Donald Combs Is WTU Jayton Manager

Donald Combs, local manager for West Texas Electric Company in Jayton since Sept., 1973, has transferred to Santa Fe as local manager. Boone, WTU sergeant in Aspermont, has been transferred to Jayton and promoted to manager.

BOB BOONE

The announcement was made today by Russell Hartman, manager of Stamford, Texas' Stamford District.

Boone joined WTU in Aspermont as a lineman in 1968. He was transferred to Aspermont in 1968 as a serviceman and later made serviceman. Before joining the company, Boone worked for L&F Construction in Aspermont as a lineman. Boone was born and raised in Stamford, attended the public schools here and graduated from Stamford High School in 1964.

COMBS

Combs is a member of the Aspermont Volunteer Fire Department and serves as chaplain. Boone and his wife, the former Linda Lindsey, were married in Avoca in 1965 and have two children. The Boones are members of Central Baptist Church in Aspermont where he serves as the young couples' service teacher.

Combs first joined WTU in 1961 as a serviceman in the Alpine Local Office. He served there until May of 1969 when he resigned to go to work for General Tire and Rubber Company in Aspermont. Before returning to work for WTU in November, 1969, he worked as a serviceman for the company in Odessa. He returned to work for WTU as a serviceman in the Aspermont office. He transferred to Jayton and promoted to local manager in September, 1973.

Jaybirds Win Opener From Roscoe Friday Night

The Jayton football squad earned its right to the title of "Fighting Jaybirds" Friday night as they fought back, and came from behind to defeat a tough Class A Roscoe team, and pulled out a final 16-14 score.

Roscoe took the lead twice in the game, but both times the Jaybirds countered.

Roscoe scored first in the opening division as Randy Hendricks went in from the 31 and Ronnie Hartman kicked the extra score. Jaybirds countered as Bobby Kelley went in from the two, and Mark Fincher ran the extra to give them an 8-7 margin.

Then in the second period Roscoe's David Drake ran for 4 yards and again Hartman kicked the extra point, and the home standing Ploowboys had a 14-8 lead.

But Fincher broke the game wide open on an end sweep, behind good blocking and carried it 80 yards all the way down the field. Then Kelley passed to Garcia for two points, and the Jaybirds had the game all wrapped up, and an opening game victory. The Jaybirds are hosts to the Spur Bulldogs this Friday night.

Both teams have victories. Spur beat the Jaybirds last year so the Jaybirds will have a double reason for trying to turn the Bulldogs back this Friday night.

County Election Judges Are Appointed

New Employ With Duck Creek SWCD

Miss Deborah Smith has recently been employed by the Duck Creek Soil and Water Conservation District. She replaces Minette Geeslin and will serve as SWCD secretary on a part-time basis.

Deborah will assist the Soil Conservation Service Field Office at Jayton in the preparation of co-operators Conservation Plan folders, cooperators Great Plains Conservation Program documents, news articles, and filing.

Deborah is a Junior in the Jayton High School. She is active in FHA, and is a photographer on the Jaybird Annual Staff. She is also a member of the Jayton Band and has won a First Division rating in both solo and ensemble contests. Deborah is a member of the First Assembly of God Church. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith of Jayton.

Airman Carr is a 1974 graduate of Spur (Tex.) High School. (USAF HOME TOWN CENTER)

Rules Are Set For Home Coming Float Contests

The Ex-Student Association Committee met Monday night and established the prize money for the winning floats, motorcycles, and bicycles. First, second, and third place floats will receive $50.00, $25.00, and $10.00 respectively.

Weldon Reed and his band "The Solid Country" from Post will play for the Teen dance on Friday night, October 4 and on Saturday, October 5 for the Adult dance. Both dances will be held at the Community Center.

Jackson Brothers of Post will cater the barbeque at the school at 12:30 P.M. Saturday, October 5. Anyone having old pictures that pertain to Jayton school or Homecoming activities of the past and would like to put them on display, should contact Lou Williams, Shelia Chisum or mail inquiries to the Ex-Student Association, P.O. Box 366, Jayton, Texas 79528. All pictures will be returned after Homecoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy G. Harrison and son of Brownfield visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harrison this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harrison visited his cousin, Dode Warlitt, in a Lubbock hospital Sunday afternoon.

Jayton HD Club News

The Jayton Home Demonstration Club met Sept. 5 in the home of Mrs. Eurena Koonce.

Jan Butler gave the program on "Recycling-fashions". Jan Johnson came by and modeled a skirt and purse recycled from a pair of pants.

Mrs. Don Wilson was elected as Council Delegate.

Nine members and the agent, Mrs. Stanaland were present.

Clairemont 4 H Club

The Clairemont 4-H Club met on Tuesday, September 3. The following officers were elected: Valorie Panter, president; Harold Parker, vice-president; Johnny Panter, secretary-treasurer; LaRhonda Carraker, reporter; Julie Panter, council delegate; Tammie Panter, pledge leader and Brian Parker, game leader. The club will meet the first Tuesday of each month at Clairemont.

Those who attended the meeting were: Harold Parker, Brian Parker, Micheal Parker, Julie Panter, Valrie Panter, Johnny Panter, Mark Geeslin, Vera Parker, and Bert Stanaland.

Mrs. Lee Parker spent several days in the Gary Hogan home near Center Point visiting with Holly, Heather, and Donnie while their parents were vacationing in the Bermuda Islands.

ROOF REPAIR JOB AT THE JAYTON HIGH SCHOOL

WORKMEN PUTTING ON A NEW ROOF AT THE SCHOOL

Things Looking Up At Jayton High School

This year Jayton High School is really looking up, especially toward the roof. A few weeks ago, the Barr Roofing Company from Abilene started construction of a new roof for the school.

A few of the hardworking men on top of the project are David Brock, Lee Meador, Samuel San-tibanez, Bill Johnson, David Dial, and Felix Chavez. Supervising these workers is Ray Langford who gave time to explain in detail what the men were doing.

Also, for the past weeks, a crew from Harris Acoustics of Abilene has been working on the gym ceiling. The workmen spray an acoustical and insulating mixture which hardens on the ceiling. Although this work prevented some girls' basketball workouts, the air conditioning and lessening of noise during the games will be worth the delay.

Paula Mayer Wins Football Contest

In the Chronicle football contest this week, you could class them as "good, and no so good."

Paula Mayer was the expert of the week, with eleven right, and only one wrong.

Second was Floyd D.

Hall with only two wrong. Taking third place was Billy Fowler with four wrong, and total game score of 27.

Others who missed 4 games were Terry Fowler 31, Gus Fincher 35, Sally Garcia 40, and Leck Browning 48. This contest is made possible by the merchants whose names appear on the contest page.

You don't have to be an expert - just study the games, and mark your entry.

Jayton Girl Singing With HSU Choir

The famed Arlington amusement park, Six Flags Over Texas, has designated Saturday, Sept. 21, as Hardin - Simmons University Day and will use H-SU talent as extra entertainment during the day. Performing will be the Cowboy Band, The Six White Horses, the 300 member Celebration Singers, the H-SU Singing Men, and Singers Hol, a song and dance group. H-SU students will make the trip in chartered buses and by private cars.

Bobette Hamilton, a freshmen student at H-SU, will be singing as a member of the Celebration Singers group. Mr. and Mrs. Royce Stanaland visited in Abilene Sunday.

Rabbit Show Billed for Kent County Fair

Kent County youth may see rabbits at the Kent County Fair in Girard on October 12. Rabbits will be entered on Saturday morning by 9:30 A.M. and will be judged at 10:00 A.M. Rabbits will remain on display until 1:30 P.M. Rabbits should be exhibited for 30 days. They should be healthy and show no signs of disease. Breeds will be shown together or separately, depending on the number of entries. Five classes will be judged: junior doe, junior buck, senior doe, senior buck, and pen of three fryers. Ray Smith and Larry Williams will be superintendents of the rabbit show.

Judges Are Named for General Elections

An important action by the commissioners on Monday, was to appoint new election judges for the general elections. This was on a motion by Carraker and seconded by Byrd:

Swaringen. Voting Box #3, Mrs. Jarri Parker, and Mrs. Bennie Smith. No. 4, Mrs. Ben Boland and Mrs. Willis Long. No. 5, Mrs. Lois Dyess, and Mrs. Ernest Ford. Absentee box, Mike Owen and Robert E. Hall. In other matters they passed an order to pay the bills, and also voted to approve the 1974 tax roll.

MOD Moms Meet

The Mod Moms will have their next meeting on September 17. The program will be on making Molds. If you want to make these please bring about 1 cup of suet with you. The molds will be furnished by Sallie Hilton. Tuesdays from 10-12 A. M. at the Community Center. Hostesses for this meeting are Sallie Hilton and Jeanette Seaton. Visitors and new members are always welcome.

"If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me."
Psalms 139:9, 10.

What a wonderful promise. No matter where we go or what we do, God is willing to lead us and is there to help us.

Another comforting scripture recalling God's love toward us is this: "How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! How great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand." Psalm 139:17, 18.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
The Church is God's appointed agency for spreading the knowledge of God for man and of His demand for man to love by loving his neighbor. This grounding in the love of God, no man or society or way of life will persevere and the freedoms which we dear will inevitably perish. Therefore from a selfish point of view, one should the Church for the sake of the welfare self and his family. Beyond that, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth man's life, death and destiny; the truth alone will set him free to live as a God.

Lemon-Peach Chiffon Pie

env. unflavored gelatin
eggs, separated
c. sugar
2 c. lemon juice
4 tsp. salt
c. finely chopped fresh peaches
9-in. baked pie shell whipped cream
fresh peach slices

Stir gelatin in 1/2 cup cold water; set aside. Beat egg yolks in saucepan; beat slightly. Add sugar; beat until well mixed. Stir in lemon juice. Cook over medium heat until thickened, stirring constantly. Add softened gelatin; stir until dissolved. Remove from heat; chill.

Add salt to egg whites; beat until stiff but not dry. Add remaining sugar gradually. Beat until very stiff; set aside. Stir peaches into gelatin mixture. Fold in egg whites gently. Pipe peach mixture into pie shell; chill until firm. Top with whipped cream and sliced fresh peaches.

FRESH PEACH

Coconut Angel Pie

Use one and one third cup finely crumbled graham crackers (16 crackers)
1/2 cup melted butter or margarine
4 egg whites
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon vinegar
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup whipping cream
1 cup shredded coconut
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sliced fresh peaches

Combine graham cracker crumbs and melted butter. Pat firmly into 9-inch pie pan. Beat egg whites until frothy; add salt and vinegar and beat until stiff. Gradually add sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Spread in crumb-lined pie pan. Bake in slow oven (275 degrees F.) for 1 hour, 15 minutes. Cool.

Toast 1/2 cup coconut; set aside. Whip cream; fold in remaining coconut, vanilla and 2 tablespoons sugar. Arrange peach slices on cooled pie shell. Spread with whipped cream and sprinkle with toasted coconut on top. Chill. Serves 6.

Note: Meringue crusts can be baked ahead and frozen. Strawberries can be used instead of fresh peaches.

TREMENDOUS TRIFLES
THE STORM THAT POINTED OUT THE KIDNAPER'S LAIR

Because a storm caused a mail plane to veer off its course, a desperate and deadly gang of kidnapers were caught in their own hideout.

Charles F. Urschel, millionaire owner of Oklahoma City was kidnaped the night of July 23, 1933 by two men with submachine guns. He was taken from the back porch of his home where he was playing cards with his wife and friends.

Days later the kidnapers sent a ransom note demanding $200,000. A friend of Urschel's delivered the money in a suitcase to a man in Kansas City. The next evening Charles Urschel was released near Norman, Oklahoma, eighteen miles south of his home.

Urschel was free now, but the kidnapers were still at large with the $200,000 ransom money. There were no clues until Urschel told his story:

The kidnapers had tied his hands and taped his eyes. Urschel had no sense of direction, but the ride was long. His confinement was in a roughly boarded room at a farmhouse. The kidnapers let him keep his wristwatch. It was to play a prominent part in bringing the criminals to prison.

At 9:30 each morning a plane flew over the farmhouse. Urschel told officers, "In the evening at 5:45 another plane came over. The Sunday (July 30) before the ransom was paid the morning plane didn't come over."

The airlines were checked. The log of American Airlines showed that a mail plane flying between Dallas and Amarillo, Texas had detoured a section of that Sunday to miss a storm. The section was in the vicinity of Paradise, Texas.

Officers closed in quickly. At dawn on August 12, the farmhouse was raided. Harvey Bailey, notorious Southwest criminal was apprehended. Also taken was Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Shannon and their young son, Armon Shannon.

On the same day Albert Bates, a notorious criminal, was picked up in Denver. A few days later officers captured George "Machine Gun" Kelly and his wife, Kathryn.

But it was a storm that made it possible to start the ball rolling.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Bum Steer"

With mounting impatience, Walters drove for 15 minutes behind a slow-moving truck on a winding road. Finally the truck driver waved him a go-ahead signal.

But as Walters swung out to pass, a car loomed up from the opposite direction. A collision followed, and Walters landed in the hospital with assorted injuries.

In due course, he filed a lawsuit against the trucking firm.

"The driver gave me a 'bum steer' when he waved me on," Walters charged in a court hearing.

"But it was an innocent mistake," countered the company. "He was just trying to be helpful. Besides, Walters still had the final responsibility for his own driving."

However, the court granted Walters' claim. The court said that the truck driver, having once undertaken to give directions, had to do so with caution.

Courts generally agree. It is worth noting, however, that Walters had no real chance to see the danger ahead. If he had and took a chance anyhow, he might well have been found negligent himself, regardless of the misleading signal from the truck driver.

In fact, a motorist continues to bear some degree of responsibility even when he is obeying the signal of a traffic officer.

In another case a motorist, waiting at a busy intersection was waved ahead by a policeman who was there directing traffic. He started forward immediately, knocking down a pedestrian who was still in the crosswalk.

Could the motorist escape legal liability by blaming everything on the policeman?

The court said no. "The driver had a right to rely to some extent on the (policeman)," said the court, "but he had no right to abandon all care."

When you're not like yourself, Lydia Pinkham understands

All of a sudden you might feel like changing - not a good feeling. You're tired, edgy, out of sorts and that's not you. Lydia Pinkham understands.

A long time ago, when ladies couldn't be as frank as we can today, Lydia Pinkham recognized the problem and set about finding a remedy. She knew it was not natural for women to have to suffer with what was obviously a natural process.

So she turned to nature for a remedy. She developed a marvelous compound of medicinal roots and herbs that turned the trick for the women she knew. Because it is a natural answer to your natural problems, it can turn the trick for you, too.

Try Lydia Pinkham's root and herb remedy to help you feel better, more like yourself.

Meador Funeral Is Held In Peacock

James Herbert Meador, 67, longtime Peacock resident, died at 9:30 p.m. Thursday in Stamford Memorial Hospital after a long illness. Services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Peacock Baptist Church.

Officiating was the Rev. Charles Galloup, pastor, the Rev. James Wood and the Rev. Ronald Meador. Burial was in Double Mountain Cemetery at Peacock directed by McCoy Funeral Home.

Mr. Meador, a retired farmer was born June 4, 1907, in Kent County. He was the brother of C.H. Meador.

Survivors include his father, Bruce of Kent County Nursing Home; four brothers, Joe, A.B., and Leroy, all of Peacock, and Troy of Abilene; and one sister, Mrs. Juanita Moorehead of Peacock.

Pallbearers were G.A. Bradford, Don Nail, Howard Clements, Artie Boydston, Carl Dickerson and John McNutt.

Don Rinker Enters Osteopathic School

Donnie Lee Rinker, son of Mrs. Elsie Rinker of Jayton, has begun his education in osteopathic medicine as a student-doctor enrolled at Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine, Fort Worth.

A '65 graduate of Jayton High School, Rinker received his B.S. degree from Texas Tech University where he made the dean's list in 1972. He was employed at Lubbock Osteopathic Hospital prior to enrolling at TCOM.

Richer and his wife, Elizabeth, are expecting their first born child in October.

TCOM, in its fifth year of operation, graduated its first class of osteopathic physicians in June.

EMPLOYEE GARDENS - BEFORE . . . AND AFTER

The picture above shows a strip of farm land in Pennsylvania which Rodale Press, the magazine publisher, decided to offer to those of its employees without garden space of their own. The company paid to plow the land, and divide it into 25 plots. The rest was up to the employees - to do with as they wished. RCA, near Princeton, New Jersey, provided similar facilities to its employees.

Pictured above is the same piece of ground photographed from the same angle several months later, and the experiment was considered a huge success. Other companies can do the same without much cost or effort - and it's a benefit the employees really appreciate. All it takes is a piece of spare ground, and a responsible leader with the enthusiasm to supervise the project.

The most famous community garden system in the world is undoubtedly that practiced in Great Britain, where tens of thousands of people rent garden plots from local authorities, corporations and nationalized industries in order to grow bountiful harvests of fresh vegetables and beautiful flowers.

In America it is estimated that 30,000,000 more people would garden if they had the land, and recent surveys have shown that there is a tremendous interest among these people in community gardens.

Community gardens are also popular in Holland, Germany, Denmark and France. Many not only have an area for growing vegetables, but they include lawns and flower beds, plus a small summerhouse for relaxing.

September is the second chance for gardeners to plant food for the table. You can plant many of the cool-season vegetables such as cabbage, collards, mustard and spinach for harvest before cold weather. Even early summer crookneck squash will make a crop before frost.

Fall planting is just as important for bulbs and cool season grass planting as for vegetables and hardy flowers from seed.

September is the earliest of our bulb-planting months. Tulips, narcissus, hyacinths and Dutch Iris appear then in garden stores, catalogs, and magazines. Plan and plant now, and your spring will be brighter for the effort.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,

My husband works for a chain store company and he has just been transferred to another town. He says it is a promotion and he will get more money but we are all heart broken. We have made such good friends here and our teenagers hate to leave their school and their companions. Do you think it would be better for him to refuse the new job or should we simply pack up and leave?

Worried--N.C.

Answer:

It is a distressing thought to be moving from place to place every few years but sometimes it has its compensations. You get to make new friends and learn to adapt yourself to different kinds of situations. And, if you do stay in a place for a few years, that you don't care for you have the opportunity of leaving after a while.

You are lucky, in that the school year has been completed and the children will be able to start the next year at the beginning of the term.

If your husband is working for a big organization it will pay you in the end to accept promotion although it upsets your daily routine. If you dislike that kind of life he should try and find another kind of job.

Louisa.

Reddy's consumer tips on ... lighting

Edison's light bulb has come a long way since it first lit up the night in 1879. Today, lighting is such a natural part of our lives we hardly give it a thought. But the fact is, the more choice we have in how we can use light, the more attention we should pay to how we buy and use light bulbs and lighting fixtures. Put a little more light in your life by following Reddy's money-saving, energy-conserving lighting tips.

CARE FOR LIGHTING EQUIPMENT

Dust and dirt alone cause substantial losses in the amount of light produced. Systematic cleaning is important. Clean lamp bulbs (when they are cool) with a damp cloth.

Check frequently for defective cords or plugs. Replace or repair them immediately if they are faulty.

LESS IS MORE

Generally, you'll get more light for your money if you use the least amount of bulbs that give the light you need. For instance, one 100-watt bulb gives more light than three 40-watt bulbs—and costs about one-third less to buy and replace.

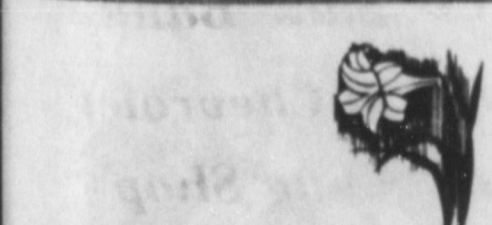

READ THE LABEL

Speaking of "lumens," you'll find that all light bulbs have three ratings on their packaging. Lumens tell you what the light output or performance of the bulb is. "Watts" tell you how much electricity is needed to produce that light, and "bulb life" is the estimated length of time it will take the filament inside the bulb to burn out. When brightness is more important than bulb life—for reading, studying or working—choose the "standard" life bulb that gives you the most lumens for its wattage.

Remember, Reddy supplies the energy, but only you can use it wisely!

WASH., D. C.

Few people who have observed public transportation systems in our large cities would argue that they do not have problems. Some systems are broken because operating expenses have priced them out of business, even with some paying high subsidies to keep it going. On May 20, 1974, the House of Representatives passed a Mass Transit Bill, the cost of which is $11,400,000,000 over a period of six years. Originally the bill had a $20 billion cost tag with a provision to subsidize states and cities up to 50% of their operating ### costs.

Under the threat of a veto, because of its contribution to inflation, an amendment was adopted reducing the total amount by almost half and reducing the Federal contribution to operating subsidies from 50% to one-third.

We ordinarily think of "lobbyists" as those trying to get something for special interests. Some of the lobbying efforts in behalf of this legislation was special interest such as equipment manufacturers, suppliers and consulting firms, but the most active was the American Transit Association, the Institute for Rapid Transit, the Amalgamated Transit Association, the National League of Cities, the U. S. Conference of Mayors, and the National Governor's Conference. These are pretty heavy guns and, as a result of their efforts, it was difficult to even reduce the $20 billion called for in the bill.

One of the big catches in the operating subsidy is that every Session of Congress over the next six years efforts will be made to increase subsidy payments to the cities since it is an invitation to let operating costs in the way of union demands and other expenses continue to rise, expecting Federal funds to make up the difference in losses.

The bill as passed, is divided into categories of A, B, C, and D. The bulk of the $11.4 billion will go to only nine cities, namely, Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Atlanta, Baltimore and Pittsburgh. Other large cities to become eligible under the formula must set up systems by meeting certain defined Federal requirements. When they do so, further legislation will probably be proposed in order that they also share in these Federal handouts as if the Federal Government had the money to do it.

There is also a carrot held out for smaller towns and rural communities should the Secretary of Transportation decide they are doing the things necessary to qualify. These things "necessary" are rather vague and it would appear that it would be a day considerably in the future before any small towns or cities, much less rural areas, would share in this Federal legacy.

One of the strongest arguments of the supporters of the legislation was that the Federal Government had responsibility to help build and operate city transportation systems because of restriction places on the use of private automobiles in many areas. Notably, this measure for the first time establishes the principle of operating subsidies which, it is fairly safe to predict, will have no end.

Incidentally, it would have been strange for the casual observer to note that the sum of $14 million for a rail crossing project in Hammond, Indiana was included to be paid out of the Highway Trust Fund. The explanation is rather simple. The Chairman of the Rules Committee happens to be from Hammond, Indiana, and is a favored figure because of his position in the House of Representatives.

There is an old adage, that politicians pay their debts. No greater example of this was seen this week, when President Ford announced a complete and absolute pardon to Richard Nixon for any crime he may have committed while serving as president.

This is the pay off from Ford to Nixon for having appointed him vice president, and making it possible for him to ascend to the highest office in the nation.

However, this may prove to be one of the most expensive things Ford ever does while President. With this act he forever lost his new image as "Mr. Clean." Also, never can he honestly crusade for law and order, good government, or anything like that, knowing that he has established two codes of government -- one for Richard Nixon, and the other for the rest of the nation.

He is fast committing political blunders, that if continued will leave him with few friends. He angered all real Republican conservatives when he appointed Nelson Rockefeller vice president. Time after time, after time, Republicans had the opportunity to vote for Rockefeller in the primaries, and each time they passed him by. Now Ford palms him off on the party. Influential men, like Goldwater and Reagan may make this an expensive move for Ford.

Also, if he intends to get any stray Democrats, and he must have them to ever be elected president, he picked a poor way of doing it by exempting Nixon from even being tried for wrongdoing.

momentarily forgot this when he closed the door against prosecution and trial for Nixon.

Almost all political observers thought Ford would at some point in the game set Nixon free, but none thought he would be so brash as to do it at this point.

You know, they have been talking about the honeymoon. It just could have come to an end Sunday.

Without advertising, you can wave goodbye to the comic strips, the sports page, and the front page of your newspaper.

And maybe your own job.

Think about it. Advertising pays for the features and the news that your newspaper brings to you so economically. Companies that want to tell you about their products, their sales, and their unique services pay for the space to advertise and that pays for most of the newspaper.

If these companies were suddenly deprived of their right to advertise -- to communicate with their customers -- you can be sure sales would drop. If sales drop, production slows and ultimately people lose jobs. And if certain Texas companies could possibly be ordered not to advertise, who would be next? Maybe your company?

The next time you think about advertising, think about free speech and the right of one person to communicate with another. It's all the same thing.

Write Governor Dolph Briscoe, State Capitol, Austin, Texas 78711 and your legislators to tell them how you feel. Then sit back and enjoy your newspaper.

Advertising is everybody's business.

Football Contest

 FIRST PLACE      SECOND PLACE      THIRD PLACE

Join the fun. Guess the winners. Nothing to buy. Just circle the teams you think will win, fill in your name and address, and bring it to the Chronicle office, or get it into the mail before 5 p. m. Friday. Everyone is eligible except employees of the Jayton Chronicle, and members of their families.
 Use this from here in the paper. Come by the office and we will give you a free form. Or, write it out on a piece of paper, in the same order as printed here, and that will do. The editor of the Jayton Chronicle is the sole judge as to the winner. In the case of tie, the amount will be shared. Be sure and mark the tie breaker score, which we will use in an attempt to break the tie. That is all there is to it, and you have a lot of fun. This contest is sponsored by the firms listed on this page. They are supporting the Jayton Jaybirds, Champions, all the way.
