NUMBER FORTY-TWO

Indians Chilled By Winters; Journey To Anson Friday

The Winters' Blizzards, scoring at will in the third quarter, chilled the Haskell Indians by the top-heavy score of 31-3 here Friday night.

With a stiff north wind blowing, the frosty Blizzards kept the Indians bottled-up completely in the second half; however, the locals were first on the scoreboard when Ray Herren kicked a 12-yard field goal in the first quarter.

Playing without the services of their star ground gainer and scorer, Thornton Gilmore, the Indians managed only four first downs during the entire game. Gilmore, injured in the Olney-Haskell game, was returned to his home here from Hendrick Memorial Hospital, Abilene, on Monday but in all probability will be out the balance of the season.

Two fumbles and a pair of pass interceptions handed Winters four of its five scoring opportunities.

Haskell led 3-0 on Ray Herren's 12-yard kick in the first quarter, but the Blizzards had moved in front by 12-3 at half time on twin touchdown plunges by FB Jerry Awalt.

Awalt scored from the three after Winters' Terry Reeves recovered a fumble by Indian Tim Everett at the Haskell 37.

Awalt scored Winters' second TD from the one following a Haskell fumble at the Indian 20.

With less than eight minutes remaining in the game, the final trio of Winters' touchdowns erupted.

Robert Guavera went in from the two, capping a 62-yard drive sparked by a 43-yard pass play from Alvin Dunn to Fred Wilder.

Winters ran the score to 24-3 moments later when Walter Mira scrambled into the end zone with a Lanny Ivy pass he intercepted at the Haskell 23.

Guavera added the final TD from the one and Fred Gray kicked the night's only conversion after Dunn intercepted another Ivy pass, this one at the Indian 20.

The game was fumble-plagued as the ball was lost a total of seven times.

Haskell Well Represented At Industrial Conf.

Mayor H. V. Woodard, Jetty Clare, Dr. T. W. Williams, Bob Beauchamp, Bill Skeen and Clay Smith were in San Angelo last Friday attending the 13th annual Industrial Development Conference which was sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Conference discussions enabled the various community representatives to have a better understanding of some of the problems as well as the advantages of obtaining suitable industry for their community.

Agricultural industries and petrochemical industries were analyzed to show why they are adaptable for almost any community in West Texas. One of the features of the day were testimonials by representatives of industrial firms that have recently located in West Texas. At the noon-hour these men told why their firms selected this area for their center of operations and how other industries of a like nature can be induced to locate in communities of West Texas.

Mrs. Byron Frazier, Retail Merchants chairman, and Jim Sampson presided over the 7:00 a. m. kick-off breakfast Tuesday at Felker's Restaurant at which time plans were mapped for the Christmas program.

Jaycees will again install the Christmas decorations and Santa Claus will make his visit to Haskell Saturday, December 3, the day of the parade, which will officially open the Christmas season here.

Three Rural Accidents Investigated In Haskell County During September

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated three accidents on rural highways in Haskell County during the month of September, according to Sergeant Frank Jirek, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no deaths, no injuries, and an estimated property damage of $1,380.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first nine months of 1966 shows a total of 57 accidents resulting in no persons killed, 33 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $28,917.00.

From past experience, the month of October signals the increase of traffic accidents in Texas due to shorter days and longer nights. The increased hours of darkness will hide dangers otherwise visible during the daylight hours.

The Sergeant listed some factors why driving is more hazardous at nighttime than in daytime. 1) Reduced road visibility prevents drivers from seeing hazards; 2) It has been longer since most drivers have slept and the resulting fatigue increases perception reaction time; 3) More drinking drivers will be met; 4) It is easier for drivers to become confused in traffic and to panic. These factors in varying degrees coupled with high-speed cause accidents that would not occur in daytime.

Fire Prevention Poster Contest Winners Named

Bird Hits Plane, Kills AF Captain

Reese AFB pilot Capt. Harry D. Logan, husband of the former Mary Helen Bounds of Paint Creek was killed last Thursday when a sandhill crane flying at 1,500 feet smashed through the canopy of his Air Force jet.

Officials said the crane which struck Logan's plane had a wingspan of six feet. Tentative officials said Logan died upon impact with the bird, rather than from wounds inflicted by the breaking canopy.

Capt. Logan, 34, was a native of St. Petersburg, Fla. His copilot, Lt. John Peterson, was uninjured and flew the T-37 jet back to the base.

It is considered possible that a similar bird incident could have led to the crash of a Dyess AFB C-130 plane Wednesday night of last week near Guthrie.

THE AMERICAN FARMER
An Agricultural Industrialist

By J. C. YEARY, JR.
 USDA Soil Conservation Service
 Haskell, Texas

This is a day of industrialization. Rural America is now bidding for industry in the smaller communities. Yet we have overlooked the greatest industrial potential of all: today's farmer, his needs for seed, fertilizer and supplies, and his demands for machinery and labor comprise one of the largest industrial forces in America.

The American farmer has never been considered as an industrialist. We who depend upon the farmer for everything we eat and a lot of what we wear, will do well to consider our friend and neighbor, Mr. John Q. Farmer.

The typical farmer of thirty years ago lived on the farm, had a team of horses or mules and a few pieces of equipment to till the land. If he was a successful, aggressive individual, he probably farmed between 160 and 320 acres. He might even have owned a tractor. He lived off the land almost entirely and sold the excess produce over his family needs to the local groceryman in a nearby town.

Today, the successful farmer lives in town. Or he may still live on the farm. His home is a modern bungalow, more than likely air conditioned and gas heated. He has at least one family automobile and a farm pick-up truck. Chances are that he owns two or more 2- or 4-row tractors and the necessary equipment to farm 350 to 1,000 acres of land.

Today's modern farmer produces more and feeds more people other than his family, than his counterpart of 30 years ago. He buys more, pays more for what he needs, but receives less labor income than many of those he hires.

He has been able to do this by careful planning, hard work, and wise use of his natural resources. He has practiced sound conservation of his land, constructed terraces to slow down the flow of water, rotated his crops in order to maintain soil fertility and organic content. This in turn has increased the fertility and moisture holding capacity of his soil, hereby enabling him to produce more and better quality food and fiber.

Who has benefitted from all this? Yes, Mr. John Q. Farmer has made a better living. But the American consumer has been the direct recipient. Better quality of foodstuffs now appear in the grocery and market. Yes, the cost of food is high, but so is the cost of automobiles, trucks, tractors, land, and many other things. We who consume the products of the farm are still the benefactors of the labors of the farmer.

 (October 15, 1896)

Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Smith were in Dallas and Fort Worth the first of the week attending the Centennial and Frontier Centennial.

Haskell Indians tenaciously upheld their perfect record in 9-B football last Friday night and defeated the Rule Bobcats, 19-0, after the visitors had seriously threatened early in the game when they blocked a punt on Haskell's five-yard line but were held on downs.

Miss Lois Fouts of Haskell, student at North Texas State Teachers College, Denton, has been installed as secretary of the Mary Arden Literary Society.

Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Fields left Wednesday morning for Dallas where they will attend the Centennial and will visit in other places before their return.

Courtney Hunt, Miss Louise Brooks, Mrs. R. L. Lemmon and daughter, Marticia and Miss Nettie McCollum were in Dallas Sunday and Monday. The latter visited with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. L. McCollum and baby daughter.

According to the report of W. P. Trice, special agent for the Department of Commerce, there were 3,982 bales of cotton ginned in Haskell County from the crop of 1936 prior to October 1, as compared with 3,613 bales ginned to October 1, 1935.

40 YEARS AGO
 (October 14, 1926)

The Haskell Indians romped over Monday High School last Friday evening by the score of 26-0. Sherman, Vaughn, Banks, Bradley, G. Henshaw and Kimbrough showed up well in the backfield while the entire line opened up great holes for the backs.

Work is progressing nicely on the new Presbyterian Church in this city and the outline of this beautiful church has already begun to loom up.

It seems that there was some hitch in their arrangements and the road is still in the hands of the construction company and only Jim Crow mixed trains are being run.

Our town needs a better service and the people are getting impatient for it to be inaugurated.

Mahon Speaker At WSG And WSCS Meeting

The Wesleyan Service Guild and the Woman's Society of Christian Service met in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church, Monday, October 17, for the third session of their study, "Affluence and Poverty: Dilemma for Christians."

Speaker for the evening was Mr. Eldon Mahon, Abilene lawyer, Methodist layman and former district judge and district attorney.

Mr. Mahon said he felt that man could not be legislated but must be educated out of poverty. He feels that people who call themselves Christians must be reawakened to the needs of their fellow man, must be concerned and involved and must do more than the minimum.

Mr. Mahon said that man's little and God's much, joined together, can provide the solution for our many problems. He said that we have so many opportunities for service and that Christian laymen must be God's voice wherever there is need. We must be responsible where we are in civic, church and school affairs. Our greatest sin is that of silence which involves apathy and indifference.

Thirty-one men, women and guests were served during a fellowship hour following Mr. Mahon's message. The Wesleyan Service Guild was hostesses.

Mr. Mahon stated that "We can't legislate people out of poverty... we must educate and motivate." He also brought out that in our penal system in Huntsville, of the 12,000 inmates there, approximately 83 per cent have never reached the high school level in their formal education. He stated that nearly all convicted criminals are not trained in any way to make them capable of earning a living.

WTCC Special Task Force To Study Problems of West Texas Small Towns

C. L. Cooke, president of Community Public Service Company, Fort Worth, has been named to head a West Texas Chamber of Commerce Special Task Force to study the problems of West Texas small towns, John Ben Shepperd of Odessa, president of the organization, announced.

A "blue ribbon" panel of 25 West Texans, to be named shortly, will conduct an in-depth study and evaluation of the problems, resources and potentialities of towns under 12,000 population. Seventy-one towns in this category have lost population during the past 10 years.

"Too many people," Shepperd said, "are willing to write-off small towns but we cannot do this if we want West Texas to grow and prosper."

The study to be made will include exhaustive research, surveys, conferences in Austin and Washington and town hall type meetings and hearings in small towns of West Texas. The hearings will develop ways and means of utilizing existing assets and methods of accenting the cultural, educational, recreational and industrial opportunities of the smaller towns.

The Special Task Force is a group for planned action and not an academic study, according to Shepperd. The group will seek to determine what the small town has and what it is possible for them to have; what assistance is needed, if any, from the State and Federal governments; what the metropolitan areas may do to assist small towns within their spheres of influence; growth patterns of small towns and the reasons for losses or gains; the development of criteria as to what an aggressive small town, with proper leadership, can expect in the way of industrial development, tourism, cultural development and retention of young people in their community. The study will also evaluate available Federal programs and services as well as those possible aids from the State agencies that will be helpful in attaining the goals set by the individual city.

In the formation of this important Task Force President Shepperd said "Small towns are our last citadels of graciousness and true hospitality...they have been and will continue with help, to be an important element in West Texas' economy, characteristic of the democratic way of life in which a man is free to make choices and achieve security through his own efforts."

The results of this study, which will be completed by March 31st, will be summarized in a "White Paper" published by WTCC. This publication will be distributed to leaders in small towns for guidance of their action programs and to enable them to utilize their assets.

County's Share Railroad Taxes Total $15,281

Current annual taxes paid to the various government agencies in Haskell County totaled $15,281, it was announced by the Texas Railroad Association.

That amount was the county's share of the nearly $10,000,000 the railroads paid in Texas on their own right-of-way and other property.

The biggest railroad contribution was to the school systems throughout the state. Large sums were also distributed to city, village and county governments and for road and bridge funds.

In addition, of course, was the large total in taxes the railroads' nearly 35,000 Texas employees contributed on their own property. The vast majority of rail workers, several of whom live in Haskell County, own their own homes.

"With the future of our country and state depending to a great extent upon the education of the children, the railroads operating in Texas also make scholarships available to a large number of students every year."

Haskell Receives Nearly Half Inch Of Moisture

More rain fell over Haskell County Monday as farmers had their fingers crossed in hopes of continued sun-shiny weather in order that they might begin harvesting the late maturing cotton crop.

According to Sam Herren, "the weatherman," Haskell received 48/100 of an inch of moisture.

PAINT CREEK ... COMMUNITY NEWS

It rained again on Monday morning. It must be wet to China. Farmers can repair machinery, get wheat seed cleaned, repaint cotton trailers, get the stripper ready, order more fuel and play dominoes for a few days. Our gauge showed only a half inch but it was enough to make the roads slick and the milk man's truck slid off in the ditch and he had to be pulled out with a tractor Monday morning.

A former Paint Creek girl lost her husband in a freak accident last Thursday. Harry Logan of Reese AFB, Lubbock, was instructing a student pilot and flying a T37 jet when a sandhill crane flying at 1,500 feet smashed through the canopy of the plane. Capt. Logan died instantly upon impact with the bird. The second pilot flew the plane back to Reese AFB.

Harry was 34 and was married to the former Mary Helen Bounds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bounds. They met when Mary Helen was a nurse in Big Spring and Harry was a student jet pilot and were married at the Paint Creek Methodist Church in 1954. Harry was from Canada and one time when his foreign tour of duty was due the Air Corps assigned him to Canada so he could be near his invalid mother. Some of you Paint Creekers remember meeting his father when he came to their wedding.

He and Mary Helen and two little boys were in Canyon last March to see the Paint Creek basketball girls play in the area tournament. Mary Helen played on our team that played at Canyon in 1950, and the team that beat us went on to win state that year.

Capt. Logan's funeral was in Lubbock and burial was in Colorado Springs, Colo. Our heartfelt sympathy to Mary Helen and her two boys. Her address is: 110 Andrews Drive, Reese Village, Lubbock, Texas.

Coach James Mickler's Paint Creek Pirates journeyed to Baird last Thursday and played Putnam on Baird's field. Paint Creek won the game. This week they play Weibert here this coming Thursday, October 20.

Little Jo Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Morrison, fell in gym class and broke her arm last week. She will have to wear it in a cast six weeks.

Scoutmaster Waller Overton announces that Boy Scout Troop No. 48 of Paint Creek has changed their meeting time to Monday night instead of Saturday morning. They meet in the last house east on Faculty Row at 7:30 every Monday.

Every Scout should try to attend every meeting because the troop will compete in a Camporee in November and the trip to see the Aggies beat Arkansas will only include scouts who have had a perfect attendance since the plans were made.

Danny Ivy, freshman at Texas Tech and son of Mr. and Mrs. Lem Ivy, left Fort Worth last Monday by train for Kansas City and attended the national convention of Future Farmers of America. Danny is state vice president of Texas and represented the Texas state officers at the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Shuchert and Robert Bruce of Guthrie visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McLennan, Alex and Allan, last weekend. Both Mr. and Mrs. Shuchert teach in the Guthrie school system.

The engagement and approaching marriage of Linda Raseo of Stamford to Glen Dale Baumbach of Paint Creek was announced last week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Raseo. Glen Dale (Shortie) is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Baumbach. Glen Dale is employed by El Charro Drilling Co., and Linda is a senior at Stamford High.

Mr. and Mrs. James Merle Raughton and children of Bronco spent several hours with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Overton, last Thursday. They were here to attend the funeral of Mr. Raughton's maternal grandmother, Mrs. J. E. McCown of Stamford. Mrs. McCown had two daughters, Mrs. C. L. Raughton and Mrs. C. G. Raughton, whose children attended Paint Creek. Her son is W. W. McCown of Stamford, whose daughter is Mrs. Roddy Kuenstler. The McCowns lived in the Berryhill community, east of Stamford.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ned Hokanson and Jimann, of Abilene, were in the community on September 20th to help celebrate the birthday of his father, Albin Hokanson.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Overton and son, Wallar, attended the meeting of the Stamford B&PW Club at the Cliff House last Thursday to hear Johnnie M. Ammons of Roby speak and show slides of living conditions in Viet Nam. Mr. Ammons is director of the Roby Rural Electric and he and Gene serve on a district Rural Electric Board together. He spent six weeks organizing a rural electric in Viet Nam and laying the groundwork for the electric lines to be built.

In announcing the birth of little Lisa Rene Medford, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Medford, last week, I forgot to say her paternal grandmother is Mrs. R. L. Medford and her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Thane of Stamford. Mrs. Medford teaches English and German in Paint Creek high school. Mrs. Jack Merket is teaching her work for the first few months of school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carlos Montgomery and children of Midland spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Montgomery. They had been to the Texas State Fair in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Cathey of Grand Prairie met their daughter, Elizabeth, of Lubbock, here at their Paint Creek home and spent this past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton and Wallar and Nan Jones of Rule spent last weekend at College Station visiting Mike and the Aggies. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Gene Frierson of Bryan and Judge Truman Roberts of Comanche.

Jack Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Frierson broke his arm in a football game at Temple Friday, October 7. He underwent surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital in Bryan Friday and had a small plate replace a wedge of broken bone. He returned home Saturday morning and was feeling fine Saturday evening. He is a former classmate of the present senior class of Haskell High.

District Judge Truman Roberts who has visited the Overtons at Paint Creek was reared with Dr. Ben Nail and Dr. Borden Phillips at Crawford, Tex. He was once a lieutenant under Capt. Overton in World War II and later commanded a company in the 819th Tank Destroyer Bn.

Screwworm Cases On Increase In Texas Counties

Robert W. Schumann, Haskell County Agent, has recently had word from the screwworm eradication officials that there has been a very noticeable increase in the number of confirmed screwworm cases in Texas. Schumann says that for the week of September 18th there were 48 confirmed cases reported in Texas from 22 different counties. This is more confirmed cases for a one-week period than has been reported since the last week in November, 1963.

All livestock producers are urged to be especially watchful of possible screwworm cases and collect specimen worm samples and mail to the Screwworm Eradication Laboratory in Mission, Texas.

Schumann, County Agent, says vials for submitting specimens to the Mission Laboratory can be obtained at the County Agricultural Agent's office, 3rd floor, Haskell County Courthouse.

Weather conditions over much of the State have been a contributing factor in the recent screwworm buildup.

The Good Earth

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Guess of Weibert find much pleasure in their yard. Huge mesquite trees cast their shade over the lush green lawn. Pink yard geraniums are complimented by the dark green foliage of holly along the front walk to the entrance. A large bed of ornamental pepper nestles under a mesquite tree near the carport. The flower-like clusters of yellow and red peppers are pretty as any flower.

A row of fruitless mulberries casts their shade over the west yard. Their wax-green foliage is very attractive. Artemisia, that beautiful gray foliage plant that looks like it had been sprinkled with silver dust, grows along the fence near the gate of the back yard. Morning glories grow along the fence. Their huge blossoms attract humming birds and moths that sip at their nectar.

Inside the fenced space is a garden of many different varieties of flowers. Joseph's coat with its many colors sprawls along the walk. Plumed celosia adds a deep red splash of color to the scene. Flowers are scattered in clusters under dark green peach trees. Roses with luxuriant, healthy foliage add their beauty to the picture. Driftwood with pots of succulents grace the back entrance.

Mrs. Guess is very active in the Haskell Garden show. The first meeting of the year was held in the Guess' spacious home.

The next month and a half is the best time of the year to take cuttings from lilac, althea, hedge plants, vitex, roses and many different trees and shrubs.

Leaves should be raked and composted. Plants must be brought in-doors within the next week or two.

Do not neglect to plant bulbs before the ground freezes too hard to dig. Nurseries, variety stores and seed houses all have received their fall bulbs.

If you haven't already planted, larkspur, poppies, gallardia and petunias for next spring's blossoms, do so before it is too late.

Skiprow Planting Arouses Storm Of Protest From Rolling Plains

A ruling by the United States Department of Agriculture, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, concerning skip-row planting patterns and their effect on 1967 projected yields for cotton has aroused a new and vigorous storm of protest from the Rolling Plains of Texas.

According to Charles Stenholm, executive vice president of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, the ruling is totally unfair and highly discriminating to farmers in the Rolling Plains and, if allowed to stand, will cause our 31 counties to lose up to 4 million dollars in price support and diverted acreage payments in 1967.

J. B. Cooper, Roscoe farmer and President of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Billy Whorton, Roscoe farmer and Stenholm were in College Station this past week where they met with the State ASCS committee regarding the inequities involved in the ruling and then Cooper and Stenholm joined Max Carriker, Fisher County farmer and District 3 Director of Texas Farmers Union in

Bob Edward's Barbecue House Damaged By Fire

Firemen answered a call at 2:45 p. m. Wednesday of last week at 1103 North First St. when a two-room barbecue house caught on fire, while Bob Edwards, owner, was cleaning out the barbecue pit.

Edwards said a gust of wind whipped the fire out of control and the inside walls of the building caught on fire. He estimated the damage at around $250.00.

Quick work of the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department soon had the blaze under control. Edwards, who owns and operates Beth's AA Drive-In, expressed thanks to firemen for their fine work in saving the building.

Washington where the protest was further aired. Congressman Omar Burlison of Anson and Bob Poage of Waco, Senator Ralph Yarborough and others in Washington have been alerted to the problem and are working vigorously with the Department to avoid unjust penalty for the traditional skip-row area of the U. S.

The Department has ruled that skip-row penalties in effect for 1966 are also retroactive back through 1962-63-64-65. The ruling has the effect of saying that 2-2 cotton measured as 50 per cent cotton in 1962 is no longer counted 50 per cent cotton but is now counted 65 per cent cotton in figuring 1967 projected yields because this is the way it is measured today. (The Rolling Plains Cotton Growers has contended that the Department cannot change the rules of the game after the game has started. A measurement taken in 1962 cannot be changed today but even if the Department has acted fairly in making the retroactive ruling, the Rolling Plains is still being unjustly penalized because we are no longer planting a predominant skip-row penalty pattern. We are today planting 2 and 4 cotton which has no penalty. When you consider this the effect of taking pounds away from Rolling Plains farmers and giving them to non-skip-row farmers in other areas.

According to Stenholm, more and more people from the State office to Washington are beginning to appreciate the unique problem we have here in the dryland Rolling Plains because of adverse skip-row rulings. We have received assurance that new and full consideration will be given this new ruling and that a change will be made so the Rolling Plains cotton farmer will receive what is rightfully his in 1967.

You don't believe a 6 can act anything like an 8?

With our new Overhead Cam Six you'd better believe it.

Our OHC 6 delivers 165 hp on regular gas. And 215 horses from the premium gas 4-barrel version. Most American sixes (and some underprivileged V-8s) don't even come close. Expensive European sports machines do, but they're overhead cams, too. In fact, they inspired us. Our OHC 6 is standard on all Tempests and Le Mans. So are a host of new safety features like passenger-guard door locks, General Motors' new energy absorbing steering column and a four-way hazard warning flasher. We've said enough. If a test drive won't sell you, nothing will.
