Cancer is the second largest disease in the United States, with two out of every three families having one cancer victim. Breast cancer is the No. 1 cancer in women, but 85 per cent out of 100 per cent of the breast cancer patients can be cured if the disease is discovered in time. One of the many important matters of business for the first class meetings of the year was the nomination of each class "Miss Front Page" candidate.

Karen Tolliver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tolliver, Jr., is the seventh grade nominee, and a member of the Junior High Band.

The eighth grade candidate is Bonnie Adkins, who is in the band and a new singing group, the Scarleteens. Bonnie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Adkins.

Nancy Kaye Middleton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Middleton, is in the Pep Club and is the freshman candidate.

Lynda Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lane, is the sophomore nominee, a majorette, and a member of the new Singing Six.

Diane Thomas is the junior class nominee. She is a cheerleader and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clotis Thomas.

The Senior candidate, Paula Wooten, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wooten, and a member of the Pep Club.

The nominee whose class has the highest percentage of members buying War Whoop subscriptions will become "Miss Front Page."

Haskellites In "Big D" News

Editor's Note: The following article appeared in Monday Morning's Dallas Morning News under the by-line by Ann Donaldson:

Vice-President Hubert Humphrey's niece, 19-year-old Anne Howard, took time from politics Saturday night for an evening on the town with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Varel, long-time friends of Anne's mother, Mrs. Frances Humphrey Howard.

Dark-haired Anne, who certainly deserves the recognition Women's Wear Daily paid her as one of the best-dressed Democrats, had a date with SMU student, John Kimbrough, Jr., and they doubled with the Varels' 19-year-old daughter, Leslie, and her escort, Lester Louie.

Since the Varels chaperoned the outing to the Cipango Club, they invited Mr. and Mrs. Troy Post along for company, and thereby hangs another tale.

Mr. Post "row" up in the neighborhood of Haskell, Texas, as did John Kimbrough, Jr.'s dad.

Mr. Kimbrough, Sr., during his college career at Texas A&M, was named All-American. Following A&M's trouncing of Fordham in the Cotton Bowl, Mr. Kimbrough was awarded a pocket watch for his performance, and promptly passed it along to his buddy, Troy Post.

Recalling the event Saturday night, Mr. Post promised that he would return the watch, which he has treasured all these years, to John, Jr., the son of his gracious friend.

Pictured along with the story were Anne Howard, niece of Vice-President, Hubert Humphrey; Lester Louie, his date Leslie Varel, and Miss Howard's date, John Kimbrough, Jr. Others to enjoy the evening with them were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Varel, Mr. and Mrs. Troy V. Post, Beth Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Garry Weber.

Baird In Charge Mechanical Dept. At Toliver Chev.

Bailey Toliver, of the Toliver Chevrolet Company, announced this week that Conward Baird is now in charge of the Mechanical Department.

Mr. Baird has a number of years experience on all types of automobiles repair, and has specialized on Chevrolets, having kept up by attending Chevrolet Service Schools conducted by General Motors.

Baird is well known in this area and invites his friends and the general public to visit Bailey Toliver Chevrolet for car and truck repairs regardless of make or model.

Texas Interconnected System

For more than 25 years, WPU and Eight Partners in Power have operated in harmony to provide a highly dependable power supply for Texas.

It is nice to have neighbors you can depend on—and electric company people long ago discovered that the "good neighbor policy" works out well in business.

That is the simple principle behind the Texas Interconnected System, a network composed of nine major power systems in Texas. Whenever trouble occurs on one electric system, that system can instantly borrow power from neighbors...

The subject of inter-connection of electric systems is currently receiving considerable interest in the news. But, it is "old hat" in Texas where the major power suppliers have been operating successfully on an inter-connected basis for more than a quarter of a century.

If a major generating station of one of the TIS members suddenly goes out of service, the system is designed for other plants to automatically pick up the load from the "spinning reserve" power that is available at all times.

This is just one way the TIS integrated system and inter-company ties work to keep electric service dependable in our service area...

The Texas Interconnected System is composed of West Texas Utilities Company and eight other power systems which operate wholly within the State of Texas. In a state as large as Texas, with great variations in climate and geography, the membership of the TIS is divided into two groups to simplify operations...

The STIS is composed of two investor-owned companies... Houston Lighting & Power Company and Central Power & Light Company; two municipal power systems, the City of Austin and refuge, with areas of it closed to hunting. Other parts are open to limited hunting under a permit system.

Still later, the state developed a green tree refuge on Lake Texarkana. Here the water level is controlled so that in the winter months there will be sufficient water for the ducks and geese.

Other protection has been provided on Matagorda Island, and along the Upper Laguna Madre. King Ranch also provides thousands of acres of duck haven because no shooting is allowed on much of its shoreline.

Fortunately Texas has an abundant feed crop for water fowl. Ducks and geese feed on the cut-over rice lands along the coast, and go far back into the pastures.

There is a concerted program of improving all the wetland area to help the entire waterfowl situation. This work is being developed with the money we pay for the duck stamps—now $3 a year.

At the same time the Commission is using state license money and money received back from the arms and ammunition excise tax to develop its waterfowl resources.

This year Ducks Unlimited is spending another half-million dollars in Canada. In other words, funds seem to be forthcoming. The natural elements are hard to beat, however, and along with heavier gun pressure the waterfowl situation seems hard hit.

What's The First Question?

It's likely to be one word... "Insurance"

More important than just having insurance are the questions: "what kind" and "how much." Have you neglected to change your policy to keep up with changes in your home? Now you can streamline your insurance with a tailor-made "package policy." Call us this week for details.

Soil, Water Conservation Programs Appear To Be Headed For Trouble

Soil and water conservation programs appear to be headed for serious trouble. A report released by the California Creek Soil and Water Conservation District states that President Johnson is expected to announce soon his target for the $6 billion reduction he plans to make in federal expenditures and outlays during fiscal year 1969, as directed by Public Law 90-364, the Tax Surcharge and Expenditure Act.

He will ask USDA to reduce 3/4 billion dollars in spending and employ 1,335 fewer people than were employed on June 30, 1968. About half the scheduled employment reduction will be from the Soil Conservation Service, even though SCS employs only about one-sixth of all USDA personnel.

"The expected personnel ceiling," says the report "may make it necessary to close SCS field offices in at least 150 local conservation districts."

According to Birger Haterius of Stamford, chairman of the California Creek District Board of Supervisors, the expected cuts would drastically hinder local conservation efforts.

"This would mean that very few, if any, new contracts could be let for whole farm and ranch soil and water conservation in the Great Plains Conservation Program," Haterius said. The GPCP, along with the Agricultural Conservation Program, has been the backbone of conservation efforts in this area for the last 10 years. Many conservation contractors operating in the District would be affected, as well as the entire local economy.

Other target limitations on SCS expenditures... will prohibit the letting of any new construction contracts in the upstream watershed program.

will prohibit the letting of any new contracts for flood prevention. will result in the loss of many professional people from watershed and other community development activities.

will slow down conservation operations and default long-standing memorandums of understanding and other commitments to local and state subdivisions of government by denying technical service.

Memorial Gifts Chairman Named By Heart Assn.

Miss Nettle McCollum of the Haskell National Bank, has been named memorial gifts chairman of the Haskell County Heart Association.

Many individuals and groups have found that gifts to the Heart Association provide a gratifying way to honor the memory of relatives and friends who have died of heart disease. These thoughtful tributes also give hope to the living because memorial gifts are used to support research, education and community service, aimed at reducing the toll of the cardiovascular diseases—the greatest cause of mortality and disability in our community and nation.

When a memorial gift is received, the Heart Association immediately sends an appropriate acknowledgement card to the bereaved family indicating the names of the individuals making the memorial and the name of the individual being honored. The amount of the contribution is not included on the card to the family but is shown on the receipt to the donor informing him that the family has been notified. Incidentally, all memorial gifts to the Heart Association are fully tax deductible.

Miss McCollum said memorial gifts "are gratefully received by mail or in person at the Haskell National Bank. We urge all donors to give full information about the purpose of the gifts so that the acknowledgement cards sent to the families are in proper form. We also encourage donors to notify us by telephone when they wish to make memorial gifts. This makes it possible for us to provide really prompt service in sending out the memorial acknowledgements to the bereaved families."

Prison Rodeo Is Slated At Huntsville

Visitors to San Antonio's HemisFair will be informed about the coming annual Texas Prison Rodeo through a unique inmate exhibit in the HemisFair's Wild West Village.

One exhibit is a life-size statue of a bucking bronco to give viewers an idea of what the Texas Prison Rodeo is all about as to the thrilling convict events.

The Prison Rodeo is held each Sunday in October in the prison's million-dollar stadium near downtown Huntsville, beginning at 2:00 p. m.

In addition to the thrilling convict contests, this year's star-studded cast of guest stars will include an all-American group of the nation's top western-style entertainers.

Ray Price will open the rodeo series on October 6, followed by Loretta Lynn on October 13, Sonny James on October 20, and closing with Hank Thompson on October 27.

Other added attractions booked by prison rodeo officials include Candy Barr, a well-known night club entertainer, who at one time was an inmate at the Goree Unit.

A gay midway and scores of inmate entertainers will be on hand each Sunday, along with Candy Barr to help round out a fast-moving two-hour show.

Net proceeds from ticket sales go to an inmate fund which is used in a prison-wide treatment program for the benefit of nearly 12,000 inmates of the Texas Department of Corrections.

Annual Tour:

Housing Loan. This past year, Mr. Glass received a Soil and Water Loan to develop the 300 acres with parallel terraces and brush control.

The Soil Conservation Service has furnished all the necessary technical assistance for the installation of the parallel terraces, brush control and seeding. Cost-shares for this work have been furnished through the Great Plains Conservation Program.

As of September 1, 79,000 feet of new parallel terraces had been completed. An estimated additional 25,000 feet is now under construction and will be completed in the near future, if not already completed. All old terraces on the field were destroyed in order to establish this system of parallel terraces.

Mr. Glass will complete his brush control this year. Brush Control and seeding previously accomplished, and the farm pond was constructed prior to CFCP, the contract using cost-share funds of ACP furnished by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Haskell County Country Club. As everyone knows, recreation has become an important part of all people. This rural area was previously without adequate recreational facilities. This existing organization received a loan of $150,000 to remodel the existing 9-hole golf course, construct another water reservoir, construct a swimming pool, and construct a lovely club house building.

This club is supported by its approximately 180 dues paying members, and will provide recreational facilities to about 800 individuals for many years to come.

Initial planning for recreation, and the establishment of the large water storage facility just south of the club house were given the club through the services of the local Wichita-Brazos Soil & Water Conservation District and the Soil Conservation Service's planning and engineering staff.

Leon Burson Farm. Mr. Burson entered into the Great Plains Conservation Program March 9, 1967, with the balance of 1967, and three more years to complete his contract as originally scheduled. He has accomplished all scheduled conservation practices with the exception of 4500 feet on standard level terraces and 80 acres of mesquite spraying.

Parallel terraces were started on May 8, 1967 on the field observed, and on May 23 on the farm five miles southwest of Haskell. All work on both fields was completed by August 17.

On July 11 of this year work was started on the field just north of his home.

To date, Mr. Burson has constructed over 90,000 feet of parallel terraces and a diversion terrace of 1566 feet. He has established 302 acres of contour farming, 181 acres of Conservation Cropping System, and 80 acres of proper range grazing. He has also completed all necessary irrigation practices on 160 acres of irrigated land he owns north of Rochester. This includes 3856 feet of underground irrigation pipeline, 100 acres of land leveling, and the conservation irrigation systems necessary to irrigate this farm.

Virgil Sonnemaker Farm
West Side of US 277

Mr. Sonnemaker entered in the Great Plains Conservation Program on September 14, 1966. Work was started on this field on December 22 and on March 3, 78,480 feet of parallel terraces were completed.

Work is now underway on his farm four miles north of Haskell, and when completed approximately 110,000 feet of parallel terraces will have been installed.

Sonnemaker has also constructed a five-acre waterway to carry outside water through the farm, and has established the waterway to a permanent grass cover of Western Wheatgrass.

Mr. Sonnemaker feels that the work he has accomplished has greatly improved the productivity and value of his land.

Carl Bailey, East Side of US 277
Mr. Bailey installed 3452 feet of parallel terraces on this farm in March 1966 using the cost-share assistance furnished by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Services through ACP.

This land was not terraced work of some 40 yards remaining. Chapman ran the ball over from the one yard line to put the Indians ahead to stay.

Early in the second-half Adkins intercepted an Ivy pass and three plays later rounded left-end, reversed his field and scampered 62 yards to score. Anson tried for a two-point conversion, but the run failed and they trailed 14-13.

After a 43-yard touchdown run by Franklin was called back, Haskell was forced to punt, but Anson fumbled and the Indians recovered on the 10. Two plays later Franklin scampered around right end to score from the four-yard line. The kick was blocked and Haskell led 20-13.

Marching 64 yards, the Tigers would just not give up and hit pay dirt again to make it 20-19. Haskell came roaring back when Franklin took a pitch-back around right end to score. The kick was good, making the final score, Haskell 27; Anson 19.

Franklin was the game's second leading rusher, gaining 113 yards on 19 carries.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join the Marine combat forces.

MANY SOCIAL SECURITY REPORTS CAN NOW BE MADE AT ABILENE OFFICE

Social security beneficiaries in Haskell County who need to report changes of address or other events that affect the payment of their monthly benefits may now do so through the Abilene social security office, R. R. Tuley, Jr., district manager, said today. Reports may be made by mail, telephone, or personal visit.

Tuley said that up to now beneficiaries were asked to notify the Social Security Administration on postcard forms pre-addressed to one of six social security payment centers throughout the country. Beneficiaries received the postcard forms when they initially applied for monthly benefits. They should now line through that address on the card and insert "Box 3258, Abilene, Texas 79604."

"This change in reporting methods will reduce the time needed to change addresses and process other information monthly benefits. This is now having an effect on payment of possible due to the increased capacity of social security district offices to transmit the information over high-speed communications circuits to payment centers," Tuley added.

In addition to address changes, he said that other events that affect receipt of monthly social security checks include employment, dropping out of school between 18-22, marriage or remarriage in some instances, divorce, and death.

A COLORFUL SEASON

Autumn means different things to different people, but, for all of us, autumn comes this year on September 22. To some, it ushers in the excitement of football, others look forward to the hunting season, still others journey to the mountains to view the red, gold and yellow autumn colors that no artist can quite catch in all their glory.

In the cities, autumn brings a freshness and a new life...the opening of another theatre season.

Each of the seasons has its attractions, and autumn has its full share. So whether you are a nature lover, theatre goer, football fan, or just a plain stay-at-home who enjoys the smell of the cool fall air, there is something in autumn for you.

Bledsoe stated that it is against the law to dump trash on the roads or bar ditches and action must be taken if it is not stopped.

In the future, please use the city dump ground for disposal of trash.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The report of the Governor's Committee on Public School Education may be the most significant study made in the last two decades. Excellence in public school education in our state is an absolute necessity. Many, and possibly most, of our current social problems can be solved by making Texas a national leader in public education.

The state has the obligation to provide public education. We spend 52¢ of every tax dollar on public education. This is one of the best investments that we in the Legislature can make with the public's money. After reading the Committee's Report, I am very impressed with the research and talent which was necessary for its preparation. The proposals will cost a great deal of money and some of the innovations will create a great deal of controversy. Somewhere between the ideal situation and what we have now will probably be the position assumed by the Legislature. I have long supported free kindergartens, more adult education and better compensation for our teachers. Research in teaching methods is just as important as research in industry and the state should aid and encourage educational innovations and experimentation.

The greatest problems will arise out of recommendations to increase the local school district's share of the cost through equalization of tax rates and valuations and also the consolidation of small school districts. Certainly we should seek more efficient and economical local units but would it be proper to bus great numbers of students over great distances in some of our sparsely populated areas? Two hours a day or more on a school bus is hardly desirable. As the report points out, we expect a general leveling-off of student increase over the next ten years and if we are ever going to catch up in our educational program it must be now. I shall continue to study this report and the reactions and comments arising from it between now and January 14th, 1969 when the 61st Legislature convenes in regular session.

Frank W. Calhoun
State Representative
District 62-F
