possible and arrangements have been made to cause as little delay as is possible for the registrants. Persons living elsewhere, but who happen to be in Burkburnett on that day may present themselves for registration giving their home addresses and the same information that they would give if at their home and their cards will be forwarded to their home registration board by one of the boards of this county.

Julian McFall, county clerk, expressed his appreciation for the sincere cooperation and spirit of patriotism shown by the school board and citizens of Burkburnett in accomplishing this tremendous task.

Bulldogs Renew Feud With Indians

A hard blocking fighting Burkburnett team will be pitted against a more experienced aggregation here Friday night when the Burkburnett and the Quannah Indians meet in a 2-AA conference game.

Starting the season with a sparkling record in spite of the lack of game experience, the Bulldogs have improved rapidly until dopsters take them into account in figuring the conference race. High spirited over the first Bulldog victory at the expense of the traditional enemy, the Electra Tigers, the Bulldogs settled down Tuesday to scrimmage.

No Favorite
The records of the two teams so far this season fail to establish a favorite. The Indians with lots of lettermen back and plenty of experience should normally get the nod. However, comparative scores show the two teams about even.

Burkburnett and Quannah have played four non-conference games since 1924. The Bulldogs have won each of them, most of the time by one point margins. Friday night's

Stanolind Protests Devol Appropriation

Officials of Cotton county, Okla., have been informed that the Stanolind Pipeline Company has filed a protest with the state court of tax review against the appropriation for Devol school district.

The general fund appropriation of Independent School District 2, Devol, was attached and it was charged that the $16,557.62 appropriation from the general fund of the board of education was illegal to the extent of $2,596.62.

It was shown in the petition that $9,390.82 was authorized to be expended from the estimate as probable income from state aid, when not more than $6,792.20 may be lawfully estimated in this instance.

County officials expect to fight the protest made by the Stanolind Pipeline company, but may effect a compromise on the debatable matters.

New Police Chief Named Last Friday

Burkburnett had an entirely new police department Friday after the city council announced the resignation of Bill Stapp, police chief since 1935, had been accepted in a special call meeting Thursday night.

Mayor Frank Kelley announced the changes, which were effective Friday morning.

W. M. Green, wholesale gasoline agent and resident of Burkburnett for 16 years, was appointed by the city aldermen as the new police chief, Kelley said.

Jim Turner Resigns
The resignation of Jim Turner, night policeman for about 20 years in Burkburnett, was also accepted by the Burkburnett ruling board. In Turner's place Claude Bowman, employe of the city for many years, was appointed.

Stapp came to Burkburnett in 1935 after Bill Garland had been killed in the flood which took four other lives in this city. Stapp was a former Cotton county, Oklahoma peace officer.

Green, the new chief, was formerly a member of the Dallas, Texas police department, and worked on the Burkburnett department during a short period in 1924. He is a native of Georgia.

Mayor Kelley refused to make any statement beyond the fact that the council in executive session had made the changes.

Petition Circulated

The action of the council was taken while a petition was being circulated by a local committee asking the city to change the city laws to make the police chief's office elective. The petition had more than 260 signers when the action was taken by the aldermen. The required number to force action on the part of the council is 110 qualified voters.

The committee circulating the petition includes R. H. Henry, R. L. Gragg, E. F. Gilbow, and Elmer Russell.

If this petition is presented, it is possible it will be considered by the regular session of the city council Oct. 21. The law requires the city manager to have five days to ascertain whether or not the signers are qualified voters.

Similar action was demanded by a petition several months ago, but it was turned down when the city manager found an insufficient number of qualified voters on the petition.

Seen At State Fair

The state and county fairs are a firmly entrenched tradition in this country. They provide education no less than entertainment and a good time for the whole family. On the serious side, they show what agriculture has accomplished.

Expert visitors to recent fairs have been impressed by the stress laid on quality. Better fruits, better vegetables, better dairy products—all along the line, the products of the farm are constantly attaining higher standards. And a large measure of the credit for that achievement must go to the agricultural marketing cooperatives.

These co-ops have long laid special stress on better producing methods—methods which not only produce more, but which produce a finer quality crop. They have done fine work in soil utilization and kindred lines. And the result is better food for the consumer, along with a higher return for the producer.

Did Wilkie's Speech Have Any Effect On Embargo Against Japan?

The new Japanese-Italian-German axis agreement did not come as a complete surprise to experts in this country. And, by the same token, the President's embargo against shipments of scrap to Nippon was hardly unexpected. The vast weight of American public opinion is known to favor a strongly pro-Chinese and anti-Japanese policy. The embargo would probably have been effected some time ago, but a few dissenters in the state department delayed matters. It may be that the San Francisco speech of Wendell Wilkie, in which he pledged himself to help China and to oppose Japan's empire building ambitions, was also a factor.

It was apparently a coincidence that these two events should have taken place within the same week. In one way it is a good thing they did—coming together, they served to clear the air and put Japanese-American relations on a more realistic basis. There is no more pretense here of regarding Japan as a friendly power. Instead, we regard her as a potential enemy of American interests. And now the question is, what are likely to be results of the scrap embargo and the axis military pact?

The embargo is without doubt a hard blow to Japan's militarists. We have provided her in the past with some 90 per cent of the metals she must have to keep her vast military establishment going and growing. She has no other possible source of an adequate supply now—her totalitarian friends, Germany and Italy, haven't enough for their own needs, to say nothing of exports. It is the American hope that, totally lacking as she will be from now on in essential scrap, her military activity will gradually bog down. And there are other steps we can take if this one does not prove sufficiently effective. We could, for instance, refuse to admit Japanese silk into this country, and by that single act deprive Nippon of her biggest and most profitable foreign market.

The new axis agreement does not mention the United States by name. But it is obviously aimed at us—as fascist spokesmen have exultantly observed. The meaning of the agreement is crystal clear. It we should join England in war against Germany and Italy, Japan is pledged to immediately attack us, thus making it necessary for us to keep our fleet in the Pacific and away from European waters. And on the other side, if we should go to war with Japan, the other axis partners are bound to help the Land of the Rising Sun with "all political, economic and military powers" at their command.

These are strong words, but some feel that there is considerable bluff behind them. At the present time we are helping England with everything we have. We could hardly do more if we were actually at war. But Japanese newspapers, which are government controlled and inspired, have said that she does not regard such American aid to Britain as the destroyer of trade, as a belligerent act. In other words, Japan, despite the obvious anger of her military men, certainly hasn't shown an eagerness to fight. And if she did go to war with us it would obviously be impossible for her to get significant aid from her allies so long as England is fighting on—and the military experts here are coming to the conclusion that England's position is getting stronger daily.

Unanswered question so far is what effects this new pact will have on Russian policy, and that may turn out to be the most important question involved. Unofficial Soviet spokesmen were shocked. For the differences between Russia and Japan are completely irreconcilable so far as anyone can see now, and Russia has favored China in the Far Eastern war. Some experts are hazarding the guess that this pact may negate the German-Soviet pact of last year. It that should happen, Germany would have lost far more than she has gained. She would be confronted with the possibility of another enemy—and an enemy which is potentially extremely strong, even though it is badly disorganized.

If the axis friends thought the new agreement would throw a scare into this country, resulting in our reverting to a more neutral attitude, they were greatly mistaken. Washington's response was that, if anything, the agreement

As revealed by the files of The Star 10 years ago.

G. C. McGown, county agricultural agent, has announced that Wichita county farmers and grain and feed dealers are entitled to 33 1-3 per cent reduction on all shipments of hay and grains into Texas since Wichita county has been included in the drought area.

A six-inch rain fell here between Saturday and Tuesday and broke the drought which has lasted throughout the summer.

The Chamber of Commerce this week received a report from C. C. Kirby, district manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company, to the effect that a new plant is contemplated for this community and several other changes to be made.

1467 bales of cotton had been ginned here during the week of October 7th.

Thursday night members of Mrs. Judd Exley's Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church called on her as a surprise for her birthday. The members presented Mrs. Exley with an electric percolator.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

In this national election year when the "free and unfettered Democrats" will drink deep at the springs of glorious tradition, it seems appropriate that tribute be paid to the "forgotten man" of the party's history—William Jennings Bryan.

No man ever held the leadership of a major party longer than the brilliant Bryan, silver-tongued orator of the Middle-west, and in the quarter of a century that the spotlight beat upon him, not one whisper was ever heard against his character. The pendulum which swings far to one side has a way of swinging back in the other direction and so the name of Bryan ere long will be accorded recognition along with the names of Jackson, Jefferson and Wilson.

Though famed for his eloquence Bryan had a genial humor and could clinch an argument with a story. Each of the selfish interests, when it came time to draw up a protective tariff, reminded Bryan of the dealer in second-hand clothes who had helped a prospective customer try on a coat and vest and when the merchant turned around with the trousers, the fellow was running down the street. "Stop thief!" the dealer yelled and a policeman started pulling a pistol. The store keeper shouted, "Shoot him in the pants; the coat and vest are mine."

Bryan said a republican leader reminded him of the business man who called in his creditors, told them he was broke and had nothing to pay them with but when he died, they could have his body. One little man spoke up, "I'd like to have dot fellow's gail."

Dissatisfied with the direction that the party was going but, remembering that he had been three would result in giving even more aid to Britain. And that policy will go on no matter who wins in November—both Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Wilkie are strongly pro-English and anti-fascist. So one result of the pact may be to benefit England in her war with two of the pact's three signatories.

Next thing to watch for now is what Spain does. The axis is using every pressure to enlist her as their ally, but Franco, with a war-weary nation on his hands, is still dodging.

times the presidential nominee, Bryan said he was like a fellow who was in a theater on a play's first night. Everybody was hooting and booing except this one man and so the chap sitting next to him asked, "You didn't write this thing, did you?" and he said "No." The next question was, "Is the leading lady your sister?" and again the answer was "No." The other persisted, "Surely you don't think the play is good?" and once more he replied, "No." So the questioner asked, "Why aren't you hooting, then?" And the fellow explained, "I came in on a pass but if it gets any worse, I'll go out, buy a ticket, then come back in and boo louder than anybody else."

Referring to the fact that he had three times been beaten for the presidency, Bryan told of an intoxicated man who was thrown out of a club three times and, picking himself up, said: "I know what's the matter with those people; they don't want me in there."

It was the privilege of this columnist to hear Bryan make two speeches. The first one was in Red Elm baseball park, in Memphis, Tenn., right out in the open air (long before the days of loud speakers.) It was a "fighting democrat" speech and helped wrest the governorship from the republicans.

Incidentally, Governor Hays of Arkansas preceded Bryan with an address that closed with these blazing words: "Fellow citizens, I am told that here in Tennessee some of the Democrats have actually helped to elect a republican governor, claiming that he is a good man. I would as soon go down into the murky depths of hell in quest of angels or up to the golden, gleaming gates of heaven in search of devils as into the republican party looking for honest men"—and the crowd yelled, "Hooray for Hays! Hays for president!"

Because a conference in Memphis in '96 launched the free silver battle, Bryan opened his speech with the words of Bob Ingersoll, "The past rises before me like a dream." The chill night air caused him to put a skull cap on his bald head, with the remark, "They used to call me the boy orator of the Platte." Speaking of paper money, he said humorously, "They used to say, if you'd put one of Bryan's silver dollars into a furnace, you'd have only 50 cents left but if you'd put one of their dollars into a furnace you wouldn't have anything left." His was a rolling, sonorous majestic voice and once, when it sank to a whisper, it was like a whip-crack that reached every ear of the enraptured 10,000 listeners.

In my possession is a letter which he wrote me—not typewritten but entirely in pen and ink. It was a boyhood thrill when I pulled that letter, with "W. J. Bryan" in bold strokes in the upper corner, out of the postoffice box.

There is the memory, too, of meeting him after hearing a second speech, a lecture on a Sunday afternoon. The hall was packed and this tall, gangling reporter stood at the back with scarcely a cub room to make notes on the address. Afterward, I heard an old lady say, "So this is William Jennings Bryan! I'll go back home and tell my grandchildren that I shook hands with the Great Commoner" and at these words of praise from that good old mother, Bryan blushed all bald head.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD
 USING THE SELF-TIMER

A self-timer enables you to get shots of yourself—such as this breakfast-table study—without having someone else snap the shutter. Such a device is a great convenience in the camera kit.

HAVE you ever tried taking informal self-portraits—or perhaps a story-telling sequence of shots of yourself, busy at some hobby or everyday activity about the house? It's an entertaining camera pastime—and with the aid of a self-timer, you can shoot such pictures easily.

The self-timer is a small "delayed-action" device which clips on the cable release of a camera, and trips the shutter after a brief time interval. Some fine cameras even have a self-timer built into the shutter. You simply place the camera on a firm support, press the release catch of the self-timer—then step into the picture, and pose as you wish, until the shutter clicks.

With a couple of photo bulbs, a self-timer attached to the cable release of your camera, and a short
 "scenario" of a half-dozen or so pictures to act out, you can have no end of fun all by yourself. For example—taking the picture above as a cue—you might show yourself at a hurried breakfast, putting salt in the coffee by mistake, burning the toast, spilling milk on the newspaper, and then discovering it's Sunday and you don't have to work
 after all.

Or, if you're interested in character studies and make-up, self-port-traits with a self-timer may be even more fun. Set up the camera just below a mirror, in which you can check your expressions. Put on the make-up—work out the most suitable lighting—then release the selftimer and it does the rest while you pose.

The great advantage of using a self-timer, in photography such as this, is that you can take as much time as you wish on details—and not keep someone else standing by just to trip the shutter for you.
 If you make a hobby of building ship models, or airplane models, or similar construction work, the selftimer is also useful. With it, you can get snaps of yourself at various stages of a job, and these will provide a welcome addition to your hobby record. In family pictures, the self-timer is likewise a great help. You need no longer be "just the photographer." With the aid of this little gadget, you can appear in any picture you take.

The self-timer, of course, can only be used on a camera that has a fitting for a cable release. If your camera is so fitted, you should by all means have one of these devices
 —and you'll find it one of the most generally useful items in your kit.

8,000 Texans
 Included In
 The First Draft

Registration boards over Texas
 are preparing to take the names of 980,000 young men within the age limit for selective service
 army training, according to J.
 Watt Page, Adjutant General and head of the selective service setup for Texas.

Out of this number, he estimated last week that approximately 8,000 would be among the number drawn the first time
 —one in each 123. The ratio will be, however, sharply reduced when those who are exempt from conscription are eliminated by the Selective Service Boards which will start functioning on Oct. 17,
 the day after registration.

Page said the number to be called from Texas had been reduced because of the large number of volunteers from this state.

Reporting White-
 wing Bands

With more than fifty bands already returned, it appears as if the whitewing dove banding project
 undertaken by the Texas
 Game, Fish and Oyster commission and the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service in the Rio Grande Valley last spring will be eminently successful in providing the means of learning considerable concerning that species of bird.

Sportsmen killing whitewing
 doves with bands on their legs are asked to return them to the game department office in Austin or to the game manager at Victoria.

Whitewing doves nest only in the Valley and in scant numbers
 in Southwest Texas counties.

J. L. Arnold, spent the week-end at home with her parents, who live east of Devol.

Their natural range is being depleted as more and more land is cleared for citrus groves and vegetable farms.

Game department biologists hope to learn much of the habits of whitewing doves before making definite recommendations concerning ways to aid in increasing the whitewings. It is hoped to ascertain how long the birds live, how many times they will nest in a year, whether they travel north after leaving the nest or how soon some of them go to Mexico ahead of the regular migration, which usually comes with cold weather, and how far they move from their nesting areas to their feeding grounds.

Sportsmen in the Valley and hunters going into the Valley for whitewing shooting have been co-operating with the game department to the fullest extent.

Do Ducks Drown Themselves?

The contention of many veteran duck hunters that a wounded duck will dive to the bottom and drown itself by holding onto vegetation has been brought up again.
 A Texas game department warden
 reports that during the last hunting season he saw a duck wounded by a long shot. He marked the spot where the fowl hit the water, but did not see the bird come up. Reaching down he found the duck. Blades of grass, apparently broken from the main growth on the lake bed, were in the duck's bill.

Capitol Squirrels
 Increase

Persons visiting the state capitol
 in Austin will see more squirrels scampering around the spacious lawn surrounding the capitol building. The game department last spring placed fifteen squirrel nests, made of old logs, in trees on the grounds. A recent check of nine of the nests disclosed that squirrels were using five of them.
 Several had young squirrels, from eight to nine weeks of age, in them.

Road Shooting Dangerous

Sportsmen are being warned by game wardens that shooting from public highways is not only illegal, but extremely dangerous.

Dove hunters recently wounded a brother and sister who live in Hunt county as they returned from school. Game wardens immediately got to work on the case and discovered the identity of the three hunters who fled after wounding the children. They were arrested. To date, one has pled guilty and paid a fine of $100, plus costs.

Hunting is not allowed, under the law, on public highways, nor from motor cars.

It is also being pointed out to hunters that carelessness in shooting live stock makes for considerable ill feeling between landowners and hunters and sportsmen are being urged to never shoot in the direction of livestock.

 Clara church will be dropped next Sunday. Members are urged to attend the services at Wichita

-BEAR TRACKS-

The Fairview Bears play another football game this Thursday night. The boys are playing some of the finest football seen in this part of the country and are disappointed at not having more of their fans out to see the games.

Last Thursday night Fairview lost a thrilling game to the fighting King's high team, 7-0. The line-up for the Bears was Joe Knox RE, T. R. Adair LE, Oscar Loveless C, Grady Hancock RH, Delmer Gullett LH, Dick Leonard QB.

In the first half the Bears exhibited fine line smashing plays. But in spite of this, King's high scored their touchdown in the first quarter. Real excitement came in the third and last quarters, when Fairview boys started a drive down the field only to be turned back at the goal. In the final minutes of the game the Bears again started their drive for a score, but the whistle blew before the ball crossed for the tally.

The Fairview high school girls started workouts for the volleyball team on Oct. 2. There are about twenty girls participating and, according to the fine spirit of the girls, there will be a fine team from this school this year. Some of the old girls are back to give the team strength, and there is some promising new material. Miss Kathryn Goldsmith, the coach, believes the girls will make a showing for themselves this year.

The Fairview high school administrative officials are planning to sponsor a Halloween carnival this year, the proceeds of which are to go to the athletic fund. The carnival will be held on the campus of the school, instead of inside, as it has been in preceding years. It is hoped now that a public address system can be obtained. About fifteen booths will be maintained. Each class and several clubs will have the sponsorship of one stand. The class which earns the most money will receive a prize. Some of the concessions will be the Mouse Trap, a shooting gallery, a picture gallery, Bingo, Three Bears, a Doll Aack, fishing blocks, bobbing for apples, and a cake walk. A Thanksgiving Turkey will be given away to the holder of a lucky number. Everyone is invited. Come, do your share towards continuing Fairview athletics

The Home Making department is very proud of their new den. It is located on the second floor of the Home Ec. building. The department plans to use surplus products. They are interested in the project and anyone who would care to help. Nothing of this kind has been attempted by a class. We wish the department success and hope there are many to come to see the

The senior class plans to give the State Fair of Texas a party Saturday. They plan to go early in the morning, and the entire day in Dallas. They are definite and each car on the trip will be adequately equipped. The party will be on Fairview Saturday night. The seniors a pleasant surprise. We hope they have a big time.

The sophomore class social committee met last week and the social calendar for the year was planned. The entertainments planned as follows:
October—Masquerade Party
November—Skating Party
December—Christmas Party
January—Scavenger Hunt
February—Kid Party
March—Game Party
April—Picnic and Hay Ride
May—Week-end Trip.

Absentee Votes To Be Cast On October Sixteenth

October 16 is more than selective service registration day. It's also the first day upon which you can vote for Mr. Roosevelt or Mr. Willkie in the 1940 presidential race.

The election year calendar shows October 16 as the date for starting absentee voting, and the absentee balloting lasts until November 2, just two days before the general election on Nov. 5th.

Presidential electors are voted upon at the polls, and two days thereafter are certified to the county judges. The county judges must forward the official returns to the secretary of state within five more days, on November 11.

On Dec. 2, the state canvassing board, which consists of the Attorney general, meet and open the election returns, declare the results, and issue certificates of election to the presidential electors.

Electors then meet in Austin on Dec. 15, officially to cast the Texas vote for president and vice-president, thus closing the election year.

teniquito tour on 5, 6 and 7th grade last week. L6-3 in the first L5-2 in the second L6-1 over L7-1 in the third game. The first eliminations will be completed Monday when L6-3 and L5-1 play. The games are played at the noon hour beginning at 12:20 and last- ing until 12:40. This week's sched- ule is as follows: Monday, L5-1 and L5-3; Tuesday, L7-2 and L6-2; Wednesday, L6-1 and winners of Monday's game. Thursday, the three winning teams will draw for third playing order. (Miss Doty.)

We shall begin a unit on "In- dians" this week. We are going to read to find out about Indian children, and many other inter- esting things about Indians. We are going to make a booklet, "My Indian Book". Last week in art we made health posters and a frieze, "Health Parade." We are very sorry that Dixie Ellis withdrew from school Friday. Two mothers: Mrs. J. W. Ouzts, who is to be our room mother, and Mrs. H. H. Daugherty, visited our room last week. We are always glad to have the mothers visit us. (Mrs. Vann.)

We are learning many inter- esting things about the Narragan- sett, Pueblo, Buffalo, and Log- house Indian tribes. We learned their different ways of obtaining food, clothing and shelter. We have made rugs, tepees, and vases using different Indian de- signs. (Miss Majors).

Due to illness and other reason- s the following pupils from L6-2 were absent last week. Wan- da Duke, B. J. Dodd, J. W. Long, Billie Spivey, Johnnie Turnbow, and Nellie Vaughn. (Miss McGin- nis).

The boys were very glad to re- ceive two new footballs this past week and also a new rule book, which is very important to those learning the fundamentals of a game (thanks to Boyd Bros., for the rule book.) The boys seem to be enjoying the noon-time games, in spite of their being at the wrong time of day, but due to the fact that there are many bus- tudents the games have to be played at noon in order that all may play. (Mr. Burnett)

We enjoyed the assembly very much last Friday. Mr. Pat Mor- rison gave a very interesting talk on Americanism. He made us re- alize more than ever what a won- derful country America is. We are glad to live in America. The following L6-1 students spent last week-end out of town: Bobbie Jean Dial, Margaret Brady, Birtie Baumhardt, and Jerry Jack Mil- ler. (Miss Gibson).

Johnnie Cecil visited in Gra- ham, Okla., Sunday. Mary Ruth Clement made a trip to Rhome, Texas over the week-end. O. D. visited Tipton's Orphan Home in Tipton, Okla. Several of the L5-1 pupils joined the Wichitans in their birthday celebration. Joy Cassell visited in Lawton, Okla. The class is very glad to have Anice June Taylor back with us after several days of absences. (Miss Goodwin).

The Junior band added several members last week. Included were Janice Caffee, clarinet; Billy Earl Askin, cornet; Norman Burns, cornet; Arnett Nolan, baritone; Johnnie Henry, twirler; and Theron Oxley, cornet. The band now has 25 enrolled and is ex- pected to add new members each week. (Mr. Reed).

Our room gave a Patriotic as- sembly program last Friday after- noon. We have moved to a dif- ferent room in our building. Our room is now No. 9 on the west side. Rosemary Owens and Lester Bills attended the big parade in Wichita Falls Friday. (Miss Isbell)

Several people in our room have new pets at home. Martha Jo has a dog, Louise Walkup has a kitten, Walter Clark has some pigeons, Ronald Spray has a cat, Jack Bernethy has a boat, and Margie Ann Baumhardt has a dog. (Miss Parris).

This the sixth week of school, is going to be a very important one for us in L1-1, because we are going to begin reading in our first pre-primer. We are also happy about our new library books purchased for us by the school. Another thing we have to make our school life more pleas- ant is a new first grade teacher, which relieves our crowded con- dition, and permits us all to have desks at which to sit instead of

We have been making a class booklet on cotton. We have brought pictures, cotton material, thread, growing cotton, and cot- ton that has the seed taken from it. We have learned from a story in our reader many things that happen to cotton after it is taken from the field. We are glad that we live in the "Land of Cotton." Johnny Duncan told the class about his visit to a cotton gin, and how cotton is made into bales. Mrs. Gilbow and Mrs. Poole vis- ited in our room a short time Friday after the assembly pro- gram. Several of our class went to Wichita Falls Friday to see the new Zephyr. Cleo Askins enjoyed a trip to Dallas to see the State Fair Sunday. Millie Mc- Clarty visited relatives in Paducah Sunday. (Miss Lassetter).

Paul Watson has a new baby brother who came Wednesday night to live at his house. Pupils in our room have been suggesting names for him. Mrs. Nolan and Mrs. Wood are room mothers for this year. We hope that all of our mothers will be room mothers and help to make this the most successful of school years. We have moved to another room in our building. Now our pupils feel that they have really been pro- moted. The first P-T A meeting will be Oct. 14. We hope that our thirty-eight mothers will be pres- ent. (Miss Smith).

Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Gamblin have been selected as room moth- ers for the L7-1 class. At a meet- ing of the club, a committee of good manners and a committee of safety first were elected. Those composing the first committee are Lynn Schroeder, Dale Wood- ward, and Lola Mae Beckham; those on the latter committee are Joy Rankin, Virginia Cope and Dan Mills. The students are their billfolds, purses and not very interested in the weaving of mats. These are being woven of raffia and may be used by the students when they are complet- ed. Members of the band went to Bowie last Wednesday. (Miss McSween).

Constitution Accepted By B.H.S. Student Body

After several meetings the Stu- dent Council Planning Committee has drawn up a constitution to be used by the Student Council of this year and those following. The constitution was acceptable by both the student body and faculty. The actual drawing of the con- stitutional committee, which is selected from the Student Council Planning Committee. Af- ter several long meetings, the con- stitution as it now stands was put up for a vote before the Plan- ning Committee, where it carried unanimously.

Friday the constitution was vot- ed upon by the student body. The election returns are as follows: 226 for the constitution and 82 against it.

So it appears that Burk High's Student Council is about to get under way. All classes are to meet today at the activity period for the purpose of nominating members for the Council. The number of nominees for each class should be twice the number of members on the Council allotted to that class. The date for elec- tion of the members had been de- cided at the time this paper went to press.

The question of whether Burk should have a Student Council was debated and discussed widely last year. Several panel discus- sions were held on the subject and in regard to popular opinion it seems that a Council should be very beneficial to this school.

The purpose of the Council as stated in the preamble is to foster a spirit of cooperation amongst the students and faculty, coordinate and regulate student activities, maintain a high standard for the school by upholding high stand- ards of personal conduct, promote and encourage activities for the best interests of the school, and develop good citizens through ex- perience in government.

Christian Science Services

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Oct. 13.

The Golden Text is: "He that is our God is the God of salva- tion; and unto God the Lord be- long the issues from death" (Psalms 68:20).

Among the citations which com- prise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And all things (whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive" (Matthew 21:22).

The Lesson-Sermon also in- cludes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Self-forgetfulness, purity, and affection are constant pray- ers. Practice not profession, un- derstanding not belief, gain the ear and right hand of omnipotence and they assuredly call down in- finite blessings" (page 15).

Aims of Public School Music
The general aim of education is to train the child to become a capable, useful, and contented member of society. The develop- ment of a fine character and of the desire to be of service to humanity are results that lie up- permost in the minds of the lead- ers of educational thought. Every school subject is valued in pro- portion to its contribution to these desirable ends. Music, because of its powerful influence upon the very innermost recesses of our subjective life, because of its wonderfully stimulating effects upon our physical, mental and spiritual natures, and because of its universality of appeal, con- tributes directly to both these fundamental purposes of educa- tion. The primary aim of music instruction in our public school is to develop the lasting love for the best in music, and an intelli- gent appreciation of it. To achieve these results we organize our music teaching under the follow- ing: Music appreciation; voice culture; sight reading; and in- terpretation. The creation of a musical atmosphere through the choice of good songs and the study of their artistic interpretation, some yield fruit in the enrich- ment that is apparent in the lives of the children. Cohen directing the music and leading the young people and boys and girls groups. The young people meet at 7:00 p. m. each day, just 30 minutes before the evening service and the boys and girls will meet at 4:00 p. m., daily, just after school.

game will continue the bitter feud which has attracted a banner crowds here the last three years. Being the youngest member of the conference after graduating from class A only this year, the Bulldogs were not as highly respected as they apparently should have been. The squad starting the season had only four men who had played in matched competition. Smashing blocking and strong defenses have increased their rating.

Backfield Takes Shape

The backfield is rapidly taking shape sparked by steady Bobbie Hayes, Melvin Kerner, Chester Todd, Bill Bowman and Glenn Woods have shared honors as ball carriers.

The line was greener than the backfield at the start of the year. Babe Green and Hugh Frank Brown at guards were the veterans. Green was transferred over from center where he played last year.

Brown was shifted to center in the Electra game and Joe Bob Tyler took his slot at guard. The shift added considerable strength to the center of the line. Pug Robinson gained respect for both his crashing blocking and deadly tackling in the Electra game last week when he started at left tackle.

Draft Board Members Confer In Fort Worth

D. R. Peevey, member of the Wichita county draft board, will go to Fort Worth Friday to meet with other members of the district board and to receive final instructions regarding duties of board members.

Wichita county's three draft boards, appointed by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel subject to presidential approval, will be composed of Maj. D. M. Perkins, veteran of the Spanish-American and world wars; James M. Williams, D. L. Fritz, Harry A. Gray, Louis H. Gould, and W. T. Knight, all of Wichita Falls; C. E. Birk, of Iowa Park; D. R. Peevey of Burkburnett; and Leo Moore of Electra.

The first six will compose two Wichita Falls draft boards and the last three will serve as a board for Burkburnett, Electra and Iowa Park.

A three-man board was named for each county, with an additional board for each 30,000 population, or portion thereof, in excess of the first 30,000.

Boards are expected to begin classification of men who register immediately after registration.

Duties Of Boards

These boards will classify registered men as to deferment groups and determine those to be exempted from military service. These group lists then will be forwarded to Washington, where drawing of numbers for military service will take place.

Board members are serving without pay. The three groups in this county may sit separately with independent chairmen or work together with a general chairman.

Members of the boards will meet and organize as soon as presidential approval is announced.

The state is divided into twelve districts and this district is comprised of twenty-two counties.

Of the 9,000 men in Wichita county eligible for the draft, it is estimated that there are between 800 and 900 in Burkburnett.

Chapter On Burk In Boyce House Book

In some ways Burkburnett may be a "ghost town" but it cannot be said that certain writers are not doing their best to keep the breath of life stirring in her somewhat shrunken bosom.

There was "A Lady Comes To Burkburnett," "Boom Town," and now Boyce House, Texas newspaper man, has devoted 14,000 words to Burkburnett in his latest book, "Oil Boom," which is now in the hands of his publishers.

It is understood that the chapter on Burkburnett is the author's favorite in the book and that it is also the longest chapter.

Personalities are mentioned and some time has been spent in amassing details of 'local color' which will undoubtedly prove very interesting to all of us who lived here during "The Boom."

Mr. House's book gives the highlights of some of the biggest rushes in Texas and includes two articles of his which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post. In addition there are chapters on Desdemona, Spindletop, Smackover and Burkburnett.

The book will retail for $3 but it has been stated that if there are enough people in Burkburnett interested in owning copies, they may purchase them for $1.85. Reservations must be made at once, however.

Randlett Man Died Suddenly

Funeral services were held Tuesday from the Baptist church in Randlett for Thomas W. Capps, 67, who died Sunday at his home in Randlett. The Rev. Harvey Lewis of Fort Worth, officiated.

Mr. Capps had been ill for several months. He was a pioneer of Cotton county, having lived in or near Randlett since December, 1908.

Pallbearers were Oliver Best, Jewel Aldridge, Bill Boyd, Clint Dunn, Harry Griffin, and Dave Moore. Interment was in the Stringtown cemetery.

Survivors include the widow, one son, Tud Capps, of Oklahoma City, and three daughters; Mrs. C. O. Bynum of Ada, Okla., Mrs. E. L. Edwards of Detroit, Michigan, and Miss Myrtle Capps of Randlett; two brothers and four sisters.

We'd mellow faster if our creditors and the tax-collector would give us a chance to relax.

Bulldogs Tore Up Electra's Playhouse

Upsetting the dope which gave them only a slight edge over Electra, the Burkburnett Bulldogs opened their first season in district 2-AA by demolishing the 1939 champion Electra Tigers, 39 to 0 in a game played here last Friday night.

Fierce blocking for which Volney Hill's teams have become noted was much in evidence, allowing Melvin Kerner, Glenn Woods, Bill Bowman and Chester Todd to amass an astounding total of yardage.

Electra's defense was passive at best, and there was no offense to speak of, although Rex Bruce, sophomore triple-threat man, tried valiantly.

The Tigers got two downs, one on a 15-yard penalty and another on a 9-yard run by Bruce.

Not a pass was completed. Burkburnett tried two and Electra 7, of which the Bulldogs intercepted two.

Electra missed her only chance to score when Kerner kicked off short at the very beginning of the game and a series of plays, including a 15-yard penalty against Burkburnett ended with the Tigers on the Bulldogs' 1-yard line. Here the Tigers fumbled on the second down and Robinson recovered.

When the Bulldogs did get the ball they monopolized it. Woods, Reed, Bowman all carried the ball for touchdowns. Bowman and Kerner were good for extra points.

Blocked punts and intercepted passes featured the four quarters of play which ended with Burkburnett undisputed victors of the clash with representatives of the school to whom they used to bow in defeat every year.

Burk Observes Week Of Fire Prevention

Burkburnett officials, members of the Volunteer Fire department and the Burkburnett schools cooperated this week with the nation-wide movement to observe national Fire Prevention Week, the purpose of which is to spread information on fire prevention and fire control.

Students made posters and wrote themes on the subject and speakers were presented at gatherings throughout the week which stressed the ever-increasing importance of preventing fires.

J. F. Kelley, chief of the Volunteer Fire department, has issued the following set of rules which cannot be mentioned too often in this cause:

Keep matches away from children.

Keep children away from open fires.

Keep your electric wiring and appliances in good condition.

Don't throw away lighted matches.

Don't throw away burning cigarettes or cigar stubs.

Don't leave smouldering campfires.

Don't use benzine or gasoline for cleaning purposes.

Mr. Kelley also stated that the mounting loss of life and property attributed to fire in this nation almost rivals war losses in Europe, and there is certainly no excuse save that of carelessness for such losses as these.
