

"Ed House" Present For "All-Sports" Pow-Wow

Transformed into a gold and black Texas Indian Reservation, the Haskell Elementary School Cafeteria was the scene Saturday night where 300-plus Haskellites pow-wowed at the Booster Club-sponsored annual "All-Sports" banquet.

Guest speaker was Emory Bellard, the quarterbacks' inspiration at the University of Texas No. 1 National College team. He was introduced by Haskell head coach C. T. (Sonny) Everett, as the man directly responsible for the development of the Longhorn's "Wishbone-T" offense.

Coach Bellard set forth self-discipline, a sense of responsibility predicated on a keen sense of true values, and sincere respect for the people we live with as attainments desirable for young people. He closed his original remarks, stating that "it's only through fighting to become a champion that you are in a learning situation for a sense of responsibility..."

"The pursuit of excellence and championship creates the great learning situation for self-discipline, responsibility, and sincere respect."

Lanny Ivy was named recipient of the Dick Gaines Memorial Award. Presented by Mrs. Dick Gaines, it is given for outstanding scholastic and athletic achievement.

Von Marr, president of Haskell Jaycees, presented the Jaycee Sportsmanship Award to recipients in three classes. Football winners: Bob Aycock, Mike Guess, Lanny Ivy, Donald Love, Bobby Philpot, Roy Pitman and Terry Chapman, who are the seven seniors. Girls' basketball winner, Paula Mayfield; Boys' basketball winner, Donald Love.

President of the Booster Club and Master of Ceremonies, Virgil Cobb, made presentation of the Booster Club Award to the "most conscientious and sincere" player of the 1969 football season in and out of the game. Two Indians received the honor this year, Roy Pitman and Terry Chapman.

Glenda Gayle Chapman was named 1969 Basketball Sweetheart and Donald Love was selected Basketball Beau. Sue Wilkinson and Paula Mayfield made the Beau presentation, while Terry Chapman did the honor for his sister Glenda Gayle.

The 1969 season marks the first bi-district championship for the Haskell Indian football team in 17 years. Using this high achievement in state competition as their theme, senior mothers displayed the football helmet and tomahawk in a golden form of Texas in a field of black as stage decoration. Yellow mums, courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Conner, and two golden footballs, district and bi-district trophies, courtesy of the football team, decorated the speaker's table. The gold and black Texas form was repeated in table center pieces. The senior mothers are Mrs. J. W. Aycock, Mrs. Bob Guess, Mrs. Volley Ivy, Mrs. E. B. Love, Mrs. Roy Pitman, Mrs. Jack Chapman, and Mrs. Robert Philpot, chairman.

Unique entertainment by multi-talented Indian athletes featured the Edward Riley, Charles Who Franklin and Lawrence Kilgore trio with a swinging number called "Backfield in Motion." Showmanship and gusto plus a wet whistle are the trademarks of the newest Haskell singing group. Singing the fight songs of the Southwest Conference teams, coached by Mrs. C. T. Everett on the piano, they closed out with the Haskell Indian fight song. A roaring ovation was their reward. Members of this glee club include Ed Riley, Eddie Stewart, Lawrence Kilgore, Terry Chapman, Keith Everett, Ray Kilgore, Jim Bob Mickler, Gary Cobb, Charles Franklin, Eddie Harris, and Jack Smith. We'll not pass this way again, but it was good to have been there.

Heart Disease Responsible For More Than Half Of All Deaths In U. S.

With diseases of the heart and blood vessels responsible for more than half of all deaths in the United States, it is obvious that an immense challenge faces medical scientists seeking to identify the precise mechanisms responsible for "hardening of the arteries" (atherosclerosis) and high blood pressure, the two leading causes of heart attack and stroke.

Until these mechanisms are fully understood, paving the way for prevention or even cures, is there anything that can be done to reduce the toll of more than 1,000,000 lives yearly?

The answer is yes. Some of the presently-available methods of treatment and prevention—advances that are saving hearts and lives as of this very moment, will be examined. Virtually all of them were spearheaded by the Heart Fund, the first national campaign of which was conducted just 21 years ago.

Let's begin with coronary artery disease, which includes heart attack and which kills about 573,000 people yearly in this country. In this category, a heart-saving development of profound importance has been the coronary care unit, now functioning in hundreds of American hospitals but lacking in many others.

For those who survive heart attack long enough to make it to a hospital, coronary care service can literally spell the difference between life and death. In-hospital deaths following heart attacks can be reduced by about 30 per cent if patients get high-quality coronary care service rather than routine hospitalization. Some authorities believe that coronary care units have an ultimate potential of saving up to 50,000 lives yearly in this country.

In these installations, the heart's electrical activity is monitored continuously, with an alarm system bringing trained personnel within seconds if there is any change in heart rhythm or rate above or below a preset range. Some units also monitor temperature, respiration and blood pressure. Additionally, there may be an "instant replay" system to permit quick review of changes which have occurred during the several moments which precede a crisis.

Such crises usually occur within 22 hours of the heart attack and most often involve an irregularly beating heart, shock or cardiac failure. Once the alarm is given, corrective measures can be applied. These include intravenous medications, electrical methods of re-starting or re-pacing the heart, mouth-to-mouth breathing, chest compression and others. Quite often fibrillating hearts—those beating with total irregularity—can be restored to normal function.

Heart Associations throughout the country are sponsoring coronary care training programs for physicians and nurses and are carrying forward intensive educational programs underscoring the value and essentiality of this service.

Yet another under-utilized technique—designed to meet emergency situations on the street, or in the home, office or factory—is external compression of the sternum combined with mouth-to-mouth air ventilation following "cardiac arrest"—a term used to describe sudden cessation of circulation function. The idea is to keep oxygenated blood flowing to the brain until appropriate medical treatment can be applied to restore normal heart function.

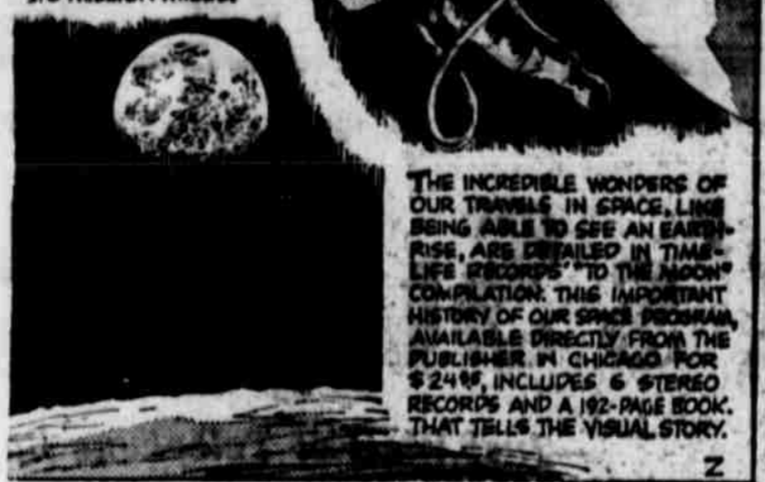

To meet this need, Heart Associations throughout the country are conducting educational programs which should enable physicians and nurses, and police, firemen, utility workers and ambulance attendants as well to apply emergency measures when signs of sudden death are evident. A significant number of cardiac arrest victims can be saved if resuscitation maneuvers are started promptly—usually no later than four

The American Ideals In My Life

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of the three winning essays written by talented Haskell High students who were declared winners in this year's patriotic essay contest sponsored by the Progressive Study Club. Second place winner was Jim Kemp and his essay follows:

Almost two-hundred years ago our country was established by men who had ideals. American ideals. What are truly American ideals and principles? According to Your American Yardsstick, Alexander Hamilton says that we are laboring hard to establish in this country and principles and ideals more and more national and free from all foreign ingredients, so that we may be neither "Greeks nor Trojans" but truly Americans. American ideals are the principles on which our country was founded, and by which it has grown into a world power in the past two centuries. American ideals in my life can be divided into two groups. There are American ideals that touch my life as an individual, and there are the ideals which affect me in relationship with other people.

Freedom, in my opinion, is one of the foremost ideals that affects my life as an individual. One of the basic freedoms is freedom of speech. I have the freedom to voice my opinions, so long as they do not infringe on the rights of others. I can talk about the Viet Nam war, and I can give my views on the space program. As an American, I can discuss any national issue or problem and express my feelings toward these issues. I have the freedom to worship in the church of my choice. No dictator or head leader demands that I be a Baptist, Methodist, or Catholic. This basic ideal was the force that brought many Englishmen to America. The Englishmen wanted freedom of religion, they fought and suffered for it, and they gained this freedom. Freedom is specific. There is no such thing as freedom in general. I think God that I have the privilege of living in a "free" nation.

America, the "sweet land of liberty" in my country. This liberty is my privilege to act as an individual. I have the liberty of choice. I can choose the path which I wish to travel. I can say "yes" and "no." I can say that I believe something is right or wrong. Liberty is a right, and along with this right goes responsibility. I must be a responsible American to deserve the right of liberty.

Groups of people make up American society. There are minority groups, church groups, political groups, industrial groups, and economic groups. Therefore, there are American ideals that affect my life in relationship to other people. I believe in the ideal of equality. I believe that all men are cre-

CHAPLAIN AND MRS. JAMES BARNETT RECEIVE AWARDS

Chaplain and Mrs. Barnett received awards upon their departure from Fort Benning, Georgia for services rendered during the period, 10 November 1966 to 1 August 1969. Mrs. Barnett received the Appreciation, Certificated from the General Commission on Chaplains and Armed Forces Personnel of Washington, D. C. She was recommended and awarded this, Certificated by Chaplain (Col.) Holland Hope, the Chief Chaplain at Fort Benning, for services rendered in the Sunday School, Chapel activities and Community projects.

Chaplain Barnett was awarded The Army Commendation Medal with Second Oak Leaf Cluster by the Secretary of the Army, Stanley R. Resor. The citation reads in part... Through his keen interest and desire, he motivated his assigned Chaplains and assistants to the highest possible degree. His professional competence and untiring efforts were directly responsible for the outstanding religious life, morals, and morale of the staff, cadre, and trainees of the United States Army Training Center. By his tactful and courteous manner and his enthusiasm and ability to deal with others, he has won the respect and admiration of all with whom he served. His accomplishments reflect great credit upon himself, his unit and the United States Army.

The Barnetts are now stationed at Fort Hood, Texas and reside at 1711 Janis Drive, Killeen, Texas. Chaplain Barnett's mother, Mrs. Mary Barnett, resides at RR1, Haskell.

Motorists Advised To Follow Four Simple Rules For Proper Passing

One motor vehicle passing another—particularly on one- and two-lane roads—can be a chancy thing unless the driver of the passing vehicle uses caution and good common sense.

"You can pass yourself right into the next world," warns Mr. Paul Graham, President, Texas Motor Transportation Association. "There are too many accidents and near-accidents as a result of what should be a safe maneuver."

Mr. Graham advises motorists to follow four simple rules for proper passing:

1. Allow plenty of room to pull out, pass, and return to the right lane.
2. Pass on straight level roads or curve. Obey the road markings that tell you it is safe or unsafe to pass.
3. Signal when passing—sound your horn when passing and, at night, flash your lights. Let the driver of the car ahead know your intentions.
4. Gain speed before passing. It is a good policy to drop back of the car you intend to pass and get a better look at the road ahead. Don't pull out into the left lane until you pick up passing speed.

"Borrow a page from the professional truck driver's book and always be alert for that other guy—the one who is going to pass you—perhaps without following these common sense rules," he advises.

"Whatever you do, don't set up a competition between you and the man trying to pass you. If he is being reckless, give him plenty of room. Pull over to the right as far as possible and slow down if necessary so that he can get by without endangering the lives of others."

Courtesy and good common sense work wonders when it comes to passing, Mr. Graham points out. "For example, in the city it is usually senseless to pass. To do so, you will more than likely have to exceed the speed limit and take a chance on conditions ahead. What happens? You have to stop for a light—and all those cars you passed are right up there with you."

ated equal. Each American is given an equal chance to achieve whatever goal he may set. We can become doctors, teachers, lawyers, engineers, and politicians. We have an equal chance to become these things, and when we once attain these goals, we have an equal chance to make ourselves better citizens. We are insured a life of liberty in a democracy.

We, as Americans, should live to uphold the ideal of democracy. Democracy is a direct product of all its citizens, and unless we, the citizens, are willing to work to keep our nation free, democracy may fall. No true democracy has ever lasted two-hundred years. In only six years the United States will be two-hundred years old. Are we as Americans going to let this great democracy fall?

I believe in progress and liberal ideas. The space program and other liberal programs of progress have given our nation a place above all other world leaders. I feel that without progress and liberal ideas our nation may stumble into the hands of a Communist Dictated nation, and then America and the American ideal of freedom, liberty, equality, liberalism, and democracy will become a people in time only to be seen in the Communist history books.

MEDICARE EXPLANATIONS

Each Medicare beneficiary should carefully check the Explanation of Benefits form he receives after Medicare pays for his hospital or physician services. Suggests R. B. Tuttle, Area Director, Social Security District Manager.

"If the payment record seems incorrect, a discrepancy should be reported immediately to the Medicare paying agent or to a social security office," he went on.

Tuttle emphasized that errors in billing can sometimes occur. A careful check of payment records can correct errors and help detect possible fraud attempts, he added.

"In a program as large as Medicare," he said, "with over

IN CASE OF FIRE
If you smell smoke at night, don't rush from your bedroom to investigate, warns the Texas Safety Association.

Place your palm high against the bedroom door. If it's hot, don't open it. The hall outside is a deadly trap of superheated air and gas and can kill almost instantly.

If the door doesn't feel hot, brave your body against the door and open it a crack, ready to shut it if there's air pressure or the draft feels hot.

Get members of the family to safety quickly and don't waste time getting dressed or picking up valuables, urges TSA.

DRINKING 'FUN' KILLS
How long does the fun last? The Texas Safety Association says: Not long—if you drive too soon after drinking alcoholic beverages.

The more alcohol there is in the blood, the longer you must wait until you can drive safely. On the average, it takes one hour for each bottle of beer or each ounce of whiskey to be eliminated by the body.

Even if you seem to be able to hold your liquor—your driving ability is greatly impaired during this period.

Rochester News

By Edwin Roberson

Several Rochesterites traveled to Abilene Wednesday night to see the famous Harlem Globe Trotters in action at the Taylor County Coliseum. Although many watched it, many were turned away as there were no more tickets available. Those seeing the game were: Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Silba, Kay, Michelle, Melissa Roberson and Mrs. Bill Taylor; Mr. and Mrs. Arlis Hearn, Mae, Greg, Mr. and Mrs. James Hudgens, Paula and Jerry Don; B. O. Roberson and Edwin; Buddy Mullino, Kay Newsom, Randy Hines, Nancy English; Randy Goode, Mack Martin, Kenneth Turner, Mike Newberry; Mozelle Bland, Eddie Bland, Jim Ballard and Jim Harris; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Short and Larry.

Last Friday was the day designated for the day for all the elementary grades to have their annual Valentines parties. Refreshments were served in each room and Valentine cards were exchanged.

A number of flu cases were reported in the community as well as colds and sore throats last week. School attendance was affected in both the lower grades and in high school.

Members of the First Baptist Church here in Rochester are especially thankful for Bro. Walter Copeland of Haskell. This good man is doing a fine work during the period of time the church is without a pastor. Bro. Copeland brings timely messages that are appreciated by all ages in the church. The members are very grateful to you, Bro. and Mrs. Copeland, for your faithfulness to our church.

Miss Cheri Lynn Townsend hosted a Valentine Party Saturday evening at the American Legion Hall in Rochester for High School and Junior High students.

Entertainment of games and dancing was enjoyed by approximately 25 guests from Rochester and Rule.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Townsend

BASKETBALL ROUND-UP
Last week the Steerettes completed their season on a losing note but they didn't go down too easily. The game was with District Champion and undefeated Weinert team. As always the game between these two teams went down to the wire before Weinert pulled away as time ran out. The final score was 56-55. The Steerettes will now focus their attention on Valleyball season.

The same night the Steers had to come from behind to defeat the stubborn Bulldogs by a score of 52-46. The Bulldogs led most of the way.

On Friday night the Steers traveled to Rule to meet the Bobcats where they crashed head-on. The Bobcats jumped to a giant early lead that was never threatened. The final score was 80-61.

Tuesday night the Steers traveled to Benjamin to fight for third place. This game ended the season for the Steers.

Last Tuesday the 5th and 6th grade teams went to Knox City but both boys and girls were defeated. On Thursday evening the girls' B team, girls' A team, and the boys' A team hosted Rule. Rule took all three games.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Speck were in Haskell Saturday.

Visiting Mrs. W. L. Ballard during her stay in Knox County Hospital this week is her sister, Marie, of Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Keele Acree and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Mitchell were in Newcastle on Sunday.

Mr. Glen Bailey of Odessa was here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Roberson.

Mrs. Aubrey Headstream returned home over the weekend after being in Wichita Falls for a few days.

Last week John Nichols was dismissed from Knox County Hospital.

Robert Speck is still hospitalized in the Haskell County Hospital.

Hospitalized in the Knox

County Hospital are Mrs. W. L. Ballard and Ira Grinstead.

Stewart Roberson, a student at Cisco Junior College, was home over the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Roberson and family.

Mrs. Bill Chambers was in Lubbock over the weekend working on her Master's Degree at Texas Tech.

Martha Nell Chambers, a student at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. Anders of Anson were weekend guests of Mrs. Bill Chambers and Stanley.

Cary Headstream, a student at Cisco Junior College, was home over the weekend visiting Bro. and Mrs. Aubrey Headstream.

Injuries are not always reported just on the football field or on the basketball court but also in the spectators' stands.

Last Tuesday night at Weinert during the basketball game, Mrs. Johnny Wyatt fell down the bleachers. No broken bones were reported but it was a very painful injury.

Mr. Rifford Quattlebaum, local band director, was gone for four days of last week to Dallas for the TMEA Convention.

Mrs. Truett Alvis is back teaching the Rochester Kindergarten after a recent illness.

MOTOR VEHICLES DOUBLE

In 1968, there were about 825,000 people employed as motor vehicle mechanics and repairmen in the United States, in comparison to 643,000 so employed in 1950. While the number of repairmen and mechanics increased by 28 percent in this 18-year period, the number of motor vehicles on the road more than doubled—from 49.3 million to 101 million.

Manufacturing employment has increased by 49.2 per cent during the past decade, placing more than half the jobs feeding the spiraling economy of Texas directly dependent on industry.

"Manufacturing is definitely the key to Texas' economic growth and will become even more so in the future," Jim Harwell, executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission, said in analyzing the new figures.

"Manufacturing employment increased almost 50 per cent during the last 10 years while oil and gas, mining and agriculture all showed declines ranging from 11 to 24 per cent."

He said 56.1 per cent of the jobs in Texas were dependent on manufacturing during 1969, compared with 43 per cent 10 years earlier. Manufacturing has increased an average of 24,000 jobs each of the 10 years.

Harwell credited the areas of machinery, both electrical and non-electrical, and transportation equipment with the largest growth. Electrical machinery was responsible for 17.6 per cent of the growth, transportation for 17.1 per cent and other machinery for 13.4 per cent.

By category, electrical machinery proved to be the fastest growing industry in the state over the 10 year period. While increasing 17.6 per cent of the overall total, the area grew at a 285.8 per cent clip over its performance in 1959. Other strong growth sectors were miscellaneous durable goods up 181.7 per cent and rubber and plastics up 121.7 per cent.

Miscellaneous durable goods includes such items as engineering and laboratory equipment, surgical and medical equipment, jewelry, sporting goods, needles and pins, brooms and brushes and ordinance equipment.

In plant numbers, chemicals were the big addition to Texas' industry during the decade with new plant and expansions totaling 1,053. Fabricated metals was second with 772 new plants and expansions.

Harwell said in 1969 mobile homes were the leading locating industry in the state. Mobile home companies, a portion of the transportation sector, located 31 plants in the state, the majority of which were in rural areas.

About 30 per cent of the industries added in the last decade were located in rural areas. In 1969 a total of 116 new plants were located in small towns, compared with 98 the previous year.

In all, a record of 411 new plants were located in Texas during the year. This compares with the previous all time high of 327 new facilities reported in 1969. In 1968, a total of 291 new industries were located in Texas.

OLD DRUGS
"Don't just toss away old medicines," says the Texas Safety Association, "make sure they are completely destroyed."

Harmful medicines left in incinerators or waste boxes in the yard may be a temptation for small children. TSA suggests medicines, discarded insecticides or cleaning aids be buried or flushed down the drain if practical.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

I hope you will be kind enough to print my message which follows. I used to write the Weaver Community News more than thirty years ago for the Free Press.

"God is Spirit, and when talking to Him we say Thee, Thine and Thou, and not 'you.' If we do we bring Him down to man's level, and are trying to take away the divine nature of God Our Heavenly Father.

"When people do these things, it is showing disrespect to our Saviour and God. When Peter saw Jesus walking on the water, he said ... Is it Thee, Lord?... and not is it you.

"People show respect to the Kings and Queens of this wicked world, but it is just 'you' to our Saviour and God. Shame, shame on anyone who is guilty of this blasphemous thing. Those who reach Heaven will be glad to say, 'Our Lord and Our God'. We will praise Thee throughout all eternity and not say you.

"I hope these few lines will be a blessing and help all who read them." - Mrs. Easter Mullins, Rochester.

The Future Farmers of America Organization In 41st Year In Texas

The Future Farmers of America organization is in its 41st year in Texas. There are over 49,000 members studying vocational agriculture in 940 high schools in Texas. In these vocational agricultural classes, students are provided an opportunity to secure technical and scientific training in all phases of agriculture as well as to receive training in leadership, citizenship, and cooperation.

Texas membership has grown from 28,643 in 1950 to over 49,000 in 1969. In a study conducted by Mr. A. J. Marshall, State Director of Vocational Agriculture, it was found that over 60 percent of the vocational agriculture students who graduate from high school and are available for employment are employed in full-time farming or in agricultural related occupations.

The theme this year is "FFA - Emphasis Agriculture." The FFA supports and supplements training for those involved in production agriculture as well as those processing and distributing agriculture products. Many people are employed in agricultural occupations such as engineers, scientists, management personnel, sales and service personnel, and educators. FFA training lends support to those providing these services for agriculture. Also, there are over 60,000 desirable openings each year for farm operators, farm engineers, and full-time hired farm labor.

Vocational agriculture and the FFA are striving to provide a sound and a continuing education to help produce the leaders and work force so direly needed in our nation's agriculture industry.

HATS OFF TO THE F.F.A.

National Future Farmers of America Week will be observed February 21-28, and we say "Hats Off" to this fine organization. Future Farmers of America is a national organization of high school students studying vocational agriculture in our public schools. It is an educational, non-profit, non-political organization of, by and for these students.

The foundation upon which it is built includes leadership, character development, sportsmanship, cooperation, community service, thrift, scholarship, improved agriculture, organized recreation, citizenship and patriotism. The FFA itself does not make its members outstanding, but instead provides the opportunity for them to excel, grow and become outstanding. Young people in FFA learn the meaning of local initiative. Local FFA chapters provide the strength of the organization. In the local chapters, student officers and members develop into agricultural leaders.

Do's And Don'ts For Obtaining 1970 Motor Vehicle Registrations

AUSTIN—The Texas Highway Department today reminded motorists of some Do's and Don'ts for obtaining 1970 motor vehicle registrations.

The Motor Vehicle Registration Division of the Department has initiated a new computerized registration system this year.

In the past motorists have had to take their previous year's registration and auto title to the county tax collector's office or substation to obtain new license plates.

This year motorists were mailed a three-part computer-oriented registration form about January 1.

If a motorist wishes to renew his registration by mail he should mail the three-part form to his county tax collector, with his check for the registration fee plus one extra dollar to cover postage and handling. Some county tax collectors will accept only money orders or cashier's checks.

If a motorist wishes to renew his registration in person he should take the three-part registration form to his county tax collector's office or substation with his check or money order.

Mail orders will be accepted only until March 1, allowing 30 days for delivery. Registrations will be made in person through midnight April 1, deadline for obtaining new auto license plates.

The Highway Department's list of DOs and DON'Ts for all motorists: DON'T throw away your three-part registration application; it may be used both for mail and in-person vehicle registration.

DON'T write on, mar or otherwise mutilate the three-part form. However, DO show your correct address in accord with instructions on the form if the address on the form is incorrect.

DON'T separate the three parts of the form; DO take to your county tax collector or mail it in one piece.

DON'T send your application to the Highway Department Motor Vehicle Division in Austin; DO send it to your county tax collector and DO enclose the amount of your registration fee and an extra dollar if ordering by mail.

DO send your application before March 1 if ordering by mail; no mail applications will be processed after March 1.

If you did not receive a three-part registration form in the mail, or if you have lost it, DO take last year's motor vehicle registration and your car title to your county tax collector's office or branch station. Your vehicle registration will be processed as before and you'll receive a time-saving computerized form next year.

Remember, you will save time at your county tax collector's office if you use the computerized form. There is no extra charge if you obtain your license plates in person.

Being A Good American
Being a good American is important. We need to be kind to people, and when we are at school we need to play with children and not hurt them.

When we are at home, we need to help our fathers and mothers.

And when someone is lost, you need to help them home.

—Jerry Walker

Being A Good American
Some ways I can be a good American is to obey laws, and not help crooks. I can always put trash in the basket. I can help people who need help.

I can remember not to be mean. Other people can do that too.

I help keep my country clean. I love my country. I can always be nice to my people. These are some of the ways I can be a Good American.

E. C. Collins Issues Statement To The Voters

To the fine folks of Precinct 4, Haskell County, I want to say "thank you" for the opportunity of serving as your Commissioner and for the courtesies and cooperation shown me during these past three years. The time has come to again seek your continued support and ask you to re-elect me as your Commissioner for a second term beginning January 1, 1971.

My record is open for examination at any time, and I have tried to serve with honesty and fairness to all concerned. There have been some difficult times but I have always done what I thought best for our Precinct, and County as a whole. The record will show that our Precinct is in better condition on roads, and finances than it was three years ago. The experience gained during this term is valuable to me and has better qualified me to serve you as Commissioner in the future. I continue to stand for economy in County government, to receive full value for every dollar spent and an equal opportunity and fair representation for every citizen and taxpayer. I pledge myself to continued cooperation with the Commissioners' Court in helping to direct the County's finances, making and carrying out County policy to the best advantage of every citizen and without partiality or prejudice to any individual or groups.

Between now and May 2nd, I will attempt to visit with each citizen in Precinct 4 in behalf of my candidacy. Again I say "thank you" for the opportunity of serving you and I earnestly solicit your vote and influence and respectfully ask to be returned as your Commissioner for a second term on May 2nd.

E. C. COLLINS, Commissioner Precinct 4, Haskell County, Texas

IN CASE OF FIRE
If you smell smoke at night, don't rush from your bedroom to investigate, warns the Texas Safety Association.

Place your palm high against the bedroom door. If it's hot, don't open it. The hall outside is a deadly trap of superheated air and gas and can kill almost instantly.

If the door doesn't feel hot, brave your body against the door and open it a crack, ready to shut it if there's air pressure or the draft feels hot.
