My! the trip to Glorietta was wonderful and inspirational. To be home is wonderful, also. We thank the Lord for Glorietta and "Home"!

We were not present at the S.H.S. luncheon on Saturday noon nor the Banquet Sat. Night. Expect to report on them next week. We returned home late Friday, July 31. Will gather facts concerning the two occasions by next issue of the Star.

At the Friday, July 24 evening meeting of SHS Homecoming we saw out of towners, Helma Cleveland, Eula Berkstresser, Bob Lee, Carolee (Baskin) Campbell, Don McWilliams, Sheila (Donelson) Cates, Mr. and Mrs. C.D. Holmes, Frank and Blanch James and their daughter, Gwyn Tiano; Gwyn's daughters, Pepa and Elisa; Mildred and Andy James; the "Chisum girls" Viola Parker and Violet Roberson and husband; Carol Reed; Joy and Bill Keener; the Tim Flores families, namely: S.F. and Lucy Flores, Modean and Joe Unger; Sybil and John Boney; Emma Lou and Geo. Cannon. In-towners, Wendell and "Sistie" Vincent. The attendance at S.H.S. reunions seems to grow larger each year. It is a grand time to renew old-time friendships and experiences. If you, readers, haven't attended, put the event on your 1988 Calendar and come see us!

Our hamburger fry at Scot Hall July 23 was a lively, friendly affair. Over 100 "scotters" got there for fun and fellowship. Our hosts really did a fine job taking care of us. We welcomed Hal Crawford and his music for entertainment.

The Max Stephenson, their daughter Beth and husband, Larrel Cook, together with children Zae, Amber and Stephenie made a fishing trip to Lake Superior in July. Max caught

by Timmie Brown

some fine fish. Larrel had less luck. They visited Lynn Stephenson and family in Detroit, also.

In searching for Texhoma Times news paper dated in the 1930's, Mrs. Krull found that the files were destroyed by a fire about that time when Mr. Divine was editor. Does anyone have a copy dated Jan. 1934, or 1935? We are reasonably sure that the earlier mention clipping must have been written, 1934.

Velma Plunk is home after several weeks in Amarillo under a Drs. care. Ruby McNeal is recuperating from a hospital stay with her daughter, Rita Joyce, in Colorado.

Hope you read of all the nice events concerning our citizens in the late issues of "The Star". We want to offer special Congratulations to our beloved Audrey Gamble, on the occasion of her birthday party; to the Fergusons and the little League All Stars and coaches.

Gaynell and George Oakley have been visiting mother Corda Pleyer and friends.

We want to assure Derek Wells, Jodi Lasley's son, that we are aware that he is a 5th generation Crabtree descendent.

We heartily commend Gaynelle Riffe for her letter to the Editor in July 30th issue of the Star-also Lynda Hauser for the article she shared with Star Readers in the same issue, Thank you, both.

We have reached another mile-stone in life-our great-grandson, Michael W. Powers, leaves today to be Uncle Sam's Boy. Mike is Lorelyn Powers son, and H. L. Haile's grandson.

Quilting is the S.C.O.T. activity until Aug. 14. Keep cool and comfortable, Scotters. Pass out Luv "u's" and encouraging shoulder pats. We need them!

After a week of near 100 degree temperatures what sounds better than ice cream? That's what we thought, so Friday nite we had an ice cream social. Jesus Wept Twice in the New Testament it is written that Jesus wept. The first such record is in Luke 19:41 where he looked out over Jerusalem led astray by the religious teachers of the day, knowing it would be trampled down by invading armies, and wept. In Matthew 9:36 Jesus looked upon the hurting multitudes, "he was moved with compassion" for he saw them "as sheep having no shepherd". These Scriptures give insight to what Jesus was really moved by; the lost and hurting people who had not trusted him to redeem them. We are told Jesus came to seek and to save the lost. It is evident then that the souls of those who have not yet trusted in Christ a Savior and Lord, are precious to him.

The second recorded weeping of Jesus was at the tomb of his friend Lazarus in John 11:35. It is obvious that Jesus understood and experienced sorrow not only in his own experiences but as it touched others. He is a Lord of genuine concern. Jesus loves people so much He was willing to experience suffering, humiliation and death to pay the penalty of sin for those who would accept him. He cares about our hurts and heartaches so much that he ministers to us through the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus really cares and offers eternal life to those who are willing to come unto him. He cares about your hurts and heartaches and understands your tears. He is the place of peace and rest.

Saturday afternoon we met at Stratford Country Club for a few hours of swimming, eating and talking. We looked at old ELK annuals and scrapbooks of classmates and had lots of good laughs.

Saturday night we all attended the Ex-Students Banquet at the County Barn. We could hardly stop taking long enough to listen to the program! Following the banquet we went home, changed clothes, and met at the City Park for one last, long visit. We stayed at the park until the early morning hours.

We were all impressed with how wonderfully well preserved we all still are! We had an absolutely unforgettable time, and we are already making plans to be together for our 25th Class Reunion.
