

Enthusiasm Mounts As Time Nears For Book Drive For County Library

As the scheduled time for the drive of books for the Aransas County Library draws near, enthusiasm for the project mounts high. We hear of housewives asking their neighbors if they have thoroughly scanned their bookshelves in a quest for material to hand over to the library and business men are considering in what way they can contribute to the success of the enterprise. Boys and girls, college bound, are finding they can part with some of their hitherto treasured volumes for the betterment of the younger members of society in their home town and even the very juvenile crowd have been heard to ask if they may give to the library their beloved westerns and fairy lore.

According to Mrs. E. L. West, chairman of the library committee named from the Woman's Club, the Dewey decimal system will be employed in the library set-up. Plans call for a shelf of best sellers; another of books from which movies have been made; mystery stories; western novels; religious books; science fiction; household arts; Texas history; poetry; a section on marine life and one on birds; a children's section; books by "Just Texas" authors; fiction and non fiction, and, of course, reference books. This is a wide field and probably every family can find something from their private libraries that will fit into one or more of these categories and be happy to contribute it to help in the establishment of the library.

Mrs. A. C. Glass heads the gift committee and serving with her are Mrs. Fred B. Hunt, Mrs. E. T. White and Mrs. Fred Brundrett. Call any member of this committee and they will gladly pick up your books, receive magazine subscriptions and cash contributions with which to purchase new books.

Mrs. Paul Reese has requested the writer to state that she will be glad to continue the service of her private library until the complete establishment of the Aransas County Library.

Remember the date of the drive for books, Sunday, Sept. 9 through Sunday, Sept. 16. Hours, 2 to 5 p. m. each Sunday, and 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. week days. Places: the Woman's Club building in Rockport and Bracht's former store building in Fulton. Members of the Woman's Club will be on hand to receive the books at both locations during the drive.

Mrs. Ruth Delmar Sullivan, on her radio hour, "The Talk of the Town," over KEYS, Corpus Christi, gave the project publicity and her own personal "boost," Tuesday morning. Mrs. Sullivan is well known to a number of Aransas County people as she has participated in several programs for the Woman's Club and has shown herself as being interested in our community projects.

San Antonio Firm Gets Furniture Bid From County

A San Antonio firm, Maverick-Clarke, was awarded the bid for new furniture in the courthouse with a tender of $15,879.00, while the American Seating Co. obtained the contract for seating in the new district court room with a bid of $1607.52.

In neither case was this the low bid, as Hoover Brothers bid $1096.90 on the court seats, while Maverick-Clarke of Corpus Christi made a tender of $15,330.00 on the courthouse furniture. Both were refused because of failure of the bidder to comply with specifications as laid down by the Commissioners' Court of Aransas County, according to an announcement by Judge John D. Wendell.

Runner-up in the bidding on the furnishings for the courthouse was the John H. Yochem Company, Corpus Christi, with a bid of $17,432. The Shaw Walker Equipment Company bid $17,497.75 and the Cole Office Equipment Company was highest with $17,499.

Delivery on the furniture was promised within 60 days after the letting of the contract. In addition, the Commissioners approved a budget for next year's agricultural extension work in the amount of $400, and entered an order requesting lateral road funds from the state in the amount of $1,109.49.

Rockport Boy Loses Life In Auto

Two persons were killed in a head-on collision about 21 miles west of Uvalde at 1:30 a. m. Sunday. They were Paula de Cruz de la Rosa, 54, of Beeville, and Jose de la Rosa Sandival, 14, of Rockport. Five Lackland airplanes in the other car were taken to the hospital for treatment.

Pug Mullinax Made Warden Supervisor

M. B. (Pug) Mullinax of Rockport has been named game warden supervisor for this district, the Texas Game and Fish Commission announced last Friday. His appointment is effective immediately.

Mullinax, a resident of Rockport for 38 years and a game warden for the last 15, will be in charge of game and fish law enforcement officers in Matagorda, Refugio, Calhoun, Aransas, San Patricio, Nueces and Kleberg Counties.

He replaces Ernest Wehmeyer of Palacios, who is retiring with 30 years of warden service.

Mullinax began his warden career in Corpus Christi 15 years ago and moved back to Rockport a year and a half later. He's been here ever since.

He is married and has two daughters and a son. He will remain at Rockport.

Mullinax said a new warden will be sent to Palacios. He is Charlie Maynard, formerly of Corpus Christi.

"We also expect to put on a pilot-warden at Rockport in the near future," he said.

There are now seven wardens working this district, he said.

Annual College Exodus Begins

The annual exodus of college students begins this month. Four boys from here will be in their senior year at A&I. They are Johnny Jo Atwood, Kane Lassiter, Joe Herring, and James Sparks. Ramsey Bearden will be a sophomore at the same school.

Elton McCabe is headed for Schreiner.

Two seniors from Rockport are attending Rice, Marjorie Jarboe, and Port Raughman, while Burke Cubaniss is in his sophomore year at the same institution.

Joe Slocum is majoring in biological science at Baylor; Winston Weber will be a freshman at St. Mary's University. Paul Cochran is in his third at St. Stephen's Episcopal School in Austin.

Freddie Lingner, with last year's graduation class, has not yet made up her mind what college she will attend; Mary Faye Clark is headed for TSCW. Victor Dervage, Leslie Cole, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Casterline will attend the University of Corpus Christi; Jimmy Mills will be a freshman at SWSTC. Tommy Shults is a junior at the University of Houston, while Jim Ben Clobberdants will attend there this year, having transferred from Schreiner. Martin Pena has his sights set on Del Mar College at Corpus Christi.

Bill Buckley is a sophomore at the University of Texas.

Educator Will Speak To Rockport Service Clubs

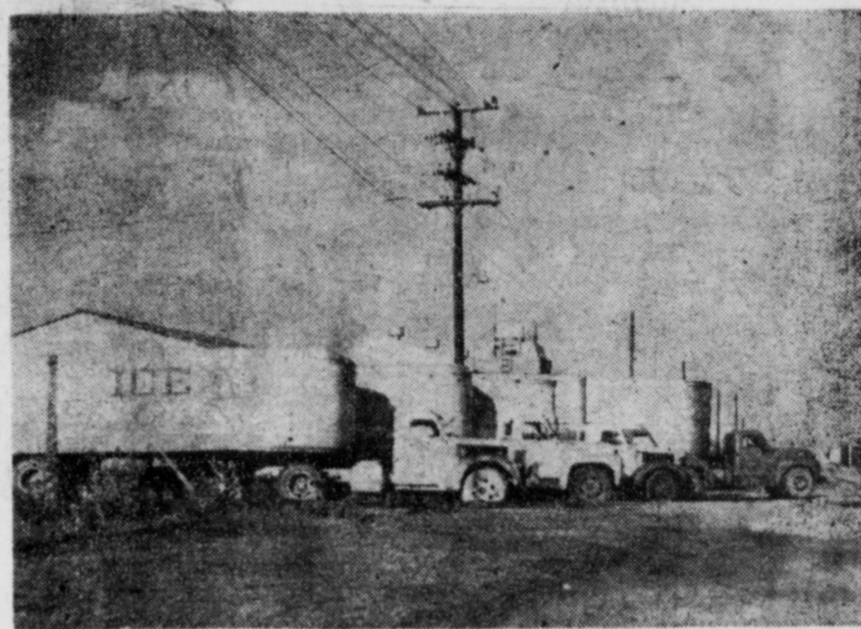

E. L. Galyean, director of research and records for the Texas State Teachers Association, Austin, will speak before the Rockport Lions Club on Sept. 18 and the Rockport Rotary Club on Sept. 19. Both meetings will be held at the noon hour. Mr. Galyean will discuss the Teacher Retirement Amendment No. 4 which is to be voted on Nov. 6 at the general election.

Mr. Galyean has had a total of 25 years of experience in the public schools of Texas, having served as elementary school teacher, elementary school principal, high school principal, school superintendent, deputy state superintendent, and Director of School Census and Statistics in the State Department of Education. He has been serving in his present capacity as Director of Research and Records at TSTA for the past five years.

Mr. Galyean has a B.S. degree from North Texas State College, a Master of Education degree from SMU, and holds a permanent teacher's certificate and administrator's certificate. He is a member of local, state, and national professional organizations, a Mason, and a member of Phi Delta Kappa, professional fraternity for men in education.

This wide background of training and experience eminently qualifies Mr. Galyean to speak on any subject related to the field of education.

Ice Business Good In Rockport

Southern Texas Ice and Service Company trailers—five of them—lined up at the Rockport plant, where they were unloading ice needed to take care of shrimp and seafood produced in the Rockport and Fulton areas. Unprecedented demands on the capacity of the plant brought help by the truckload—two from San Benito, and one each from Victoria, Sinton, and Robstown.

"Ice sales here have more than tripled in the last three years," said O. A. Carroll, of the Southern Texas Ice and Service Co.

"When I came here, in 1953, delivered tonnage was 360 tons. In August of this year we sold 1,366 tons from this plant, and I expect to pass last year's sales by a considerable margin in 1956. So far, we have done so. Our sales from January 1 to August 31, 1955, totaled 5,000 tons; this year during the same period we sold 6,200 tons."

Most of the tonnage is used by shrimp boats and wholesale fish houses, Carroll said, as there are few if any people in the area that still have the old-fashioned ice-boxes in their home.

To take care of this increased demand, the company recently installed a storage vault that will hold 120 tons of ice. However, there are times when even this is not enough to supplement to capacity of the plant and then the company calls on its facilities elsewhere. Recently, when shrimp were running plentifully, ice was trucked in from San Benito, Victoria, Robstown, and Sinton.

The company, says Carroll, values its customers and wants to keep them, hence will go to almost any length to see that they get service.

Pirates Play First Game at Sinton

The Aransas County High School Pirates kick off the lid of the 1956 football season tomorrow night in Sinton at 8:00 p. m.

The Sinton Pirates, a long time king pin of district 29AA, will be favored over the lighter but scrappy Aransas County team. Sinton has been the district champ of 29AA for the past several years. They operate from the "T" formation and have an experienced line returning.

The local Pirates have looked rather sharp in their two scrimmage sessions with Bloomington and Gregory, respectively. They showed lots of hustle and some good hard tackling. At times the offense showed the old spark that carried them to nine wins last season. They are hampered by the loss of senior quarterback Eddie Morrison, lost for the season, and all-district halfback Tommy Bradshaw who will be late in reporting.

The Navigation Board, at its regular meeting on Wednesday night, met with the bait stand operators from Rockport Harbor, who appeared in a body. They protested discontinuance of electrical services to their businesses which had been scheduled for September 1st.

After considerable discussion, the Board agreed to study the matter further before taking this action. Other matters on the agenda were of a routine nature.

36th District Court Opens Tuesday, Grand Jury Returns 5 Bills

The 36th District Court, Judge W. G. Gayle presiding, opened in the High School Auditorium on Tuesday after Labor Day, with a rather full docket of civil cases, and a number of criminal actions pending. The Grand Jury, after being in session Tuesday and Wednesday, returned five true bills.

The Rev. C. P. D. Mann, retired Methodist minister of the Oklahoma Conference, will preach the morning service at the First Methodist Church this coming Sunday. LeRoy Young will assist the Reverend Mann, while J. R. DeForest is lay leader in charge.

There will be no evening service.

U. S. Chamber of Commerce Official Speaks To Local Group At Banquet Tuesday

"If the recommendations made in the second Hoover reports, were put into operation," said L. G. Flessner, "taxes in Rockport and elsewhere throughout the nation could be lowered $33 per capita. For a family of four this would mean a saving of at least $132 per year, and perhaps more."

Flessner, manager of the Houston office of the United States Chamber of Commerce, was speaking to members of the local chamber of commerce and their guests at the fall banquet held Tuesday night in the Woman's Club.

"For more than a quarter of a century," he said, "we have been conditioned to tremendous growth of government and heavier taxes to support such growth, until we have finally arrived at the point that we have entirely too much government. It is too wasteful because of obsolete organization, duplication, inefficiency, and excessive labor turnover."

The Hoover Commission, after two years of study, made known governmental deficiencies through 18 special reports and 314 recommendations. Half of these recommendations required executive action only; the rest require Congressional action.

Such interest can be aroused in congress by organized, individual action, such as that taken by Chambers of Commerce throughout the country, and, if all needed action were taken, would result in a $33 per capita savings on taxes.

Flessner stressed that three points needed particular attention. He urged curtailment of unnecessary government spending, restoration of congressional controls over the government purse, and action to trim down the tremendous turnover in government employment.

Dinner music for the meeting, which was served by the Ladies of the Order of the Eastern Star, was furnished by Mrs. Sam James.

As usual guests and new members were introduced, but aside from that almost the entire meeting was given over to Flessner's talk, presented at the special request of directors of the Rockport Chamber of Commerce.

Pop Bettell Claims He Can Fish, Has Samples To Prove It

A familiar face around town this past week has been B. B. (Pop) Bettell, who just returned from a twenty three day trip to Canada and the northwest.

Bettell said that they went through Washington up as far as Vancouver and Victoria in British Columbia, and had a wonderful time, but the part of the trip that really had him bubbling over was the salmon fishing in the Rogue River of Oregon.

"You're only allowed two fish a day," Pop said, "but they're fish, not minnows. The first day we went out I caught a chinook that weighed over 23 pounds and another that weighed over 30. We took nine fish while we were there, and sent home over three hundred half pound cans of salmon that we had caught ourselves. There's a little cannery right there that makes a specialty of putting up the salmon that fishermen catch."

With Bettell were his son and wife, from Houston.

New Cafe Opened On Highway 35

Johnny and Nelda Wells, who operate Nelda's Cafe in downtown Rockport, are branching out, and will open a second cafe, to be called Johnny's Cafe on Highway 35, north of town, on Friday, Sept. 7.

Formerly known as Skeet's the new cafe will be managed by Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Derby, formerly of the Bar-K guest ranch, on Lake Travis, and will specialize in pit barbecue, seafood, steaks, and Nelda's superburgers.

Free superburgers will be available from 4:00 p. m. to 7 p. m. on opening day.

Gene White, program chairman, presented Coach Melvin Borchert, of Aransas County High School. He discussed football.

Rockport ACW Station Still Ahead of Schedule Says Hill

The 813th Aircraft Warning Station is still ahead of schedule, says Lieutenant James J. Hill, project officer from Ellington Field, who has been inspecting the work this week, in company with Garnet E. Henry, resident engineer at Foster Air Force Base, Victoria, and Aubrey W. Rose, who will be resident inspector at Camp Hulen, Palacios, when the unmanned radar station at that point begins construction.

Lieutenant Hill said that this station at Palacios, like the one planned for Riviera, will be maintained by personnel from Rockport.

The announcement came as a surprise to most people in this area, for, in the beginning mention was made only of the Riviera site as being an adjunct of the squadron here. As the set-up now is, headquarters and personnel will be located at Rockport, and the two filler stations, as they are called, at Riviera and Palacios.

At the Rockport site, Lieutenant Hill said, masonry on the recreational building is over half completed, the dining hall is well under way, and the airman's barracks are almost completed. Material delivery is well ahead of schedule, the project officer said, and no difficulty is expected such as that experienced by the new Aransas County courthouse, which was held up for over two weeks due to a shortage in brick.

Conduit for power lines is being installed at the present time, as all wiring has been placed under ground due to the station's proximity to the Aransas County Airport which is at present used as a training field for planes from the Naval Air Station at Corpus Christi.

Another surprise, stemming from Lieutenant Hill's visit, was the announcement that the squadron will use approximately a dozen civilian employees from the area in various categories.

The Civilian Personnel Officer at Foster Air Force Base, in Victoria, has listings of the positions open, and people interested should contact him, Lieutenant Hill said. All positions will be under Civil Service.

Along The Waterfront

Frazier Cantrell fished Mr. and Mrs. David Goldman and sons Henry and Bobby, and their nephew Stanley Mendenhall, all of Dallas, and the party came in with 97 trout.

The following day he had Roland Hallmark, Houston, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Richardson, of Tyler, and Mrs. Jewel Thompson, of Athens, and the party caught 82 mixed fish.

On Saturday he had Mr. and Mrs. M. Bernard and grandson Richard, of San Antonio, who strung 68 good trout. Another San Antonio party, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pilgrim and daughter, (Continued on page 8)

Captain And Mrs. Davis Write Letter Home On European Tour

Captain Bruce Davis, now stationed with the U. S. Army in Italy, and his family, made an extensive European tour this summer. Captain Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Davis, and his wife is the former Mary Virginia Jackson. They have three youngsters, Ford, 7; Bart, 4; and Kathy, 2½; all of whom accompanied them on the trip which occupied an entire month.

Leaving out the personal details, the account of the trip written to his parents was so interesting that much of the material in it is given here, and in succeeding issues of the Pilot.

He says: "This letter will indicate we are safely returned home, very much the weary travelers. To accomplish so extensive a tour in such a short time we had to move rapidly. We were unable to do justice to many areas we were in. We left Pisa (Italy) early the morning of the 1st (July), and late that evening had arrived at Brig, Switzerland. In going to Milan we crossed a mountain range near Parma. At Milan we visited the famous Gothic cathedral. Although not the oldest, it is probably the most impressive piece of Gothic architecture in existence.

Our entrance into Switzerland was by way of the Simplon Pass about 9000 feet. Our view was restricted as the day was cloudy. However, it was a relief to escape the valley heat.

From Brig we drove southward along Lake Lemnan, passing through Montreux and Lausanne, to Geneva. At Montreux we visited Chillon Castle, very old and beautifully situated in the lake. Lord Byron lived here and made the location famous by his poem. (Continued on page 5)

Dove Season From Sept. 1 Thru Nov. 28

AUSTIN—Texas will have ninety-five half days of mourning dove hunting this fall, divided between north and south zones, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service advised the Game and Fish Commission.

The north zone season will run from September 1 through October 17, and the south zone will begin October 12 and continue through November 28.

This is an increase of five half days over the 1955 season.

The Washington agency sets the seasons since mourning doves are migratory game. It generally follows the recommendations of the states.

Shooting periods will be from twelve o'clock noon to sunset. Limits will be ten per day and ten in possession. Kaufman County in northeast Texas has a special regulation by state law, closing the dove season in the Combine community.

The Executive Secretary said field reports state that Texas has an amazing mourning dove population despite the merciless drought. Native birds comprise the bulk of the bags in the early season while migrating birds from the north bulwark the local numbers late in the fall.

DOUBLE POISON.

J. C. Sharp of Odessa caught a two-headed rattlesnake. Both heads had brains and were joined at the neck. They were not coordinated, however, so the reptile had difficulty in crawling and eating. But the fangs and poison sacs in each head were normal.

Gene Springs, son of Mrs. Leonard Casterline, left Sunday morning for Central State Teachers College in Edmond, Okla., where he will be a senior.

Goose Shoot Opener Same as for Duck

Austin—The only changes made in Texas' 1956 waterfowl hunting regulations were those requested, reports the Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

Zero hour on the opener, Friday, November 2, will be at one half hour before sunrise, like all other shooting days, and the goose and duck seasons will begin simultaneously.

Traditionally, twelve o'clock noon was the starting time for the waterfowl season.

Last year when the duck season was extended to seventy-five days, the goose season remained at sixty days and the opener for the latter was delayed fifteen days.

At its last meeting, the Game and Fish Commission asked the United States Fish and Wildlife Service to make the duck and goose openers conform "as a conservation measure and as a convenience to the hunters." It also suggested the earlier legal shooting hour for the first day for the same reason.

The new regulations provide no change in the sunset close for the daily shooting period and also place bag limits as in recent seasons. Limits are five ducks per day and ten possession and five geese per day and five in possession. The goose limit shall not contain more than two Canada geese or its sub-species or two white-fronted geese or one of each.

INSTALLMENT HUNTING.

Nearest thing to a buck which George W. Schneck of Narberth got during Pennsylvania deer season was a freshly-shed set of antlers he found on the ground and took back to camp. Two weeks later, on the first day of doe season, he shot what had seemed to be an old doe but turned out to be a buck without antlers. You guessed it. The set at camp fitted perfectly. — Charles H. Vaughan, Philadelphia (Pa.) Inquirer.

Mrs. Wimpy Wright took her son Buddy to Galveston Wednesday for a major operation at John Sealey Hospital.

DAVIS' EUROPEAN TRIP—

"The Prisoner of Chillon." Geneva is certainly an impressive sight—situated about the end of the lake. It is brilliant at night and the lights reflected at night in the lake are marvellous to view. We strolled through one of the lovely parks; the kids had chocolate as only the Swiss can make it; and entertained them by watching the large flocks of wild swans that inhabit the lake regions.

Leaving Geneva reluctantly, we proceeded into France via Bourg, Macon, Auxerre, and finally reached Paris the same day. Before entering the city we visited the buildings and beautiful gardens of Fontainebleau Castle which served through nearly seven hundred years as a residence for nearly every ruler of France.

The most unforgettable memory of Paris is its traffic, and that along the Champs Elysees defies description. My first reaction was one of complete confusion—not familiar with the city I lost both sense of direction and the will to move. Traffic was everywhere—knee deep. After surviving Paris traffic I knew I could face all other obstacles.

There are many things we left undone in Paris. The morning of the fourth we toured the Louvre but only scratched the surface, even if we did see Venus de Milo, Victory of Samothrace, and Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa.

In one of the little gardens opposite the Louvre is a statue of Lafayette, dedicated by the school children of America. We witnessed Harold Rich, American Legion Commander, rekindle the flame at the tomb of France's Unknown Soldier at the Arc de Triomphe on our 4th Bastille Day is the 14th, and the French, in preparation for their own independence day celebration had many American flags flying with the tri-color.

At noon we attended a reception given at the embassy by American Ambassador and Mrs. Dillon. The reception line and party were held on the embassy lawn which was nice, as the day was warm. There were great collections of other embassy officials. Ford and Bart were delighted with some cupcakes in the form of a ship flying the American flag.

Our tour included a trip to the palace of Versailles, with its dazzling Galerie des Glaces, 1,930 feet in length, and its bewildering, vast gardens, which ought to be covered with car. The fountains are exceptionally beautiful, but the whole place is undergoing restoration which will not be completed until 1958, and I doubt even then—there appears to be so much to be accomplished. At times as many as 10,000 courtiers lived in this monumental edifice.

Naturally, like most tourists we went to the top of the Eiffel Tower and visited Notre Dame which appears in dire necessity of some face lifting as do many of France's monuments.

We departed Paris and drove to Boulogne on the coast. After spending the night there, we crossed the English channel next morning. To hear English spoken once again was almost strange. Neither of us understood French; my Italian and German are both notorious, and no one speaks Spanish except the Spaniards. As most continentals understand several languages we did very well by using our limited Italian and German. (Editor's Note: Next week we will follow the Davises north through England and Scotland, as they continue their journey.)

Humble Plans Big Football Broadcast And TV Schedule

This season Texans will be able to see and hear more Southwest Conference football than ever before. That fact was brought out at a school held last week for The Humble Company's football announcers.

Nearly 30 play-by-play announcers and broadcast and telecast supervisors attended the school held in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Southwest Football Officials' Association in Houston. As a part of the school the announcers attended sessions of the officials' meeting to hear first hand about the rule changes for 1956.

Heading the staff at the announcers' school were Jess Neely, Rice Athletic director and head coach, and Kern Tips, popular Southwest Conference football announcer. Attending were announcers from all over Texas including such veterans as Dave Russell of Beaumont, Eddie Barker, Ves Box and Jerry Doggett of Dallas and Bob Walker of Wichita Falls.

Coach Neely explained the various plays and formations that will probably show up in conference play this season. While explaining the plays he made careful diagrams to show the announcers how to accurately recognize formations.

Tips, known as "Mr. Football" to hundreds of thousands of Texas followers of the game, told announcers that preparation for broadcasts is most important. "Know the teams, their records, the signals and above all, respect the officials," he said.

"And always remember that team play is what counts. Good runs are seldom made without good play by other members of a team."

Included in the comprehensive football coverage this year will be telecasts of six Conference games over a network of 24 TV stations and broadcasts of 61 games including the entire Texas Western schedule. On some weeks more than 100 radio stations will be used.

The six regional telecasts will be described by Kern Tips, a veteran of more than 20 years in Conference broadcast circles. The games to be telecast were selected by the Southwest Conference under a policy of the NCAA. Under Conference rules, telecasts are blacked out in areas where they might hurt attendance at the telecast game. Thus, the opening regional telecast, Baylor vs. Texas Tech, in Waco September 29, will be blacked out in Temple and Waco unless the game is a sell-out.

Other Southwest Conference games to be telecast include Texas - Oklahoma, October 13; Rice-SMU, October 20; Texas A & M-Arkansas, November 3; TCU - Texas, November 17; and Texas-Texas A&M, November 29.

Supplementing the live coverage of games will be Humble's popular TV program, Texas in Review, shown each week over a network of 22 Texas TV stations. A large part of the program will be devoted to highlights and interesting plays of Southwest Conference games played the previous Saturday.

These highlights are filmed, flown to Dallas, sometimes by chartered plane, for quick processing, and edited for presentation on the program the following Monday. Kern Tips will narrate the highlights.

This will be the 23rd consecutive year Humble has brought Southwest Conference football into the living rooms of Texas.

MRS. IRENE FRANKLIN ONLY SOLICITOR FOR COLORED BIBLE BAND

Mrs. Irene Franklin is the only solicitor in Rockport for the Colored Bible Band, and to the people here who so generously contributed to the band's drive for funds she says

"We feel that we owe you an explanation.

"I was appointed by the Colored Bible Band to solicit money to further our cause, which includes helping indigent and sick colored people. We are a small group who want to live by the laws of God, and help our fellow men.

"Last week, we understand, there was another person seeking contributions for another cause.

"This solicitor was not connected with our Bible Band. The collection of donations by two separate parties naturally caused confusion as only I was appointed by our band.

End Sun-Fading And Fraying...

Buy An Electric Clothes Dryer

Every South Texas housewife knows what the burning sun and driving wind can do to fabrics. Sheets ripped and frayed, the sparkle bleached out of dresses. There's dust and rain to contend with, too.

It's discouraging, expensive... and unnecessary.

Weather destruction and clothesline drudgery end when you use a modern electric clothes dryer. Clothes last longer, look better. You need to buy fewer for growing children.

Do the laundry whenever you please - indoors, out of the weather, at the turn of a dial. See your appliance dealer.

Light For Living Program by CPL

A complete new "Light for Living" program, designed to help South Texans improve the lighting in their homes, is now being sponsored by Central Power and Light Company.

According to B. T. Hardeman, local CPL manager, his company has added several lighting specialists to its staff in this area. These employees, who recently completed an intensive course in modern lighting techniques, will offer help to homemakers in selecting proper lighting arrangements for their homes.

There is no charge for the new service, the CPL manager said. "Many new trends in lighting have been developed during the past few years and can help you beautify your home," Hardeman pointed out.

For example, he said, the right kind of lighting can make a room look larger. One type gives a cool effect to your rooms and another type can create a warm, cozy feeling.

In many cases, adapters for your present fixtures can considerably improve the lighting in your home, the CPL manager explained. The proper placement of lamps in a room is also very important in creating the "mood" you desire.

Homemakers who are looking for new ways to modernize older rooms or for dramatic ideas for general lighting in newly-built homes are enthusiastically praising the new lighted valances for walls and windows.

These decorative, yet highly practical valances with their fluorescent lights concealed inside provide a pleasing way of supplying general lighting throughout a room.

In addition to general or background lighting which is so important to visual comfort, lighted valances create an illusion of space in small rooms and bring out the color and beauty of drapery fabrics and walls.

Cotton Pickers Covered By Social Security

Cotton pickers like other agricultural workers are covered by social security if they receive as much as $100 in wages from a farm employer in a year. H. M. Cleveland, manager of the Corpus Christi district office of the Social Security Administration issued this reminder to employers of agricultural workers as the cotton harvest gets underway.

"Agricultural employers must file annual wage returns next January to report the name, social security number, and the wages of every employee to whom a total of $100 or more in wages is paid during the year," Cleveland explained. "It is especially important that a record of the name and number, as they are shown on each worker's social security card, be made by the employer."

A social security tax of 2% is deducted from the worker's wages and the employer matches this amount. These taxes are sent to the Director of Internal Revenue, Austin, Texas.

Whether the farm operator or the crew leader is the employer and responsible for reporting the wages and sending in the tax of the cotton pickers depends upon the working arrangement.

The wages which are reported for agricultural workers, like those for all other workers, are credited to the individual account of each employee. The record of wages is used to determine the amount of retirement and family insurance which may be paid to older workers and to the survivors of deceased workers, Cleveland pointed out.

Inquiries about the social security taxes should be addressed to the Director of Internal Revenue. Social security numbers and information about the old-age and survivors insurance can be obtained from the Social Security Administration, 530 South Water Street, Corpus Christi, Texas.

Mrs. Henry Ballou received word from her daughter Patti who flew from New York to Frankfurt, Germany. She was to leave last Wednesday for Oberammergau, Germany, which is on the Swiss border, south of Munich. Miss Ballou will teach there.

Share the Road Or Stop Driving

Share the road, or stop driving. If that's back seat driving, make the most of it! That statement was made today by Mrs. C. Aubrey Stewart of Fort Worth, Vice President for Women's Activities of the Texas Safety Association. Although she smiled as she took motorists to task for their dangerous and inconsiderate highway behavior, there could be no doubt she meant every word of it.

Making it clear that her remarks were addressed to both men and women drivers, she said it was high time motorists realized that traffic safety is a cooperative venture—and acted accordingly.

"The street or highway is no place for the show-off or the nof-conformist," Mrs. Stewart said. "The complex nature of today's traffic makes it necessary for the driver to think of himself as a member of a team, not as a solo performer."

"As long as motorists keep in step with the drivers around them, traffic moves smoothly and safely," she said. But when some driver—through restlessness or absentmindedness—gets out of line, anything can happen.

She blamed the "in-a-hurry" complex that seems to beset many drivers for much of our traffic trouble.

"Some people can't seem to unwind. They're tense, nervous and anxious and this is reflected in their driving," she said. "Of course, I don't advise anyone to poke along and impede traffic, either. The thing to do is strike a happy medium—not too fast, not too slow, keep in step with the traffic flow."

Mrs. Stewart reminded drivers to be especially careful to pace themselves by the traffic around them when driving on superhighways, because the higher speeds permissible on such roads make the danger of accident greater and the results of an accident much more severe.

fish, and it was these tags that showed one particular school of reddish as inhabitants of the Cedar Bayou-Pass Cavallo-Aransas Pass area for over two years.

Later he kept watch on the unsuccessful and costly attempt to cut through Padre Island at Yarrow Pass, and after that his work was largely in the upper Laguna Madre, where he had probably the most thorough knowledge of fish and their migrations that has even been attained by any biologist working along the Texas coast.

Simmons married Ruby Casey, daughter of Mrs. Nora Casey, of Rockport, and they have one child, George Lee, born this last January.

Although Scripps Institute is at La Jolla, it is understood that most of Simmons work, for a while at least, will be along the Texas and Louisiana coasts, where Scripps has had a research program, probably the largest in the area, going ever since 1952, doing basic research on sedimentary deposits and their effect on marine organisms.
