Europe A Powder Keg Ready For Match

The ordinary pattern of a revolution is simple and well established: Comparatively radical or liberal elements within a country rise against a conservative or monarchist government. The French and American revolutions are examples of this.

The current Spanish revolution violates the accepted rules. The party in power in Spain — "The Government" — consists of so-called liberals and radicals, whose beliefs range all the way from a mild semi-socialism to communism. The rebels are the reactionaries — the Spanish equivalents of Tories and monarchists.

At this writing, the revolution is still in full swing, and both sides are claiming great victories, both say they are certain of success. Normally such a civil war would not be of any great interest to America and Europe. But the chaotic European and Asiatic situations being what they are, the Spanish revolt is of tremendous international, as well as national, significance.

Today, roughly speaking, all Europe is divided into two camps — fascists and anti-fascists. Germany is fascist. So is Italy. So is Austria. France is anti-fascist. The Spanish rebels, if they succeed, will establish a fascist government in Spain, and, following the German-Italian pattern will rule through power of might, at the expense of all civil liberties. And if they fail, it will still be evident that a substantial minority in Spain is opposed to all liberal tendencies, favors a militaristic dictatorship.

(The present Spanish government leaves much to be desired, in the light of American and British ideas of freedom, but, by comparison with Germany and Italy, it stands solidly for civil liberties.)

To continue, France is the last important mainstay of Democracy in Europe. Even now, she is bordered on two sides by fascist states, which hate her and are hied by her in turn — Germany and Italy. If Spain goes fascist and, as would doubtless follow, enters into an accord with Germany and Italy, France would be almost entirely surrounded by inimical, fascist powers, all longing to tear the Tricolor from its mast. In that case, nothing but a miracle could prevent war.

It is strongly rumored that both Italy and Germany have been encouraging the Spanish rebels, have provided them with arms and other supplies.

In the Far East, Japan wishes to dominate the Pacific, but first, she wishes to dominate Asia. All that prevents the fulfillment of that ambition is Russia, which is possibly the best-armed country in the world, and which has almost limitless resources of all kinds. The experts are certain that in case of trouble, Japan and Germany would enter into an accord, and the enemies of 1914 would become allies.

The whole situation is charged with dynamite — there is no question but that the outlook is much darker even than in the dark days of 1913, before Sarajevo. One of the best of the foreign observers recently said that Europe has been drifting toward war for years — but that now it is marching. That is no exaggeration. And the "little Spanish match" could explode the whole powder keg.

Roaring Springs To Celebrate August 27, 28

Roaring Springs the picturesque little community that gets its name from the springs on Tongue River, will observe Centennial commemoration with an old settlers reunion — the 14th annual gathering of pioneer descendants of that section.

The reunion at Roaring Springs, which is sponsored by the Dickens-Motley Old Settlers Association, will be held on the site of an old familiar landmark. Here men and wild animals quinned their thirst in the early days of West Texas. The springs were the only source of abundant water supply in this section. It is said that Quannah Parker famous Indian chieftain, and his tribe pitched camp at these springs on numerous occasions while on hunting expeditions.

Included in the amusement program for the reunion will be horse races, goat roping, tournament riding and ball games — two full days of entertainment.

Palace Bring Back Best Loved Rogers Film

When America's most beloved comedian contributes his greatest performance to the filmization of a masterpiece of humor, the result is bound to be a picture that lingers long in your memory, one that you will want to see time and again. In other words, Will Rogers' "A Connecticut Yankee."

Reissued by 20th Century-Fox in response to public demand, the picture will be shown at the Palace for the previous Saturday night, Sunday and Monday, bringing back Rogers in the picturization of Mark Twain's great comedy, as the Yankee who put the finishing touches on King Arthur's court.

It is all a glorious medley of fact and fancy, tailored to Rogers' lovable brand of humor. The story, which ties in neatly with present times, carries him back to somewhere in the sixteenth century, and the fun Rogers has in bamboozling and mystifying the knights of those days you will share in watching him.

Myrna Loy and Maureen O'Sullivan play the feminine leads, with William Farnum and Frank Albertson heading the supporting cast of five thousand. An adaptation by William Conselman and gifted direction by David Butler contribute considerably to your enjoyment.

4-H County Winner In Livestock Project To Receive Gold Medal

The Thos. E. Wilson gold medal for the outstanding county 4-H livestock club member is again offered in all counties of Texas announces the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work.

It and other attractive prizes provided in this national contest are to be awarded by club leaders at the close of the feeding and showing season. Reports of county winners must be submitted to the state leader's office to allow for judging before Nov. 2. Forms for the use of contestants may be secured of county agents.

The winner of state honors receives a $50 gold watch and becomes eligible to compete for one of four all-expense trips to the 15th National Club Congress to be held in Chicago November 27 to December 5 in connection with the International Live Stock Exposition. From the four trips winners three will be chosen to receive cash scholarships of $300, $200 and $100.

In addition to giving 19 boys successful in the six annual past contests a start on college careers, participation by hundreds of others has helped them to master problems of livestock production and to establish valuable herds of their own. Their examples also have led to the adoption of better practices by entire communities in livestock farming.

Grandfather George McClain was 90 years old Monday. He is hale and hearty and is expecting to stay on this old earth several more years. He is in so far as we know the only old Confederate soldier living in Kent county at this time.

Whitford Services Held Last Friday

Funeral services for F. C. Whitford of the Highway community, were held at the Kinney Funeral Home here last Friday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock with Rev. Lorraine of Roaring Springs officiating. Interment followed in the Spur cemetery.

Mr. Whitford, 52 years old, was born December 10th, 1884, in the state of Arkansas. He died at his home on the Adams place in the Highway community Wednesday, August 5th. He is survived by his wife and several children. — D. C. Times.

The National Re-Employment Service

For the convenience of those not registered the Employment Service will have an office open in Jayton on Thursday and Friday, August 20 and 21, 1936, at the Old Relief Office. Saturday the office will be open at Girard. This is for the purpose of receiving registrations of Kent County citizens who have not registered and for renewing the applications of those who need to bring their cards up to date. Unemployed men and women, either relief or non relief, are eligible for registration.

Feed Storage

The dry hot weather the past few weeks has greatly reduced our chances of making a good feed crop in this county. Much of this feed can be saved and preserved in good shape if it is put up in a trench silo before it dries up to much. Present prospects throughout the country indicate a short feed crop. A short feed crop means high priced feed next spring. Considering the prospects the local county agent is urging each farmer in the county to take care of this feed so he will not have to buy feed to make a crop on another year.

Lights Installed At The Spur Pool

Lights were this week installed at the new Spur municipal swimming pool, adding greatly to the commercial value of the recently completed WPA project. The night swimming program has already been heavily endorsed by the working public.

The municipal pool, which has been opened less than two weeks, attracted approximately 300 swimmers the first week, before night swimming was inaugurated. Diving platforms have been built and other work toward total completion has been continued uninterrupted in spite of the heavy patronage of the pool.

BUYS PROPERTY

Lester Garner, owner of the Helpy-Selfy Laundry has purchased the building in which the laundry is located and thereby became a property owner in Jayton. He tells us his business is growing all the time and that he is well pleased, in fact so well pleased that he decided to become a property owner.

Uncle John Overton came in yesterday from Lubbock sanitarium where he has been under treatment of specialists for some weeks. He was looking well the very tired from the ride and the terrific heat. We trust Mr. Overton will continue to improve in health until he is again his usual self.

Judge Leonard Westfall was a Jayton visitor Wednesday morning. The Judge is pushing his candidacy for re-election to the office of State representative with much earnestness.

The two candidates for District Attorney, Robertson and Chapman were Jayton and Kent County visitors this week.

Mrs. Earl Harrison and Thomas Earl and Mrs. C. J. Robinson and Mrs. J. B. Earnest went to Hewitt, Sunday to attend the funeral of Mary Beth Van Zant. Mrs. Earl Harrison and Mrs. Marvin Fuller having already been down there several days with the family during their bereavement.

Mrs. K. Combs and Billy K. and A. P. have been visiting her sister Mrs. Ross English.

Heat Wave of Terrific Intensity Blasts Crop Prospects in Texas

From January the 1st until the first of August this part of Texas was blessed with an almost perfect season for making crops. The usual sand storms were omitted. The rains came and came abundantly and at the most opportune times. The cotton, corn, grain sorghum crops, gardens, and truck patches flourished as they have seldom done before. The hopes of the farmers and business men ran high, for most assuredly prospects were never brighter.

But with the coming of August the rains quit. The sun rays began getting hotter and hotter. The temperature climbed during the day and after a few days failed to recede but very little at night. The ground became blistering hot and while the moisture in the ground under ordinary conditions would have sustained the growing crops, the burning heat soon began getting in its devastating work and here and there the "hot spots" began to spread and showing up more and more as the days go by. The hopes of the people are going down as the hot spots grow. On the faces of the people are now seen a plain map of their crop conditions. Some are more hopeful than others but one and all are looking with longing eyes for that rain cloud that must come and come soon, or the harvest will again be limited and the people will face another year of doing without and trying to beat the elements and make another crop on a shoestring of hope and hearts willed with disappointments. We need lower temperatures and cooler nights. We need rains and we need them now but either way it may happen to go, this country in and around Jayton stands to make a half a crop where with just a little moisture and the usual summer warmth we stood to break the record.

Football Games At Centennial Grounds

Dallas, August 13, — The high school football powers of Texas will stage their campaigns for supremacy in the Cotton Bowl at the Texas Centennial Exposition this fall.

The heavy Cotton Bowl schedule includes 26 major grid contests between Class A white high school eleven of Texas.

Greenville High School, an Inter-scholastic League limelight eleven for several years, will open the parade on September 18 in a battle with Technical High school of Dallas.

Other important high school football eleven to play in the Cotton Bowl during the season are: Beaumont, Corsicana, Sherman, Thomas Jefferson High of San Antonio; John H. Reagan High of Houston; Waco High School which in former years dominated state grid campaigns; Forest High of Dallas; Sunset High of Dallas; Adamson High, formerly Oak Cliff High, also of Dallas, and others.

The September Cotton Bowl high school grid schedule is:

Sept. 18 — Greenville High vs. Technical high of Dallas.

Sept. 19 — South Park of Beaumont vs. Sunset High of Dallas.

Sept. 19 Sherman High vs. Woodrow Wilson high of Dallas.

Sept. 25 — McKinney High vs. Forest high of Dallas.

Sept. 25 — Gainesville High vs. North Dallas high.

Sept. 26 — Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio vs. Adamson high of Dallas.

The Cotton Bowl's first grid contest, and the initial major football game in the Southwest, will send the Chicago Bears of the National Professional league and an All-American eleven together the night of Sept. 7.

According to the weather reports Snyder was the hot spot of Texas, Wednesday. Just how hot it was in Jayton is hard to say, but if it was any hotter anywhere it was everything but pleasant.

Mr. George Rice is visiting her sister Mrs. Robert Eaton at Comanche.

Mack Rose is now owner of the former Burkett Cafe. Mack says he is doing a good business for a beginning.

Native Texan Dies At The Age of 83

Mr. L. M. Kidd, native Texan, died last Wednesday at the home of W. A. Kidd near Oriana, Texas and was buried Thursday in the Oriana Cemetery. Rev. J. V. Bilberry conducting the funeral services. Robinson Bros. in charge of the body for burial.

Mr. Kidd was a native Texan having been born in East Texas, August 7, 1853. He was the father of 7 children four of whom are living and were present for the funeral. Mr. Kidd was a good citizen, a good church member and Christian Gentleman.

He was the uncle of our fellow townsman, R. D. Hill.

Church of Christ Revival At Girard

The Church of Christ will begin their annual revival meeting next Friday night August 14th, at Girard, lasting over two Sundays.

Elder Cled E. Wallace of Austin, Texas will do the preaching. Edd Wallace is regarded as one of the Church of Christ most able preachers and everybody is requested to attend this meeting.

Services will be held under an old time brush arbor, where it will be cool and pleasant. There will be plenty of seats and lots of good singing. Come and listen in on these services.

Jayton Wins Ballgame

Wednesday evening one of Spur's soft ball teams came down and gave the Jayton team a good work out. It was one long race around the diamond for the Jayton Club. When darkness ended the game in the first of the 8th the score was Jayton 21, Spur 4. The player who made the most scores was the one who could do the most running. It was a hillarious game from start to finish, and the Spur boys seemed to enjoy it as much as the winners.

Former Jayton Man Accepts Position, Spur

Mr. H. H. Bilberry accepted a position with the Sanders and Chastain pharmacy last week and assumed his duties as prescription clerk last Saturday.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Bilberry were formerly citizens of Jayton and already have many friends here. The new Spurites will be at home there as soon as convenient living quarters are located. — D. C. Times.

With The Churches

The revival meeting at the Baptist Church is progressing nicely in spite of the fact the Rev. Armes had to give up the preaching on account of illness. His place was taken by Rev. Ewton of Spur, one of the most able pastors in this part of Texas. The song service as led by Mr. Suits of Floydada is also exceptionally interesting. The meeting is being well attended altho the hot weather cause quite a few to remain away.

On the open lot in the S. W. part of town the Church of God are also holding a big revival meeting. Nightly large crowds gather to sing and shout their praises to God and they most certainly seem to be in dead earnest about their worship. Rev. Hart of Oklahoma is doing the preaching.

The Methodist ladies have done some improving at the parsonage this week, putting down new art squares and beautifying the place in other ways. The death of Rev. and Mrs. Van Zant's little daughter last week brought great sorrow in their home and also to the hearts of all who knew them in Jayton or elsewhere. We have not been informed as to just when the Methodist folks will hold their annual revival.

While looking for a pair of thin cotton pants the other day we ran across a heavy over coat. It took a gallon of water to bring us back to a realization that we were not in close communion with the devil.

Glenn Huls and wife are back home after vacationing thru Central and South Texas. Glenn claims Kent Co. is as good as any part of the State thru which he traveled and no hotter.

Jayton Gets Her First Bale of 1936 Crop

Thursday, August 13, Walton Davis whose farm partly lays with in the city limits, brought in the seasons first bale of cotton. The bale weighed 443 lbs and was ginned and bought by the Williams-Miller Company. The price was 13.50 cents per pound, or $59.80. The seed run the total up to $70 and the merchants and business men's premium for the first bale brought the total to above $100.00. Of course the ginning was free.

This first bale this year is the earliest first bale that has come to Jayton during the past 15 years to the Chronicle's certain knowledge. As a rule the first bales get in around the 20th and last year the first bale came in around the 25th.

We understand Mr. Davis hopes to get out another bale about next Monday. Several others in the trade territory and ginning territory of Jayton are about ready to start picking on their first bales.

The hot weather is causing some cotton to open early but there will not be much picking before September 10th.

Tiny Tot School For Jayton Children

Mrs. M. C. Jackson announces the opening of a Kindergarten Class, September 1, 1936. She has had several years teaching experience and has specialized in primary, Pre-Primary and Speech Education throughout her college training. Mrs. Jackson is therefore familiar with the procedure and activities of the modern Tiny Tot Schools, and is in sympathy with the needs of the child of pre-primer age.

She plans to give the children a full term of systemized training in a well equipped school that will build slowly and securely the deep foundation of knowledge and self-confidence needed to meet social and civic relations that will be demanded of them when they enter public school.

If you have a child in the pre-primer age, 4 1-2 to 6 years, see Mrs. Jackson at once at her home South of old location of Baptist Church. It will be necessary for her to have an approximate idea of the number of children to be enrolled in her class in order that the necessary equipment may be secured.

She will announce at an early date the location of the Tiny Tot School.

Darold F. Wilson Named Field Executive For Boy Scouts

Darold F. Wilson was named field executive of the Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, Tuesday afternoon by the Council Executive Board, which met in Midland in connection with the annual Council-wide swimming meet held there.

He will travel over the entire area and will service troops in the Buffalo Trail Council, of which Jayton is a part. He is to work in cooperation with Area Executive Alfred J. Stiles, who makes his headquarters in Sweetwater, but his own headquarters have not yet been fixed.

Mr. Wilson returned last week from Mendham, N. J., where he was graduated from the 49th Training school sponsored by the national organization of the Boy Scouts of America.

He was re-elected for his second year as teacher in the J. P. Cowen School of Sweetwater, but recently resigned to take the position as scout field executive.

Wilson is 24 years old, has a B. S. degree from Abilene Christian College, and did graduate work at the University of Texas. He has served as principal of the Sylvester School and on the summer school faculty of Abilene Christian College.

He has been connected with the Boy Scouts for almost two years, serving first as scoutmaster and later a district commissioner.

Judge A. J. Hagin, one of the original settlers of this country was from his farm southwest of Jayton, Wednesday morning. He tells his cotton which was planted a little late is holding up nicely and while needing rain will go several days without suffering. Feed is badly need of cool weather and moistu

"There are those in Texas operating oil wells and refineries, who would have the Commission regulate all of the industry except a favored few. There are those who, in the darkness of night, would open their wells and produce millions of barrels of oil in defiance of the law. There are those who would be willing to utilize their own wells that an entire oil field might be ruined curtailed, in order that they might receive more than their share of oil."

"The Railroad Commission has worked unceasingly to prevent small groups from recovering more than their share of oil and to prevent any group from so utilizing their own wells that they interfere with the property of others. Because we have labored, strenuous efforts are being made by organized minorities to replace control of the Texas Railroad Commission, dedicated to a policy of conservation and sane regulation, with control openly advocating exploitation, unfair production, and ultimate destruction of the natural resources of Texas. Their activity is directed, not toward seeking one whose ability, training and expert advice might be worthy of consideration, but they are seeking a tool by which they may achieve their own selfish ends without regard for the welfare of the State."
"I cannot believe that we are willing today to forego the principle of Governor Hogg and 'turn Texas loose' to the free making of extravagant utility rates, the unregulated operation of public transportation and the wasteful exploitation of the natural resources of the greatest Empire State in the American Union."
Thompson is a candidate for reelection to the office of Railroad Commissioner, for his second term.

"Queen Of The Trail Drivers"

A portrait of Mrs. Amanda Burks, "Queen of the Trail Drivers," those lathery faced fellows who sent millions of longhorns across the unbroken Texas sod, today hangs in the Hall of Cattle Kings at No. 1 livestock building of the Texas Centennial Exposition.

Of forty-seven portraits of famous cattle barons of Texas to find a place of honor in the lounge, Mrs. Burks will be the only woman, according to Gus L. Ford who arranged this collection and also the collection of cattle branding irons and designs for the livestock section of the $25,000,000 World's Fair.

Mrs. Burks gained the title of "Queen of the Trail Drivers" when she made the long trek with her husband, William Franklin Burks, when he was in the cattle industry at Banquette, Nueces County. Following his death in 1877 on his Lamotta Ranch, thirty miles southeast of Co-

"Trench Mouth" Is Highly Infectious

"Trench Mouth," known scientifically as "Vincent's infection" of the mouth, is a germ disease and highly infectious. It became so common during the World War and incapacitated so many soldiers as to have earned the name "Trench Mouth."

"This disease is transmitted in the same manner as a cold; that is, by direct contact with the mouth of an infected person or indirectly through the use of insufficiently cleaned eating utensils, dishes, glasses, and other articles that have been used by persons who have the disease," said Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

"While 'trench mouth' may occur as a mild infection, it can, and often does, develop into serious illness. It occasionally ends fatally. Neglect of the hygiene of the mouth and teeth makes the mucous membranes of the gums and throat a favorite breeding ground for the organisms causing this disease. It can be prevented by keeping the mouth and teeth clean and in a healthy condition and avoiding the use of articles that may carry the disease germs.

"The early symptoms of 'trench mouth' usually include dryness and burning of the gums and throat. Later symptoms including bleeding and sore gums, bad breath, and curtailed, in order that they might...

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution.

Thirty five years of intensive work in the development of naturally hornless purebred Hereford cattle reached a climax the other day in the issuance of pedigree number 100,000 by the American Polled Hereford Breeders Association of Des Moines, Iowa.

Polled Herefords were originated in 1901 by locating and assembling eleven head of purebred registered Herefords, four bulls and seven females, which by "freak of nature" had failed to develop horns. This was true despite the fact that these cattle descended in all lines from horned ancestry.

Polled Herefords, which may be referred to as a breed or a strain, have had one of the most remarkable histories in the annals of the livestock industry.

From that original herd Polled Hereford have increased to upwards of 100,000 animals scattered through every state in the Union and to every continent of the world except Europe.

In from 10,000 to 12,000 herds of purebred and commercial cattle in America, purebred Polled Hereford bulls are in use today.

Nearly 1000 breeders are active members of the National breed promotion organization, the American Polled Hereford Breeders Association.

Through all the economic changes in the last 35 years Polled Herefords have come through stronger and stronger. They have become more and more popular through the ups and downs of the Pure Bred Cattle ments in Herefords has the great interest which developed in Australia, New Zealand and South America.

B. O. Gammon, Secretary of the Association, has spent many weeks during the last five years locating the kind of cattle desired by the purebred cattle interests abroad.

When the record number 100,000 was approached, the Directors of the Association decided to offer this "round number" at auction and after considerable bidding by several prominent breeders it finally fell to the bid of Johnson Bros., Jacksboro, Texas at $106.00. This firm has for several years owned the largest herd of Polled Herefords in the world.

The number, curiously enough, is assigned to another naturally polled animal descended in all lines from horned ancestors.

This time these horned ancestors are all of the so-called "air-tight" Anxiety 4th strain, now so widely in demand among Hereford cattle breeders.

This animal is the bull Polled Domino Mischief, registered in the American Hereford Record under No. 2,145,604.

He was bred by, and dropped the property of, B. A. Elliott, Moran, Texas, one of the most widely known Hereford breeders of the United States.

His pedigree traces seven times to Prince Domino six times to Beau Mischief, four times to Mischief Maker 6th, twelve times to Donna Anna 22nd and 244 times to anxiety 4th. In every line it runs back to the herd of Gudgeon and Simpson, the developers of the Anxiety 4th strain of Whitefaces.

Polled Domino Mischief 100,000 has already been rather extensively used by Johnson Brothers and has sired nearly 75 per cent hornless calves even though most of his matings have been with horned cows.

In an endeavor to create a polled family of "air-tight" Anxiety 4th Herefords, Johnson Brothers have used Polled Domino Mischief on a number of horned cows that are themselves "air tight" in breeding. The resulting calves in most instances hornless and are very pleasing individuals.

READING AND WRITING IN MY OWN ROOM

Writing expresses our personalities said Mrs. Lela Cox Sides when she spoke to the 4-H club girls at Short Course. For example when we write a letter and send it through the mail to some one we sign or put our name on it. Be sure the stamp is on straight and the envelope is not messed up with finger prints.

The first thing Mrs. Sides said, when you are firing up a study unit you should find a small table. A kitchen table will do if it isn't over 25 inches long and 16 inches wide. Next you would get a book shelf to hang over the table. These two articles should be painted the same color.

Next comes the scarf or blotter to go on the table. On the table enameled brown she placed a blotter pad made of cardboard bound in brown sateen. Some things placed on the table were a calendar, lamp, letter opener, a dish to keep unanswered letters in, vase of flowers and a tiny waste basket. A small drawer in the table held ink, fountain pen, matches, pencils and stationary. This drawer was fitted with small boxes to keep things in place.

In the shelf Mrs. Sides placed books and a sewing basket. A straight chair painted brown completed the study unit.

wait 24 to 48 hours before they in food. Keep the feed before them all times.

Water is one of the most important things for baby chickens. Always keep plenty of fresh water out for them, and never make them wait for a drink.

Milk is important in the baby chick diet. Yellow corn is one of the best foods. Wheat shorts, oyster shells, cod liver oil and alfalfa leaves are all good.

SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPERS

The Sunday night supper should be kept informal and simple in every manner, according to Miss Lida Cooper, District Agent, in talking on Sunday Night Suppers at the Farmers Short Course.

Plans and preparations should be made the day before. Cakes, cookies, certain salads and desserts can be prepared the day before. The food chosen for the main course should be one that can easily be increased upon a few minutes notice if unexpected guests arrive. Canned chicken and liverpaste are two dishes that can be served attractively and can be kept in the pantry at all times. Eggs and cheese can play an important part in the main dish. Vegetables and fruits, either canned or fresh bread and a drink will complete the menu. Attractive sandwiches are easily made and may be used as the main part of the Sunday night supper. Bread and butter sandwiches are nice to serve with meats and vegetables.

The Sunday night supper is the meal the family enjoys most if you plan to make it attractive with the minimum amount of effort in preparation.

Rules for Safe Driving

The safety and pleasure of any motorist's vacation trip can be increased many fold by the observation of a few simple rules according to Ab Jenkins, known as the world's safest driver. Jenkins, who holds more speed records than any other man in sports has driven more than one million miles on all kinds of roads in every state in the Union, without an accident.

Besides the well known and fairly recognized rules about observing stop signs, not trying to beat traffic lights, not passing another car on a turn or a hill, Jenkins has the following advice to give on features of driving little thought about by the average motorist:

1. Read the road; that is, observe

... because only in this way can you decide whether passing is safe. The car behind can do you a lot of damage and observing only the next car ahead is no insurance of safety.

2. Don't drive in a slouched position. Keep both hands on the wheel. Hands and arms should always be in a position to take care of the ever impending emergency.
3. When making a turn use only one hand to apply pressure on the wheel, allowing it to slide through the other hand. This places you in a position to put full strength into a quick turn in the opposite direction should emergency demand it.
4. Never run a car faster than you can drive it. If you are at all nervous you are driving too fast.
5. Never use the brakes in a skid on slippery roads. The best method is to disengage the clutch, which will permit the rear wheels to roll free and follow the front wheels straight ahead. Then apply the clutch gradually.

Jenkins places tire equipment as the first and most important consideration for safe driving. He states that every driver should be compelled to have good tires on his car.

Jenkins is an expert on tire equipment. He has studied manufacturing methods as well as proved the performance of tires in his speedway and highway driving. All of his records including the amazing performance of 127 miles an hour for twenty-four hours on the hot salt beds of Utah were made on Firestone tires without tire trouble of any kind.

FOR District Attorney

As many of you remember I made the race for this office in 1932, and now after waiting for four years I am in the "run-off" for the same office. At the time of making my first race for this office it was said that I was too young and that I was not quite ready for the advancement. Now I am the older man in the race, and I know that the four additional years of experience I have gained have been to my advantage. I have no fight to make against my opponent, but I do feel like I am entitled to at least advance ahead of him up the ladder. If you feel like I deserve this reward at this time I will appreciate your saying a good word in my behalf between now and the 22nd. And should I be elected I assure you of an administration that will measure up to your expectations in every way. I will practice economy in your courts that your hard earned money might be saved. I offer an efficient capable handling of your court affairs assured by my added years of experience, practice, and training.
