Crackle

Residents of this area will have the opportunity of getting a "good look" at Haskell's Railroad Museum on Sunday afternoon, October 29, as "open house" will be held at the museum from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m.

A cordial invitation is extended everyone to attend and view the many, many improvements to the building, and the number of items of historical interest now on display.

Mrs. Sue Barfield, who is in charge of arrangements for "open house," said that coffee and cake would be served.

Linda Riley, Howard Sloan Rotary Speakers

Two speakers appeared on the program at last Thursday's noon-day luncheon meeting of Rotarians at Felker's dining room.

Linda Riley from Mrs. Terry M. Diggs Speech Department, Haskell High School, spoke on "The American Woman" and Veterans Service Officer, Howard Sloan, told of the Veterans Land Program to be voted November 11, in the election on the proposed Amendments to the Constitution of Texas.

Miss Riley, in her talk, pointed out the many different decisions women have to make in every-day life.

"The veteran's land program was begun in 1949 and ended in December 1965. Twice since that time the veteran's land program has been defeated, mostly because of the large metropolitan vote, but the issue carried both times in Haskell County," Sloan said.

Sloan pointed out that in the election on the proposed amendments to the constitution of Texas to be held November 11, that amendment No. 3, if passed, would revise the veteran's land program, but would not increase taxes, and urged everyone to vote.

President, Bob Greenroy, presided over the meeting. Bill Ratliff gave the invocation and Bob Herren led the singing with Mrs. Henry Withers at the piano.

Guests introduced at the meeting were L. M. Young and Roy Hardin of Abilene, and Haskell High student guests, Brian Dulaney and Tommy Perry.

Rotarians had 100 per cent attendance at last Thursday's meeting.

During 1966 it was estimated $1,830,612 was spent for drilling in the county. Of the total, $946,385 went for dry holes.

'Open House' Set Sunday At The Railroad Museum

The rampaging Haskell Indians continued their winning ways here Friday night and skinned the Anson Tigers 21-11 in a hard-fought 5-AA contest.

The Indians were never behind in the nerve-wracking tilt, but it was in the third period before Haskell fans could begin to breathe a sigh of relief.

Daring, dashing, Derrell Davis, who was the game's leading ground-gainer, with a staggering 126 yards on 20 carries, put the Indians on the victory trail as he scooped up the opening kick-off on his own 24, and galloped straight up the middle for a 76-yard run to hit pay-dirt. Ray Herren's conversion was good and the Tigers trailed 7-0 before they realized what happened.

The Tigers came clawing back to get to the Indian 21 before the going got tough and Jimmy Faulka came on to boot a perfect 31-yard field goal to cut Haskell's margin to 4 points.

Just after the start of the second quarter, Tim Everett capped a 33-yard Indian drive with a 10-yard scoring scamper and Herren's kick was good for the extra point.

Anson cut the Indian margin even more in the same period when Larry McLaren took a 33-yard pass from Faulka into the end zone and the Tiger quarterback then tossed a two-point conversion to Gary Faulka to make it 14-11.

Haskell iced the game in the third period, however, on a 41-yard pass from Lanny Ivy to Everett and another placement by Herren.

The Tigers averted another Indian tally in the fourth period when they recovered a Haskell fumble on the Anson four.

The victory was the seventh straight win for the Indians and their second in conference competition this season.

Edwin Livengood Is Victim Of Severe Beating

Three hitchhikers, given a ride by a Texas Tech senior near Falls, beat and terrorized him for several hours before he and his car landed in a ditch.

The incident happened Sunday night to Edwin Livengood of Palm Creek. He was treated for bruises, lacerations and loosened teeth at a Crosbyton hospital where he was taken after being found in a ditch, and was brought to the Haskell County Hospital late Monday by his parents.

Livengood said he was driving from home to Lubbock Sunday night after a weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Livengood, when he came upon what he thought was a motorist in distress. When he stopped his car, three unidentified men approached him and asked if he would take them to Lubbock.

He said that one of the men held a screwdriver to his throat and forced him to drive around for several hours before making him get out of the car; then they beat him. The car ended up in a ditch when it had a blow-out.

A passing motorist, not involved in the incident, took Livengood to the Crosbyton hospital. He was treated there, was dismissed Monday and came to the Haskell hospital.

Crosbyton officers said they hope to make arrests in the case soon.

Lee Barnett B&PW Speaker Tuesday Night

Tuesday evening, October 24, B & P W Club members and guests were present for a regular meeting at 7:30 in the community room, with Opal Adkins, president, presiding.

The World Affairs committee was in charge of the program. Mrs. Fadia Hassen, chairman, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Lee Barnett, who told of her trip back to her native land, Berlin, Germany, this year.

Mrs. Barnett related some of her experiences as a child during World War II and her escape from the East Berliners. This being her first trip back home since her departure, she was overjoyed to see and visit her family.

Berlin had made a great change, even the entire country, the speaker said.

"The country is more prosperous, the people seem to be, and feel more free, and enjoy life more than ever before," Mrs. Barnett said.

She told of the present government and the change it had made, but her most concern was that most people lack the most important thing of their life, and that is Christ.

The projects committee with Ramia Lee Frazier chairman, served sandwiches, potato chips, cookies and coffee for the social hour.

Burleson Has Vietnam Maps For Distribution

Congressman Omar Burleson announces that he has a limited number of 300 Vietnam and Asian Continent Maps which he is desirous of distributing to families and close relatives of boys serving in Vietnam.

The Congressman advises the maps are printed in several colors and indicate the political boundaries and the topographic elevations of countries of Asia, with enlargements of Southeast Asia including an economic map illustrating the products of the various geographic areas. The intent is to provide a useful, factual and informative document but not to include any of the military aspects.

Burleson said he felt the document would give families of servicemen a better perspective of the area, layout and location where servicemen may be, and he wishes to place them with people who do have a son, husband or close relative in Vietnam and will welcome such requests on a first-come, first-served basis.

Requests should be addressed to: Congressman Omar Burleson, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C. 20515.

SS Not Just A Retirement Or Medicare Program

Many people think social security means only retirement benefits and Medicare for older people.

But that is not the whole story, according to Don Austin, social security field representative. Social Security can also mean a lot to younger people.

It can help a young disabled worker and his family receive cash benefits. It also can mean monthly checks to young widowed mothers and their children.

Young people earn protection under social security while they work. Their social security contributions go into trust funds for safekeeping until the time when earnings are stopped or reduced because of retirement, death or disability. Protection is also built up for health insurance at age 65.

For more information or pamphlets about the social security program, Haskell County residents may contact the district office at North Third & Pine, Abilene, or see Don Austin at the City Hall Annex, Haskell, on any Thursday in November except the 23rd, at 10 a. m.

EXCESS FROST

Excess frost on the surface of the home freezer makes it less efficient. It limits the space available as well as causing the temperature to rise. Higher temperatures than recommended can cause loss of quality in food stored.

Robert Mitchum is a frontier scout in Harold Hecht's "The Way West." United Artists release in color by DeLuxe opening Friday 27th at the Texas Theatre. Kirk Douglas and Richard Widmark are also starred.

Fall Seeding of Grassed Waterways Now Underway In The Haskell Area

Fall seeding of grassed waterways and establishing permanent winter pastures is now underway in the Haskell area, according to Hinds A. McGowen, Jr., Soil Conservation District, Soil Conservation Service, Haskell.

Norman Nanny, Cooperator with the California Creek Soil and Water Conservation District, has recently drilled an overflow field to Western Wheatgrass. He plans to use this field as spring grazing to relieve his native pastures.

"Western Wheatgrass will establish itself the first year," McGowen said, "providing normal growing conditions exist. Otherwise, it may take two years."

A. H. "Johnny" Becker, Cooperator with the Wichita-Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District, has just completed sowing Western Wheatgrass in a grassed waterway. Beckers waterway will be used to dispose of outside water and will provide a safe outlet for terraces after the grass is well established.

"Western Wheatgrass should be drilled before November first," McGowen said, "if satisfactory stand of grass is to be obtained. A grain drill can be used to plant this grass. The recommended seeding rate is five pounds of pure live seed per acre on waterways and three pounds on cropland being returned to pasture."

"At the present time, Western Wheatgrass is the only permanent growing cool season grass recommended in Haskell County to be grown under dryland conditions," McGowen said.

Others that have recently seeded waterways to Western Wheatgrass are E. C. Smith of Rule and Clyde Mayfield of Weinert. Both men cooperate with the Wichita-Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District.

A. C. Richardson Attends Showing Of New Tractor

A. C. Richardson, owner-operator of Richardson Truck & Tractor Company, here, was in Stephenville Thursday, October 19, for the field demonstration of the new International 656 hydrostatic drive farm tractor just released by International Harvester Company.

Mr. Richardson said he was very impressed with the new farm tractor that gives the user any speed he wants from 9 in reverse to 20 mph forward, and changes speed on-the-go without the use of a clutch and without changing the throttle.

This hydrostatic all-speed drive is an industry "first," Mr. Richardson said, pointing out that IH provided torque amplifier shift on-the-go, hydrostatic combines and hydrostatic windrowers, which were other industry "firsts" to serve the farmer.

Mrs. Hazel Hayes of Carlsbad, New Mexico, is in Haskell at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. W. T. Clark, who had surgery Tuesday morning in the Haskell County Hospital.

'Educate Young People To Dangers Of Drugs,' Rep. Musgrove Says

Approximately seventy people gathered in the Community Room of the Haskell National Bank last Thursday evening, October 19, to hear State Representative Burke Musgrove speak on "The Danger Drugs." The event was co-sponsored by the Progressive Study Club and the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Following greetings extended by Mrs. Opal Adkins, president of the B&PW Club, Mr. Musgrove was introduced by Mrs. C. T. Everett, president of the Progressive Study Club. She herself having been a classmate of his in Breckenridge High School, Mrs. Everett pointed out that he was selected by his classmates as one of 12 outstanding students at the University of Texas in 1963. He is now serving his first term in the House of Representatives and is one of the youngest members of the House.

"LSD presents one of the most vital problems facing Texans today. It is a world-wide and a nation-wide problem," stated Musgrove. He cited examples of discoveries of LSD cases in various places in Texas including Tarleton State College, SMU, Midwestern University, and the University of Texas. Not only did these cases involve college age students but also high school young people.

He listed the dangers of this hallucinogenic drug, LSD, as being psychic damage, personality damage, brain damage, epileptic seizures, genetic damage, physical crippling and death.

Representative Musgrove, author of the "Dangerous Drug Bill," said that now in Texas we have the strongest drug laws in the nation. The bill has made the use, peddling, and even the possession of hallucinogens a crime. Mere possession draws a fine of $1,000 or a year in jail. It is a first offense felony to distribute not only hallucinogenic drugs but also habit-forming and amphetamines, Musgrove stated, however, that this bill does not restrict medical research.

OUTDOORS -IN- TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

This is the age of the machine, even in hunting!

Latest gimmick for outwitting wily wild creatures is an ordinary tape recorder.

Equipped with an appropriate distress tape, this compact little battery-powered machine will bring critters like foxes, coyotes and bobcats running toward the hunter.

In his book, "The Critters Come When Called," Russell Tinsley, outdoor editor for the Austin American-Statesman, points out that the tape recorder has replaced the portable phonograph as the best device for calling predators. Thanks to transistors, tape recorders today are small and compact in size, and some actually can be carried in the coat pocket.

However, the small recorder lacks the necessary volume for calling nature's killers from any great distance. To overcome this obstacle, the Burnham Brothers of Marble Falls, Texas, devised an amplifier-speaker system that plugs into a recorder to more than triple its output of sound.

All a person needs to do is wander in the woods, then switch on the machine and let the tape do the calling for him. And he'd better be watching with gun ready.

Newest calling recorder is a cartridge-type that plays continuously. No rewinding is necessary. Four different tapes are enclosed in a plastic holder that the hunter inserts into the machine. Caller simply chooses the distress sound he wants, by pushing a button, then switches the machine on and prepares for action.

But the recorder is just part of the story. Equally as important are the tapes themselves.

When electronic calling was in its infancy the available records were simply recordings of someone using a mouth-blown call. But today the records and tapes carry authentic distress sounds of animals and birds.

These recordings are made by capturing creatures alive, getting their distress cries on tape, then releasing them unharmed.

One very effective tape is the shrill of a woodpecker in trouble. The Burnham Brothers made this particular calling tape by placing a net over a hole pecked in the wood siding of a house and taping on the plank until the bird flew out and into the cord mesh.

When so held, the bird shrieked pitifully. A very sensitive tape recorder captured its distress cries. Then the woodpecker was released.

Similar tapes were made with jackrabbits and cottontails. One tape even has the clucking of a chicken on the roost. Promise of a tasty chicken dinner is, obviously, one sound that no meat-hungry predator can resist!

The Good Earth

By Mrs. B. F. Cobb

Haskell Garden Club has long stressed conservation: I could not help thinking that someone had gone to great lengths to conserve beauty when they built the Lana Park at New Braunfels, Texas.

We visited this park last week. The park is built on the banks of the shortest river in the United States, The Comal river is fed by the Comal springs. The water from four of these huge springs meanders through the Lana Park.

There are many odd and unusual trees in the park. Some time through the year the wind or erosion has felled two of the trees; even though the trees were down, they continued to grow and the result is a twisted and gnarled bunch of roots 8 or 10 feet high. Sycamore, Magnolia, wild cherry, liveoak and cypress cast their shade over lush green grass. Four rock-lined streams wind through the park and spill into the river.

Cypress trees still have their attractive knees, as the park protects them from vandals.

The springs have their beginning at a towering cliff that is Elephant ears growing in the water but they reach well out into the streams. Every river and stream in that vicinity is lined with Elephant ears.

An island in the middle of the river is covered with banana trees, cannas, Elephant ears and cattail. Willow trees and a few Sycamore are scattered among the flowers.

One very large grape vine (at least a foot through at the base) winds high into a tree and dips back down nearly to the ground. Many children find great pleasure in swinging from this natural vine.

Rustic bridges cross the streams in several places; they are strictly for pedestrians. People like to stand on the bridge, or on the banks of the stream and catch Rio Grande covered with huge many different trees that country. Elephant ears, and trees and cattail. Fish find ing place under pads or under the stream. Many give one the green water.

There are rest and benches for swimming pool; there are also stands. All the end of the park rob it of any be

OLD, BUT STILL GOOD

When the teacher in a high school class in economics found that his pupils were in favor of the theory of taking from those who had more than enough and giving it to those in need, he announced that beginning immediately, he would put the system in operation in the class. He would subtract from the grades of the top students, so they would all have an average grade.

The first month the system worked pretty well. The grades of the best students were high enough to offset the deficiency of the lower ones, and the class average was above the passing mark. Then the situation changed. The top students saw no reason to put forth extra effort required to get good grades, with which they would be credited. The medium students put forth less effort for they were assured passing grades. The dullards did not work at all, since they would pass with the aid of the grades taken from the others. So, while at first the system provided passing grades for all, within a short time the entire class was failing. They then realized that this socialistic-communistic theory was impractical.

Haskell County History

30 YEARS AGO (October 29, 1937)

Qualified voters of the consolidated Paint Creek Rural High School district will vote on a proposed bond issue of $35,000 for construction of school building Saturday, November 20.

Tentative plans for the $60,000 Haskell County Hospital, were drawn-up Wednesday, in a meeting of the Commissioners' Court and doctors and architects.

Doris Parks entertained two friends in her home Sunday. Misses Geraldine and Mildred Cooplen from Abilene.

Miss Catherine Wair, freshman from Haskell at Texas Wesleyan College, was one of six pledges to be initiated into Aults Girls' social club on the campus, at a formal tea in Dan Waggoner Hall Sunday afternoon. Miss Wair is also a pledge for the Korosophian Literary Society, which will receive girls into membership at an initiation ceremony next week. Another honor came to Miss Wair Friday, when the football squad elected her to be football queen for the Rams-Sam Houston game at Huntsville, Nov. 11. She is a member of the freshman hockey team which is playing the sophomores this week for inter-class honors.

Mrs. W. F. Wogver, better known as "Grandmother Weaver", had the pleasure of having her youngest sister, Mrs. T. E. Roark and Mr. Roark, from Anderson, Mo., with her this week. This was the first time in 42 years the sisters had seen each other.

Little Miss Bobby Ann Herren is spending the week in the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cornelli of Abilene.

Building permits in Haskell within the last 15 days have totaled more than $28,000, on five different contracts. This brings the year's total to $55,240 in swing with the increased business conditions now prevailing here.

Mrs. Angie Herren spent Saturday in Abilene, where she visited her daughter, Miss Dorothy Herren.

40 YEARS AGO (October 27, 1927)

Mr. J. E. Walden has returned from Long Beach, California where she spent the summer with her daughter.

H. M. Rike has returned from a two-week business and pleasure trip to Dallas, taking in the State Fair while there.

The surveyors for the Company that is piping the natural gas to Haskell have resumed work in earnest and are working now between here and Stamford. They report from reliable sources to the effect that the pipes will be laid and ready to turn the gas into by the first of the year.

The expression class of Miss Holly B. Hopson will present a Tom Thumb wedding at the High School Auditorium in Weinert on Wednesday evening, November 2nd. Miss Hopson's class is composed of the following: Carrie Bell Morton, Bobbie Riddling, Martha Morton, Dorothy Mae Therswanger, Max Merchant, Ned Rich, Geraldine Calthrope, Joan Derr, Buster Therswanger, Rhoder Piekens, Lucille Williams, Cecil Jones, Otha Collins, Nellie Kate Derr and Laura Steward.

For the second time in the past three months mechanical inventions have aided medical science in saving the life of a resident of Haskell County suffering from a snake bite, Roy Reeves, Jr., two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves, who live near Weinert, was bitten by a rattlesnake at the family home shortly after six o'clock Saturday afternoon. The child was rushed to the Baylor County Hospital at Seymour in a high-powered car while two 16-year-old Wichita Falls youths raced on motorcycles over the rough highway connecting Seymour with Wichita Falls carrying a tiny vial of anti-venom serum from the Wichita Falls Clinic hospital. The child was so much improved in condition Monday that plans were made for taking him home Monday afternoon. One month ago a vial of the precious serum was carried from Wichita Falls in an airplane piloted by Merrel Brock of Rule, to save the life of George Tanner, who had been bitten by a rattlesnake.

60 YEARS AGO (October 26, 1907)

Mr. Kelley has very generously given the Fair Committee the use of the large skating rink for use of the Fair, October 30, 31 and Nov. 1. This building is large and will give ample room for the display of the ladies' department, the vegetable department and such part of the farm produce which may need sheltering.

The Executive committee of the Fair had 2,000 large circulars printed, advertising the Fair and the special rate made for it by the Wichita Valley and the Fort Worth and D. C. Railroads, and sent them out for distribution along those roads.

I am manufacturing as good brooms in Haskell county and selling them as cheap as you can buy anywhere. Keep money at home, Mr. Merchant, by buying my brooms. Address Geo. E. Courtney, Haskell, Tex. Capt. B. H. Dodson came in Wednesday on a visit to his family.

Prof. W. W. Bentz, who was for two terms principal of the Haskell school but is now a commercial traveler for a New Orleans House, was here Thursday.

Mr. J. N. McFater made a business trip to Dallas this week and while there took a look at the fair.

Messrs. Killebrew Collier and J. B. Baker left Thursday night for Dallas to see the big fair.

The Haskell electric light plant has put in a large, new dynamo and new globes and the service now is the best there is.

Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Terrell have gone to Dallas to see the State fair and visit relatives there and at Ranger.

Mr. D. H. Bell has associated with him in the real estate and insurance business, Messrs. J. W. Collins and M. A. Clifton, and they have moved their office down near the postoffice.

COUNTY AGENT'S CORNER

By R. W. Schumann
Haskell County
Agricultural Agent

I've just returned from a day and a half at the State Fair in Dallas. Purpose of the trip was to accompany and help little Miss Cindy Thomas of Haskell show her Charlois-Angus Cross steer in the Market Steer Class at the Fair. The competition was pretty keen, but the little lady did an excellent job of showing the steer and I'm glad to report that she came out with a blue ribbon. It's pretty inspiring to see a pretty little 40 lb. girl showing a steer weighing close to 1,000 lbs. Anyway, these boys and girls that show animals at area and regional shows usually do an excellent job and are a real credit to Haskell County.

Certainly the ribbons and premiums won at such shows aren't the only benefits a youngster receives by raising an animal project to show at a Fair or livestock show. It takes a lot of hard work for a long period of time to get an animal in show condition, and this teaches a child self-discipline and management as well as the technical art of feeding, grooming and caring for such an animal. Haskell County has produced many good livestock feeders in the past such as the Boone girls from Weinert, the Gannaway boys in Haskell and Judy Therwhanger of Weinert just to name a few. There are opportunities open to any boy or girl in Haskell County to do the same through the 4-H or FFA programs in the county. If you or your child is interested, I would suggest you contact me or your local Voc. Ag. teacher and we'll give you all the help you need.

For our horse lovers and producers in the county, I'd like to call to your attention that you have a special invitation to attend the 7th Annual Horse Short Course at College Station. The course will be on Nov. 11 and 12 and will cover a wide variety of subjects on horse management and production. For more details, contact me at my office and I'll be glad to fill you in.

The '67 version of the Haskell County Fair is now over and I think all will agree that it's getting bigger and better every year. These Fairs don't "just happen" and special credit should be given to the officers, directors and superintendents that put in a lot of hard work.

The Haskell County Fair can be the best local fair around if we could get more ideas and interest from the people of all areas of the County. Remember, it is just as good as the people themselves make it.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ
Thousands of taxpayers are concerned about whether they will be required—or their heirs will be required—to file an estate tax return when they die. Since the Agricultural Extension Service says that the average value of a Texas farm nowadays is $250,000, it is obvious that many taxpayers need to consider the estate tax problems.

Publication 448, "A Guide to Federal Estate and Gift Taxes," may be obtained for 25c by writing to the District Director of Internal Revenue, P. O. Box 1738, Dallas, Texas 75221.

Funeral Services Held Friday For Mrs. Patterson

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Friday in First Baptist Church, Rochester, for Mrs. Nora Bea Patterson, 74, who died at 10 a. m. October 18 in a Lubbock nursing home where she had been a patient three months.

She had lived in Rochester and in Kent County for many years.

Burial was in Rochester Cemetery under direction of Smith Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were V. A. Mitchell, Pete Tanner, Curtis Love, Monty Penman, Kenneth Newberry and Melvin Vojtkufka.

Born March 5, 1893, in Comanche County, she married Henry Patterson March 5, 1913, in Claremont. He died March 18, 1952, in Rochester.

Survivors include five sons, James A. of Big Spring, W. H. of Rochester, A. J. of Jali, N. M., Jerry Don of Denver City, and Dale of Los Angeles, Calif.; four daughters, Mrs. Clyde Wallis of Modesto, Calif., Mrs. George Erath of Spur, Mrs. Verna Mae Bagwell of Denver City, and Mrs. Jeff Wheeler of Lubbock; one brother, Pete Harrison of Big Spring; five sisters, Mrs. Lorene Hutto of DeQueen, Ark., Mrs. Ola Moore of Glyndon, Minn., Mrs. Hugh Woods of Bryson, Texas, Mrs. Doug Gallagher of Fort Worth and Mrs. George Burch of Blum, Texas; 22 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

The Big Difference between a man who displays this seal and an insurance company salesman might mean hundreds, perhaps thousands, of dollars in your pocket

As an independent insurance agent, he represents not one but several insurance companies. He is thus free to choose the best car, home, or business insurance for you, to make sure you are paid both promptly and fairly when you have a loss. On the other hand, the services of an insurance company salesman usually end when he has sold you the policy which his particular company offers.

As independent insurance agents, we are ready to give you continuing, personal attention—The Big Difference in insurance today. Look for our Big "I" Seal ... call on us for the facts about complete insurance protection.

Meet a 1968 "youngmobile" from Oldsmobile.

Now that you've been introduced, why not get together?

Why not take the wheel of this Cutlass 5—youngest of the "youngmobiles" from Olds. A new 350-CID Rocket V-8 delivers more power at lower operating cost. (And does it more smoothly and quietly, as well.) You say you prefer a Six? Olds has a 250-CID Action-Line 6, too. These are really openers. You can tailor Cutlass 5 to your fancy and finances. 4-speed stick, or stereo to sporty plating. Front disc brakes to dual exhausts to Rally Sport Suspension. (All the new GM safety features are standard.) What it adds up to is this: If you like cars with a lot of pizzazz in the way they look—cars with a lot of moxie in the way they drive—your Oldsmobile Dealer is the man to see. They're the only kind he carries.
