

Big Plans In Making For Sat. Aug. 4th

THIS WEEK ... IN JAYTON

Tom Fowler said only for a shrewd business deal he made Friday the 13th would have been a sad day for him.

He started out to his ranch he calls the Ponderosa, and stopped at Bill Williams' station. Bill, who is always trying to sell something, gave Tom a pitch about a fire extinguisher and sold it to him, which Tom put in his car and headed for the ranch.

While he was out there the lightning set his barn afire. So, forthwith he hauled out his fire extinguisher and put the fire out.

P. S. Yes, Tom does NOT raise Hereford white face cattle at his place. He raises Black Angus, or so he says.

TIME LOSS

This letter exemplifies the power of the press:

"Dear Editor: Thursday I lost a gold watch which I valued very highly. Immediately I inserted an ad in your lost-and-found column and waited. Yesterday I went home and found the watch in the pocket of another suit. You have a wonderful paper."

Bob Hamilton has just returned from a trip to the West Coast with his family. He reports a nice time.

He says things are real nice at the big parks and that the Park Rangers are on the job to see that the speeders don't run over anyone in the parks.

GOOD WILL

Poet—"Burglars broke into my house last night."

Friend—"Yes? What happened?"

Poet—"They searched through every room, then left a $5 bill on my bureau."

Merle Jay was complaining the other morning. "Some one left an obscene note on my gate the other morning," he said. "And the bad part about it, he didn't even know how to spell" Jay said. Bill Vencil had a guilty look on his face. Bill threatened to quit going out to see him if he didn't get his cattle guard fixed.

QUICK TRADE

Into a Western cattle town a man came riding an old mule.

"How much for the mule?" asked a bystander.

"Just a hundred dollars," answered the rider.

"I'll give you five dollars," said the other.

The rider stopped short, as if in amazement, and then slowly dismounted.

"Stranger," said he, "ain't you to let a little matter of ninety-five dollars stand between me and a mule trade. The mule's yours."

The meeting will be in the Jayton Agricultural building.

The program will be on cotton insects presented by John Thomas of the extension service. He lives in Lubbock.

All interested people are invited to attend the meeting.

Grand Parents Club Meets

The Grand Parents club met on Friday the 13th in the Claremont cafeteria for their regular meeting. There were 22 members present.

Everyone enjoyed eating ice cream and cake and just visiting. Mrs. Glen Spradling visited too much and had to pay 25c fine for mentioning her grand children. Glen said he was going to have a talk with her when he got her home and we haven't seen her since.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kimmell, Jackson East, Merle Jay, Bill Vencil, Grady Jones, Glen Spradling, Trueman Murdoch, Robert Harrison, G. H. Brown, L. V. Pritchard, and Elbert Walker.

We decided for our first anniversary we would show a picture and talk about our grand children. If we will bring our own baby picture and show first.

Mr. and Mrs. Hooper, our reporter could not be with us. We understand they were baby sitting, we missed them and all the members that were not there, so everyone be out August 10th for our next meeting with Mrs. Bill Vencil and Mrs. Merle Jay as hostesses.

TEEN AGERS WIN IN POST TOURNEY

A group of Jayton boys, coached by Bill Sartain, entered the Garza County tournament recently, and lost out only in the final game.

They won a beautiful second place trophy.

The trophy is on display in the Chronicle office. We have been trying to get a group of the boys together in their uniforms to take a picture of them with the trophy, but so far have failed.

There were some very good teams in the tournament and they are very proud of the position in the tournament.

Plenty of Rain The Past Week

This area has received three inches or more rain within the past week, according to estimates by local observers.

There was a good rain Tuesday night, and as we go to press Thursday afternoon the prospects are good for still more rainfall.

Most of the farmers are to the place now that they could wait awhile for more rain.

FELLOWSHIP MEETING AT ANTELOPE

There will be a Fellowship meeting at the Antelope church with Brother Ray Isaacs, former pastor the speaker.

Services will be Saturday night and Sunday. Dinner will be served Sunday.

This is for the first Sunday in August. Everyone is invited and welcome.

AT HOME

Mrs. J. T. Murdoch is at home after two weeks in Dallas with Mrs. Woodrow Murdoch at the Methodist hospital.

TO DALLAS

Maurine Dibrell went to Dallas Saturday to visit with her mother and Mrs. C. C. Doo-son at the Methodist hospital.

A committee, headed by Bob E. Hamilton, is now at work lining up the plans for the big day in Jayton, August 4th.

Bank manager H. Charles Lewis, County Judge D. J. Young, Nursing Home Operator Pike Nichols and Post Master Rex L. Alexander all have given the nod of approval to the plans for a joint observance of all three places on the fourth.

A big community picnic and barbeque will be held at noon. Many high officials including Congressman Purcell, State Senator David Ratliff and State Rep. Renal Rossen are expected to be on hand.

Many County officials have been invited to come as well as bankers from all over the area.

Committee chairman Bob E. Hamilton said the committee is planning for 1500 or more people to be here.

This day will highlight the victorious labors of several groups of people.

A hard core of workers have dreamed and planned and worked for many years and explored every avenue of hope regardless of how dim in an effort to get a bank here. To them this is a real big red letter day.

Another group has worked tirelessly for many years to secure the new post office building and still a third group on the nursing home.

So, this day will mean much to many people.

NEW VOTING BOX CREATED FOR SOUTH KENT COUNTY

A new voting box was created in Commissioners Prec. 4, in a session of the court held Monday.

Legal description of the new box will be found else where, but generally it takes in all of precinct four south of the river with the exception of the O-O Ranch headquarters and that area north of the Ranch headquarters.

This new voting box was created for the convenience of the people in the south and the south east part of the county who live far removed from Jayton and have found it to be very inconvenient to drive to Jayton to vote.

Also, the court, in addition to voting to give the current bills voted to pay the cemeteries at Claremont, Girard and Jayton each the sum of $150 in three installments to help them get the cemeteries in better condition.

Members of the court were to have met with Mr. Barker the general contractor on the Nursing home for final payment and acceptance of the building.

Card of Thanks

Everything I plan goes up in smoke."

"Why, I thought you were a successful business man."

"I am—I manufacture fireworks."

Why do we shake hands when we meet? Safety first! In less civilized times it was a way of proving that neither "shaker" was concealing a knife, or other lethal weapon. Anyone who would not shake hands willingly was regarded with grave suspicion—and often not without reason! The original handshake was a picturesque double clasp, thus showing that both hands were empty. As time grew more chivalrous, the present-day singlehanded handshake was given—it was presumably reasoned that one would hardly be so unscrupulous as to shake with the right hand and jab with the left.

SPECIAL SALE

In a Hongkong shop-window two American tourists noticed some Chinese housecoats of particularly striking designs and stepped in to purchase one. One American undertook to do the bargaining.

"Wantum coatee," said he to the sleepy-eyed Oriental who shuffled up with a grunt. He placed several of the coats before them.

"It would aid me in transacting this sale," said the Chinaman, "if you would confine your language to your mother tongue. The coat is seven dollars.

The American took it.

THE MAN AND THE MONK

A peasant with a troubled conscience went to a monk for advice. He said he had circulated a vile story about a friend, only to find out that the story was not true.

"If you make peace with your conscience," said the monk, "you must fill a bag with goose down, go to every dooryard in the village and drop in each one of them one

The peasant did as he was told. Then he came back to the monk and said he had done penance for his folly.

"Not yet," replied the monk. "Take the bag, go the rounds again, and gather up every down that you have dropped."

"But the wind must have blown them all away," explained the peasant.

"Yes, my son," said the monk; "and so it is with your vile words. Words and deeds are quickly dropped, but try hard as you will, you can never get them back again."—Knickerbocker Press, Albany, N.Y.

The Great Wall of China was decades in building, and was finished at the expense of vast treasure and thousands of human lives. It was intended for a defense against the marauding hordes of the north, who had so often laid waste to the land. However, historians tell us that within a short time of its completion it was pierced and proved inadequate, not because it was not massive and well enough built, but because of the human element--in each case the enemy bribed the guards.

Tourists travelling Highway 380 stop and look over the old court house and jail. There is a great need for a sign and other information about the historic events that have happened in Kent County.

With just a little help and a little work Kent County could have a museum that the people of the county could be very proud of. There have been enough relics promised or loaned to fill two rooms in the county building. All that is needed are some glass cases that can be locked and lighted and the cost would be very small.

Any attraction of this kind would be advertised by the people that see the display. It could teach the children the history of this county since it was organized.

TINY PIECE OF AMERICA

TODAY I picked up a clod from my yard, broke it, and as it sifted through my fingers
I realized for the first time that this was more than just dust. This was a tiny piece of America! I owned a rare treasure -- a bit of the only soil left in the world today where a man can stand free and un-think and a thousand miles deep! Here alone in all the world could I build my future, knowing that it would be secure, and rear my children with the assurance that they and their children, could enjoy that same security. I could stand on my piece of America,
I think freely and say what I thought, do what I pleased shrink from no man, and call upon whatever God I chose :
Three deeds protect my land.
One is locked in my strong box
--my purchase deed. The others are enshrined and locked in the hearts of every American--the Declaration of Independence, and the Constitution
: I am a fortunate man, the indisputable owner of my own life, and the land on which to live it. I am an American!
Hobar Franks.

Puzzle--

Here is a tricky little teaser, and if you don't wch out, it will trip you. Now the story goes that there was once a mar-who lived on he edge of a lake.
If he left his house and walked around he lake clockwise, it always took him exactly an hour and twenty minutes. If, however, he left his house and walked around the lake counter clockwise, it took him only eighty minutes. Can you explain how that happened?

---There is nothing to explain. One hour and twenty minutes and eighty minutes are the same.

HAPPINESS is that sensation you acquire when you are too busy to be MISERABLE.
