Swing Of Southwest Farm Markets

(USDA)—Active demand at firm to higher prices ruled the majority of southwest farm markets last week, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture. Wheat, cows, calves, shorn lambs, and hens were the losers.

Liberal offerings of new crop wheat broke the market early last week, and prices fell fifty cents per bushel after the long holiday weekend. Later rallies recovered only a little of the loss, and Friday closed $2.45 for No. 1 hard at Fort Worth and Galveston. New crop oats and barley dropped some too, but corn and sorghums gained.

Seasonal dullness ruled rice markets last week. New crop made rapid growth and looks well. Principal feed ingredients maintained strength despite abundant green feeds. Weather held back alfalfa cutting, but dehydration plants continued to operate. South Texas peanut crop looked good, and other areas tried to finish planting. Choice 12-month Texas and Territory staple wools found good demand. Finer mohair sold steady.

Options of generally good quality and medium to small sizes moved in volume from North Texas area last week in a strong market. Fifty pound sacks of U. S. No. 1 yellow Bermudas brought $1.75 and Crystal White Wax $2.00. Tomato shipments declined in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and increased in East Texas amid advancing prices. Valley haulings of green corn lightened, and grapefruit strengthened near the season's end. A few cantaloupes moved out. Most Coastal Bend watermelons came on the market.

Spot cotton prices climbed steadily last week to score total advances of around $4.50 per bale. Fairly numerous inquiries for higher grades attracted only light offerings. The new crop made favorable progress in most areas.

Eggs and most poultry maintained steady to firm prices last week. Hens showed slight weakness, and sold mostly at 22 to 26 cents per pound. Most bought eggs at 36 to 40 cents per dozen; but South Texas and Louisiana centers paid 40 to 50 cents.

Hog prices fluctuated some last week but mostly gains of 25 to 75 cents. Heavy weights at Wichita showed the only real weakness. Closing bulk of good and choice butcher hogs brought $24.75 at Fort Worth and Denver. Closing top was $25.25 at Oklahoma City, and $24.60 at Wichita. Week's top was $24.25 at San Antonio.

Spring lambs gained mostly 50 cents to $1.00 at southwest terminals last week, but aged sheep and low grade shorn lambs dropped almost as much lower. Good and choice spring lambs brought $20 to $21.50 at San Antonio; $23.50 to $25 at Fort Worth; and $24.50 to $25 at Wichita. Oklahoma City bought plum to good kinds at $20 to $24. Generally steady to slightly weaker prices prevailed at Denver last week for steers, heifers, and cows, while low grade cows and calves moved generally lower at other southwest markets. Bulls and some stocker classes showed weakness at San Antonio and Oklahoma City. Canner and cutter cows sold at $8.50 to $10.50 at Houston; $8.50 to $11 at San Antonio; $8 to $12 at Fort Worth; $9 to $12 at Oklahoma City; $10.50 to $13 at Wichita; and mostly $11.50 to $14.50 at Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Daniels had business in Lubbock, Texas last Wednesday.

Sidelights From Washington

—by George Mahon

Friends of the Army Air Forces and the cause of national defense won a victory in the House of Representatives last week which will be a warning to the world that the United States is not planning to surrender her position as the world's greatest air power.

The controversy over U. S. air power arose when the Appropriations Committee, the Committee upon which I serve, slashed $40,000,000 from funds recommended for the purchase of new airplanes. The request for the funds had been made of Congress by the Chief of the Army Air Forces, the Secretary of War and the President. The Committee then requested the House to approve the slash.

In Committee I had offered an amendment to restore the airplanes which had been denied but I was overwhelmingly defeated. When the bill came up in the House of Representatives I took up the fight again, re-offering the amendment to restore the funds for the airplanes.

The Republican leadership fought the amendment and the question was heatedly debated for part of three days.

Finally, in the last half hour of the debate, Congressman Andrews of New York, the Republican Chairman of the House Committee on Armed Forces, took the floor in support of my amendment and in support of my contention that the Appropriations Committee had misrepresented the facts and the figures in regard to army air power. This broke the back of the opposition and shortly thereafter the amendment was accepted and passed the House. A number of Members of Congress from Texas were very aggressive in the successful effort to restore the funds.

I argued that it would be inexcusable for us today, or at any future time, to start down the road to a second rate air force and an inadequate national defense program. It was stated that the defeat of the airplane request would be a straw in the wind which would lead to dangerous international consequences. I pointed out that the army appropriations bill contained savings in funds to the extent of $474,000,000 and that the expenditure of the additional $40,000,000 provided in my amendment for army airplanes would not seriously interfere with the economy program.

Without my amendment there were already sufficient funds in the bill to provide 561 airplanes. With the amendment the bill provides for 749 aircraft of the latest type, the planes to come off the assembly line within two years.

Funds were not reduced for the National Guard, the ROTC units in high schools and colleges, and Reserve Officer training otherwise. No cut was made in funds requested for the important work of research and development. The bill reduced War Department civilian personnel by 74,600 employees and officer personnel by 18,000, it being felt that the Army was somewhat top heavy with officers. The bill provides for an army of 1,070,000 men during the period June 30, 1947, to July 1, 1948. The total funds in the bill exceed $5,000,000.

Miss Gale Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Jones of Claremont, became the bride of William D. Hancock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hancock of Jayton, in a single ring ceremony read by Rev. ## Amendment Must Pass Declare Tech Officials

Lubbock — Passage of a proposed amendment to the Texas Constitution, creating a special building fund for state colleges, is the only certain method of obtaining critically needed buildings for Texas Technological College, officials declare.

Unless this amendment is passed Texas Tech will be unable to take care of its present needs for classroom, laboratory and other essential buildings, including a building for physical and health education, they say.

Texas Tech would receive $7,425,000 under the 30-year program, more than one and one half times the sum invested in the college's buildings, and more than three times the amount appropriated by the legislature since the college opened its doors 22 years ago. Total investment in buildings on the campus now stands at $4,004,784.99.

The amendment will be submitted to a vote in a special election, next August 23. College officials pointed out that the special fund would not increase ad valorem taxes now authorized by law. It would reduce from 35 to 30 cents per $100 valuation the maximum property tax that may be levied for state general fund support, and would assign from the presently authorized 7-cent per $100 valuation property tax for confederate pension purposes a 5-cent portion for the building fund.

News From The County Agents' Office

More Legume Seed Needed

Texas farmers this year expect to have about 200 thousand acres of hairy vetch. . . and over half of that acreage will be harvested for seed, according to B. F. Vance, state director of the Production and Marketing Administration.

This would indicate that Texas is falling in line with the general trend in the South to produce more cover crops . . . probably because it will stand up well under tough growing conditions a good tonnage of organic matter to turn under. . . that's when you see the real value of it.

Still . . . hairy vetch as a seed crop is one of the trickiest. It will come through the winter in fine shape, produce a good seed crop . . . and then sometimes on a hot drying day it will shatter the seed crop all over the ground! So West Cross Timber farmers, have a real job on their hands. These seed growers say they would like to keep all the present crop in the state for seed . . . and it's needed, too . . . and then some.

Actually, says Mr. Vance, we need just about four pounds of legume seed for ever pound that we now produce.

Grasshopper Poison

This is again to advise cotton farmers that we have plenty of grasshopper poison bait material available and we have ordered a larger supply just in case that we have a big infestation of grasshoppers. If you need poison please contact the county agents office.

Bind Weed Warning

The combines have started rolling now on what's expected to be the biggest wheat crop in Texas history . . . and in connection with the Harvest, here's a warning for wheat growers.

During the past few years, bind weed . . . sometimes called possession vine . . . has been spreading in Texas, and it's caused many thousands dollars worth of damage to cropland. E. A. Miller, agronomist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, says that it's likely that much of this bind weed is being spread by combines that come from out-of-county and out-of-state to help in the harvest.

So it's going to be a good idea, says Mr. Miller, to get those combines cleaned out before they enter your wheat fields. . . especially if they are out-of-state combines that come from areas where bind weed is a big pest.

Mr. Miller also says that in cleaning the combines, we certainly don't want to empty that seed out right in the fields, or even along the highways. There's the danger of the seed germinating and spreading from those spots.

Bind weed, once it gets started . . . is really a tough one to kill out. The root system is wide-spread and deep . . . and the seed can live in the soil for several years and then germinate. It's much easier, says agronomist, to keep it from coming on your farm than it is to eradicate it after it gets a start.

Did you ever wonder whether newspaper reporters lead as interesting and exciting lives as you've heard they do? Well, I was inclined to doubt it but I've just finished reading the proofs of a book which will be off the press most any time now and after reading the book, which is entitled "Cub Reporter", I'm inclined to believe that newspaper folks do have experiences as varied and thrilling as the movies proclaim.

"Cub Reporter" is not fiction but tells about some of the events that a police reporter on a city daily "covered" as a part of his daily work. The author, who was then just out of high school (this was back in 1916 and 1917) tells about Revinsky, the "one-thumb slayer" and "scar-faced killer", as he was known. Revinsky, convicted of murder, escaped and, as a posse unwittingly approached his hiding place, he drew a bead on the cub reporter but was dissuaded from shooting by a companion.

Then there was Wild Dan, who killed six people at one time. Wild Dan threatened to kill the cub reporter and, 10 minutes later, Wild Dan was dead. Of course that's not the whole story.

And the book tells of the man who arose from the dead; of grizzled police officers and the tales they told around headquarters at midnight when things were quiet,

New State-Wide Policy On Farm To Market Roads

Austin, June 11 — The State Highway Commission today released details of a new state-wide policy on Farm to Market Roads, which will permit an expansion of the present state operated Farm to Market Road Program.

It was explained in the Highway Commission's new policy that the Federal Funds made available by the Postwar Highway Act of 1944 for the construction of Secondary or Farm to Market Roads, covering a three year period, have all been earmarked for specific roads throughout the state. Approximately one-half of this work has been placed under contract and, consequently, no additional funds from this source are now available.

The Commission's statement also noted that no additional funds on the National or State level have been made available for the expansion of the program of construction of Secondary or Farm to Market Roads.

The numerous requests from officials and citizens from all sections of the State for the designation, construction, and maintenance of additional Farm to Market Roads indicated the need of some type of additional program to provide at least for the more urgent and immediate needs in the rural areas of Texas.

On behalf of the Highway Commission, State Highway Engineer Dewitt C. Greer explained, "This new policy of the Highway Commission has been formed to place into operation the new laws passed by the Fiftieth Legislature relative to this type of road."

Mr. Greer pointed out that "a law passed at this session giving permission for the counties, road districts, etc., and the State Highway Department to enter a cooperative plan of construction of Farm to Market Roads by a pooling of finances."

He said, "Two additional laws were passed that will tend to yield additional revenues for Farm to Market Roads on the county level. One of these covered the distribution of the surplus of the one cent of the gasoline tax that goes to the Board of County and District Road Indebtedness. This law will tend to give more money from this source to the smaller counties of Texas. The other law is the Constitutional Amendment covering the abolition and there are word-pictures of old time reporters, a colorful crew, and of Bud the bloodhound officer; C. P. J. Mooney, a great editor, and the climax is the story of Frank, the lovable little office boy.

"Cub Reporter" was written by—let me see, what was that fellow's name? Oh, yes, I remember now "Cub Reporter" was written by Boyce House.

A BIT OF SHOPPING IN PANAMA

Naval Reservists on a training cruise of the USS Wisconsin spend part of their liberty ashore in Colon, Republic of Panama, selecting presents for the folks back home. They are among 600 Reservists from the Third, Fourth, and Ninth Naval Districts recalled to active duty, voluntarily, for two weeks of training aboard the "Wiskey." The cruises give the Reserve sailors a chance to learn of the latest developments aboard this mighty warship. As a part of the Wisconsin cruises there are two days of liberty in Panama for sightseeing and shopping. Many of the men bring back perfumes, lingerie, alligator skin luggage, white shirts, summer suits and other items which are obtainable at prewar prices. (Official Navy Photograph) of state ad valorem tax and permitting such tax to be assumed by the counties for the construction of Farm to Market Roads and other things."

Mr. Greer explained that "under the new policy of the Highway Commission, if a county or road district desires additional Farm to Market Roads and is willing to furnish the right of way and 75 per cent of the actual construction cost, the State Highway Department will provide the engineering and 25 per cent of the construction cost from its funds, and will provide for the future maintenance of the road which item alone generally equals the construction cost over a period of fifteen years."

Mr. Greer further pointed out that in the Commission policy it was necessary, due to the limited finances of the Department, that a ceiling of not more than 100,000 in construction costs in any one county in any one year be used to give state-wide distribution under this plan.

Health Notes From Austin

AUSTIN. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued the following statements and suggestions concerning the control and prevention of poliomyelitis which is now occurring in certain sections of the State.

At one time it was generally believed that this infection was transmitted primarily by discharges from the respiratory tract. It is now believed that poliomyelitis may be another of the several gastrointestinal infections. Therefore, control measures must include clean-up campaigns and improvements in sanitation.

Stringent efforts should be made to eliminate house-flies, mosquitoes, and rodents to destroy their breeding places. Every effort should be made to institute approved garbage collection systems, and secure safe water supplies. Where adequate municipal sewage disposal systems are not in operation, it is necessary to install and maintain sanitary septic tanks and outdoor privies.

All swimming pools should maintain those standards approved by the Texas State Department of Health. This includes maintenance of proper chlorine level. Where such standards are not maintained, those pools should be closed to the public.

All raw foods and vegetables should be washed thoroughly before use and protected from filth and insects. All food handling establishments should adhere strictly to the State law concerning the sterilization of dishes and utensils. Those restaurants with insufficient personnel to maintain approved sanitation, should close one or two hours a day so that employees can assist in maintaining cleanliness and high sanitation standards.

Approved milk supplies, rodent control measures, high sanitation standards, and strict personal hygiene are all important. Polio cases should be quarantined for 14 days and excreta from cases and contacts should be handled and disinfected with the same scrupulous care as in typhoid fever or bacillary dysentery.

Over-exertion in children should be avoided. Children should not homes where there is a illness. It is advisable to reduce to a minimum all human contacts, especially in children during an outbreak of this disease. It is not advocated that schools, churches, and theaters be closed.

Early symptoms of infantile paralysis are headache, fever, vomiting, drowsiness, followed by stiffness in the neck and back. When suspicious symptoms appear, a physician should be called immediately.

Meet the boss!

MEET BABS BROWN, the Boss. We don't mean Mister Brown's boss, either. We mean our boss—and a very nice one, too.

Sound odd to you? Well, it isn't. It's a solid fact that your electric light and power company is owned by a lot of people like Babs Brown—and Bob Brown—yes, and yourself.

Housewives, doctors, teachers—industrial workers, craftsmen, farmers—mechanics and milkmen—people from all walks of life have put some of their savings into electric companies such as ours. They're the direct owners.

But there are countless indirect owners, too—and many of them have no idea of their stake in the electric industry. They are the people who have savings accounts or life insurance policies—and that means nearly everybody. It works like this: When banks and insurance companies accept your money they must invest it safely, wisely. And because business-managed electric companies have a long record of faithful public service, much of this money is invested in utility companies on physical property installed and dedicated to the public's service. So you, too, are probably one of our bosses.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 4

proposed to amend Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by the addition of two new sections to be known as Sections 17 and 18 providing a special fund for the payment of Confederate pensions and providing a method of payment for the construction and equipment of buildings and other permanent improvements at state institutions of higher learning; providing for a five-cent reduction in the maximum allowable state tax on property; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

SECTION 17. In lieu of the state ad valorem tax on property of Seven (7c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation heretofore levied to be levied by the State of Texas, as amended, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of the State of Texas, a tax on property of Two (2c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the purpose of providing for the payment of pensions for services in the Confederate army and navy, frontier organizations, and other military or naval organizations, and the widows of such soldiers serving in said armies, navies, organizations or military, provided that the amount of such tax may be reduced hereinafter levied.

Also, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Five (5c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping buildings, or other permanent improvements of the designated institutions of higher learning; and the governing board of each of such institutions of higher learning is fully authorized to pledge all or any part of said funds allotted to such institution as hereinafter provided, to secure bonds or notes issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping such buildings or other permanent improvements at said respective institutions. Such bonds or notes shall be issued in such amounts as may be determined by the governing boards of said respective institutions, shall bear interest not to exceed three (3%) per cent per annum and shall mature serially or otherwise not to exceed ten (10) years from the first (1st) day of January of each year in which such funds are allocated or re-allocated to said respective institutions; provided, the power to issue bonds or notes hereunder is expressly limited to a period of thirty (30) years from the date of the adoption of this amendment; and provided further, that the Five (5c) Cent tax hereby levied shall expire finally upon payment of all bonds hereby authorized; provided further, that the Five (5c) Cent tax heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 9 of Article VIII, as amended, exclusive of the tax imposed by this amendment, and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed Thirty (30c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation. All bonds shall be examined and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and when so approved shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. Said bonds shall be sold through competitive bids and shall never be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.

Funds raised from said Five (5c) Cent tax for the ten (10) year period beginning January 1, 1948 are hereby allocated to the following institutions of higher learning, and in the following proportions, to-wit:

Table with 2 columns: Institution Name and Amount. Includes John Tarleton Agricultural College, North Texas Agricultural College, Texas State College for Women, etc.

Not later than June 1st of the beginning year of each succeeding ten (10) year period, the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, based on the average long season fall-time student enrollment for the preceding five (5) year period of time, shall re-allocate, to the above designated institutions of higher learning then in existence, all funds to be derived from said Five (5c) Cent ad valorem tax for said ten (10) year period; and all such designated institutions of higher learning which participate in the allocation or re-allocation of such funds shall not thereafter receive any other state funds for the acquiring or constructing of buildings or other permanent improvements for which said Five (5c) Cents ad valorem tax is herein provided, except in case of fire, flood, storm, or earthquake occurring at any such institution, in which case an appropriation in an amount sufficient to replace the loss so incurred may be made by the Legislature out of other state funds. This amendment shall be self-enacting. The State Comptroller of Public Accounts shall draw all necessary and proper warrants upon the State Treasury in order to carry out the purpose of this amendment; and the State Treasurer shall pay warrants so issued out of the special fund hereby created for said purpose.

Section 18. For the purpose of constructing, equipping or acquiring buildings or other permanent improvements, the Board of Directors of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bonds or notes not to exceed a total amount of Ten Million ($10,000,000) Dollars, and the Board of Regents of The University of Texas is hereby authorized to issue negotiable bonds or notes not to exceed a total amount of Ten Million ($10,000,000) Dollars. Any bonds or notes issued hereunder shall be payable solely out of the income from the Permanent University Fund. Bonds or notes so issued shall mature serially or otherwise not more than twenty (20) years from their respective dates, and in no event later than twenty-five (25) years after the date of the adoption of this amendment. This amendment shall be self-enacting.

Said Boards are severally authorized to pledge the whole or any part of the respective interests of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas and of The University of Texas in the income from the Permanent University Fund, and said interests are now appraised by Chapter 42 of the Acts of the Regular Session of the 42nd Legislature of the State of Texas, for the purpose of securing the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds or notes. The Permanent University Fund may be invested in such bonds or notes.

All bonds or notes issued pursuant hereto shall be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and when so approved shall be incontestable.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at a special election to be held throughout the state on the fourth Saturday in August, A. D. 1947, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon: "For the amendment to Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, adding Sections 17 and 18 providing for the levying of a state ad valorem tax on property in lieu of the present state ad valorem tax of Seven (7c) Cents for Confederate pensions in order to create special funds necessary for the payment of Confederate pensions and for the financing of the construction and equipment of buildings and other permanent improvements at state institutions of higher learning, in the amounts of Two (2c) Cents and Five (5c) Cents respectively; providing for a Five (5c) Cent reduction of the maximum allowable state tax on property, making such tax not to exceed Thirty (30c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation; providing a method of payment for the construction and equipment of improvements and buildings at the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas and The University of Texas."

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the constitution and laws of this state.

Sec. 4. The sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury of the state, and otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election.
