Indians Eke Past Munday; Face Seymour Friday Night

The Fighting Haskell Indians kept the victory lights burning by winning over the Munday Moguls by the score of 13-6 last Friday night. Just as in the Texas-USC game last week there were two separate games, the first half and the second. The Moguls won the first half by the score of 6-0 and Haskell winning the second by the score of 13-0.
It was a very defensive game with Munday holding Haskell to a total of 3 yards rushing the first half and Haskell holding the Moguls to only two first downs in the second half.
The scoring started when QB Joe Alkala took the ball into pay-dirt for the Moguls with 20 seconds left in the first quarter; the extra point try failed.
Just a few seconds deep into the fourth quarter the Indians scored when QB Tim Everett went around left end for 71 yards and the first tally and then Ray Herren booted the extra point to put the Indians in front with a score of 7-6.
With a little over seven minutes left in the game HB Thornton Gilmore went over from the four to put the Indians further in front by 13-6; then Keith Chapman tried for two more but failed. This ended the scoring and the game.
The record for the Indians is 3-0, while the Moguls are 1-2 for the season.

Haskell "City-Dads" Attend Wichita Session

Mayor H. V. Woodard; city secretary, Ira Hester and councilmen John Thomas and Buster Gholsen were in Wichita Falls last Thursday night attending a planning session of members of Region 5 of Texas Municipal League, at the Trade Winds Motor Hotel.
Terrell Blodgett, administrative assistant to Governor John Connally, spelled out statewide planning, the upcoming legislative program in Austin, and the urgency of an all-out traffic safety program.
Before adjournment the group went on record commending Governor Connally for his stand in advocating financial help for cities and suggested revamping of the State Constitution. The group also officially voiced opposition to proposed Constitutional Amendment No. 1 on the ballot in November, suggesting a separate tax structure for agricultural land inside corporate limits of cities.
Action on all three matters was taken after Blodgett and Lee Bickers of Austin, field representative for Texas Municipal League, weighed the issue involved.
Blodgett, in urging support of a revision of the State Constitution, declared, "This is necessary for the future of all of us. We need to do this to increase our responsiveness to the needs of the people."
He called attention to the fact that voters to approve 13 constitutional amendments in 1965, and will be asked to record their choice on 16 more on November's ballot. "This is more than the United States Constitution has been amended in almost 200 years," Blodgett said.
In the matter of planning for the future, Blodgett said that "the Texas Research League will be in this area on October 12, and you can look forward to some ambitious programs which may be the beginning of some financial aid from the state."

Parachutists Featured
Walking on air is one feat members of the 16th Troop Carrier Wing's Parachute Team have not yet mastered. Short of defying gravity, however, their accomplishments in free-fall gymnastics are becoming well known in this area.
Team members T. Sgt. Paul Ross, team captain; Staff Sergeant's Gary Smith and Lowell Elzaback; A. I. C. Darryl Pruden and A. I. C. Sherman Miller, navigator, put on a thrilling exhibition of parachute jumping before a large crowd of fair-goers Saturday afternoon at 2:00 and 5:00 p. m.
The team attired in distinctive blue jumpsuits, demonstrated their skills. Highlighting their performances were specialized maneuvers such as mid-air baton passes and parachute break-away.
Virtually all maneuvers by the sport parachutists occurred during the free-fall while parachutes were not yet deployed. One of the most visually effective was the break-away, a precision maneuver in which Sgt. Ross demonstrated the "free-fall" until his primary chute opened. The primary chute was then released to permit additional free-fall.
Accurate landings "on target" in the drop zone were also spectacular of the team performances. The drop zone at the fair was marked by a large cross, and Sgt. Ross hit the ground right on target.
Following the first parachute jumps at 2:00 p. m., autographed pictures of Little Miss Hey-Day, Emily Thigpen; Marsha Shaver, Miss Hey-Day; Virginia Westbrook, Miss Cotton, and members of the parachute team were presented to Raja Hassen, C. of C. president; James Franklin, Jaycee president; Marsha Shaver, Virginia Westbrook, Emily Thigpen and Col. Duncan, who was responsible for the parachute team.
Other activities Saturday afternoon included music by local vocalists and instrumentalists Steve Harper and Kenny

TOO GOOD A JOB?

"You're damned if you do and damned if you don't," fits the situation in which the gigantic food industry of the United States apparently finds itself. On the one hand, retail distributors' costs in all fields have risen steadily ... average hourly wages far above 1950. On the other hand, consumers have steadily demanded an increasing array of services ... elaborate parking lots, magnificent super-markets and more pre-cut, pre-cleaned, pre-frozen and pre-cooked convenience foods that cost more to produce.

Inevitably, the spread between farm prices and retail prices has increased. The food distribution system is in danger of becoming a political football, as retailers are forced to pass the cost of inflation and plush services onto consumers. However, the fact remains that no nation has ever enjoyed a retail system equal to that in the United States.

A modern food retailer operates on a profit margin so slim that were it eliminated, the saving to consumers would not be noticeable. Relatively speaking, food is a bargain, taking an average of only 18.2 cents of each of our after-tax dollars.

Thanks to the progressiveness and efficiency of the food industry from farm to family dinner table, we are the best-fed nation in the world. The food industry should not be made a scapegoat for government-promoted inflation, nor for trying to provide the ultimate in service in response to consumer demands in a competitive free market ... a market that automatically guarantees the fairest prices on a basis of supply and demand.

Information Bulletins Concerning Draft Test To Be Mailed to Students

Around 60,000 bulletins of information about an upcoming draft test for students, plus application blanks for taking it, are scheduled to be mailed to state draft boards Friday.

The test will be administered November 18 and 19. Applications for taking it must be post-marked no later than Friday, October 21.

Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service director, said students could get the bulletins and blanks by writing their local boards, or calling at any board.

To be eligible to take the test, the applicant must, on the testing date, (1) be registered with a draft board, (2) intend to request occupational deferment as a student, and (3) not previously have taken the test.

In some college and university towns, arrangements may be made with colleges and universities to have the information bulletins and application blanks on campus.

Taking the test is entirely optional with students. Colonel Schwartz pointed out. He said he had no idea how many would take the November test. About 30,000 took the test given in May and June.

Full details about the test will be found in the bulletins of information available at the boards. Purpose of the test is to furnish information to the draft boards.

The application blanks to take the test must be mailed to the Selective Service Examining Section, Educational Testing Service, P. O. Box 988, Princeton, New Jersey 08540. A pre-addressed envelope will be furnished with each bulletin of information.

The test is scheduled to be given on 25 college and university campuses in Texas. They are located in:

Ablene, Alpine, Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Dallas, Denton, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston, Huntsville, Laredo, Lubbock, Also Nacogdoches, Odessa, San Angelo, San Antonio, Texas, arkana, Tyler, Uvalde, Victoria, Waco and Wichita Falls.

The state director of Selective Service said Friday he did not know yet the identity of the schools at which the test would be given. Arrangements are made with the schools by the Educational Testing Service.

Housewives Often Are Confused About How To Care For Fabrics

HOUSEWIVES ARE 2x24... colorfast dyes that will go through machine laundering with no color change. You will usually find an assurance of colorfastness on hangtags accompanying these shirts.

Miss Mary Routh, Extension clothing specialist at Texas A&M University, has some answers to commonly-asked questions about shirt materials:

1. Should the new Durable Press sport shirts be drip-dried? They should not be. Let them go through the whole wash-rinse-spin cycle and put them on hangers to dry. Though they won't look as good as when dryer-dried, hang-drying on many fabrics gives about as good results as drip-drying. And you won't have to stop the washer before the final spin to remove the shirt.

2. Are madras shirts machine washable? Usually madras shirts can be machine-laundered, but be sure to wash them separately. Genuine madras dyes will bleed — they're supposed to. Some fabrics, however, are woven to look like real madras, but are dyed with High temperatures (above 160-degrees F.) in either washer or dryer are what really set the wrinkles into polyester or nylon tricot fabrics. When you machine-laundry such fabrics, use a short wash cycle on warm water setting, and dry at lowest temperature setting on the dryer.

1967 FORD OFFERS MANY MODELS TO SELECT FROM

Dramatic new styling marks the 1967 Ford which has received a major sheet metal change for the third time in three years. Pictured here are the X/L Convertible (above) and the X/L 2-door Hardtop, both of which offer Ford's Select Shift Cruise-O-Matic transmission as standard equipment. Featured only on the Fairlane GTA in 1966, Select Shift permits the driver to shift manually or automatically. Ford's new styling features sculptured side panels and a gull-wing design grille that is die-cast in the X/L LTD and Country Squire series. Engineering improvements give the 1967 Ford an even quieter and smoother ride.

Featuring new sheet metal for the first time since its introduction in April of 1964, the Mustang for 1967 is sportier in appearance and livelier than ever before. Style changes for the 1967 Fairlane are shown above.

Falcon for 1967 retains its distinctive, long-hooded "Mustang look" and offers the buyer an ever greater selection of engines, transmissions and optional features. The engine line-up now includes a 225-horsepower, four-barrel 289 CID V-8 with Select Shift Cruise-O-Matic which permits manual or automatic gear shifting. The Futura Station Wagon (above) has an optional two-day tail gate while the Futura Sports Coupe (below) is distinguished by a new grille, a spear-like trim moulding and two deeply sculptured "wastegate" areas behind the front wheel cutout.

What Do You Know About Those Called The "Older Americans?"

The Administration on Aging, Washington, D. C., has just issued leaflet No. 410 that contains many facts and figures about the 18.5 million Americans over age 65. R. R. Tuley, Jr., Abilene District Manager for Social Security, has excerpted portions of the leaflet for our readers, and believes many of you would like to write the AOA for a free copy to get the balance of the information.

The number of persons aged 65 in the nation exceeds the total population of 20 of the 50 states. The number past 65 has increased 600 per cent (from 3 to more than 18 million) in the past 65 years. Women in the over-65 group outnumber men by 129 to 100. In 1900 there were 100 men aged 65 or more to only 98 women that old. By the year 2,000, it is estimated the aged women will outnumber the men by 148 to 100. 30% of the aged population in four states, New York, California, Pennsylvania and Illinois, with more than a million in each state. By 1985, there will be over a million oldsters in three more states, Texas, Ohio and Florida. Do you know which state has the highest percentage of its population in the plus-65 bracket? Florida is 2nd with 12.3%. Nebraska is 3rd with 11.7%. Mississippi ranks 4th with 11.6%, and Kansas is 5th with 11.4%. First place? That goes to Iowa with 12.5%. Texas ranks 38th with only 8.1% over age 65, but that's 852,000. Only 1 in 25 of the aged lives in an institution. One third of the women, but only one-sixth of the men live alone or with non-relatives. Two-thirds of the men, but only one-third of the women live in families with their spouse. There are four times as many widows as widowers. 40% of the older married men have wives under age 65. Over 35,000 marriages each year involve at least one person over 65. 2.6 million older couples have annual incomes of less than $3,000. The aggregate income of all persons past 65 is over $40 billion a year and increasing (300% above the 1950 figures). More than 3 million are still in the labor force, working or actively seeking employment. Almost all of the $40 billion dollar income of the aged group goes for current living expenses. Those over 65 use 29% of their spending for housing and household operations, only 23% by those under 65. The older group used 10.2% of its spending for medical care (1961-1962) to 6.4% for the younger ones. Transportation took only 11.7% of the oldsters' spending, but 15.6% of that spent by those under 65. 7% of the couples past 65 had annual incomes of less than $1,000. Not yet 65? The odds are better now than ever before that you'll make it, and the odds are getting better every year. It would be smart to plan now for those years when you'll be past 65.

Freshmen Tie Seymour 14-14

Haskell's freshmen team came from behind in the second half to sparkle the 14-14 deadlock tie with Seymour's freshmen.

The chapter published their plans and made a display in a store in town. Members rang the bell at the Presbyterian Church for four minutes at 2 p. m. on the Fourth.

Another project which our members enjoyed was making baby blankets for the nursery at the hospital. We bought 72 yards of cotton flannel, met at night and sewed the blankets on the homemaking machines at the school.

"Several of our members have had babies at the hospital since then, so we have a personal interest in that project," Mrs. Browning said. Mr. Raymond Bennett is current president of Haskell Young Homemakers.

New Camaro makes Six Distinct Car Lines for Chevrolet in 1967

Five 1967 Chevrolet models appear to be standing at attention as the CAMARO, newest member of the family, makes its introductory bow to the public (foreground, CAMARO Super Sport). While each Chevrolet model has distinctive styling motifs, the all new CAMARO features a new approach to the "long hood-short deck" design so successfully introduced to U.S. buyers by the Corvette. All Chevrolet-built passenger cars go on public display at dealers' September 29.

Jayton Jars Rochester 12-8

A potent passing game and a fourth quarter rally gave the Jayton Jaybirds a 12-8 win over the Rochester Steers at Jayton Friday night.

Trailing 8-0 early in the fourth, the Jaybirds got into scoring position with a couple of aeriels and then quarterback Mike Sego went four yards up the middle to score.

Mike Morales threw a scoring pass to halfback Terry Moore for another Jayton TD on a play covering 30 yards.

Rochester drew blood in first quarter play when tacklers wound Morales behind the goal line for a safety. Then Olson LeFevre in the second quarter worked left tackle for 7 yards to score.

1967 Plymouth Fury Has Big Car Look

A striking all-new exterior appearance with flowing styling along with three new hardtop roofs combine to give the Plymouth Fury a distinctive big car look for 1967. The design of the new Fury emphasizes its size (213.1 inches long on a 119-inch wheelbase), and clearly identifies it as the luxury car in the conventional-size, low-price field. In the Fury line there are 25 models in five series—Fury I, II, III, Sport Fury and V I P, with a choice of five engines. The addition of three new rooflines, each with its own distinctive silhouette, gives hardtop models a completely different look. New safety features include an impact-absorbing steering column, dual braking, a deep, safety-padded instrument panel and a hazard warning light system. All four-door hardtops and some two-door hardtops have a new flow-through ventilation system as standard. Shown is the Sport Fury two-door Fast Top.

Get Smart About Fire Prevention

Don Adams, better known as Maxwell Smart, star of NBC-TV's "Get Smart," reads aloud the true story of a heroic girl and an alert fire department dispatcher in the fall issue of Junior Fire Marshal magazine. Karen Zentner from California and John O'Brien from Connecticut are representative of the more than four and a half million school youngsters in the United States and Canada who take part each year in the Junior Fire Marshal fire prevention and safety program. It is sponsored by The Hartford Insurance Group. Every fall during Fire Prevention Week, each Junior Fire Marshal completes a home safety check list to qualify for a classroom honor roll. With a parent, they check at home for faulty electric cords, overloaded electric outlets, paint-soaked rags in the cellar and they pledge never to play with matches. For each chapter of the Junior Fire Marshal Program, school teachers receive guidance and educational materials for classroom instruction in fire prevention and safety. This public service of The Hartford, going into its 20th year, has reached more than 40 million children.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES TO MEET IN LUBBOCK

Sixteen congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses will meet in Lubbock October 7-9, to discuss the theme, "Become Spiritual Men with Everlasting Life in View."

The presiding minister of the Haskell congregation, W. Clayton Sharp, said: "The object of the program is to equip every one of the preaching fellowship of Jehovah's Witnesses in the practical use of the Bible as a means of fortifying the spiritual morale of the people in our community."

District Supervisor A. A. Cantanzaro, Watchtower Society's representative over 10 circuits in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, will be chairman at the Texas Circuit 9 assembly.

E. A. Grover, supervisor of the circuit, met with some 20 department heads, September 8, at Childress in preparation for the Lubbock meet.
