

County One of Last Areas To Cooperate With Observers

Rockport, the Toast of the Coast, doesn't rate the motto when it comes to co-operation with the Ground Observers' Corps, one of the vital defense links of our nation. As a matter of fact, it is the last town in the area to do anything about activating such a program, although the groundwork was laid some time back.

At a meeting scheduled for Tuesday, October 2, at 7:30 p. m., Technical Sergeant L. N. Woolley, of Corpus Christi, Air Force Organizational officer, will meet with local members of the corps in an effort to get the project rolling, and everyone in Aransas County is invited to attend the conference, which will be held in the Rockport Elementary School auditorium.

Aransas County needs a minimum of 84 volunteers in addition to members of the Rockport and Fulton fire departments, which volunteered in a body, but will be used only as substitutes, as they are already on call 24 hours a day, for fire fighting, and emergencies such as storms, as well as furnishing help to county officers, highway patrolman and state rangers when called upon.

In most communities the organization depends upon women to furnish the larger part of its personnel. Frequently 75% or more of the watchers come from house wives of the locality.

Anyone who can read and write is eligible to wear the silver wings of the Ground Observers Corp, and students in the upper grades of the elementary schools, as well as those from the Junior and Senior High Schools are urged to join.

Boy Scouts are given credit for their participation, towards a merit badge.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW have also indicated that this will be one of their projects for the current year.

The present observation period is from sunrise to sunset, and the duties are reporting plane movements and weather conditions for two hour tricks, with two persons on each shift.

Reporting material, binoculars and phone are furnished by the Air Service, which will also install a true directional indicator, showing all points of the compass.

The observer post is at the Patio, next to the Harbormaster's office, on Navigation District property, near the bathing beach.

The present paper organization for the corps in Aransas County is as follows:

Vernon Kleypas, supervisor; Carl M. Osborn, chief observer; Mrs. S. F. Jackson, captain in charge of publicity; Bob Hamblin, in charge of physical property; Eugene Everett, in charge of training.

Chamber of Commerce Takes Active Interest In Four-Lane Highway

Recently the following newsletter was sent out by the Corpus Christi Chamber of Commerce, regarding the proposed four-lane Federal Highway which is proposed for South Texas, and in which the local Chamber of Commerce have taken an active interest.

The proposed program of the Expressway Association, which is going to be discussed here in more detail, is of tremendous significance to this area, and its development should be watched very closely by all the citizens because of its importance.

No doubt many of you know that the proposed expressway comprehends a four-lane divided highway with access roads from Orange, Texas, at the Louisiana border, to Brownsville, Texas, at the Mexican border, via Houston, Victoria, Corpus Christi, and the Lower Valley.

This program was activated by the Chamber of Commerce when it became apparent that this area would not be included on the Federal Highway Program which was approved by Congress in 1956. Is it further apparent why we were not included, although the average layman is not cognizant of the background. Actually, the bill covering the program was introduced in 1944, and at that time practically every city or concentration of population over 100,000 persons was included. At that time, also, Corpus Christi had not reached the 50,000 mark, and consequently was not considered in the Federal program.

The bill which was passed this year by Congress remained unchanged from the 1944 proposal, with the net result that Corpus Christi and the Lower Rio Grande Valley were out in left field, insofar as Federal highway participation was concerned.

However, we feel that it is incumbent on us — and we hope all of the other counties and cities along the proposed route — to get our thinking — that an effort be made to create an expressway for a number of reasons. (1) It will tie in two of the largest (continued on page 8)

Aransas County High School Cheer Leaders

WHAT LOCAL BOY WANTS TO GO TO WEST POINT?

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson has announced that Civil Service examinations for Texas boys seeking appointment in 1957 to the Army, Navy and Air Force service schools will be held November 20 at 71 cities and towns throughout the state.

Senator Johnson uses the results of these examinations as a guide in making his appointments to the military academies.

Entrance requirements vary, but all three academies require that appointees be United States citizens. In the case of applicants to be considered by Senator Johnson, they must be residents of Texas. They must be between the ages of 17 and 21 years upon entry, must be single and must pass a rigid medical examination and a physical aptitude test. Candidates for the Air Force Academy must be able to pass the medical examination for flying training and a pilot aptitude test.

Persons interested in taking the competitive examination on November 20 are advised to write Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C., not later than October 15.

Drum Major and Twirlers Appear In Other Papers Due To C of C

The picture of Drum Major Jimi Ann Williams, and the twirlers of the Rockport Pirate Band appeared in three other papers besides the Rockport Pilot. The Houston Chronicle used it; so did the San Antonio Light; and the Corpus Christi Caller Times also ran it.

Appearance of such pictures, drawing attention to Rockport, is due to an active Chamber of Commerce publicity program.

High School P. T. A. Meets Tuesday

The Aransas County High School P.T.A. will meet at 7:30, October 2nd in the High School Cafeteria. The overall theme for the program this year is "We, the People Spotlight Our Schools". Mr. Jack Horton will speak on "Supporting Our Teachers" which is the theme for October. The Athletic Dept. will be spotlighted this month and Mr. Melvin Borchert will tell about this.

The Texas Congress Birthday is also celebrated this month and an offering will be taken. All Parents and others interested in the High School are urged to attend this interesting meeting. Come and pay your dues so we can complete our membership list.

REVIVAL SERVICES ARE EXTENDED

The Colored Church of God is extending their revival services to Friday night. At the home of L. J. Simmons there will be a barbecue Saturday to help finance the purchase of a piano.

Aransas County Ties West Oso

An 80 yard punt return by Tommy Bradshaw with two minutes remaining in the ball game gave the Aransas County Pirates a 7-7 tie with the West Oso Bears last Friday night in Pirate Stadium. The Pirates took the game via penetrations 2 to 1, and the game will go down in the record books as a win for Aransas County.

After a scoreless first quarter, West Oso completed a 22 yard pass and run play that set up the ball on the Pirates 2 yard line. Two plays later, halfback George Gonzales went across from one yard out. The extra point was added and the Bears took a 7-0 lead. This lead they held until Bradshaw's electrifying run just before the game ended. He was hit twice before he shook loose and went all the way, aided by a good block about mid-field. Eugene Satsky kicked the all important extra point.

The Pirates threatened earlier when a 22 yard pass from Bradshaw to halfback John Cabanias gave them possession with a first down on the Bears eight yard line. On the next play, the Pirates carried the ball down to the two foot line where it was lost on a fumble.

The Pirates have an open date this week in preparation for their next district ball game against Mathis, there, on Oct. 5th.

Rev. A. Arnott Ward Elected Chairman At San Antonio

The Rev. A. Arnott Ward, of the First Presbyterian Church of Rockport, was elected at the recent meeting of the Western Texas Presbytery in San Antonio, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., as was N. F. Jackson.

In addition, the Reverend Ward was elected to the Nominating Committee of the Presbytery, as chairman.

Tax Office To Be Open

According to Mrs. Katherine McLester, school tax assessor-collector, the school tax office will be open at noon, starting Monday, October 1, for the greater convenience of taxpayers.

JUNIOR DANCE TO BE HELD FRIDAY NIGHT

A junior youth dance will be held Friday night at the Woman's Club, according to Chester Barre, while the Senior group will hold theirs on Saturday night.

United Fund Includes $1300 For Local Scouts Says Finance Chairman

The local United Fund campaign includes a budget of $1300 for the support of Scouting activities in Rockport during 1957, Col. J. W. Porter announced.

Mr. Porter is vice-chairman of the Mustang Scout District. "Besides helping the needy," said Col. Porter, "one of the main objects of our Fund is to help build a better community."

"Certainly there is no better builder of good citizens than Scouting. A boy who in his formative years has the advantages of Scouting will be a much better citizen in the years to come."

"That's why the support of Scouting is an investment in the future welfare of our community." This year, he added, there are 112 boys in the local Scouting program, and provisions are being made to handle more next year.

"No boy should be denied the privilege of Scouting," declared Col. Porter. "That is why we must provide the funds to furnish the facilities necessary for the three out of four Texas boys not yet in Scouting."

There are 141 Texas towns, including Rockport, which have Community Chests or United Funds in which Boy Scouts participate, he added.

This fall 531 other communities are conducting special Scout fund campaigns to enlarge the Scouting program all over Texas.

Beginners' Band Class Is Started

A beginning class of band students has been started this past week, according to Jerry Hoffman, director of the Pirate Band, who says that it is not too late to enter.

Cornet, clarinet, and trombone players are among those most needed, Jerry said, and any youngster wanting to join can see him at school or after school hours or call him at 6237.

Hoffman emphasized, however, that he would be glad to have players of any type instrument, as only by building up a beginners' band can the senior band be kept at full efficiency.

Rockport B Team To Play Taft Here Tonight

The Rockport B Team will play the Taft B Team here tonight, during an off date for the Pirates. Game time, as usual, will be 8 p. m.

MARVIN DAVIS TO OPERATE HINTON'S DINING ROOM

Marvin Davis, formerly located at the Triangle, has leased the dining room at Hinton's, which will be partitioned off from the rest of the building, and will operate the restaurant, serving "Poor Marvin" steaks, seafood, chicken, and all kinds of sandwiches.

Library Supplies Here; Need Help

Books Need to Be Prepared For Circulation
Say Members of Library Committee of the Women's Club

According to Mrs. E. L. West and members of the Woman's Club Library Committee, there is still an immense amount of work that needs to be done before the library's doors can open to the public.

Cataloging must be completed on the 1900 volumes that the book drive brought in, and this requires people to paste, print, and number before the books can be placed on the shelves in Arthur Bracht's old store building.

City Council Adopts Budget

The City Council, meeting at a special session for public discussion of the budget, were, like most City Councils, left to themselves, no visitor or townsman appearing to question their spending of the City money.

Other business was largely routine in nature. A re-subdivision was approved in the Smith and Woods addition, application having been made by James A. Jarboe, in behalf of Fred Bracht, Jr., and Gene Urban, of McLendon and Associates appeared before the council to report on the status of the water and sewer project for the Aransas County schools.

The council, after some discussion, voted to instruct the City Attorney to contact the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, as the condition of the city streets where telephone cables had been laid have not been satisfactory.

The budget, $57,700, was adopted on a motion by Mr. Porter, seconded by Councilman Rogero.

The question of the audit for the current year was discussed and City Secretary Mary Lake Segler was instructed to contact Seal, McCarty, and Milligan to see if it is possible for them to handle the job this year.

An ordinance was adopted setting the tax rate for the coming year at $1.50, divided as follows: School refunding bond, .06 cents; Street Maintenance Fund, .24 cents; and General Fund, $1.20 cents.

The dog situation was discussed again, and it was found that only 45 dogs in town were tagged, as against the undoubtedly large population seen on the streets. The council voted to ask Dr. H. W. Schmidt to attend the next meeting to discuss this, and adjourned.

Two Wrecks Occur During Last Week

Two wrecks occurred in the city this past week. John Hamilton King, of Aransas Pass, was driving south on Highway 35, at the south end of Copano Causeway and started to make a left turn to reach the Heldenfels shell pile, driving a 1950 Dodge pick-up.

C. W. Jones, also driving south on 35, collided with the back end of the pick-up, turning it over, while the 1955 Ford sedan which he was driving hurtled across the road for more than fifty yards, coming to rest in oleanders fringing the highway. Damage to King's pick-up amounted to about $150 while the Ford suffered about twice that much, according to investigating officers.

Deputy Sheriff Sherman Mundine, who investigated the accident, gave Jones a ticket for following too closely to the car ahead.

On Saturday night, State Highway officers arrested C. W. Conner, of Aransas Pass, for driving while intoxicated, and lodged him in the Rockport jail while awaiting trial.

The second wreck occurred when Julian Diapi, of Corpus Christi, driving south on Highway 35, attempted to make a left turn at the blinker light at Market and the Highway, driving a 1950 sedan.

W. R. Hubbard of Aransas Pass, driving a 1952 Buick, was also driving south on the Highway, and collided with Diapi's Pontiac, carrying it nearly 150 feet towards the liquor store on the corner.

Mundine, who investigated this accident also, gave Diapi a ticket for driving with no operator's license, while he arrested Hubbard for driving while intoxicated.

Mrs. Joe Slocum, president of the Woman's Club and member of the Library Committee, pointed out that this is a community project, not confined to the club, and that anyone can help.

Boys, she said, have already offered their services to help get the library ready, and children are constantly dropping in, wanting to know when they can check out books. Now that cataloging supplies are here, more workers can work and the project should move faster.

The books received during the drive encompassed everything from children's volumes to others for adults. Most of them were fiction, but the reference and non-fiction portions of the library are growing slowly.

Needed now are a big Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, to fit on a stand the library already has; a copy of Hobart Huson's "History of Refugio County", and many for basic reference books that are not now available.

These are short range; but necessary projects.

Other objectives include gathering together as much county historical material as is possible, and enlarging the collection of books.

Two long-range goals are provision of a permanent home for the library, and of the necessary funds for its operation and enlargement.

Rally Day And Church Loyalty Sunday For Presbyterians

Sunday, September 30th, is Rally Day in the Sunday School of the First Presbyterian Church, and Church Loyalty Sunday, according to Rev. A. Arnott Ward, Minister.

A special program is being prepared for the celebration of Rally Day, during which the entire assembly will pay honor to Mrs. J. F. Cloberdants upon her retirement as a teacher in the Junior Department. Mrs. Cloberdants has given well over 35 years to teaching in the Sunday School of the local church, and has numbered three generations among her students.

The Morning Worship Service will feature an Every Member Roll Call, and all church members are urged to be present to respond in person, or to notify the Session of their reasons for being absent. All Presbyterians are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to show their loyalty to their church, both in the Sunday School and in the Morning Worship Service.

Jaycees To Give Prizes For Fire Prevention Posters

The Jaycees are offering prizes for the best fire prevention week posters to local school children, according to Bopey Cole, spokesman for the local club.

The prizes will consist of $5 for first, $3 for second, and $1 for third, and will be given in two classes, the junior high and grade schools. For purposes of the contest the Rockport and Fulton grade schools will be regarded as one unit, the junior high school as a second.

Three prizes will be given to the best posters from the combined grade schools; three to pupils from junior high.

Cole explained that the Jaycees had decided to do this so that local children would have the meaning of Fire Prevention Week brought more closely home to them.

October 7 — 12 has been designated as Fire Prevention Week.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Raymond, of Wichita, Kansas, were guests at the Rod and Reel Motel this past weekend and fished for tarpon at Port Aransas with Jerry Rittenhouse. Mrs. Raymond caught a thirty-incher. Mrs. Alekna accompanied them on two trips.

Guests at the South Beach Lodges were T. S. Cromer, R. M. Sharp, Pete Clark, and Kenneth Paine, all of Fort Worth. They fished for four days from their own boat. On Sunday they came in with forty; Monday they came in with twenty; Tuesday they caught 30; and Wednesday they came in with forty fish. Our reporter swears that they were reds and trout weighing from six to eight pounds each!

On Thursday, September 19, Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Oliver and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thomas, of Dallas, fished with Frazier Cantrell and strung 67 specks. Saturday he had E. W. Colglazier, W. W. Flanney, Phillip Milburn, and Annie Laurie Langford, all of San Antonio, who came in with 56 trout. Sunday he had the Dan A. Hile family of Shreveport, who caught 25 fish; and Monday he fished Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Grothe and Mr. and Mrs. William Grothe, Houston, who caught 76 specks.

At Johnson's bait and boat stand, last Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Childress, San Antonio, came in with 37 trout. Thursday Norman Kretzmier and Dr. C. B. Dickson, San Antonio, caught 12 trout and a three-pound red. Saturday R. C. Blakely, Pasadena, strung 21 trout. Saturday, C. C. Truelove, Sam May, and M. L. Cox, all of Rockport, checked in with 10 reds and 10 trout. Saturday, Doc Rice, San Antonio, caught a three-pound ling; Monday Dr. C. B. Bronson, Fort Worth, caught 50 trout. On Tuesday he caught 53 more. Mr. and Mrs. George Whaling, Rockport, checked in with 19 trout.

Earle Thomas had a number of parties this week. Saturday he fished Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. George Cleveland, of Waco, who strung 69 specks. Sunday he had Mr. and Mrs. Matheny, Houston, who caught 44; and Monday he had as his party Mr. and Mrs. Kraft and Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Dallas, who caught 72 specks.

Willie Close fished Jerry Scherer and his party, from San Antonio, last Thursday, and they caught an even hundred specks. Friday he had a portion of the Dr. Dretzell party of Fort Worth, and they strung 90 trout. Saturday Malnor Schumard, of Boerne, went out with Willie, wade fishing, and, according to Mrs. Close, the best pair of them could do was one lone red. Sunday, Close fished Mr. Brawner and party, San Antonio, during the first norther of the season, and caught 12 trout. Monday he had Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Reinartz, San Antonio, and they strung a hundred trout; Tuesday he fished Mr. and Mrs. Kraft and party, Dallas. They brought in 91 specks. Wednesday (Continued on page 8)

Pharmacy is mentioned in the Bible. In Exodus (30:22-25) it is written: "Moreover the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Take thou also unto thee principal spices, of pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels, and of cassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive an hin: And thou shalt make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary."

Davises Leave England On Tour

In last week's installment of the letter written by Captain Bruce Davis, the family was ready to leave England, and return to the continent of Europe. In this week we give the concluding events of the tour.

Our channel crossing from Dover was better than the first. This time we were not sick. In France we went north through Belgium into Holland, spending the night in Holland. I cannot comment too highly on the Dutch. Almost all of them speak english, drive American cars and live in beautiful homes. We drove through the Zuider Zee country then back down into Germany.

We spent three days with Boris and Christa Bitburg. Here we attended a change of command ceremony of which Chris was adjutant and also spent an evening at the officers club.

One day we took off to see Luxembourg city where is located the American cemetery. We visited among others the grave of Gen. Patton who is buried here. Our next drive was through the Saar basin on to Augsburg where we visited Lt. Johnson.

We took time out to visit the concentration camp at Dachau—a place to make your blood run cold. At Munich we had lunch in the famous Hoffbrau house. Leaving Germany we entered Austria and arrived in Salzburg. Here we visited the castle—going up by cable car for the benefit of the ride. Also we visited Mozart's birthplace—Jederman or Everyman square where the music festivals are held annually. The kids were thrilled at the mechanical toy city at Hellbrunn palace—operated by water.

We spent the night at the Gen. Walker Hotel in Berchtesgaden—Hitler's retreat. Most of the buildings have been demolished but Eagles Nest—his tea house, was perched on a rock above us. The scenery here is simply wonderful and our day was perfect from a weather standpoint. Before leaving we all took a ride to the top of one of the mountains by Ski lift. Ford went alone while I took Kathy and Mary, Bart. We had our inhibitions about such dizzy heights but certainly enjoyed it once started. I know you would have died had you seen the equipment and its operation.

Our next objective was Innsbruck where Mary did some shopping. It was late when we got through Brenner Pass to spend the night at Balzano. The next day we went through Verona, Vicenza and Padova (Padua) to Venice. To arrive at Saint Mark Square we took a launch ferry boat on the return trip the boys insisted on a gondola. Mary bought some beautiful pieces of glass while the boys and Kathy fed the pigeons in the square. I hope some of the film I took comes out.

We returned to spend the night at Padua and Saturday morning headed home by way of Bologna. At Florence after a lunch we left for home and arrived here about five.

Thomas Webb Dies In Rockport

Thomas Lafayette Webb, 67, died at 12:45 a. m. Friday at his home here.

Webb, a retired boatman, had lived here 34 years. Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Pearl Webb; five sons, Barney of San Antonio, Willis of Texas City, Lloyd of Comfort and Bernard and Alton of Rockport; two daughters, Mrs. Clyde Townsend and Mrs. Richard Hagner of Rockport; one brother, George of Bastrop; three sisters, Mrs. John Oats of San Angelo, Mrs. Walter Rosankey of Bastrop, Texas, and Mrs. Ed Pendergrass of Port Lavaca; 28 grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren. Funeral services were at 3 p. m. Saturday at Cage-Marshall Funeral Home with the Dr. Chalmers Long, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial was in Rockport Cemetery.

Band Puts On Half Time Program With Victor Herbert Music

The Rockport Pirate Band, in a good early season showing, put on a program of Victor Herbert Music, illustrating episodes of the distinguished composer's life, with Director Jerry Hoffman announcing. Herbert, one of America's great-est musicians, was born in Dublin, Ireland, in 1859. Although he left Ireland at the age of seven, to begin his musical education on the continent of Europe, he always had a warm spot in his heart for the Irish, and in later years joined "The Friends of Irish Freedom", founded the "Irish Musical Society" and organized and directed the "Glee Club of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick."

When he first came to America it was to accept a position with the Metropolitan Opera House as a cellist. From 1898 to 1904, Herbert was conductor of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra. Although he was a fine performer and conductor, it was primarily as a composer of operettas that Herbert became famous. The band played excerpts from Killarney, The Swan, American Girl March, Unfinished Symphony, Gypsy Lovesong, Badinage, and The Lily and the Nightingale.

COUNTRY CLUB NEWS

By BETTY YOUNG
The ladies had a small luncheon Thursday before the ladies day tournament.

The winners were:
Low Net: Mrs. G. S. Spears of Aransas Pass with a 40.
Low Putts: Mrs. Albert Wilkinson of Aransas Pass with 14 putts.
Low Gross: Mrs. Francis Yeager of Aransas Pass with a 51.

Pro. Jack Shelton, Mr. A. N. Garrett and Mrs. Bill Allen of Aransas Pass went to Alice Friday, September 21 for Inter-City Pro-Am. Mr. Bill Allen placed third.

Shelton should be able to play as good in tournaments as he does every day. Last Saturday he shot a neat 31 for 9 holes.

Well this will be my last report of Country Club News as I take up a new job Tuesday. I wish to thank Mr. Jack Baughman for asking me to write C. C. News and everyone for reading it. I only hope everyone enjoyed reading it as much as I enjoyed writing it.

Episcopal Church Being Remodeled

The Church of St. Peter's is undergoing a remodeling, under supervision of Jack Sanders, and is expected to be completed some time within the next week.

Mahogany paneling will be used to line the walls and arched portion of the ceiling, while the center, at the top, will be of sheet-rock, covered with Textone, making an exceedingly attractive arrangement.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Garrett are parents of a 6 pound 12 ounce girl born at the Aransas Hospital Sept. 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Ferris and Robbie of Houston is visiting with Mrs. W. M. Ferris for a few days.

C. B. Reed of Fulton is in the Naval Base Hospital.

Party Given Honoring Miss Mildred Shofner

In a barbecue given Sunday evening at the Live Oak Country Club, Miss Mildred Shofner of Port Lavaca was honored by James H. Sorenson and his mother, Mrs. James H. Sorenson, Sr.

About forty guests were present at the affair. Those coming from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wehmeyer, of Port Lavaca; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dio, Mrs. Henry Schmidt, Miss Willene Schmidt, and Dr. H. W. Schmidt, of Taft; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Freeborn, Jr., and Mrs. Rocky Martin of Orange Grove; Mrs. J. J. Woodhouse of Victoria; and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Grett and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lipstreu of Corpus Christi.

Mr. and Mrs. Horton Entertain At Home

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Horton entertained with an informal supper on the lawn Tuesday honoring Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Robinson of Pasadena, Texas, who are spending the week visiting their daughter, Miss Joan Robinson, girl's physical education teacher. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Greene, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Hamblin and daughter, Joy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Hunt and two daughters, Miss Joan Robinson and Mr. John Mayberry with the United States Marine Corps now stationed in California.

Mrs. Sadie Owens and family visited relatives and friends in Seadrift, Sunday.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Changed Her Whole "Point of View"

Some local high school teachers spent the summer taking courses at the State University. They learned a lot, but one of them—Miss Williams—got homesick.

"To save expenses," she reports, "we chose a hotel that was clean but grim. When I found my window looked out on a coal yard—my heart just sank!"

But, when Miss Williams noticed a pot of geraniums on the window sill—and a note saying "Look at these instead. (signed) Last Occupant"—she decided to stick it out. She kept those flowers watered and tended to make things that much easier on the next occupant.

From where I sit, it's often hard to adapt to new surroundings—just as new customs often seem strange to us at first. For instance, if you've always had tea with your meals you might find it odd that I prefer a glass of beer. It's OK to prefer what's familiar to you... but also keep an open mind on what's not.

3443 TEXANS ENTER SERVICE FOR AUGUST

AUSTIN — A total of 3,443 Texans entered the armed forces in August, and 3,523 were separated from active service during the same time.

This was revealed Friday in a report made by state Selective Service headquarters to national Selective Service headquarters in Washington.

Of the 3,444 individuals entering the uniformed services from Texas in August, only 600 were drafted, the remainder entering by enlistment or other voluntary means.

"Actually, many of the inducted men were volunteers," Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said.

He explained that a provision of the Selective Service regulations allows men from the age of 17 to 26 volunteer for induction through draft boards. Seventeen-year-olds must have written consent from their parents or guardians.

State Selective Service sent 965 men to armed forces examining stations during August. A total of 636 was found acceptable, the remaining 329 being rejected, a rejection rate of 34 per cent.

One man was inducted during the month from the National Guard because of failure to perform his reserve obligations in the Guard. Texas inducted registrants for 15 other states in August.

Three physicians were examined for military service during August under provisions of the doctors' draft law. All were found acceptable. There were no inductions of medical personnel.

Mrs. Ann Lockridge of Dallas was here last week visiting her sister Mrs. Chas. Roe, Jr. She brought her mother, Mrs. G. M. Townsend home who has been visiting in Dallas. Mrs. Townsend attended a Yawson Family Reunion in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Bill Wendell of Fulton spent the week end in Baytown with her husband who is working up there and also with her sister and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kautz of Corpus spent the week end in Rockport visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kautz.

DISABILITY PAYMENTS UNDER NEW SOCIAL SECURITY LAW

Cash disability payments to totally disabled persons between 50 and 65 who have sufficient social security work credits will become payable in July, 1957.

In order to qualify, an individual must meet these requirements (1) be so severely disabled that he is unable to do any substantial gainful work; (2) have been disabled for at least six months, with the disability expected to continue indefinitely; (3) be 50 years of age or older; (4) have credit for at least five years of work under social security in the ten years just before the disability began, with at least 1-1/2 years of that work in the three years just before disability began; and (5) file application and furnish adequate medical proof of disability.

Social security offices can not accept applications for disability insurance before October, 1956. Persons who previously had a disability freeze of their social security status approved will be contacted by their social security office before July if they will be 50 then. Disabled persons who have not previously applied to have their benefits status frozen can do so now, if they wish. The determination of disability made in connection with a disability freeze application will ordinarily be used for a claim for disability insurance. Disabled persons not yet 50 years old should inquire about the disability freeze provisions.

The amount of disability payments will be the same as the old-age insurance benefits would be if the individual were 65 at the time. There are no payments to dependents, but in case of death, regular survivors benefits are payable. If the person is still disabled when he becomes 65, his benefit is converted to old-age insurance, and payments to dependents are then possible.

For further information, readers may get in touch with the Social Security Adm. 530 South Water Street, Corpus Christi, Texas.

Fur, Feathers & Fins

By JACK BAUGHMAN

A book recently published by Rinehart is reminiscent of the time when practically every American kid had a gun and thought he was a small arms expert. Long and bitter were the arguments of these youthful marksmen over the merits of double barrels against automatics, and of pump guns against both. Equally lengthy and rancorous were the disputes of lever action fans with addicts of the clumsier bolt, or about what make of gun was really best.

surprise, much like meeting an across "Remington Arms In American History," by Alden Hatch.

Hatch is a biographer. He has written books about Ike and Mamie Eisenhower, Roosevelt, and Clare Booth Luce. The talents that he brought to his biographies are used in this latest book to present a warmly human picture of the Remington dynasty, and his flare for research to assemble a most carefully documented history.

I was a Remington man myself. The first automatic I ever owned was a Remington 12 gauge, a square-shouldered old brute almost as long as I was. It kicked a small boy like a mule, but that full-choked barrel could really reach out there with a load of fours and plaster some old mallard coming in high and carrying the mail.

To a student or lover of guns, the book's 48-page-appendix, containing photographs of all the models Remington ever made up till now, places the volume in the category of a collector's item. Also included for the gun bug are ballistics, and there are thirty-two pages of rare pictures of people and places that have figured in the company's history.

As for a deer rifle, few people in those days knew there was any other caliber than a 30-30, and when Dad brought home a Remington auto-loader in that popular caliber, both he and I felt that it was adequate to cope with anything.

How, way back in 1816, Eliphalet Remington created his rolling-block rifle, and the part it played in American frontier history make an interesting story, which loses nothing because Hatch has told it well. Remington, with his first hand knowledge of the frontiersman's need for dependable firearms, hammered out a rifle in his father's forge that enabled settlers pressing toward the Pacific to defend themselves from attacks

Changes In Social Security Insurance

Far-reaching changes in the Social Security Act became law when a bill was signed by President Eisenhower on August 1, 1956. According to H. M. Cleveland, manager of the Social Security Administration in Corpus Christi, the Amendments of 1956 will affect almost every American family.

Retirement and family insurance payments will be payable beginning with November of this year to women at age 62. The benefits for women workers and the wives of retired workers will be at a reduced rate before age 65. Payments to widows and the dependent mothers of deceased workers will be paid at age 62 without reduction.

Another important change in the law provides for the payments of disability insurance to those who become unable to work because of incapacitating sickness or accident lasting more than 6 months. These payments will first be paid for July, 1957 to those over age 50, who have had extensive social security coverage, Cleveland said.

Lawyers, dentists, osteopaths, veterinarians, and chiropractors, are now under the law in 1956, like other self-employed persons. Self-employed medical doctors are still excluded. Members of the armed forces of the United States will be covered by the law like other employees on January 1, 1957. Important changes were also made in the law as it applies to farmers and agricultural workers.

Information concerning the provisions of the law can be secured by addressing the Social Security Administration, 530 South Water Street, Corpus Christi.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Annie Evans over the week end were: Mr. and Mrs. Alton Evans of Port Stewart, Ga. who will be here for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tanner of Port O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Webb and children of Aransas Pass and Clifton Evans of Galveston.

DEPARTING GLORY—Sharon Kay Ritchie, the current "Miss America," models the gown she'll wear during the annual beauty pageant in Atlantic City, N.J., when she'll relinquish her scepter late this summer to a new Miss America. The sheath and bouffant overskirt with sweeping train are fashioned of champagne-and-white cotton brocade, embroidered with gold and silver sequins and crystal-cut bugle beads.

by wild beasts and wilder men.

As the story is told, there are intimate glimpses of America at work—of the Yankee ingenuity and know-how that have made this a great industrial nation, and the patriotism that keeps it free.

Five times the company has been called upon to set aside its interests in behalf of those of the nation. The difficult task of converting peace-time manufacture to war production, and details of how Remington achieved it, have been dramatized by Hatch.

The book also documents many other firsts: The first unwielded barrel of solid steel, the first practical percussion-cap breech-loading carbine, the center fire cartridge, the first autoloading shotguns and rifles, and many other developments pioneered by Remington.

Hatch's book will appeal to most of the 300,000 members and 7,000 clubs that go to make up the National Rifle Association, as well as to a whole lot of other people interested in guns. For the dedicated gun collector it is almost a must.

IT'S THE LAW
 in Texas
 A public service function of the State Bar of Texas

Beware Advice of "Barracks Lawyers"

You don't have to be a lawyer in order to form an opinion on a legal subject. However, it is bad business for a layman to pass such an opinion on to others to guide their actions. He may cause them to suffer substantial losses.

Because of the vast intricacies of the law, a simple set of facts often gives rise to difficult legal problems. In spite of this, there are many persons who persist in passing out legal advice on all problems, pounding on the table, quoting rules, and loudly expounding opinions. Beware of those persons, because their free opinions are usually worth what they cost, and often can be the unintended cause of harm to those who rely on them.

For example, George Jones owned a small drug store. He agreed to sell the store to Harry White at a time when he still owed $1000 to various creditors for merchandise he had bought for the store. George and Harry were in the back room one night discussing who would pay these debts. George suggested that they talk to a lawyer.

Just then Wilbur Knowall came into the room, and heard the discussion. He assured them that there was no necessity to see a lawyer. He told George to keep the debts, "to avoid complications." As to telling George's creditors of the sale, Wilbur said that was unnecessary because George was still liable to pay them. George and Harry decided to follow Wilbur's advice.

Several weeks later, after Harry had taken over the store, a rep-representative of one of George's creditors came in and demanded that Harry pay the debt that George had incurred. Harry refused, but went to see a lawyer to make certain. Harry was surprised to learn that he had failed to comply with a Texas Statute in buying the store without giving notice of the sale to George's creditors. He further learned that the sale was void as to them, and that he was liable for George's debts.

This is a common place example of the trouble you can get into when toying with the law. Experienced lawyers often must spend many hours researching a problem before advising their clients as to the best course of action to follow. It is therefore hazardous to rely on the legal advice of well-meaning friends. As in the case of Harry White, that is often the beginning of many headaches.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

 Brownie Troop 58 met for reorganization on September 12, when officers for the coming year were elected. Sherry Lynn Brundrett was elected President, Sue Taylor, Secretary and Janis Clark, Reporter.

Leaders Mrs. Jack Taylor and Mrs. L. C. Taylor led the girls in discussions of their summer activities and assisted them in making plans for the coming years work.

Refreshments were served the group by Sherry Lynn Brundrett.

Another group making plans for the new year's work was Girl Scout Troop 32 which met at the Presbyterian Church on September 18. New leaders for this troop are Mrs. James B. Jackson and Mrs. T. E. Lee.

After the group completed its discussion of projects for the forthcoming year, Jean Miller sang a prayer and the group sang "When'ere You Make a Promise", renewing the Girl Scout Promise.

Nan Jackson was hostess to the following girls: Betsy Fields, Tamara Camelh, Betsy Sparks, Judy Deason, Azalea Shivers, Darlene Evans, Jean Miller, Terry Ann Wilson and Carla Lee.

Girl Scout Troop 5 met at the Little House for its regular meeting on September 24, with its same leaders from last year, Mrs. Walter Stryker and Mrs. G. R. Rowe.

The activity for the day was a discussion of good grooming. Divided into three parts, the program consisted of demonstration of good nail care, grooming the hair, and the proper use of make-up for young girls. Participating in presenting the demonstrations were Sherry Lee McElwee, Ronnie Lassiter, Linda Jo Dowdy, Pamela Landgraf, Sue Eller, Betty Stryker, and Sherri Garrett.

Dorothy Rowe served refreshments to the leaders, the girls presenting the program and Effie Lown.

Brownie Troop 43 will meet again this year at the Fulton Lion's Club building with Mrs. F. L. McCord who organized this troop 3 years ago.

The regular meeting on Sept. 20 was presided over by Lynn Campbell, chairman. Sallie McCord collected dues. The girls were reminded to bring one dollar to the next meeting in order to re-register the troop.

In making plans for a cook-out at the next meeting, the girls were taught to make stoves for cooking. These stoves have the Girl Scout name "Buddy Burners".

After playing games, the meeting closed with a friendship circle and the group singing "Taps". Refreshments were served by Florence Casterline assisted by Sallie McCord. Girls present were Darla Utley, Sallie McCord, Carla Utley, Florence Casterline, Karen Large and Lynn Campbell.

Brownie Troop 58 made a field trip to the Marine laboratory on September 19. Miss Patricia Pew conducted the tour through the laboratory explaining the various specimens of marine life and answering the girls questions.

The group was accompanied by leaders Mrs. Jack Taylor and Mrs. L. C. Taylor. Making the trip were Sue Taylor, Mary Lou Johnson, Sherry Lynn Brundrett, Bobby Taylor, Janis Clark and Elizabeth Peres.

After the tour, Janis Clark was hostess for refreshments at Mary's Malt.

Porpoises Have Sense Of Humor, Curiosity, And Imagination

The porpoise is a superior animal, with a sense of humor, curiosity, and imagination more highly developed than that of a dog. A member of the whale family, whose far-off ancestors tried the land and then returned to the sea, his distant kinship with the deer and cow are unmistakable.

So says Ralph Nading Hill, writing in "Window In the Sea," soon to be released by Rinehart.

From this point on Hill delves into the mysteries of porpoise life as observed through the portholes of Marineland, the giant aquarium a few miles south of Saint Augustine, Fla. His portrait of the porpoise family and their troubles, complete with a problem child, makes the most delightful reading on the sea since Rachel Carlson's best seller.

But even life in an aquarium has its ups and downs, and when four pilot whales were placed in the great tanks along with the porpoises, business really picked up. Herman, the only one who survived even for a time, was acceptable to some of the porpoises but never really a member of the fraternity, and when he became part of a porpoise-whale triangle completely lost out and was slaughtered by a jealous lover.

There has long been a superstition among mariners that porpoises will save drowning men by pushing them to the surface, or protect them from sharks by surrounding them in defensive formation. However, Hill points out that no matter how intelligent these little whales may be, it is probably a mistake to credit them with any motive of life saving. On the occasions when they have pushed an unconscious human being ashore, Marineland biologists think that they have more likely done it out of curiosity or for sport. If, he says, they have protected humans from sharks it may have been because curiosity attracted them and because the scent of a possible meal attracted to the sharks, which were driven away or rammed behind the gills by the porpoises and killed.

Another most interesting chapter in the book concerns man's conquest of sharks, all because commercial shark fishermen in the United States had noted that live sharks were repelled by dead ones that had begun to decompose.

Sparked by the plight of fliers and sailors cast adrift in the South Pacific during World War II, the idea had its inception at Marineland; jelled at the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service's Marine Laboratory in Massachusetts; and was proven off Ecuador and Australia. This research saved many a flier's and sailor's life in the Pacific, and even today has its commercial applications.

However, Hill writes of all sorts of interesting things besides sharks and porpoises. There was a giant jewfish that, like some humans, died with a liver so riddled with fat that it couldn't function. Another of the tribe was seen swallowing a stingray so big that for two days his tail stuck out of the jewfish's mouth!

Octopuses, sea turtles, beaugregories, moray eels, and half a hundred other strange inhabitants of the ocean all peer out of "Window In the Sea."

The Aransas County High School P. T. A. will hold a regular meeting Tuesday night, Oct. 2, at 7:30 p. m. in the Cafeteria. Mr. Jack Horton has charge of the program. Coach Borchert will show a film on football. A Social will be held after the meeting.

Mrs. Lovicia Anderson Celebrates Hundredth Birthday With Reunion

Mrs. Lovicia Anderson, the mother of Mrs. C. L. Thomas of Rockport, celebrated her hundredth birthday on September 15, in the home of Mrs. C. E. Kutts, of Oklahoma City, where Mrs. Anderson lives.

Among the more than one hundred cards, gifts, flowers and telegrams that poured in from all over the nation was one from the President and another from Mamie Eisenhower, while her picture was on the Hollywood TV program "It Could Be You".

Over hundred guests were present at the party, including five of Mrs. Anderson's six children. Mrs. Anderson has been a frequent visitor in Rockport, flying down from Oklahoma City to visit her daughter here.

Mrs. Thomas D. Pieton left Tuesday to spend a week or ten days in North Carolina.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, It has been the will of Almighty God to call from his earthly abode to his eternal resting place, Theodore James Morrison, and Whereas, The untimely passing of our friend and co-worker has saddened our hearts, and

Whereas, The ties of friendship are broken and the book of his life is closed by the messenger that sooner or later comes to each of us, we bow in submission to Divine Providence, therefore, Be It Resolved: That the High School Alumni Association express to the wife, son, parents, sister, brothers and other relatives of our departed member, its sympathy in their hour of great sorrow.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, a copy furnished the Rockport Pilot for publication and another spread upon the minutes of the organization.

Respectfully Submitted,

Aransas Pass Carnival Plans Made

Plans were set up Monday for the Sixth Annual Halloween Carnival at the home of Mrs. J. M. Attaway, Third Vice President and Finance Chairman of the Faulk-Kieberger Faculty Club of Aransas Pass. The date for the Carnival was set for October 20th with the Coronation ceremonies for the King and Queen on October 18th.

Mrs. Jarrell Spears, Assistant to Mrs. Attaway and publicity chairman, announced that these plans are to be presented to the teachers and room mother chairman at a meeting to be held Thursday, Sept. 27 at 4 p. m. in the Kieberger cafeteria and all members are urged to be present.

It was planned that selection of the Carnival King and Queen be by popular vote, on secret ballot, this year and voting will begin this Friday with selection for each room. The following week a representative will be voted to represent each grade. The final vote on the six candidates will be held on Wednesday afternoon, October 17. The results of this voting will be kept secret until the Coronation ceremony which will be held in the High School gymnasium at 8 p. m. The Queen will be crowned by the outgoing Queen, Carol Johnson. Prior to this year the Queen was chosen on the penny a vote basis.

An Amateur Show will be held in conjunction with the coronation and the winner will be chosen by ballots given those in attendance at the door.

There is a parade scheduled for Saturday afternoon preceding the carnival beginning at 5 p. m. It will be formed at the Commercial Motor Co. proceed down Commercial St. to Wilson Ave. and proceed down Wilson to the Carnival Grounds at the Kieberger School!

All proceeds derived from the Coronation and the Carnival will be used to purchase equipment and necessities of the Faulk and Kieberger Schools.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Vick and children of Sonora, Texas, returned to their home after a weeks visit with Mrs. Will Hawes.

Lou Benningfield who is working in San Antonio is now attending night school and taking business english.

DON'T SHOOT!

A Whooping Crane on its wintering grounds at the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge in Texas. This bird is one of 27 wild adult Whooping Cranes left in the world. It has a wingspread of 7 feet and stands 4 feet tall. In flight the "Whooper" shows black wingtips. Because it may be mistaken for other white birds, hunters are asked not to shoot at any large white bird.

AUGUST SAVINGS BOND SALES AMOUNT TO $2234

August Federal savings bonds sales in Aransas County amounted to $2234, according to Fred Bracht, county chairman. Bracht said that this amounts to only 48.4% of the quota set for this county, although the year is about three quarters over.

'Esplanade of Light' Planned for Fair

Visitors to the 1956 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 6-21, will be dazzled as they enter the fairgrounds by the brilliant "Esplanade of Light" which will transform the concourse just inside the main gates into a spectacular vista of dramatic illumination and scenic water effects. The lighting will be the most striking since the Texas Centennial Exposition in 1936. This artist's impression of how the Esplanade will look at night shows how it will utilize enough electricity to light a small city and a total of 1,772 fountains of water shooting high into the air. The manmade scenic wonder is co-sponsored by the State Fair and Dallas Power and Light Company.

Shrimp landings have been better during the past month, with demand keeping ahead of the supply, a situation that has resulted in better prices. The following day-by-day report is given in thousands of pounds of tails. For 72 hours ending Aug. 27 40,400. For 24 hours ending Aug. 28 11,700. For 24 hours ending Aug. 29 17,400. For 24 hours ending Sept. 4 8,000. For 24 hours ending Sept. 6 8,700. For 24 hours ending Sept. 7 15,100. For 24 hours ending Sept. 19 31,400. For 24 hours ending Sept. 20 20,900. For 24 hours ending Sept. 21 15,700. Landings of commercially-caught fish and shellfish at Texas ports during July 1956 totaled 16.6 million pounds compared with 16.8 million pounds reported for the corresponding month of 1955. While all important food species, particularly shrimp, showed reduced landings in July 1956, this decrease was partially offset by an increase of 1.4 million pounds in the catch of menhaden. During the eleven-month period ending with July 1956, total landings of all fish and shellfish at Texas ports amounted to 91.2 million pounds. Compared with the same period of the preceding fiscal year, this was a decline of 20 percent.

concentrations of population, that is the Corpus Christi Area and the Lower Valley Area, which are not designated Federal highway areas, with the largest concentration of population, Houston, which is on the Federal highway layout. (2) Because of the largest Naval Air Station in the world being in Corpus Christi, and because of the other military installations at Victoria, Beeville, Kingsville, Harlingen, etc., we feel an expressway is needed for defense purposes. (3) Because we have the greatest concentration of oil and gas in the area, and because of the tremendous expansion of essential industry in the area, it is similarly felt that the expressway is a "must."

When one analyzes the potential of the expressway in the development not only of our area but the entire state itself, and considers its importance from a trade, industrial, and defense angle, one can readily realize why we are so enthusiastic over this project and are doing everything possible to implement it.

The following letter from W. H. Furlong, for more than 40 years a United States Representative, National Highway Director, Republic of Mexico, and Director General of the Inter-American Highway Association, addressed to Arthur Bracht, president of the Rockport Chamber of Commerce, directs his attention to some of the things that should interest this community in any such program:

"For reason of my very close association of more than 40 years with the development and promotion of modern highways, says Mr. Furlong, primarily in Texas and the Republic of Mexico, I am taking the liberty to present to you, as president of the Rockport Chamber of Commerce, the portrayal of a major highway project which, if brought to a successful conclusion, would prove vastly inimical to the general interests of communities contiguous to Highway 35, between Houston and Gregory. It would appear that a very definite preference is held by the Houston contingent for this particular route, with a terminus at the Mexican border.

The economic value to any community favored by location on a major highway, especially one bearing a Federal designation such as U. S. 59, may not be overestimated, a matter having been eminently recognized for many years, by the civic and other interests of Houston, whose alertness and unceasing efforts in that direction, and in the general development and exploitation of those projects lying within the Houston trade territory has been evidenced by many developments.

It is noted through a serious of current press and other releases that a sharp revival of the four-lane Federal Highway has recently been launched, with the Corpus Christi Chamber of Commerce and the Coastal Bend Tourist Association taking a very active part, augmented by similar activities and the active cooperation offered by other communities located on or adjacent to its course.

The primary purpose of this influential group is to obtain Federal and State recognition and approval of the construction of a four-lane super highway, running from Houston down U. S. Highway 59 through Victoria, branching off there through Refugio, Sinton, and Robstown, EXCEPT that instead of continuing direct from Refugio to Robstown, thereby by-passing Corpus Christi, a new location to include that important and desirable resort be approved and recommended, following present U. S. 77, through Sinton, then via U. S. 181 to Corpus Christi.

Such a route would at once offer a highly attractive and desirable connection for motor travel originating as far east as Jacksonville, Florida, and thence to Mexico.

This route, as pointed out by Mr. Furlong, would by-pass the coastal cities lying along Highway 35, Rockport among them.

President Bracht, after reading Mr. Furlong's letter, appointed a committee to attend the meeting promulgated by the Corpus Christi group, and their report will be given in next week's paper.

Some time ago a man went into a drugstore and asked for a pound of salts of lemon, a deadly poison. Inquiring into this, the pharmacist learned that the customer meant to use it to prepare a bowlful of lemonade for a friendly picnic. The pharmacist realized that what his customer wanted was citric acid — sometimes called salt of lemon. The poison is misnamed and does not come from lemons.

WATERFRONT—

he had a Mr. and Mrs. Barrow, from east Texas, who caught 191 specks.

Last week we reported that Mrs. Close went fishing with Willie and her son Freddie and his wife, and that Mrs. Close caught a ten and a quarter pound red. Today we learned the rest of the story. According to Willie, and he was backed up by Floyd and Austin Smith, immediately after she had tagged the big one, another, that would weigh sixteen or seventeen pounds, snatched her bait and nearly ran her out of the boat before breaking off. On top of that, these three said, one big crab tried to do the same thing.

Hu Johnson, on the Mary Lou, fished Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Rester and party on Thursday, from Fort Worth, and they tallied with 44 trout. On Saturday he had E. W. Taylor and party, of Houston, who checked in with 61, and on Sunday, W. H. Hewitt and party, of San Antonio, who caught 95 specks.

Curly Floyd had a couple of nice catches. Sam Davidson and W. B. Tummage, Austin, fishing last Thursday, caught eighty trout out of his place, and M. B. Clark and his son, Jimmy Clark of San Antonio, fishing during the weekend, came in with 41 trout and 2 nice pompano.

Out at Rattlesnake Point, high water, the aftermath of the hurricane that struck Florida, made fishing fall off. Nevertheless George Eckert, Monroe Housler, and Bill Alder, of San Antonio, caught 125 nice trout in two days fishing. On Friday, Bill Bardwell, Rockport, and Ernest Simmons, Lovington, New Mexico, strung four big reds and eleven trout. Sunday, Jimmy Pote, San Antonio, checked in with 30 trout and six gafftops. Tuesday John Hoffman and Peter Becker, San Antonio, strung 93 specks. Chile Pursley and party, of Hearne, strung 25 trout and gafftops; and J. R. Jackson of Rockport caught five trout, one of which weighed four pounds, and one four-pound red.

Floyd Smith had a fine week, also. Thursday he fished Mr. and Mrs. Day, Victoria, and they came in with 125 specks. Friday he had Dr. and Mrs. Dretzell of Fort Worth, who caught 212 trout. The same party fished with him again on Saturday and strung 166 more. Sunday he fished Judge "Buck" Jones, of San Antonio, who caught 27 trout. Wednesday he fished Mr. and Mrs. Goodnight, of Beaumont, who came in with 53.

Over at Mills Wharf, Mrs. Lawler, said, W. McCammon, of Corsicana, fished with Harry on Thursday and came in with 49 trout. Friday, Ray Moseley, San Antonio, with Harry, caught 74 specks and Roy Sloerke, Taft, with Herb, strung 75.

Saturday, Mr. Kulan, San Antonio, fished with Eddie Edmondson, and came in with 40; W. L. Dennis, also of the Alamo city, with Harry, caught 48 Saturday and 18 reds, 2 drum, and 2 trout on Sunday. W. A. Frier, Houston, also fished two days. On Saturday, with Ray Washington, he strung 30 fish; Sunday, with Herb, he caught 30 more. Elmer Gustafson, Gonzales, with Herb on Saturday, caught 30 trout.

On Sunday, W. H. Brwn, Dallas, with Ray Washington, tallied with 28 specks, and Ed. Finke, San Antonio, fishing with Eddie Edmondson, caught 22.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, everyone was out building duck blinds; and no one fished.

Fred Christilles had Louis H. Bader and party of Dallas last Thursday, and they caught 82 trout; Saturday he fished Charles T. Gilliam and party of Gonzales. The party was large enough that it required both boats. Those on Fred's came in with 63 fish; the rest, on Bill Crist's boat caught 52. Sunday, Fred had Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wyrick, and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Moore, Victoria, and Mr. and Mrs. Kruger of Yorktown. The party caught 32 trout.

Monday, Dewey Perkins, Oklahoma City, and party strung 53 specks. Wednesday he fished T. A. and Sam Perrone, from Hearne and Dallas, A. P. and C. T. Hoffine, also of Big D, and Mel McFarland, Houston, and they tallied with 53 trout.

Bill Crist had a number of Californians on Thursday, Clem Insley, Pasadena, Stewart Warner, Altadena, and Harold Brown, Las Angeles, as well as Don Cuthill, Gonzales, and Dusty Haberman, San Antonio. The party came in with 66 fish. Sunday he fished Colonel and Mrs. Sam Ladensohn, San Antonio, and Mrs. Pearl Frost, of the same place, and they caught 22 nice trout.

Whoopers Run Gunners' Gauntlet

Already reports have trickled in from Canada that the whooping cranes are on the move, and during the next few weeks the giant birds, last of their kind in the world, will run a gauntlet of gunners from their summer nesting grounds in Wood Buffalo National Park in the Canadian wilderness to their winter home on Blackjack Peninsula.

Each year, during their fall flight, these huge birds are placed in jeopardy by over-eager hunters, ready to shoot at anything that moves; completely ignorant of any idea but meat in the pot! Yet the cranes are among the easiest of all birds on the American continent to distinguish. The largest and most stately of all migratory waterfowl, they stand more than four feet high and are snow white except for sharply etched black wing tips, black legs, yellow bills and bare red crowns to their heads. Of course the young are rust-colored, although as large as the older birds when they start south, but there is one mark, easily spotted, that should protect them from any gunner. This is the long, black legs that are carried astern, not folded against the body.

The whooping cranes generally leave their Canadian sanctuary in late September or early October, flying in small groups, accompanied by their young ones, hatched during the summer. The length of time required for the trip varies. Some birds arrive at the Rockport refuge as early as mid-October, while others don't complete the flight until late December or early January.

The wintering ground of the famed flock was designated a national wildlife refuge in 1937. It encompasses some 47,000 acres of salt marsh and swamp known as Blackjack Peninsula and although it attracts hundreds of sightseers and ornithologists every year—the birds are carefully protected from intruders. Nevertheless, because of the flatness of the land, the cranes are easily observed from tall towers by the use of binoculars.

Generally they stay on the southeast side of the sanctuary where they establish definite family territories. Each group of old birds, with their young of the year, takes up an area from three-fourths to a mile long, by a mile or more in breadth, while unmated cranes quietly pre-empt somewhat smaller feeding grounds where they spend the winter.

In general, the whoopers are well-behaved, but not very sociable. Two or three adults sometimes associate, but larger groups seldom are found together. Their only squabbles come when a bird fails to observe these territories. Counting the birds every year is no small job. It starts in October and usually continues into January and February. Jeeps, boats, and airplanes are all used to take the census, and when the land-sea-air counts turn out the same three or four weeks in succession, refuge officials assume that the census is complete.

The crane count was started in 1938—the year after the refuge was established—and showed only 18 of the big birds in existence. The highest count was in 1949, when the flock was 34 in number. The whooper's worst enemy over the years has been the thoughtless hunter. This situation has brought about a nationwide campaign over the past few years, urging hunters to watch out for and spare the cranes in their migratory flights. So successful has this been that there were thirty of the big birds counted last fall. Twenty-eight left for Canada this spring, the other two, Jo and Crip, being busy with raising a family in Audubon Zoo in New Orleans. One of the 28 was injured and captured.

Given a break by mankind, the whoopers may succeed in staving off annihilation. A good nesting season this summer might make the difference, and there are a lot of people watching the cranes with fascination, waiting to see what this year's census will bring forth.

HIGH, WIDE, AND HANDSOME.

John Mottois of Prescott figured every inch had seen just about everything in 30 years of racoon hunting until his dog treed two coons a number of yards apart and was chasing back and forth barking "treed" at each one. This kept both ringtails up until Hottois arrived. — Bert Stoll, Detroit (Mich.) Free Press.

HOT FISHING.

Dr. Chet Vogel and Gene Pennington of Lake Wales caught only one fish on a Kissimmee River bass trip, but they had a hot time. Noting that their motor was overheated, they checked the water intake pipe and found it plugged by a big catfish which had been caught up by the suction. — Bobby Hicks, Tampa (Fla.) Tribune.

RETIREMENT PLAN.

Paul Landis, supervisor of physical education for Ohio schools, reports a growing trend toward teaching children a lifelong hobby like fishing, hunting, sailing, or skiing instead of competitive athletics which most children drop when they leave school. The program will not interfere with regular interscholastic sports. — Hank Andrews, Cleveland (Ohio) Plain Dealer.

The word "dose" comes from the Greek dosis, "giving." The pharmacist studies doses in a course called "posology," derived from the Greek posos, meaning "how much?"

All medicines come from one of four sources—animal (thyroid is an example), vegetable (rhubarb), mineral (sodium bicarbonate), or chemical laboratory (sulfa drugs).
