Bulldogs at Quannah This Week

Friday night the Bulldogs turned on the steam and defeated the Wellington Skykats 21 to 0 on the local field. Bob Tyler's Bulldogs have won two district conference games and lost one. They won Electra and lost to Seymour.

The first two minutes of the game were a struggle. Gerry McCabe, Left Halfback, passed to Dale Boren, Right Halfback, for a touchdown. The pass was covered 46 yards. Louis McDonald, extra point kicker, booted one right thru the middle for the extra point.

In the closing minutes of the quarter, Burk Burnett returned a Wellington fumble on the 2 yard line. Monty Knox, Fullback, rumbled through the line for a touchdown. McDonald's kick was good again.

Three minutes deep in the second quarter, McCabe found a hole in the line and burst thru for a touchdown.

Donald made it three for 3, bringing the score at 21 to 0. The driving march covered 78 yards. The last two quarters was a saw sort of affair, with Burk keeping the visitors constantly shoved away from scoring position.

Except for the score, the statistics made the game appear evenly matched.

Legion Breakfast Attended by 100

Approximately 100 Legionnaires, their wives and friends gathered at Town Hall Thursday morning at 8:00 o'clock for the annual Legion breakfast.

H. S. Thaxton, Commander of the local Post, called the group to order. Rev. T. M. Jensen gave the invocation.

Blanche Butler furnished piano music during the breakfast. Following the breakfast, Thaxton introduced Tommie Oglethorpe as Master of Ceremonies, who introduced the principal speaker. The speaker was J. O. Henson from Sheppard Air Force Base, who brought a very timely address.

Harry Dodson, in the absence of Fire Chief Frank Kelley, thanked the Legion and the Legion Auxiliary for serving coffee and doughnuts to firemen who fought the fire at Owens & Brumley Funeral Home Wednesday morning.

Pupils of Miss Blanche Butler furnished the entertainment. She accompanied Max Crowley in a solo and Karen Burton in a solo. Also Edna and Joy Eidson, who sang a duet.

Thaxton announced memorial services would be held at the cemetery at 11:00 o'clock.

Rev. T. L. Merriott, pastor of the Thrift Baptist Church, dismissed with prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Morris and Mike left Friday to make their home in Snyder, Texas.

Fireboys Thank Legion, Auxiliary For Coffee at Fire

Burkburnett Volunteer Firemen, and Firemen from Wichita Falls and Sheppard Air Force Base are grateful to the local American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary for serving hot coffee and doughnuts while they fought a stubborn fire at the Owens & Brumley Funeral Home Wednesday morning.

Pat Brady came by the fire at 9:00 o'clock and decided it would be a long drawn out affair, and coffee and doughnuts would be very much in order. He started the wheels rolling.

H. S. Thaxton is Commander of the Legion. Mrs. E. C. Buford is President of the Auxiliary. Others helping serve the tired, cold firemen were: Mesdames Bill Elbaugh, Netherlain, Louis Brocker, Pat Brady, Henry Connell, Buford Lawson, Lonnie Hoffman, and others.

Also assisting were Henry's Bakery, Palace Cafe, Corner Drug Store and the Dixie Drive In.

13 EASY AND SURE WAYS TO KILL THE OLD HOME TOWN

1. DON'T PAY TAXES
Let the other fellow pay his. Vote against taxes. Then fuss because streets and other things are not kept up to your liking.
2. Never attend any of the meetings called for the good of the town. Find fault with everything.
3. Get all that the city will give you, but don't give anything in return.
4. Talk co-operation, but don't do anything for the city unless you are paid for it.
5. Never accept an office.
6. Don't do any more than you have to. Always complain about the town being run by a clique.
7. Don't back your police or fire department. Demand special treatment when you get a ticket.
8. Look at every proposition in a selfish way.
9. Don't do anything for the youth of your town; criticize them.
10. If you have any good leaders, don't believe them; get jealous.
11. Don't work on any committees. Tell them you are too busy.
12. Don't say anything good about your town. Be the first to point out its shortcomings.
13. Don't support your local merchants. Expect them to support you, but don't back them.

Fire Destroys Funeral Home

Firemen Fought Fire Four Hours

A gas stove used to heat a second floor display room was blamed for a fire which destroyed upper portions of the Owens & Brumley Funeral Home here Wednesday morning. Damage will run into thousands of dollars.

Fire Chief J. Frank Kelley disclosed Wednesday afternoon that a post-fire examination of the building had led him to believe the blaze was started by the gas stove, spread to the attic and then back down to the second floor.

Fire fighting units from Burk Burnett and Wichita Falls battled the blaze from the first alarm at 7:30 until after it was brought under control about 11:30 A. M.

No one was injured, though several firemen were temporarily over come by smoke.

Fire damage was mostly to the upper floor and attic, but water and smoke damage to the lower floor was severe. Firemen were able to move much of the downstairs furnishings out of the 17 year old structure, avoiding greater loss.

New Horizon Windshield Offers Increased Visibility on 1955 Dodge

The new 1955 Dodge will be on display at Burk Burnett Motors Wednesday, November 17.

Passengers in a 1955 Dodge enjoy greatly improved visibility with the "New Horizon" windshield, announced R. C. Somerville, Dodge vice president in charge of sales.

He pointed out that the cockpit-like windshield in the new Dodge provides a wider field of vision, enabling safe driving and more enjoyable sight-seeing.

Glass area has been increased 16 percent in the newly designed windshield.

Visibility is greatly increased because the glass is fully wrapped around at both top and bottom of the windshield," Somerville said. "This eliminates blind spots in driving vision and provides top of window visibility not found in other types of windshields."

Styling of the windshield further enhances the Dodge swept-back styling and contributes to the built in look forward motion.

In addition to its increased windshield area, the 1955 Dodge provides the biggest rear window visibility offered in the automotive industry. The enlarged back window glass area is designed to permit easier parking and safer rear vision.

John Rigby, funeral home manager, and his wife, who live in a second floor apartment, first knew of the fire when smoke came through a window of their living quarters.

Plumes of smoke soon attracted hundreds of spectators to the stucco building at 101 South Avenue D, across the street from Burk Burnett Junior High School, on one of the town's busiest streets.

Chief Kelley said the first alarm was turned in by Dave McNeill, just before 8 A. M. Two pumper trucks were dispatched immediately, but the fire already was in the attic. About one hour later firemen apparently had the blaze under control, but it burst out anew a few minutes later.

The chief was high in his appreciation of the aid rendered.

First Dollar Day Declared Success

"Best Monday we've ever had." "I was never so agreeably surprised in my life."

"Burkburnett has had a shot in the arm."

"The customers were away ahead of the merchants in enthusiasm."

"We were simply snowed under all day."

Those are a few of the expressions heard concerning the first Burk Burnett Dollar Day held Monday, Nov. 8th.

Stores were crowded throughout most of the day. More people were in town than on lots of busy Saturdays in the past.

The merchants were well satisfied with the first effort, and the customers seemed just as well pleased. They found and took advantage of bargains everywhere they went.

Some merchants are already preparing their dollar day specials for December 13th. "We are really going to shoot the works," they say. That kind of spirit will really put the Second Monday Dollar Day on the top shelf where it rightfully belongs.

At 5:00 o'clock more than $300.00 worth of valuable merchandise was given away at the corner of Avenue B and Main St. More than a thousand people patiently waited more than an hour while the awards were being made. It was a quiet, eager crowd, listening carefully to see whose name was called next.

The next big Dollar Day will be Monday, December 13th. It is one no body will want to miss.

Attendance Slim at C. of C. Luncheon

Only twenty-three reported for the monthly Chamber of Commerce business luncheon Monday noon at Town Hall.

President Buddy Byars was in charge.

Ralph Davis gave the invocation. Following the meal, Manager Tommie Oglethorpe read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved.

A letter from the local American Legion was read, requesting that all business houses close from 10:00 A. M. to 12:00 noon, Thursday, November 11th. Announcement was also made that the Legion will serve a breakfast at the Legion Hall Thursday morning. Tickets may be purchased from any Legionnaire at 50c each.

A public relations Clinic will be held at the High school for four nights, Nov. 29th-Dec. 2nd, from 7 to 9:15 P. M. This A. & M. Extension Service course costs only $2.00 per person. It is open to the public, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

Oglethorpe announced that the C. of C. had made arrangements to purchase three large Christmas trees, to be erected at the intersections of Main and Avenues B, C and D. The City will put up the trees and provide appropriate lighting. The trees will be lighted up on December 9th, when Christmas lights will go on all over town.

The C. of C. is co-operating with the ladies' clubs in a Christmas decorating and lighting program to cover the entire city.

Santa Claus will make his appearance in Burk Burnett on December 9th, and several times before Christmas Day. Carols will be played from the City Hall over a public address system prior to Christmas.

Those present were: Buddy Byars, Tommy Oglethorpe, Paul Browning, Jack Mathis, Howard Clement, Harry Dodson, H. D. Smith, Everett Westbrook, Truman Garland, J. Frank Kelley, Ralph Davis, Bryan Farris, Geo. McClarty, Morris Bookbinder, A. R. Hill, James Brady, J. V. Brookshear, Geo. F. Byerly, Casey Logan, Guy England, Don Davis, B. O. Willis, T. R. McCasling and W. H. Holt.

"ONE NATION... INVISIBLE"

America's number one veteran and Legionnaire, President Eisenhower, has issued a formal proclamation calling upon "all citizens to observe Thursday, November 11, 1954 as Veterans' Day. On that day" it says, "Let us solemnly remember the sacrifices of all those who fought so valiantly, on the seas, in the air, on foreign shores, to preserve our heritage of freedom, and let us reconsecrate ourselves to the task of promoting and enduring peace so that their efforts shall not have been in vain."

The President's proclamation cites our custom of memorializing November 11 as the anniversary of the armistice ending World War I and suggests the greater appropriateness of the name, Veterans' Day (as approved by Congress last June 1st) since "in the intervening years the United States has been involved in two other great military conflicts, which have added millions of veterans, living and dead, to the honor rolls of this nation."

In directing Government officials to see that the flag is displayed on all public buildings on this day, the President is at least hinting at what the rest of us should do on this occasion when "all veterans, all veteran's organizations and the entire citizenry will wish to join hands in the common purpose." We'd better get up those colors we had cleaned free last June for Flag Day!

Across the land, in cities, towns and villages, observance arrangements, parades and other programs will be in the hands of joint committees representing The American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Amvet and Disabled American Veterans. And coincidentally, at 15 metropolitan centers from the Dodgers' baseball park in Brooklyn, N. Y. to the Rose Bowl in Hollywood, the Legion will officiate, at the request of Attorney General Brownell, in ceremonies following the induction of nearly 25,000 new Americans into the full rights and privileges of citizenship.

It is appropriate that all Americans, the newest as well as the oldest, participate in Veterans' Day. For one thing, thousands of our new citizens are veterans who fought under the American flag in two world wars and in Korea, even though this country had no claim on them. And for another, the sons of those who are naturalized on this first Veterans' Day may well be marching themselves on Veterans' Days to come.

importance since, if we have the time and means, we can run away from it; and, if not seek out air conditioning or a hot stove, depending on the season.

It was Mr. Falvey's company who last year put on its own automobile show, presenting the independent makes in that plushy extravaganza "Easter Parade of Stars" at the Waldorf-Astoria, and which you probably saw over TV. Since then, various of these automobile builders have entered consolidations in order to strengthen their competitive position against the big three. And since Mr. Falvey heads the largest independent manufacturer of automotive electrical equipment, his campaign to arouse his own people, nearly 30,000 of them, his distributors and jobbers and the nation-at-large to go out and see what the automobile market offers, is one of enlightened self interest.

But the emphasis belongs on enlightened. Buying an automobile is a big deal for most of us. It's too important to make casually, because we happen to like a particular dealer, or because we've always bought a particular make, or even because we can get a few more dollars for the old one. We should be grateful to Mr. Falvey and Auto-Lite for reminding us that no one company has all the brains in its field, or all the imagination or all the good taste. In all probability there never has been a year when all of the motor makers have gone so completely all-out to win approval and stir enthusiasm.

The least we can do, in our own enlightened self-interest, is to see all the new cars, and judge them all, in terms of our own ideas and our own requirements. And that's all we need to do to insure continuance of the competition that keeps America a land of free choice, in which the customer is king.

Not only that, it should be fun too!

WHY HURRY

The Big Three, U. S., Britain and France, with the anticipated support of Canada, will seek endorsement by the UN General Assembly of the US plan for using atomic energy in the pursuits of peace. The core of the plan is the creation of an international atomic authority within the UN which all members would be free to join, another UNESCO or World Health Organization.

Meanwhile, President Eisenhower sought to reopen the atoms for peace discussion with the USSR, after the Reds had objected previous overtures — they contained no prohibition on atomic weapons. Such an agreement, with no effective means of checking on the Russians would be dandy, of course for the Russians. They have since receded from this position however, which might cause a suspicious person to think they have another ace up their sleeve.

Joe Bill Belue District Winner Of Farm & Home

Joe Bill Belue, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Belue, 3210 Belue Ave. Wichita Falls, has been announced as district winner in the Farm and Home 4-H Electric contest by Mr. J. A. Scofield, district agent. He will receive a $50 cash award.

Joe Bill is a member of the Wichita Falls senior 4-H club. He has been a 4-H club member for 6 years and completed 30 projects in field crops, poultry, garden, swine, steers, electricity, farm safety and tractor maintenance.

Joe Bill says electricity has been his most interesting project. He has built an electric fence, wired his poultry house and garage and learned how to make minor repairs and home appliances. He has had blue ribbon entries in the county 4-H electric show the past two years. An annual electric show for 4-H club members is sponsored by the Texas Electric Service of Wichita Falls.

"Electricity has saved many hours of labor and helped in many ways in the raising of poultry and swine. It has also made dollars of profit for me as well as giving me much helpful experience," says Joe Bill.

In addition to his electric work Joe Bill has been active in all phases of 4-H club work. He has been vice-president, secretary and reporter of his club. He was a member of a vegetable demonstration team which won first in the district and third in the state. He also has been active in dairy judging and county and district camps. He has had exhibits in county and state fairs winning 28 ribbons.

Lone Star Appoints Carl L. Trevitt

Appointment of Carl L. Trevitt to the newly created position of general sales and promotional manager for Lone Star Gas Co., General Division of Distribution has been announced by M. L. Bird, vice president. Trevitt's assignment, said Bird, is one of several administrative changes resulting from reorganization and enlargement of the company promotional program.

Kenneth N. Watkins has been named assistant sales and promotion manager to aid Trevitt in his new post. Watkins was advanced from manager of Lone Star's dealer assistance department of the General Division of Distribution.

Lone Star's General Division of Distribution consists of some 380 cities and towns in Texas and Oklahoma and is exclusive of the company's Dallas and Fort Worth divisions of distribution.

Trevitt had served as merchandise manager for the General Division of Distribution since March, 1932. Prior to that time he acted as assistant head of the department. He has been with Lone Star since October, 1927, when as salesman he assisted in the opening at Greenville of the first showroom on the Lone Star system. Previous to joining Lone Star, Trevitt had been associated in the marketing of kindred lines of appliances throughout his business career.

Watkins started his career with Lone Star in 1947 as district salesman at Wichita Falls and in January, 1949, was assigned to special sales work in the Wichita Falls area. In May, 1951, he was appointed sales supervisor for Lone Star's West Texas territory and stationed at Abilene. With headquarters in Dallas, he was appointed manager of the Dealer Assistance Department of the General Division of Distribution April 13, 1953.

Methodist Junior Fellowship Met Sun.

The Methodist Jr. Fellowship met on Sunday evening to resume their study on adventures in India, Pakistan and Ceylon. The purpose of this study is to acquaint the junior boys and girls with conditions in these countries. Their contribution to world culture as well as their great needs.

We started our adventure by going with a missionary and his son Don on the big ocean liner S. S. United States, from New York to Southampton, England and on a plane to Bombay, India. The first chapter we had a "I wonder questionnaire" and discussed each as we put them on the chalk board and in our note books. Our second session was "Send us a teacher." We learned that in India about twenty percent of the people can read and write in Pakistan about seventy percent of the population cannot even so much as write their own names. About forty thousand children and young people are attending our own Methodist schools, largely supported by Methodists in America. We met Dr. Frank Laubach, a missionary in the Philippine Islands, and learned of his great work in world literacy then of his plans "Each one, teach one."

In session three we studied Don's journal that he kept daily of all the things he saw and did. Six juniors read to us excerpts from the journal.

Mrs. Pirtle presented a poster and asked for clippings to fill it. The children are to bring them each Sunday evening. She also announced that Dr. Laubach would be in Wichita Falls the following Thursday evening.

Mrs. Melton, secretary of the childrens work in the WSCS, is directing the study, and the women's Society gives us $5.00 monthly to serve the children refreshments. If our juniors are missing these fellowship meetings, they are indeed losing interest in our work, the worship, the study and lastly the supervised recreation.

Twelve members were present last Sunday. Holy Morris, president, Sandy Ott, sec. and reporter.

Mrs. Mamie Long has returned to her home at 711 W. 3rd, after spending the summer with her mother. She will be happy to have all of her friends to call and visit her at her home now. Mrs. Long is still in a very serious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lawrence and children of St. Augustine, Fla., were here last week visiting his mother, Mrs. H. L. Lawrence.

Plymouth To Show Wed., November 17

Plymouth's bigger and more powerful 1955 model cars will be displayed by dealers thruout the nation beginning Wednesday November 17, President John P. Mansfield of Plymouth Motor Corporation announced today.

The 1955 Plymouths are entirely new, both in styling and engineering detail, Mansfield said. They are lower, longer and wider than previous Plymouth cars.

They are the most powerful cars Plymouth ever built. The 1955 engines are a 117 horsepower Hy-Fire V-8. The latter engine also is available with a four-barrel carburetor and special manifold which increases its horsepower to 177.

Plymouth offers as optional equipment a full range of automatic and power assist devices. They include PowerFlite fully automatic no clutch transmission, a new design coaxial full time power steering, power brakes, power operated front seat adjustments, power-operated window regulators, and adjustable speed electric windshield wipers. Air conditioning by Airtemp also is available as special equipment.

The 1955 line is made up of 12 models, including for the first time four door versions of the Plymouth Suburban, the all steel body "station wagon" type car which Plymouth pioneered in 1949.

Mansfield said the 1955 models are all new in a more basic sense than at any previous new model introduction in the company's history.

We started three years ago to design them, he said. "Everything is new. This applies not only to their styling and interior decor but also to the body structural details, the frame, the suspension system, the interior ventilating and heating system and many other features. It literally is true that our 1955 models are new from bumper to bumper.

Flameproofing Adds to Safety of Grade School

The C. R. Thomas Chemical Fireproofing Co. of Dallas completed a fireproofing job in the attic of the Hardin Grade School in Burkburnett Wednesday night. The Flamort fire retardants are chemicals which repel ordinary flames when sprayed on wood or other inflammable materials. It has been demonstrated and proved that these materials cannot burn of its own flame.

As a result of this flameproofing, the school not only will be completely fire-resistant, but the state will give a new insurance rate with a result of 15 per cent saving on rates.

Supt. Ralph Davis and the school board members are to be highly commended for this step in making our schools safe for our children.

Dallas State Fair Set New Record

The State Fair of Texas closed its amazing 1954 exposition by setting a new national record for annual fairs. Attendance for the 16 days totaled 2,506,463, which was 223,751 more than last year. The total shattered the previous national record of 2,367,140 which the fair established in 1952.

The record was set despite two rainy days near the end of the fair. The exposition closed, however, under clear skies with 190,396 on hand for the last day, biggest closing day of the fair's history. An estimated 20,000 people attended the Cotton Bowl Religious Festival on the final Sunday.

Biggest day of the fair was Rural Youth Day, Oct. 16, when a new world's record for a single day's attendance at any annual exposition was set. Gatekeepers counted 296,783 persons entering the grounds on that day, including more than 100,000 4-H club members, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers from all sections of the state.

About 69,000 people paid out $272,734 to see 24 performances of "The King and I" in the Auditorium. Ice Cycles of 1954 drew 115,125 patrons, and 50,899 saw the Joie Chitwood Thrill Show.

The House Beautiful Pace Setter House drew 80,000 visitors, just about all that could file thru the house during the 12 hours a day that it was open. A fabulous collection of historical and costly gems in the Women's Building attracted 685,527.

"It's been a great fair in every way," said State Fair president R. L. Thornton. "We've exceeded every fair attendance record in this country, and set a world's record for a single day. Now we are going to work toward an even greater fair next year."

Dates of the 1955 fair will be October 8 thru 23. The Texas-Okla. football game will again be an opening day feature.

Winter Pastures

Planning, Management and Rain Answer To Winter Pastures

Rain alone will not provide the grass needed for winter grazing. B. T. Haws, county agent, says planning and management of the range may be just about as important as the supply of moisture in determining how much grass will be available for livestock feed during the winter period.

Now that winter is at hand, the county agent says livestock producers should save all the feed they possibly can as bundles of hay, silage. If feed should be purchased, buy it now he says. Plant annual grazing crops, and here he points out that producers who dusted in small grains and legumes are far ahead of those who waited for rain.

He says pastures which have been deferred should not be grazed until after frost because livestock will graze off the seed heads before they have a chance to fall to the ground. He suggests that a protein supplement of one to two pounds for cattle and an eighth to a quarter pound for ewes be fed each day where the livestock is running on dry grass. Finally, the County Agent points out, droughts are not new to Texas and urges livestock producers to plan their operations and manage them to take care of the drought years.

"Rogue Cop" At Palace Theatre

Robert Taylor, Janet Leigh, George Raft, Steve Forrest and Anne Francis head the stellar cast of "Rogue Cop" opening this week at the Palace Theatre, as an exciting pitched drama of the underworld and of a police detective who tries to play both sides of the fence and becomes the butt of a crime syndicate.

For Taylor, the new MGM of fering marks a departure from such of his recent costume pictures. Janet Leigh also returns to a modern role, after costume appearances in "Prince Valiant" and "The Black Shield of Falworth". She is cast as a night club singer trying to hide the unsavory reputation of her past.

George Raft, who soared to stardom on the strength of his "menace" portrayals in such films as "Scarface," again plays a sinister role as the head of a crime syndicate.

Lone Star Appoints Carl L. Trevitt

Appointment of Carl L. Trevitt to the newly created position of general sales and promotional manager for Lone Star Gas Co., General Division of Distribution has been announced by M. L. Bird, vice president. Trevitt's assignment, said Bird, is one of several administrative changes resulting from reorganization and enlargement of the company promotional program.

Kenneth N. Watkins has been named assistant sales and promotion manager to aid Trevitt in his new post. Watkins was advanced from manager of Lone Star's dealer assistance department of the General Division of Distribution.

Lone Star's General Division of Distribution consists of some 380 cities and towns in Texas and Oklahoma and is exclusive of the company's Dallas and Fort Worth divisions of distribution.

Trevitt had served as merchant manager for the General Division of Distribution since March, 1932. Prior to that time he acted as assistant head of the department. He has been with Lone Star since October, 1927, when as salesman he assisted in the opening at Greenville of the first salesroom on the Lone Star system. Previous to joining Lone Star, Trevitt had been associated in the marketing of kindred lines of appliances throughout his business career.

Watkins started his career with Lone Star in 1947 as district salesman at Wichita Falls and in January, 1949, was assigned to special sales work in the Wichita Falls area. In May, 1951, he was appointed sales supervisor for Lone Star's West Texas territory and stationed at Abilene. With headquarters in Dallas, he was appointed manager of the Dealer Assistance Department of the General Division of Distribution April 13, 1953.

Methodist Junior Fellowship Met Sun.

The Methodist Jr. Fellowship met on Sunday evening to resume their study on adventures in India, Pakistan and Ceylon. The purpose of this study is to acquaint the junior boys and girls with conditions in these countries. Their contribution to world culture as well as their great needs.

We started our adventure by going with a missionary and his son Don on the big ocean liner S. S. United States, from New York to Southampton, England and on a plane to Bombay, India. The first chapter we had a "I wonder questionnaire" and discussed each as we put them on the chalk board and in our note books.

Our second session was "Send us a teacher." We learned that in India about twenty percent of the people can read and write. In Pakistan about seventy percent of the population cannot even so much as write their own names. About forty thousand children and young people are attending our own Methodist schools, largely supported by Methodists in America. We met Dr. Frank Laubach, a missionary in the Philippine Islands, and learned of his great work in world literacy then of his plans "Each one, teach one."

In session three we studied Don's journal that he kept daily of all the things he saw and did. Six juniors read to us excerpts from the journal.

Mrs. Pirtle presented a poster and asked for clippings to fill it. The children are to bring them each Sunday evening. She also announced that Dr. Laubach would be in Wichita Falls the following Thursday evening.

Mrs. Melton, secretary of the childrens work in the WSCS, is directing the study, and the women Society gives us $5.00 monthly to serve the children refreshments. If your juniors are missing these fellowship meetings, they are indeed loosing interest in our work, the worship, the study and lastly the supervised recreation.

Twelve members were present last Sunday. Holy Morris, president, Sandy Ott, sec. and reporter.

Mrs. Mamie Long has returned to her home at 711 W. 3rd. after spending the summer with her mother. She will be happy to have all of her friends to call and visit her at her home now. Mrs. Long is still in a very serious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lawrence and children of St. Augustine, Fla., were here last week visiting his mother, Mrs. H. L. Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Lane and Faye spent last week visiting relatives in Amarillo, New Mexico and Kansas.

Plymouth To Show Wed., November 17

Plymouth's bigger and more powerful 1955 model cars will be displayed by dealers thruout the nation beginning Wednesday November 17, President John P. Mansfield of Plymouth Motor Corporation announced today.

The 1955 Plymouths are entirely new, both in styling and engineering detail, Mansfield said. They are lower, longer and wider than previous Plymouth cars.

They are the most powerful cars Plymouth ever built. The 1955 engines are a 117 horsepower Hy-Fire V-8. The latter engine also is available with a four-barrel carburetor and special manifold which increases its horsepower to 177.

Plymouth offers as optional equipment a full range of automatic and power assist devices. They include PowerFlite fully automatic no clutch transmission, a new design coaxial full time power steering, power brakes, power operated front seat adjustments, power-operated window regulators, and adjustable speed electric windshield wipers. Air conditioning by Airtemp also is available as special equipment.

The 1955 line is made up of 12 models, including for the first time four door versions of the Plymouth Suburban, the all steel body "station wagon" type car which Plymouth pioneered in 1949.

Mansfield said the 1955 models are all new in a more basic sense than at any previous new model introduction in the company's history.

We started three years ago to design them, he said. "Everything is new. This applies not only to their styling and interior decor but also to the body structural details, the frame, the suspension system, the interior ventilating and heating system and many other features. It literally is true that our 1955 models are new from bumper to bumper."

Flameproofing Adds to Safety of Grade School

The C. R. Thomas Chemical Fireproofing Co. of Dallas completed a fireproofing job in the attic of the Hardin Grade School in Burk Burnett Wednesday night. The Flamort fire retardants are chemicals which repel ordinary flames when sprayed on wood or other inflammable materials. It has been demonstrated and proved that these materials cannot burn of its own flame.

As a result of this flameproofing, the school not only will be completely fire-resistant, but the state will give a new insurance rate with a result of 15 per cent saving on rates.

Supt. Ralph Davis and the school board members are to be highly commended for this step in making our schools safe for our children.

Dallas State Fair Set New Record

The State Fair of Texas closed its amazing 1954 exposition by setting a new national record for annual fairs. Attendance for the 16 days totalled 2,506,463, which was 223,751 more than last year. The total shattered the previous national record of 2,367,140 which the fair established in 1952.

The record was set despite two rainy days near the end of the fair. The exposition closed, however, under clear skies with 190,396 on hand for the last day, biggest closing day of the fair's history. An estimated 20,000 people attended the Cotton Bowl Religious Festival on the final Sunday.

Biggest day of the fair was Rural Youth Day, Oct. 16, when a new world's record for a single day's attendance at any annual exposition was set. Gatekeepers counted 296,783 persons entering the grounds on that day, including more than 100,000 4-H club members, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers from all sections of the state.

Balancing Feed With Livestock

Balancing Livestock with feed on the range is a "Number one" problem of livestock raisers. The tendency is to remember stocking rates during good years, says B. T. Haws, county agent. A balanced livestock program is based on average years.

Proper grazing gives plants a chance to maintain themselves, withstand drought and conserve moisture, Haws points out.

A balanced program for growing livestock includes plans for deferred grazing, the planting of supplemental grazing crops and provisions for silage or hay reserves.

If extra feed is needed, buy it early and in season. Plan to graze half and leave half of the annual forage production for range maintenance, the county agent says.

Research shows when more than 50 percent of the forage was removed, growth of the plant roots stopped for a period of several days to several weeks.

Managing Small Grains For Winter Grazing

Management plays a big role in the success of small grains and annual clovers for winter grazing.

Don't turn in the livestock until the new plants have at least six inches growth, says B. T. Haws, county agent. This allows the development of a hardy root system and plants aren't easily pulled up by grazing animals.

Rotation grazing offers the most effective use of forage produced by fast growing small grains and legumes. With a rotation system fields are divided into smaller blocks by portable fences. When the animals are turned in, the plants are grazed down rapidly and evenly, moved to another pasture, and the first plants make new growth, explains Haws. He recommends portable fencing because it is easy to move and is inexpensive.

If grazing gets too far ahead of livestock, mow the excess to prevent early booting. If allowed to make too much growth, the county agent says, small grains are more susceptible to winter killing.

Remove animals from grains which later will be harvested before the plants start to "joint." Later grazing will reduce grain yields.

Winter grazing usually is very succulent and a little dry hay should be provided to help balance the diets of livestock.

Lee Gilbow At Lackland

Lee Gilbow, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gilbow, 215 8th St., Burkburnett is completing his Air Force basic military training course at Lackland Air Force Base, the "Gateway to the Air Force."

Lackland, situated near San Antonio, is the site of Air Force basic military training for men and women, headquarters of the Human Resource Research Center, and home of the USAF Officer Military school.

His basic military training is preparing him for entrance into Air Force technical training and for assignment in specialized work. The course includes a scientific evaluation of his aptitude and inclination for following a particular vocation and career.

Wayne Baker Joins Marines

Wallace Wayne Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Baker, 318 West Third St., Burkburnett today enlisted in the Wichita Falls Marine Corps Reserve to work off his eight year military obligation with the Marines.

Pvt. Baker will attend drills conducted on Sunday afternoon twice a month. He will receive valuable training on all weapons used by Infantry Companies in the U. S. Marine Corps. He will receive regular pay for each drill attended plus valuable retirement credits that will amount into a tidy sum in old age retirement.

Pvt. Baker will attend two weeks summer training with the Marine Reserve unit each summer when they go to southern California.

Pvt. Baker is a student at Burkburnett High School. He is active in all activities and will be a member of the basketball team this coming season. He will also be a member of the Wichita Falls Marine Corps Reserve Basketball Team now forming in Wichita Falls.

Farm Census Being Delayed

Progress of the 1954 Census of Agriculture is being delayed because farmers have not completed the forms which were sent them by mail. This word, comes from the director of the census to B. T. Haws, county agent.

Failure to complete the census questionnaire slows down the enumerators and greatly reduces the number of farms which can be visited each day, explained Haws. This makes the work of the enumerators more difficult and materially increases the cost of the undertaking.

The information which farmers are being asked to supply is not only valuable to them in planning future operations but to business men who supply the farm market's needs; agriculture leaders to whom farmers look for guidance and the agencies and organizations which service agricultural resources in of vital importance to the 163 million citizens of the country.

The nation's taxpayers are footing the bill for the census taking job and Haws points out that anything which a farmer can do to speed up the work will reduce the cost. All farmers who have not completed the census questionnaire should give it immediate attention so it will be ready for the census taker when he visits the farm.

Giving More Light Brings More Eggs

Laying hens need 13 to 14 hours of light daily to keep up top egg production, says B. T. Haws, county agent.

While the layers don't take particular interest in the matter, Haws explains that light influences a secretion from the pituary gland of the brain. The glandular stimulus makes the birds eat more feed and water. The result from the lighting system is more eggs and more profits.

One 40 watt bulb for each 300 square feet of floor space is sufficient. Shallow reflectors make the light more effective. Start using light now, he says, and increase the lighting period as the days become shorter. Perches, feed hoppers and water troughs should be lighted, too.

Haws recommends early morning lights. All night lights satisfactory, he adds, but production is not increased after 14 hours.

The new swim suits certainly reflect a material shortage. You will see less suit and more at the beaches next year, some wag said. "The girls bare-ing up beautifully".

PTA Working On School Savings

The Hardin Parent Teachers Association of Burkburnett has pledged its help in expanding the U. S. Treasury Department's School Savings Program in Burkburnett, according to Mrs. J. S. Looney, president. Members voted at a recent meeting to adopt the project for the 1954-55 club year, working with our County Savings Bonds Committee and local school authorities.

Four national women's organizations, American Legion Auxiliary, Daughters of the American Revolution, General Federation of Women's Clubs, and National Congress of Parents and Teachers, have accepted leadership in backing this project across the country. The state presidents of twenty additional women's organizations, represented on the Texas Women's Savings Bonds Advisory Committee, have asked all local branches in Texas to adopt a pledge of Service for Community and Nation for the 1954-55 club year. In addition to endorsing weekly Savings Stamp Days in all local school and offering active assistance in servicing these Stamp Days, if desired by school officials, each local organization is asked to conduct an informational program on U. S. Savings Bonds, particularly Series E and H Bonds, and the advantages of holding Series E Bonds after maturity, to distribute informational leaflets on these Bonds, and to urge members and their families to buy them. Mr. Jack Hopkins, Galveston, is volunteer State chairman for Women Activities in Texas.

Mr. Marvin Pierce, County Savings Bonds Committee chairman, welcomed the help of Hardin Parent-Teachers Association and urged other local women's organizations to accept the Pledge of Service. All necessary information may be had by contacting him at Duncan Building Wichita Falls, or writing U. S. Savings Bonds Division, 114 Commerce St. Dallas.

Forum Study Club Hostess To Annual Federated Banquet

The annual Federated Banquet was held at the Town Hall on Thursday night November 4.

Miss Sue McClarty presented beautiful organ music as the guests arrived and as dinner was served.

A miniature arrangement of fall chrysanthemums graced the table where Mrs. Hugh Cole Preston presided at the guest book.

Approximately 90 guests were served the traditional Thanksgiving dinner by candlelight, at tables gloriously decorated with horns of plenty.

Mrs. Tom Burnett gave the invocation.

Mrs. John Brookman spiced the evening with touches of wit and humor as she conducted the program as Mistress of Ceremonies. All the many fond memories of former Banquets were recalled as Mrs. John Brookman presented the history of the first Federated Banquet held in Burkburnett in 1932.

Mrs. Brookman gave recognition to each of the seven study clubs present for their participation toward making the Banquet a success. At this time each club president introduced their members and guests, and gave a short talk on their projects for this year. The seven clubs that participated in the annual affair and their respective duties were: Jr. University Study Club—decorations at entrance and stage.

Mrs. Brookman introduced Miss Marilyn Felty, who presented two outstanding piano selections; "Holliday For Strings" and "Brahm Ballade." The highlight of the evening was a wonderful book review of "New Heaven, New Earth" by Arthemise Goertz which was presented by one of Burkburnett's most gracious and outstanding personalities, Mrs. Eugenia Lincoln.

Mrs. John Brookman closed the evening with an appropriate poem.

Education Week Being Observed

The 34th annual observance of American Education Week, Nov. 7-13 is sponsored nationally by the American Legion, the Congress of Parents and Teachers, the U. S. Office of Education, and the National Education Association.

During the week the schools extend a special invitation to the public to visit classrooms, to see the schools in action. The central theme, "Good Schools Are Your Responsibility," is in effect a lesson assignment for every citizen.

Wishing for good schools is not enough," say the local and national sponsoring committees. Communities have good schools when the people want them enough to take an interest in them, to work for them and to cooperate with them. To help your school, you need to be well informed about it."

"Speed Limits Radar Enforced"

A new "sign of life" will appear on many of the highways of Texas this month. It's a new highway traffic sign and, like most of the others which are familiar roadside markers to motorists, it is designated to prevent costly motor vehicle accidents and save human lives.

These signs will read "Speed Limits Radar Enforced" and the Texas Highway Department has slated their early construction in order that they will be placed by mid November when the Texas Department of Public Safety is expected to begin the operation of radar equipped patrol cars on the principal traffic arteries thru out the State.

Texas will thus join 31 other states and 50 cities which are currently employing Radar as a device for lowering the traffic accident rate due to excessive speed.

During the past several months the Texas Department of Public Safety has conducted an educational demonstration program of the Radar units in each of the 16 Texas Highway Patrol Districts within the State. Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the DPS, says that these demonstrations have been staged for the benefit of members of the press, radio and TV as well as for public officials, including judges and prosecutors, in order to acquaint them with the operation and the accuracy of the devices.

"We know of no instance," said Garrison, in which those who have witnessed these demonstrations have failed to acknowledge the accuracy and the fairness of this method of coping with fast drivers."

The public Safety Director also pointed out that speed continues to be the principal contributing factor in the State's fatal traffic accident picture. He emphasized that Radar is no "cure-all" for the traffic problem and, in no way, replace manpower in the enforcement of the speed laws.

"Rather," Garrison added, "We consider it only as another tool to be utilized in protecting the public against the consequences of the acts of the thoughtless, the careless and the indifferent drivers who constitute a menace to the public safety by driving too fast for conditions."

According to Garrison the "Speed Limits Radar Enforced" signs will be erected immediately outside the city limits of towns on the approach to stretches of highway where the mobile Radar units will be employed and just inside the state lines on those roadways where they will be in use. Additional signs will be placed, also, between the cities where it is deemed necessary to inform the public of the enforcement procedure being employed.

Grade School News

We have had several boys and girls out of school the last few days due to illness. It appears that the flu bug has been making the rounds and has found several of the children as very fine prospects. The plain old common cold has made the first advent of the new school year and we are hoping that the cold germ will move out of town and remain for the rest of the school year.

We are all primed for our part in National Education Week, and do hope that you will find time to come by and be with us for a few minutes. Yes, there is no doubt that we are all very busy and it is very difficult to find time to relax for a very few minutes, but we do hope that you will put forth a little effort and come by for a short visit.

Do not forget the night meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association for the night of Nov. 16th. Let us all remember the date and show the boys and girls that we are interested in the work they are doing and give them a big push forward.

tee. Sen. McCarthy has made public the first exhibit which he will offer to the senate in his defense to a recommendation of censure for senatorial misconduct. The 19 page document consists of photostatic copies of articles from the New York Daily Worker, official organ of the Communist party of the United States and other communist publications, which set the pattern, McCarthy said, for the campaign to discredit his Red investigation since 1950.

Every member of the senate was provided with a copy and thousands of copies will be mailed to newspaper editors throughout the nation. McCarthy said this distribution was decided upon to enable the American public to know the communists source and sponsorship of the attacks upon him. McCarthy said the documentation from the communist publication would be part of the record that he will present to the senate "so the American people will know what the senate is doing."

I don't have any thought at all that I'll get a majority of votes against the censure resolution he remarked, "because very few senators will enter the special session with an open mind, but I plan to present the complete history of my investigations, their accomplishments and the true nature of the opposition to my attempts to expose Communist conspiracy."

The pamphlet has a pink cover, with reproduction of the Daily Worker masthead and the title "Throw the Bum Out," the heading of an editorial of Sept. 28, 1954, which praise the select committee headed by Sen. Watkins which recommended censure of McCarthy. But the communist organ attacked the Republican party and Sen Johnson, Senate Democratic leader, for postponing a censure until after Nov. 2 election.

The Daily Worker, the exhibit shows links the fight against McCarthy to a battle to destroy J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. A typical cartoon shows McCarthy and Hoover scrawling, black bearded figures gazing at each other. The communist newspaper establishes McCarthy as the No. 1 menace to communism as early as May 4, 1950, when the senate was exposing Red infiltration of the state department. In a measure signed by the national secretary of the Communist party, "All Communist party members were urged to 'yield second place to none in the fight to rid our country of the fascist poison of McCarthyism.'"

It's all gravy! When money rolls in that you don't have to work for you say "It's all gravy." This seldom "just happens" in the average lifetime. Usually "gravy money" is the result of foresight and planning. Like the money your savings will earn for you when you deposit them regularly in a savings account. You don't have to lift a hand to earn this "gravy money" but you do have to have the good old-fashioned common sense to know that systematic saving is the one way to build financial security for yourself and your family. No time like the present for starting!

Great new 8

Two new 6's 6

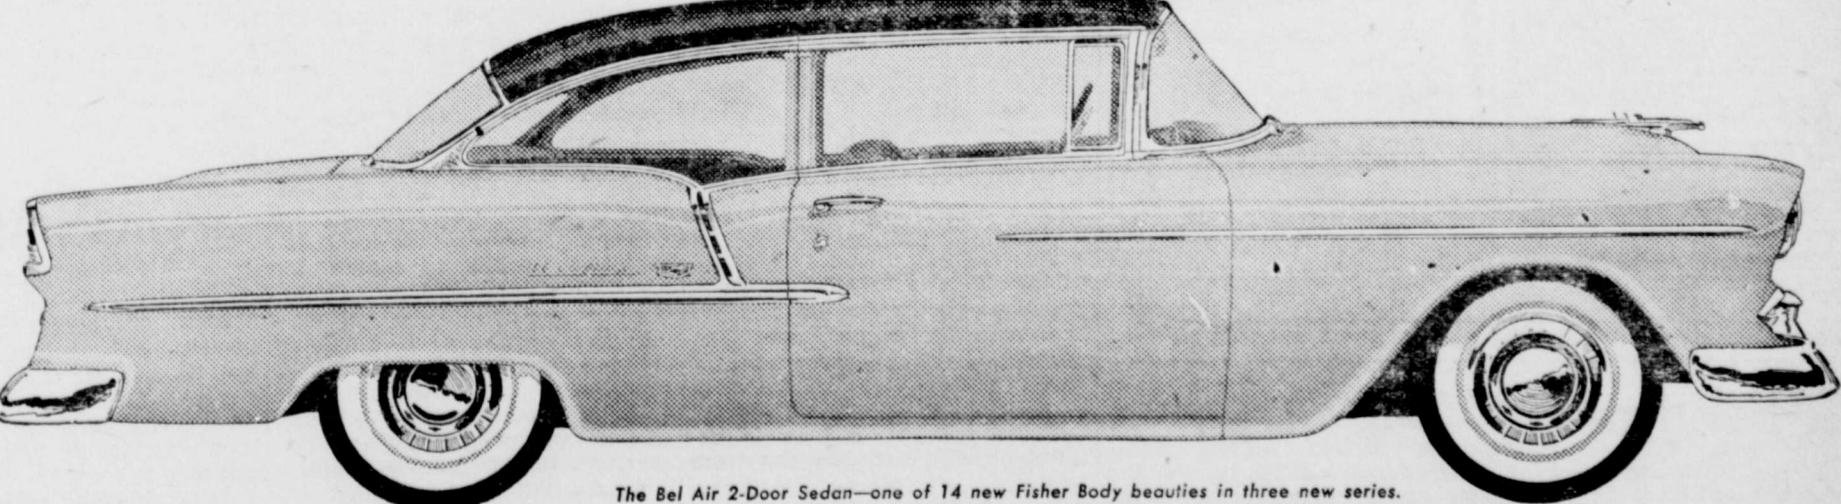

It's got a "V" in its bonnet—or your choice of two new sixes!

It's the valve-in-head V8 as only the valve-in-head leader can build it!

You'd expect Chevrolet to out-V8 the field—and it has! Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" puts a brand-new kind of excitement under your foot. The excitement of 162 horsepower! The excitement of an 8 to 1 ultra-high compression ratio that squeezes more pure fun out of a gallon of gas than you ever dreamed possible!

With enough new advances to fill a book!

Chevrolet offers two new highstepping sixes for 1955! There's the new "Blue-Flame 136" (teamed with Powerglide as an extra-cost option) and the new "Blue-Flame 123." Both bring you new, higher-rated power—the zippy, thrifty high-compression kind. Both have new, more efficient cooling and lubrication systems . . . new engine mounts that result in almost unbelievable smoothness. And, like the new "Turbo-Fire V8," both are sparked by a new 12-volt electrical system for finer performance and faster cold-weather starting. All in all, they're the liveliest, smoothest sixes Chevrolet ever put into a passenger car. As you know, that covers a lot of territory. And so will you—with either of these two new sixes!

The Clinic, for businessmen, their employees, and all others interested, will be conducted by a representative of the A. & M. Extension Service.

Reports from other towns where the Clinic has been held are that it is a very complete and instructive course. It covers all phases of public relations, and the price is unbelievably low—just $2.00 per person for the four nights.

The course will be held at the High school, beginning each night at 7:00 o'clock, and lasting until 9:15 P. M., with a short break during each session.

Any one may enroll and pay their $2.00 at the Chamber of Commerce office. Every business-house in town should take this course.

ed by Wichita Falls firemen. "They really helped us and we appreciate it," he said. One pumper, a pickup truck and a dozen firemen under direction of Assistant Fire Chief J. R. Julison came over from Wichita Falls. Off duty firemen from Sheppard Air Force Base also fought the fire from start to finish.

The Wichita Falls fire chief, E. C. White, commended the Burkburnett firemen on the way they saved the structure. "It was a well maneuvered fire fighting job," the chief remarked after the fire.

Luckily, both water towers were full when the fire broke out. Storage at the water plant was also full. When City Manager noticed the gauge falling on the big tower, he called the water plant and asked that the big 100 horsepower pump be started up. After that the gauge held steady. At one time nine hoses were taking water out of the mains.

Social Security Affects Farmers

The amendments to the Social Security Act which President Eisenhower signed into law on September 1, 1954, are of particular importance to both farm operators and farm workers in this area. Erton F. Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls Social Security District Office, said today.

The new law extends social security protection to almost all farm families after this year. Nationwide, about 3,600,000 self-employed farm operators will be covered for the first time in much the same way as other self-employed persons already under the program. Approximately 2,100,000 more hired farm workers will start building old-age and survivors insurance protection for themselves and their families on Jan. 1, 1955.

This means that by the time they have worked through two more crop years, elderly farm people may be insured, so that they can receive monthly social security checks after age 65. A farmer's family will be protected, too, so that if he should die, at any age, the widow and young children would receive monthly payments. For a retired farmer and his wife, the payments will be from $45 to almost $163 a month, depending upon his earnings, while the family of an insured worker who dies will receive from $45 to $200 a mo. The amended law does away with the complicated "regularly employed" test whereby a worker had to be continually employed by a farm operator before his work started to count toward social security. Also eliminated is the provision that he must then be employed by the same farm operator on a full-time basis for at least sixty days during the following quarter. The amended law replaces this test with the requirement that, beginning Jan. 1, 1955, an agricultural employee will be covered by social security in any calendar year in which he is paid as much as $100 in cash by one farm employer.

Given coverage for the first time as of Jan. 1, 1955 are cotton gin workers. They will earn social security credit in the same way as other agricultural employees when they are paid $100 in a year by an employer. As heretofore, Mexican contract workers, and workers in the production of gum naval stores (turpentine) do not have coverage.

Farm operators and workers who have never been in employment or self-employment covered by social security and have never had a social security account card, or have lost their card, should get in touch with the nearest Social Security office, Tate declared. The Social Security office in Wichita Falls, Texas, is at Room 425, Federal Building. If it is not convenient for a farmer or farm worker to visit that office, he can get an application blank at the post office and mail it to the above address.

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Kesting

Lots of people, particularly women, do not like meat from any of the deer tribe. They complain that its gamey taste is too strong and they try to make it more edible by horribly overcooking it.

When people react this way to venison, you can bet the animal was not butchered properly at the right time or the meat was not cared for in the right way afterward.

Sometimes a buck or bull shot at the height of the rutting season is not fit to eat. Also a gut-shot animal that has run a long distance before falling will not make good venison. But otherwise, given proper and timely butchering and care, all venison should taste good to even the most critical.

Usually venison does not taste like our domestic meats. Moose meat may taste a little like beef Mountain sheep always tastes somewhat like lamb, and the mountain goat like mutton. But deer and caribou have a delicious taste of their own; there is nothing strong or gamey about it.

When you shoot a large animal, it is useless to rush in and "cut its throat" or stick it in the chest to "bleed" it. Col. Townsend Whelen explains that a modern bullet so disrupts the chest or abdominal cavities that they fill with blood almost immediately, and little or none of this blood will come out if the throat is cut. However, the blood should be drained out as soon as possible. If the animal has been gut-shot, it is important to remove all trace of intestinal juices.

The best meat is always from an animal that has been killed by a chest shot, and if you want the best venison, practice markswell into the chest cavity is no more difficult than hitting a bucket and with modern high-velocity expanding bullets, it all ways means a quick kill with the animal dropping within 100 yards.

For venison as venison should be, tell your chef to cook it just as he or she would domestic meat but preferably on the rare side. The tougher portions, neck, and lower hams, can be used for stews. The ribs are best broiled very quickly over charcoal or a wood fire so you almost burn the outside but leave the inside almost raw. Do not use salt until the very end.

It is possible to have snow when the temperature is as high as 47 degrees F, but it usually is below freezing when the white stuff descends.
