

Answers Sought On Haskell Postal Service

NE COMEDY Country' column of this newspaper Friday morning, after your publisher with Haskell's Representative, in Washington, conversation, Bill assman Burleson is a progressive that believes in the progress of Texas, and desires the chance to retain its identity and prove this is so. He further assured him that Haskell is not a town that sits and waits until an insurmountable hurdle is put before them before banding together and seeking an answer; instead we look into the future and gauge the economics of problems that hover, and take positive steps to avert them. It is our firm belief that within the next ten years, the small towns of Texas will come into their own, and be a great part of the successful economy of our state. Due to the congested residential areas of our great cities in Texas and their pollution and population problems, the small towns are perhaps the one answer they seek to the problems. Not in a big population growth in the small towns, so much as in the economics of those problems. Our local Postal employees are doing a great job in handling the volume of mail that goes through our facility. We are proud to commend them for the excellent job they do in handling this volume, even though there are fewer employees than in the past, at our office. What happens to our mail after it leaves this office is entirely out of their hands. It is for this reason that we inquired into the problem, and the following letter is the one received Tuesday, January 23th. Please notice its postmark: January 22, 1971 Hon. Walter D. Harris

Congressional Liaison Officer Post Office Department Washington, D. C. 20260 Dear Walter: I continue to receive complaints relative to the poor mail service being experienced in my area. Residents of Haskell, Texas, are contacting me concerning this and also express concern that they may lose their postmark on mail out of the Haskell Post Office. The loss of a town's postmark is the first step toward the loss of identity for the town and local protests of this are well warranted. Apparently under a new arrangement mail now will go to Abilene, to Wichita Falls and then back to the smaller towns in the vicinity of Haskell. I am advised that in the case of newspapers mailed by the local paper at Haskell on Wednesdays that they are not received until Friday, Saturday, or sometimes the following Monday. Patrons of the Haskell Post Office have already experienced reductions in service such as no parcel delivery on Saturdays, the closing of one window at times, etc. You know, of course, that a Subcommittee of the Post Office and Civil Service Committee is conducting an investigation into the deterioration of rural mail service. It is my understanding that most of the fact finding has been completed and that this will be pursued as soon as the Committee is organized. This would certainly indicate that something is drastically wrong with a service which previously was adequate. I will deeply appreciate it if you will be kind enough to see that consideration is given to retaining the Haskell Postmark on mail out of that Office, as well as any action which might be taken to avoid the delays being experienced in deliveries. Sincerely yours, Omar Burleson

New Manager Assumes Duties At Perry's

Effective as of Tuesday, January 26, Johnny Bell assumed duties as manager of Perry Brothers Variety Store in Haskell, replacing Dale Lawrence who has managed the local store for the past two and one-half years.

Bell has been associated with Perry's for some four years and he and his wife, Betsy, and one son, Johnny Wayne, who moved to Haskell from Cuero, are residing at 1408 N. Avenue L. They are members of the Baptist Church.

Lawrence, who has been very active in civic affairs while residing in Haskell, has been transferred to Hereford.

Federal Land Bank Reduces Interest Rate

Joe Harper, Manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Haskell, received word today that The Federal Land Bank of Houston has reduced the interest billing rate on variable rate loans to 8%. "This reduction affects more than 90 million dollars of variable rate loans to more than 2800 farmers and ranchers throughout Texas," Harper stated.

The variable rate loan plan which was introduced by the Houston Bank in July 1969 lets the interest rate "float" over the variations in the money market. In large measure, therefore, the rate in any specific year will reflect the changes in prices which the Bank must pay for the money it makes available for farm mortgage loans. Mr. Harper pointed out that this action is in line with the Bank's policy in providing farmers and ranchers credit at the lowest possible cost consistent with sound business practices.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes long term real estate loans on farm and ranch lands throughout Texas. On January 1st of this year, the Bank had over $329 million in volume of loans outstanding.

The local association makes and services loans in Haskell, Jones, Baylor & Knox Counties. Members of the local board of directors are O. G. Lewis, E. H. Burnett, J. P. Jones, Ralph Howe, Weldon Walker, and J. E. Nix.

Expansion, Improvement Studied By Local Hospital

Plans for the expansion of and improvements to the Haskell Memorial Hospital are being studied by the Board of Directors of the Hospital District. The directors are also studying methods to finance the proposed expansion and bodily-needed improvements.

Also being studied by the Board is the urgent need for additional revenue for the operation and maintenance of the hospital.

A 16-bed hospital was built in 1939 and expanded to 30 beds in 1952 nearly 20 years ago, and no major improvements have been made nor has it been expanded.

The citizens of the county voted on November 11, 1967 to create a Hospital District to be supervised by a six-member Board of Directors.

The hospital was operated by the county, under the supervision of the Commissioners' Court until 1968 at which time the Board of Directors took over its supervision.

Haskell Memorial Hospital Board members, E. O. Morgan of Rule, president; John Payne, Haskell, secretary; John Tibbits, of Rochester; Dan Grif fifth of Paint Creek; Eddie Sanders of Weinert; O. E. Linton, of Haskell and Administrator Alfred Turnbow several months ago approved in their minutes to build an addition to the hospital and designated it as "Phase 1."

The expansion and modernization project will include enlarging offices and lobby, a large room for medical records, new and modern bathroom facilities, air conditioning, heating, office and lobby furniture, three new rooms on the north side, plus nursery, etc.

Additional information will be carried in the future issues of the Haskell Free Press.

SLIGHTLY INJURED Kay Emerson, of Midland, was slightly injured here Sunday afternoon during the Barrel Races at the James Powell Arena. Her attending physician said she received only bruises and was treated at the emergency room of the Haskell Memorial Hospital and was dismissed.

Katharyn Duff Speaks To C

"We must refine our cultures... lift our horizons... feel our responsibilities... civically... we must be world citizens and move our philosophies into the 21st Century," summarized Katharyn Duff, as she spoke to members and guests of the Progressive Study Club Thursday evening.

Biting into the history of her beloved "Big Country" with teeth sharpened to a fine point on her study of the rough edges of its beginnings, she showed the roots of our heritage factually and entertainingly.

Haskell County history was traced from its first "Road to Ruin Saloon and Church", to its founding by either Standifer or Tucker, according to the sources you rely on.

The "Page One" columnist for the Abilene Reporter News spoke proudly of the cultures of our part of Texas, and often quoted Robert Nail, author and producer of the "Albany Fandangle" until his recent death. She stressed the need for updating our way of life to cope with modern trends in growth and progress, and left her audience a little prouder of their heritage and a little more determined to band together for more pride in their hometown and challenged to feel their civic responsibilities.

In a short business meeting, club president Mrs. W. V. Felker presided. Mrs. Howard Perry gave a delightful reading of "Prayer of a New Mother in Law." The club elected the following officers for the new club year:

President, Mrs. R. C. Couch, Jr.; first vice-president, Mrs. Abe Turner; second vice-president, Mrs. Charles McCauley; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank Martin; treasurer, Mrs. Patrick Henry; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Tommy McAdams; historian, Mrs. Bill Holden; and board member, Mrs. W. V. Felker.

Mrs. Felker reported on her attendance at the Anson work shop last week. C. Richardson was Haskell's "Farming Junior representative." Charles McCauley, as the representative of the Junior knitting club, produced the guest so reported on the arship selection. District awards to arship to a dozen and Haskell's em Beverly Hill.

Rotary Club Members Hear Judge Chapman

Members of the Haskell Rotary Club met at the City Cafe at noon, Thursday, January 21, with president Bob Herren presiding for the luncheon meeting. Invocation was given by Andy Anderson and the singing led by H. V. Woodard, with Gail Barnett, providing accompaniment. One out-of-town guest, Pat Carhart of Amarillo, was introduced by C. A. Thomas, Jr. Program chairman for the day, Ferrell Coston, introduced Judge Ben Charlie Chapman who discussed proposed changes in the Texas Penal Code. Using as a reference a copy of the proposals to change the Penal Code after 114 years, Judge Chapman was emphatic in stating that some of the changes could be good but that many of them were absurd. He further stated, "if the changes were made it would cost members of the bar untold millions of dollars to present their references up to date. His presentation was highly educational and most enlightening as he read excerpts from the manual, some of which had a most amusing aspect to the layman. Frankly, Judge Chapman stated, "If there are any changes necessary, the Legislature can make them and not leave the job to professors of law who perhaps have never tried a case in court." All of the legal knowledge in our state is certainly not confined to the cities but that is the impression some would like to present, he added. A short question and answer period was held at which time numerous questions were asked by Rotarians. "Prexy" Herren announced that the new meeting hall for the club-sponsored Boy Scout Troop was ready and that they should be commended for providing the new facilities for them. Program chairman for today's meeting, January 28, is Brooks Middleton with Charlie Conner to serve in that capacity next week.

J. C. Yeary Lions Speaker Tuesday Noon

J. C. Yeary, District Conservationist, USDA Soil Conservation Service, spoke to members of the Lions Club Tuesday noon concerning "Facts About Resource Conservation and Development Projects." Danny Tolison was program chairman for the day. "Resource Conservation and Development Projects help people to take better care of their natural resources, and at the same time, improve their community's economy," Yeary said. "The RC&D projects include eleven counties in this area and should be big enough to permit developing the natural resources for economic improvement and community betterment, but small enough that local leadership can prepare and carry out the project plan," Yeary said. In RC&D projects all interests in the area... rural, suburban, and urban... work together. These are self-help projects. Local people get them going and run them. People working together plus teamwork between public agencies assisting the people makes for a successful RC&D project. Darold Roberson was introduced as a new member at the Tuesday noon-day session. "Prexy" Troy Culpepper presided over the meeting. Charles Thornhill led the singing, with Suzanne Thomas at the piano and the invocation was voiced by Jimmy Owens. Jackie Wilcox; 7. Mark Hager; 8. HASKELL YOUNG MAN IS SERVING IN PEACE CORPS

GENE HESTER

Word was received this week that Gene Hester, son of Mrs. Ed Hester of Haskell and the late Ed Hester, will be teaching the first grade in Papar, Sabah, East Malaysia for the next two years, in the second largest primary school in the state of Sabah.

Gene was sworn in to the Peace Corps on December 9th in Johor Bahru, west Malaysia. He had been studying and doing his practice teaching in Maktab Teachers College there for three months, in math and science. Here he was assigned four classes a day of practice teaching, five days a week. He also had to attend three hours of language classes (Bahasa, Malaysia), two hours of technical studies, one hour of cross culture and also had to prepare lessons for the next day. This was changed some for you see this could not possibly have been done. Prior to this, he had over three weeks of language study, eight hours a day, seven days a week in Pangkor Island.

Gene says he has enjoyed receiving letters from home of other people, other than his family. He said he had been so busy with the language studies that he hadn't had time to be homesick, but that didn't mean he didn't miss his family and friends. "It is nice to know someone is thinking of you when you are so far from home," he continued.

Gene is a native of Haskell, having been born here and is a 1966 graduate of Haskell High School.

He graduated from Midwestern University, Wichita Falls in 1970, receiving a B.A. degree in art, and was cheerleader at Midwestern in 1968-1969 and president of the Sigma Mu Fraternity 1969-1970. He was also a member of Circle K.

Hester left Haskell August 18, 1970 to go to San Jose, California for a personal interview with the Peace Corps. He left California, December 30, and went to Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia for training. He spent three and one-half weeks of high intensity language training (HILT) on Pangkor Island, eight hours a day.

Gene had a field attachment in Kampang Awah near Temerloh for a week of observation. Then on October 5th he went to Johor Baru Teacher's College for further language and technical training and practice class room teaching.

Gene said that one of the most interesting things which had happened to him was the day he was a guest in the home of the American Ambassador and his family at Kula.

Gene began his school term on January 4th in Papar, 30 miles south of Kola Kinabalu, Capital of Sabah in East Malaysia on the Island of Borneo. He will teach in the Malay language at the National School in Papar, Eskalah Rendah Kebangsaan Pekan Papar.

For those who might like to write to Gene, his address is: Che Gu Gene Hester, Sekolah Rendah Kerajaan, Box 50 Papar Sabah, Malaysia Timor

Of course no one is out shopping at that time of the day, but many persons (more than you realize) are 'eyeballing' as they pass by the stores on foot, or in their vehicles. I'm sure it's none of this scribe's business to tell the friendly merchants of Haskell when to turn on or turn-off their lights... But I do want to commend those three or four merchants for the 'bright look' in downtown Haskell in the early morning hours.

Two big 'Possums were found in the floor furnace at the Prattler's home, last fall, when we were getting the furnace ready for the winter season. Several other persons have remarked to this scribe that 'Possums have been seen in their neighborhood.

When you promised to share and share alike, did that mean your wife could use up all the hot water?

You could get up earlier. Then you'd be sure to beat her to it. Of course she wouldn't be too impressed with your chivalry.

Another alternative is a larger gas water heater. Gas water heaters are easy to buy, easy to install, and recover hot water up to twice as fast as comparable electric models.

So stop competing with your better half. Get a larger capacity hot water heater. For fewer fights and lots more hot water.

Mrs. Johnston Passes State Board Exam

The directors of Rice Springs Care Home, Inc., J. C. Lewis, Dr. William J. Kemp, E. R. Carpenter and R. E. Colbert, M. D., announced that Corbie P. Johnston, Administrator of the Home, has successfully passed the Texas State Board Examination for licensing of nursing home administrators and now holds a Professional License in Nursing Home Administration. She was one of the first four administrators in the Big Country Chapter to receive her state license.

Mrs. Johnston has served as administrator for seventeen years, seven of which have been with Rice Springs Care Home, all homes being licensed in her name.

The state recognizing nursing homes as a "Big Business" and a necessary part of the professional field, made changes in the state law effective July 1, 1970, that all Nursing Home Administrators pass a state board examination and be licensed as professional administrator by July 1, 1972 or they could no longer serve in this capacity.

Mrs. Johnston serves as preceptor for Ruth Ann Klose, Assistant Administrator of Rice Springs Care Home and is also preceptor for Doyle Graham of Brazos Valley Care Home in Knox City.

State-Wide Program To Increase Agriculture Income Is Underway

The state-wide program to increase agricultural income in Texas to $3.76 billion in 1976 is admittedly geared to help the agriculture industry; but what about the consumer, the housewife in the grocery store?

"Consumers are concerned with an assurance of an adequate food supply; and 3.76 in '76 is a program of growth," says Dr. W. E. Black, Extension economist at Texas A&M University. He adds that the new program is important because the increasing population must be fed on a decreasing amount of land used for agricultural production.

"Guidelines in the program are meant to increase production and improve quality," Dr. Black says of the project; which seeks to increase cash receipts to agriculture by one billion dollars at the end of the 1976 crop year.

The increase in production and cash receipts will benefit the consumer as well as the producer. Food prices will undoubtedly be affected by an increased efficiency in production and marketing as costly practices in current use are improved or eliminated.

The technology in production and food preparation will be reflected in food prices; although the price of individual items will also be affected by the amount of preparation before purchase by the consumer. This would include special services such as pre-cooking and specialty packaging.

Farmers will gear their production to specific markets that are dictated by the consumers' preferences. This in turn will provide consumers with higher quality foods in greater amounts at stable prices.

Haskell County Judge, B. O. Roberson has proclaimed this week, January 25-29, as "3.76 In '76 Week" in Haskell County and is calling upon all citizens to join in this observance and to dedicate their efforts to the achievement of its objectives.

Representative Renal B. Rosson Named Chairman

House Speaker Gus F. Mutscher announced the appointment of State Representative Renal B. Rosson of Snyder as Chairman of the House Committee on Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

Rosson is one of only five House members who will serve as both a Chairman and a Vice-Chairman of House Standing Committees. The Judiciary Committee will have Rosson as its Vice Chairman; he served on that Committee during the 61st Legislature. The Speaker said that he also asked Rosson to serve on the Conservation and Reclamation Committee and to be a member of the Committees on Public Education and Criminal Jurisprudence. At the beginning of this Session, Mutscher chose the Snyder lawmaker to chair the Temporary House Committee on Rules.

Rootin', Tootin', Shootin' Wooten To Compete In Trapshoot Tourney

Nearly a thousand sports shooters from across the nation are converging on Las Vegas, Nevada, for Del Webb's 24th annual Mid-Winter Trapshooting Tournament scheduled to begin at the Mint Club February 2.

Haskell's rootin', tootin', shootin' Wallace Wooten will compete in the big event.

The week-long tourney, offering more than $33,000 in prize money and trophies, annually attracts top amateur and professional sportsshooters from every region of the nation.

The six-day contest will feature events beginning with an introductory 100-target shoot-off, Tuesday, February 2, and will conclude with the giant Del Webb Handicap event Sunday, February 7th.

The Mint Gun Club has spiced the purse by donating more than $10,000.00 in added money to the seven events. And to make competition more interesting, an additional $12,000.00 will be divided among three giant jackpot purses during the three final days of competition.

This year's North American Grand Champion, Dan Orlich of Reno, Nevada is among the top contenders for prize money along with 10-year All-American champion, Larry Gravestock of Wichita Falls, Texas.

On the women's side of the competition, Nadine Latic of Seattle, Washington is the person to beat. Miss Latic is currently the top ranked lady trapshooter in the United States.

Among the many top shooters competing for prize money is Paul Syphus, casino manager at the Mint Hotel. He is the current president of the Nevada chapter of the American Trap Association and is the winner of three singles and doubles championships throughout the west.

In the professional ranks, Bob Oxen of Detroit, Michigan is expected to take many of the laurels.

Howard Kaster, Mint Gun Club manager, said early entries indicate that the Mid-Winter Trapshoot will be the western United States' trap shoot of the year. He also commented that this year's shoot will be the toughest for competitors since new "interrupter traps" will be used during the entire tournament.

"The newly designed interrupters guarantee the element of surprise to every competitor," Kaster commented, "since it is impossible to determine which direction the device will throw the target."

Kaster said the large amount of prize money and trophies is expected to create more keen competition than ever before.

SEE HOW THEY RUN

See how they run in the frustrating slogan from many panty hose wearers. But help may be on the way, says Barbara Elliott, County Home Demonstration Agent.

The major hose makers plan to adopt standardized charts this winter. Eventually, any woman who knows her correct weight and height can count on a proper fit.

Hose producers also speculate that uniform sizing will prevent runs that often result in ill-fitting hose.

Air pollution is another enemy of hose. In foggy or especially damp weather mixed with smog, women's hosiery develops excessive holes and runs.

To insure good performance for hosiery now on the market, proper care is important. Care begins with care of feet and legs. Rough heels or toe nails that are too long can snag or run your hose.

ON DEAN'S LIST

A student from Haskell has been named to the dean's list at Howard Payne College, Brownwood for superior scholastic achievement during the fall semester of 1970.

The student is Ben Melton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Melton of Haskell. At Howard Payne, Ben is a senior who is majoring in Elementary Education.

To make the dean's list a student must make no grade lower than a "B" and must have a grade point average ranging from 3.65 to 3.99. He also must have taken a minimum of 12 semester hours of course work.

Laundry hose often, using mild soap suds and rinsing well. Roll in a towel and gently squeeze or remove excess water. To dry, hang hose on a smooth rod or use clothespin type hangers. Double back legs over the rods to prevent stretching from weight of water.

To launder by machine, use the gentle or delicate wash cycle. It is wise to use a nylon mesh bag to hold panty hose. Never use chlorine bleach.
