12,360 Shares For Sale By The Haskell National Bank

A. C. Pierson, president of the Haskell National Bank, announced at a dinner meeting on Tuesday evening at Felker's Restaurant dining room to some 25 persons on hand, the bank is now offering citizens an opportunity to purchase a total of 12,360 shares at $41.15 per share and subscription blanks are now available at the bank for anyone desiring to purchase stock.

Mr. Pierson pointed out at the meeting that this was an opportunity to keep the bank home-owned and operated.

Oliver Howard, president of the Citizens National Bank of Abilene, along with two directors of that bank, W. P. Wright and Fred Lee Hughes were in Haskell for the Tuesday night meeting to advise the Haskell officials and the two latter are serving as trustees of the stock until the time it is sold.

Last week the stockholders of the Haskell National Bank voted to change par value of stock from its present $20.00 per share to $5.00 per share and the number of outstanding common shares to 520,000. Present book value of stock is $33.00 per share and on an average most bank stock sells for at least one and one-half times its book value, or more, according to Mr. Oliver Howard.

It was pointed out at the dinner session that deadline for sale of shares in the Haskell National Bank is February 17. Subscription blanks are available at the bank for anyone wishing to purchase stock.

"All-Sports" Banquet Set Tonight, Thurs.

Berl Huffman, freshman football coach and baseball coach at Texas Tech, Lubbock, will be the featured speaker tonight, Thursday, January 26, 7:30 o'clock at the Elementary school cafeteria.

Tickets for tonight's event have been going at a fast clip the past few days which indicates a large crowd will be on hand.

Other highlights of the All-Sports Banquet will include the presentation of awards; Booster Club, Dick Gaines, and Jaycees. The veteran coach has a collection of jokes and funny stories as large as many a television comedian. His own vast experience has provided him with a homespun philosophy of coaching boys.

A complete detailed article concerning tonight's banquet was printed in last week's issue of the Free Press. This is just a reminder, for a full evening of entertainment, food and fellowship, better head for the Elementary School tonight.

Damage Is Heavy From Fire Sunday

Fire, which apparently started in the rear of the display area, gutted the Western Auto Store, 417 South First Street here Sunday night. Firemen answered the call at 7:30 p. m. and had it under control in about forty-five minutes.

Darold Robertson, owner-operator, estimated his loss to contents at $15,000. W. I. (Scott) Coggins said the loss to his building would also run in the neighborhood of $15,000.

This was the second fire suffered by Western Auto in less than two years, as that business was damaged by a blaze in March 1965, at which time Allen Reeves was owner of the business.

JOYCE COOK

Joyce Cook Is Betty Crocker "Homemaker"

Joyce Cook, by finishing first in a written homemaking knowledge and aptitude examination for senior girls recently, became Haskell High School's 1967 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. She is now eligible for possible state and national scholarship awards. Her test also earned her a specially designed silver charm from General Mills, sponsor of the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

A state Homemaker of Tomorrow runner-up will be selected from the winners of all schools in the state.

Joyce is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cook and is a senior in Haskell High School. She is drum major in the Indian Band; president of F.H.A.; a member of National Honor Society, and member of the Owl Club.

Fire Destroys 100 Acres Of Sorghum Alum

A raging fire, which members of the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department fought for almost two hours, five miles southeast of Haskell last Thursday, leveled 100 acres of sorghum alum and destroyed a large number of fence posts, on the John Kuenstler farm. Firemen answered the call around noon.

The blaze originated at the edge of the farm-to-market road on the Mrs. Noah Lane farm, and was thought to have started when a motorist tossed a cigarette or match out of a passing vehicle.

"We had to move a trailer and our cows out of the path of the fire or they would have been lost," Mrs. Kuenstler said.

Deadline Nears For Voter Registration

It's already too late to do your voter registration early...but it is not too late to register in order to be eligible to vote in 1967...but the deadline nears, as only four more days remain. Next Tuesday, January 31, is the deadline to register.

At press time 1,258 persons had registered. Registration blanks may be obtained at the Farmers National Bank in Rule, Home State Bank, Rochester, any of the Haskell Drug Stores, or at the office of the Tax Assessor-Collector, courthouse.

Persons who were 60 years of age before January 1, 1967, are not required to register.

God And Country Awards To Be Given Sunday

The following scouts will receive their God and Country awards during the regular morning worship services at 10:45 Sunday, January 29th, at the Christian Church: Larry Jewell, Bobby Cobb, Mike Dalaney, Gary Black, Terry Hutson, Randall Azzel and Bill Cox.

These young men have worked on this program for over a year, with Royce E. Wood, minister, as their instructor.

The God and Country program is a course of study in the fundamentals of Christianity, designed to prepare young men for Christian living in their church and community. It is a quest that leads upward to God, inward to a better understanding of their spiritual needs and outward in service to their fellow men and forward in Christian citizenship. It is a very detailed program and requires many hours of study and work to complete.

The public is invited to be present with Troop 36, their Scoutmaster, Edd Smart, their families and friends to see them receive Scouting's most important award.

Terraces Highlight Soil Conservation Practices

The Haskell, Texas Work Unit of the Soil Conservation Service serves only a portion of Haskell County. Yet much conservation work is accomplished annually by the Cooperators of the California Creek and Wichita-Brazos Soil and Water Conservation Districts served by this Work Unit.

During the year 1966, 210 of the 700 Cooperators applied one or more conservation practices. Highlighting the years accomplishments are terraces, 240,000 feet of standard and 114,000 feet of level parallel terraces were constructed. Cooperators reported 8800 acres of mesquite brush controlled, 11,000 acres of Conservation Cropping Systems installed, 5600 acres of Cover and Green Manure Crops planted, 10,000 acres of crop residues managed to protect the soil from erosion, 6400 acres of range land rested from grazing for a period of three to nine months, 12 farm ponds constructed, and 8 acres of grassed waterways established.

According to J. C. Yeary, Jr., Work Unit Conservationist for the Haskell Work Unit, many more units of the practices applied were probably on the land, but time and personnel did not permit the contacting of all of the 700 Cooperators to ascertain the quantities of conservation each applied during the year.

Yeary stated that the Outstanding Conservation Farmer of the Wichita-Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District was chosen for 1966 from the Haskell Work Unit. This individual's name and his accomplishments will be revealed at a later date, when plans for the presentation of the annual plaque have been completed by the Haskell Lions' Club.

The staff of the Haskell Work Unit, according to Yeary, consist of three full time technicians including himself, and one part time technician. The staff includes Hinds A. McGowen, Jr., soil conservationist; Harry G. Koehler, conservation technician; Milton L. Christian, Conservation Technician (part-time); and Yeary, work unit conservationist. The services of an Agricultural Engineer, Claude Thompson, Jr., are also available to the Work Unit on a part time basis.

Rotarians Learn "How To Stop Forgetting"

Mike Herrington, Baptist minister from Rule, spoke to members of the Rotary Club last Thursday noon at the regular weekly session at Felker's Restaurant dining room.

Rotarian Bob Wheatley introduced the guest speaker for the day.

"How to Stop Forgetting" was the title of Rev. Herrington's talk which proved to be very interesting and educational. He used a blackboard to explain a system of remembering which he himself uses. The information came originally from a book by Bruno First who made the statement... "The average person only retains about 20% of what he learns in a lifetime."

The guest speaker said that a person can remember what he reads and hears if he wants to. Taking the alphabet, Rev. Herrington gave each of the letters a number. Through the relationship of numbers and letters a person is supposed to have key words which reminds him of various words.

Although it appeared to be rather complicated, the speaker pointed out that the system was a fool proof method.

President R. W. Herren presided over the meeting; Ira Hester led the invocation and R. C. Couch, Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Henry Withers at the piano, led the group singing.

Rotarian Bill Ratliff introduced guests, Bob Estes of the Salvation Army and J. C. Yeary of Haskell.

"Prexy" Herren asked that the club send its part on the District Conference expense which was approved. The treasurer was given the permission to send $1.50 per member.

84 Crashes; One Killed; 50 Injured In Haskell County During 1966

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated six accidents on rural highways in Haskell county during the month of December, according to Sergeant Frank Jirick, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

Those crashes resulted in two persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $21,135.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the calendar year 1966, shows a total of 84 crashes resulting in one person killed, 50 persons injured and an estimated property damage of $61,427.00.

"When the final reports are tabulated, we will find that more people were killed in Texas traffic accidents during 1966 than in any prior year in the history of this state," the Sergeant stated. The final count is expected to be about 15 per cent more than the 3,028 traffic deaths in 1965. This increase should be a challenge for every individual to put forth his best defensive efforts to prevent accidents during 1967.

Hospitality Can Pay Dividends

American citizens who have traveled abroad have shared a common and generally unpleasant experience upon their re-entry to the United States ... the battle at the customs office. Think what it must be for citizens of other lands crossing our borders. Burdensome red tape has no doubt been a factor in deterring foreign visitors.

The president of a major international airline, Harold E. Gray of Pan American World Airways, suggests a five-point program to remove many restrictions imposed upon visitors to the United States. This program would not only encourage tourists from abroad but would contribute a total of about $4.7 billion to our balance of payments over the next 10 years.

Mr. Gray urged removal of onerous government barriers and visa requirements for visitors from friendly European countries. He also called for reduction of the language barrier, a strong government-financed overseas promotional program, a reduction of the high-cost barrier and creation of a "good-host" attitude within the United States. "The time has come," he declared, "for us to allow visitors from friendly European countries to cross our borders with no more formality than the showing of a valid passport."

The year 1967 has been designated by the United Nations as "International Tourist Year." Encouraging foreign visitors to come to the United States would be both good business and an important step forward in the cause of international understanding and goodwill.

-THIS WEEK'S- SERMONETTE

REMOVING THE MASK
Trinity Lutheran Church
Rev. Allen Johannes

Luke 19:41, 42: When He came in sight of the city, He wept over it and said, "If only you had known, on this great day, the day that leads to peace! But no; it is hidden from your sight."
He wept. Why? Because people did not allow Him to be what He was. On the stage of life many people do not like being who they are, and furthermore, they do not like others to be who they are. Therefore, we put on masks and also put masks on others to cover up their true identity. Then we go about life acting out things and causing others to act out things that are really not so. Oskar Werner says that acting is a phony profession. People assume various roles and act them out and many are phony roles.
So it was with Jesus. They masked Him. They covered up His true identity. He came as Messiah, as Saviour, as the Redeemer of the world. "For God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save it." Jesus wept because Israel would not let Him be their Saviour. They only wanted an earthly king to re-establish the kingdom of David. When they could not make Him their earthly king, they rejected Him. They masked Him so that His true identity could not come through to them.

Now, Jesus came to establish a kingdom, but not of this world, i. e., not an earthly kingdom. Today in our country there are those who are wanting this Jesus to establish the United States as His earthly kingdom. But He came not only as King, He came also as the Saviour of all mankind. He comes not just to the United States, but to the whole world. And He comes as Saviour and King at the same time. He cannot be King only, nor can He be Saviour only.

When we profess our faith in Him as a Saviour, He is that, it is true. However, he must also be King over our lives. He must be Saviour and King over our business transactions, our plowing and reaping, our golf, our social parties, our dating, our dances, our sports, and our worship. He comes as Saviour and King to the affluent and to those in poverty as well. He is Saviour in that He gives to us a new life. He is King in that

FACTS ABOUT MEDICARE

Q. What services in the extended care facility will be covered?
 A. The services generally provided in such facilities, including: semi-private room and board; nursing care, and physical, occupational and speech therapy. Also drugs ordinarily furnished to inpatients.

Q. How many home health care visits could be paid for under the basic hospital insurance part of medicare?
 A. Up to 100 visits during each one-year period following discharge from a hospital or from an extended care facility. The home health care would have to be furnished under a plan established and periodically reviewed by a physician. The home health services would, for example, enable an elderly man who needs intermittent nursing services to get them in his home instead of keeping him in a hospital; or if someone was getting over a stroke, he would get speech and physical therapy at home to help get his speech back and get his legs moving again.

 Q. What kinds of treatments would be given during a home health care visit?
 A. Part-time or intermittent nursing services, physical, occupational and speech therapy, and other related home health services furnished by visiting nurse agencies, hospital-based home health programs, and similar agencies. The services might be provided by a registered nurse, a physical therapist, or a home health aide, who performs much the same services as a nurse's aide in a hospital, such as giving bed baths to ill and bedfast patients.

The Good Earth

I hope this dry weather does not keep any one from planting trees and shrubs. Nurseries are full of rose bushes, pear, peach, plum and apricot trees as well as many other trees and shrubs just crying for a home.
 Careful planning will help save trees and shrubs once they are purchased. Prepare the hole in advance so that the plant will not be exposed to dry winter winds any longer than is necessary.
 Some kind of mulch should be rounded up before the plant is purchased. Dry grass clippings, hay or most garden waste that is free from disease can be used. Choose a warm, sunny day to set out trees and shrubs. Keep plants moist and protected until they are ready to go into the soil.
 A good method of planting is to leave a mound of dirt in the bottom of the hole so that roots can be spread in a natural position before the soil is replaced in the hole. Leave a depression around the plant to hold water. Gently agitate the tree or shrub so the water will drive out the air bubbles. Be sure to let the water run until you are sure it has reached every bit of the dry dirt. Air in the soil often causes loss of plants.
 Spread a two-inch layer of mulch over the watered surface. Mulch holds moisture and keeps the soil from freezing and heaving.
 Be sure to keep the ground thoroughly soaked about once a week for at least the first month.
 Haskell Garden Club had to postpone their Arbor Day planting at the depot grounds due to weather conditions, but as soon as is possible we want to begin work on this civic project.

Q. I will be 65 on March 30 and will retire at that time. I will earn $1200 between January 1 and March 30. When can I file my claim for social security?

A. Now is the best time. By filing at this time, your first retirement check should reach your home by early April. When you file your claim for monthly retirement benefits, we can also enroll you in the voluntary medical insurance part of medicare which will be effective with the month of March 1967, the month you reach age 65.

Q. I own a business where I work every day, and my annual profit is well over the $6600 maximum. I will be 65 in February. Should I file for social security even though I do not plan on retiring in 1967?

A. Yes. If you do not file by the end of May, you will not be eligible for the voluntary medical insurance part of medicare. You must file an application before the end of January if you want your medical insurance to begin in February.

Q. I will reach age 62 in July 1967 and plan on retiring then.

When should I contact the social security office?

A. You should contact us in April to discuss the best time for you to file your claim for monthly benefits. It would help us if you brought your W-2 forms for 1966, an estimate of your earnings between January 1, 1967, and April 1, 1967, proof of your age, and your social security card.

Q. I paid my doctor $137 for services after July 1 and before Dec. 31 and I want to file my first claim under the voluntary medical insurance part of medicare. What do I do?

A. Turn to page 29 of "Your Medicare Handbook," the large green book sent or given to you when you signed up for Medicare, and fill out the very simple form on that page. After you complete the three yes-and-no questions, briefly describe your illness or injury, enter your claim number, sign your name, and mail the claim to Medicare, Group Medical and Surgical Service, P. O. Box 22-147, Dallas, Texas 15222.

Q. Is the request for payment claim form I fill out to be reimbursed by Medicare for the bills from my doctor difficult to complete?

A. No. There are three yes-and-no questions, and a space asking you to briefly describe in your own language, the nature of your illness or injury. The Social Security Administration tried to make the procedure as simple as possible so that you could file your claim easily and quickly.

Q. I have lost the large green book which tells how to file a claim for reimbursement of the bills I paid my doctor. What will it cost to get another one?

A. Nothing. We are sending you another copy of "Your Medicare Handbook."

Q. I am a widow and will be 60 in March. When can I start getting social security benefits?

A. As the result of recent amendments to the Social Security Act, you may begin receiving reduced benefits when you reach age 60. You should check with your social security office now, and then decide if you want your checks to start.

Q. What do I need to do to

IT'S A FACT!

WINTER ILLNESS

During the winter illness season in Japan, people can often be seen in the streets and on buses and trains, wearing a gauze face mask, to prevent their inhaling infectious germs and viruses.

In 1949 an "influenza alert system" was begun by the World Health Organization with "watch stations" all over the world. Medical researchers identify new flu-causing viruses so that the right vaccine will be ready if an epidemic threatens.

Conscientious homemakers seek to control the incidence of germs in the home and help prevent the spread of infectious illnesses by cleaning with Lysol Liquid Disinfectant. In bathroom, kitchen, laundry, nursery and sickroom—it kills disease-spreading germs.

find out more on the age 60 benefits for widows?

TOPICS OF INTEREST WOMEN

"The Individual Learner Comes First" Theme of Haskell Elementary P.T.A.

Theme for the first meeting of the Haskell Elementary Parent-Teacher Association of the New Year was "The Individual Learner Comes First." The P.T.A. met January 18 in the Elementary Cafeteria at 3:00 p. m. Mrs. Joe Thigpen, president, presided, and welcomed guests and members.

The inspirational for the afternoon, "Guidelines for the New Year," was presented by the fifth and sixth grade youth of the First Methodist Church. The young people were under the direction of Mrs. Brooks Middleton, Mrs. Wilda Medford and Mrs. Bob Dulaney.

Minutes of the December meeting were read by Mrs. Wm. J. Kemp, secretary. Mrs. Ervin Frierson, treasurer, reported a balance of $836.05 in the treasury.

During the business meeting the P.T.A. voted to give the President the authority to appoint two special committees—Life Membership committee and the Project committee. Those selected to serve on the Life Membership committee are: Mr. Ed Hester, chairman; Mrs. Joe Warren and Mrs. Hess Hartford. Project committee chairman is Mr. Wallace Cox, Jr., assisted by Mr. Gerald McCoy, Mrs. Jimmy Browning and Mrs. Bob Colbert.

Mrs. Bailey Tolver, parent and teacher, directed the program for the afternoon entitled "Parents Are the Key." Mrs. Tolver stressed the fact that learning should be fun for parent, child and teacher. She noted that basic attitudes of children are formed from parents before they are school age. From the book "How to Help Your Child Succeed in Elementary School," by Dr. Marshall Jamison, Mrs. Tolver briefly outlined ways parents could help their children to be good students and good citizens.

The school nurse, Mrs. Inez Gholson, was introduced by Mrs. Tolver. Mrs. Gholson stated that her duties consisted of more than being just a "knee bandager," as the children of old thought. She gave an informative talk on the school health program of T. B. testing for first graders, vision and hearing tests for all students, the stressing of dental health and the checking of weight and height of each child three times yearly. She also helps find clothes for needy children and visits many of their homes.

Mrs. Thigpen closed the meeting with the announcement that the Feb. 15th meeting would be a "birthday party." Haskell's P.T.A. is the oldest organization in District 18. Our P.T.A. is 51 years old this year. The past presidents of the local unit will be honored at a "Founder's Day Tea" at the next meeting.

Room count was awarded to Mrs. Woodson's third grade room.

Hostesses for the afternoon were the third grade room mothers.

If you can't imagine how women lived before the invention of push-button home appliances, can you imagine the time and effort it took to be beautiful before the invention of home cream. Curlers are not included because this is one permanent that allows you "freedom of set." Rollers, rods or pin curls work equally well with Something Else to give you the exact style you want, and even the timing is personal and to your type of hair.

That something else is an entirely new home permanent kit called Something Else, and complete with a revolutionary naturalizer cream called Something New. Something Else is a step beyond traditional home permanents in that the naturalizer, massaged in before winding the curlers, beautifully conditions and prepares hair for pleasing, pretty results. The kit, which is available in drug and variety stores everywhere, comes equipped with waving lotion, neutralizer, end papers and the naturalizer

SS OFFICE CAN HELP IN FILING MEDICARE CLAIMS

Older people in the Abilene district are invited to have their medicare claims checked at the Abilene social security office before mailing, says R. R. Tuley Jr., district manager.

Tuley believes that most people will need this help only the first time they make a medical insurance claim. "The Medicare Handbook, given to all beneficiaries, shows how to make claims," he said; "the form is relatively simple, but most people can use some advice the first time. We're glad to offer aid, and believe we can help some people avoid a delay in payment."

The medicare claim may be made either by the patient or by the doctor. If the doctor applies, he bills the patient only for any part of the $50 deductible remaining to be paid and for 20 per cent of the bill over the $50 deductible.

Under the other method, the patient pays the bill and then sends the completed request for payment form to the medicare carrier. A statement from the doctor showing the treatment given and the charges already paid by the patient must be furnished either on the request for payment form or on a separate receipted bill. In Texas, medicare doctor bill insurance is handled by Blue Cross-Blue Shield in Dallas.

The same one-page request for payment form goes to the carrier no matter whether the payment is to go to the patient or to the doctor. Doctor's offices, accustomed to filling out insurance forms, should have no difficulty providing the few items of information requested, Tuley noted. But handling of forms received directly from medicare beneficiaries is sometimes delayed because some essential item of information has been omitted.

If the beneficiary omits his medicare identification number, or doesn't get adequately itemized receipts from the physicians, or fails to enclose the receipts, the medicare carrier has to write him back, thus delaying the payment.

"The social security office does not make the decision or pay the claim," Tuley said. "The law requires that the payments be handled through the selected carriers. But we can answer general questions about medicare and help people in this area get their applications ready for review by the carrier."

The Abilene social security office is located in the Post Office Building, the phone number is 682-2322. Representatives of that office make regular visits over the 15-county area. Each post office has a copy of the current schedule. See a representative at the place most convenient for you.

Funeral for Benjamin K. Kimbrough, 63, was held at 2:00 p. m. last Thursday in the First Baptist Church, with Troy Culpepper, pastor, and Rev. Hubert Segro, retired Baptist minister, officiating. Burial was in Willow Cemetery, under the direction of Holden Funeral Home.

Fullbearers were Glenn Alsbrook, Adell Thomas, T. R. Foster, Slover Bledsoe, Otis Matthews, and Buck Callaway.

Kimbrough was found fatally shot in the head here Tuesday of last week and Justice of the Peace Hubert Bledsoe ruled the fatal wound was self inflicted.

F. of Turlock, Calif.; two half brothers, Clinton and Joe, both of Haskell; two half sisters, Mrs. A. J. Senator David Ratliff On 14 Committees

Senator David Ratliff of Stamford has been assigned to 14 committees, the largest number of any state senator, by Lt. Gov. Preston Smith.

Ratliff, who represents Haskell county and a broad swath of West Texas counties, was named chairman of the committees, Oil and Gas and Labor and Management Relations.

He also was appointed to the Finance Committee, which handles appropriations for Abilene State School, and the State Affairs Committee, which likely will handle the controversial LBJ (liquor by the jugger) and horse race betting bills.

His other assignments were to the committees on Contingent Expense; Counties, Cities and Towns; Education; Game and Fish; Legislative, Congressional and Judicial; Privileges and Elections; Public Health; Rules; Transportation; and Water and Conservation.

FHA Texas State Director Receives High Award

I. J. Cappelman, State Director of the Farmers Home Administration in Texas, received one of the State Association of Young Farmers' highest appreciation awards recently at the 13th Annual Young Farmers Awards Banquet at Corpus Christi.

The Distinguished Service Award was presented to Mr. Cappelman in recognition of the assistance given by the Agency through many years of active support of the Young Farmers Education Program. The Farmers Home Administration has presented educational programs on Farm Management and Farm Financing to Young Farmer Chapters through out the state.

Over twenty (20%) of the more than 18,000 loans made by the Agency in Texas have been made to young farmers. Cappelman feels very strongly that the 4,247 loans the Agency has made to young farmers under 35 years of age, are the mainstay of Texas agriculture, and he intends to continue the Agency's efforts to assist young families to become established in farming.

ECONOMIST GIVES OUTLOOK FOR CATTLE DURING YEAR 1967

Total cattle numbers in the nation on January 1, 1967 were down an estimated one and a half to two percent from a year earlier, reports John G. McHaney, Texas A&M University Extension economist.

More important, he adds, from the price standpoint is that cow numbers are down and the results will be lessening in the productivity capacity of herds.

The 1966 calf crop in the nation was down almost 900,000 head from 1965 and a further reduction is likely in 1967, McHaney says.

Cattlemen, he notes, are generally more optimistic now about future prices and are beginning to take steps to expand numbers. This is indicated by reduced cow and calf slaughter in the last half of 1966 and is expected to continue in 1967, the economist says.

McHaney sees a smaller supply of feeder cattle in 1967 than in 1966, and this, coupled with a strong demand, is expected to give continuing strength to this phase of the industry. Feeder and stocker prices are expected to remain well above year earlier levels during the coming months due to interest in herd rebuilding and the strong demand by feeders.

The economist says strength in fed cattle prices this year likely will be reflected in higher feeder prices. He adds that feeders will have higher costs because feeder cattle and feed will be higher.

The improved dairy situation is expected to keep more dairy animals out of the slaughter houses; thus beef cattle prices will receive less competition from this source.

McHaney says marketing of fed cattle are expected to be smaller in 1967 than in 1966 but that marketings may be bunched at certain times during the year. He says the price outlook for fed cattle is generally favorable, especially for later in the year. He believes cattle feeders will try to operate at near capacity and that a larger proportion of all cattle will move through feedlots on their way to final marketing.

Membership In TSTA Booms Past 116,000

Membership in Texas State Teachers Association for 1967 has boomed past a mighty 116,000, TSTA Executive Secretary Charles H. Tennyson announced recently.

Last year's TSTA rolls numbered 102,500. Tennyson said final totals this year might reach 117,000 before the counting is over.

Tennyson said the big membership jump shows Texas educators are united in their desire to build the state's educational offerings into the "very best."

Tennyson said: "This new membership record shows Texas teachers want a strong professional organization. The states with strong and active professional associations are the states which make progress in their schools and colleges."

"It is not coincidence that California, whose schools are rated at the top, is the state with the largest professional education association," he said.

"Among the 50 state professional education associations in the U. S.," said Tennyson, "TSTA ranks second."

Tennyson said that 1942 has been the only year in TSTA's existence when membership records were not surpassed.

"Today, even when Texas is in the midst of the worst teacher shortage since 1942," he declared, "the teachers of this state are continuing to band together in the cause of better education."

VA Questions and Answers

Editor's Note: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q. I receive Dependency and Indemnity Compensation based upon my husband's grade at the time of his death in service. He earlier held a higher grade for eight months in World War II. Shouldn't my rate be based upon the higher grade?

A. Yes, this is provided by a new law effective Dec. 1, 1966. Information is not available to identify such cases as yours, so you should write the VA about this. It will not be automatic. New cases after Dec. 1, 1966, will be automatically adjusted.

Q. I receive $125 a month for training under the G. I. Bill. My wife and I expect our first child soon. What must I do to receive the $150 rate of training allowance?

A. Notify the VA as soon as the baby is born. The VA will need a copy of the birth certificate, but if there is to be any delay in getting this, send a notice of the birth to establish the effective date of your claim for increase.

Q. My son enrolled in college Sept. 14, 1966, taking 13 semester hours. He expected to re-close coordination with the Royal Thai Air Force.

As a volunteer, the sergeant assists the school staffs with the language training, with the children each day, two days each. Brown also teaches students songs and games to add to their learning. Most of the instructors have teaching experience and consider the goodwill a wonderful experience.

The sergeant, a Haskell High School graduate, is currently on duty at the European Theater of Operations during World War II.

His wife, Inez, is the mother of Mrs. H. H. 2, Hico, Texas.

Even the ash tray rides smoother in Chevrolets

When you're down at your dealer's trying out a new Chevrolet, be sure you pull out the ash tray. Notice how nice and easy it glides, never hanging up or even scraping. The reason is, it rides on ball bearings. Four shiny little ball bearings. (Take the tray all the way out and you'll see them.) You say you don't even smoke? Then look at it this way. That ash tray is a symbol of the way we make cars: Paying extra attention to the little things as well as the big ones, as a way of making extra sure your '67 Chevrolet gives you
