

Along The Waterfront

Fishing hasn't been so hot, both because there are fewer fish, apparently, and certainly because there are fewer fishermen. Out at Mills Wharf Cap says that they will soon be building duck blinds and that a few sprigs, teal, and geese have already started to come in.

However, he reported:
Friday: B. B. Wadley, Houston, 56 trout.

Saturday: Major Earl Arden, Dallas, 59; Lee G. Goliath, Houston, 68; Mr. Becker, 41.
Sunday: Frank Dailey, 32; Bob Carsey, Houston, 29; Mr. Kaffie, Corpus Christi, 43.

Out at Rattlesnake Point, Mrs. Faucett had a light report, also.
Sunday: Kenny Roethe and (Continued on Page 8)

USO Is United Fund Agency

There is mud most of the year, ice and snow part of the year and poverty all the time.

But there is also USO. The USO club in Seoul is one of the few places for the thousands of American servicemen stationed in Korea to go for off-duty recreation in this city of 3,000,000. Most restaurants and hotels in the city have been off-limits to military personnel.

Recently, a young soldier came into the club to ask a question of the assistant director. Then he chattered away for a good ten minutes and finally blurted, "Gosh, it's been so long since I've talked to an American girl I don't know what to say!"

She assured him that he was doing all right for himself. Things which most Americans (continued on page 8)

Aransas Butane Has Anniversary

Aransas Butane Gas is having its tenth anniversary sale this week on Friday and Saturday. Noah Taylor says to come in and see the bargains that are available, and carry off one of the free favors for everyone.

Free coffee and cookies are available all day Saturday, he says, and there are some most interesting door prizes. Among them are a Kelvinator Dryer, a Sunbeam mix master, a Sunbeam sauce pan and a Sunbeam fry pan, all of which will be given away after the drawing at 5 p. m. Saturday.

ELTON McCABE, JR. HONOR MAN IN HIS TRAINING COMPANY

Mrs. Katherine McLester recently received a letter from Captain Carl E. Bull, commander of the Great Lakes Training Station in Illinois, appraising her of the fact that her son, Elton McCabe, Jr., had been chosen "Honor Man" of his training company.

The selection is based, according to Captain Bull, on a man's performance in leadership, sportsmanship, military bearing, initiative, response to orders, general cleanliness, personal compatibility and high scholastic standing, and is made after a vote by the men in the company.

McCabe was so voted, and in addition to receiving an Honor Certificate, and a suitably engraved silver identification bracelet, and entry is made on their service record which remains there throughout their navy career.

The certificate of honor and the bracelet will be presented at the Recruit Graduation Review on September 21.

TSSA HOLDS MEETING

The local chapter of the Texas State Teacher's Association met at the High School Wednesday night and discussed their program for the upcoming year. A social hour followed the meeting.

Coastal Towns Planning Ports

Citizens in at least four Coastal Bend cities—Rockport, Aransas Pass, Ingleside and Victoria—are laying their plans for new or larger salt water ports. Recent development on the Federal legislative front have practically assured Rockport, Aransas Pass and Ingleside of easier access to the Intracoastal Canal, and guaranteed Victoria the long-awaited canal for which it has been working these past fifty years.

A quarter of a million dollars was included in the 1957 Public Works Bill with which to plan and start construction on an extension of the deep-water channel now serving Carbide's polyethylene plant at Long Mott. Another $890,000 was allotted to the so-called Intracoastal Canal cut-off, which will shorten the route between Rockport and Ingleside, passing close to Aransas Pass.

Citizens of all four communities are making their plans to take advantage of this Federal largesse.

A spokesman for the U. S. Corps of Engineers says that $22,000 of the money set aside for the Victoria channel will be used for planning and development of specifications, and that the other portion of the appropriation would be used for actual dredging of a channel 9 feet deep and an hundred feet wide, starting at Carbide and going to within four miles of Victoria.

Development of the plans is expected to take around ninety days, and the Engineers believe that the (Continued on page 8)

Dan Kilgore of Clarkwood, Presents Band With Records

Dan Kilgore, of Clarkwood, an amateur Texas historian, made a gift to the Rockport schools this week of approximately one hundred records for use in teaching music. The records which were mostly eight classical, were delivered to Band Director Jerry Hoffman by Jack Baughman.

Commissioners' Court Decides No Drag Races Until After More Rain

The Commissioners' Court, at their regular meeting, decided that the Aransas Airport would not be used for drag races this month. Judge Johnny Wendell had said earlier that if some rain did not fall to pack the areas between the runways it would not be practical to allow the races, as spectators' cars would tear the grass up too badly and subject the airport to soil blowouts.

RESIDENT ENGINEER ON RADAR JOB HAS ORDERS TO LEAVE

Dick Ratliff, resident engineer on the radar site, where construction of a station for the 1313th A.C.&W. squadron are almost completed, has received orders from Corps of Engineers headquarters at Galveston to leave for a new assignment.

Ratliff, who has been here since the station was started approximately 17 months ago, will leave on Sept. 20 for Fort Polk, La., where a new housing project is underway.

ROCKPORT, FULTON LIONS HONOR LADIES

Ladies Night was observed jointly by the Rockport and the Fulton Lions Clubs Monday night at Little Bob's in Aransas Pass. Approximately 60 persons attended.

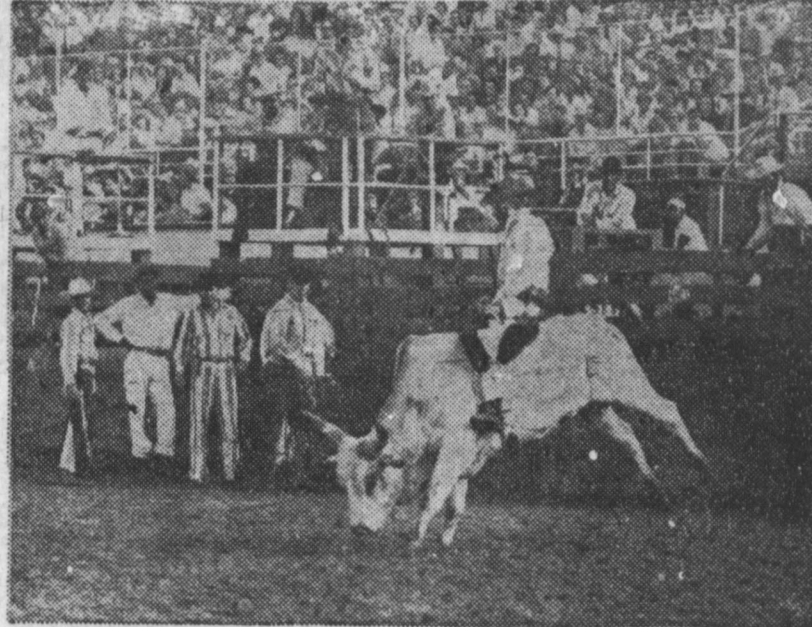

J. C. May, president of the Fulton Club, presided. Carl Osborn, deputy district governor, brought a message from the district governor.

Dave Segler, president of the Rockport Club, and assistant football coach for the Aransas County High School, gave a resume of the prospects of the team for the season.

Mrs. Henry Schoonour underwent surgery in Memorial Hospital Wednesday morning. She is doing nicely and is in room 256.

Mrs. Floyd Huffman and Mrs. Gerald Huffman, Diana and "Little Bub" of Durango, Colo. came in Tuesday for a week visit with Mrs. Steig and Mr. and Mrs. Buddy McLester.

HIGH VOLTAGE!

A convict cowboy seems to be headed for trouble as his thrashing, thundering Brahma Bull takes off for the "Wild Blue Yonder." The above action shot was taken at the Texas Prison Rodeo at Huntsville. This is just one of the many thrilling events offered at the 26th annual Prison Rodeo each Sunday during October in the prison's million-dollar stadium.

Katherine B to be First Air Conditioned Shrimp Boat In Texas, Says Begnaud

Begnaud's Marine Service, of Rockport, is outfitting what is probably the first air-conditioned fishing vessel in the world—the 83-foot Katherine B—which will engage in the shrimp fishery in the Gulf of Mexico.

According to G. P. Begnaud, the owner, the 83-foot, converted Coast Guard cutter was purchased by him in 1950, and used as a shrimp trawler at that time, with a conventional deck house and shrimping gear aboard. The long deck aft of the house was open except for hatch covers leading into the hold which would carry a 100 barrels of shrimp after it was iced down.

At that time, because of her large size, the vessel made a number of trips to the Campeche grounds on the southern side of the Gulf, as well as operating off the Texas and Louisiana coasts.

However, three years ago, when offshore drilling began to pick up, Begnaud converted her to a crew boat by removing her shrimping gear, and adding an aft deckhouse and a flying bridge.

New Court Reporter Draws 6% of Salary From Aransas County

Gene Chatham, newly appointed court reporter of the 156th District Court, against whose salary of $6,600 a year the commissioners' court of San Patricio has leveled a withering blast, draws six per cent of his salary, or $33 a month from Aransas County.

However, over in San Patricio County, the commissioners, whose county is assessed with major portion of Chatham's salary, have expressed strong displeasure at the action of Judge Joe Wade, of Beeville, in setting Chatham's stipend at the maximum allowed by law.

"We've never paid any new employee the maximum salary," said E. H. Jackson, of Odem, "and if we have any say over the matter I'm against approving that figure."

County Judge William E. Nicholas told the commissioners that the presiding judge has the sole authority to set the court reporter's salary. Nicholas said that the only choice the commissioners' court has in the matter is on what county fund bears the burden.

San Patricio County pays 52% of the salary of the court reporters of the 36th and 156th Judicial Districts. Bee County is assessed 27%; Live Oak contributes 13%; Aransas' share is 6%; and McMullen has to cough up 2%, for the total figure is apportioned on the basis of population in the five counties making up Judicial Districts 36 and 156.

Chatham's salary is $3,000 more than that paid to Harvey Harrell, veteran court reporter of the 36th Judicial District. It is $900 more than the salary of Paul Hoffman, reporter of the six-county 135th District.

Jackson said the new 156th district court will cost San Patricio County $2,056 more a year in the court reporter's salary alone than when the county was in the 135th district. San Patricio County was taken out of the 135th district when the 156th district became effective Sept. 1.

"Our experienced court reporters have not drawn the maximum salary and I'm against paying it to a beginner," Jackson said.

The Odem commissioner last said he plans to introduce a resolution at the fall convention of the County Judges and County Officials Association asking for a law to restrict a district judge from setting any salary before he has conferred with the counties involved.

In addition to the salary of $6,600, Chatham as court reporter is allowed to collect fees for transcripts and also is allowed travel and hotel expenses.

Special Gifts Committee Meets Wednesday

The United Fund Special Gifts Committee, which will solicit contributions prior to the opening of the drive on October 2, met at the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday night and planned their program of solicitation.

On Jack McDavid's committee the following workers attended:

Reverend A. Arnott Ward, J. F. Brundrett, Ellis Clark, Tom Roper, Byron Hardeman, Grady West, Mrs. Joe H. Slocum, Mrs. J. C. May, Mrs. Rita Utz, Walter Heldenfels, E. M. Adams, Mrs. Charles A. Roe Sr., Mrs. R. E. Rice, Homer Faber, Dudley Bracht, Charlie Duck, A. C. Glass, E. T. White, Norvell Jackson, Zeph Rouquette, Ernest Jones, Dick Picton, Jimmy Sorenson, Randy Stivers, Roy Rogero, Ed Barnard, Chester Johnson and A. C. Shivers.

The committee headed by Urban Chupe and Lauriano Falcon, as co-chairmen, consists of Daniel Corpus, Leopoldo Villa, Giles Dominguez, Pete Ramirez, Jr., Robert Garcia, Edward Pena, Mrs. Clara Nava, Candelario Torres, Valentino Flores, and Furman Benavides will meet Tuesday night at the Chamber of Commerce, to work up their part of the program of solicitation.

Drive chairman Jack McDavid said that plans were proceeding nicely for the drive October 2, but says that many volunteer workers will be needed on that day. Anyone interested in helping should report at the Woman's Club that morning at nine o'clock, he said.

Rockport Elementary P-TA Needs Workers

The Rockport Elementary Parent-Teachers Association at the start of a new school year, finds itself faced with a shortage of active members, without which it feels it will be handicapped during the coming year.

"The Association needs all the membership and all the active workers possible," said Mrs. Wanda Sparks, "because there is a lot of work to be done that only an organization like this can do."

It has been pointed out time and again by educators and law enforcement officers that Parent-Teacher Associations can aid in taking practical and effective community action to combat juvenile delinquency—stressing prevention as well as treatment.

Guided by wise and experienced leadership, they can share in determining the kind of school program that inspires good teaching and effective learning; stressing fundamental knowledge, skill to find a job, and faith in God, their fellow men and themselves.

Moreover, through their organization they can keep informed on the findings of all those who have made a life work of understanding young people, and see that these findings are put into practice in local schools.

This program is based on the theme: "The Family and the Community: Each Shapes the Other. The P. T. A. Serves Both."

In so doing, parents can work with other citizens who care about what happens to children and youths in their homes, schools and communities, and cooperate with other citizens to foster the character development and spiritual education of all of our young people.

Rare Cattle Egret Seen Here Tuesday By Mrs. Jack Hagar, Who Says This Is Second Occurrence In Area Since 1955

Tuesday morning an African emigrant arrived in Rockport and Mrs. Jack Hagar, nationally-known bird authority, called up, all out of breath she was so excited, to say that it was a cattle egret—a very rare bird indeed.

This visitor makes the second time these birds have been seen in Texas. The first occurrence was confirmed by Mrs. Hagar over

Pavement Contracts Can Be Let Next Summer State Engineer Says

M. G. Yoes, resident engineer for the State Highway Department at Corpus Christi, says that his office is working on plans for Loop 70, that part of Highway 25 known as the business route, and that as far as his office goes, the contracts for renovation of the route can be let next summer.

The route will be rebuilt entirely, largely utilizing the present right of way, with some relief at the two bad corners south of town where the highway makes two almost 90° turns.

Beginning at Highway 35 below the old triangle, new 24-foot pavement will be installed to First Street. From First Street on to Market Street, the street will be forty-four feet wide, with curb and gutter, and from Market Street to the point where the loop rejoins Highway 35, the project will be a minimum of 64 feet in width, with curb and gutter, and at places this will even widen to around 70 feet, Yoes said.

As part of the program, he continued, on Market and Austin a storm sewer will be an integral part of the design, and will be built at the same time the street is constructed.

At the southern intersection with the highway, there will be a small channelized traffic intersection, much like those utilized at Aransas Pass, and at the northern end, there will be a much larger intersection constructed, using some of the land the Navigation District owns at that point.

All county right-of-way has already been secured, Yoes said, and the city is in process of securing the small amount of land needed within the city limits.

Total cost to the city of the project will amount to approximately $60,000, the resident engineer said, before the project is completed, and this money must be available before contracts can be let.

State Agencies Join In Safety Education

County Judge John D. Wendell said today that three state agencies have joined in urging the continuation of a state-wide program to acquaint the public with the Texas law requiring all vehicles to stop when approaching a school bus loading or unloading children.

The Texas Education Agency, the Texas Highway Department, and the Texas Department of Public Safety are making a joint request that school superintendents, newspapers, radio stations, and television stations participate in efforts to acquaint drivers with the school bus law.

The law says in effect, that upon meeting or overtaking a school bus which has stopped on the highway for the purpose of receiving or discharging children, the driver of any vehicle shall stop immediately before passing. After coming to a stop the driver of the vehicle can proceed with due caution at a speed which is prudent and does not exceed ten miles per hour. The law does not apply within city limits.

Vehicles are not required to stop on highways with separate roadways when the bus is on a different roadway from that of a passing vehicle. Vehicles are not required to stop if the school bus is stopped in a loading zone which is part of or adjacent to a controlled-access highway and where pedestrians are not permitted to cross the roadway.

All public school buses are equipped with flasher lights. These flashing lights are used only when the bus is in the process of stopping or is stopped to receive or discharge children.

Mrs. Byron Bush has returned to her home in Sireveport, La., after spending a few days at her summer home here.

two years ago, when during November, 1955, she saw two or three in the sand dunes on the north end of Mustang Island.

The bird, which looks a little like the snowy egrets so common along the coast, is unmistakable, once the differences have been pointed out to you by an expert such as Mrs. Hagar.

The cattle egret is a little chunkier, its legs are greenish instead of black, and most easily noted of all, the yellow bill has a feathered punch beneath it that make the bird look as though it has the mumps!

The excitement that goes with its appearance in these parts stems from the fact that until about five years ago these birds belonged to the Old World, and then, in 1952, one suddenly turned up in Massachusetts, throwing the ornithologists into a tizzy from which they have not yet recovered.

Cattle egrets are natives of Egypt and Spain, western Asia from the Caspian Sea to the Persian Gulf, southwestern Arabia, the Comoro-islands and other countries of similar climate, and is an almost inseparable part of any cattle herd in these countries, as it feeds on the insects stirred up by the animals.

The first bird in history to emigrate to America without known human aid, scientists think that cattle egrets reached South America 20 years ago by the power of the wind and its own wings, a fact that is even more credible when we know that only recently one of these birds banded in Spain was shot in Trinidad, in the West Indies.

The first American birds were found on the east coast, but within the five years that have elapsed since the discovery they have steadily spread south and westward. A banded bird from one of the nurseries near Lake Okeechobee in Florida was shot recently in Mexico, while there was a rookery of cattle egrets in the Louisiana swamps near Lacassine, before Hurricane Audrey.

There seems to be little doubt in the minds of ornithologists that once the birds gain a foothold here they will be a common sight on the coastal prairies. The Veldt-like, semi-arid terrain, oak motts, thicket-lined rivers and great cattle herds are made to order for the cattle egret's needs, and so is the Rio Grande Valley at least as far west as New Mexico.

Rockport Sportsmen Met Tuesday Night

There were thirty five members of the Rockport Sportsmen's conservation Association who met at the Woman's Club Tuesday night, Members reported on their discussion last week with commissioners Frenseley and LeBlanc. These commissioners said that an engineering study on Cedar Bayou should be completed in time for construction work to start on the bayou right after the first of the year.

Howard Lee, marine biologist, reported on license sales. Estimates on the number of fishermen who would buy this license were much too low he said. A commercial fishing license carries an added responsibility limiting the size and type of game fish he could take for sale. He said that revenues from license sales would be far in excess of the anticipated volume; that because of increased collections, the laboratory's budget had already been increased.

TWO ROCKPORT MEN AT PRESBYTERY MEET

The Rev. A. Arnott Ward, minister, and J. Fred Brundrett, official representative of the local Presbyterian Church, are attending the meeting of the West Texas Presbytery in San Antonio.

A memorial service for the late Rev. W. H. Morrison of Rockport was held Tuesday night. The commission for the service included the Rev. Ward, chairman, the Rev. T. H. Pollard of Waco, formerly of Rockport, and H. M. Everhart of Corpus Christi.

Pirates Bow to Panthers After Game Fight

The Rockport Pirates, after a game fight in which they held their opponents scoreless during the first part of the contest, fell a victim to their lack of depth, and bowed to the Aransas Pass Panthers Friday night, 31-0.

Except for one near touchdown by the Panthers in the first quarter, the two teams battled it out in the middle of the field most of the first half. In this period Juan Moreno, Panther quarter faked to fullback Roger Wallis, cleared right end and pitched the ball to Romie Chadwick who galloped 71 yards for a touchdown that was called back, because the referee's whistle had already blown before he received the pitch out.

The Panthers kicked off and Satsky made a fifteen yard run back, giving Rockport the ball on its own twenty five. Adams landed off to Cabaniss, who made a couple, and then Adams kept, making three more. On the next play five yards was chalked off against the Panthers, and it was Rockport's ball on the 35 yard line, first down and ten to go. Satsky made a yard; then Adams pitched out to Satsky, who was swarmed under and lost four. A pass from Adams to Townsend was incomplete, and then Satsky punted for 34 yards and the Panthers took over on their own 34.

Collette trundled through the line for a single; Roger Wallis, the fullback, made four, and then Moreno, the Panther's quarter, dropped a five-yard pass into the hands of Sam Collette and the Aransas Pass had made their yardage for a first down. Chadwick made three; Moreno kept and made a yard; Sam Collette raked up four around left end, and then Chadwick fumbled on his own 39, and Rockport took over.

Satsky went through center for two; Adams handed off to Cabaniss who raked up three more over left end; Mike Townsend dropped the ball and it was recovered by the Panthers.

Alex Harvey, hustling halfback for the Aransas Pass team, went through center for a yard; then he made five more around left end. Sam Collette made the needed yardage, and it was the Panther's first down on their own 40. On the first play, came the controversial run already referred to, which was called back. Moreno then made four, and seventeen for the first down, winding up on Rockport's 39.

Bobby Holt make 6 through the line; Moreno kept, and went through the center of the line for a couple before giving it to Sam Collette on the next play, which netted two more. This was the end of the quarter.

Opening up on the other end of the field, Harvey was thrown for a loss of four; Moreno was swarmed under for loss of six more, and Rockport took over on their own 28.

Cabaniss punched center for two; Adams kept and skirted right end for one. On the next play, Satsky made five, and then, on the fourth down, a five yard penalty was called against the Pirates and Satsky booted it for 27 yards.

The Panthers came out of their huddle on the 22, on the first play after receiving the punt, and Sam Collette tried to go and couldn't; Holt then cracked the line for three; Collette skirted left end for another, and then

Chadwick got his toe under a high one that Satsky caught on the ten and returned for five more before the Panther line, down on the kick, smothered him.

Clyde Townsend carried through the right side of his own line for three; Satsky drilled center for two, then, on the next play rambled for another seven and first down. Cabaniss tried left end with no luck; a pass from Satsky to Mike Townsend was incomplete, and then Adams hauled off a throw a long heave downfield to Mike Townsend, and this time he caught it for twenty yards.

Adams made two; Adams to Satsky registered another 5; then Satsky was smeared back of the line of scrimmage for a three-yard loss. However, on the fourth down, it looked as though he was going to make it back, for he galloped 32 yards before being called back. He then kicked sixty yards.

The Panthers took over on their own seventeen and Moreno made five; Chadwick added four yards and thirty-five inches, and then Moreno raked up 3 more, just to be sure there was no mistake about the matter.

Out now to their own thirty, the Panthers tried Harvey, who was thrown for a yard loss; Sam Collette made three; Collette went through the line for four; and on the third down, Moreno skirted right end for a 20 yard gain, before pitching out to Harvey who rambled down the field for another 24 yards and a marker. The try for a point was missed and the score was Panthers 25; Pirates 0.

Clyde Townsend returned the kickoff for six yards, then Cabaniss, on a reverse around left end, made 19 yards, and a first down. Satsky passed to Shivers for four; Cabaniss, in another try around left end lost a couple; Satsky picked up 6 yards around right end, and then the Pirates tried the old Statue of Liberty play and lost the ball on a fumble.

On the first down for the Panthers, Caruthers failed to gain. Norman Spears made two; Freedland circled right end for 4, and then Spears kicked for 45. Satsky ran the ball back for 10 to Rockport's 29, and then, on the first play, was thrown for a two-yard loss. Cabaniss powered through center for seven. A pass from Satsky to Rouquette was incomplete, and Rockport kicked, with the Panthers taking over on their own 49.

Wallis, the fullback, fumbled for four; then, on second down, and then, on a trap play that left him plenty of room through the center of Rockport's line, he rambled forty yards for the Panthers' second touchdown, and Curtis Caruthers carried the point, with four minutes still left in the third quarter.

Satsky caught the kickoff and ran it back for five yards, winding up on his own twelve. Cabaniss went through the line for four; Clyde Townsend made a yard, and then, on the next play, he fumbled, and Aransas Pass recovered the ball on Rockport's 20.

Moreno made four; Sam Collette then Moreno bulled his way through the right side of his line for eleven yards and a touchdown, but Gruthers missed the extra point.

The Panthers kicked off and Adams returned for eleven yards to Rockport's 21. Satsky circled left end for 2; Cabaniss went through center for 4, and then Satsky tossed Mike Townsend a pass that was good for fifteen yards, ending the third quarter. However, on the next play, Satsky to Mike Townsend again, the pass was intercepted. A five yard penalty for offside against the Pirates was refused, and the Panthers had the ball on Rockport's 44.

Moreno made two; Collette went through the line for four; and on the third down, Moreno skirted right end for a 20 yard gain, before pitching out to Harvey who rambled down the field for another 24 yards and a marker. The try for a point was missed and the score was Panthers 25; Pirates 0.

Clyde Townsend returned the kickoff for six yards, then Cabaniss, on a reverse around left end, made 19 yards, and a first down. Satsky passed to Shivers for four; Cabaniss, in another try around left end lost a couple; Satsky picked up 6 yards around right end, and then the Pirates tried the old Statue of Liberty play and lost the ball on a fumble.

On the first down for the Panthers, Caruthers failed to gain. Norman Spears made two; Freedland circled right end for 4, and then Spears kicked for 45. Satsky ran the ball back for 10 to Rockport's 29, and then, on the first play, was thrown for a two-yard loss. Cabaniss powered through center for seven. A pass from Satsky to Rouquette was incomplete, and Rockport kicked, with the Panthers taking over on their own 49.

Wallis, the fullback, fumbled for four; then, on second down, the referee called a fifteen yard penalty against Aransas Pass for clipping, and when Spears was smothered for a yard loss on the next play, he dropped back into punt formation and got away a booming 66 yard kick which went into play on Rockport's 22 yard line, after a five yard penalty for delay of the game had been assessed against Aransas Pass. Adams passed to Mike Townsend for seven yards, and first down. Clyde Townsend tried but couldn't go; an Adams pass to Rouquette was incomplete; then Satsky fumbled and the Panthers' Ralph Johnson recovered on Rockport's 22.

Harvey made no gain; but Sam Collette skirted left ends for 21 yards and a touchdown, which made the score 31 to 0 in favor of the Aransas Pass team.

Cartwright booted the kickoff forty five yards downfield, and Kelly made a six yard runback for Rockport just as the game ended.

The Church of Christ What It Teaches

The Church of Christ teaches that everyone can and should read the Bible for themselves. That they can thereby become wise unto salvation, and understand the Holy Scriptures sufficiently to obey them and become Christians and live the faithful Christian life, and go to heaven in the after while. We were shocked to read in the Magazine section of the last Sunday's Caller-Times an article entitled, "Yes The Bible Is A Confusing Book". The writer said it probably would shock some who thought they could read the Bible for themselves and understand it. But, did you know my friends that our Lord and His apostles taught the very opposite in the following statements; and I would a lot rather take their word than any uninspired man. Now let's see what they did say. Open your Bibles to Jno. 7:17, "If any man will do His will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak myself." And again Jesus said in Jno. 8:32, "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." My friends, does this language of our Lord sound in any way like the Bible is too confusing to be understood? Listen to Jesus again, "Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. Jno. 5:39." Thus our Lord commanded that we search the Scriptures. Now turn to Acts 17:11 and read, "These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so. "Oh that our people would exercise the same degree of nobility by searching the Scriptures for themselves. You do not have the permission or authority of any man to read the Bible for your self: Christ has already given it to you. Now let's turn to Eph. 3:3-5, "How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (As I wrote afore in few words; Whereby when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ.) Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto His holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit." Thus Paul declared that they could understand it now since God had revealed the mystery of the way of salvation through Christ by the Spirit. Beloved friends, we do not need an interpretation, we just need to read it, believe it and obey it. But one more statement from Paul, Eph. 5:17, "Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. My friends, you are cordially invited to attend the services of the Church of Christ where liberal portions of the Scripture are studied and taught in every service.

contract can be let some time this coming spring.

Rockport, which has long had a planned program of expansion, is steadily buying the necessary land south of town to construct an industrial harbor. It is part of the program that, once the Intra-coastal Canal cut-off brings that waterway practically past the mouth of the planned harbor, where dredging costs will be kept at a minimum for the Navigation District, an attempt will be made to get the needed funds to complete the harbor, which will be used for heavy industry and commercial vessels only.

Aransas Pass and Ingleside, which will also be helped by the cut-off, have set the wheels in motion to sponsor a new San Patricio County Navigation District, and will ask the special session of the legislature called for October 14 to create the district with a local bill.

M. G. Yoes, resident engineer for the Corpus Christi district of the department, says that all they are waiting on is approval by the U. S. Engineers of plans now in their office. Objections from the standpoint of navigation have been made to these plans, Yoes said, by some citizens of Aransas Pass, and to overcome these objections would raise the cost of the causeway materially.

A study is being made of the problem, however, and the resident engineer believes some solution can be worked out so that the causeway building can go ahead.

George B. Houston, San Antonio, 32.

Wednesday: W. T. Dotson, Dallas 20; Bill White, Rockport, with Roy Thompkins, caught a red weighing more than 10 pounds. Mr. Thompkins caught eight reds that averaged better than ten pounds each.

Mrs. Faucett says that if you're a good enough fisherman, plenty of reds in the back bays are ready to be caught.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Wagley took some out-of-state friends fishing on Friday, the thirteenth. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Wagley, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lippert of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. H. E. Lippert of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. R. B. Sipe, Rockport. They brought in a nice string of 58 fish, including 56 trout weighing up to 3 pounds, one flounder and a six pound pompano.

Fred Christilles said that Louis Driggers, Burch Cozart, of San Antonio, fished Saturday and caught 94 trout. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Prasek and Mr. and Mrs. Joe V. Gansky, of Poth, caught 64 big ones on Friday the 13th. Mr. E. R. Nolds, Houston, and son, caught 56 nice trout Sunday, and on Monday caught 45 more.

On October 10th, the Methodist men will enjoy a covered dish supper. A speaker and a film will furnish entertainment.

USO IS UNITED

take for granted are a constant source of delight at the Seoul USO indoor plumbing, showers with running and sometimes hot water, electricity that works, though spasmodically on occasion.

Korea is a nation fantastically poor by modern standards. Most of the orphanages and schools are operated by various missionary groups. These are no public schools, as we know them, in Korea.

The USO club is a Quonset hut with three small buildings attached not pretty by any means, but the best that could be acquired in the aftermath of war. The space is inadequate to meet current demands.

But there are excellent eating facilities with a wide variety of foods for breakfast, lunch and dinner. There are shower facilities, a barber shop, overseas telephone service and a dormitory.

The dormitory provides sleeping accommodations for fifty men and is filled every night because there is practically no other place for a G.I. on overnight pass in Seoul to stay. Weekends mean that the lounge chairs, table tops, counters and floors will be littered with sleepers, most of them servicemen down from the front area for a change of scenery.

Plans for enlarging the club, which never closes its doors, include additional dormitory space and room for planned recreational programs. Just now the Seoul USO relies heavily on guided tours and a program of home hospitality provided by resident Americans. Women from the American colony cooperate in other ways by serving at the information counter, conducting tours of the city and performing the myriad other tasks of the USO volunteer.

Not long ago a tall, rangy G.I. from the Midwest sped out of the overseas telephone room and skidded to a stop in front of a buddy. "Hey man!" he yelled. "I just talked to my wife back home. Ain't that the most?"

USO staff members in Seoul are inclined to agree. It's the "most" all right. Korea may not be a plush assignment, but it's certainly a challenging—and rewarding one.
