DON'T KILL IT

The move to kill the OPA may be in your line of reasoning, but those who study the issue say it means inflation running rampant if not continued until the danger is passed. It must continue to serve to administer the price and rationing of food stuffs to keep inflation in check. Congress would place the responsibility in the hands of the Agricultural Department. OPA must be maintained in some way. There have been many blunders, much mismanagement, there is no doubt, but some good will come from control, and has come from it. We must not permit politics to decide, for this is a subject too big and too important to allow petty party jealousies to rule it. Voting any department down because of grudges, will not improve a bad situation in meat and sugar shortages. We must make improvements, adjustments, but we must not entirely eliminate the control.

Is Your Self-Respect Worth Anything

Are you willing to help win the war against Japan? Naturally you will say yes. There are two outstanding things those of us who are privileged to remain at home can do to aid our fighting forces. First, we can work to the limit of our strength and ability, without interruption; second, we can deny ourselves luxuries in order to buy the war bonds necessary to give our fighting men every ounce of equipment and food they need.

While millions of men are facing death and foregoing the pleasures of home and family life, every mother's son of us should put every dollar we can into the financing this war, so that by the sheer weight of the equipment we throw into it we will bring it to conclusion at the earliest possible moment, thereby saving the lives of countless loved ones.

After all, this is our war; our boys are the ones on the firing line; our homes are the ones being saved. How much would your life or property be worth if the Japanese army and navy had not been held at bay, and were not eventually demolished. Don't think that in buying war bonds you are in some manner doing someone else a favor; or; you are the one who is really favored by having an opportunity to buy them. Think what it means to the boys at the front to know that the necessary money is given willingly to back them up.

All war loans necessary to knock out the Japs must go over the top with a bang. American bullets and American money are the most discouraging things they can face today. Why should we hesitate about buying that extra bond when the boy with a rifle hits the beachheads without question, not knowing at what moment he may be blown to bits or blinded or crippled for life—and then we quibble about loaning $25 or $100 to buy more supplies for him. There is only one answer if you wish to keep your self-respect.

Burkburnett . . . History

As revealed by the files of the Star 17 years ago.

Wheat in this section is practically all harvested and sold. It was rushed to market from the machines, hence was sold early, and brought the top price of the season—$1.20 for No. 1. The same wheat at this writing would bring only $1.10, basis No. 1 Local growers, therefore, really got 10c more per bushel than northern growers and promised for the same grade of wheat.

Up until Wednesday the J. F. Kelley elevator had shipped out 44 cars, which ends the season with them with the exception of some little odds and ends. They purchased very little oats. The W. S. Duvall elevator reported having purchased around 73,000 bushels—40,000 bushels from local territory. Their oats purchases will not exceed a thousand bushels.

Two Burkburnett young ladies, Misses Madge Smith and Leatrice Southerland were injured to an unknown extent when a Ford coupe with rumber seat in which three girls and three young men from Burkburnett were riding, turned turtle on the Burk-Wichita pavement four miles out of Wichita Falls, about 7:30 Thursday night. Other occupants of the car were Miss Oleta Mounts, Mr. Fred Fewin of the Skelly gasoline plant, owner of the car, E. F. Raines, and another young man whose name we were unable to learn. The latter four escaped serious injury, according to a telephone message from City Manager W. A. Roberts, who witnessed the accident and carried the badly injured girls to the General Hospital. The extent of their injuries had not been determined when Mr. Roberts called the Star.

Mrs. J. M. F. Gill will leave Friday for a weekend visit with Dr. Gill in Abilene, returning to Burkburnett Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. August Lohofener, Mrs. Alvin Lohofener and children and Miss Henrietta Heins left Wednesday for a ten days' visit in Oberlin, Kansas, among relatives and old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cropper and family are spending their vacation in the Panhandle this week.

Mrs. W. R. Hill and niece, Miss Myrtle Bolander, of Winniewood, Okla., and Mrs. R. H. Maloneu left Tuesday for Munday, Texas, where they will make a vacation visit.

Among the recent improvements in the city is that of the Burkburnett Dry Goods Company. They have remodeled their women's and children's shoe department, and have made it very attractive and convenient.

Booby Trap

In public speeches, in published articles and in this column since early January, 1944, I have been calling attention to the "booby trap" in America's wartime tax laws. Now, as our fighting men press harder upon Berlin, the industries that support them are drawn closer to the trap. Most war contracts will be voided on V-Day but taxes and payrolls must still be met.

Corporations pay income tax each year on the previous year's earnings, just as personal income taxes were paid prior to 1944. In 1946, firms will be taxed on 1945's earnings. But if war ends (terminating war contracts) this year, 1946 will be the year of change-back, of costly sales and few. Problem: How to hire more men and pay 1945's taxes with small earnings or none?

Apple-Polishing?

Any time a voice is raised in the interest of American business, any time a writer suggests that corporation tax laws need revision, somebody accuses him of apple-polishing or grinding the axe of big business. But right is still right. Prosperity in America depends on full employment; full employment depends on business expansion, and business expansion depends on wise tax provisions.

Firms that have used their war-year profits expanding production for victory are not to be blamed. They are solvent. They will have adequate working capital due them under the present law after their Refund Bonds are cashable and after their Carry-back credits on excess profits taxes are allowed. But when will this be? As the law is written now, years will pass before the money comes.

Keep Jobs Alive

After a man has starved to death, food does him no good. Neither will money due a firm help its employees after bankruptcy. What war-production firms need is money when they need it; to hire men, to buy machinery for peacetime work, to save useful enterprises and avoid wholesale unemployment in their communities. Laborers and farmers and small-town merchants have the most at stake.

William L. Hutcheson, president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters & Joiners, surely was looking through the lenses of Labor when he wrote Robert L. Doughton, chairman of the Ways & Means Committee of the House of Representatives, urging the passage of amendments to make Refund Bonds and Carry-back funds promptly available to industry at plant re-conversion time.

Labor Leader Says

"Analysis of a large number of companies shows that . . . they have had to use their tax reserves for current operations, so that when war ends they . . . can not reconvert to peacetime operations and employment of men. . . . We strongly urge that these provisions be amended in a manner which your Committee believes will make refunds available immediately at the time war production of these companies has stopped."

Mr. Hutcheson's letter reached Mr. Doughton's desk only shortly ahead of one like it from William Green, president of A. F. of L. Are these labor leaders apple-polishers? No! They are far-sighted thinkers serving the interests of working men, and they know how. They are not recommending boodle for business men. They are intelligently promoting postwar jobs and prosperity for the United States.

the TEXAN'S SHARE in the WAR

General Ike Eisenhower, conqueror of the Nazis, brought back to America the thanks of all service men for the services they receive from the National War Fund, as result of public gifts.

In one of his first public appearances, the Allied commander declared:

"But this connection of yours with the battle line is no impersonal thing. Your quotas on the battle line prevent any such idea creeping into our thinking. And you can do more than merely your share in producing the arms and equipment to save American lives. There is a spiritual side to the soldier's life that is often starved. I mean his opportunities for recreation, for feeling close to his home folks. One of the ways that can be helped is through the entertainment sponsored by the USO. It is something that deserves your support just exactly as does the Red Cross. They have done magnificent work and sent great artists to the field that have made the soldier feel he was back on Broadway almost.

With your energy sustained at the full, our soldiers fighting in the Pacific, and by soldiers I mean all fighting services, not merely land armies, the victory in Japan is certain."

USO and other National War

Fund agencies are supported entirely through contributions to local county and community war chest organizations throughout the nation. And now, from General Eisenhower, himself, the generous donors who help make up Texas annual contribution of almost $5,000,000 have proof that the funds they provide are definitely helping win the war.

Stage Comedy

American Red Cross workers in cooperation with those in charge of the reconditioning program in an Army hospital have organized a Patient Theatre Group which recently presented the three-act comedy, "George Washington Slept Here." The play, presented to patients of the hospital, was a cooperative undertaking. Invitations, programs and posters announcing the show were all executed by the patients in the neuropsychiatric and occupational therapy shops. Most of the performers were patients in the neuropsychiatric ward who ar-

China

Quashing Hirohito's dream of great empire will not finish the United States' job in the Orient. Chinese, 450 million of them, already are holding out imploring hands toward America. Most of them don't know what they need but this fact only tightens our obligation because we do know what's good for them. They need slow, regular feedings of the diet on which America grew strong.

On a diet of Christianity, encouragement for initiative, free enterprise and protection for investments, America grew in 150 years from 13 rustic colonies to be the world's most powerful nation. China has had none of it. Since the year One China has had everything but a chance, so it had nothing. Fertile soil, timber, iron, coal, oil and manpower, China has had. But China stayed poor.

China Wants a Chance
Far-sighted leaders in China are frankly bidding for capital investments from other countries when the war is over. It is America's invitation; no other big country will have capital at the end of the war. Will China be a good place for Americans to invest money in the postwar years? Will it be a good frontier for adventurous young Americans to enter as industrial pioneers?

Both these questions have the same answer. China offers opportunity only if investments will be safe there after the war. Less than ten years ago when I lived there nobody, except in a few favored spots, dared own a paying business. If local warlords didn't confiscate such enterprises, bandits would plunder them. Chiang Kai-shek will remedy this, I trust, if he can enjoy united cooperation from his present allies.

Business Not Safe
In order to make profitable business safe in China, it will be necessary to have a strong, representative government. Government must be able to crush the rule of countless local warlords at home and command the respect and recognition of other first-rate world powers. Investment of capital there depends upon the creation of a set of conditions that do not now exist.

Developments that might take place in China in 25 years of private enterprise are staggering to think about. China's population is three times ours. China has one billion dollars invested in industry, we have 130 billion. America's capital investment is $600 per person; China's is $2.50. Chinese still farm with hoes while their soldiers fight with American-made guns.

Selfishness Kills
Some short-sighted person is almost certain to ask: "Why should we help industrialize China, teach them how to build wealth and beat us at our own game?" The idea is silly. We will prosper with China. Prosperous customers always help. For instance, there are 130 million people in the lands south of El Paso; less than a tenth as many live in industrialized Canada. But Canada buys approximately as much from us.

China needs 25,000 locomotives, 20 million tractors and other items in proportion. China also has valuable things to trade for America's goods. It would take 100 billion dollars or more to make her competitive with the United States industrially, but nine billion would bring her up to about our horse-and-buggy days. After that she could finance herself. If we can help Chiang Kai-shek to stabilize China politically there is little doubt the cash would be available.

Keep on Growing in '45!

The war is not yet won on the food front! There is real need that men, women and children all over the country again take up the rake and hoe to help produce the nation's vegetable supply. Uncle Sam is asking for 20,000,000 better gardens this coming season.

How to improve on last year's results? Careful preparation of the soil comes first. Every time a garden plot is properly spaded or plowed to the right depth, and the top soil raked fine and loose, the general condition is made more favorable for plant growth. A too-stiff soil can be made more workable by the addition of sand or peat moss. A complete fertilizer in the proper quantity, no matter what the kind of soil, will replace in your garden the plant food used by last year's crops.

You can plan a better balanced garden than ever before. If the family is tired of "beans, beans, beans" cut down the number of rows; plant more of some vegetable they can't get enough of. If, last year, all the radishes were ready for the table at the same time so that many of them grew old and pithy before they could be eaten, try sowing a short row at a time, with a week between plantings. Do the same with beets and carrots, greens and sweet corn. By a little preliminary planning, you can become a master hand at progressive gardening.

If you planted an unsatisfactory variety of a certain vegetable, look for one better suited to your garden conditions. Ask your seed dealer to suggest varieties best for home gardens in your locality. Plan to cultivate more often than last year, not only to keep down weeds but to conserve soil moisture, especially in hot dry weather. It's a smart idea to have insect spray or dust on hand early in the season to smash the pests before they take over and destroy precious plants. Be sure to thin all seedlings so that they have plenty of room to grow; root crops are especially important. If artificial watering is needed during a dry spell, soak the soil for at least a foot down about once a week instead of sprinkling every day.

A Victory Garden is only as good as its vegetables when used in their prime. Gather them for the table, for canning, for quick freezing, or for storing when they have reached the stage of proper size, greatest tenderness, and most delicious flavor.

Serving with the First Tactical Air Force Marauder Bomber Group in France, Flight Officer Fred R. McPherson of Burkburnett, Texas, recently saw "The Boomerangs" fly their 500th mission in a series of six major campaigns which has seen the Marauders' target move from Africa to Germany.

In continuous combat operations for 23 months, The Boomerangs have destroyed 267 enemy planes, more than any other Marauder group, and have dropped more than 15,000 tons of bombs on enemy targets. Hundreds of air assaults against enemy lines of communications in Africa, Sicily, Italy, and Germany, combined with joint air-ground operations at Salerno, Cassino, Anzio, the Gothic Line and the Siegfried Line have earned the Marauder men a reputation for exceptional precision bombing. Cited by the War Department as a Distinguished Unit, they have also been awarded the Croix de Guerre by General De Gaulle and the French Government for outstanding combat achievements.

A bombardier navigator, Flight Officer McPherson has been overseas since February, 1945, flying combat missions over Germany. A stock clerk before entering the army in June, 1943, he has two brothers, Cpl. Jessie T. McPherson and Second class Tommie W. McPherson, both overseas in the south Pacific.

A/S John Olinder Golden has just completed his basic flying training at the Merced Army Air Field, California. He will now proceed to an Army advance flying school, where he will take the final steps toward attainment of his silver pilot wings. He is the son of Mrs. Hattie M. Golden Rt. 1, Burkburnett, Texas.

Dish Washing
INDIA—In a country where dime stores are unheard of and hardware shops a fond memory, American Red Cross Workers have to rely on ingenuity alone to provide commonplace necessities for their club kitchens.

At a Superfortress base, Red Cross workers hit upon a happy solution to their dish sterilizing problem. Perforating the sides and bottom of lard cans, they built racks inside to hold dishes, attached wire handles, and produced serviceable dish rinsers to assure sanitary cleaning of dishes used in the canteen.

Grace Lutheran Church

The importance of church attendance and hearing of God's Word cannot be over-estimated. God has revealed himself in His Word. And the farther men get from this Word, the easier they are enslaved to evil things.

True Christian people are they who accept and follow God's word. They are the salt of the earth and the light of the world. Be sure that your faith rests upon the granite of God's Word and not upon the quicksand of human opinion.

America's greatest need in this hour is the acceptance of God's Word for light and guidance.

Go to church next Sunday. You are cordially invited to attend the services announced herewith.

Requirements Reduced For U. S. Maritime Service

Lt. (Jg.) A. F. Thomson, Regional Enrolling Officer for the 10th Area of the United States Maritime Service was notified today by the Medical Section of National Headquarters that the physical standards for apprentice seamen enrollments has been modified to permit the enrollment of men with a minimum weight of one hundred and twenty (120) pounds. Formerly the minimum weight was one hundred and thirty (130) pounds.

Lt. Thomson pointed out that this modification was made in view of the urgent need for men at this time. He hopes that this modification of physical requirements will aid materially in the efforts to meet the recruiting quota of two hundred (200) men per week which has been assigned this area.

Eligible men, 17 to 50, who can meet the revised physical requirements should apply immediately to the United States Maritime Service Enrolling Office in Houston, Dallas, Galveston or Port Arthur, Texas.

Gratitude

The average American's most vivid impression of the Orient was acquired in less than an hour and came to him free with a bowl of chicken chow-mein. This is no discredit to the average American. He can't help it if Asia is mysterious. It is only an accident that we know a great deal more about Europe. Our ancestors came from that way, so we heard about it.

It is high time now, however, for every soul in the United States, who loves his happy home and peaceful surroundings, to learn more of the character of our straw-colored allies beyond the Pacific. We owe our national safety to them. If it were not for their native integrity we would be held in a nut-cracker between Germany and Japan at this hour, if we were yet able to fight at all.

We Admire Britain
Americans are a tender-hearted folk. We sympathize with other peoples and half-way try to understand them, but we don't usually admire them very much. We felt sorry for the Poles when the Nazi took them in 18 days. Our hearts went out to the Norwegians because they didn't last three weeks. We wept with our British relatives over Dunkirk, but we did more. We admired the British.

Late in 1937 the city of Nanking, China, fell to the Japanese. Far away over the sea strategists thought that was about the end. If China had folded up the next day few people would have blamed her. We Americans would have turned the spigot in our sympathy tank again and drawn out a generous sprinkling of tears for dear old China, and then tried to forget it. But forgetting it would have been impossible.

Must Admire China
If China had fallen in 1937, four years before the Pearl Harbor raid, any child can guess why we Americans would still be remembering it. But China did not fall. It would not be amiss for devout people to give thanks at the table three times a day that China did not fall. If China had fallen Japan could have knifed Russia on the unguarded side, right through Manchuria; surely would have done so.

Back in those early months of the present war when the Germans were all but knocking at the doors of Moscow, our big old globe, as now arranged, was coming unglued. If Japan could have drawn close enough to attack Russia from behind, the Germans would have marched into Moscow. Then, with no Russia to annoy him, Hitler would have parched London to a cinder.

Thanks to China

China stayed in and fought, so London remains. China stood the gaff, so we still have San Francisco. China could take privation and punishment; her share and ours too. As a consequence no bomb has struck an American city. Moreover, China's young men have made their fight as nearly bare-fisted as any army taking part in this war on either side, large or small.

In recent weeks there have been frequent criticisms of China; of Chinese fortitude, of China's disunity, of Chiang Kai-Shek's generalship. Let me close with this admonition: Criticism of China in America today, true or false, has one purpose and one only. It is to break up unity among our allies. Our enemies can hope to survive by no other means. Don't listen to it.

Grace Women's Missionary Society

The Women's Missionary Society of Grace Lutheran Church had an interesting and enjoyable meeting last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Heins.

The meeting was opened with the singing of "Take My Life and Let It Be Consecrated Unto Thee" and with prayer led by the chairman, Mrs. Earl Rinefeldt.

In the business session the group discussed and suggested having an outdoor church picnic, with a morning service conducted on the grounds, followed by a luncheon and social hour.

Another interesting drill in parliamentary rules was conducted by Miss Clara Schulz. Mrs. Nellie Schroeder led the topic discussion on "My Place as Mother." The various points stressed by the speaker were discussed in enlivened manner by the group.

Following the close of the meeting, delicious refreshments were served to the following members and guests:

Mesdames Earl Rinefeldt, Louise Lohofener, Loy Nichols, Miss Clara Schulz, Sam Koenig, John Enderli, Clarence Schroeder, George Schroeder, Louise Schreiber, Paul Schroeder, Harlin Mills, Martin Ramming, Arthur Ramming, Augusta Ramming, Pearl Heins, the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Kaiser, and the hostess, Mrs. John Heins.

The next meeting is scheduled to be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Kaiser.

Milk Best Food If Kept Clean

Milk is an infant's natural food; nevertheless, milk plus heat, dirt, and flies has killed many thousands of babies. The intestinal diseases that attack babies in summer are, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, largely caused by germs carried in milk and water. Unclean or contaminated water can be as harmful in causing infant diarrhea as contaminated milk.

Thousands of babies grow and keep well in Texas every year because they are given the right kind of care and the proper attention is given to the preparation of their food. The right kind of care includes keeping in close touch with the baby's doctor at all times; a regular daily schedule for sleeping, feeding, and bathing; sufficient time in the outdoor air; and carefully supervised exposure to sunshine—all these precautions can be important factors in keeping the baby well at all seasons of the year. In addition to benefiting the baby this type of routine allows the mother more time for her household duties and much needed rest periods.

The baby should wear a minimum of clothing and should be handled as little as possible. Dr. Cox said, flat comfortable bed for the baby with no pillow and with plenty of fresh air will help him to sleep and rest.

The State Health Officer emphasized the importance of keeping the baby constantly protected from flies, mosquitoes and other insects which may transmit diseases. Dr. Cox said that pamphlets outlining the proper care of the baby may be had free upon request to local health departments and the State Health Department.

4-H Cooks to Use Home Grown Foods To Limit In Meals

Legions of 4-H girl cooks throughout the nation will have the 1945 wartime objective of making the greatest possible use of home-produced foods in preparing and serving wholesome, balanced meals to their families.

This is reflected in the enrollment of roundly 170,000 club members in the current Servel 4-H Food Preparation Activity, in which they will also acquire knowledge of nutritional needs of various age groups, as well as in the wise selection of purchased foods through a study of costs and rationing.

Some idea of the participants' may be gained from the estimate that during the war years of 1942-45 the 4-H cooks prepared 40 million family meals, in addition to innumerable special dishes and school lunches.

Harold Brower, pastor of the Central Christian Church, left Sunday night for a three weeks vacation. E. A. Holt, Assistant pastor of the First Christian Church, Wichita Falls will conduct the morning service during his absence. We invite anyone to worship with us who have no church home.

problem of our times, and yet the very hope of our Nation. Every new boy is evidence that God is not yet discouraged by man. Were it not for our boys, a thousand picture shows would go bankrupt. Boys are useful in running errands. A boy can easily do the family errands with the aid of five or six adults. The zest and enthusiasm with which a boy does an errand is equalled only by the speed of a turtle on a July day. The boy is a natural spectator. He watches parades, fires, fights, ball games, automobiles, boats, and airplanes with equal fervor, but not the clock. The man who invents a clock that will stand on its head and sing a song when it strikes will win the undying gratitude of millions of families whose boys are forever coming home to dinner about supper time.

Boys faithfully imitate their dads in spite of all efforts to teach them good manners. A boy, if not washed too often and if kept in a cool, quiet place after each accident, will survive broken bones, hornets, swimming holes, fights and nine helpings of pie.

Household Hints

After washing blankets rinse them in water in which a block of camphor has been dissolved. They can then be stored without fear of attack by moths.

Old-fashioned iron skillets are better for frying and braising than bright, light-weight frying pans. They hold the heat better and cook more evenly.

Nail polish remover is very effective in removing the marks left after adhesive tape has been pulled from the skin.

By adding a pinch of salt to the white of an egg it will beat to a stiff froth more quickly.

If you wish to make an extra hole in a strap and haven't the necessary belt punch, drill the hole with brace and drill.

If you do not have time to arrange garden flowers the minute they are cut, place them in a bucket of water and let them remain there until you are ready to arrange them in their vases or bowls.

A stiff steel brush will remove hardened earth from hoes, rakes and spades. This, followed with steel wool and a final wiping with an oily rag, will usually keep garden tools from rusting.

Do You Belch Up Gas-Sour Risings After A Good Meal

Sufferers who have to pay the penalty of stomach distress, indigestion, gas pains, heartburns, burning sensation, and other symptomatic conditions caused by excess acid, should try this: In half a glass of real hot water stir up a teaspoonful of Neutracid and drink slowly right after meals. Before coming to the states Eaton held a full colonels position for a month servicing 150 B-29's for the big move from India to the Marianas in the Pacific.
