REFRESHMENTS SERVED ALL DAY

Invitations going out from the Mathis Chevrolet Company this week say: "Rain or Shine, You Are Invited to Our Open House Saturday, April 17th." This get-acquainted party will last throughout the day.

Jack Mathis, owner-manager, took charge of the motor company some month or two ago, but for various reasons, a formal opening was never held. The party Saturday is staged to let the public become acquainted with the Chevrolet-Oldsmobile personnel and the many services offered.

One hundred dollars will be given in cash awards. The winners of the awards will become known at 7:30 P. M. Saturday. Those receiving the cash awards must be present at 7:30 P. M. The grand award is for $50.00. 2nd is $25.00 and 3rd and 4th awards are for $12.50 each.

Service awards totalling one hundred dollars will also be made. The awards range from a $45.00 set of custom seat covers to a $1.50 wheel pack job. Twenty-one of these awards will be made. The awards are to be made every hour from 1:00 P. M. through 6:00 P. M. You do not have to be present to get one of the service awards. Just register when you visit the Chevrolet house some time prior to 1:00 P. M.

Special Kiddies' Awards
The kiddies will come in for special awards at 7:30 P. M. The awards are Model Chevrolet Banks. The kiddies (and the grownups too) are crazy over these little cars.

No Shop Work Saturday
The shop will be closed for work all day Saturday, though it will be open for inspection by the visitors.

The public is invited to visit Mathis Chevrolet Co. Saturday and participate in the many awards being offered.

T. Guy Willis Up for Re-election Animal Inspector

T. Guy Willis, County Hide and Animal Inspector, is a candidate for re-election, subject to the action of the Democratic primary July 24th.

T. Guy is one of the youngest old timers of the county, having moved here at the age of six months with his parents from Mt. Vernon, Illinois, to the farm near Red River and adjoining the S. B. Burnett ranch. It was on this ranch he first decided to be a stockman and since then has added farming, veterinarian, assistant pound man, stock branding and many other jobs.

Having ridden with the Burnett cowboys many times, he knows every road and trail from the Wichita Mountains, east, west, north and south for miles around. It was also here he became interested in brands and now knows most of the brands of this and adjoining counties.

Mr. Willis, with the late Wid Phillips, started the first rodeo here. He also started the first auction sale barn and was the first barbecue man. He was also parade manager for several years.

Mr. Willis is now serving his second full term in the post of inspector, after completing an unexpired term after the death of the late Bob McFall.

Mr. Dow Estes has been returned to his home from a Wichita Falls hospital where he underwent a checkup last week.

Over Three Inches Of Rain for Burk

This area has been blessed with more than three inches of moisture since last Saturday night. Rain fell practically every day up until Wednesday night. Falling gently on land that had received little moisture since last October, there was very little run-off. Several unofficial gauges in different parts of town all showed between 3 and four inches of rain in the four days and nights.

Prospects for wheat, which were very gloomy in this area prior to the rain, have been somewhat revived. A fair harvest is expected from some fields, while others were too far gone to be helped much. Some wheat had already started to ture. It is doubtful if this kind of wheat will be worth combining.

It is not too late to plant corn and cotton. The excellent season in the ground gives hope for these two crops, though the cotton acreage will not be very great, due to government cut-back of acreage.

Pasture land is coming back fast. Pastures that were barren a week ago now have a beautiful blanket of green. Many cattle raisers had been selling off their stock because of lack of grass. It is possible now that many cattle will be brought back to this area.

Lions Club Raising Remaining Funds For Ball Diamond

Members of the Lions Club are out now to raise the final $500.00 to complete the lighted baseball field at Morgan Stadium. The project, a large undertaking for the local Lions, is almost completed. About all remains to be done is string the light wires on the poles, hook up the flood lights, build a backstop and put up some more seats. Then the field will be ready for night playing, probably next week.

Thus far the Lions have spent approximately $4,000.00 on the baseball field, in material and labor. Much of the material was donated and some of the labor was given. The club appreciates the fine spirit of cooperation they have encountered while working on this city-wide recreation spot. Too much praise cannot be given to the few who have worked so hard toward its completion.

When a member of the club comes to see you, dig down and help make the field debt-free. It is for the youth of our town, as well as the older group. In fact, it is to be used by everybody who wants to enjoy the modern facilities.

The Lions Club fund raising committee is composed of Wylie Browning, J. L. Caffee, Pat Patterson and Winston Freeman. One of them will be around to see you soon. If they don't get to see you, leave your contribution with Browning at the Burk Burnett Motors.

Removal Sale In Progress At Home Furniture

The Home Furniture Company located at 211 Main Street, is having a giant removal sale. The sale opens Friday, April 16, and continues through Tuesday, April 20th. Francis Beaver is owner of the store.

Beaver recently leased the Riley Building, on the corner of Main and Avenue C, which has undergone extensive remodeling. The new store will be opened in the next week or so, when it is stocked with new merchandise.

In talking with Beaver, he said he had never had a sale of any kind during the eight years he has been in his present location. Because of the inconvenience of moving the stock to the new location, Beaver stated he preferred to mark down the prices and give his friends and customers an opportunity to buy furniture at real savings.

According to Beaver, everything in the store is on sale. This includes, refrigerators, stoves, televisions, rugs, dining room and living room furniture and all the other items usually found in a furniture store.

Good Attendance At C.C. Luncheon

The regular monthly business session of the Chamber of Commerce at Town Hall was well attended Monday noon. Those in attendance were President J. L. Byars, Secretary-manager Ray Hill, H. D. Smith, A. R. Hill, Geo. McClarty, J. C. Hinkle, T. R. McCasling, Cliff Wampler, T. J. Campbell, Clark Gresham, A. H. Lohofener, J. V. Brookshear, C. M. Archer, Morris Bookbinder, Casey Logan, Truman Garland, C. A. Morgan, C. R. Chambers, Paul Browning, Geo. F. Byerly, Harry Dodson, Cliff Dodson and Marjorie Hofack.

The group voted to support the local FFA boys at Iowa Park in the Project show. It was agreed that the Homecoming feature of the Boom Town Celebration and Rodeo would be stressed this year. Invitations will be mailed to all former residents of Burk Burnett whose names and addresses are known. If you know information concerning a former resident, please give it to Paul Browning, chairman of the old timers committee. Some kind of feed is being planned for all out-of-towners who attend the homecoming. The homecoming will be Thursday, June 24th, second day of the three-day rodeo celebration.

T. R. McCasling, City Manager, reported two shallow water wells had been drilled east of town. The wells tested about 45 gallons per minute. Other wells will be sought in an effort to supplement the supply from present producing wells.

John Brookman is back on the job in the Star office again this week after being in the hospital at Wichita Falls for a thorough check-up. All reports on examinations came out OK.

TRACTOR VS. HORSE

As everyone knows, the horse and the mule are no longer the staple sources of work on typical American farms. Agriculture has turned to machines — the remarkable effective products of the farm equipment industry.

A study made by economists at Cornell University shows the reason for the change. According to this, it costs $282 a year to maintain a team of horses on a farm including feed, bedding, the labor required to care for the animals, and so on. So, as the Fowler, Kansas, News observes, "When one considers the low cost of tractors and figures out the hourly cost of using a tractor, he can see that it compares favorably with the cost of using a team of horses, or even mules. That, in short, is the answer to the question of why farmers have been turning from horses and mules to tractors and mechanized equipment."

On top of that, there is simply no comparison between the amount of work modern farm equipment can do in a given period of time as compared with that of even the best and strongest animal teams. The tractor and all the other machines and attachments are in no sense a luxury. They are a necessity to profitable and business like farming.

THE REAL WINNER

Does anyone still think that there isn't much real competition in the oil business, and that it is pretty well dominated by a small number of big firms?

If so, a typical recent event should help to clear up that misconception.

The Armed Services Purchasing Agency called for bids on a supply of oil products the military needed. The answer they got was striking — 218 companies sent in sealed bids. The successful bidder was a South Carolina jobber. Colonel Douglas R. Brown, Director of the Agency, commented: "The public is the real winner of this competition. I've watched it with great satisfaction — seen how it always lets us buy the best oil products at the lowest possible price."

As for the idea that the big oil companies are dominant, the facts refute it. For instance, small oil companies last year received 77 percent of all regional oil contracts awarded by the military.

Competition in the oil business isn't restricted to price, either. There is a never ending effort to produce better products—an effort that pays off mightily for the consumer. To take a good example, the quality of gasoline has improved to the extent that two gallons of today's products will do as much work as three gallons of the 1925 type. Yet the present cost of gas — exclusive of taxes — is about the same as it was then.

All American industry is highly competitive. Oil's no exception to the rule.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

LAS VEGAS, N. M. Daily Optic: "The rule that presidents kill themselves on the job has a happy conception in the case of Herbert Hoover who is performing valuable services to the nation 21 years after he left the White House — Earlier Presidents came back for brief periods of service in the executive departments and the Congress, but of all the list Hoover has contributed the most in his post-presidential period."

WINDOM, Minn. Citizen: "Over in Russia the communists have long been using capitalistic methods to get their production up. The man who produces the most gets the most pay. They have had piece work for years. They have had a wide pay differential— And now as a means of making an excuse for this use of capitalistic measures they claim to have invented something new. It's just old-fashioned American incentive pay, based on the theory that he who produces the most should receive the greatest remuneration."

MEDFORD, Mass. Mercury: "A dozen children in the town of Middlebush in New Jersey bragged to police of their vandalism when caught in such acts as breaking windows, slashing automobile tires, pulling up shrubbery. They were told their 'confessions' were tape recorded, but not why. Next, the police brought the parents of the twelve offenders to the station and played back the recordings. They had to hear their own children's voices to believe their depredation."

COVINA, Calif., Argus-Citizen: Both political parties can do more for the country and at the same time improve their chances at the polls in November by believing less at each other and working shoulder to shoulder to solve the national problems."

NO DOOR OPENING PROBLEM HERE!

EVER BEEN STUCK WITH THE problem of where to place the refrigerator? Those who have moved to a new home or remodeled their kitchens know what it means to have a refrigerator with a door that opens the wrong way into the kitchen. It is not only awkward to use but means countless extra steps and motions every time the refrigerator is used. Now refrigerator designers of Philco Corporation have solved this problem with a refrigerator, the door of which opens either to the right or to the left, whichever side is more convenient at the time. The refrigerator is shown above, left, with the door opening to the right, and on the right side, with the door opening to the left. The Y-design, center mounted handle opens the hinge mechanism on the side to be opened and securely latches the side that is to act as the hinge. Both sides cannot be accidentally released at the same time.

Last year's parade was the biggest in the history of the Possum Kingdom Roundup, more than 25 riding clubs, in addition to bands, floats and individual riders, completely encircling and overlapping the courthouse square, largest in Texas. Thousands of persons from a wide area lined the streets.

All riding clubs and sheriff's posses are welcome to take part. Trophies will be awarded to the three clubs judged to be the best and also there will a trophy for the club coming the greatest distance.

Immediately after the parade the first annual Quarter Horse Sale will be held in a tent at the rodeo grounds, with the selling of 40 horses of Hopp's Girls Receive Awards Wed.

The Burkburnett Basketball girls received awards Wednesday, April 7. The awards were black corduroy jackets with orange letters.

Girls receiving jackets were Myrtle Stafford, Peggy Willieford, Darlene Edwards, Marilyn Morris and Peggy Hodges. Three girls, Marilyn Hale, Kay Morrison and Jill Bernethy received district patches, but did not receive jackets because of previous awards received this year.

All of these girls, with the exception of Myrtle Stafford, Kay Morrison, Marilyn Hale and Jill Bernethy will be returning next year. These four girls are seniors.

Pat Bernethy, Marilyn Penn, Kenya Howard and Jo Ann Thomas will also be returning. They however, did not have enough quarters to letter this year.

The schools will observe the Easter holidays from Friday, April 16th thru Monday, April 19th. Regular classes will be resumed Tuesday, April 20th.

Correction

Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. J. V. Wallace, Clyde Wallace and C. R. Wallace spent the weekend in Talco, Texas and attended funeral services for Clyde and J. V.'s uncle, Mr. Travis Gann.

The rodeo will begin at 8 o'clock each night, May 26 through May 29.

Junior Garden Club Met April 1 With Mrs. Willingham

The Burkburnett Jr. Garden club met in the home of Mrs. Jude Willingham Thursday afternoon, April 1st. The president, Judy Hofacket, presided at the brief business meeting. A discussion was held on having a picnic for the May meeting.

Mrs. Tom Britton brought the program. She showed the members samples of the twelve most common shrubs that grow best in and around Burkburnett. After studying the leaves, a very interesting contest was held with girls trying to identify unnamed twigs. Three of the members made perfect scores. Mrs. Willingham assisted Mrs. Britton with the program.

Ileatha Herring won the door prize. Refreshments of cupcakes and cokes were served to Eloise Morris, Ileatha Herring, Pat Kay Inlow, Judy Hofacket and Irma Ned Riley, hostess.

Grade School News

Only nine more days until Easter, and I really believe the children are counting the days. It won't be long now until the old Easter Bunny will be visiting the boys and girls and leaving them bright colored eggs to find, and brand new dresses and suits to wear to church on Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Morrow's room is gaily decorated with Easter Bonnets. They are the size of our own Easter Bonnets, and are very prettily decorated. They look almost pretty enough to wear. This room is also planning a program for the next PTA meeting. The time of this program is April on Parade. They are going to have three topics, April's Fool Day, Pan American Day and Easter Day. This is going to be a very interesting program.

How smart can machines be?

Back in the twenties there was a stage play about mechanical men, who repaid their creators by trying to wreck civilization. "Robots" have made people uneasy ever since.

How smart can a machine be? At General Electric we're beginning to find out. For some years now we've been working with machines that come startlingly close to thinking like men.

Can they outsmart men? Just the opposite: they make men even smarter by taking over routine mental chores and freeing men for the creative thinking only human minds can encompass.

A jet engine used to be designed by trial and error. You had to build it first, or a costly model, to find out how it would work. Now, an electronic computer helps solve long and complex jet development problems in advance. In 15 minutes it goes through 8 million mathematical calculations and comes up with an answer that would take a mathematician 7 years.

In management, "hunch" is giving way to fact. Electronic data-processing machines zip through head-spinning statistics on market changes, product design and income trends to come up with the answers General Electric managers need to make sound decisions, not hopeful guesses.

Their ability to digest tons of data in a hurry may one day help the farmer by making weather predictions more accurate. They may shed new light on the reasons for boom and bust.

Machines that can read, write, do arithmetic, measure, feel, remember, now take the load off men's minds, just as machines have eased the burden on our backs.

But these fantastic machines still depend on people to design and build and guide and use them. What they replace is drudgery — not people.

Don't worry; smart though they are, machines will never be as smart as people. Not while people are smart enough to think them up, smart enough to let them do a man's drudging work,

Progress is our most important product!

LEGION NOTES

There is no organization where the dues are as low and so little ritual demanded as the American Legion.

Any service club costs its members, as a rule, as much for a month's dues and fees as the annual dues in the American Legion.

Yet there are some veterans who put forth the very lame and untenable excuse that they can not afford to join the American Legion at this time. That is tommyrot and poppycock.

If all veterans had thought like that, there would never have been any American Legion. There would never have been any veteran hospitals and GI life insurance, any GI built homes, nor any of the many privileges veterans receive under the GI Bill of Rights.

Some group, large or small, must fight for veteran benefits. Nothing is so short as the memories of those who did not go to war but whose businesses were kept intact and their necks saved from invasion by a group who protected them.

This is harsh, but it is human nature. There are plenty who don't give a tinker's damn or two hoots in a rain whether a veteran who was wounded, mentally or physically get any hospitalization. There are plenty who wouldn't raise a finger to aid the widows and children of the men who died in the armed forces of this country.

This being the case, veterans who strap of the American Legion as an expendable organization are playing right into the hands of those who are ungrateful for what these same veterans did for them in the matter of winning a few wars.

The least any veteran can do, is to join an American Legion post so that he can be counted. If he's too busy in other organizations to work actively, he can at least swell the numbers in the Legion so that congressmen, senators, and legislators will listen when the combined voices of veterans speak.

No Legionnaire should ever apologize to any veteran for promising to aid said veteran in joining an organization that is keeping up the fight during peace time, to which all contributed during the war periods.

Tonight we will have a very interesting meeting with Steve Marchand, Civil Defense Director, as featured speaker on the program. A special invitation is

HERRINGS

R. D. Laney

The phrase "Red Herring" has become a headline at the time the FBI was re-organizing the Justice Department activities of the various organizations operating in this country. These organizations were enormously effective in accomplishing more than ever brought to subsequent investigations into their operations and other Federal matters.

Harry Dexter White worked his way through places in the state being President expert at Yalta the decisions were favorable to Soviet Russia. He was also the principal American official in charge of the San Francisco Conference where the Charter of the United Nations was prepared.

The Government was warned by the FBI in 1939 that Alger Hiss was employed as a spy by a foreign government. Alger Hiss was a deceiving man in his personality. Even at first sight it would have been natural for you to be distrustful of him, as of several others in his circle, like Russian born Natham Gregory Silvermaster, who was an assistant to Harry Dexter White.

Yet Silvermaster, recorded in the files of the FBI as a paid agent of the Soviet Secret Service and a known member of the NKVD in America, stayed on in high places, the FBI reports notwithstanding, and his companion, Harry Dexter White was promoted. Of this group, only Alger Hiss ended up in jail, the only one of the bunch of conspirators.

The Civil Service Commission advises that under the present law "Alger Hiss was subject to the retirement Act while he was employed in the Federal Service, and rendered sufficient service to entitle him to a Government Annuity." Bills are now being introduced in the House of Representatives to amend the retirement Act so that convicted agents of our enemies will not be rewarded by a pension after they have been liberated from serving prison terms for acts of treason against this country.

The Rosenberg ring stole the atom secret and infiltrated scientific Agencies of the Armed forces engaged in experimental work. Rosenberg personally stole a proximity fuse, and organized a group of agents at the signal corps station at Astoria, Long Island and at Ft. Mammouth, N. J. This group stole our radar development for Soviet Russia.

When the war ended in 1945, Harry Dexter White was Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, and the FBI report at that time recorded him as having secret relations with the Soviet Union, as well as seven others in the ring of government officials as Communist. On January 23, 1946, Harry Dexter White was nominated Executive Director for our Government in the international Monetary Fund dealing with the Soviet Union and other countries, regardless of FBI reports to the effect that he was a Soviet Spy at that time.

When the news of White's promotion was received by Mr. J. Edgar Hoover he immediately issued a second report. This report was dated February 4, 1946, which was nine days after White's nomination, but the records show that neither of the FBI reports were forwarded to the committee having the responsibility of confirming or rejecting the nomination of Harry Dexter White to a high position in the Government.

As early as 1948, the American people were beginning to become suspicious, and were bringing pressure to bear on their Representatives in Congress. Despite the FBI reports to the State Department, many spies as in the case of Harry Dexter White and Alger Hiss remained in our Government, and with their high positions held places of power, while the top agents of the Communist party supplied the cover ups.

Our Government also invited Soviet Professor Alexander and another Russian scientist to witness our Bikini atom bomb tests, and to even mingle with members of the Presidential Board in the debates over the bomb's effectiveness. In this same year of 1948, it was confirmed by the FBI that Red Agents had been given Oak Ridge's production sheets showing the atomic output and capacity. It was ascertained that these vital records had been stolen and sent to Moscow on August 9, 1945.

Finally, who were these "Red Herring" capable of fooling even a President of the United States? To mention one, for an example, Harry Dexter White, an educated American, a graduate of Harvard University, and who rose rapidly in the ranks of statesman to become Assistant to the Treasury, and who not only became a Communist, but one of the most effective spies this country ever produced. White died at his farm in New Hampshire, August 16, 1948, three days after appearing before a House Investigating committee.

A RESOLUTION

In as much as our heavenly father has called unto himself one of our beloved citizens, Mrs. W. R. Hill, we the directors of the Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce wish to extend our sincerest sympathy to the family of the deceased. Be it resolved that a copy be sent to the husband, one to our local paper, and one to be filed

Mrs. Jack Robertson, Mrs. Archie Faulk and Mrs. Jack Mathis were welcomed as new members.

The following members enjoyed the dinner: Mesdames P. A. Carpenter, Ralph Davis, Harry Dodson, Truman Garland, Howard Henderson, Alvin Hill, F. A. Jamieson, Louis Littlefair, Roy Mitchell, Albert Richardson, Joe Bob Tyler, George McClarty, Jack Robertson, Archie Faulk, Jack Mathis, Martha Gayle Parr and the hostess, Mrs. Mills.

The next meeting will be April 12 in the home of Mrs. P. A. Carpenter.

New Jobs for Texans

Texas industries have been providing new jobs for Texans at the rate of about 70,000 a year. That's about 200 new jobs every day.

All kinds of jobs . . . in offices, on construction work, in manufacturing plants, in the development of the natural resources of the State. Jobs for riggers, for secretaries, for engineers, for truck drivers, for accountants, for lawyers, for crane operators, for decorators, for sailors . . . all kinds of jobs.

And the reason why these new jobs have been, and continue to be available is this: Texas industry is expanding, and industry makes jobs.

On the average, each new job created in Texas requires the investment of $12,000 capital*. Thus, Texas industry invests over three-quarters of a billion dollars each year in new plants and in plant expansion to create 70,000 new Texas jobs.

Much of this annual investment in new jobs for Texas is made by the oil industry itself and industries which depend on oil and natural gas for fuel and raw materials. Every year a wider variety of industries put to profitable use a larger number of the resources of the State, and call on a broader assortment of available Texas skills.

Forecasters predict an even greater industrial development in Texas, and an even larger number of new jobs, as more industries recognize the advantages that Texas offers: good markets, raw and manufactured resources, trustworthy and dependable people, efficient and abundant fuel, a mild climate, and a good state government . . . In that list of advantages, the Texas oil industry provides raw materials for processing, and the world's finest industrial fuel—natural gas.

*In the oil industry, the required investment for each new job is over $50,000.
