It may interest you to know that, based on the present status and expected growth of Texas Public Schools, the State is faced with the following need for teachers: For increase in pupil attendance, 3,000 to 3,500 each year; to replace teachers leaving because of retirement or for employment outside the teaching profession, 10,000 to 10,500 new teachers, making a total, by 1960, of between 36,000 and 40,000 new pedadgogues.

Out of the teachers presently employed, 70,000 have bachelor's degrees or better, while there are two thousand non-degree teachers employed on an emergency

During the past seven years, the average daily attendance increase has amounted to 424,640, while the expected average daily attendance between now and 1960 is 374,000. 1955-56 were 1,760,800; there were an estimated 92,692 scholastics

Den Five

Den 5 met Tuesday, February 26, in the Roaten home with Mrs. Herbert Mills and Mrs. Roaten. The meeting was opened with the Scout Promise.

Attendance was checked and dues were collected by Gary Stry-ker, Keeper of the Buckskin. Business was conducted by denner Charles Picton. New officers were elected. Roy Alan Rogero was elected denner, Kenneth Dullye assistant denner and Herby Mills, Keeper of the Buckskin.

The March theme, "Indian Trails" was discussed and plans were made for starting Indian craft to be completed at home by the next den meeting. Various Indian tribes were discussed.

Brownies and Coke were served to the following cubs: Kenneth Dullye, Roy Alan Rogero, Gary Stryker, Charles Picton, David Picton, Herby Mills, Bart Rozzell and Shelley Roaten.

The meeting was closed with the Wolf Howl.

The Fulton Brownie Scouts have collected two large boxes of clothing to aid the Hungarian refugees thus practicing international friendship while at the same time participating in a worth while project.

These Brownies are now making plans for Girl Scout Week and working on their tenderfoot requirements as the troop "flies up" into intermediate scouting this

CORRECTION

In last week's story about the Electronic Cooking Center, it was mistakenly reported to the Pilot that the Rockport Electric Company installed the first unit. This unit was sold by the Rockport Electric Company to B. B. Bettell and H. H. Dick, local contractors who are installing it in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Richardson in Aransas Pass.
