Beloved Burkburnett Character Claimed By Death December Twenty-Eighth

Riley Patterson, 37 years of age, known and loved by all Burkburnett, passed away quietly at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson on East 4th Street, early Friday morning, December 28th.

He was born September 26, 1908, on a farm between Devol and Grandfield, Oklahoma. His schooling was at Devol, where he finished grade school and was graduated from the High school in 1925.

When he was ten years of age Riley suffered an attack of flu, scarlet fever and measles in succession, which left his lower limbs partially paralyzed. In the years to follow his handicap gradually grew worse and at the time of his death he was slowly losing control of his hands. Everything physically possible was done for him to restore him to normal health, but specialists everywhere were baffled at the cause of his affliction and were never able to effect a cure.

People will remember Riley for his cheerfulness and ready wit. Despite his handicap he always had a smile and cheerful remark for everyone who came his way.

Every day that the weather permitted, Riley was down town in his wheel chair spreading sunshine among his friends.

Riley was a very ardent sports fan. Although he was not permitted to enter the contests himself, he was always present at all the foot ball games, to lend his lusty cheers for the home town team.

At one time Riley coached soft ball teams, both boys and girls, and produced some championship teams.

For a few years Riley had a school supplies store down town, but as his affliction grew worse he was confined to his wheel chair all the time.

For the past 5 or 6 years he carried a stock of magazines, candy, and other supplies on his wheel chair for his friends down town. Throughout the war Riley bought bonds

Kiddies Xmas Party At Palace Theatre Swamped Santa

The kiddies Christmas party, sponsored each year by the Palace Theatre and Burkburnett Star, broke all records for attendance Christmas Eve morning when more than seven hundred children gathered at the Palace Theatre for a visit with Santa and to see the pictures on the screen shown for their pleasure.

Old Santa was there but he had expected only about 400 children and brought gifts for that many. He asks that we express his regrets that some of the children did not receive a gift at the theatre, but that he tried to make it up when he visited them in their homes that night. His sled wouldn't carry the gifts so he got the fire truck to deliver them at the show.

Judging by the number to attend and the enthusiasm shown by the children, this was the biggest party to date.

Her Highness is Fast Action Hit

Action, laughs and romance are deftly blended in the new M-G-M picture, "Her Highness and the Bellboy" which stars Hedy LaMarr, Robert Walker and June Allyson on the Palace screen Sunday and Monday.

Highlighting the production are the romantic interludes between Walker and Miss Allyson. Walker's education as an attendant to the princess, and an imaginative "dream ballet," in which Walker and Miss Allyson are Prince and Princess and "Rags" Ragland enacts the most comical King you've ever seen.

County Has Huge Job Ahead On Home Repair

More than $2,572,000 is expected to be spent during the next five years by Wichita Co. home owners on remodeling and repair work.

The year 1943 promises to inaugurate one of the greatest eras in American history for home repairs and modernization, according to estimates released by the Tile Council of America. "Few developments will contribute more to employment and general prosperity in any community," according to R. E. Jordan, chairman of the Council's Residential Construction Committee.

Because of lack of materials and manpower during the war, majority of the county's 20,577 dwelling units are in need of some kind of repair or remodeling work. Kitchen improvements and modernization of bathrooms, installation of tiled showers and in some homes addition of a second bath top the nation's list of most major improvements, Jordan said.

Outside paint jobs are needed on more than 50 per cent of homes and addition of rooms and construction of porches also rank high in remodeling plans, according to the report. New roofing and heating plants are required by many dwellings.

Home owners in Texas will spend an estimated $226,215,000 and those of the nation more than $5,000,000,000 for major repairs in the next five years, according to Jordan. Ample funds, at low interest charges, are available for such work through commercial banks savings banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions and mutual savings banks, he pointed out.

Roberts & Roberts New Establishment In Burkburnett

The property on the corner of 2nd street and Avenue D has been purchased by J. O. Roberts and sons and put in condition to house their machine shop and blacksmithing equipment.

The Roberts have lived in and around Burkburnett for the past 18 years. The sons are Billy Roberts, machinist and industrial engineer, with 13 months overseas service with the army. He received more awards and recognition for making time saving devices for the army than any other man in the Southwest. One of his accomplishments was building a machine for grinding airplane brake drums which saved several hours for each wheel. In all he has had 13 years experience in this type of work.

Norman Roberts is the other son. He is a general mechanic and served 24 months overseas. Both boys are graduates of Fairview School.

Equipment already installed will handle both light and heavy work. It includes large and small lathes, drill presses, grinding machines, power hammer, disc roller, pipe threader and arc and acetylene welding. All equipment is new and could be obtained. Other additions will be made as it is put on the market.

This concern is set up to manufacture new equipment, both farm and otherwise. They say no job is too small to get their attention, and any large job they can handle will have careful consideration.

A specialty will be developing and manufacturing ideas of their clients. That's where Billy shines. He has a number of inventions to his credit and will work with anyone who has an idea to be developed. Full protection is given if the idea works.

In the near future they hope to install cement blocks manufacturing equipment.

Friends are invited to visit this new concern and get estimates on any type work. The phone No. is 106.

Lions Club

With almost a full attendance back after the holidays, members of the Lions club met Tuesday at Town Hall for their regular meeting.

Lions Holman and Hatch had charge of the program. Lion Holman introduced Sheriff Pat Allen, who brought a very interesting talk of his experiences with our fighting boys and the confidence he gained after being in contact with them on the fighting fronts. Mr. Allen was in the service nearly four years.

The club unanimously voted to sponsor a blood donor program in cooperation with the Fire Department, which has done this work for many years. All Lions are to have their blood typed and a file kept so that in case of emergency blood will be available immediately.

Program committee for next week will be Lions Houser and Kelley.

The final waste paper pick-up will be held Friday afternoon, January 11th. Save all paper and have it out on the curb.

A BETTER NEW YEAR

It is possible for man to continue as a race only as long as he places hope in the future. He looks to a tomorrow and another day, a disposition for another try. The beginning is vividly expressed in the celebration of New Years. The customary figures of the old gentleman with his hour glass and sythe as time a-flying, with the bare babe ribboned in a numeral bearing banner as the symbol of tomorrow, denote the history of the past and the chance for a future. The idea of a New Year is heartening when viewed from the angle of a recent grim, tough year of sacrifice and sorrow. 1945 in its military cloak was occupied with stern matters. 1946 does not find us with all weighty problems solved, with the national slate clean. We are even now living in subdued thought as the home front scatters itself about in heated verbal combat over issues that affect its well-being. This is history, again. Our enemies are tried in foreign courts, their crimes against man named and judged. In a way, when we fail to keep the peace, we too have committed a crime against man. We may harshly judge ourselves in our court called conscience. Over there victors are attempting to harness disaster to a normal rig and at home we fight to keep down inflation and iron out strikes in labor. Drawn together in adversity we more up at the bit with the team in peacetime. Well, we are that the world enters January in no pacific manner. Last New Year's resolutions included a pledge to exert particular effort in understanding as well as reducing consumption of candy and cigarettes. We individually determined to reduce hips and waist-lines, do better with letter writing and book reading, but we included principles of decency with these other things, too. We incorporated fellowship and brotherly love in the list of yearly promises. Here we come to another crossing, where '45 and '46 offer us an excuse to celebrate. In Burkburnett hearts, the memory of the first will never die, it was so momentous. Nor will it in history. It follows that we will carry into the New Year some of the lessons learned in the old. Time does not end in one period of festivity and begin again. It grows into history and history is not bound into seasons. The wisdom of the old is handed down to the new and the past unites with the future, it merges rather than serves it connection from it. Let us profit by our mistakes, continue our benefactions, direct our efforts for a dignified, rhythmic growth, older and wiser and more hopeful.

Burkburnett . . . History

As revealed by the files of the Star 10 years ago.

The Manhattan department store of Burkburnett installed a new burglar alarm system this week that was pronounced by experts as the most perfect of its type that is available in America. The system was installed after a recent safe breaking at the store that caused the loss of $1,200.00. The robbery took place on Saturday night and after a heavy investigation campaign by the authorities no trace of the stolen money nor the burglars were found.

Homer Beaver and Raymond Beaver of Burkburnett have opened a Magnolia service station at Main street and Avenue B, the location formerly occupied by the Musick service station.

J. L. Patrick was injured Sunday night when his car was forced from the road near Nocona to avoid a head-on crash with an approaching automobile, and Tuesday was reported resting well in the hospital at Wichita Falls where he was carried after the accident.

The accident occurred when Patrick was returning to his home from Montague, near Nocona, to Burkburnett. As he topped a hill he met a car and swerved to avoid it but crashed into the ditch at the side of the road.

Earnest Dillon has accepted a position with the Palace Theatre.

Mac Turner of Wichita Falls spent Christmas Eve in Burkburnett visiting friends.

A PEOPLE OPPRESSED

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 1:8-14; 2:23-35. GOLDEN TEXT—And He said, Certainly I will be with thee.—Exodus 3:12.

God never forgets His people. We can be assured of that even though sometimes we must wait for His coming to bring us deliverance.

The history of Israel repeatedly demonstrates the faithfulness of God; hence the lessons of this next quarter concerning them will be a source of real blessing to all who need and seek God's help.

The family of Jacob—or, as the Bible calls them, the children of Israel—prospered in Egypt particularly as long as Joseph and the rulers who remembered him were alive. But they soon learned one of life's bitter lessons, namely, that:

1. Prosperity Is Not Always a Blessing (1:8-11).

The Hebrews were a peaceful, law-abiding people. They were God's chosen people, and as He blessed them they prospered, and thus innocently they brought upon themselves the hatred of the suspicious Egyptians.

Prosperity is never an unmixed blessing. We as a nation know that to be true. Not only does it lead to a certain softening of the sinews, but all too often it results in a weakening of the moral fiber, which makes man easy prey to the attack of the enemy of our souls.

We have just passed through a great war which has demonstrated to the world that in a time of crisis America can be strong, but now that it is over we are ready to fight one another to gain advantage. Many who have profited by war are not content to have less good in peacetime, and so the old delusion, the love of riches, is about to ruin many lives.

It should be said that the Egyptians had reason, humanly speaking, to fear this great nation which was growing up in their midst. The new rulers did not know Joseph and had forgotten the spirit in which he had brought his family into the land. The leaders of the Egyptians therefore made plans which appealed to their brilliant leaders as politic and wise. But they reckoned without God, and the burdens and the afflictions they placed on the Israelites only served to bring further blessing.

So Israel learned a lesson which our present sorry world can profit by that:

II. Persecution Is Not Always a Burden (v. 12-14).

The people of Israel did not appreciate it, but the bitterness of their bondage was a blessing in disguise.

1. It Kept Them Separate as a People. Affliction often serves to keep God's people separated from the world. It is doing so today.

2. It Disciplined Them and Prepared Them for the Hardships of Their Wilderness Journey. We, too, do well to remember that "whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth," and that if we are properly "exercised" thereby, our sorrows may yield rich fruit in our lives.

3. It Threw Them Back upon God. Many are the saints of God who have found that the fiery trial, the burden so hard to understand, or the affliction of body, has caused them to bring their burdens to the Lord. We have traveled far on the road of faith when we have reached a place where we learn that man's extremity is God's opportunity.

They had only one place to turn. They were hemmed in on every side. At last, as ever, they found that no man can close the way up. They called to their God.

III. Prayer Always Brings Deliverance (2:23-25).

Does God really know when His people suffer? Does He really care? Yes, He does. "They cried," and "God heard" and "remembered." That's all we need to know. The groaning of His people had already stirred God's gracious and tender heart. But He waited to hear their cry before He answered. Such is the way of prayer. May we not forget it. Far too often we turn to everyone and everything else, and finally, in desperation, to God. Why not turn to Him first?

Does God hear and answer prayer? Yes, but remember that real prayer is the cry of faith coming from the heart of an obedient child. God may answer other prayers, but He always answers the prayer of faith.

His answer may not be in accord with our opinion of what it should be. His wisdom is infinite. He knows better than we what the answer should be. Let us trust the Word of God. Let us trust the Word of God. Let us trust the Word of God.

A world thrown into unspeakable horror by the development of the atomic bomb is now recognizing that the only hope for the future is a spiritual revival. Many who scoffed at the idea of prayer to God are ready now to hear the witness of a church that really knows how to pray and to bring deliverance from the hand of God.

Kathleen Norris Says:

The Case of Two Wives

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

"Archie and I went on a trip as so many people did when gas rationing stopped, and we were quietly remarried in a distant town."

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

"IN ALL your long experience of answering problems," writes Hilma Johnson, of Salt Lake City, "I don't know that you've ever had quite this one before. I've done something wrong, somewhere along the line, but I don't know just where."

"I was married seven years ago to a man named Archie; we were both 23. Ours was a true love match, and it was a great grief to us both that no children were born to us. We were, I believe, unusually congenial and happy."

"When the war came, Archie was one of the first to go, with the engineers. I did not see him for three years. About a year after he left he wrote a desperate letter, telling me that he and a young Belgian girl, a nurse, had been lovers, and that she was expecting a child. He begged me for a divorce, and for the child's sake I agreed to it. I pretended a business trip to Elko, Nev., and quietly obtained it there."

"I closed the apartment, stored our furniture, and went back to live with my parents. I had gotten a good job, and had told no one, not even my mother, of the changed relationship between Archie and myself."

"Seven months ago Archie came back, a broken man. He looked years older, his hearing has been permanently—but slightly—injured, and to reinstate himself in his old job seemed to him more than he could do."

Resume Old Life.

"He turned to me, and as nobody suspected what had occurred, it was quite natural that he should be taken back into my life on the old terms; he had never been taken out of my heart. Everyone rejoiced with me, and nobody suspected the existence of the Belgian wife and baby. A few months ago my happy suspicions that I was to have a child were confirmed by our doctor, and I thought the secret of the divorce and marriage would be kept forever. Archie and I went on a trip, as so many people did when gas rationing stopped, and we were quietly remarried in a distant town."

"Now Marie, the Belgian wife, writes that she is going to come to America immediately after Christmas, that their divorce has never been valid in her eyes, and that she wishes once more to be his wife. Archie, for the sake of the boy, has been sending her money regularly, but when she left him it was with the statement that their marriage was not a real marriage, because of his divorce, and that before she returned to Belgium she would change even her name."

"This predicament finds us completely dazed, and we don't know what to do. My employers want me to continue with them as long as possible, and to return as soon after the baby comes as I can. Archie is already making himself valuable; we cannot tear up roots here, especially as my father has had a stroke, and I am needed to keep up my mother's spirits. What can we do?"

My dear Hilma, a divorce lawyer here tells me that Archie's Belgian-born wife has no claim on him except for support of the child, and I can tell you that when she mar-

STAND YOUR GROUND

A wife who apparently did the right thing all along finds herself in an unfortunate mess. Her husband, Archie, met a Belgian woman while he was serving abroad in the army. Eventually he wrote to Hilma, telling her that the Belgian woman was going to bear him a child, and that he wanted to marry her to protect her and the baby. He asked Hilma to obtain a divorce.

With much misgivings, Hilma did get a divorce, so quietly that none of her friends knew about it. Then Archie came back, tired and deafened. He slipped back into the old relationship with Hilma. A little later he got a divorce from his Belgian wife, and remarried Hilma, very quietly. No one knows about the complications and all would be well, excepting for the Belgian woman. She threatens to come to America, and wants Archie to become her husband again. She is receiving support money from Archie for herself and the baby.

Miss Norris advises Hilma to stand her ground. The Belgian woman can probably not get any satisfaction in American courts, if she should come. It is probable that all she wants is to be rid of the responsibility of the child.

ried a divorced man she knew that she was doing something that in her own mind was illegal, however, the actual law stands. It seems to me that safety for you and Archie lies in facing the music and not being afraid of the consequences. Trying to hide and pretend are the real things to fear.

Tell Her to Stay in Europe.

Have Archie write her, of course, that he entirely disapproves of her coming to America, and that there is no possibility of the restoration of conjugal rights, as the British law-courts put it. Let him tell her that if she remains where she is, her allowance will continue, but that if she comes to Salt Lake City she will have to fight through the courts for her claims and may—probably will, lose her suit and remain her of the conditions under which Archie and she asked you for a divorce.

If this fails and she comes, have no fear of publicizing this affair. Only concealment will make it interesting to the newspapers; to admit that it all occurred and is to be handled openly and honestly, will be to lose all value as news. It is possible that it is the child who is complicating matters; if her purpose is to get rid of that responsibility, then it might be a magnificent gesture on your part to offer to take this little half-brother of your own child, telling anyone interested that you have adopted a Belgian baby as a refugee. Say little, but avoid all the difficulties that secrecy engenders, and you'll find the thing will presently blow over and be forgotten.

Bright Clothes for Children

Grown-ups sometimes wear drab colors, but children like gaiety. Also there's a safety factor to consider—a child's bright clothes may give the first slow signal to a motorist, or, in rural sections, to a hunter. So, when the main part of an outfit must be of a dull, uninteresting fabric, try adding bright trim or accessories. Dress up a little girl's black or gray coat with a red collar or a plaid ascot tie. Or complete the picture with a red cap or mittens.

FINDING MEN FOR FEDERAL JOBS

WASHINGTON.—Few people realize it but President Truman spends a lot of time these days trying to persuade people to take important federal appointments.

An illustration was the tussle he had with astute 40-year-old Wilson Wyatt, mayor of Louisville, Ky., just appointed federal housing czar.

Wyatt was first offered just about every job in the book. Postmaster General Hannegan tried to get him to serve on the important civil aeronautics board, also to accept the job Jim McGranery wants to resign as assistant to the attorney general, one of the key spots in the justice department.

The civil aeronautics board job really tempted Wyatt, and he asked for a few days to think it over. Next day he got a phone call.

TRUMAN PLEADS. "This is the President calling," said a voice at the other end of the phone.

"Mr. President, I've been thinking," Wyatt said, "and I'm afraid I'm going to have to turn down that civil aeronautics job."

"That's swell," replied the President. "I have a more important job for you. Please come back here right away."

Next day, Wyatt appeared at the White House, where Truman told him about the tough job of coordinating housing.

"I consider this housing situation the most important problem confronting the country today," explained the President. "If we don't solve this one, we'll really be in trouble in a year and a half."

"But, Mr. President," said Wyatt. "I'm afraid I can't afford a federal job. I want to go back home and practice law. I need the money."

"I know you want to go back to your law practice," Truman said. "I know you want to make some money. But I don't like being President either. However, I feel I have to do it, so I'm doing it."

Then, staring at Wyatt sharply, he said, "How can I do a good job if fellows like you aren't willing to come up here and help me?"

This made a deep impression on Wyatt. Next day he called at the White House for five minutes. Walking into the executive office, he said, "Mr. President, I've come in to surrender."

Ordinarily it is the work of a cabinet officer to tender a man a job. But now Truman finds he has to phone men personally and beg them to work for the government. The other day, Truman who resents criticism of his numerous Missouri appointments, told one visitor:

"People complain about all these Jackson county (Kansas City) appointments. But whenever I try to appoint someone else, they are too busy making money. At least the Jackson county boys are willing to take the jobs."

NOTE—Actually most top federal appointees can get jobs paying twice as much outside the government. Wyatt received only $5,000 a year as mayor of Louisville, could be making $50,000 a year practicing law.

EISENHOWER'S FIRST SENATE SESSION.

Gen. Dwight Eisenhower went over big at his first meeting as chief of staff with members of the senate military affairs committee. It was an off-the-record affair, for which the senators went across the Potomac to Eisenhower's office in the Pentagon building for luncheon.

Sitting over coffee and French brandy which he had just brought back, Eisenhower spoke frankly about Soviet Russia and other matters, including co-operation with congress in running the army. Discussing his experiences as the chief U. S. representative on the Allied control commission in Germany he declared:

"If the American people had a chance to study the Russians at close range, and vice versa, I am certain there would be a fine mutual understanding and respect between the two peoples. I rubbed elbows with Marshal Zhukov and others and have a high regard for them. We enjoyed splendid co-operation. I was always able to get along with them."

"What most people don't realize is that the Russians are a good deal like us. They enjoy life like we Americans, are full of fun and have a fine sense of humor."

The general said he held no fears about future amicable relations between our own country and Soviet Russia. There will have to be some give-and-take in our relations, he said, but eventually things will work out well.

Regarding his own relations with congress, Eisenhower declared: "This is a people's army and I intend to run it like one, along democratic lines and in close accord with congress. I am especially anxious to get along with the military affairs committees of both houses."

Homecoming Party Honors Levi Garrett

After three years in service, 31 months of which was spent in the South Pacific, Levi Garrett returned home January 1. It being impossible for him to be home Christmas, the families of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thompson and Mrs. H. R. Garrett postponed their Christmas until New Years evening.

The home of Mrs. Garrett was the scene of the homecoming. Levi arrived home at 10:30 p. m. After a hearty welcome home by the two families, it being Levi's birthday, a lovely three-tiered white and pink birthday cake with 25 pink candles prepared by his sisters Mesdames Mills, Elliott, Miller, and Kemp was arranged on the lace covered dining table, flanked with white burning tapers, and red burning tapers was the background for the buffet.

Refreshments of cake, tea, and coffee were served with Mrs. Levi Garrett cutting and serving the cake.

After the refreshments were served, the group retired to the living room where the Christmas gifts were arranged under the beautifully decorated tree. After the gifts were opened, the group drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thompson for the opening of gifts there.

At a late hour all returned to their homes after giving Levi a hearty welcome home.

Refreshments at the home of Mrs. Garrett were served to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Thompson and Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mills, Horace and Earl Wayne, Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Edward "Skeets" Kemp, all of Burkburnett; Mrs. R. J. Elliott of Conroe, Texas; Mrs. V. C. For Distinguished Service to Victory and Peace

There should be a distinguished service medal for the thousands of wives and mothers who have helped to win the victory and are still contributing so mightily to the national welfare

—by planning their spending and their saving and operating their households on a budget plan;
—by wisely using their money to store up purchasing power for future use — houses, education, travel, old age security, etc.;

—by helping to prevent rising living costs through avoiding unnecessary expenditures;

—by using their War Bonds and their savings as a backlog of security, so that more goods can be purchased out of current income when they again become plentiful;

—by avoiding waste and cultivating habits of thrift.

Help the nation's efforts to keep your living costs DOWN, the buying power of your dollar UP.

This is a commitment to approval by the United States Treasury

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS Truman Pushes Unification of Armed Forces; U.S. Moves for Active Participation in UNO

Released by Western Newspaper Union. (EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Composed of war widows and children and men needed to care for their families in Japan, first batch of Nipponese repatriates are shown aboard small steamer leaving Shanghai. In all, some 300,000 Japanese, including troops, will be evacuated from the greater Shanghai area.

SERVICE MERGER: On Way

With President Truman throwing his full weight behind a merger of the fighting services, early congressional action on unification of the army, navy and air forces was foreseen. Meanwhile, rougher sailing loomed on the chief executive's proposal for compulsory military training for youths 18 to 20 years of age to build up an experienced reserve adequate to meet future emergencies.

In casting his lot for the merger of the armed forces after strenuous naval objections to unification, Mr. Truman called for a single department of national defense under a civilian head, with assistants for the various branches, and a military chief of staff, with commanders from the three services. The military leaders would join with the President in an advisory council. Maximum efficiency would result from unification, the President declared, because close co-ordination would acquaint each branch of the armed forces with the capabilities and limitations of the others, and economy would be achieved by eliminating a duplication of effort and supply.

FARM BUREAU: Discuss Parity

Despite imperfections in the present parity formula, American farmers were urged to retain the system by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson addressing the annual convention of the Farm Bureau in Chicago, Ill. Referring specifically to the government program for price support at 90 per cent of parity, Anderson said varying conditions for different crops might lead to promote maximum production. Even with milk at 109 per cent of parity at the 1910-14 base, output is below requirements, he said, while eggs at 90 per cent might lead to plentiful production.

Declaring that the parity formula should be based upon the 10 years preceding the present program rather than on the 1910-14 level, Edward A. O'Neal, farm bureau president, called for all agricultural groups to unite on an over-all plan rather than insist on a separate system for each commodity. Pointing up the need for additional rural health and education facilities, Senator Hill (Dem., Ala.) said that with millions of farm dollars ending up as profits in industrial districts after consumer purchases, only federal taxation and expenditures for social service could assure the return of some of the money back to agricultural areas for public purposes.

UNO: U. S. In

With house passage of enabling legislation, congress joined in making the U. S. a full-fledged member of the United Nations organization, conceived out of the welter of war to preserve future peace by co-operative action and prevent the destruction of modern civilization. Acting quickly on the enabling legislation, President Truman nominated the U. S. delegates to UNO, with ex-Secretary of State Edward Stettinius chosen as the representative on the all-powerful security council and senior member of the general assembly group including Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Sen. Tom Connally (Dem., Texas) and Sen. Arthur Vandenberg (Rep., Mich.). Under the legislation approved, the President can enter into negotiations with the other four members of the security council of UNO for provision of military forces to suppress aggression, with freedom to permit their use after congressional sanction of the arrangements. The President also will be able to join in the imposition of economic boycotts to bring a troublemaker into line.

LABOR: Talk Turkey

With early maneuverings for position jolted by President Truman's request for fact-finding anti-strike machinery to speed settlement of labor disputes, the CIO United Auto mobile Workers and major producers entered into discussions of principal issues, with Ford continuing to steal the show. With the UAW's Ford division having provided the first real break in the deadlock with agreement to penalize wildcat strikers hindering output, the company took one step closer toward agreement by proposing a 15-cent an hour wage increase. Despite Ford's alteration of the union's security plan and the UAW's rejection of the company's wage offer, the two propositions provided a meeting ground for a settlement somewhere between.

SHIP SINKING: Convict Skipper

Accused on a charge of inefficiency in the sinking of the cruiser Indianapolis in the Pacific last July with a loss of 880 lives, Capt. Charles B. McVay was found guilty of negligence in the operation of the ship, with sentence subject to review of the secretary of the navy. Clearance on the charge of inefficiency for not issuing timely orders to leave the vessel after it was struck by a torpedo followed McVay's testimony that he had at first believed the ship could be saved but then called for its abandonment when convinced of the real extent of damage. Shortly after, the Indianapolis capsized, taking a heavy toll of life. In being convicted on the negligence charge, McVay was accused of failing to order a zig-zag course during the trip from Guam to Leyte and thus divert the aiming of a U-boat. In defense, McVay contended that poor visibility and lack of moon that night governed his decision not to take on a diversionary course.

Stresses Need for Additional Knowledge of Nutrition

A drastic change in the diet may be harmful even when it adds beneficial food. Dr. C. A. Elvehjem, professor of biochemistry at the University of Wisconsin, asserted in calling for increased research into nutrition to permit wider knowledge of balanced consumption. For example, Dr. Elvehjem says, most workers in this field regard a high level of protein in the diet as desirable, but it has recently been discovered that a deficiency in vitamin B6, or pyridoxine, develops faster on high protein diets. A high level of fat may tend to reduce tooth decay, he continues, but it may also tend to reduce the necessary synthesis of vitamins in the intestinal tract.

TELEVISION: Charge Restriction

Accusing Scophony, Ltd., of Great Britain and Television Productions Inc. and General Precision Equipment Corporation of America of retarding development of television in the U. S. through a cartel agreement dividing markets between Europe and the western hemisphere, the government filed anti-trust charges in New York City. In stating that the companies had agreed to stay out of competing areas, the government declared that the American firms had obtained exclusive rights to an advanced television set controlled by Scophony, but had done nothing to either develop and exploit the apparatus here or promote its sale and use.

Employing an independent light along the principle of the motion picture projector, the British product is capable of transmitting images 20 by 24 inches on home sets, 3 by 4 feet on school and club sets and 12 by 15 feet on theater screens, the government said. In contrast, American sets are limited to reproductions of 4 by 6 inches and 6 by 8 inches. A news weekly recently reported that two of the eight saboteurs (who were landed by Nazi sub at Long Island and Florida) had tipped the FBI of the landings and that these two men were promised "a break" and didn't get it. . . . These two are named Dasch and Burger. . . . The military tribunal decided all eight be put to death, but J. Edgar Hoover told FDR that Dasch and Burger had helped considerably, and it was FDR who commuted their death sentences to 30 years for one and life for the other. . . . Dasch, it appears, is "almost a mental case," and Burger "still is helpful to our gov't as a witness against former enemies." . . . When the war is officially declared ended by Congress they'll prob'ly be deported to Germany.

JAPAN: Tells Secret

In guarded memoirs left after his suicide to prevent arrest as a war criminal, former Jap Premier Prince Konoye left some glimpses of the behind-the-scenes maneuvering that marked his country's diplomacy before the surprise attack on Pearl Harbor. One of the top disclosures was Konoye's report on the evolution of a peace plan covering the Far East after unofficial negotiations in which former Postmaster General Walker and Bishop Walsh of the Catholic Maryknoll missionaries figured with government knowledge. Sabotaged by Ultra-Nationalist Japanese officials, the plan called for Jap withdrawal from China, restriction of immigration thereto, and co-operation in the restoration of the open-door trade policy. In return, the U. S. was to recognize Manchuria.

In another revelation, Konoye reported Russia's tentative agreement to join the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo Axis in 1940 under inclusion of Iran and India in her sphere of influence. No concrete alliance developed, however, because of the failure of the Nazis and Reds to work out details, and the whole plan collapsed with Germany's drive to the East in 1941. The late Blaze, owned by the Elliott Roosevelts, continues to wield influence on air travel. Gen. Hap Arnold and his wife are flying to the Coast about New Year's when the General steps into a top job in non-military aviation. They hoped to take along (by plane) their cocker spaniel, but Mrs. Arnold was worried there'd be another newspaper controversy. She didn't worry long—every company on the West Coast offered to send a plane. . . . Ex-Cong. Maury Maverick, now in Japan, says: "Not enough news or broadcasts about the Pacific. Gen. MacArthur is the right man for holding down the Japs, and we are demobilizing in the U. S. A. too fast!"

Frontier Figure Dies

Death of Moman Pruitt, 73, in Oklahoma City, Okla., from pneumonia here his one-time eminence as a frontier attorney, with a record of acquittals for 303 accused slayers. Having studied the law in an attorney's office, where he was employed as a shoe shine boy and janitor, Pruitt, a colorful figure with long, black hair falling below his shoulders, was among the first to introduce emotion in court practice in the Southwest. On one occasion when the prosecution sneered at his plea of self-defense for a client accused of killing a man who threatened him with a pencil, "Old Moman" suddenly seized a jury by the collar—thrust a pencil at his breast and secured an admission that the pencil resembled a knife under the circumstances. After being convicted as a boy of a robbery—which he said he did not commit, Pruitt resolved to study law. Addressing the judge, he roared: "I'll turn murderers and thieves loose in your midst."

FARM CROPS: Year's Review

With a New Year ringing in, American farmers could look back on the old as marking the best in food grain production on record with an all-time wheat crop of 1,123,143,000 bushels featuring the harvest. At the same time, the department of agriculture reported that feed grains were the third largest on record, though corn fell off slightly to 3,018,410,000 bushels from the 1944 figure. As a result, huge quantities of feed will be available for fattening livestock and assuring the country of banner meat supplies through 1946. Along with wheat, new records were established for oats, tobacco, rice, popcorn, hops, peaches, pears, grapefruit, almonds and fresh truck crops, while near records were set for hay, soybeans, faxseed, potatoes, sugar cane, oranges, grapes and pecans. Despite the general banner production, the cotton harvest fell to its lowest figure since 1896, while apples, barley, rye, dry beans, buckwheat, sorghum silage and forage, sweet potatoes, sugar beets, apricots and sour cherries were also below average output. With a decrease of 4,000,000 acres from 1944, production of all crops in 1945 was only 1.5 per cent off. Output was 2 per cent below the peak of 1942.

LUFTWAFFE RECORDS:

A 250-ton documentary record of the German air force which will tell the American people more about the Luftwaffe than the Germans themselves know, has been housed at Wright Field, Ohio. In disclosing possession of the records, the army presumed possession of a detailed report on German research would save the government a great deal of time and money by eliminating duplication of experimentation in those fields in which the Germans had surpassed us. Broadwayites suspect the reason Rita Hayworth's marriage to Orson Welles curdled is that he stepped out of the shower one day and she forgot to shout: "Bravo!" . . . Ex-Ambassador Hurley would like the GOP presidential candidacy, but will settle for veep. . . . Hank Greenberg may get the Ford agency in N. Y. . . . Sec'y of the Navy Forrestal has assigned several smart intimates around the nation (one is Clendenin Ryan Jr.) to form civilian lobbies to fight the army's civilian plan.

Memos to the Editor:

The War Dept. phoned our Girl Friday regarding some unhappy letters from G.I.s in Europe. Gen. Eisenhower personally was contacted, said the caller, and "couldn't believe anyone would say or write it." . . . The letters, it appears, dealt with a "rumor" that this column allegedly published—but we never said it or broadcast it or wrote it or anything! . . . The grievance was over a report that G.I.s in the European zone "with 70 points or more" couldn't come home to the U. S. because they had criminal records or v.d. . . . Drew Pearson finally revealed that it originated in London recently over the British Broadcasting System. . . . We have since been told that Gen. Eisenhower is so informing all concerned among our troops abroad.

The late Blaze, owned by the Elliott Roosevelts, continues to wield influence on air travel. Gen. Hap Arnold and his wife are flying to the Coast about New Year's when the General steps into a top job in non-military aviation. They hoped to take along (by plane) their cocker spaniel, but Mrs. Arnold was worried there'd be another newspaper controversy. She didn't worry long—every company on the West Coast offered to send a plane. . . . Ex-Cong. Maury Maverick, now in Japan, says: "Not enough news or broadcasts about the Pacific. Gen. MacArthur is the right man for holding down the Japs, and we are demobilizing in the U. S. A. too fast!"

President Truman stepped in and prevented the budget director from shaving FBI appropriations. Truman is giving the G-Men the same support they got from Roosevelt. . . . Our recent fact that J. Edgar Hoover (after 24 years' service to the U. S.) is broke, brought him several offers from big firms to take executive posts at fancy wages, but he is staying in Washington indefinitely. . . . His former special agent in charge of the Detroit office (John Bugas), who resigned to become Henry Ford's public relations chief, is said to be getting $65,000 per annum. Another report is $50,000. . . . Mr. Hoover gets $10,000. . . . At one time he got $9,000 while the Dept. of Justice press agent got 10 Gs. . . . Incidentally, the various reports on LaGuardia's salary as a commentator are said to be exaggerated. . . . The report that "$100,000 is low" does not jell with what insiders claim—that it is $50,000.

WICK CHATS

WELL BRED CHICKS NEXT SPRING

Good brood of baby chicks mean potential money making for the future. With good management, chicks of breeding will bring in a good income in a few months. It's why poultry raising is an important industry it is today. It is a two billion dollar industry. It is a source of income more people than any other cultural enterprise. Income from poultry is of importance to every poultry raiser from the big, specialized poultry farm, to the farm poultry raiser and the back-lot poultry keeper who has a small flock to supply eggs and meat for home use.

Good Breeding—Good Care
Good breeding in the baby chicks you start next spring and good care in raising them to healthy, early-laying pullets is the key to a profitable flock of layers.

Good breeding is vitally important in the egg production which means profit on your flock. On the average, a layer must produce 80 eggs a year to pay for the food she consumes. An average off 100 eggs a year cannot be considered very profitable. Production of 150 eggs per bird a year will show a good return for a farm flock. For the farm flock to produce 180 eggs per year, they must be well-bred for egg production, be well fed, carefully culled, and kept in good health. But the egg production pays a handsome profit on the extra care given the flock.

Average annual production of 200 eggs per hen or better usually requires specialized attention and methods in addition to good breeding.

Meat Qualities Considered

Meat producing qualities as well as egg production is to be considered in the general purpose farm flock, because a good share of the income from farm poultry raising is derived from the sale of friers and roasters and also the marketing of surplus stock. Heavier breeds are also preferred by many for home consumption.

With good breeding for egg production, heavier breeds of birds are also profitable layers. Good breeding for egg production is of special importance and usually pays extra dividends on the added investment in the chicks. Resolve now to select good chicks whether for meat, eggs, or both, and follow a careful management program throughout the year.

Winter weather doesn't stop my sanitation program. I disinfect with birds right in the house. It's such an easy job with Dr. Salisbury's AR-O-SAN that it doesn't even disturb the layers. Yes, I keep a close lookout for lice and mites, too, and give regular roost treatment with Dr. Salisbury's NIC-SAL.

Waiting?

A farmer friend of mine, accompanied by small son, took his well-used truck and drove over the river to the county seat on a recent wet Saturday. He did the week's shopping, treated the boy to a "western" and started home; but no! The road was under rising water on both sides of the bridge. Returning to town he engaged a night's lodging and tried to telephone home.

Service on his party line had grown steadily worse since Pearl Harbor, especially on rainy days. Now the instrument at his ear crackled like cold breakfast food and the ringing signal suggested Central America. He feared the worst. Strangers menaced him, wanting something—the telephone maybe. At last the operator cut in with her impersonal "Waiting?" — and the farmer exploded.

Congressmen Likewise
Most people have had such experiences. They seem to overtake us easily when we're waiting for advice from home. Congressmen in Washington know the feeling well, I am told. They, most of all public servants, want to hear from home. They don't consider themselves rulers, merely units out of far-away communities, hand-picked to represent their neighbors who elected them.

Most of our legislators are competent and eloquent; handle their work well, but they want to be faithful representatives. Not pretending to know all the answers, they try earnestly to get word from the electorate. Pressure groups menace them, wanting something — their votes maybe. Their deliberations are belittled by frantic executives saying "Waiting? What's the delay?"

What's Your Pleasure?
What do you think about paying $25 a week for 26 weeks to Tom, Dick and Harry? Do you favor America's helping the Russians build bigger and better atomic bombs? How do you feel on the subject of compulsory military training? Do you believe Congress should guarantee government jobs for all unemployed? Your representative would really like to know your wishes in these matters.

Hon. Carter Manasco and a score more congressmen recently listened to testimony for more than 30 days on the question of guaranteed jobs. They invited every citizen with an idea on the subject to come and testify and especially urged many to appear. They were most liberal with time for preparation and time to testify. The House Committee on Executive Expenditures deserved much credit and took plenty of panning for that cautious job.

Genuine Cooperation
It was just a year ago now that sixty citizens of Batesville, Ark., met voluntarily to study a piece of proposed legislation about to be considered by the House committee of which their Washington representative was a member. They deliberated thoughtfully, reached a conclusion and mailed Hon. Wilbur D. Mills a brief statement of their wishes and a list of their names.

I wish the back-home friends of every congressman in Washington would hold such a meeting soon on one or more vital national issues. It would twist the lever from the hand of pressure groups. It would clear the atmosphere along the Potomac. It would strengthen the morale of Congress, which is the individual citizen's only citadel from oppression.

Don't let go now — when the battle against rising prices is almost won. Now is the time to hang on to your War Bonds, to keep buying new Bonds, to plan your spending and plan your saving.

Here is why. Prices are high today. Goods are scarce. Competitive buying of scarce commodities bids prices up, makes our dollars buy less.

Help the nation's efforts to keep your living costs DOWN, the buying power of your dollar UP

So, plan your savings now—buy Victory Bonds, add to your bank account regularly—for that big purchase you will want to make in the future, a home of your own, perhaps. Later, in a more abundant time, this institution can supply you with the credit needed to buy what you most want—if you save the down-payment now.

There's a long list of attractive reenlistment privileges in the new Armed Forces Voluntary Recruitment Act of 1945. The ability to keep your present grade is only one of them, but this privilege expires on January 31.

There are plenty of other reasons why many thousands of men have enlisted, and more thousands are enlisting every day. You'll certainly want to know all of the opportunities open to you.
