To the People

. . . who went to the polls and gave me a vote of confidence, I again say, THANK YOU. In so doing you showed your interest in GOOD GOVERNMENT, and mature representation. Realizing the importance of having a man in the legislature who could and WOULD give all his time to the problems of the 35th district, I still pledge to meet with the farm, Conservation, water, hi-way and tourist groups. And it won't take me FOUR YEARS to familiarize myself with these agencies.

The making of laws that govern your lives is a serious business, and must be considered deeply and long, by one of maturity and experience. I am asking others to join us, and asking for moral and spiritual support.

I am sure you realize the importance of the position, to elect a FULL-TIME representative. With your continued support we WILL win the run-off election Saturday, AUG. 25th.
