

CITY BARRED FROM NAVIGATION VOTING

Along The Waterfront

Last week the Pilot ran an editorial entitled "Our Beach Is A Scandal." In it we quoted the example of a young lady, a summer visitor, who started to go swimming and cut her foot so badly on the shell that she never reached the water.

We don't know if its retributive justice, or just plain ill luck, but this week the editor is sporting a shell-cut foot acquired in the same manner in the same spot. It seems that tempting the fates just doesn't pay off, but we still insist that our beach IS A SCANDAL.

"Shorty" Townsend and the "Snooks" are still battling in the big leagues on the speckled trout circuit. Last week, on Wednesday, he took a party out and brought in 112 trout.

Thursday he took out Otto Peters and Joe Hartenstein, of Seguin, and a couple of local printers, and the party bagged 130 trout.

Monday, Addison Buckner and his wife and son went out with Shorty, and the catch was 125 trout before 11 o'clock. The Buckners are from San Marcos, and should be confirmed enthusiasts after that.

Tuesday Shorty went out and had 46 trout by eight in the morning, and came in to take his boat out of the water for a bit of repair work. We've been trying to find out what he did on the other days. There is no guessing what the man's weekly catch will amount to.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Mueller and Mr. and Mrs. Martin C. Nehring, of Austin, were out with Henry Ballou in the "Earline B" Tuesday morning. The party hooked 52 trout. Mrs. Mueller made the prize catch with a three and a quarter pound speck that she was showing around. Henry was taking pictures when the writer walked up. The party had remained over an extra day because bad weather had ruined their fishing prior to Tuesday, but that day's string made up for it.

Considering the fact that the man has four broken ribs and a wrenched back, Henry is quite active these days.

Mills Brothers report the weather at Mills Wharf fair and the fishing only fair, but several good catches were made during the past week. Here's a partial list.

E. B. Harbeck and M. A. Olsen and son, of San Antonio, caught 50 trout on the fifth.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Austin and Mrs. Harry Lee Adams and son, of Alice, brought in one 8-pound red, 10 trout and drum and one flounder.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Benn, A. W. Benn, Jr., and Gus Wagisback caught 62 trout, 2 drum and 2 gaff-tops on the 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Roegels and Teddy Roegels and Fred Stacy of Alice, got 25 trout the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watson, of Mansfield, Texas, and H. F. Wallace of Ft. Worth, caught 47 trout and 12 gaff-top on the 11th.

A. B. Maurer and his father-in-law, both of Cuero, hooked a big drum on an 18-pound test line near the mouth of St. Charles at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon Tuesday. Maurer fought the drum until 6:30, following it by rowing part of the time and using a kicker the rest of the time. He proved himself as tenacious as the fish, not wanting to lose his line.

By 6:30 they had the drum in shallow water on the shore of Goose Island, so played-out they walked up to it. The fish had been snagged in the side of the head, which was what made it fight so hard.

Mr. Roberts, of the Palm Courts, Major Tom Collins of Dallas, and Louis Collins of Corpus Christi, landed 18 trout, 1 red, a drum and 10 gaff-top on the same day.

They also hooked a mander—a big black stineree—that came to the top of the water, saw the boat, and took off carrying line, leader and all with him. The guide said it was a lot bigger than a wash tub.

Huffman, Little, Jones New Navigation Commissioners

Fill Vacancies Created By Death, Two Resignations

Commissioners Court Appoints Complete New Membership

The Commissioner's Court met Tuesday night at the courthouse to fill vacancies on the Navigation Commission created by the death of Marshal T. Anderson and the resignations of Charles T. Picton and R. J. "Bunk" Wendell.

Mayor Albert Collier and aldermen A. C. Shivers, Thomas D. Picton, Leonard LaBlanc and W. B. Allen were present at the beginning of the meeting, but were barred from participation in the appointment of members to the commission.

When the council had adjourned, the Commissioner's Court was called to order by Judge B. S. Fox and J. H. Mills, of Lamar, nominated Ted Little to take the place of Marshal T. Anderson, deceased. Little was approved unanimously by those present.

Charles T. Picton's resignation was also accepted, and the court went on record expressing its appreciation for what the commission had accomplished under his leadership. C. E. Townsend nominated Floyd Huffman to fill this vacancy, and it was passed on by the commissioners.

R. J. Wendell's resignation was also accepted. Tom DeForest nominated Earnest Jones, of Fulton, to take his place and the appointment was approved. The new commission will meet after being sworn in and elect its own chairman. Commissioners present for Tuesday's meeting were L. V. McLester, C. E. Townsend, Tom DeForest, J. H. Mills, with Judge B. S. Fox presiding.

The new members of the Navigation Commission are well known in Aransas County. Ted Little is a former county commissioner and is now secretary of the School Board. He operates a fishing boat and has been a resident of Rockport for many years.

Floyd Huffman is a civil engineer, and a former county surveyor. During the war he worked for the Civil Aeronautics Authority, and was engineer in charge of construction on the Aransas County Airfield. He also worked on air bases in the Chicago area.

Huffman is chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee on navigation and highways. He is a member of the Intracoastal Canal Association, and has been active in its affairs. He is engineer for the City of Port Lavaca, and working on several waterfront improvements there. His latest creation is Copano Village.

Earnest Jones and Bill Wendell are at present erecting a building in Fulton that will house a grocery store in which the two men will be partners.

Jones' father was employed here many years ago by the S. A. P. railroad and was killed in an accident. Jones worked for the Humble Oil Co. for over a decade. He is married to the former Lorraine Wendell, of Fulton, and moved there when the Humble plant in Ingleside closed to go in business with his brother-in-law.

Both Huffman and Jones have already taken the oath of office.

Sunday, June 16 Is Father's Day

Sunday, June 16, is the day all America sets aside for its Dads. William Smart was the inspiration for the first Father's Day in 1910, and today the father of the largest family in the land is the recipient of a $100 U. S. Savings Bond—that is, the one with the most sons and daughters now living.

But this year's choice isn't too happy. At last accounts, the Ohio man selected was confined to his home under quarantine—some of the children have the measles.

Your father doesn't need a savings bond to make him happy—just remember that Sunday is his day.

Picketing Spreads To Rockport — But It's Only Amusement

DeWilton Jeffries announced the grand opening of his new White Auto Store in last week's paper. Bright and early Monday morning, a picket was on the street in front of the new firm with a sign reading: "I protest the White Jr. Store."

The horseplay elicited no rise from Jeffries. He just grinned and said that it was good advertisement.

Superintendent Of Schools Succeeds Jack Blackwell

Resolution Adopted Recommends Beach Improvements

At an action-packed meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors in City Hall last Friday afternoon, Morgan C. Wheeler, superintendent of schools, was appointed manager of the Chamber of Commerce to succeed Jack Blackwell, who resigned due to the press of personal affairs.

A resolution was passed at the meeting recommending to the Navigation Commission that piers be constructed out past the shell on the beach in order that swimmers may get into the water without hazard.

A resolution was passed calling for the strict enforcement of membership dues. After two months any member who has not paid his dues will be termed delinquent and dropped from the rolls.

The directors voted a cup for the 1946 Fourth of July boat regatta. A regular monthly meeting was decided upon with members meeting every first Wednesday at noon at Theodore's Cafe. Present at Friday's meeting were Judge B. S. Fox, Father Kelly, Ed Barnard, Hugh Morrison, Jack Blackwell, Charles Ankele and Fred Booth.

Blackwell, after resigning his managership, was appointed a director. Morgan C. Wheeler has been superintendent of the Rockport schools for the past three years. His position makes him ex-officio secretary of the Board of Trustees, he has served with the Parent-Teachers most of the time, and has been active in the Chamber of Commerce since coming here. He belongs to the Masonic Lodge, is on the District Executive Committee for the Boy Scouts of America for this district, and a past president of the Gulf Coast Executives—an organization of superintendents of schools for 28 counties.

Rockport All-Stars And Ingleside Meet Friday Night

Heading the sports events for the week is a game between the Rockport All-Stars and Ingleside Friday night at 8 o'clock at the High School athletic field.

Five teams have been organized under Coach John Ramsuer's summer recreational program, and the pick of players from this league will compose a team to meet Ingleside on the diamond Friday night.

The present schedule calls for two games a week in the Rockport league, with the fifth team in the bleachers for the period. Tuesday and Friday nights are set aside for local games for the rest of the summer, with out-of-town matches slated for Sundays.

At the end of the first half of the season, July 19, the two leading teams will play a 3-game series for the bush league pennant. A schedule has not been set up for the last half of the summer.

Here is the way they will play: Tuesday, June 18, Fire Department vs. Atlantic Oil Co.

Friday, June 21, Kelly's Grocery vs. Jackson Sea Food Co.

Tuesday, June 25, Fire Department vs. Hunt's Barber Shop.

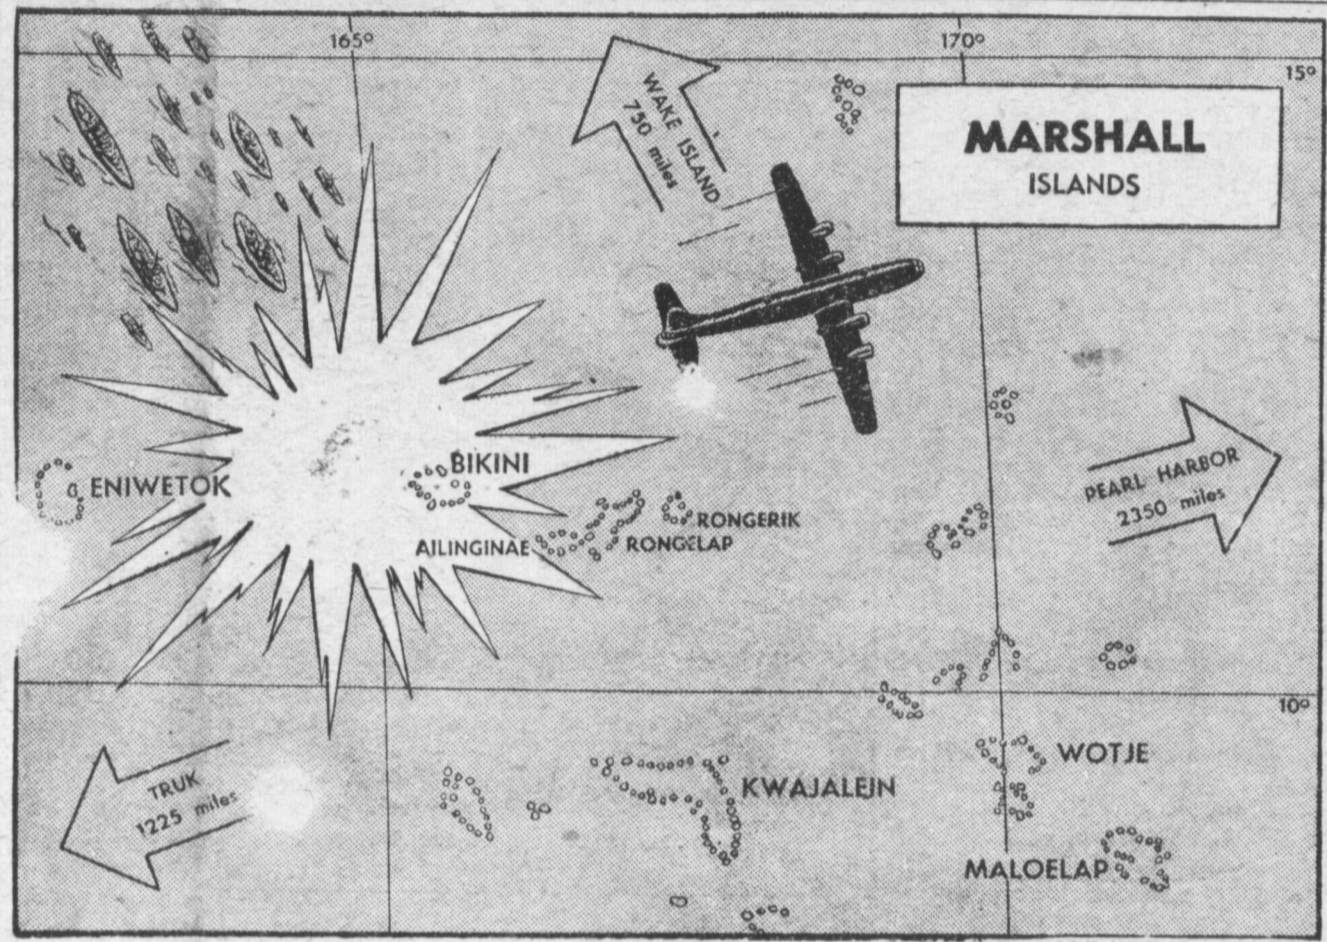

Friday, June 28, Kelly's Grocery vs. Atlantic Oil Co.

Tuesday, July 2, Fire Department vs. Kelly's Grocery.

Friday, July 5, Jackson Sea Food Co. vs. Hunt's Barber Shop.

Tuesday, July 9, Fire Department vs. Jackson Sea Food.

Friday, July 12, Atlantic Oil Co. vs. Hunt's Barber Shop.

Jack W. Gregory New Game Warden For District

Jack W. Gregory, a young veteran recently graduated from the game warden school at the Texas A&M College, has been assigned to this district to assist M. B. Mullinax, resident warden in charge.

The school that Gregory attended is sponsored jointly by the Texas A&M College and the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission. He attended the school from February until May 30, and this is his first permanent assignment.

Gregory is from Ft. Worth. He was a SeaBee during the war, serving a total of thirty-three months overseas. He was in the Aleutian campaign, then brought back to the states for redeployment.

He was then stationed at Pearl Harbor, was in on the Tarawa and Okinawa campaigns, and at Ulithi, the forward operating base for the fleet.

Tourist Grill and Thompson's Liquor Store Burglarized Early Wednesday

Sipes Family Lose Clothes, Luggage Sunday Night

The Tourist Grill was broken into early Wednesday morning, and Leonard B. Scully's Package Store—owned by Charlie Thompson—was burglarized shortly afterwards.

John N. Sipes, owner of the Grill, said the thieves broke in a window in the rear of the cafe and stole beer, wine and cigarettes and a small amount of change from the cash register. They tried to open the safe with a butcher knife, and succeeded in gaining entrance to the heavy outside door but couldn't open the other.

Failing to loot the safe, they tried to break into the nickelodeon and failed there as well. Mr. Sipes said he left the establishment shortly after midnight and returned at 4 a.m., so the robbery occurred in that period. It is his opinion that the thieves were either amateurs or drunk. Cigars and papers were scattered all over the place when he returned, and there was a part of a bottle of beer in the kitchen.

The thieves also drank some milk and dropped a full bottle of wine outside as they left. Mr. Sipes found his rifle unloaded and lying on the floor near the safe. The switches had all been pulled to turn off the night light, and all refrigeration was off but the boxes still cold when Sipes returned at 4 a.m.

The thieves left by the back-door, taking with them a steel or knife-sharpener, which they used to pry into the liquor store next door. Sipes valued his losses between $75 and $100, and this makes him a two-time loser in a single week.

Sunday night he left his hotel room at about nine o'clock, and at around ten somebody broke into his room and stole the trousers to two suits. They also took eight dresses and other wearing apparel belonging to his wife and daughter, packing the loot in $75 worth of luggage that he and his wife had given their daughter for a graduation present.

The thief in this instance opened purses, turned pockets inside, and rifled every drawer in the room except one. This was the drawer of a dressing table that contained $100 in cash. Clothes were off the hangers and the room generally disarranged when the Sipes family returned.

About 12 o'clock a man tried to sell some of the loot at the Triangle Cafe. The sheriff has a lead on his identity and an arrest is expected in the very near future.

Charlie Thompson said the thieves gained entrance to his place of business by prying off the back door. They stole about $100 worth of liquor of various brands. Wastebaskets were searched and every other conceivable place where money might be hidden, but none was found. The looted liquor included some champagne.

Since the burglars handled all kinds of items in both establishments, various articles were taken to Corpus Christi by Sheriff A. R. Curry in the hopes of obtaining fingerprints. But none were found.

Officials from the sheriff's department are working on the case.

Council Passes Ordinance Against Sale of Fireworks

The City Council met Tuesday night and passed an ordinance prohibiting the sale and explosion of fireworks within the city. A repealed ordinance prohibited the explosion of fireworks within the city, and the council wrote in the word sale and adopted it as it stood.

Clifton Swearingen, the city's legal advisor, was asked to draw up an ordinance placing a tax on any kind of coin vending machine. This was discussed at some length, and tabled until Mr. Swearingen made his report.

Mr. Swearingen was also asked for an opinion on the closing of streets within the city when requested by property owners controlling all of the land around it.

The council adjourned around eleven o'clock. Mayor Albert Collier and aldermen Thomas D. Picton, W. B. Allen, A. C. Shivers and Leonard LeBlanc were present.

Eldon Simpson, Local Accountant, Commits Suicide

Eldon Simpson, Rockport Accountant, died last Friday afternoon of a self-inflicted gunshot wound a little after 4 o'clock.

Simpson, who was born in 1902 and came here about September of last year, was at home alone when the shooting occurred. He had sent the children to Theodore's Cafe, where his wife worked, with a note.

He is survived by his wife and children, and his mother and father, all of Rockport.

Council Has No Voice In Naming Commissioners

Joint Session Ends With Commissioners' Court Sole Authority

What started out as a joint session of the City Council and the Commissioner's Court, sitting as the Aransas County Navigation Board for the purpose of filling vacancies on the Navigation Commission, turned into a one-body affair with the mayor and aldermen barred from voting in the selection of commission members.

Apparently the move came as a complete surprise to the council and some members of the Commissioner's Court. Judge B. S. Fox called the meeting to order, reminded those present of the purpose for which they were in session, then requested an opinion of County Attorney Emory Spencer on the appointive powers of the board.

Spencer Cites Law. Spencer read a brief prepared by J. T. Vaughan, attorney at law from Aransas Pass, setting forth the history of the formation of the Navigation District by election and the laws governing appointment of members to the three-man commission.

What followed was reminiscent of the coups delivered by that famed barrister, Ephraim Tutt, in the Saturday Evening Post fiction series. The law specifically stated that only the mayor and aldermen of cities operating under special charter in the State of Texas could sit with the Commissioner's Court as a Navigation Board.

Since the City of Rockport has been operating under the general laws of the state since about 1900, twenty-five years before the formation of the Navigation District, it followed that the City Council had no authority to sit on such a board and had no voice in the selection of commission members.

Mr. Vaughan's premise seemed to be that there could be no such thing as a Navigation Board in Aransas County, since it would require the council and the Commissioner's Court to act jointly. Authority to deal with matters related to the Navigation District can be vested only in the court—and commissioners duly appointed by them.

Judge Fox Quizzed. A councilman immediately asked Judge Fox why the matter had been brought up at this time, since appointments had been made by the two groups in the past acting in conjunction.

Judge Fox said his sole interest in the matter was in discovering where the true power of appointment lay and to protect the county against injunctions or lawsuits arising from acts of a navigation commission where the legality of their selection might be open to question. He implied that the threat of some such suit or injunction, investigating the authority of members appointed by the two groups to act as a Navigation Commission, had arisen.

Judge Fox said he had not been aware of any question arising over the council's right to participate in the appointments until shortly before the meeting.

Clifford Swearingen, legal advisor to the city, protested that this was not the true spirit of the law, even though the legal phrasing seemed clear enough.

Mayor Albert Collier reminded the court that the City of Rockport had pledged its resources in support of a bond issue for $145,000, used to construct a seawall and other improvements here, and said he felt that gave the city a definite interest in its jurisdiction.

"As things now stand," Collier then told the court, "we have no voice in the administration of these improvements and no claim or title to the land they are on. Yet we are holding the bag for the money concerned." He asked why the bonds had been passed by the Attorney General when the city had no juris-

SACCHARIN IN DRINKS
BANNED; NO MINERAL
OIL IN FOODS

AUSTIN—New regulations prohibiting the use of mineral oil in foods and saccharin in beverages recently became part of the food and drug law.

Adopted at the State Board of Health's quarterly meeting, the new regulations state that "the use of mineral oil as an ingredient in foods is hereby prohibited. Any food product containing mineral oil as an ingredient will be considered adulterated under the Texas Food and Drug Law regardless of the form of label employed."

The new health rules ban the use of saccharin as an ingredient in carbonated beverages, soda, soda water, and other soft drinks.

OPA Raises Prices
On Cotton Pick Sacks

Individual producers of cotton pick sacks may raise their "freeze" price ceilings to the extent of increases in labor costs between March and September, 1942, for sacks of exactly the same type as those made in the base period, Warren M. Smith, price specialist of the San Antonio district Office of Price Administration, has announced.

The action is of an interim nature pending the development of a method of repricing cotton items subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation, and is taken to assure an adequate supply of cotton pick sacks needed in harvesting the current cotton crop, Smith explained.

Production has fallen off, because the margins on which producers were operating in 1942 have been cut down by increases in the cost of duck and, to some extent, higher labor costs. As a means of restoring normal production, producers are being permitted to add in increases in material costs and labor-cost increases between fixed dates.

Hoarding Old Medicine Said Dangerous By Health Department

AUSTIN, Texas.—There are many persons who naturally hoard anything and everything including old clothes, boxes, and other useless articles, some of which constitute no greater danger than a fire hazard, but a very real danger is present when this tendency is applied to hoarding old medicine in any form.

Most medicine finds itself into the home through a doctor's prescribing it for some specific illness. For the sake of safety, left-over medicines should be destroyed immediately when they have fulfilled their purpose and never be stored in the medicine cabinet for future unprescribed use in case of another illness, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Self-medication with the use of left-over drugs which were of great benefit to some previous illness can sometimes turn a simple ailment into a very serious condition of actual poisoning," Dr. Cox said. "This is particularly true of the indiscriminate use of sulfa drugs which have been prescribed for some previous specific condition.

"It is wise to use medicines as indicated for the illness for which they are prescribed by your doctor, and when they are no longer needed, destroy the remaining medicine immediately," Dr. Cox said. "Even if you expect a return of the same condition at some future date, it would be better to obtain new medicine if the condition recurs than to retain this old medicine in the cabinet and subject the members of your family to the danger of using it unwisely."

The quickest delivery of a message mailed in a bottle, was the one tossed onto the Gulf Stream, off Miami, Florida, and found at Lochinvar, Scotland, 18 days later.

Cottage pudding is plain cake covered with sweet sauce.

It's an old one but I've always liked the story of the intoxicated man who was shoved out the front door of a club and he announced to a bystander, "I'm gonna go back in there an' throw 'em all out. You stand here an' count 'em." So he made his wobbly way back up the steps and back into the building. In a little while the door flew open and out sailed a form. The man on the street said, "One." The figure on the sidewalk slowly rose and said, "Don't start counting yet; this is just me comin' out again."

And changing the subject: For the first breakfast in their home, the bride cooked some biscuits. Her husband said, "Darling, don't cook biscuits anymore; you are too light for such heavy work."

Here's a little poem whose author is unknown, entitled "Give Them the Flowers Now":
Closed eyes can't see white roses,
Cold hands can't hold them, you know;
Breath that is stilled can not gather
The odors that sweet from them blow.

Death, with a peace beyond dreaming,
Its children of earth doth endow;
Life is the time we can help them,
So give them the flowers now.

Here are the struggles and striving,
Here are the cares and the tears;
Now is the time to be smoothing
The frowns and the furrows and fears.

What, to closed ears, are kind sayings?
What, to hushed heart, is deep vow?
Naught can avail after parting,
So give them the flowers now.

Just a kind word or a greeting,
Just a warm clasp or a smile—
These are the flowers that will lighten
The burdens for many a mile.
After the journey is over,
What is the use of them? How Can they carry them, who must be carried,
Oh, give them the flowers now.

Blooms from the happy heart's garden,
Plucked in the spirit of love;
Blooms that are earthly reflections
Of flowers that blossom above—
Words can not tell what a measure Of blessing such gifts may allow
To dwell in the lives of many;
So give them the flowers now.

New Price Increase Now In Effect

A nation-wide increase in the price of milk, cream, buttermilk and chocolate milk, resulting from increased prices of livestock feed and grains, is now effective in this area, Clifton George, Jr., price executive of the San Antonio district Office of Price Administration, has announced. Fluid milk has advanced one cent per quart, at retail, and ½ cent per pint.

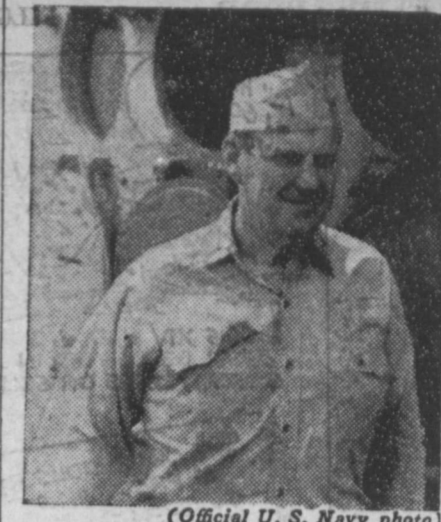

A price increase of 40 cents per hundredweight has been granted producers, George explained.

Price advances at retail, besides those for fluid milk, include the following: Buttermilk, ½ cent per quart; chocolate milk, ½ cent per quart; cream, more than 16 per cent butterfat, one cent per ½ pint; cream, less than 16 per cent butterfat (½ and ¾), 1-2 cent per ½ pint.

These price increases will apply throughout the United States.

Ceilings on corn recently advanced 25 cents per bushel; wheat, 15 cents; oats, five cents; grain sorghums, 18 cents per hundredweight; and other grains also were advanced in price to offset uncertainty about 1946-47 ceilings, and to encourage larger production. At the same time, ceiling prices of livestock feeds were increased. Cottonseed meal and cake, peanut meal and cake, linseed meal and cake, corn germ meal, gluten meal and feed, and soybean meal and cake, all used extensively by Texas milk producers advanced $14 per ton.

Only the elephant works for peanuts nowadays.

Jerald Leonce Brundrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brundrett of this city, was married to Miss Edna Sue Smith, daughter of Mrs. Ted Harrell and the late E. Torbet Smith of Decaturville, Tennessee, in a ceremony solemnized at the Baptist Church in Decaturville last Sunday morning at 8 o'clock.

The double ring ceremony was performed with the Rev. Woodard Bartholomew reading the marriage vows before an altar banked with ferns, daisies, lillies and an ivy covered arch outlined with candelabra which illuminated the scene.

A program of nuptial music preceded the ceremony. "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning" were played softly throughout the ceremony. The traditional wedding march was played for the processional.

The bride wore a white satin gown, and a veil attached to a coronet of orange blossoms. She was given in marriage by her cousin, Seaman A. B. Smith.

Miss Peggy Smith, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Howard Kinsey, cousin of the groom of Rockport, was best man.

The young couple went on a wedding trip to Reel Foot Lake and Natchez Trace State Park. They will make their home in Rockport, where Mr. Brundrett is employed as an engineer with Heldenfels Bros.

Mr. Brundrett was graduated from Rockport High School in 1942, entering the Navy soon afterwards. He served three years, mostly in the Pacific Theatre. He was a Machinist Mate 1-c on the U. S. S. Renshaw, the ship from which President Truman reviewed the fleet on Navy Day.

Miss Smith graduated from the Decatur County High School May 31. Showers, dinner parties, a rehearsal party and a wedding breakfast were given the couple.

Letters to the Editor

Editor,
Rockport Pilot

The City has no voice in administration of the yacht basin.

At a joint meeting reported elsewhere in this issue of the PILOT, it was discovered that technically the representatives of the citizens of Rockport have no votes or other methods of expressing themselves in the selection of members for the navigation board.

Previous to this it had also been shown, on the basis of an attorney's opinion, that the City of Rockport has no claim to title on any of the land involved in the construction or maintenance of the yacht basin.

The bonds which were sold to finance the work on the basin are supported by a pledge of all the resources of this city. The money for the payment of the principal and interest on the issue comes from tax remissions donated by the legislature of the State of Texas to the City of Rockport specifically for this purpose. In the event of failure of tax remissions to materialize (and such is not outside the realm of possibility) the City of Rockport alone is responsible for the payment of interest and principal on the $112,000 still outstanding. In the end the bonds were voted by the citizens of Rockport.

The sad part of this whole affair is that it is based on legal technicalities. The county officials made no attempt to give the members of the Council prior knowledge of their intended action, and exhibited no intention or desire to cooperate with the city in any way.

The City Council is at a loss to understand this sudden change in attitude on the part of the Commissioner's Court, which heretofore has always been cooperative and considerate of the needs of the city.

Albert Collier
A. C. Shivers

Editor,
Rockport Pilot

When the boat basin was built Rockport was given an attraction for tourists and the basin was very popular at once. On July 4, 1941 Rockport had its biggest day and an estimated crowd of 20,000 came from all parts of Texas.

There was a boat parade, swimming and diving exhibition, boat races and many other forms of entertainment for men, women and children.

In spite of all this many left early and in disgust because nothing had been done to provide toilet facilities.

That was five years ago and nothing has ever been done. Rockport had spread itself to entertain the crowd, but had overlooked the fact that one must be comfortable to enjoy any entertainment. We have many visitors who come to Rockport for a days fishing and if we desire to encourage these visitors we must provide some means of making them comfortable.

I would suggest the building of a pavilion in the parkway between the basin and the highway with a concrete foundation high enough to allow rest rooms that can be connected to the sewer.

This could be used as a resting place by fishermen, band concerts or other entertainment.

Above all it would make visitors feel that Rockport was thinking of their comfort as well as their pleasure.

To The Voters of Aransas County

With the approaching of the dead line for the announcing of candidates for offices subject to the action of the Democratic Primary I consider it appropriate that I make the following statement. The only office in Aransas County that I would seek under any circumstances is the office that I am now holding. And with a veteran of two wars already aspiring for such office, I graciously step aside. And since my failure to run is tantamount to election of Mr. Caldwell to that particular office, I urge the people of Aransas County to co-operate with Mr. Caldwell in making Aransas County a better place to live.

Alumni Association Holds Meeting at High School Last Monday Evening

A business meeting was held by the Alumni Association of the Rockport High School at the school auditorium last Monday night with a record crowd attending.

Mrs. Robert Key, president, presided over the meeting.

Minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary Treasurer, Mrs. Curtis Harritt and were approved. She reported all bills paid from funds solicited to finance last month's barbecue with $26.00 left over which was added to the treasury.

A motion was made by Mrs. F. F. Jackson that a reception be adopted by the association as the yearly entertainment. This plan was unanimously approved. It was approved, voted and added to the records as a rule.

Following a report from the chairman of the nominating committee chairman, Mrs. Albert Collier, the following officers were unanimously elected: Mrs. Urban Hemmi, president; Miss Charlotte Cron, vice-president; Mrs. Travis Bailey, second vice-president and Miss Margaret Schuster, secretary-treasurer.

KABC To Air Louis-Conn Fight

The biggest sporting event since the war will be brought by radio to millions of listeners in Texas Wednesday night, June 13th, at 8:00 PM by KABC, when the Heavyweight bout between Joe Louis and Billy Conn is broadcast. Blow-by-blow descriptions of the fight will be handled by Don Dunphy and Bill Corum, ace sportscasters who are heard regularly each Friday night over KABC covering the fights from Madison Square Garden.

This broadcast is illustrative of the many fine programs that are now available to listeners in this area through the increased power of KABC's new transmitter. Within two weeks after making its dial change on May 7th, KABC had received 10,000 letters from people in nearly 700 Texas towns covering 193 counties. The letters congratulating KABC on its power increase and the quality of its programs literally poured into the studios, forcing KABC to hire additional clerks to handle the flood of mail. Local programs attracting most attention were Dave Rogers and his Texas Outlaws, the Street Reporter, John W. Scott's New Commentaries and "Facts for Farmers" broadcast each weekday morning at 6:30 by Roy Rogers, KABC's Farm Editor. KABC is now at 680 on your dial.

He will be introduced by Governor Ellis Arnall, of Georgia. The program originates from WSB in Atlanta at 8:30 a. m.

Governor Bailey, one of the leading laymen of the Methodist Church was a featured speaker at the 1944 sessions of the General and Jurisdictional Conferences, and has become nationally recognized as a champion of a better rural life and a stronger rural church.

As Chief Executive of the State of Mississippi, his administration is being marked by a very constructive program including the revival of the state's agricultural and industrial interests and the development and encouragement of oil production and gasoline refining. Governor Bailey has been extremely active in obtaining more national recognition for Mississippi.

Mills Wharf Man's Son To Be Wed In Radio Ceremony

Charles W. Lawler, 21-year-old ex-Navy radarman, first class, and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lawler of Mills Wharf, will marry Miss Harriet Mae Cushman, age 21, of El Monte, California, in a ceremony broadcast over a nationwide network next Thursday afternoon. Charles also gives his address as El Monte now.

Upon being introduced to her at the famous Hollywood Palladium, Charles learned during their first dance that night... back in 1945, that his partner had a hobby of collecting cook books. Then he found out that she had over a hundred already in her collection, surmised that she must be a good cook, liked the way she danced, talked and acted—so they will be wed during the Thursday, June 13, broadcast of ABC's "Bride and Groom" show, heard at 8:00 p. m., PST, over Station KWBU. Following the ceremony the bridal couple will be flown in Paul Mantz's "Honeymoon Special" plane to Carlsbad, California where they will spend their honeymoon at the picturesque Carlsbad Hotel.

The "bride-to-be" is the daughter of Mrs. M. Schladerman of 225 Monterey ave., El Monte, and she is a clerk for the Pacific Electric Railway Co. The "groom" is the son of J. W. Lawler of Mills Wharf, Rockport, Texas and spent almost three years in the Navy where he saw action on carriers at Attu, Tarawa and the Marshalls.

Army Enlistees Offered Trades In Regular Army

Many hundreds of thousands of men are finding a happy solution to the question of a good job by signing up for a 1½, 2 or 3 year enlistment in the new peacetime Regular Army.

Most enlistees, it was stated, are men who intend to use their Army training to specialize in one of the many skills and trades taught in Army training schools. When they leave the Army, they will be able to specialize in such advanced fields as radar, radio, television, aviation, jet propulsion and atomic science.

"The Army's offer is hard to beat," said Captain May. After all, a man gets his food, clothing, quarters, medical and dental care free. He receives the highest pay the Army has ever offered. He can serve overseas and travel, and receive 20% extra pay. He has family allowances for his dependents, 30 days' vacation every year, training and experience in any of 200 skills and trades. And, after only 20

Joe Reveals Battle Plans

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., June 12—It was cool and quiet in the shade of the porch, watching the sun bring glittering gems out on the surface of the lake which is on the front yard of Joe Louis' cottage up here at his training camp.

You asked Joe to analyze his last tussle with Billy Conn, and the one coming up next week, and his plans generally for the big fight. The Bomber looked out at the diamonds sparkling on the lake, and listened to the cricket army sounding its battle cry in the lawns
all around, and thought it all out for several minutes. There was no one else around to interpret, so Joe went through the rundown for the first time since he began his training:

"I'm going to keep Conn going backward this time," he disclosed.
"The last time he kept coming to me, and I let him and it was just what he wanted. I won't let him do it this time. I'm planning a fast, forcing fight—keep him going back all the time."

It was the first time Joe had tipped you off as to just how he expects to fight the Pittsburgh pretty boy with the dazzling speed, who almost dethroned him five years ago. But the Bomber hasn't looked to good in training. He's been slow and easy to hit. What about that?

"I realize that I may be slower moving away from punches than I was the last time," he admitted.
"But I'm sure I punch just as fast and just as hard as I ever did.
And some folks are forgetting I never was a fast, speedy boxer."

"I've worked harder for this fight than for any fight in my life—harder and longer. I feel good, I feel just as good as I did for the second fight with Max Schmelling, which up to then, you remember, was the one I wanted to win more than anything else in the world."

"I think I'm just as good as for any fight I ever had. I don't think Conn can be a better fighter now than he was five years ago.
He can be just as good as then,
and I'm trying to be just as good as I was that time. After all, both of us have been in the fight game a long time and we're through learning. Now we just get in shape—
the best shape we can."

Senator Bankhead Dies
From Effects of Stroke

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Sen.
John H. Bankhead (Dem.) Alabama, 73-year-old leader of the Senate cotton bloc, brother of the late House Speaker William B.
Bankhead, and uncle of Actress Tullulah Bankhead, died Wednesday in Bethesda, Md., naval hospital. The stocky, partly-bald, excitable Alabamian had been dangerously ill since May 24 when he suffered a stroke while attending a senate banking committee hearing on legislation to extend the office of price administration.
Bankhead, seeking to remove cotton from O. P. A. price and marketing regulations, was stricken while vigorously denying a charge by Washington Columnist Drew Pearson that he had been trading in the cotton futures market.

He rallied several times after his removal to the hospital but suddenly took a turn for the worse
Wednesday morning. Late Wednesday doctors revealed that his condition was "critical" and a short time later he died.
A native of Moscow, Ala., where he was born July 8, 1872, and a lawyer by profession, Bankhead was elected to the senate in 1930
and was serving his third term, which would have expired in January, 1949.

diction over the administration of the property effected.

The reply to this was that somebody had to be the "goat."

Councilmen Leave Meeting

But the law definitely barred the council from participation in the appointments to be made, and Mr.
Spencer said it would take an act of the State Legislature to change it.

Judge Fox then pointed out that the question had arisen out of threatened litigation, that the Commissioner's Court had asked Mr. Spencer to investigate the legal problems merely to protect the county, and that it was best for all concerned that the matter be settled correctly once and for all.

The council then retired to the City Hall for further consideration of the matter, and the Commissioner's Court went ahead with the appointments.

The $145,000 bond issue brought into the discussion by Mayor Collier is to be paid by state ad valorum tax remission. It is generally conceded that it will be paid in full, but in case it isn't, the resources of the city are pledged in support of it.

This seems to be the city's principal objection to being barred from the board. Collier said as long as the debt was their ultimate responsibility, he felt the council should have a voice in the commission's affairs.

An incongruous note was injected into proceeding when it was later learned the city was leasing land on the yacht basin to C. A. Duck and F. C. Simpson for the Beach Club. The site is not under the jurisdiction of the city.

Collier said the council had no objection to the men named to the commission. It was merely felt that the city should have some voice in their selection.

Judge Fox said he would be very glad for the city council to take part in the appointments—if it were only legal. Or to have the sole power of appointment.

"I'm very, very sorry—I didn't make the law," the judge said.

Arrives Here
By Water

A house, bought in Ingleside and consigned to the Holly development in Fulton, was brought in this week by barge and unloaded on the waterfront to continue its journey
by truck.

According to Hugh Morrison, this is the first house to arrive in Rockport by water. Dillon & Warnecke of Corpus Christi, were the hauling contractors. Captain Jim Tuttle, well-known in Rockport and skipper of the "Boss", handled
the water end of the moving.

Mr. Holly has purchased a tract in Fulton just north of the old Four seasons Beach, and is constructing several cottages there. The house will go on the property, too.
