Congressman Gossett Wins Re-election

Congressman Ed Gossett has won the Burk Burnett Star election for the following year.

The country is now faced with many serious problems which will vitally affect her peace and security.

Foreign Policy To win the peace is a sacred trust. To this end, America must remain forever the strong power on earth.

Domestic Policy To be strong abroad we must be strong at home.

Blacklisted by PAC-CIO Because of my effective opposition to its program of national socialism, because of my condemnation of its dangerous political activities, the PAC-CIO is determined to get me out of Texas.

Strikes and Monopolies Ever since I came to Congress I have spoken, worked and voted for sane labor policy.

Sinners Meet Town Hall Sunday at 2:00 P. M. The Burk Burnett Community singers will meet at the Town Hall, Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

Constructive Service "As your Congressman I have been a leader in our long fight for freight rate equality, and have done much effective work on this and other problems of importance to our section."

Immigration and Regimentation American standards of living must be maintained, much less under excessive regimentation. There is a happy medium between no regulation and complete regulation.

Balance of Power Between the Executive and Legislative Branches The executive has become too powerful at the expense of the legislative branch. We must restore a decent balance of power between the two branches of government, making them serve more effectively as a check and balance against the

Thanks To All Who Helped

A Celebration the size of the one Burk Burnett is putting on, cannot be planned and executed by one or two men. There are too many details that have to be worked out which take lots of time and thought.

Burkburnett citizens have gone into this giant task wholeheartedly, and with but one thought—to make it the biggest celebration in the history of our town.

When one tries to single out a few and make special mention of their efforts, it is difficult to decide just who should be pointed out.

Somebody has to be general chairman, and that job fell on the shoulders of Tom Boyd. It takes money to throw a party, and J. V. Brookshear raised that. T. Guy Willis has assembled the parade. Wid Phillips did a swell job on the meat securing committee. Jerry Miller drove 362 miles for wood to barbecue the meat.

And the newspapers have come in for their part of the work. The Wichita Daily Times and Record News have shown a wonderful spirit of cooperation in giving free publicity to the neighboring town of Burk Burnett.

Thanks to all the ladies and boys who came to the rescue of the Star in publishing, folding, gathering, stitching and trimming the rodeo programs for delivery.

So, you see the only way everybody can be thanked is to say: "THANKS TO ALL WHO HELPED."

Old-Timer

Mike Begun, one of the old-timers of Burk Burnett, has gone all out in doing his part to help put the Celebration over. He has one of the bushiest sets of whiskers to be seen, and says he won't shave them off until the shouting is all over and everybody has gone home.

Rodeo Starts At 8:30 Tonight

Night performances of the rodeo start at 8:30 o'clock. The afternoon show on Saturday is scheduled to begin at 2:30.

Reserved seats are going fast, many buying tickets straight through the four shows.

Rodeo Performers From Everywhere

Rodeo performers, many of them champions of the RCA contests for a number of years, have registered for the four big rodeo performances at the High school foot ball stadium during the celebration.

Slim Whaley of Duncan, Oklahoma, 1945 champion calf roping is here to show the boys how he became champion.

Andy Curtis of El Reno, Okla., runner-up in 1945 in bronc riding and bulldogging, has put up his entry fees for the shows.

Wiley Stewart of Plainview, Texas, is here. He is suffering from a recent injury and may not be able to perform, but he came and paid his entry fee, just in case.

Kid Fletcher of Hugo, Colo., 1945 RCA champion bronc rider is here to try the tough ones.

In the bulldogging, there will be Fred Swartz, Fuzzy Garner, Barney Folsom, Melvin Cox and many others.

Saddle bronc contestants include Sylvester Roan, Jim White and Bruce Emerson, and also many other tough riders.

Bull riders will include Hubert Dalton, Joe Hale, Son Snivley, Junior Fletcher, and Orval Mann, and others already mentioned who will enter the same event.

Trick riders are Vivian White, Frankie Farris and Fagan Miller, all big time performers.

Fun for the show will be provided by Hoyt Heffner of Wichita Falls and Johnny Miller of Davidson, Okla. There will be donkey acts, wild bull fighting and other antics to draw laughs.

Another Burk Boy Receives Discharge

Robert P. Wallace S1/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Wallace 614 Glendale, received his discharge from the Navy at the Norman Separation Center, Sunday, June 16. Robert had been in the service 3 years, 2 years of which was spent overseas in both the Pacific and European Theatres, and took part in 5 major battles. He was married Tuesday at the First Baptist Church in Lawton, Oklahoma to Miss Jeanne Hawkins of Oklahoma City. The couple will make their home on Magnolia Street in Burk Burnett. The groom will be employed by the James S. Smith Oil Co. of Wichita Falls.

Tickets At Bank And Drug Stores

Tickets for the rodeo may be purchased before the show starts at the bank or any drug store in town.

Reserved seats are $1.80, general admission, adults, $1.20 and children are 60c, gen. adm. All prices include tax.

Final Rites Held For Ersell Bills Sunday Afternoon

Funeral services were held from the Church of Christ, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock for Ersell Bills, 33 who died in Burk Burnett Saturday morning after an illness of only a few days. Rev. William Wilhoit, pastor of the church officiated, assisted by Rev. Varner of Electra. Interment was in the Burk Burnett cemetery under the direction of Owens and Brumley Funeral Home.

Ersell was survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Bills and one brother, O. C. Bills of Carter, Okla.

John Wood, Scribe, Troop 155.

Visitors were Jimmy Johnson, Major Majors and Herbert Knauth.

PROMINENT COUPLE UNITED IN IMPRESSIVE HOME RITES

Impressive dignity characterized the wedding ceremony Monday morning, June 17, which united Miss Lilla Majors and J. B. Morris of Burkburnett. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. T. H. Minga, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Burkburnett, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. W. Majors.

For the marriage vows the couple stood before a beautifully decorated improvised altar, which was emphasized by a decorated archway centered with a cluster of white wedding bells, and festooned with greenery interspersed with Marconi daisies. Large floor baskets of white gladiolus and Marconi daisies adorned with white satin streamers and bows, flanked the central arrangement.

Mrs. Pat Morrison of Wichita Falls provided the prenuptial music, including a medley of numbers and the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. Morrison also accompanied Mr. Morrison, soloist, as he sang "At Dawning."

Attractive Bride
The bride was most attractive in a two-piece white linen street length dress, with black accessories. She wore a white halo hat of original design and completed her costume with a corsage of orchids. As a touch of sentiment she wore, for something old and borrowed, a lovely pin which was a gift from her father to her mother when they were married more than fifty years ago.

The bride and groom are well known and are most prominent in Burkburnett. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. M. W. Majors and has been a popular member of the grade school faculty for the past several years. The groom is an employee of the Gulf Oil Company. The couple departed for a trip to Mexico and other points of interest in the United States, after which they will establish residence at 303 Hayworth Street.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Pat Morrison, Mrs. S. L. McClure, Mrs. Arnold Gibson, Mrs. B. M. Hamilton and Son, Wichita Falls; Major and Mrs. W. B. Majors and daughter, Patricia, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Willie M. Bell, Atlanta, Ga.

Reception
Immediately following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother with Mesdames J. D. Majors and D. M. Lowery assisting Mrs. Majors with hostess duties.

Mesdames of the house party included Mrs. Harold VanLoh who presided at the cake, Mrs. W. B. Majors, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. B. M. Hamilton, niece of the bride, presiding at the crystal punch bowls; Mrs. Truitt Majors, niece of the bride also assisted with duties of serving and Miss Mary McGinnis secured signatures for the bride's book.

The handsomely appointed refreshment table, with its beautiful white linen outwork cloth cover, was centered with an arrangement of pink and blue gladiolus and stative. A beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was noted at one end of the board while the lovely crystal punch bowls were laced at the other extremity of the table.

Beautiful Young Lady In Quadrill

Miss Wanda Lee Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hicks, is in the lead couple of the quadrill, square dance on horseback, at each rodeo performance during the celebration rodeo. She is also entered in the cowgirl sponsors contest. Above she is shown on her horse, "Buddy." She is an excellent horsewoman.

Burkburnett Girl Weds Wichitan In Beautiful Rites

Elaborate church ceremonies were performed Friday evening, June 14, in which Miss Jane Duvall of Burkburnett became the bride of Jack Edward Cagle of Fort Worth. The rites were read at the First Methodist Church of Burkburnett with Rev. T. H. Minga, pastor, as officiant.

The wedding vows were exchanged before a beautifully decorated arch of fern and white roses flanked with large baskets of pink and white gladiolus. The lovely setting was illuminated by lighted tapers in branched candelabra.

Mrs. Maxine Inlow, pianist presented "Liebestraum," and traditional wedding marches and a muted interpretation of "Clair de Lune" and also accompanied Miss Anne Danforth, vocalist, as she sang "Always," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

W. S. Duvall gave his daughter in marriage. The bride was lovely in a gown of ivory satin fashioned with high round neck line and yoke of illusion, bordered with a ruffle of embroidered lace, fitted bodice and full skirt which extended into a long graceful train. Her finger-tip veil of bridal illusion was caught to a coronet ornamented with seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Vinson Duvall was matron of honor and Misses Marginnell Chambers and Mary Reeves were bridesmaids. They wore dresses fashioned similar to the gown of the bride with the matron of honor in pink taffeta and lace and the bridesmaids in aqua taffeta and lace. Each wore floral halos and carried arm bouquets of pink, blue and white carnations.

Homer Garrett was best man for the groom and ushers were Vinson Duvall and Vance Lenz of Lawton, Okla. The candle lighters were Willis Powell Duff of Bonham and Jimmy Ray McMurry.

Out-of-town guests present for the wedding and reception included Mrs. M. A. Cagle, Mrs. Maggie Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Noland, Mrs. J. A. Donaldson, Miss Eileen Butcher, Wichita Falls; Mrs. J. E. Marshall, Elizabeth Marshall, Vickie Lewis, Byers; Mrs. Willis Duff, W. P. Duff, Jr., James Duff, Bonham; Mr. and Mrs. Vance Lenz, Van Lenz, Jr., Mrs. James Gentry, Mrs. Clave Morford, Lawton, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Gilchrist, Fort Worth; and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Planchard, Beaumont.

Members of the house party, at the reception held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the wedding, included members of the bridal party, the host and hostesses.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Duvall of Burkburnett. She is a graduate of Burkburnett High School and Draughton's Business College in Wichita Falls and has been employed at Sheppard Field for the last few years.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cagle of Wichita Falls and was graduated from Cushing High School of Cushing, Okla. He was with the U. S. Marine Corps located in the South Pacific area for one and one-half years. Following his discharge he has been attending Texas Christian University at Fort Worth.

The bride chose to travel in a tailored gray wool gaberdine suit with black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was an exquisite purple orchid which bled beautifully with her fucia crepe blouse.

After a wedding trip to Dallas and points in South Texas the couple will be at home at 3108 Frazier St. in Fort Worth.

Rehearsal Supper
A rehearsal buffet supper for Miss Jane Duvall and Jack Cagle was held at the home of Mrs. T. A. Banning with Mrs. Vinson Duvall sharing hostess duties.

The refreshment table was covered with a white outwork tablecloth; and centered with a lovely arrangement of pink gladiolus and blue daisies, the bride's chosen colors. Other arrangements of spring flowers were used thru-out the reception rooms.

Supper was served to members of the wedding party, and the members of the immediate family.

Why 145 Burkburnett People Are Waiting for Telephones

THE REASON IS that it has not been possible to manufacture and install additional equipment fast enough to keep up with the biggest demand for telephones in Burkburnett's history—despite the most active construction program we've ever undertaken.

On V-J Day, 48 people in Burkburnett were on the telephone waiting list—a backlog equal to more than five years of pre-war growth. Since then, we have gained 80 telephones in Burkburnett. We have installed nine times as many telephones since V-J Day as we did in an average year between 1935 and 1940.

Yet today, 145 people here still do not have service. Many of them are people who were waiting on V-J Day.

ONE BIG REASON for this is the vast number of new applications. Many of them are from returning servicemen who, as heads of families, are entitled to preference, as also are people whose service qualifies as essential to the health, welfare, and security of the community. As lines and equipment become available in a central office, all other applications are filled in the order in which they are received.

WE ARE HARD AT WORK on an expansion program to enlarge the telephone system here, to put in the switchboards, the cable, the wire, and all the other things needed to make service available to those who want it. The job is so big that it takes time.

In the meantime, we are doing everything possible to stretch the telephone system here to serve the maximum number of people. We are limiting new residence connections to party lines . . . we are loading the system beyond the capacity for which it was engineered . . . and are resorting to emergency, temporary measures, wherever possible, to install additional telephone equipment ahead of schedule.

Much as we'd like to, we can't tell most people waiting for service just when it will be possible to connect their telephones.

But of this you can be sure—

WE ARE HARD AT WORK. We are doing everything we can to furnish telephone service — at the earliest possible moment—to all who are waiting. If there is anything we can do to make our progress faster, we shall do it.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Senate Approves Atom Control; Bevin Warns Russ Against Break; Italian Voters Topple Monarchy

Released by Western Newspaper Union
(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

SENATE: Kept Busy

By unanimous vote, the senate passed and sent to the house a bill for the national development and control of atomic energy during a busy week which also saw the upper chamber agree to an extension of the draft and take up the question of continuing OPA.

ATOM—Prepared by the senate committee on atomic energy headed by Senator McMahon (Dem., Conn.), the bill for developing and controlling atomic power provides for a special commission possessing sole authority over the production and storage of A-bombs or other A-weapons. A military liaison board would be set up to consult with the commission on army and navy applications of atomic energy, with the right to appeal to the President in case of disputes.

The government would be granted a monopoly over the materials, patents and production facilities used in converting atomic energy and it would be authorized to acquire stockpiles of uranium ores and other necessary materials and license their transfer.

Besides the special commission, a committee of scientists and technicians would be formed for advisory purposes, and a permanent congressional committee would be created to check atomic policies.

DRAFT—Acting on permanent selective service legislation to supplement current temporary regulation of the so-called maximum average price formula under which clothing makers are compelled to balance their output of cheap and expensive garments and award of a 5 per cent incentive to cotton products manufacturers when they reach 90 per cent of their peak volume between 1936 and 1945.

LABOR: Maritime Hurdle

Though the maritime labor disputes were expected to be the last major strike threats of the year, they also shaped as among the knottiest, with the government prepared to mobilize the army, navy and coast guard to keep Uncle Sam's great merchant marine operating.

Irked over the government and industry's concentration on settlement of the demands of six CIO and one independent union embracing 214,000 members the AFL Seafarers and their affiliated Sailors' union of the Pacific threatened to walk out also unless consideration be given to their wage and working demands. Like the CIO, the AFL asked for higher wages, larger overtime pay and reduction in working hours.

The AFL's determination to press its demands in the midst of government and industry deliberations with the CIO indicated that the Seafarers and Sailors' union would respect CIO picket lines in the event of a shipping strike. This presaged a break in AFL ranks since the AFL Longshoremen's chief, Joseph P. Ryan, condemned the CIO maritime leaders as threatening to pull off a strike to increase their prestige.

BIG THREE: Last Word

Getting the last word in on the big three's open discussion of European issues, bulky Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin of Great Britain told commons in a voice that went beyond parliamentary walls that his majesty's government would continue to press for an equitable solution of postwar problems in the face of Russian opposition.

Declaring that there could be no guarantee of permanent peace unless Russia entered freely into a European settlement, Bevin urged the Reds to grasp this opportunity to work out an equitable solution or else the chance may not come again.

Hinting that Britain might make separate peace treaties with former enemies, Bevin said London could not countenance a continued stalemate which slowed reconstruction and left economies unbalanced. He reiterated that settlement of the Italian-Yugoslav border question should be founded on racial lines. While favoring the U. S. proposal for a 25-year disarmament pact for Germany, he called for a federalized Reich instead of an amputated state with its important western industrial provinces taken from it.

ITALY: King Falls

One month after he had succeeded his father, Victor Emmanuel, as king of Italy, 42-year-old Humbert II of the house of Savoie packed his bags preparatory to leaving the country that voted an end to royalty and chose to establish a republic.

Even as it was announced that over 12 million Italians had cast their ballots for a republic to over 10 million for retention of the monarchy, a dispatch from Naples reported that the Humbert household had moved at least 50 trunks and crates from the royal villa to the cruiser, Duca Degli Abruzzi, lying in the harbor. One crate contained a sewing machine lending a dramatic, if not significant, touch to the proceedings.

While Italy voted to put an end to the monarchy that had lent its prestige to Mussolini and in turn had been glamorized by Il Duce, the country as a whole swung to the right in selecting a constituent assembly that will write a new constitution. With the Catholic church throwing its support to the moderates, the rightists, led by the Christian Democrats, cinched over 280 seats for a majority. Russian demands for heavy reparations from Italy and Yugoslavian acquisition of Italian territory in the north did the communists no good and they ran third in the voting.

Predict Record Spending

The rate of spending by consumers in the United States during the first quarter of this year indicates that savings during 1946 will be considerably lower than last year.

With total income for this year expected to be below that of last year and spending expected to reach an all-time high, the prospect is that a major portion of disposable income will be used.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

STRENGTHENING BONDS OF FELLOWSHIP

LESSON TEXT—Luke 22:14-20; John 17:6-8, 20, 21.

MEMORY SELECTION—A new commandment I give unto you. That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.—John 13:34.

Fellowship is a word which comes to its full meaning only in the relationship between the Lord and believers, which also brings them into just such a relationship with one another.

The Lord seeks his people and gives himself in friendship to them, even to the full devotion of death. Shall we do less for one another?

Our lesson presents four ways in which Christ fellowship with his disciples.

I. The Fellowship of the Passover (Luke 22:14-18)

It was late on Thursday, of what we call Holy Week, that Jesus and his disciples came to the upper room where Peter and John had already made preparation for the observance of the Passover (Luke 22:8).

This feast had (since that great and awful night of Israel's redemption out of Egypt's bondage) pointed forward to the Christ and to his cross as the fulfillment of the type of redemption by the shedding of blood.

Our Lord looked forward with intense desire to the Passover which he now observed with his disciples, for it was the last celebration of that feast recognized by God. All that had faded of deliverance and hope was fulfilled in him who now sat at the table. He had moved forward with resolute purpose to this day when his mission on earth was to be accomplished, and he was to become the Christian's Passover lamb (I Cor. 5:7).

The Passover was a solemn feast of remembrance of God's deliverance from the bondage of Egypt, but it was now to be replaced by a new feast of remembrance of eternal significance. They went on into

II. The Fellowship of the Lord's Table (Luke 22:19, 20)

Taking the unleavened bread and the unfermented wine of the Passover which had just been observed, Jesus established the Christian feast of remembrance, which we call communion, or the Lord's table.

His words are significant, "For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come" (I Cor. 11:26). At the Lord's table his followers find spiritual strength in recalling his death for them, but they also find joy as they remember that he is to come again. They testify to the world that they believe and cherish these truths.

Our Lord also spoke of the cup as "my blood of the new testament." The word "testament" means covenant. The Lord's table, therefore, speaks of our allegiance to him, of our loyalty to our Lord, and of our devotion to his service. That is why the Christian church speaks of communion as a sacrament, a word from the Latin sacramentum, meaning oath, and essentially an oath of allegiance.

III. The Fellowship of God's Word (John 17:6-9)

John gives us a blessed account of the fellowship of Jesus and his disciples in the upper room, and then takes us into what is indeed "the Holy of Holies" of Scripture, our Lord's intercessory prayer. Here "the High Priest of our profession" (Heb. 3:1) brings us into the very presence of God.

At the very beginning of his petitions for them and for us (see v. 20) he speaks of the word which the Father had given him and which he had given to them.

This little company of men had been given to Christ, drawn out of the evil world and set apart for God's work. But note that the thing which distinguished them in the eyes of the Lord was that they had "kept" the word of God, even as they had received the living word, Christ, as the one whom the Father had sent.

That kind of fellowship with the Lord makes a man strong and useful. Life and testimony both ring true because they exalt Christ.

IV. The Fellowship of Prayer (John 17:20, 21)

Christ prayed for his disciples, not only those immediately present, but all who should through the ages since that day believe in Christ because of their witness.

That puts each one of us, who is a true disciple, right into the center of the greatest prayer fellowship of all time. He, the eternal and omnipotent one, prays for us. Why then should we be weak and faltering in our testimony or have failures in our life? Can it be that we have failed to count on his prayer and have tried to walk in our own strength?

The prayer for unity (v. 21) does not speak of an outward uniting of religious bodies such as is much favored and promoted in our day. Certainly where such unity can be attained without the sacrifice of principle or compromise with false doctrine it is desirable. Real unity is that of the heart.

Cecal Coccidiosis Constant Threat To Growing Birds

At this time of year when ce- cal coccidiosis, the great killer is stalking your chicks, every poultryman is aware that his flock runs the danger of falling prey to the deadly disease. In most cases flock owners keep a careful eye on their birds to detect symptoms of the disease as early as possible, thereby standing prepared to take speedy counter measures when the trouble arises.

Sanitation Is Vital

At the same time the wise flock owner realizes the importance of giving his birds a clean sani- tary place to live — a proven factor in preventing an outbreak To understand more clearly how vital good sanitation is, let us discuss the nature of the disease and the method by which it spreads.

The rapidity with which bloody coccidiosis spreads and kills is one of its most danger- ous characteristics. It strikes most often when chicks are be- tween three and twelve weeks of age, particularly in the warm damp days of late spring and early summer.

Blame The Oocyst

You can blame a tiny organism known as a coccidia oocyst for the losses you suffer. The oocyst is passed in the droppings of an infected fowl. When these oocysts thicken the ground, litter or feed on your premises, they are picked up in large numbers by chicks feeding in the contami- nated area. A chick which con- sumes material containing these organisms becomes infected with bloody coccidiosis, and on the fifth day after the onset of the infection the bird will begin to show outward symptoms of the disease. In early stages, droppings become bloody, a positive sym- ptom and the signal for quick counter action. Other symptoms which may often be noted are drooping wings, poor appetites and general signs of weakness, often manifested by the huddled posture of the fowl, but it should be remembered that these are common to many poultry dis- eases.

Causes Hemorrhage

The coccidiosis organism does its deadly work by invading the ceca where it causes severe hemorrhages. Post-mortem ex- aminations of fowl dying of ce- cal coccidiosis reveal the ceca to contain a bloody mass resem- bling raspberry jam.

In any disease which is trans- mitted from one bird to another good sanitation is important. A dirty, unattended yard or range Cecal coccidiosis is no exception, is a perfect breeding ground for the oocysts.

Give your flock the advantage of good sanitation and reduce the danger of ceal coccidiosis.
