He is well aware may be disappointed at first, but hopes the bulk of the audience will be satisfied. There will be a matinee on Saturdays and Sundays at 3:30 as in the past, but not a continuous performance thru to the evening show. After one matinee showing the theatre will close down and the auditorium emptied of all patrons. This means again that you must be on time to see a complete show. Such a policy is necessitated in an attempt to cut overhead to a minimum, and will result in quite a savings in labor, heat, and electricity. TV has made quite an inroad into theatre attendance, no matter how temporary it might be, and Mr. Barnard is firm in his belief that the downtown area still needs a theatre.

Admission to the Surf, generally, will be 50c for adults and, 25c for children. However, as an' inducement to family attendance,

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Just Call Me Cupid

The counter down at Pete's was full yesterday, except for three seats near the end, so I plunked myself down on the middle one.

As I took my first sip of coffee a cute young couple came in-a girl in her early twenties followed by a fellow perhaps a year or two older. Without saying a word, they took the only two seats lefton either side of me.

Remembering my younger days. I insisted the young man take my seat so's they could be together. He hesitated at first, then finally he shrugged, grinned and said to the girl, "Well, let's make him happy. My name's 'Ricky'. What's yours?"

From where I sit, there was no harm done that time, but jumping to conclusions can be embarrassing. In fact, it's sometimes mean and intolerant-like the way some folks jump to the conclusion a man's "wrong" to prefer a glass of beer over another beverage. Lack of facts coupled with lack of judgment introduces trouble.

ination has been made of the books and records of the City of Rockport, fiscal year, October 1, 1955, to September 30, 1956. We have examined procedures of the city, and, without making a detailed audit of all transcamined or tested accounting records and other supporting evidences by the extent we considered appropriate. Our examination was made in generally accepted auditing standards applicable in the circumstances, ocedures considered necessary.

es collected, as well as various other receipts issued, were traced to the e General Fund Account in the First National Bank of Rockport, Texas, of four funds: the General, Street Maintenance, Schoolhouse Refunding er Improvement Bond Fund. The deposits and disbursements of this bank been charged and credited on the books to one of these funds. During the bonds and coupons were paid on the Sewer Improvement Bonds. The barries fund was transferred to the General Fund. Also, $829.08 was the General Fund to close it out. These two transfers leave only the choolhouse Refunding Bonds Fund making up the General Fund Account the end of the fiscal year.

Christmas Play

A Christmas play entitled, "A Certain Star", will be presented were also present and prizes were Tuesday morning, December 18, at 10:30 a. m. at the A. C. H. S. Auditorium.

Strong and wonderful are the happenings this night: "A Cer-The offering was for needy fami- tain Star" beams its light and rison, vice-president; Mrs. A. Home who is the protege of the it is said, could happen on the night the Christ Child was born; and this powerful idea predominates the mysterious events which befall a particular little band of ill-assorted watchers gathered together on a housetop in a nearby

> There is the Old Woman (Joyce Ann Griggs) the embodiment of an evil that cannot die. There's Esther, (Marie Holland) who believes in the power of goodness; and her little sister Ruth (Sue James) who does not wish to lead a life of thievery and cutting purses. She yearns only for a little kitten to love. There's the jovial, sightseeing Merchant (Allen Thomas) whose jingling purse is such a temptation to unstable deceptive young Dismas (Charles Waggoner), the thief destined eventually to die on the cross next to the Son of God who is to be born this night.

This Christmas drama is universal in theme but highly unusual in its development.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

This play is produced by special arrangement with Row, Peterson, and Company, Evanston, Illinois, and White Plains, New Yordk.

Miss Ballou Is Entertained

Miss Sarah Ballou, bride-elect of John Isaacs of Beeville, was honored at a shower at the educational building of the First Baptist Church Friday night. Hostesses were Mrs. W. S. Coaker and Mrs. B. W. McDonald.

The tea table was laid in white linen and the centerpiece was a miniature bride and groom under an archway of red roses and greenery, on either side of which labra and ceramic angels.

Miss Judy Mullinax was at the register and Miss Brenda Mundine and Miss Darnell Barber served.

Red bougainvilla blossoms extended the length of the gift table with angels at intervals and Janie Ballou and Julia Thompson, nieces of the honoree, assisted in opening and displaying the gifts.

Miss Ballou and Mr. Isaacs will be married Dec. 23 at the First Baptist Church.
