

Norris Gibson's Brother-In-Law Passes Away

B. F. Forsythe, 68, a resident of Rule for 44 years, who died last week in Stamford Hospital, was a brother-in-law of Norris Gibson of Haskell. Funeral services were held from the Rule First Baptist Church, with the Rev. Mike Herrington, pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. Walter Copeland, pastor of Pinkerton Baptist Church.

Burial was in the Rule Cemetery.

Born Sept. 12, 1897, in Burlington, he married Lillie Gibson in Rule, Dec. 18, 1921. He was a member of Pinkerton Baptist Church.

Survivors are his wife; one sister, Mrs. Carl Grover of Fort Worth; two brothers, Ona of Cleburne and Ferrell of Fort Worth; a number of nieces and nephews; two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

PAINT CREEK... COMMUNITY NEWS

BY MRS. GENE OVERTON

(Too Late for Last Week)

Paint Creek is "greenin' up" this week after all the nice rain last week. Farmers are getting wheat land ready to sow, or are sowing today. This cool, pleasant weather is appreciated, too.

Troop 48, Boy Scouts of America, had their annual fish fry for their parents, and the people who help keep the troop "trooping." They met in the Gene Overton pasture Saturday at 8:00, and the cooks had the fish frying and the coffee boiling. Mothers brought salads and desserts and there was enough food for twice the number there. After supper the scouts entertained with skits and songs, and it was a nice climax to their summer's work.

Jeff Cadenhead served as Master of Ceremonies for the program and Bill Lane introduced the skits. Scoutmaster Wallar Overton had charge of the award ceremony and the Hootenanny.

Receiving 2nd class Scout awards were: Buddy Morrison, Ricky Brazzel, Jim Bob Mickler and Bill Lane. Receiving merit badges were Mike Brazzel and Bill Lane. Three new scouts were inducted, Glen and Dale Cassleberry and Kenny Cockerell.

The troop appreciated Twain Mickler, Jess Mickler and R. V. Earles and Bob for furnishing the fish, R. V. Earles for cooking the fish, and his assistants, Ira Coleman, Van Morrison and Jess Mickler. The Scout Mothers for all the good food and the guests who came to make it a nice affair.

There were about 75 present.

Paint Creek is about two months late in saying so, but we did appreciate the merchants who sponsored our Paint Creek girls in the Hey Day Queen contest. Milla Perry was sponsored by Conner Floral; Connie Brazzel was sponsored by White's Auto; Jeannine Isbell was sponsored by Smitty's Auto Parts; Elaine Marr by Elsie's Drive-In, and Joy Bergstrom was sponsored by the M&F Pharmacy.

Arthur Moody had the misfortune to fall while stringing an electric fence several weeks ago and broke his leg. He is in a cast and in quite a bit of pain.

Paint Creek Pirates won the game against McCauley Eagles last Friday night at McCauley 26-16. Our boys are small, but they are learning to play ball, and Coach Mickler was very pleased with the second half. That's the one we won.

Paint Creek students in college this semester are: Ina Bittner, Ann McLennan and Mike Shaw, who are seniors at North Texas State University at Denton. Also at NTSU is Dolin Hughes, who is completing work on his Masters degree.

At A&M University at College Station, Mike Overton began his senior year. Billie Cockrell is a sophomore and Vicki Morrison is a freshman at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene. Paulette Fischer is a junior; Edwin Livengood is a sophomore, and Barbara Grand is working on her Masters at Texas Tech. Margie Earles and Carolyn Carlton are sophomores and Daria Schmidt is a freshman at West Texas State at Canyon.

Kenneth Carlton is working on his Masters degree at the University of Oregon. Evelyn Pustejovsky is attending a Beauty college in Dallas. Vern Howard is a sophomore at Cisco Junior College. Patricia Medford is a freshman at ACC in Abilene. Alfred Dukatinik is attending Draughn's Business College in Abilene. Another Paint Creeker who is attending college at night near his job is Fred Selby, who is attending Garland Christian College. There may be other students, but these are all I know.

Wallar Overton attended an Explorer planning program in Abilene at the scout office on Sunday afternoon.

Gene Overton attended the Executive Board meeting of the Chisholm Trail Council last Tuesday in Abilene.

Bill Mickler underwent major surgery at the Stamford Memorial Hospital last week. He is recuperating nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Moody of Whitman and Mr. and Mrs. Othella Moody of near Corpus Christi have been here visiting their father since he broke his leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Morris spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bergstrom and Joy.

The Vocational Agriculture boys under the supervision of their teacher, Mr. Willie Lee Medford, had charge of the assembly program at school last Wednesday morning. They had a part on the program of Agriculture's place in our country's heritage that was one of the best I have heard in a long time. The boys are to be commended.

The community has had two new little citizens recently. Little Joel Scott Griffith was born in August to Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Griffith, and little Dan Riley Griffith, Jr., was born to the Dan Riley Griffith, Sr., in September.

September 25, at the Sagerton Community Center, when their friends gathered to enjoy the evening playing 42 and 84. Their sons, Billy and Terry, both students at Cisco Junior College, served refreshments. Their daughter, Mrs. Johnny Johnston, and Mr. Johnson and Tammy of Lubbock were unable to attend because Tammy had a sore throat. They came down from Lubbock, but thought it not advisable to take Tammy out.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Ulmer visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ulmer and Sharon in Hamlin Sunday afternoon.

James P. Moore Of Rule Gets Early Promotion

James P. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Moore, received an early promotion to the rank of private first class in the Army pay grade private first class basic combat training, Polk, La., Sept. 18.

Moore was awarded a promotion two months early is customary because of his high score on the military proficiency test and his bearing and capabilities.

The early promotion is the result of a new program of the Army policy to promote and provide incentives to outstanding trainees.
