

Heavy Voting Is Expected In General Election Tuesday

CAP "Wrap-Up" Meeting Set Monday Night

From all indications Haskell Countians will march to the polls in heavy numbers, Tuesday, November 5th, in the General election. Based on registration, the county has a potential voting strength of 4,604. Voters will mark a larger than usual ballot this year due to the large number of Constitutional Amendments submitted. Usually the General Election in Haskell County does not poll a large vote, but due to the interest in this presidential election year, a good turnout is expected. The ballot carries four party columns... Democrat, Republican, American and Write-in. Then fourteen proposed changes in the Constitution are listed in the "For" and "Against" form. Election officials are asked to bring, or telephone the results as soon after the polls close as possible to the office of County Clerk W. W. (Bill) Reeves. The telephone number is 864-2451.

Executive Director, Dick Osborn, of the Regional Office in Abilene, will preside over the session. Considerable work, in regard to obtaining a building, electing a board of directors, etc., has gone into the Action program since the previous meeting. Monday night's meeting will be open to the public and interested citizens from all over the county should make a special effort to be present.

Services Held Friday For Mrs. W. L. Holt

Mrs. W. L. (Bill) Holt, 64, passed away at 3:40 p. m. Wednesday, October 23, in the Haskell Memorial Hospital. She had been a patient there for six days. Funeral was held at 2:30 p. m. Friday at the First Presbyterian Church of Haskell with Dr. Harry Surles, pastor, and Rev. R. D. Williams, pastor of East Side Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Willow Cemetery under the direction of Holden-McCauley Funeral Home.

Born Nov. 26, 1903, near Healdton, Okla., she moved to Haskell with her late parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Orr in 1918 from Throckmorton. She married W. L. (Bill) Holt September 30, 1922, in Haskell. She was a member of the Mattson Baptist Church.

Surviving are her husband, of Haskell; five daughters, Mrs. Claude (Brookss) Stamper of Haskell; Mrs. Weldon (Billie) Almond of Jayton; Mrs. Danyne (Barbara) Medford of Stamford; Mrs. Boyd (Banna) Davis of Hobbs, N. M.; and Mrs. Bobbie Lindsey of Haskell; a son, W. L. (Blue) Holt, Jr., of Bridgeport; six sisters, Myrtle Orr of Haskell; Mrs. Leah Winningham of Post, Mrs. Lou Crawford of Orville, Calif., Mrs. Frank McCarson of Elbert, Mrs. Dixie Dejana of Dallas, Mrs. Emerson Tidrow of Breckenridge; 15 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Pallbearers were Alvin Hill, Elbert Mapes, J. W. Aycock, Alfred Turnbow, Raymond Brewer, Al Arend, Slover Bledsoe and Speck Sorenson.

Absentee Voting Continues At "Brisk" Pace

Absentee voting in Haskell County for next Tuesday's General Election continued at a rather brisk pace, with but two ballots left in which to obtain ballots from County Clerk, Bill Reeves. A total of 205 ballots had been obtained, with 66 of them marked and returned, as of Tuesday morning, Reeves said. Voting by absentee got underway October 16, and will end November 1. During the last Presidential Election year, 125 absentee ballots were cast. Thus with 66 votes already cast by absentee and 125 ballots mailed out, it appears Haskell Countians are taking quite a bit of interest in the General Election, Tuesday, November 5th.

A colorful film story of Los Angeles' LIFE Bible College will be a part of the featured presentation to be made by Rev. Charles "Chuck" Shoemaker at the Foursquare Church, Haskell, Thursday, November 7th, at 7:30 p. m., announces pastor, Roy Herricks. Shoemaker, a graduate of last June's class, has just joined the staff of his Alma Mater where he received his Bachelor of Religious Education degree. He comes to Haskell as a part of his nationwide tour as the school's Field Representative to bring the LIFE story to churches of the Foursquare denomination. "Chuck was selected by the College because of his unique personality," informed Roy Herricks. "This young man has an appeal to both youth and adults that is heartwarming as well as challenging." His program will include a message to the young-at-heart, and includes information on the possibilities in Christian higher education today. Shoemaker was graduated with honors from LIFE, where he began studies in 1964 after receiving his B.A. from Cornell College in Iowa. A native of the Hawkeye State, Rev. Shoemaker was raised at Newton. Pastor Herricks noted that LIFE Bible College enrolls more than 500 students and has graduated over 6,200 since its founding in 1925 by Evangelist Aimee Sophie McPherson. Approximately 60 per cent of the student body are men, most of whom are in preparation for the Christian ministry.

Telephone Service Improvement Program Reaches Halfway Mark Telephone Service Improvement Program for Haskell has reached the halfway mark, according to W. L. Goodrum, Division Manager for General Telephone Company of the Southwest. The project calls for the replacement of weather-damaged cable facilities within the city and placing both new and remaining telephone cables under air pressure. Construction forces have erected approximately 75 per cent of the new cables and telephone cable splicers have begun connecting the new facilities. "When completed in March 1969, the new cable system will greatly reduce the possibility of outages caused by wet weather," Goodrum said. "The air pressure system will include an alarm feature to detect leaks and openings in the cables. This alarm will be used to notify maintenance forces of the damage and permit repairs before water enters the cables and causes an outage." "Some of the new cable has not been received yet," Goodrum said, "but we feel we will remain on schedule and will begin to reap benefits immediately."

L. J. Cappleman, Texas State Director of the Farmers Home Administration, said he had been notified by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman of the rural housing and rural community planning features of the newly enacted 1968 Housing Act.

The Act was signed into law on August 1 by President Johnson.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

The Internal Revenue Service prides itself on being a highly professional and competent organization. Part of the professions are engaged in finding taxpayers, and naturally these well-trained men and women are capable—and probably have more ways of finding you than any other group. On top of this, Internal Revenue has everybody's number. The fact that thousands of taxpayers get lost every year is not a criticism of these fine "finders of lost taxpayers."

Nevertheless, every year Internal Revenue spends time looking for millions of taxpayers who move and forget to change their address. The tax folks find most of these in a few weeks or a few months. But there are always a few thousand that get so lost that even IRS can't find them. At one time, these people would have "donated" their refund to the Treasury of the United States—and thousands did. But since the computer age, IRS has a mark on the taxpayer's tape record to show that Internal Revenue owes him money (as well as a mark for those owing Internal Revenue money). It's our guess that they will eventually find 99.9 per cent. In the meantime, if you are lost from your refund check, go to Internal Revenue and find yourself.

Boy Scouts Jamboree Set This Weekend

Five hundred Boy Scouts and their leaders are expected to gather at Sweetwater Lake this weekend, November 1, 2 and 3, for the Annual Jamboree of the Chisholm Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, according to Henry McGinty, Council Scout Executive.

The Boy Scout Troops from the 9th county area will check into the campsite located below the dam at Sweetwater Lake beginning Friday evening.

A campfire program will be conducted Saturday evening at which time the patrols will be awarded the ribbons that they have earned in the competitive events.

Sunday morning will be devoted to religious services and hiking and fishing.

The public is invited to visit the Jamboree anytime and see the Scouts in action.

United States Marine Corps To Celebrate 193rd Anniversary

In 193 years United States Marines have been called a lot of things; not all of them complimentary, of course, but always respectfully.

At Belleau Wood in June, 1918, the Germans referred to the Marines as "teufel-hunden" or "Devil-dogs" because of the fighting spirit of the 4th Brigade. The French officially named Belleau Wood the "Wood of the Marine Brigade."

During the American Revolution the Marines became known as "Leathernecks" because of the leather stocks they wore around their necks to protect them from cutlass slashes when boarding enemy ships or vice versa. It was also during this time they became known as "Dingers" because of their marksmanship ability when firing from the masts and main-tops of American vessels.

Two more recent terms are "gyrene", probably of Army origin but difficult to interpret, and "jar-head," obviously a Navy term and probably referring to the short, close haircut that gives Marines that famous "peeled" look. Some Marines say it refers to the hard-headed, unswerving devotion to duty Marines pride themselves for.

General of the Army John J. Pershing who commanded the American Expeditionary Force in France during World War I said, "A Marine and his rifle is the most dangerous weapon in the world. Of course, that was before nuclear weapons made it a real contest."

Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz said of Marines on Iwo Jima, "Uncommon valor was a common virtue." This was the campaign in which photographer Joseph Rosenthal made the picture of the famous flag-raising on Iwo Jima's Mount Suribachi. Keith Wells of Abilene was the platoon commander of the platoon that raised that flag. The flag came from the U.S.S. Talladega.

Twenty-five years later on August 18, 1965, another Abilenean, Hugh Doss, went ashore

B&PW Club Completes Special Week With Luncheon October 25

Concluding National Business Women's Week, fourteen members and two guests of the B&PW Club gathered Friday, October 25th, for a noon luncheon at the City Cafe.

Nettie McCollum, president, presided over the meeting and the World Affairs Committee presented the program. Fawda Hassen introduced Leone Pearse, who showed slides and told very interestingly of a five-week trip her family took the past summer to Alaska, the fiftieth State. They boarded a ship, put on their camper at Prince Rupert, and sailed up to Alaska, on the Monataska.

They sailed by and through many small towns, some which could not be reached only by boat or by plane. She stated the scenery was perfectly beautiful, the climate comfortable and pleasant. They docked at Hanes Port, Alaska.

Alaska is an Indian word, meaning "Great Land" ... is very mountainous, beautiful lakes and rivers, rocky and much water. All mountains are covered with snow. Leone showed many slides of beautiful flowers. The state flower is "Forget-Me-Not", pale blue in color.

She said the people are very friendly and easy to become acquainted with. Much grain and many kinds of vegetables are grown there. Slides were shown by the Indians living in tents, and very primitive.

The group visited in Anchorage, Fairbanks, and many other cities of interest. They traveled as far as the Yukon. Leone said it was a very profitable and enjoyable trip.

The membership committee, Christine Greene, Ruthie Withers and Corsie Johnston, was hostess for the luncheon.

Stitching And Stewing

By Ruth Ann Fausler County H. D. Agent

One of the most aggravating experiences for a housewife is to find beetles or moths in dry foods stored in the pantry. Foods that are most commonly attacked are cereal products, cornmeal, flour, spices, nutmeats, chocolate, dry pet food, and dried fruits. Both the larvae (worms) and adults may be found feeding in these dry food products.

Almost always stored food pests are brought into the home in packaged food that became infested somewhere in the food chain. Once an infestation is established, insects spread to other stored foods in the pantry. Several of the stored food pests have the ability to bore through cardboard or cellophane containers to get to stored foods.

The first step in controlling these pests is to determine the source of the infestation. If only one package is infested, the problem is eliminated by destroying this package. Rapid turnover of dried foods is one of the surest ways of preventing trouble from these pests.

When stored food pests are found feeding throughout the pantry, a concentrated effort is usually required to clean up the infestation. First, all food spillage and food containers are removed from the shelves. Then the cabinets should be scrubbed thoroughly with a stiff bristled brush and soapy water. Particular attention should be paid to corners, cracks, and crevices where stored food pests might be hiding.

To control persistent infestations, food storage areas may be treated with 5% DDT household spray, after all food products have been removed. Spray the walls and undersides of the shelves thoroughly but not to the point of run-off. Spray all cracks and crevices. Allow the area to dry thoroughly. Cover the shelves with clean paper before replacing food. Do not restore infested packages. Inspect packages for breaks and the presence of food pests before buying, and inspect the packages periodically after storage.

The "Texas Guide for Controlling Household Insects" is available at your County Extension Agent's office.

We would like to welcome Max Stapleton, new County Agent, and his wife, Christine, to Haskell County. Recipes for this week and for the next two weeks will be submitted by Mrs. Stapleton. This week's recipe is German Chocolate Pound Cake.

MISS LINDA McGAW IS WED TO LT. MICHAEL EUGENE OVERTON

MRS. MICHAEL EUGENE OVERTON ... formerly Linda McGaw

In a candlelight setting in the lovely old King's Highway Christian Church in Shreveport, Louisiana, Miss Linda McGaw became the bride of Lt. Michael Eugene Overton at 4:30 on Saturday afternoon, October 26th.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John Presley McGaw and the late Mr. McGaw of Shreveport. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. (Gene) Overton of Paint Creek, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lennox W. Jones, Sr. of Rule, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Wallar H. Overton of Paint Creek.

Candleabra formed the background for a large arrangement of white gladioli and white chrysanthemums with magnolia foliage in the baptistry. Palm trees and magnolia leaf arrangements decorated the altar.

The Reverend Gilbert Davis, Jr., pastor of the church, read the vows for the couple, and wedding music was furnished by the church organist, Miss Diane Everett and soloist, Mrs. James Maranto of Ruston, Louisiana. Candle lighters were Jan and Randy Jacobs of Dallas.

Linda was presented in marriage by her cousin, Ranson Edward Jacobs, Jr. of Dallas. Her cage gown featured candlelight silk organza and Alencon lace over silk peau de soie, with a high ring neckline and Watteau train. The floor length veil of candlelight illusion was crowned with a cluster of matching lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and butterfly roses, with gypsophila.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Harold T. Eberfeld of Baltimore, Maryland, was her matron of honor. The Maid of Honor was Miss Gayle Lindsey of Dallas. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Yarbrough of Prescott, Arkansas, Miss Sally McLemore and Miss Janelle Watson of Shreveport. The attendants wore floor length dresses of teal green peau de soie. They carried cascade bouquets of purple asters, white pompoms and yellow daisies and gypsophila. Similar flowers were worn in their hair.

Wallar H. Overton of Paint Creek served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were William T. Overton of Abilene, brother of the groom; Captain Gary Gosney of Fort Worth, now stationed in Chicago; Captain Stacey Lackey of Muleshoe, stationed at Clinton-Sherman Air Base at Burnsville, Oklahoma; and Jim Smith of Irving. The ushers were Captain Robert Rice of Abilene, stationed at Fort Walters; Lt. Mike Wedemeyer of Longview, stationed at Fort Hood; and Dub Harrison of Stamford.

Following the wedding ceremony, Mrs. McGaw hosted a reception in the church parlor. The bride's table was covered with an embroidered white linen banquet cloth. Serving punch from a silver bowl was Miss Elizabeth Ann Dodson, and serving the traditional white three-tiered wedding cake was Mrs. Jerry Dean Baughton. They were assisted by Mrs. Henry Watson, also of Shreveport and Mrs. R. E. Jacobs, Jr. of Dallas.

The couple flew to Atlanta, Georgia for a brief honeymoon and will live in Glennville, Georgia where Lt. Overton is stationed at Fort Stewart. The

8,000 MEMBERS EXPECTED AT THE TSTA CONVENTION

The complexity of education today is indicated by the 32 separate sectional meetings scheduled for the 8,000 members of the Texas State Teachers Association expected at TSTA's 90th annual meeting.

The convention is set for Thursday-Saturday, October 31-November 2, in Fort Worth, at the Tarrant County Convention Center and Hotel Texas.

Nationally known speakers will address general sessions, and the House of Delegates will make decisions to guide the 123,000-member organization in the year ahead.

But on Friday the educators will spend much of their time dispersed, with school health service professionals considering "School Law and the Nurse," while the Texas Art Education Association ponders "Enriching the Art Curriculum Through Museum Experiences"—including a tour of Fort Worth Art Center and the Amon G. Carter Museum.

Thirty other affiliates of TSTA will similarly focus on their specific educational concerns.

A highlight of the general sessions will be the Thursday evening keynote address by Bill D. Moyers, publisher of "Newsday" and former assistant to President Johnson. At the same session, TSTA will present 27 School Bell Awards and Merit Certificates, in recognition of outstanding news media coverage of education.

During one day Thursday, standing committees will examine recommendations for submission to the TSTA House of Delegates for final action.

Committees of TSTA which are to meet Thursday include the District Membership Chairmen, Research for Educational Finance, Instructional Services, Legislative, Organizational Affairs, Professional Rights and Responsibilities, Teacher Education and Professional Standards, Teacher Welfare, and the State Executive Committee.

At the Friday morning general session, TSTA members will hear Sam Lambert, executive secretary of the National Education Association, and Elizabeth Simpson, acting chairman of the department of vocational and technical education at the University of Illinois College of Education.

Jan Garber and his orchestra will play for the third general session Friday at 8:00 p. m.

On Saturday morning, November 2, more than 1,200 members of the TSTA House of Delegates will meet in a policy-making session for the year ahead. A TSTA legislative program will be adopted at the session.

The elections committee will report to delegates on their canvass of recent voting for a new president-elect, Mrs. Jewell Harris of Abilene was the only candidate seeking the office. She will assume office December 1 when Claude A. Hearne Jr. of Randolph Field, the current president-elect, moves up to president of TSTA.

NEW HOUSING:

The interest-supplement program for rural nonprofit rental housing organizations and cooperatives of low-income families will take effect when administrative arrangements are completed. The new provisions for job-trainee and self-help housing assistance will not take effect until funds are appropriated.

The interest-supplement plan seeks to put adequate housing within reach of lower-income families by reducing their loan or rent payments. The supplement payments will be made by the Federal Government.

A minimum requirement is that a home-ownership borrower who does not have enough income to pay his loan installments in full will pay at least the amount that would be due if the interest rate were one per cent.

The actual amount that a low-income family will need to pay will depend on its income and the size of the family.

Freeman said the new Act will facilitate a back-to-the-country movement by city dwellers who work in rural areas. They no longer will be required to own rural homesites in order to be eligible for Farmers Home Administration rural housing loans to build homes where they work. They also will now be able to buy an existing home in a rural area.

The Act also eliminates an old provision that any tenant admitted to a Farmers Home Administration-financed rental unit, or any new member of a rural housing co-op, must already be a rural resident. In the future, low-income city dwellers who work in rural localities may move directly from the city into Farmers Home Administration-financed rental or co-op units.

Technical Action Panels, which include top local representatives of USDA agencies that have local offices in rural areas, will help rural communities gain access to all provisions of the new housing legislation that can be adapted for use in small towns.

For further information regarding the new housing provisions of the Federal Home Administration, contact Mr. Donald Haskell, County Supervisor, 316 North 1st St., Haskell, Texas 79521.

MRS. DELBERT LEFEVRE

The cotton harvest in this area is in full swing. This pretty weather has really been wonderful for gathering the crops. Some farmers are already finished, and if the weather stays fair, more than half of them will be finished.

Mrs. Don Bivins and son, Coleman, of Carlsbad, New Mexico, returned home last Saturday after spending the week with Mrs. Joe Clark and Peggy Ray Clark, a West Texas State student, was also home for the week-end.

Sgt. Steve Clark, of Randolph AFB, is here visiting his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, while he is on leave from his base. He expects to be sent to Thailand soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lewis visited with Mr. and Mrs. Grady Laughlin in Fort Worth last week-end. They all went to Huntsville where they were joined by Mrs. Dick Swope and children. They returned via way of Athens, where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Spitzer. Mrs. Lillie Spitzer, of Haskell, who had been visiting in Athens, came back to Fort Worth with them, where she will stay with the Laughlins for a week. Mrs. Spitzer is a former resident of this community before she moved to Haskell.

Guests in the Delbert LeFevre home last week-end were: Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bailey and Rob of Spur and Larry LeFevre of Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Tietchelmann have returned home after visiting with their new grandson at Dubuque, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Neinast of Littlefield are here visiting with relatives and old friends.

Grandson is Mr. Tiny Tech

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin New went to Lubbock last week-end to see their grandson, Charles New, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy New, crowned "Mr. Tiny Tech." He is four years old. He was selected from a group of children whose mother and father are students at Texas Tech. He was crowned at the Tech homecoming ceremonies and got to ride in the parade. After all the excitement was over, he got to come back home with his grandparents.

Susan Swofford, a first grader at Oliver Elementary School at Stamford, represented her room at the Carnival at their school last Saturday night. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swofford.

Mrs. Annie Mathis and son, Elvin, went to Waco last week-end to visit with relatives. Mrs. Mathis recently came home from the Hamlin Hospital, where she nearly had pneumonia, but she is out and feeling better now.

Neighbors gathered at the cotton patch of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Keike Saturday morning, much to their surprise, and gathered all their cotton, hauled it to town and cut the stalks. Their wives joined in and served the group dinner, and we hope the Keikes slept well that night without having to worry about getting their crop gathered. Mr. Keike is recovering from back surgery, and is not yet able to do his own work.

News From Last Week

VA Questions and Answers

Editor's Note: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q The premium on my $10,000 National Service Life Insurance policy has been waived because of total blindness. I have now been sufficiently trained, however, so that I can anticipate working full-time. Will this affect the waiver of premium?
 A No. The waiver of premium continues where the veteran suffers certain disabilities classified as STATUTORY, which includes total blindness.

Q I got out of service without an injury and was discharged three months ago. Last month, however, I came down with an unexplained fever, and I wonder if it could be malaria.

Can I go to an Army hospital to check on this and to get required treatment?

A Since you have been separated from service, the Army cannot treat you. However, you are eligible for examination and treatment at the nearest Veterans Administration hospital or outpatient clinic.

For six months after separation from service, the VA will furnish treatment for any condition on the presumption that it is connected with service. After six months, the service connection must be verified by a physical examination and comparison with military medical records.

Visit the VA hospital or clinic as soon as possible. Don't take any chances on the six-months period going by.

Indians Drop Heartbreaker To Ballinger; Meet Coleman Next

The Ballinger Bearcats slipped past the Haskell Indians by the narrow margin of 17-15 in a hard-fought game at Ballinger Friday night.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Bearcats drove 45 yards in six plays to hit pay dirt with halfback Bill Buchanan going over the goal line from four yards out. Guard Robert Booth kicked the extra point. The TD was set-up on a pass interception by defensive halfback Bruce Jernigan.

The Indians came roaring back to tie the score by returning the kick-off 85 yards for the touchdown. Halfback, "fleet-footed" Charles Franklin, made the long run and Lanny Ivy kicked the extra point.

With only 13 seconds left in the second quarter, Booth kicked a 32-yard field goal putting Ballinger ahead 10-7 at half-time.

In the third period, Jernigan intercepted his second pass of the ballgame and scampered 45 yards to the "promised land." Extra point kick by Booth was good, giving Ballinger a lead of 17-7.

In the final period with 18 seconds left on the clock, Haskell scored when Franklin darted around left end and scored from two yards out, capping a 65-yard drive in 15 plays. Ivy passed to end Roy Pittman for the two extra points.

Score By Quarters
 Ballinger 0 10 7 0—17
 Haskell 0 7 0 8—15

Scoring
 Ballinger: Bill Buchanan 30 run (Buchanan kick)
 Haskell: Charles Franklin 90 run (Lanny Ivy kick)
 Ballinger: Buchanan 30 FG
 Ballinger: Buchanan 45 intercepted pass (Robert Booth kicked)
 Haskell: Charles Franklin 6 run (Ivy pass to Pittman for 2 extra points)

Bluecats Coming
 The Coleman Bluecats, who joined the TAA ranks this season will invade Haskell tomorrow night, Friday, November 1, to take on the locals at Indian field at 8:00 o'clock.

The Bluecats have shown considerable improvement the past few games and last Friday night bowled over Hamlin 10-0. Coleman is definitely climbing up the ladder in TAA, and the Indians could run into a "cat trap."

Another capacity crowd is expected to be on hand for the important district game.

VIETNAM VIEW

(As reported by Marine Corps Combat Correspondents and edited by G/Sgt. Bob Montgomery.)

"Send me a flag as strong as the men on Hill 881," stated Maj. Matthew P. Caulfield when he was interviewed by AP correspondent John Wheeler.

In response to the request of the 3rd Bn., Twenty-sixth Marine Regiment's operations officer, hundreds of flags poured in from patriotic individuals and families in the United States.

One flag, from a Phoenix, Arizona family, was the first flag to be raised by a battalion over Hill 881 North, when the 3rd Bn., Twenty-sixth Marines took the hill, Easter Sunday, 1968.

Accompanying the flag was this letter, "Dear Maj. Caulfield and all the great guys of the 26th Regiment, 3rd Bn.

"Last evening, your news item was in the Phoenix Gazette and both my wife and I read it and were given a lift to know that the press sometimes is allowed to report the facts.

"Bless you for your devotion and tribute, especially today, when the home front drop-outs and draft card burners make us sick at heart.

"At home we fly our flag every day and often people in the neighborhood think we are some kind of 'kooks' because of this.

"May you all be spared and soon be returned home to your loved ones and grateful fellow Americans."

This flag was raised once more at Phu Giu Pass by the battalion in April and then returned to Gunnery Sergeant James Currie, Turtle Creek, Penn., operations chief, who plans to return it to the Paul Buckland family in Phoenix, when he rotates in October.

The other flags are flown one day and then mailed to the families of Marines who died or were wounded during the battle for Hills 881 North and 881 South.

The Chicago Chapter, Marine Corps Reserve Officers Association has presented the 3rd Marine Division Memorial Children's Hospital at Dong Ha with an operating room.

The chapter presented the equipment to the hospital in the name of the late Col. Jim Hurlbut, U. S. Marine Corps Reserve, a former member of the chapter and a well-known radio and television personality.

At the time of his death on Easter Sunday, 1967, Hurlbut was on active duty in Washington at the request of the Commandant of the Marine Corps. He was instrumental in producing Marine Corps' special film reports concerning Vietnam, such as "The Corpsman" and "For Thou Art With Me."

The first shipment of equipment consisted of an operating table, resuscitator, large medicine cabinet and a number of medical tables and trays.

"We are certainly thankful for this equipment and it'll be put to a good and purposeful use," explained Navy Lt. Comdr. Gordon W. Phillip, Hamilton, Mont., a surgeon with "D" Co., 3rd Medical Bn., 3rd Marine Division.

The equipment will later be moved to a children's hospital that will be constructed at Quang Tri Combat Base. It is estimated that the new 60-bed hospital will be completed in the spring of 1969.

The new hospital will have a staff of seven doctors, headed by Navy Lt. Comdr. Phillip, nine Vietnamese nurses, 37 Navy corpsmen and 11 Marines.

The heavy rains which pounded Quang Tri Province in early September created problems for the Marines of Combined Action Group-4 (CAG-4).

The unit's compound, south of Quang Tri City was hit hard by typhoon Bess, and the Marines and Popular Forces (PF) troops had to temporarily evacuate the area due to rising flood waters.

Lance Corporal Norman J. Prather, Phoenix, Ariz., compound cook, managed to salvage the pork chops he had prepared for evening chow by floating them to the hungry men of his unit via an inflatable rubber mattress.

Unorthodox procedure became commonplace as the Marines began moving to higher ground.

Two large trailers were filled with everything from C-rations to sea bags, but because the roads were under four feet of water no vehicle could get through to pull them out. Moving them to safety was left to the muscle power of the weary, rain-soaked Marines.

Eventually the gear and the Marines, along with their popular forces allies, reached a relatively dry schoolhouse where they spent the night.

Three days later they returned to their compound and began cleaning out the mud and debris washed into their huts by Typhoon Bess.

During a fire fight with the enemy, a Marine only thinks about the fight. When it's over, one of the first things he'll do is reach for his canteen to get a drink of water.

Gunnery Sergeant Robert Lester, Oceanside, Calif., was recently denied his "after fire-fight drink." The North Vietnamese (NVA) had riddled both of his canteens with bullet holes.

Lester's unit had engaged a strong NVA force and were pinned down by enemy automatic weapons fire. "Everybody was in a hole when I got up and started to move forward," explained Lester. "My senior corpsman and I were the only ones moving and the enemy had really opened up on us."

The Marines gained fire superiority and the enemy broke contact. When the shooting was over, Lester reached for a drink of water.

He concluded, "I never thought those rounds came that close to me, but I found out differently when I reached for my canteens and found them both full of holes."

Canteens are worn on the hips...

SHOP GUARANTEES

The "guarantee" or "warranty" which accompany appliances as Christmas gifts should be double checked. Shoppers should ask how long the guarantee lasts and if all parts are covered by the guarantee.

Persons who receive these appliances as gifts and find it necessary to exchange them should also check on the warranty offered with the exchange.

GOV. CONNALLY PROCLAIMS NOV. 17 SAFETY SUNDAY

Governor John Connally has proclaimed Sunday, Nov. 17th, "Safety Sunday" in Texas and called on all citizens to enlist in the fight for greater safety by considering their moral obligations to protect the sanctity of human life.

"It is essential that every Texan realize that safety for himself, his loved ones and his friends, as well as others is a matter of moral responsibility," the Governor said in his proclamation, while pointing out that "accidents continue to take a grave toll in our State each year."

He noted that in traffic crashes alone, 3,367 Texans lost their lives and an additional 205,308 persons suffered painful injuries last year. The economic loss from these accidents is estimated at some $793 million.

The purpose of "Safety Sunday," which is sponsored by the Texas Safety Association, is to focus public attention on the necessity for reducing accident tolls especially during the Fall and Winter holiday season. The Safety Association reports that previous experience indicates that accident tolls increase sharply during this period.

Clergymen of all faiths are being asked to join civic leaders, state officials and others in a united effort to prevent additional tragedy on the highways and in the homes of Texas by making Lone Star citizens more fully aware of their individual moral responsibilities for accident prevention.

Concerning the matter, City Secretary, Iva Hester said: "Please bear with us, as we will have the bills out as soon as possible, which we hope will be soon after the first of the month."

The Chicago Chapter, Marine Corps Reserve Officers Association has presented the 3rd Marine Division Memorial Children's Hospital at Dong Ha with an operating room.

The chapter presented the equipment to the hospital in the name of the late Col. Jim Hurlbut, U. S. Marine Corps Reserve, a former member of the chapter and a well-known radio and television personality.

At the time of his death on Easter Sunday, 1967, Hurlbut was on active duty in Washington at the request of the Commandant of the Marine Corps. He was instrumental in producing Marine Corps' special film reports concerning Vietnam, such as "The Corpsman" and "For Thou Art With Me."

The first shipment of equipment consisted of an operating table, resuscitator, large medicine cabinet and a number of medical tables and trays.

"We are certainly thankful for this equipment and it'll be put to a good and purposeful use," explained Navy Lt. Comdr. Gordon W. Phillip, Hamilton, Mont., a surgeon with "D" Co., 3rd Medical Bn., 3rd Marine Division.

The equipment will later be moved to a children's hospital that will be constructed at Quang Tri Combat Base. It is estimated that the new 60-bed hospital will be completed in the spring of 1969.

The new hospital will have a staff of seven doctors, headed by Navy Lt. Comdr. Phillip, nine Vietnamese nurses, 37 Navy corpsmen and 11 Marines.

The heavy rains which pounded Quang Tri Province in early September created problems for the Marines of Combined Action Group-4 (CAG-4).

Olds Take 666 Election Ballot Change May Confuse Some of The Voters

Two factors may cause some balloting confusion in the November 5th general election, election officials in Texas forecast this week.

The two factors are:
1. A new State law has inserted a new top line on the paper ballots so that persons desiring to vote a "straight party ticket" may do so by making one mark. This new line is expected to confuse not only the "straight ticket" voters, but also the "split ticket" voters.

2. "Split ticket" voters are expected to be more numerous than ever before, especially since there is a third party, the American Party, and it has candidates for only President and Vice-President and no other offices.

Voters are cautioned to be certain that their ballots are properly marked so that their intentions will not be subject to interpretation by election officials.

The "scratch" method of voting, which some people prefer, is still permitted. However, voters using this method are cautioned to be certain to mark through all names in all three party columns for which they do not wish to vote.

There are 19 counties in Texas that use voting machines. As in the past, one lever can be pulled to vote a "straight ticket." To vote a "split ticket," individual levers should be pulled for each candidate of the voter's choice. Persons who are uncertain as to how to operate a machine should contact one of the election officials before entering the voting booth.

Voting machines are scheduled to be used in the following counties: Bell, Bexar, Brazoria, Cameron, Dallas, Ector, El Paso, Galveston, Gregg, Harris, Hidalgo, Jefferson, Midland, Nueces, Potter, Randall, Rusk, Smith and Tarrant.

"CACKLE CRATE"
In trucking language, a "cackle crate" is a truck that hauls poultry and "reefer" is a refrigerated truck or trailer designed to carry perishables.

SHOOTING AND SAFETY

A favorite gambit of those who favor virtual extinction of the right of U. S. citizens to own firearms is to quote the number of people who die in a year "by gunfire." The statistic itself is pointless, and yet one national publication uses it to argue that "... anyone who wants to buy a gun must show reasonable cause why he wants it." In other words, in the matter of guns, this publication espouses police-type surveillance of private citizens.

On the same basis, mortality statistics could be used to support the abolition of a great many things...the bathtub for instance. Thousands of people are killed or injured falling in bathtubs. And what about the automobile? This lethal device accounts or hundreds of thousands of deaths and injuries every year. Of course it would be ridiculous to attempt to eliminate the bathtub or the automobile. But then is it any less ridiculous to go to the extreme in controlling gun ownership on the theory that such action would cure the crime wave? As a matter of fact, guns and their ownership by a responsible citizenry under a moderate degree of regulation are a most basic and essential right...not a frivolous privilege. Time after time, in peace and war, the legendary marksmanship of the U. S. rifleman has been a sense of pride and national security.

The great body of U. S. sportsmen today are a responsible lot when it comes to guns. And, they have good reason to be. There are countless clubs and organizations that make it a business to promote safety and intelligent use of firearms. One of the most prominent in this area is the National Rifle Association, whose work to educate public-spirited citizens in the safe and efficient use of small arms for pleasure and protection, began back in 1871. The National Rifle Association's Hunter Safety Course has increased in stature as an effective tool in the hands of the game and conservation administrators to reduce shooting accidents.

Continuing safety education and re-establishment of respect for the law, as well as stern enforcement of laws already on the books, are the best answers to the so-called gun problem.

COTTON PICKIN'S

Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

The U. S. cotton industry's trend toward longer staple cotton is strongly evidenced by USDA's cotton quality report for upland cotton ginned in the U. S. prior to October 1, 1968. Similar evidence is seen in figures on first ginnings on the Rolling Plains, according to information received this week by Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

According to USDA, both the average staple and the proportion stapling 1 1/16 of an inch or longer are the highest on record.

Of the 1,416,000 bales ginned so far this season, almost 80% stapled 1 1/16 inch or longer and the average came to exactly 1 1/16 inch. These figures compare with 73% 1 1/16 inches and longer and an average of 32.6 thirty-seconds of an inch on this same date last year, when 1,013,000 bales had been ginned.

The October 1 report shows cotton in the 1-inch and 1 1/32 inch staples making up 13% of ginnings as opposed to 26% in the comparable period last season. The percentage of ginnings stapling less than an inch to date has been smallest on record coming to only 6.8%.

Fiber strength of the crop to October 1st is only slightly improved over 1967. Test results indicated the average zero gauge fiber strength was 85,000 pounds per square inch against 84,000 pounds at this time last year. Cotton stronger than 90,000 pounds, however, accounted for 21% of ginnings as compared to 15% a year earlier. Sixty-eight per cent of the Rolling Plains tested has shown over 84,000 PSI, very high for this area.

The average micronaire reading of cotton so far is down a little from last year, from 4.1 in 1967 to 4.3 in the corresponding period this year. Cotton miking below 3.5 comprised 8% of ginnings through September 30 compared with 3% last season.

Cotton in the 3.5 to 4.9 premium micronaire category was equivalent to 82% of the current total against 86% a year ago.

Here on the Rolling Plains a total of 13,672 bales were classified by USDA's Cotton Classing Division at Abilene as of October 11, out of an estimated total crop of about 600,000 bales. But even this small sampling indicated that the trend to longer staples and higher fiber strength is not restricted to areas outside the U. S.

IT'S HARD TO SELL FERTILIZER IN AN ELECTION YEAR!

"GENTLEMEN, I STAND HERE BEFORE YOU TODAY TO TELL YOU THAT I'M AGIN' POVERTY, AND THAT YOU AND I TOGETHER CAN DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT. INSTEAD OF STANDING THERE LISTENING, WHY DON'T YOU GO OUT AND PUT SOME NITROMITE IN YOUR LAND?"

LET IT GO TO WORK AND RELEASE THE PLANT FOOD YOU HAVE TIED UP IN TURNED UNDER STALKS.

ANY GOOD FARMER (AND SOME POLITICIANS) KNOW THAT YOU CAN APPLY NITROMITE EARLY. IT WON'T LEACH OUT WHEN YOU GET WINTER MOISTURE. EVEN HOT AIR CAN'T TOUCH IT.

ALL THE NITROGEN YOU PLOW DOWN NOW, PLUS ALL THE NUTRIENTS IT HAS RELEASED, WILL BE WAITING TO FEED YOUR CROP AT PLANTING TIME.

AND I PROMISE YOU GENTLEMEN... THAT CAN MEAN MORE MONEY IN YOUR POCKETS NEXT YEAR AT HARVEST TIME.
