The Air Age

By E. L.

Fickle finger of fate fans out include each and everyone, it seems. Old albums, love letters, yellowing news clippings, all offer proof that many unforeseen paths branch off from a well planned course. Who dares suspect what is actually instore for tomorrow? Memories either cheer or sulk all in various degrees. Arthur Houser, local mechanic, has revealed a story in which fate seems to have held the winning cards. Twenty-six years ago, 1929, Houser was one of 600 fellows to sign up for an aircraft and engine mechanic course with Warks Air College in Missouri. He got his diploma and was scheduled to start work with Warks on a government contract. He dealt full through. Fate stepped in. In spite of promises, all the 100 got hungry and went their many ways to find jobs. Houser, his wife and daughter looked to a job as car mechanic for relief. For 36 years this trade has been followed. The daughter later took up aviation and got her private license here when "Curley" Smith and his partner had a field just East and a little South of Burk Burnett. Houser has helped with a few airplane engine problems while his daughter was learning to fly. Of course, there are, no doubt, many other good mechanics here, but this writer needed a mechanic for the ailing car. Several inquiries were made and all but two directions led to the Pontiac place where Houser applies his mechanical knowledge. In this instance, fate frowned upon flying and robbed aviation of a very valuable mechanic.

Patti Lavonne Green is the same selected by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Green for their new baby daughter which was born on January 10th in a Wichita Falls hospital. The baby weighed 7 lbs. 12 oz. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Green of Ardnett, Oklahoma.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

CARLSBAD, N. M. Current-Argue: "The U. S. Supreme Court has indicated that it does not expect immediate compliance with non-segregation decision in all the nation's schools. It will take time to get peaceful compliance for such a revolutionary change — The high court, in our opinion, is wise in letting its decision go into effect gradually. You can't stuff a sweeping change in a practice going back 200 years down the throat of a people overnight."

SPRING VALLEY, N. Y. Leader: "According to Virginia's Senator Harry F. Byrd of the Senate Finance Committee, the national debt limit is equal to all the assets in America today and 'we are mortgaged to the hilt.' How an individual decides to 'drown his troubles' may be his own business. When it looks like the national debt may drown the whole country, that becomes the concern of every citizen, every taxpayer."

SHELBY, Mont., Promoter: "Survey after survey indicates that, generally speaking, the big commercial highway freighters are not paying their proper shares of the cost of building and repairing highways—and these costs have soared to an almost incredible level because of the growth of such heavy traffic. We are building our roads to the specification of the big truckers and not to accommodate our passenger car level."

ADVERTISING BUSINESSMEN

"THE GRASS ROOTS DIGEST," Published monthly by the University of Missouri School of Journalism, at Columbia, Mo., recently reported an editorial from THE TULELAKE (Calif.) REPORTER which we think every editor everywhere should see. In case you missed it, we pass it along:

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and address should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two line space."

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town."

The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising man."

STANDING ON THEIR OWN FEET

Western Livestock magazine recently summed up what it terms "the progress made by the beef cattle industry during a period which presented a real challenge to those engaged in it one way or another."

It found that, save for the drought stricken areas, 1954 was a year of progress so far as the general beef situation is concerned. Prices are stabilizing. A record production of beef is passing into the channels of consumption in an orderly fashion. Meat in storage has run at lower totals than last year.

The magazine also finds an encouraging factor in the nation-wide beef promotion campaign. This is an aggressive, voluntary effort, in which producers, packers and retailers have been cooperating to stimulate demand for beef. This story is told thru newspapers and other advertising and promotional media. Emphasis is placed on the less expensive cuts of beef, which give consumers top value for their money. Results to date indicate that the campaign has been highly successful.

At the end, Western Live Stock said: "Standing on their own feet, beef cattle producers are fighting their way thru problems toward ventual full stability for one of the country's greatest industries." More power to them

IT WAS YOUR MONEY

Before the new 84th Congress gets down to the business of passing on further foreign handouts, it might be well to consider some figures reported by the State Chambers of Commerce and presented by the magazine Human Events:

"From July '45 to June 30, '54 we have given away $59,400,000,000 to foreign peoples of which $38,300,000,000 was for economic aid and $21,100,000,000 for military aid."

To bring these colossal figures down to a level of possible comprehension, Human Events adds that: "Taxpayers in New York have chipped in $8,678,000,000 while in poorer states like Mississippi taxpayers have contributed $285,000,000."

Taking it from there, perhaps you can guess where a goodish hunk of your own income tax payments went. And since it will soon be time again to start chewing pencils and fingernails and figuring on the back of the 1954 calendar, maybe you should begin thinking how much farther you want to go — and inform those men you sent to Washington.

Grade School News

We are very glad to be back in school from the Holidays and hear of the many fine gifts that our playmates received. Several of our boys and girls visited grandparents during the holidays and we had many adventure stories from trips. Many of the children said that they would have enjoyed being at school while the snow was on the ground. Each seemed to have had a special friend that should have been on the receiving end of a snow ball.

We have but a few days left until we reach the end of the first half of this school year. We have made many new friends and have had many interesting experiences. We think that we have progressed well in our school work.

"How To Marry A Millionaire" Comes To Palace Theatre

"How to Marry a Millionaire", starring Marilyn Monroe, Betty Grable and Lauren Bacall in Technicolor, comes to the screen of the Palace Theatre, Sun-Mon-Tues.

CinemaScope has been heralded by industry leaders, critics, and its first audiences as an important milestone in film entertainment, the next great technological development in a procession of progress that incorporated first sound, then color.

The revolutionary process brings a panoramic scope to the screen which gives the audience a sense of participation while achieving the illusion of depth. Furthermore, this photographic marvel does not require the use of any special glasses to attain this effect.

Pioneered and developed by Twentieth Century-Fox, CinemaScope consists of an anamorphic lens, a specially proportioned screen and stereophonic sound.

The anamorphic lens used on the motion picture camera "squeezes" the shot of the action onto regulation-size film. When this film is projected thru a compensating anamorphic lens attached to the theatre projection machine the same view is "released," spreading the image horizontally to its original form or to an aspect ratio of 2.55 to 1.

This proportion is the exact arc that the human eye focuses and in the filming of "How To Marry A Millionaire," the studio has been more than generous in providing one eye-filling sequence after another of three of the most luscious queens in Hollywood. As the lens follows their madcap antics to lure rich men to the altar, it manages to reveal such breathtaking vistas as the New York skyline viewed from the harbor and from atop an elegant penthouse in the heart of Manhattan. It sweeps on to include the awesome snowy slopes of a Maine ski run and take-offs of streamlined luxury airliners, but always returns to give generous close-ups of Monroe, Grable and Bacall.

Important to the proper projection of CinemaScope product is the use of a specially curved and treated Miracle Mirror screen with its millions of tiny lenses reflecting greater light for a maximum of projection clarity and color richness. Hand in hand in importance is the high fidelity sound system which now places the four sound tracks on the same strip of 35mm. film that carries the photographic image.

Phenothiazine In Cattle Grub Control Offers Problems

Free-choice feeding of phenothiazine may someday help control cattle grubs, but several problems regarding its use must first be solved.

Main drawback to phenothiazine is its taste. Cattle do not like it and a practical way to feed the product has not been found.

Its future may hinge on whether researchers can chocolate coat phenothiazine and guarantee that animals on the farm will consume enough to produce a grub killing effect, says B. T. Haws, county agent.

In preliminary tests, a definite drop in the number of grubs was noted among cattle fed 2 grams of phenothiazine daily free-choice in protein supplement. "With need for further testing, no recommendations are being made now" Haws says.

If phenothiazine should prove an effective grub-killer, it would be a significant step in the control of the costly parasites.

A recent report from Ft. Worth meat packers are receiving more "grubby" cattle now than a year ago. In some cases, infested calves are running 10 percent above last year. Grubby calves usually sell $1 to $3 a hundred pounds less than those without grubs, Haws adds.

HERE'S HOW . . .

MAKE A SHOE SHINE BOX

Dad and son should work together in making the shoe shine box. In addition to easing one household problem by providing the boy with his own handy polishing outfit, it gives dad a chance to teach a lot of basic carpentry.

From the drawings below, the box dimensions and assembly are easily understood.

As a training project, the job can utilize saws, screw-driver, hammer, nail set, chisel, brace and bit, plane, sand paper, and paint brush. The lumber used is all 1-inch material. All joints should be glued as well as nailed, using 6-penny finishing nails.

The box should be finished by sanding and rounding all sharp edges, then stained or varnished to make it an attractive, as well as a useful, piece of furniture for the boy's bedroom.

Think Before You Prune

There's a reason for pruning any tree or shrub and you should think before you whack.

Are long limbs dragging the house? Want to improve the shape of the tree? Or do you desire more shade?

These things to consider before you start with the shears, says Sadie Hatfield, extension specialist in homestead improvement.

All limbs should be pruned flush with the parent limbs so no stubs will remain to die, decay and harm the tree, advises Miss Hatfield. A properly made cut seldom needs paint and will heal itself.

Pruning stimulates the growth of new limbs and twigs and more leaves for shade will be the final benefit.

The specialist says to take the load off of large limbs while pruning, use a support from the ground and cut the branches three or four feet from the main trunk. An undercut on the remaining stub will prevent bark splitting when its removed from the trunk.

Mesquite, Minosa and other open growing trees will give more shade and protection if the top limbs are cut back three or four feet. This, however, does not mean dehorning. An application of a complete fertilizer and watering right after pruning will condition the tree for spring growth.

Use Malathion For Controlling Fleas

Malathion can be used safely on dogs to control fleas, says B. T. Haws, county agent.

In preliminary tests, reported by Manning A. Price, professor of entomology, several dogs were dusted and sprayed with different malathion concentrations. Two days after treatment no fleas were found on the once-infested animals.

The new phosphorous insecticide will control many DDT-resistant insects. The studies were begun to determine whether malathion might be used in sufficient strength to kill fleas and still not harm the animals.

The county agent says a five-tenths (.5) percent spray or four percent dust of malathion will give the longest control. A 2.5 percent spray or four percent dust will eradicate the pests in garages and other infested areas.

The entomologist adds a note of caution; Do Not Use Malathion on the family cat. A formula containing more than two percent malathion is fatal to members of the cat family.

All of us have to live with ourselves, so it is up to each individual to see to it that he lives in good company.

Mrs. Klinkerman Hostess Recently to Clara Ladies Aid

Mrs. Oscar Klinkerman was hostess to 22 members of the Trinity Lutheran Ladies Aid of Clara who assembled in the parish hall for the initial meeting of the year 1955.

Mrs. Albert Brockriede, president, was in charge of the meeting which was opened by the singing of "Abide with Me." and an invocation by Rev. Kollmeyer.

Rev. Kollmeyer also led the topic discussion from the booklet "Our bible." It was decided to place a copy of this booklet in the home of every member to be read and enjoyed as well as furnishing material for other topic discussions.

During the business meeting, the minutes were read and reports of the various committees were heard. A list of suggestions for worthy projects were presented to be decided upon at the next meeting.

Appointive officers assuming their duties are: Mrs. Arnold Holtzen, chairman of flower committee; Mrs. Don Holtzen, chairman of missionary committee and Mrs. L. Klinkerman, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Edgar Siber and Mrs. Ernie Schroeder volunteered to serve as a committee of two to visit the sick and aged.

The meeting adjourned with the Lord's Prayer in unison. Delicious refreshments were served to members and one guest Mrs. Marian Jaton.

The next meeting will be held on Feb. 3rd with Mrs. Marvin Klinkerman.

Texas State Dept. of Health

Dr. Henry A. Holle, M. D.

State Health Officer Henry A. Holle believes chronic diseases represent one of the biggest problems facing health officials today.

Recent statistics compiled by the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Texas State Dept. of Health, show:

1. 23 percent of all deaths among 15-29 year olds are due to chronic diseases, with malignant neoplasms being the leading chronic disease.

2. "Well over half" the mortality in the 30-44 age group is due to chronic disease, with heart trouble, cancer and vascular lesions being the leaders.

3. "Almost 8 out of 10 deaths in the 45-59 bracket are caused by this disease classification, with the proportion rising to 85 percent for those 60 to 74 years old.

4. For those 75 and over chronic diseases caused 84 percent of the total mortality. The slight decrease in percentage over age 75 is because of the high susceptibility to accidents, pneumonia, and influenza among the aged.

"When chronic disease is mentioned, all too many people think of the problem as being confined to the middle-aged or older," the health chief said, adding that such an idea was not consistent with the facts.

"The term chronic," Dr. Holle explained, "means the opposite of acute. When applied to a disease, chronic means of long duration. That would mean cancer or tuberculosis is chronic, while smallpox or poliomyelitis is acute

"The significant thing," Dr. Holle indicated, "is that the Chronic disease classification causes 23 percent of all deaths among young people in the 15-29 age bracket."

Wheat Producers Compete With Big Carryover in '55

Wheat growers will heap their 1955 production on an estimated national carryover of some 1,000,000,000 bushels. And, as a result the government's support program is expected to hold up the price.

Based on current prospects, carryover stocks probably will be reduced during the 1954-55 marketing year with further cuts due the following year.

John G. McHaney, extension farm economist, says total wheat supplies for the current marketing year will approach 1,884,000,000 bushels, the largest in history. The economist expects wheat exports to rise above last year. He says domestic consumption and exports are expected to top the 850,000,000 bushel crop in prospect for '55, making possible the reduction in carryover stock.

Under the present farm program, wheat grown must be supported by parity between 82.5 and 90 percent. The national support level for the 1954 crop was $2.24 a bushel. The support this year cannot go below $2.06 a bushel.

To Gain Space, Connect House With Garage

Is your house too small? A type of remodeling it might be suited for is shown in the sketch. It's often possible to gain a new room or two by connecting the house with the garage. With several ponderosa pine windows to admit lots of light and air, this is a good location for a family recreation room or play room for children. Wood sash and frames can be painted to match older construction.

Orange, Texas 62 Delinquency

Positive action taken by people of Orange, Tex., in curbing juvenile delinquency called to national attention by current (Jan. 15th) issue of the Saturday Evening Post. It is cited by Richard Clendenen, Executive Director, and Bert W. Beaser, Chief Counselor of the U. S. Senate Judiciary Committee to Investigate Juvenile Delinquency, in their report on the appalling upsurge of juvenile crime in this country. The second of five parts of "Same of America," they report that Orange's experience is that of other cities where crime rate has risen sharply in the wake of sudden population increases and offer it as a demonstration of what can be done by an alert community. Orange, the Post article states, only 7500 population in 1910, but during the war it shot up to 35,000 within a single year. Other words the vast changes have taken place in the United States in the last fifty years, to a certain extent, being enacted suddenly and in an extreme form in this city. "It was perhaps because the danger was so great that it was clearly seen in advance and handled energetically by the community under the leadership of J. W. Edgar, who is now State Commissioner of Education," the co-authors say.

They outline how a child-welfare committee was formed and instead of permitting children to get into serious trouble, it moved in at the first sign of truancy or misbehavior, studied the child's problem and especially looked into conditions in his home.

The made sure the potentially wayward child was placed in the proper study group and joined children of the proper age on the playgrounds. They organized training and recreation programs for older boys and girls who otherwise would have left school to take well paying jobs.

"There was very little juvenile delinquency in Orange during the period of inflated population," Clendenen and Beaser say, "and the parents as well as children were given a new concept of orderly living and family responsibility."

Color Crowns Low Roofs

Drawing shows how felt underlayment is applied to roof deck in preparation for application of three-tab, square-butt asphalt strip shingles on a gently pitched roof.

Color is modern. So are gently pitched roofs on houses. A way to combine the two has been found by the construction engineers who have just developed the first method of applying colorful roofing on a low-slope roof deck.

The method calls for the use of asphalt shingles, which are made in an extensive variety of solid and blended colors to suit any general exterior color scheme or anyone's personal taste.

Three-tab square-butt strip shingles are the type for which the new application specification has been written. Previously, 4 inches of rise per foot of horizontal run was the lowest pitch for which asphalt shingles were recommended. The new method gives a watertight, wind-tight roof on slopes as low as 2 inches per foot.

In addition to application detail recommended for more steeply pitched roofs, the method calls for only three precautions:

1—A double layer of 15-lb. asphalt-saturated felt is laid on the roof deck before any shingles are applied. Each 36-inch strip of this material is lapped 19 inches over the one previously laid.

2—In areas where the January daily average temperature is 25 degrees F. or less, the two layers of felt are cemented together from the eaves line up the roof to a point 24 inches beyond the inside wall line.

3—All shingles tabs are cemented down with quick-setting asphalt cement.

-YOUR FARM BUREAU-

BY MARYE ECKELKAMP

There has been some confusion concerning the new ruling placing farmers under Social Security. Farmers that are self-employed cannot begin payments on their 1954 income, but will be required to do so on their 1955 income. To clear any misunderstanding on this matter, the program committee has secured a representative of the Social Security office to appear on the program Family Fun Night and answer any questions that you may have. Special emphasis will be placed on seasonal workers. A covered dish supper will precede the program at 7:00 P. M. under the direction of D. H. Ford and J. W. Tole. Farmers are urged to attend regardless of their Farm Bureau membership.

Several new changes directly affecting farmers and ranchers have been made in the 1954 Code of Internal Revenue. There is no change in the filing date for farm income tax returns, with the exception of those filing estimates for 1955. Farmers electing to file their returns and pay in full must have them in the mail in time to reach the Dallas office by January 31st. Farmers filing estimates must file by January 15th and have until April 15th to file their return.

Under the new law, your son or daughter under 18 can now earn any amount over $600 and still be claimed as a dependent by you provided you will pay for more than half of their support. An example of this occurs when 4-H and FFA youngsters win more than $600 in prize money and put it in savings or reinvest it. Dad is still their sole support.

A boy or girl making over $600 must still file a return in order to get any refund they should have coming. If they have made less than $600, a return is not necessary but most youngsters will want to file to reclaim any withholding taken from their salaries in 1954.

You may now retain your dependency exemptions on children over 19 years of age as long as they are enrolled in an accredited school for 36 school months or four years if you pay for more than half of their support. Other new dependency regulations will be found in your information sheets with your income tax blanks.

For the first time, farmers are allowed a deduction up to 25 per cent of their gross farm receipts for Soil Conservation practices made in 1954. Should the amount expended by the farmer amount to more than the 25 per cent, then this amount may be carried forward to the following years and the years thereafter. Any amount less than the 25 per cent must be listed as to the actual expenditure for soil conservation. Any farmer electing to take this deduction must continue to do so unless granted permission to change by the Secretary of the Treasury.

An allowance for the deduction of child care for working mothers up to $600 is now being made. This deduction may only be made on a joint return with the exception of widows and if the joint gross income does not exceed $4,500 and for children under the age of 12. Again only the actual expenditure up to the $600 maximum will be allowed.

It has been announced that personnel at the Internal Revenue offices will not be allowed to fill out and file your income tax returns for the public this year. Farm Bureau sent a representative to the training school recently held in Wichita Falls and she will be available for answering your questions in filing your farm returns. Blanks for filing estimates will be available along with other forms at the Farm Bureau office. Farmers may also pick up their application blanks for acquiring Social Security numbers there.

Uni. Study Club Met at Home of Mrs. Newman Jan. 5

The University Study Club met at the home of Mrs. A. W. Newman January 5th for the first meeting of the new year. Mrs. Burnstine, president, called the meeting to order and conducted a short business session.

The new officers were elected and a short parliamentary lesson on the club's constitution and by-laws was presented by Mrs. Reagan, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Burns completed the program by giving a wonderful discussion on "The Bible As Literature". She described the Bible as the most interesting and beneficial manuscript that has ever been translated. It is a complete library of books, each volume filled with choice and dignified language, carrying all types of writing such as poetry, prose, lyrics, allegories and narrations of ages of history.

The man who spends time worrying about what people think about him lives a happy life.

It's mighty hard to be a person who has more than they need that they need more than they have.
